On Thursday evening the local medical fraternity met in solemn conclave in the Ontario Bank chambers. Two most important matters were discussed, that of the adoption of a schedule of prices, and contract work.

In respect to this former the physicians decided to adopt a new schedule of charges, but the officers of the society were instructed not to furnish copies of the schedule to the press at the present time, the reason being that it was hardly complete, some additions having to be made to it.

In discussing the question of contract work, it was decided that after January 1st, 1906, no doctor in this association would accept such work. This means that after that date, lodges, factories, insurance companies, etc., will have to make some new provision to have their work done. Nearly all the large factories in town, and a majority of the lodges, have arrangements made with doctors by which their employees or members, as the case may be, an given medical attention for a certain lump sum each year.

It is felt by the doctors that this system is an injustice, both to those who accept the contract to do this work, and the other doctors, interfering as it does in many cases with the practice of having a family doctor.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

[1] At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

[2] If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

[3] If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

[4] If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses [2] [3] or [4] must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 80 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd of June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Offices in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba; or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

N. B.—In addition to Free Grant Lands, to which the Regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from railroad and other corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

Before Treatment.

After Treatment.

He was surprised at how the sores healed—I took your New Method Treatment for a serious blood disease with which I had been afflicted for twelve years. I had consulted a score of physicians, taken all kinds of blood medicine, visited Hot Springs and other mineral water resorts, but only got temporary relief. They would help me for a time, but after discontinuing the medicines the symptoms would break out again—running sores, blotches, rheumatic pains, looseness of the hair, swellings of the glands, palms of the hands scaling, itchiness of the skin, dyspeptic stomach, etc. I had given up in despair when a friend advised me to consult you, as you had cured him of a similar disease 8 years ago. I had no hope, but took his advice. In three weeks' time the sores commenced to heal up and I became encouraged. I continued the New Method Treatment for four months and at the end of that time every symptom had disappeared. I was cured 7 years ago and no signs of any disease since. My boy, three years old, is sound and healthy. I certainly can recommend your treatment with all my heart. You can refer any person to me privately, but you can use this testimonial as you wish.

GERMAN FLEET FOR SWEDEN'S WATERS

Consternation in the Troubled Council of Sweden

WAR LORD'S COUP D'ETAT

While not a Hostile Act the Swedes Fear it may Portend Undue Exercise of German Influence

Stockholm, July 15.—Consternation prevails throughout the country over the sudden announcement that a German armada, consisting of twelve battleships, eleven cruisers and ten torpedo boats, will make a demonstration at five different points in Swedish waters between July 20 and August 1.

Gothenberg and Oddevalla will be visited on the west and Stockholm, Karlstrom and Norrkoping on the East. No foreign fleet of such proportions ever came to Sweden before. The disposition of the squadrons will amount to a blockade of the entire Swedish coast. It is not too much to say that this unexpected and unsolicited visit of the Kaiser's navy, while not considered a hostile act excites astonishment bearing on alarm.

ALL AT A LOSS.

Nobody, not even the government officials are able to offer an explanation. The newspapers refrain from comment because, as editors confidentially inform your correspondent, of their astonishment at this outbreak of William's favorite policy of surprise and mystification.

If he intends it as a token of friendship, it is asserted that he has overdone it, and that he ought to have chosen a more amiable and less disquieting form of amity than girdling Sweden with a formidable cordon of battleships. Stockholm was aroused last night by the roar of salutation guns in the inner harbor.

When the smoke cleared the German coast defence cruiser Aigen was found anchored near the palace, having arrived without notice notwithstanding that Stockholm ten days ago was officially declared a war harbor and inaccessible to foreign men of war.

Swedish susceptibilities are further injured by the information that the German general staff has detailed officers to investigate the state of military preparations in Sweden and Norway.

THE CONFERENCE.

The Stockholm Government is nervous lest foreign recognition of Norwegian independence be given before Sweden has formally dissolved the union.

King Oscar will invoke the influence of the Kaiser to prevent premature foreign action which would embarrass Sweden in dealing with the crisis. It is believed that William will give satisfying assurances and that he will also undertake that no Hohenzollern will accept the throne of Norway.

It is reported that an executive council of state held in the palace yesterday dealt with the reconstruction of the Ministry in obedience to the popular demand and resolved to exercise more governmental firmness toward Norway.

Mr. Jonas Stadling, the famous Sociologist, declares that the union crisis is tremendously augmenting both Swedish and Norwegian emigration to America.

AN ARMED UPRISING

PEACEFUL MEANS IN RUSSIA NO LONGER TOLERATED

Plans for a Revolution now Said to be Complete by Workingmen of the Empire

Berlin, July 15.—Tired of peaceful means the Russian special democratic workmen's party will organize an armed uprising against the autocracy.

A resolution to that effect will be adopted by the party at the third congress to be held at Munich soon.

The plan is as follows:

Groups of active socialists will be delegated to take charge of the different districts, with a view to instruct workmen on the practical methods of resisting troops and also in the political aims of the revolution. Energetic work for the arming of the people will also be undertaken.

Russia will possess two parties agitators, who will give the signal for revolution.

They will also arrange for simultaneous strikes which will be turned into revolutionary paths.

History and Production of the Goldfields of Boulder County, Colorado, Portraying Economic Conditions Which Predict the Coming Goldfields of Colorado and Presenting the Stock Offering of a Great Gold Mining Enterprise of the United States Gold Corporation

FREE

Our booklet on the gold fields of Boulder County is off the press, and is being distributed free to investors. We have prepared this book to advertise the gold fields of Northern Colorado and our great gold mining enterprise. The books will be free for the asking while they last. It will tell you of how over fifty millions have been added to the world's wealth in production of gold, silver and copper under primitive methods and from surface workings of an average depth of not to exceed 250 feet. It will tell you of its great tungsten belt, the largest in the world. It will tell you of the existence of a diversity of precious and rare minerals, unrivaled by any other gold fields on this continent. It will tell you of a mineral area of twenty-five square miles literally covered with a network of veins practically undeveloped, with only one shaft below the thousand foot and half a dozen below the six hundred foot level. It will tell you of a gold field nearer to the Denver smelters than any other in Colorado; of a change of economic conditions, in this section, which will enable the miner to ship ore to the smelters, at a net profit, that is now being thrown over the dumps in other sections of Colorado; it will tell you of a field so attractive that it resulted in the construction of two railways from one end of the field to the other. It will tell you of the substitution of modern and up-to-date mining methods, in place of the primitive ones of the past; in short, it will tell you of all those conditions which predict for the gold fields of Boulder County the coming gold fields of Colorado.

It will also tell you of our great gold mining enterprise in the western part of the gold fields of Boulder County, near the continental divide, where nature has deposited her largest and richest treasure vaults; it will tell you of our economic development tunnel, driven to drain and develop a mineral estate almost a mile long and half a mile wide; of the thousands of tons of gold ore now blocked out and ready for shipment in the five different veins cut by this tunnel in driving it eight hundred feet, the result of two years steady development work night and day; of our wonderful discovery of molybdenite—a rare metal—in large commercial quantities, foretelling for us the first molybdenite mine in Colorado that is producing, as well as a large and permanent source of revenue, of our project to drive this tunnel, long before the end of this year, into the famous Fourth of July dyke or "Mother Lode," from which the far famed Caribou group of mines produced twenty million dollars in gold, silver and copper from 1869 to 1893; of the tremendous possibilities for ore production which will follow the cutting of a mineral dyke from 50 to 100 feet wide at a depth of a thousand feet, and the great probability of our opening the first great copper mine in Colorado when we reach this dyke with the tunnel. In short, it will tell you of a gold mining enterprise that will go on a large producing basis long before the end of 1905; of an enterprise with possibilities second to none in Colorado, the developments of which have already shorn it of any element of risk or speculative features, rendering the investment offered safe and attractive one.

For the financial and commercial standing of the business men who stand back of this enterprise we refer you to the First National Bank, Boulder, Colo, or Bradstreets Commercial Agency

The edition will not last long. If you would be sure of securing a copy, write to-day, or your name and address on a postal card, with the word "Booklet," will do the work.

Child Run Over.

On Saturday evening a young man driving by the Post office corner, failed to either notice a little girl about 12 years of age, or could not stop his horse in time to prevent an accident. It seems that the child, standing on the corner of Water and Hunter streets, was looking at a man approaching on a bicycle, and, not noticing the horse coming from the opposite direction, until it was upon her, tried to dodge the wheelman, and was knocked down by the animal. One of the buggy passed over the little girl's head and it was feared at the time that results would be serious. The driver of the horse, assisted by a bystander, put the girl into his buggy and drove her to Dr. Carmichael's office, where the doctor attended to the case and had her conveyed to her home in the 5th Ward. By personal request we omit all names. The child last night was reported as doing well, and not severely injured. This is the second child injured in a similar manner at this corner within a month.

—Mr. D. Clifford King, of Detroit, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. McWilliams.

—Mr. G. E. Burrows, manager of the Trent Valley Woollen Mills, Campbellford, was in the city Saturday.

Rev. Dr. Herridge, pastor of St. Andrew's church, Ottawa, was in the city for a few hours Saturday morning.

—Mr. W. H. Moore and Mr. Robert Fair left on Saturday evening to spend a few days at Camp Lenid, on the shores of the Bay of Quinte.

—Rev. W. M. Mackay, assistant pastor of St. Paul's church, is spending three weeks' holidays at Stoney Lake and in the Muskoka district.

—Mr. C. Fessenden and his son, Capt. John Fessenden, have gone to the Bay of Quinte district, where they will spend some weeks at Camp Lenid.

—The following local citizens left on Saturday for the Lakes: Mrs. Robt. Lundy, Mr. Kenneth Pentland, Mr. John Sawyer, Mr. Geo. Morrow and the Misses Morrow.

—Mr. A. W. McPherson, formerly of the Collegiate Institute staff here, has successfully passed the examination of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario. Congratulations.

—Mr. William English, an extensive operator in the oil country of West Virginia, is in the city and paid The Times a friendly call. Mr English will remain in Peterboro for a few weeks, taking in the Kawartha and Rice Lakes. He will be joined this week by Mrs. English, who is now visiting friends in New York State.

—Mr. Edward Tighe, who, as noted in The Times, went to Panama some six weeks ago, to fill an important position as driller in the Canal construction corps, has come home. Yellow fever became epidemic in the locality where Mr. Tighe was employed and he states that he saw many men laid low from this terrible disease. He considered it advisable to leave. Mr. Tighe says that even our present warm weather is delightful as compared with the miasmatic damp climate of Panama.

Mr. Wm. Bowman in the City

Mr. William Bowman, an old Peterboro boy, arrived in the city on Saturday from Charleston, Ont., 12 miles beyond the terminus of the Temiscaming Railroad. Mr. Bowman and his partner, Mr. G. Singer, have let contracts for building a store and outhouses there. They will operate a large general store at Charleston. Mr. Bowman met many Peterboro people, including Mr. Cameron, the surveyor, and his party. He corroborates the reports current about town, as to Mr. Cameron's party being upset and losing everything in their canoes. The Indian guides had some trouble in saving their lives. Mr. Bowman also met Mr. Percy Frise, the South African veteran, also a Peterboro boy, who is running a pack train between Hyslip's Corner and Charleston, and is doing very well. Mr Bowman will return to begin business about the middle of September, or as soon as his store is finished.

Oshawa Here Wednesday

The last home championship game of this district will be played on Wednesday afternoon, when the local twelve will do their greatest to trim the Oshawa bunch who defeated them on the earls part of the season. The Peterboros are playing fast and clean lacrosse and are out to win. Reports from Oshawa are to the effect that they are doing overtime in the Lakeshore town and are coming to win. It will be a strenuous game of lacrosse and will, no doubt, draw a large crowd of spectators.

COMES A TIME

When Coffee Shows What It Has Been Doing

"Of late years coffee has disagreed with me," writes a matron from Rome, N.Y., "It's lightest punishment was to make me 'logy' and dizzy, and it seemed to thicken up my blood.

"The heaviest was when it upset my stomach completely, destroying my appetite and making me nervous and irritable and sent me to my bed. After one of these attacks in which I nearly lost my life, I concluded to quit and try Postum Food Coffee.

It went right to the spot! I found it not only a most palatable and refreshing beverage, but a food as well.

All my ailments, and 'loginess' and dizziness the unsatisfactory condition of my blood, my nervousness and irritability disappeared in short order and my sorely afflicted stomach began quickly to recover. I began to rebuild and have steadily continued until now. Have a good appetite and am enjoying in sound health, which I owe to the use of Postum Food Coffee." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

"There's a reason.

JUST IN TIME.

A motorman in Chicago ran his car onto the approach of an open bridge but stopped it with the fender actually overhanging the gulf below. He wouldn't want to repeat the experiment because the chances are that he'd never again have the same good fortune.

Once in a while some one who has traveled to the very edge of the danger line of stomach disease stops just in time to save his health. But the majority of people go across the line, and slight symptoms of indigestion grow to disease of the stomach, involving the other organs of digestion and nutrition.

Indigestion and other forms of stomach "trouble" are perfectly and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It strengthens the whole body by enabling the perfect digestion and assimilation of food.

$3,000 FORFEIT will be paid by the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Proprietors, Buffalo, N. Y., if they cannot show the original signature of the individual volunteering the testimonial below, and also of the writers of every testimonial among the thousands which they are constantly publishing, thus proving their genuineness.

"I have been suffering for about eight years," writes Mrs. H. Pierce, of Milspringa, Ky., "Have had several doctors to treat me—some for female weaknesses and others for stomach trouble, but received no relief. When I wrote you for advice I was hardly able to work, and you advised me what to do. I took nine bottles, five of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' four of 'Favorite Prescription,' also two vials of the 'Pellets.' Dr. Pierce's medicines will do all that you claim for them. Believe I would have been in my grave if I had not taken them."

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of customs and mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 50 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Serious Accident

Mary McMahon Knocked Senseless When Falling From a Dam.

On Friday evening what may still prove to have been a serious accident, occurred at the American Cereal Company's dam, the new one built by Contractor O'Toole. A child named Mary McMahon was crossing the river, and, instead of taking the bridge, went over the dam. When she got partly over, she stopped to watch a dog that was playing about, and, in some way, supposedly knocked off by the animal, fell from the dam into the river. It was currently reported on Saturday night that the child had been drowned or nearly so; this, however, was incorrect. In falling to the river, she struck her head on one of the logs floating below the dam and was rendered insensible for over three hours. Her mother, assisted by a friend, with some difficulty, succeeded in pulling the girl out of the water insensible, but before any quantity of water had entered either stomach or lungs. Her mother and friends carried the child at once to the residence of Mr. Matt Young, which is the building formerly occupied by the Dickson Company as their office.

Dr. McGrath was at once summoned and hurried to Young's house. The doctor, with some difficulty, succeeded in restoring consciousness, and advised that his patient be kept where she was for the night. Yesterday morning Dr. McGrath found the child sufficiently recovered to authorize her being taken home. Late last night the doctor reported her as being somewhat better, but still in a far from satisfactory condition, this blow sustained by falling from such a height and striking her head on so unyielding a surface, being dangerous.

The Large Cylinder Reloaded.

The huge cylinder, which was being shipped to the Lakefield Cement Works, to be used as a mixer, and while en route to the works rolled off the cars near the Smith street crossing, last week, was successfully reloaded last night, and will probably arrive at the Cement Works today. This massive mixer is 90 feet long and weighs in the neighborhood of 100 tons. It took the G.T.R. auxiliary from Lindsay and a gang of men, with the assistance of two engines, from early Sunday morning until late last night loading the cylinder. The cost of pulling the cylinder up the embankment and placing it on the cars will exceed $300. Throughout the day thousands visited the wreck and watched the progress of loading.

PURE MILK.

(To the Editor of The Times.)

Dear Sir,—An article appeared in your issue of the 15th inst., under the caption "Milk Inspection," which, to my the least, is rather misleading, and while it is of the utmost importance to guard the purity of the milk supply, still it is not fair to insinuate that the milk vendors of the city use the poisonous compound called, "Freezine" in the milk, when there is not a particle of evidence to sustain such a charge.

The article which, presumably, was written without your knowledge, is also weak on another point. It tells the public that there is no milk inspector in this city. Now ever since I took office I have carefully examined this milk every year, and for the past month I have been engaged in that work, and will be so engaged for some time to come. I have all the reagents for detecting any adulteration of milk, and any man who tampers with the purity of that article of food, may expect to get the highest penalty of the law. Still as far as my knowledge goes, the milk vendors of this city are honest men, and it is only British fair play to esteem a man innocent until he is found guilty. I may add that, as far as infectious diseases are concerned, Peterboro was never in a healthier condition.

J. BINGHAM,
Medical Health Officer.

Liverymen Crowded for Horses

When the street cars began a regular service in this city many people prophesied a speedy finish for the local livery men. The same class of false prophets, when the iron horse first appeared in England, said this business of horse raising would have to succumb before the competition of the railroads; it is well known that, now-a-days, the railroads themselves employ nearly as many horses for delivering and collecting freight, as were used in the whole country previous to the advent of this locomotive. On Saturday evening, Messrs. McCollum Bros., the Water street livery men, had to refuse several applicants for horses and conveyances, their large barn full of horses being all in use. This speaks well for the wealth and prosperity of Peterboro.

Police Court

OFFICIALS
Chief of Police, G.L. Reed
Magistrate, D.W. Saunders

Mr. Benj. Shortly is one horse ahead of the local police. He appeared at Saturday's Court to answer to a charge of allowing articles to hang over the pavement, contrary to the bylaw. The horse, which is used as a sign, was the principal thing objected to. The Magistrate dismissed the case and, in commenting on the bylaw, remarked that it was the spirit of the law and not the letter of the law that the police were seeking to carry out.

On Saturday evening, Revoy, the man who, in a mix-up, with Sullivan, his father-in-law-elect, bit Mr. Sullivan over the head, inflicting a serious wound, called at the Police Station and paid in $28.15. The amount imposed by the Magistrate. It is to be hoped that Love's Young Dream will be along the rose strewn paths of perfect felicity after this, without any more such strong arguments "butting in."

FRANCE AND ENGLAND SHOULD BE ALLIES

M. Delafosse, Well Known French Statesman, Gives His Reason

ASKS A DEFENSIVE ALLIANCE

It is Intimated That Delcasse Had In Hand Drafting of Such an Agreement

Paris, July 18.—Morocco negotiations continue to drag their way along. Continental newspapers still discuss the various phases of the subject at great length. During the last few days Paris papers have published a surfeit of German opinion by well-known and well-informed Germans as to what should be in the interest of France, the issue of the Franco-German conflict. It was time that some French politician who sperks on French politics with authority should be heard on the subject.

The Echo de Paris applied to M. Delafosse, a member of the Conservative Opposition, for many years one of the most generally respected members of the Chamber. His competency in foreign affairs is recognized on all sides. In parliamentary debates on foreign politics, M. Delafosse is usually the spokesman of the Right, but his treatment of foreign questions has invariably been characterized by statesmanlike views untainted by party considerations. German writers who have been contributing to the French press practically offer France no alternative but an alliance with Germany. M. Delafosse, who undoubtedly expresses the feelings of a great majority of his compatriots, is convinced that another alternative does exist—namely, a defensive alliance with England.

MOROCCO A PRETEXT

M. Delafosse begins by reminding the public that two months ago he pointed out from the Tribune of the Chamber of Deputies that Morocco was a mere pretext, and that the real cause of the difficulty was the rapprochement which had taken place between France and England, and that perhaps also the cracks that were to be heard in the edifice of the triple alliance. William II. does not wish France to become England's ally; in anticipation of the conflicts which he foresees he wishes France to remain at his side or behind him. Prof. Schiemann is authority for the statement that to him it appeared difficult for France to remain neutral in event of an Anglo-German war.

It appears to M. Delafosse that William II. does not leave France the freedom of choice; it was in order that France would know it that he went to Tangier, and it is in order to try and tear up the Anglo-French entente that he prompted the revising conference of the Sultan of Morocco.

A DEFENSIVE ALLIANCE.

M. Delafosse does not know whether it be true as has been stated, that M. Delcasse had in his portfolio a treaty of defensive alliance with England, but if such an alliance were offered to France he is of the opinion that it ought to be accepted, and that if it is still possible. France should hasten to conclude it, for it would be of value to her both in war and in peace.

In dealing with its advantages in case of war, M. Delafosse scouts the opinion of the pessimists who say that war would bring invasion and ruin.

What he regards as the evil consequences of the anti-national policy of the Bloc might easily be remedied and very little would suffice for the country and the army to recover their moral their patriotic fervor and their strength.

But, taking things at the worst, the share of England, who would fight with and for France, must be reckoned with. What would it be? Sure, absolute and unlimited victory, while remaining sovereign mistress of the conditions of peace. England would not content herself with destroying the German fleet. That would be the work of a day. She would closely blockade Germany, and that would amount to forced surrender. In order to understand this it must be remembered that Germany has become an industrial nation whose foreign trade amounts to thirteen or fourteen milliards of francs ($2,600,000,000 or $2,800,000,000). Her merchant navy and her commercial establishments extend to the whole world and that economic expansion of which British competition is dying provides food for her millions of work people.

GERMANY BLOCKADED.

Supposing that German industrial and commercial activity were to be paralyzed by blockade, that the merchant ships dared not put to sea, that factories and works were closed, having no markets for their products, there would be forced suspension of labor with distress and famine on all sides. How long would Germany resist such a trying test? She would be compelled in a few weeks to ask for mercy, and it would be France, even if herself defeated who or joint account with victorious England would dictate peace. Such were the chances in the event of war, if war were possible, and it was precisely because they were such that Germany would not run the risk. That was also an alliance with Great Britain was for France the best safeguard of peace. England might, if she chose, inflict that ordeal on Germany in defence of her own economic interests, but never would Germany, who reflected and was clear sighted gratuitously provoke it.

The rather indiscreet pressure of her diplomacy and the insolent language of her press were nothing but "bluff" intended to prevent an Anglo-French alliance. If the Germans knew it had been concluded their "bluff" would change into conciliation.

COMMENT OF LE TEMPS.

Commenting on the French note containing a complete analysis of the initial stage of the Morocco question so far as France is concerned, the Temps says:

"When people negotiate they must speak clearly and not indulge in verbiage. Morocco invited the powers to a conference. That is all right; but Morocco acted at the instigation of Germany. If it were to be urged that Germany is for nothing in it, that we must wait for the conference and let things take their course, it would not be sincere. In this whole affair there is a France-German difficulty and nothing else. It is consequently logical first of all to solve that difficulty. Germany diplomacy has affirmed its desire to apply a really conciliatory spirit to the negotiations opened by M. Rouvier The moment is at hand when she will hav the opportunity of suiting her actions to her words. France has taken the first step. It now behooves Germany to reciprocate. The note communicated weighed in the scales to the advantage of France. For the first time since pourparliers began they have an opportunity of seeing in Berlin that the friendly assurances given when they began were not valid assurances. That consideratoin, which is not of less importance for the future of Franco-German relations than for the settlement of the Moroccan affair, will not escape the perspicacity of the Germany chancellory."

M. CLEMENCEAU'S VIEWS.

M. Clemenceau, writing in the Aurora, says: "France and England can go to the conference only on condition of not having traps laid for them at every step. That is why M. Rouvier is quite right to ask Germany to be so good as to define the question for discussion. For whatever reason it may be, Germany is not particularly disposed to throw light on the subject. She incumbers her reply with conditions which would seem to be intended merely to complicate the problem and increase the difficulties. It may be disagreeable for her to analyze her frame of mind on paper. It is greatly to our interest to obtain from her an unchangeable text whereby we can ascertain exactly what her arguments are and in the precise form which she must be in a position to give them. When the two documents can be compared then will begin the difficult, but decisive part of the negotiations."

M'AULIFFE MAY BE RELEASED ON $7,000 BAIL

Toronto, July 17.—Bail for Patrick McAuliffe, now lying in Peterboro jail on a charge of murder, was granted by Mr. Justice Magee this morning. The amount fixed is $7,000.

The crime with which McAuliffe is charged is the murder of a Peterboro hotelkeeper last month. He was in a drunken brawl and struck the deceased who did not die until ten days latera. An autopsy disclosed the fact that the hotelman's liver was in a very bad state, and on this fact the defence rests. The theory of the Crown is that the blow was the direct cause of the death.

Young McAuliffe is very well thought of and neighboring farmers have come forward with offers to go bail. He will probably be released this afternoon.

At a late hour last night The Times communicated with Mr. Nesbitt, McAuliffe's present custodian, and was informed by him that though the proceedings had been taken yesterday in Toronto, no official notification or warrant for McAuliffe's release had, as yet reached him.—Ed. Times.

An Interesting Demonstration.

Mr. H. W. Beauclerk Will Deliver Four Lectures, Practically Illustrated of the Marconi System.

To-night the public will have a rare opportunity to see in actual operation the system and working instruments of a Marconi Wireless Telegraph set.

Mr. H. Wyndham Beauclerk, connected with the large financial operators, Messrs. Munroe & Munroe, New York, one of the most influential brokerage firms of the United States, is now in the city, and yesterday gave The Times a call. Mr. Beauclerk came to Peterboro in the interests of the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company, and will to-night give a most interesting lecture on the subject of the wireless system, in the Y.M.C.A. Hall. Never, perhaps since the introduction of steam, as a motive power has any invention in the world's history given such promise of a complete revolution in present economic conditions. Our readers are too well acquainted with the theoretical principles of wireless telegraphy to enter into details along this line, but at to-night's lecture, expert operators will exhibit and explain the workings of the wonderful Marconi system, by means of a complete set of Marconi instruments, such as are in use aboard the better class of trans-oceanic ships and international shore stations of the Marconi Company. Mr. Beauclerk, who is thoroughly conversant with both the theory and practical details of the Marconi wireless system, will enter fully into not only the limitless possibilities but the present actual doings of the company.

The members of the Board of Trade will attend to-night's meeting, and it is probable that a large audience, comprising our leading citizens will greet Mr. Beauclerk's address. The lecture will be given for four consecutive evenings, commencing to-night.

Mr. Finlay's Good Work

Has Been Successful in Getting Government Aid

Our attention has been called to an error which occurred in the issue of July 8th, of the Peterboro Examiner in which was given a list of the several amounts brought down in the Dominion estimates to the credit of County of Peterboro. Under the heading "Harbors and Rivers" appears the following:

Indian River, dredging at the Devil's Elbow, remote, $500. Crow Landing Wharf on south shore of Stony Lake, $1,500.

These amounts were looked after by East Peterboro's energetic representative, Mr. J. Finlay, M.P., and not by Mr. Hall, M.P., as stated in error by the Examiner. In addition to the above Mr. Finlay has also secured $1,450, for the building of a wharf at Burleigh Falls, Stony Lake. The $3,000 above referred to was originally got by Mr. Lang, ex-M.P., for East Peterboro, but had been dropped out and Mr. Finlay took the matter up again with the Government, by request from Mr. Lang, and succeeded in having the amount revoted.

Fingers Cut

Mr. Jas. Dunslow Had Two Finger Tips Cut Off.

Another of those painful accidents, attributable neither to negligence on the part of employer or employed occurred yesterday morning at the Canadian General Electric Works. Dunslow, a brother of the "Framey" Dunslow, who has but recently returned from a trip to the old country, and who had only a few days ago resumed a position previously held at the works, was the victim of a very painful accident. Whilst working at his bench, operating a machine, in some way Mr. Dunslow's hand was caught in the machinery, and the tips of two fingers cut off. The accident, although causing some considerable pain will not lay him off work for long.

Record Swimming.

Mr H. F. Strickland Swims the Nine Nine Miles Between Lakefield and Lift Lock in Five Hours.

All local records in the natorial art, in this district, were broken yesterday morning by Mr. H F. Strickland of Toronto, a gentleman well known and with many friends and relatives in this city and county, and by Mr. George H Corsan, also of Toronto. The two gentlemen came here from Toronto simply to perform this difficult, and rare feat of swimming nine miles without a rest, the course being from lock 2 at Lakefield to the lift lock.

At 10 o'clock yesterday morning the two gentlemen entered the water at lock 1 and reached the lift lock at 1.15 p.m. Both swimmers were in fine condition and on his arrival Mr Strickland assured a Times correspondent he could have gone another three or four miles. Mr. Corsan, however, feeling the cold left the water about a mile short of his intended terminus. Many people along the route watched this unusual swim against distance, and applauded the actors in the ambitious struggle; some 250 people, gathered in the vicinity of the lift lock, gave Mr. Strickland quite an ovation as he climbed aboard Mr. Roy's Rob Roy.

Although he had been induced by child to give up his attempt, after covering eight-ninths of the distance, Mr. Corsan gave an exhibition of life saving at the lock.

The swimmers reached lock 2 at 8.30, being helped materially the first mile and a half by the stiff current in this river. They were preceded by the yacht Rob Roy, and Messrs Dalforce and Marling of Lakefield in a canoe.

The boats and swimmers went through, instead of leaving the waters, at the intervening locks. Lock three was reached at 9.10, and lock four at 10 o'clock. Twenty-five minutes were wasted by the swimmers in passing through the different locks. At 1.15 Strickland got aboard the Rob Roy just at the the north end of the lift lock.

Strickland and Corsan used the powerful over-arm stroke practically the entire distance. Strickland has left side and the cuticle beneath the right arm is badly chaffed. As the sun was on his face all the way, his eyes suffered slightly. He states that the current in some parts was quite an assistance, particularly in the short stretch between locks four and five and also between locks two and three.

Mr. Corsan had not taken a meal since two o'clock on Sunday and this is considered by some as tending to slightly defective condition, although he is a splendid swimmer. Both men rubbed themselves thoroughly with olive oil before entering the water, thus protecting the pores of the skin against the effect of cold water. At each lock, as the water was let out, the men state that they found it of a lower temperature than in the undisturbed stretches of the different levels.

The swimmers took no stimulants of any kind and in fact advise against its use by athletes.

It is still recent history how Mr. Strickland swam across Toronto Bay a distance of one mile and a half. This he did in 50 minutes. Mr. Strickland is 35 years of age and was born in Peterboro, the son of Mr. W. R. Strickland, now of Toronto. He has a splendid physique and is somewhat heavier than his companion, who weighs about 150, while Strickland tips the scales at 178.

At Nassau, Strickland states that he took a slight cramp in each leg, but he overcame them by rubbing his limbs together.

Mr. Strickland and Mr. Corsan returned to Toronto by the 5.10 C.P.R. train yesterday evening.

Wireless Telegraphy

Mr. Hughes-Charles Writes Concerning Wireless Telegraph Lecture To-night.

(To the Editor of The Times)

Dear sir,—It will interest you and the citizens of Peterboro to know that the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company has made arrangements for a series of lectures to be given in our city, in the Lecture Hall, Y.M.C.A. building, the first of which will be given to-day, Tuesday, evening at 8 o'clock.

A complete set of apparatus such as in daily use in Trans-Atlantic work will be exhibited, together with other interesting items. Wireless telegraph promises to become so important a factor in the world's commerce that everybody should take advantage of this opportunity of familiarizing themselves with the same.

Mr. H. W. Beauclerk, of London, England, representing the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company will be present to explain this wonderful system.

Ladies are most cordially invited to attend.

No charge will be made for this lecture.

Mr. Beauclerk has honored the Board of Trade by consulting me with reference to the lecture. I need scarcely say that the members of the Board of Trade are earnestly requested to be present as this is the first and in all probability will be the last time, for several months at least that this interesting lecture will be given here. I feel sure that the general public will not permit this opportunity to pass without taking advantage of same. Yours truly,

D. HUGHES-CHARLES,
President Peterboro Board of Trade.
Peterboro, July 18th, 1905.

A Drowning Accident Last Evening.

Little Joseph Michean Drowned Near Street Railway Terminus

Yesterday evening little 13-year-old Joseph Michean, son of Mr. Michean, Park street, with two companions went bathing in the Otonabee about 200 yards above the street railway terminus. In some way the little fellow got too far away from shore and out of his depth; the current quickly drew the lad further out, and despite all efforts to save him, the little fellow went down a third time to rise no more alive.

Boats were at once secured and effort made to recover the body, but, up till 1 o'clock last night without success.

Peterboro's Products Abroad.

Wm. Hamilton Mf'g. Co. Ship Machinery To China.

The industrial world at large now has its eyes on Peterboro this is proved by the fact that a local concern, the William Hamilton Manufacturing Company, shipping five car loads of machinery to Canton, China. This shipment comprises the machinery for the equipment of a sawmill operated by the Wang Yip Timber Company, with mills at Canton and the head office at Hong Kong.

This is the first shipment of sawmill machinery, as far as is known, that has ever been made from Canada to China, and that a local firm should have secured the order is a fact of which every citizen of Peterboro will be proud.

The order was booked by the Vancouver office of the company, and was received on April 3rd last, a little over three months thus being required to complete the work.

The Chinaman who placed the order had evidently seen some of this local company's splendid machinery in a British Columbia saw mill.

The mill shipped yesterday has a capacity of 20,000 feet a day, and is accompanied by an engine to furnish the necessary power.

The shipment, which left here yesterday, is billed via C.P.R. rail and ocean steamers, and should reach Hong Kong inside of four or five weeks.

Local Tenders too High

Opera House May be Erected by Outside Contractors.

A meeting of the company erecting the new opera house in this city, was held yesterday at Elmira, N.Y., to discuss the question as to whether they would accept any of the tenders received, call for new tenders or proceed with the work themselves, using local labor, but not letting the contract. They make no secret of the fact that the figures asked by the contractors who figured on the work, were much too high, and it is said that unless they come down in the price the work will not be done by them.

In the meantime, work on the foundation is progressing rapidly. Mr. Reid hopes to have it completed by the end of this week, when the brick work will be taken up at once. A big effort will be made to have the house ready for the opening of the theatrical season in October, and there is little room to doubt that they will succeed.

WHY SO WEARY?

Always Restless and Weak Is Not Natural—but It Is Dangerous

You have to work hard. This uses up lots of nerve force and tears down the body faster than it can build up.

The result is a half-dead feeling you can't shake off. Sometimes you must get more vitality. The water in your blood must be turned into nutriment and building material.

This is just what happens in using Ferrozone, which renews the blood and nerves, and makes each organ do the work that nature expects of it.

Ferrozone quickly increases your weight, brings appetite and healthy color, instills a reserve of vigor into the system that defies weariness, exhaustion, debility, or sickness of any kind.

Ferrozone quickly increases your weight, brings appetite and healthy color, instills a reserve of vigor into the system that defies weariness, exhaustion, debility, or sickness of any kind.

The wonderful strengthening power of Ferrozone is proved in the case of Mrs. Edward Hill, of Orr Lake, Ont., who says:

"Two years ago I had a nervous breakdown. At night I tossed restlessly in bed, unable to get any rest from sleep. In the morning I suffered from over-powering weakness. My appetite was poor. I grew pale, thin and despondent. A slight hacking cough also added to my burdens.

"My doctor said to try Ferrozone, and it did me good in a few days. I increased in strength, the nervous sensations disappeared, and with my appetite came back my color and good spirits. I have gained over ten pounds in weight, and as my age is 56, I consider Ferrozone a marvel." (Signed) Mrs. Edward Hill.

REMEMBER THIS: Ferrozone is a true tonic—not an alcoholic stimulant. Fifty chocolate-coated tablets in a box. Get this genuine or we have boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or N. C. Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U. S. A., and Kingston, Ont.

THE TURNING OF THE WORM

The Chinese boycott of American trade is becoming a serious thing all around. It seems to be altogether a popular movement, started by commercial bodies, and taken up enthusiastically by the people. But it is of the same piece with the action of the government in recalling from American capitalists the concession for a railroad from Canton to Hankow.

The loss of this concession is a blow to American finance and trade as well as a wound to American pride. But we do not see that Americans have any right to complain. The concession was taken eight years ago by promoters who had no money to build railroads, but expected to sell it to some one who had. It has been hawked about the European and American markets. At one time the control was held in Belgium; now it is held in New York. Practically no work has been done, though the directors have received a considerable bunch of Chinese government bonds to build the road. No one can wonder that the Chinese government is tired of waiting for Americans and wants to withdraw the concession, perhaps to give it to the Japanese. The government is dealing rather liberally with Mr. Morgan and his associates, who now control the concessions, having offered them $7,000,000 for return of what it gave them for nothing.

The grievance of the Chinese people is more solid. For thirty years their workmen have been shut out of the United States as if they were lepers. As fast as Pacific islands come under the Yankee flag they are shut out of those. Moreover, their refined and wealthy scholars and students traveling in the United States are treated with contumely. The Chinese have endured this because they felt too weak to resist. Now the moral and perhaps the physical support of Japan makes them feel stronger. They seem to have lost the fear that assertion of proper national self-interest will bring Western warships upon them.

Uncle Sam is likely to pay roundly for heaping insult and injustice upon a polite and cultivated nation at the bidding of sandlot demagogues in California. Secretary Metcalf of the new commerce department is likely to pay for his part in the proceeding with the loss of his job. He is from California and is so committed to the local view that he probably cannot carry out the president's policy of treating the Chinese merchants and scholars traveling in this country with common decency.

THE LAKE ERIE DAM

The ports on Lake Ontario are seriously alarmed by the prospect of a disturbance of the lake levels, such as may occur by tampering with the Niagara River. It is claimed that if the level of the water in the St. Lawrence were interfered with the whole of the enormous dredging work which the Dominion Government had carried out would have to be done over again. They believe that any of the schemes proposed would be certain to lower the level during the months when high water is most needed, and thus result in serious injury to navigation on the St. Lawrence.

Prof. George Wisner, of Detroit, says that a comparison between the benefits to the Lake Erie channel by the building of a dam, and the cost of the scheme, showed clearly that if the damages likely to arise from the plan were not excessive, it would probably be a good thing to have it carried out. He adds that absolutely nothing will be done except by consent of a commission representing both Canada and the United States.

Investigation has been made and the members of the International Waterways Commission expect soon to be able to base a fair determination on the matter of what effect elevating the water of Lake Erie would have on Lake Ontario and the St. Lawrence channels.

THE COSSACK

It is worthy of notice that the Czar of Russia depends for his safety almost wholly upon his regiments of Cossacks. These mounted soldiers have proved themselves to be despicable warriors in the Far East. Not only have they failed to make their mark as fighters in Manchuria when opposed to so notoriously bad and badly mounted horsemen as the Japanese, but they have not shown any ability in the performance of the modern war functions of light cavalry in bringing in reliable reports as to the movements of the enemy. As a factor in war the Cossack has tumbled from the high position he once held to an exceedingly low level. On the other hand, as the arm, prop and buttress of a despotism, the Cossack has proved himself to be an unqualified success. His function, the one in which he excels, is to charge with sword or loaded whip upon crowds of unarmed men, women and children, where the probabilities of effective retaliation are exceedingly slight.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

News comes from Lancashire that a clever mechanic, Dennis Flanagan, has invented a sewing machine which sews "direct from two reels of thread." Consul Frank W. Mahin writes "Experts are quoted to the effect that if the invention is put on the market in a thorough manner it will revolutionize the sewing machine trade of the world. A remarkable feature is the very small number of parts required in its construction, and the cost of production will, comparatively speaking, be small."

ROCKEFELLER FEARS ASSASSINS

Exercising Eternal Vigilance at His Cleveland Home

Cleveland, July 17.—It is understood that John D. Rockefeller's fears for personal safety have grown to such an extent that he has caused extra precautions to be taken to guard him from intruders at his home on Forest Hill.

Since the recent return of the controversy with Ida Tarbell, his nervousness is said to have increased, and his fears some crank, believing the statements in the woman's article, may attempt his life.

Rockefeller has always lived more or less in seclusion when in Cleveland, but has never failed to attend Sunday school regularly.

His private secretary cannot be seen. Utmost vigilance is maintained by attendants, and every caller is closely questioned and practically ordered off premises after being given a hearing.

Never before was such vigilance observed.

Rockefeller has recently received more than the usual number of threatening letters.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

[1] At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. If in the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

[2] If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

[3] If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

[4] If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses [2], [3] or [4] must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 30 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 80 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd of June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Offices in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba, or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the North-west Territories.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

N. B.—In addition to Free Grant Lands, to which the Regulation above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from railroad and other corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

After Treatment.

He was surprised at how the sores healed "I took your New Method Treatment for a serious blood disease with which I had been afflicted for twelve years. I had consulted a score of physicians, taken all kinds of blood medicine, visited Hot Springs and other mineral water resorts, but only got temporary relief. They would help me for a time, but after discontinuing the medicines the symptoms would break out again—running sores, blotches, rheumatic pains, looseness of the hair, swellings of the glands, palms of the hands scaling, itchiness of the skin, dyspeptic stomach, etc. I had given up in despair when a friend advised me to consult you, as you had cured him of a similar disease 8 years ago. I had no hope, but took his advice. In three weeks' time the sores commenced to heal up and I became encouraged. I continued the New Method Treatment for four months and at the end of that time every symptom had disappeared. I was cured 7 years ago and no signs of any disease since. My boy, three years old, is sound and healthy. I certainly can recommend your treatment with all my heart. You can refer any person to me privately, but you can use this testimonial as you wish." —W. NATIONALITIES ARE ANGRY AT PROPOSAL

Are Against Any Reduction of Irish Representation

TO STRENGTHEN EFFORTS

Hope That if Their Number is Reduced the Rest Will Gain Better Financial Report

Dublin, July 17.—Mr. Balfour's redistribution proposals, depriving Ireland of twenty-two seats in the House of Commons, are violently received by the Irish and are already provoking bitter hostility in this country. It is likely to consolidate all sections behind the Irish party.

The proposals are designed to favor the pro-British party in Ireland at the expense of the Nationalists by facilitating the gerrymandering of the new constituencies.

Nevertheless the Nationalists may lose to secure sixty seats.

Sixty members with all the force of passion behind them and consequently increased financial support will give as much unremitting attention to Parliament as the present eighty, and so defeat the purpose of those who hoped to weaken them.

However, one of the effects of the proposals will be to give strength to the new and growing political section in Ireland that favors abandoning parliamentary action and following the Hungarian policy of withdrawing, but setting up resistance at home which forced home rule from Austria.

It is practically confined to part of Cork, and even there is weakening.

His latest attack on the Irish party, though delivered in his own corner, was opened by an arraignment of the local representative body which had unanimously repudiated his conduct.

Scores of repudiations of O'Brien have been published everywhere. From representative bodies throughout Ireland there has not been a single resolution approving his conduct anywhere outside of Cork.

FRANCE'S MILITARY STRENGTH

Even Numerically Germany Has no Great Advantage

London, July 17.—In his recent article in the Aurore of Paris, on the present condition of the French army, Lieutenant Colonel Picquart says that the remark of Marshal Moltke, "Everything money can give the French army possesses, as for the rest we have the right to make certain reservations," is still applicable. He declares that France has an excellent artillery, that the French rifle is as good as any, that in case of mobilization French industry would come effectively to the rescue of the military administration, that French fortresses are redoubtable, and that the scheme of railway concentration is good. Moreover, thus far, in spite of the greater population of Germany, her effectives are not so far in excess of those of France as might be imagined. Both have 24,000 officers under arms, and as for non-commissioned officers and soldiers, Germany has 600,000, while France has 530,000. For the moment, therefore, the disparity of numbers is not alarming. He goes on to say that the weakness of the French military system lies not in the soldier, but in the command. Little change has been made during the past thirty years in the mode of obtaining the French officer. There is still a great lack of homogeneity owing to diversity of origin and the political and religious dissensions that agitate the country. The great fact which inspires confidence in the future—and in this Germany does not share—is that France possesses an indefinite capacity for the production of such leaders as she may require in case of a long war. This he says, is not the case in countries where command is the privilege of a caste and where an abyss separates the soldier and the officer.

SEPARATE SCHOOLS FOR STATES

Catholic Educational Association Takes Measures for Religious Education

New York, July 17.—At a meeting of the Catholic Educational Association in Cathedral College yesterday resolutions were adopted declaring that the elimination of religion from the public schools would mean the loss of Christian ideals slowly and surely; congratulating England, Belgium, Ireland, Germany and Canada on the maintenance of positive religious teaching in the elementary schools, and denouncing the present infamous policy pursued by the French Government as a crime against liberty of conscience and freedom of education.

Before the close of the annual meeting of the Roman Catholic Educational Association yesterday the foundation of a free Catholic school system throughout the United States was laid.

The plans under which the system is to be inaugurated need only the approbation of the American hierarchy, headed by Cardinal Gibbons, and if the offer of the colleges is accepted, a system of secondary education, extending throughout the land will be established, requiring an endowment of not less than $2,500,000.

The system is to be established by turning all the Catholic preparatory colleges, now conducted by the religious orders, and the brothers of the Christian schools, into free high schools.

CARS FOR WESTERN CROPS

Canadian Pacific's Expensive Preparations to Handle the Wheat

Montreal, July 16.—The officials of the Canadian Pacific Railway think it will be necessary to transfer many of their freight cars to the North-West this year, in order to meet the demand for cars to bring the grain crop east, as the number of cars required for the west bound freight is sufficiently large to meet the demand for freight east bound.

Although it is stated that the grain crop will be heavier than it has been any previous year, probably reaching 90,000,000 bushels, arrangements are being made to have it transported without delay. At the head offices of the company in Montreal, weekly reports will be received from the western officials, who will study the crop reports, and thus enable them to calculate how many cars will be required in Manitoba and the Territories.

History and Production of the Goldfields of Boulder County, Colorado, Portraying Economic Conditions Which Predict the Coming Goldfields of Colorado and Presenting the Stock Offering of a Great Gold Mining Enterprise of the United States Gold Corporation

Our booklet on the gold fields of Boulder County is off the press, and is being distributed free to investors. We have prepared this book to advertise the gold fields of Northern Colorado and our great gold mining enterprise. The books will be free for the asking while they last. It will tell you of how over fifty millions have been added to the world's wealth in production of gold, silver and copper under primitive methods and from surface workings of an average depth of not to exceed 250 feet. It will tell you of its great tungsten belt, the largest in the world. It will tell you of the existence of a diversity of precious and rare minerals, unrivaled by any other gold fields on this continent. It will tell you of a mineral area of twenty-five square miles literally covered with a network of veins practically undeveloped, with only one shaft below the thousand foot and half a dozen below the six hundred foot level. It will tell you of a gold field nearer to the Denver smelters than any other in Colorado; of a change of economic conditions, in this section, which will enable the miner to ship ore to the smelters, at a net profit, that is now being thrown over the dumps in other sections of Colorado; it will tell you of a field so attractive that it resulted in the construction of two railways from one end of the field to the other. It will tell you of the substitution of modern and up-to-date mining methods, in place of the primitive ones of the past; in short, it will tell you of all those conditions which predict for the gold fields of Boulder County the coming gold fields of Colorado.

It will also tell you of our great gold mining enterprise in the western part of the gold fields of Boulder County, near the continental divide, where nature has deposited her largest and richest treasure vaults; it will tell you of our economic development tunnel, driven to drain and develop a mineral estate almost a mile long and half a mile wide; of the thousands of tons of gold ore now blocked out and ready for shipment in the five different veins cut by this tunnel in driving it eight hundred feet, the result of two years steady development work night and day; of our wonderful discovery of molybdenite—a rare metal—in large commercial quantities, foretelling for us the first molybdenite mine in Colorado that is producing, as well as a large and permanent source of revenue, of our project to drive this tunnel, long before the end of this year, into the famous Fourth of July dyke or "Mother Lode," from which the far famed Caribou group of mines produced twenty million dollars in gold, silver and copper from 1869 to 1893; of the tremendous possibilities for ore production which will follow the cutting of a mineral dyke from 50 to 100 feet wide at a depth of a thousand feet, and the great probability of our opening the first great copper mine in Colorado when we reach this dyke with the tunnel. In short, it will tell you of a gold mining enterprise that will go on a large producing basis long before the end of 1905; of an enterprise with possibilities second to none in Colorado, the developments of which have already shorn it of any element of risk or speculative features, rendering the investment offered safe and attractive one.

For the financial and commercial standing of the business men who stand back of this enterprise we refer you to the First National Bank, Boulder, Colo, or Bradstreet's Commercial Agency

Oshawa will be here to-morrow and are talking loudly of their prospects of winning. "They are coming with the goods," remarked an Oshawa citizen yesterday, "and will be here to win." The locals are in great condition and can be relied upon to give the visitors the hardest argument they ever went up against. The Peterboro team had a light practice last night. The boys are not a "talkative bunch," but they have a surprise in store for Oshawa. They are playing the game as it should be played and are quite confident of winning out. It will be a great game Wednesday and every citizen should avail himself of the opportunity of witnessing this match on the Riverside Park.

Burns Himself and Born.

Ira Chadsey, a well-to-do Prince Edward County farmer, 70 years of age, living near Wellington, committed suicide on Saturday evening, while in a temporary fit of insanity, by burning himself and barn. No explanation had been given of Mr. Chadsey's intention of doing away with himself. He was a man respected by a large circle of acquaintances.

Mr. Geo. Cochrane Sells His House

Mr. George Cochrane, high county constable, has sold, through Messrs. J. T. O'Connell & Co., his fine property at 497 Aylmer street, to Mr. Bayley, late of Hertfordshire, England, who took possession of and began moving into his new house yesterday. Mr. Cochrane will erect a dwelling on his vacant lot on George street, near the residence of Mr. J. R. Stratton.

An Apparently Honest Theft

Yesterday at 11.30 Mr. Cole Barrett left his bicycle leaning in front of the Oriental Hotel dining room windows, whilst he went to get his daily paper. On his return, 15 minutes later, his wheel, made by Metheral, Hunter street, with a maple leaf and the numbers "31," was gone and in its place a seemingly new Cleveland wheel had been left in place. Mr. Barrett reported the matter to the police at once, taking the substituted Cleveland to the station.

Baby Has Close Call From Death.

A somewhat peculiar case came under the attention of a local physician a few days ago. He had been called to one of the smaller hotels, where a child had been born a short time before. The doctor, it is said upon asking for the child, was denied by the mother that such had ever existed, and upon a search being made, the little one was found packed in a trunk where in time it would probably have been suffocated. The mother has now recovered from her illness and is caring for the child.

A Correction.

Relying on information supposed to be correct, but which has since proved to be inaccurate in a few minor details, we, in yesterday's issue, reported the facts of an accidental shooting affair which resulted in a wounded lady being brought by special train Saturday night to the Nicholls Hospital. The corrected story, in fewest words, is that Mrs. Audley Pierce of McKeesport, Pa., whom out in a row boat with her husband, above Burleigh, on Saturday afternoon, was hit by a stray bullet, as noted yesterday, from the revolver of two small boys practising. The lady as we went to press this morning was doing favorably.

Took Wheel in Mistake

Last evening Mr. Mitchell left his wheel in front of the Crown Hotel for a short time, on his return he took a wheel supposedly his own, which was standing close by and started away, when he reached the park he noticed his mistake and returned to get his own wheel, but just late enough to find it had gone. Mr. Mitchell left the wheel, a Mc-Burney Beattie make, at the police station, and the exchange can be rectified if the party who has Mitchell's wheel returns it and gets his own.

Police Court
OFFICIALS
Chief of Police, G. L. Reed
Magistrate, D. W. Dumble

In the absence of Magistrate Dumble, at Stony Lake, Acting Magistrate Harry Rush yesterday handled the scales of justice.

Fred Hill, an Indian, hailing from near Deseronto, but at present working on the booms at Lakefield, was charged, under the Indian Act, with having been intoxicated. As this act is very severe on the red men who partakes too freely of the war-whoop-provoking fire-water, and the Indian in court did not deny the said impeachment, the Worship imposed a fine of $10. Hill, on being asked, as is permitted by the act, where he purchased the ingredients of his joy, refused to tell. For his continued loyalty to the hostman who furnished him with the booze, this red hero, (judging from Fenmore Cooper's standard of Indian loyalty to their friends?) went down to his pocket for $5 more. To be strictly correct, as the g.f.j. always is, the red man did not go down to his own pocket for the $15, in order to save 40 long weary days in Castle Nesbitt, but a certain local hotel man, perhaps an admirer of the Fenman and his creed, paid it for him.

John Rice, who partook too freely on Saturday night, and when under the influence, raised herry mell in his residence, was fined $10 with the alternative of 30 days on the hill. Mr. Rice, being short of change, will for the next three weeks, saw corporation firewood and draw full rations sixty times.

Two boys, who yesterday made things unpleasant among the gang of men employed in raising the Lakefield cement cylinder to the cars, by throwing green apples at them, were each assessed $1.00

At this morning's court two men will answer on charge of "An Indecent Act," committed in the Fifth Ward on Saturday.

When a woman suffers from female weakness and irregularity or other forms of womanly disease, the effect is certain to be marked in her nervous system, the general effect being, as in Mrs. Woodin's case, "nervous headaches, restlessness at night" and a run-down condition. It is simply common sense then which says if you cure the female weakness, irregularity, etc., you will cure the nervousness, sleeplessness and other consequences of womanly disease.

"I feel more than grateful to you for the benefit I have received from Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery,' writes Mrs. Irene R. Woodin, of Millerton, Dutchess Co., N. Y., care of Box No. 5. "For a number of years I had been troubled with female weakness, nervous headache, irregularity, restlessness at night, and, in fact was all run-down, but after taking three bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery' feel that I am entirely cured. I have no more nervous headaches, and rest very well at night; in fact, feel like a different person. Thanks to your kind advice and wonderful medicine. I earnestly advise all who suffer from any similar troubles to write to Dr. Pierce at once. They will not regret it."

"Favorite Prescription" has the testimony of thousands of women to its complete cure of womanly diseases. Do not accept an unknown and unproved substitute in its place.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be used with "Favorite Prescription" whenever a laxative is required.

Townships May be Set Aside for Englishmen

Canada Ready to Set Aside 240,000 Acres for H. Rider Haggard's Emigration Plan--Carefully Selected Families Taken from the Poor of Great Britain to Come.

Ottawa, July 19.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier yesterday presented to the House a request received by him from Mr. H. Rider Haggard, Commissioner for the Imperial Government, and his reply thereto Mr. Haggard asked whether the Dominion Government was prepared to donate a tract of suitable land, to be selected by himself or other commissioners appointed by this Imperial Government, for the purpose of settlement of carefully selected families taken from among the poor of Great Britain—say, a tract of 240,000 acres or ten townships. Mr. Haggard was of opinion that sufficient funds for such settlement could be provided under Imperial Government auspices, and that the selection and the future management of the settlers could be provided for in a satisfactory and business like manner. Mr. Haggard explained that the communication was confidential, although he was not without hope that should an affirmative answer be received the results might prove both useful and important.

THE PREMIER'S REPLY.

Sir Wilfrid replied that the Government would be prepared to set aside ten townships for the object set forth. In the townships so reserved the Government's policy would be to give a free homestead to any person selected by Mr. Haggard or other Imperial Government commissioner on the sole consideration that the settlement conditions prescribed by Canadian laws be complied with. School lands and lands of Hudson's Bay Company will not be subjected to entry by settlers, but must be disposed of or acquired by law. Should the experiment succeed the Government would doubtless be prepared to set aside other tracts of lands under similar conditions. The selection of the land would be left entirely to the judgment of the Imperial commissioner, but the Canadian Government would place at his disposal the services of their agents in the North-West to assist in such work. The Canadian Government were satisfied that if a proper class of settlers be secured the scheme as described ought to be completely successful, and they venture to hope Mr. Haggard would be allowed to carry it to completion.

LATIN REPUBLICS NOW INDEPENDENT

FORGET PETTY JEALOUSY

Joachim Nabusco, New Ambassador From Brazil, Says Southern Nations are no Longer in Need of Sponsor

Washington, D.C., July 18. — While President Roosevelt has been talking peace with Russia and Japan and using his influence to calm the European situation he has been exchanging views with the South American states in regard to means to be employed in the future to enforce the Monroe doctrine.

The President wants to make South America responsible for the enforcement of the doctrine and leave the United States free from the cares which it imposes. If the nations of the southern continent can be brought to the point of themselves championing the integrity of American territory this country will be relieved not only of the necessity of defending South American territory from European aggression but will enter upon a period of closer relation with these republics through the removal of jealousy and suspicion which now exist.

Joachim Nabuco, the first Brazilian ambassador to the United States, gave his views on the Monroe doctrine today. He is a man of splendid presence, dignified and courteous, and has made a pleasing impression upon the President and other officials with whom he has come in contact. He is one of the foremost literary men of Brazil and for years has refused office because he fore the establishment of the republic he was indentified with the monarchical regime. Before coming to Washington Mr. Nabuco was minister in London.

MONROE WILL OUTCLASS WASHINGTON.

"I believe that in the twentieth century," he said today, "Monroe will compete with Washington in popularity with my countrymen. The reason is this; Washington represents the ideas of independence and political liberty, combined from which sprung one after another all the nations of the new world, and Monroe represents the barrier that makes the separate existence even of the smallest of those national bodies unassailable.

"Politics, you know, is everywhere becoming more and more international. The principal problem for every country in the world except yours is the foreign problem. While this was always so, yet the people of the nineteenth century felt safer behind the fictions of international law than any other generation in history.

"Idealism to a great extent has ruled the world; fictions carried with them their own sanction, which is enthusiasm. Those fictions, ideals, or enthusiasms, whatever you choose to call them, have protected the independence of any small community, but today they almost seem prehistoric superstitions.

"In Brazil you never have had any cause to complain of Europe."

EUROPE BENEFITED BY EXCLUSION.

"O not In the time of independence of the other Latin states in America, Brazil supported in our attitude by the enthusiasm for the freedom of South America that in the first quarter of the nineteenth century struck the imagination of England and inspired the genius of Canning. Brazil and Chile, for instance, had their South American Lafayette in Lord Cochrane. No. We do not look at all to the Monroe doctrine in a spirit of diffidence of antagonism towards Europe.

"The effect of that doctrine, on the contrary, seems to us wholly favorable to Europe. Thanks to it, Europe with its trade, its capital, and above all its continuous immigration achieves in this hemisphere much greater results in the ascendancy of race through the blending of our populations than it could possibly obtain with any successful operations of war and conquest.

"Europe is no longer Europe alone. It is Europe with Africa and Asia, and even for such a powerful combination it is good that a part of the globe remain out of it as neutral ground. It is an immense benefit for all mankind.

GREAT IMPETUS FOR INDEPENDENCE.

"We all date from the adoption of the Monroe doctrine, the growth of the principle of national independence which appealed to the sympathy of the world. Even the great nations of today, like Germany and Italy, were then in process of formation. Since the last two decades of the nineteenth century, however, a new age of expansion has commenced for Europe, similar to the one following the discovery of India and America.

"Here the probability is that but for the settled policy of this country our hemisphere would not feel itself so entirely outside the area of prospective European expansions. This, however, is the problem for that most hidden of historical sciences, which discusses what would have happened if things had taken quite a different course.

"What we know for a certainty is that coincident in its beginning with Canning's early attitude and with the Monroe doctrine there has existed for a long prescriptive period a feeling of finality in our mutual relations with Europe. It is a reasonable assumption to believe the Munroe doctrine is not strange in the molding of that definite and definitive form of our relations, and therefore it has acted as a beneficient influence on the intentions of Europe toward our whole continent."

Interesting Lecture on Wireless Telegraphy

Delivered by Mr. H. W. Beauclerk, of London, England, in the Y.M.C.A. Last Night.

Mr. H. W. Beauclerk, London, England, delivered a most interesting lecture last night in the Y.M.C.A. lecture hall on wireless telegraphy, and demonstrated the usage of the same by means of a set of instruments such as are in daily use on Trans Atlantic steamers. Mr. Beauclerk commencing his lecture said that;—

To understand wireless telegraphy we must study the action of the sun. We might compare it to a large electric dynamo sending out pulsations, which start the atoms of ether—which by the way is the finest substance recognized by science—vibrating one against the other continuously until they reach the earth in the form we recognize as light. These vibrations go out in waves or circles, in every direction just as the peace sends out waves through the air. Light travels at the rate of 186,000 miles per second and wireless telegraphy being an imitation of the sun's work travels at the same rate. Ether being so much finer than any known existing substance is in every thing, and through everything. That is the reason wireless telegraph will go through any substance. We must remember that nothing is really solid in the accepted usage of the word. A steel bar for example is nothing but millions of atoms held closely together, and if we were to examine it under a strong microscope we would find it to be porous like a sponge. Mr. Beauclerk, in concise and simple language, explained the development of wireless telegraphy from the time, some 20 years ago, when Professor Hertz, a German, discovered the vibration of atoms through the air could be used to transmit messages, until 1896 when Mr. Marconi was enabled to send messages a short distance, about a mile or so. He next succeeded in sending messages across the British channel, but people laughed at him and said he would never succeed. He continued to work, however, until he cover distances of 50 or 60 miles. After that it was a triumphal march for him. The British Government was the first to help him, and now all the British warships are equipped with the system, thus making the British Government independent of all cables. The lecturer then explained the working of the instruments and how communication was carried on between different points, up to a distance of 3,000 miles across the Atlantic ocean. He then showed how small the cost was of establishing wireless telegraphy in comparison with telephones and Atlantic cables. The English people had spent $50,000,000 in cables, and in case of war these might be cut at any time, but with the Marconi system communication could be kept up at all times. The cable companies were compelled to charge high rates for messages as the cost of equipment and maintenance of their lines was so heavy. If they could reduce their rates, their business would be more than proportionately increased, a fact which had been proven in other businesses. The Canadian Marconi system was backed by the Canadian Government, and its success was assured. Already thirteen stations have been established in Canada, and the work would continue until there was a complete chain of stations from ocean to ocean. In a short time all ships would find it necessary to adopt the system as a measure of self protection in the case of accident and to secure better terms from underwriters, etc. It was a system that could not be confined to one country, as English, American and Canada must all work together. In the Marconi Company there would be no bonds or preferred stock, all shareholders being on the same footing, and the lecturer felt certain that in five years time the Marconi stock would show equally as good results as the telephone, which Mr. Gould thought twenty years ago was a nice toy and nothing more.

After a practical demonstration of the working of the apparatus the lecture was brought to a close.

Police Court

OFFICIALS

Chief W. Potter, G.I. Hunt
Stenographer, D. W. Dunsto

The first case called was that of a charge made by Dr. Ross, agent of the Ontario College of Physicians and Surgeons against a local gentleman, who, whilst having passed his medical college examinations has not yet satisfied the examiners of that august body known as "The Council." The doctor, in question, already, by right, can add the letters M.B. to his signature, but until having gotten his certificate from the council is not allowed, by the laws of Ontario, to accept fees for his medical advice. The doctor in question did not deny the charge so Mr. Dumble, the presiding Magistrate imposed a fine of $25.

A well known "vet." and owner of several swift cows, has a cure, (that cures) for the "great white plague," consumption. The doc. has treated several sufferers from consumption, including a leading flour miller who was given up as hopeless by some of the local practitioners, with absolute success. The doc. however has not gotten the necessary diploma entitling him to practice on human patients, and he was accordingly charged with practising medicine without complying with due formalities by Dr. Ross, at yesterday's police court. The genial doctor had his bank roll lightened just $25 also.

Two men from the Fifth Ward, were charged with committing an indecent act; the evidence however was inconclusive, so the case was dismissed.

Joseph Valois, a gentleman who is handicapped in life, by the loss of one leg, was charged with neglecting to pay his dog tax. Joseph swore that his brother had left the canine in question at his house for temporary keep and had failed to call for. This explanation however did not go. $2 with $2.60 costs, or $4.60 altogether.

The court was then cleared of all but those actually interested, before two small boys, named respectively, Le Gros and Seriber, were tried.

These boys were accused of having stolen a copper boiler from Mr. Logan, owner of Brock and Aylmer streets, with residence at 221 Brock street.

Mr. Logan, in evidence, said that he had missed his boiler, made by the late Mr. David Breese, from his house Saturday morning. This boiler costing $3.50 had, after the family laundry was finished, been put out to catch rain water. He then went out looking for it, and found it at Goldman's junk shop on Aylmer street. The junk shop people immediately, on his request, handed it over to him. An employe of Goldman's, named Garth said, in evidence, that the smaller boy, LeGros, had brought the boiler to him in Mr. Goldman's absence up town, and he, by advice of a fellow employe, a Russian Jew, whose name is impossible to give, even phonetically, paid the lad 35 cents, its price as old copper. Garth said the boys had told him that the mother of one of them, had no further use for the boiler and had sent it for sale.

Seriber, who is a "regular" in the police court, told the Magistrate a well put together story of having found the boiler in a creek. His Worship let LeGros off as it was his first offense, and allowed Seriber to go on suspended sentence, after giving him a lecture.

The junk dealer Goldman, was next called to answer the question, "Why did you buy this boiler from a boy under 18 years of age, without having a written order from his parents as required by law?"

Mr. Goldman made such a plausible excuse he was allowed to go with a warning.

The two boys were made to carry the stolen boiler up George street and return it to its owner, Mr. Logan. The two lads sailed up George street at a 2.16 gait with expressions on their faces indicative of "We are just taking this back after repairs!"

Zemstovists to Depose Emperor of Russia.

St. Petersburg, July 19.—A sensational rumor is current here to-day that a large party of the Zemstvoists and Doumaists at Moscow are in favor of the proclamation of the deposition of Emperor Nicholas and the establishment of a regency for the Grand Duke Alexis Nikolaievitch, the infant son of the Emperor and heir to the throne, under four grand dukes.

St. Petersburg, July 19.—M. Witte had a final interview with Emperor Nicholas at Peterhof to-day. Foreign Minister Count Lamsdorff was present, showing the complete harmony of views between M. Witte and the Foreign Minister. M. Witte leaves St. Petersburg for Paris to-morrow accompanied by Mme. Witte. At Paris they meet their daughter, who is the wife of the Secretary of the Russian Legation at Brussels. Mme. Witte has no intention of joining her husband later in America.

St. Petersburg, July 19.—It is announced that 475,246 men will be called to perform military service during the present year.

TO BANISH WITTE THE REFORMER

Object of His Appointment as Peace Envoy was Hidden

COMMENT ON SITUATION

General Opinion is That Though the Revolution is Irresistibly Coming it may be Long Delayed

London, July 18.—The Czar is so uncertain a factor that the utmost well-informed Englishmen will say of the peace negotiations is that M. Witte is more likely than any other Russian statesman to give his country an honorable peace.

Little serious support is given to the suggestion that he is being sent to the conference not because he is an advocate of peace, but because he is an advocate of reform, a collaborator in the manifesto of December 25, and responsible for many of the proposals which have been based on that document, and that he is therefore, to be deprived of the power of doing further mischief, and is sent to debate peace terms, with instructions in his pocket forbidding him to grant what Japan is expected to ask. M. Witte would be unlikely to accept a task in which his hands were tied. Yet his chances of success are admittedly slender.

REVOLUTION MAY BE SLOW.

The Spectator's view of the situation is as follows; It says:

"We question if throughout the French revolution there was a single case of six or seven thousand insurgents being blasted away by cannon shot as is believed to have happened at Odessa. No government can in the long run sit upon bayonets but in the circumstances existing in Russia, the great revolution which we all expect, and which most men familiar with history would say is inevitable, may be very slow. It was slow even in France. There nearly four years elapsed between the meeting of the states-general and the execution of the King. It is all very well to talk of financial paper which is still accepted throughout Russia. It is plain that the wealth of the Church has not yet been seized and the properties which the State can sell are worth more than any probable indemnity. Unless a regiment as a unit declares against the throne the hope of immediate peace is still faint, for even if M. Witte should be invested with plenipotentiary powers the Czar must still ratify any treaty."

Weather Notes.

Very warm with thunder showers.

WANTS PEACE WITH HONOR

Norwegian Independence Must Not Hurt Their Neighbor

FEAR GERMAN FRIENDSHIP

The Swedes are United and Will Stand Together--The Peasants Want War

Stockholm, July 19.—One week's careful sounding of Swedish opinion justifies the statement that Sweden is prepared to employ force to support its demand that the dissolution of the union be effected on legal and honorable terms.

What first struck your correspondent as apathy has proved to be composure and quiet determination. When the country has fully made up its mind Norway will discover that Sweden's deliberation has been neither cowardice nor indecision.

All classes of the community, members of the Riksdag, editors, lawyers, bankers, merchants and professors ardently desire a pacific solution of the crisis, but they do not want a peace that will cause Sweden to hang its head for shame before the whole world. Such a peace the Swedes would consider worse than war.

These sentiments prevail universally in Stockholm except among the socialist workingmen, but they are even stronger in the provinces, which are alive with warlike enthusiasm.

The peasant classes are especially eager for armed chastisement of the insult they feel Norway offered their adored King.

THEY DESIRE PEACE.

Although there is no mistaking Sweden's readiness to resort to force if certain that the Swedes sincerely prefer a peaceful settlement. That would be the meaning of the postponement of the negotiations for six months which many still believe the Riksdag committee will recommend.

The delay, it is believed, will allow Norwegian passions to cool and at the same time crystallize public opinion in Sweden.

Postponement or no postponement, however, it seems improbable that Sweden's determination to secure a settlement which will satisfy her pride will undergo alteration.

The Swedes are confident that when their conditions are known the world will consider them moderate and legitimate and place all responsibility for bloodshed in Scandinavia on the Norwegians.

Should Sweden be compelled to vindicate its honor on the battlefield, exactly what conditions might be exacted cannot be stated.

The Peace Outlook Is Not Very Hopeful.

M. Witte Fears That Japan's Terms will be Too Hard to Accept--The Ultimate Decision Remains in the Hands of the Emperor, and it is for Him to Decide the Destinies of Russia.

St. Petersburg, July 19.—In an interview with the Associated Press, M. Witte, the senior Russian peace plenipotentiary, said;—

"The ultimate decision remains in the hands of the Emperor, and it is for him to decide the destinies of Russia. The Emperor is the friend of peace, but I very much fear that the Japanese terms will be such that we will be unable to reach an accord.

"Secondly the world should disabuse its mind of the idea that Russia wants peace at any price. There are two parties in Russia. One favors the continuation of this war à outrance—this is a large and influential party. The other, to which I belong, favors peace. I avow it frankly, because telling the truth has always been my rule in politics. I was for peace before hostilities broke out. When the war began the situation changed. Even though there are those two parties as to the advisability of ending the war in the present circumstances, both would be united if the Japanese demands wounded the amour propre of the Russian people or jeopardized our future as a nation.

"I am sure if the conditions of the Japanese cannot be accepted Russia will accept the verdict and the Russian people will be ready to continue the war for years if necessary.

"Thirdly, Russia is not crushed, as the foreign press has led the World to believe. The interior situation is serious, I do not deny; but in Europe and America the true significance of what is happening is not understood. Russia is not on the verge of dissolution as a great power, and is not obliged to accept any conditions offered, in spite of the military reverses she has sustained.

"We are passing through an internal crisis, which has been marked by many grave events, and which may have others still in store, but the crisis will pass, and in a few years Russia will again take her place as a preponderant power in the European concert."

The principal ones are said to be; Acknowledgement of the illegality of the secession and the dethronement of King Oscar.

The destruction of all the military works menacing the Swedish frontier.

A guarantee of the open door to all Norwegian markets, ports and railways, and a guarantee that Norway will contract no foreign alliance inimical to Sweden.

There is growing uncertainty and unrest on account of German designs.

The country is at a loss to know whether the Kaiser's naval demonstration this week is an act of unselfish friendliness toward Sweden and an incidental warning to Norway or whether it is intended to bring pressure to bear on Sweden to prevent the dissolution of the union.

The Kaiser opposes dissolution because he fears an independent Norway would become the vassal of England and a new danger to Germany in the North Sea. Many believe that William may have gone so far at Odfo as to inform King Oscar that Germany considers Scandinavian unity as vital to Germany's interests and that Germany could not be a passive observer of the destruction.

Count Gyldenstolpe authorizes your correspondent to deny the statement published in the United States yesterday to the effect that the Kaiser and King Oscar discussed the preliminaries of a Swedish-German alliance. He says the idea is a fantasy.

Inquiries among the leaders of public opinion here show that the Swedes abstain from such an alliance because they feel that it would cost them dearly some way or other.

An Uxbridge Excursion

600 Citizens of the Town of Uxbridge Visit This City.

Some ten car loads of citizens from Uxbridge arrived in the city yesterday morning by the G.T.R. at ten o'clock, and proceeded to take in the sights of the city. The visitors journeyed hither under the auspices of the Methodist Sabbath School, Uxbridge, and during their sojourn here, took in the local lions. Street cars were in waiting at the station and carried a large number of the people to the C.P.R. wharf, where they embarked upon the City of Peterborough, for a trip over the lift lock. This was a novel feature to almost the entire party and many expressions of wonderment and surprise found utterance. The steamer continued on to Dam No. 5, where the excursionists enjoyed a couple of hours' outing.

The large party left last night at 7.30.

Chance for Investment.

Rare Opportunity Offered for Investment in Reliable Gold Mine Stock.

In these days of multitudinous chances for investing money in mining stocks, many of which are more than worthy of most right investigation, it is but rare to find an investment in gold mine stocks that is worthy of deep consideration.

When a gold mine stock, worth serious consideration, is presented to the public; persons with capital to invest, whether in large or small sums, should give such stock a thorough judgment, and if, on investigation, found to bear the marks of reliability, would do well to immediately communicate with the parties offering it for sale.

The Financier's Security Gold Mining Company, had valuable property located near the best gold producing territory in Southern Nevada. The Company is capitalized at $2,000,000, of which $1000,000 is treasury stock. The treasury stock is that on which dividends are first assured, and the treasury stock mentioned above, is the Financiers Gold Mining Company, is for a limited time only, now sold at five cents a share.

Those wanting a speculative investment, that gives promise of ultimate success should write at once to Goldfields Securities Co., Box 575 Goldfield, Neb., or apply to W. E. Hall, Fiscal Agent, city.

ANTARTIC CROGRAPHY

British and French Explorers are Working in Harmony

London, July 18.—As illustrating the excellent feeling now existing between the English and French, it is noted that great interest has been taken in the address of Dr. Jean Charcot before the Royal Geological Society upon the subject of Antarctic Explorations. The new coast in the vicinity of the Rinson Islands has been named after President Loubet, and the maps in this section of the world will be enriched by the addition of many names. The exterior contour of Rinson Islands has been fixed, and their length determined the survey of the exterior coast of the Farmer Archipelago completes the geography of that region, and the bearings of Alexander I. Land, have been set by astronomical observation.

TRIES WILY MOVE

Doing His Best to Evade the Judgment of the Arbitration

Washington, July 19.—The apparent effort of President Castro to evade the obligations of the decision of the arbitration, whereby Venezuela was required to segregate for payment of foreign creditors a stipulated percentage of the customs' receipts of certain ports, is demonstrated by a report just received from the American consul at La Guayra, in which he announced the recent establishment of eight new ports.

Outward trade will be diverted in a great degree, and imports will be gradually deflected to new ports, so that the interior of the country will be wholly supplied through the new channles.

DOES THE CZAR SEEK PEACE?

The appointment of M. Witte, president of the Russian committee of ministers, as chief peace plenipotentiary to conclude negotiations with Japan, is an important concession on the part of the czar and will no doubt do much to establish confidence in Russia's sincerity in the present crisis. The appointment came after the resignation of M. Muravieff, who retired from the office ostensibly on account of ill health, but in reality, so it is reported from St. Petersburg, because the czar feared the negotiations might be jeopardised and peace retarded by Muravieff's acting for Russia.

M. Muravieff has been known as an avowed reactionist and advocate of war continuance. It was not believed that he favored making terms with Japan, and certainly the latter government would not be impressed with the czar's good faith in sending him to America. M. Witte, on the other hand, has been the most outspoken of all the imperial advisers in favor of peace. He is familiar with the Eastern situation and is said to be an advocate of a Russo-Japanese alliance that would insure tranquility in the Orient for at least fifty years.

M. Witte is today one of the strongest men in the Russian empire, and as a son of humble parentage his sympathies have been pronouncedly with the people. He has stood for governmental reforms in opposition to the grand duke coterie and, although powerful influences have sought to depose him from the ministry, he has maintained his place and influence with the czar. It was the hope of all the great diplomats who favored peace that M. Witte would be named as chief peace plenipotentiary. When M. Muravieff was appointed there was fear and disappointment that the coming negotiations would fail. It was reported that M. Witte had been twice offered the office, but each time refused it unless he was given full power to end the war. M. Muravieff's displacement and M. Witte's appointment in his place, therefore gives [illegible] belief that the czar has [illegible] decided on peace.

THE WAR SITUATION

At present, the war situation in the Far East bears a certain resemblance to a final sweeping up of domestic remnants and refuse before the in-coming of a new tenant. In spite of the quasi and probably purely formal resistance of the Sakhalin garrison, Japanese forces are driving straight north through the island and completing their arrangements to use it, if necessary, as an advanced base in future operations against Vladivostok. The Russian column which for six months has been encumbering northern Corea with no ostensible purpose, is being pushed back to Manchuria, and the wedge which has long threatened to cut Linevitch from his sole remaining seaport is being driven slowly home. By the time the plenipotentiaries meet in Portsmouth it looks as though the Mikado's new territories will be all

TO MAKE FASTER ATLANTIC RUNS

Promise is Made for New Canadian Pacific Railway Steamships

NOW BUILDING ON CLYDE

Two Passenger Ships Which Will Average 18 1-2 Knots in Ocean Run

Montreal, July 18.—The Canadian Pacific Railway announce that their new ships now under contract on the Clyde for the Atlantic trade, are to have a speed of 20 knots per hour, which will insure a sea speed of not less than 18 1-2 knots per hour across the Atlantic.

The two passenger ships now under construction will be completed and delivered to the company ready for service in April and May, 1906. They will be 14,500 tons register, 550 feet in length between perpendiculars 65 feet beam, with accommodation for 300 first saloon passengers, 350 second cabin passengers, and 1,000 steerage passengers.

The distance from Moville to Rimouski via Cape Race is 2,457 nautical miles, and via Belle Isle 2,289 nautical miles. This indicates that the new C.P.R. ships will make the run from Moville to Rimouski via Cape Race in five days and four hours, showing a decrease of 17 hours below the records so far made by the Allan ships.

Following are the St. Lawrence records, with the possibilities of the new ships with their speed of 18 1-2 knots:

S.S. Virginian arrived off Sydney, C. B., July 11th, time from Moville, five days and 22 hours.

S.S. Virginian arrived Rimouski, June 15th, time from Moville, six days and six hours.

C.P.R. new steamships from Moville to Rimouski via Cape Race, 5 days and 13 hours; via Belle Isle, five days and four hours.

The fastest records of the Cunard line steamships Lucania and Campania show five days, 23 hours and 25 minutes taken to deliver the mail London to New York. The C.P.R. ships, via Belle Isle and Rimouski, can deliver the mail London to Montreal in six days and seven hours, thereby giving Montreal, Toronto, Western Canada, and the Middle and Western United States as fast time as via New York.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion land in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, except 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded under this act by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, or to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Winnipeg, or the local land office for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendment thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

[1] At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. (It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.)

[2] If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

[3] If a settler has obtained a homestead entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

[4] If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or corresponding township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses [2] [3] or [4] must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 80 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads or entitled them to patent on or before the 2nd of June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Office in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

N. B.—In addition to Free Grant Lands, to which the Regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from railroad and other corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

HAD BLOOD POISON 12 YEARS

The New Method Treatment Cured Him after Drugs, Mercury, Hot Springs.

Before Treatment

Wm. H. Patterson, of Saginaw, Mich., relates his experience: "I do not like notoriety and especially of this kind, but I feel I owe you and Dr. S. & K. for the great good they have done me. I had a serious blood disease when 24 years of age. The ulcers and blood symptoms gradually developed. Pimples and ulcers formed, running sores broke out, hair became loose, pains in the bones and joints, dyspeptic stomach, foul breath, itchy skin, etc. It is needless for me to say I tried doctors. I grew so hate the looks of one. I visited Hot Springs twice for four months each time. It helped me temporarily, but in six months after returning home I was as bad as ever. Finally a Doctor friend of mine advised me to see Drs. Kennedy & Kergan. He said he had known of them for over 20 years, and as they made a specialty of these diseases and treated the worst cases by the hundred they ought to be expert in curing them. I was afraid of so-called doctors, but I took his advice. They agreed to treat me under a guarantee. No pay. I investigated their financial standing and found they were perfectly responsible, so I commenced the new method treatment. The eruptions disappeared in two weeks, the bone pains in four weeks and in four months I was entirely cured. Yes, sir, I can recommend the New Method Treatment for Blood and Skin Diseases."

FRANCE AND ENGLAND SHOULD BE ALLIES

M. Delafosse, Well-Known French Statesman, Gives His Reason

ASKS A DEFENSIVE ALLIANCE

It is Intimated That Delcasse Had In Hand Drafting of Such an Agreement

Paris, July 11.—Morocco negotiations continue to drag their way along. Continental newspapers still discuss the various phases of the subject at great length. During the last few days Paris papers have published a surfeit of German opinion by well-known and well-informed Germans as to what should be in the interest of France, the issue of the Franco-German conflict. It was time that some French politician who speaks on French politics with authority should be heard on the subject.

The Echo de Paris applied to M. Delafosse, a member of the Conservative Opposition, for many years one of the most generally respected members of the Chamber. His competency in foreign affairs is recognized on all sides. In parliamentary debates on foreign politics, M. Delafosse is usually the spokesman of the Right, but his treatment of foreign questions has invariably been characterized by statesmanlike views untainted by party considerations. German writers who have been contributing to the French press practically offer France no alternative but an alliance with Germany. M. Delafosse, who undoubtedly expresses the feelings of a great majority of his compatriots, is convinced that another alternative does exist—namely, a defensive alliance with England.

MOROCCO A PRETEXT

M. Delafosse begins by reminding the public that two months ago he pointed out from the Tribune of the Chamber of Deputies that Morocco was a mere pretext, and that the real cause of the difficulty was the rapprochement which had taken place between France and England, and that perhaps also the cracks that were to be heard in the edifice of the triple alliance. William II. does not wish France to become England's ally; in anticipation of the conflicts which he foresees he wishes France to march at his side or behind him. Prof. Schiemann is authority for the statement that to him it appeared difficult for France to remain neutral in event of an Anglo-German war.

It appears to M. Delafosse that William II. does not leave France the freedom of choice; it was in order that France would know it that he went to Tangier, and it is in order to try and tear up the Anglo-French entente that he prompted the revising conference of the Sultan of Morocco.

A DEFENSIVE ALLIANCE.

M. Delafosse does not know whether it be true as has been stated, that M. Delcasse had in his portfolio a treaty of defensive alliance with England, but if such an alliance were offered to France he is of the opinion that it ought to be accepted, and that if it is still possible, France should hasten to conclude it, for it would be of value to her both in war and in peace.

In dealing with its advantages in case of war, M. Delafosse scouts the opinion of the pessimists who say that war would bring invasion and ruin. What he regards as the evil consequence of the anti-national policy of the bloc might easily be remedied and very little would suffice for the country and the army to recover their moral, their patriotic fervor and their strength.

But, taking things at the worst, the share of England, who would fight with and for France, must be reckoned with. What would it be? Sure, absolute and unlimited victory, while remaining sovereign mistress of the conditions of peace. England would not content herself with destroying the German fleet. That would be the work of a day. She would closely blockade Germany, and that would amount to forced surrender. In order to understand this it must be remembered that Germany has become an industrial nation whose foreign trade amounts to thirteen or fourteen milliards of francs ($2,600,000,000 or $2,700,000,000). Her merchant navy and her commercial establishments extend to the whole world and that economic expansion of which British competition is dying provides food for her millions of work people.

GERMANY BLOCKADED.

Supposing that German industrial and commercial activity were to be paralyzed by blockade, that the merchant ships dared not put to sea, that factories and works were closed, having no markets for their products, there would be forced suspension of labor with distress and famine on all sides. How long would Germany resist such a trying test? She would be compelled in a few weeks to ask for mercy, and it would be France, even if herself defeated who on joint account with victorious England would dictate peace. Such were the chances in the event of war. If war were possible, and it was precisely because they were such that Germany would not run the risk. That was why an alliance with Great Britain was for France the best safeguard of peace. England might, if she chose, inflict that ordeal on Germany in defence of her own economic interests, but never would Germany, who reflected and was clear sighted gratuitously provoke it.

The rather indiscreet pressure of her diplomacy and the insolent language of her press were nothing but "bluff" intended to prevent an Anglo-French alliance. If the Germans knew it had been concluded their "bluff" would change into conciliation.

COMMENT OF LE TEMPS.

This means: The Guaranty Company guarantees to buy back your stock at 10 cents a share any time between now and Sept. 1st, 1905.

Did you ever hear of such a tempting underwriting to get into the world's richest mining camp?

The property is in the heart of the Bullfrog District. It consists of four claims known as the Sponge group.

Several ledges crop upon the surface and assays have run as high as $150.00 in gold and silver.

Our contract with the Company compels the management to do active development work.

Development work has begun and as the stock is sold shafts will be sunk and machinery installed for getting the minerals, the value of which has been shown to increase with depth.

We do not claim that the Bullfrog Syndicate Mines Co. owns a developed mine, but an excellent prospect.

We prophesy a golden future for this property.

Your chances for making a fortune are as good as were the chances of others who have made millions in these districts.

The real fortunes in mining are made by buying while stocks have still the low positive values.

Buy now while the stock is 10 cents a share and guaranteed.

Don't wait for a rise. Buy now.

You can send your subscription direct to the Western Loan & Guaranty Co., Mills Bldg. S. F., or postpone to send the stock draft attached.

Full particulars on this and other mining properties of Southwestern Nevada will be furnished on application.

W. H. PRINGLE

A Dangerous Accident.

Mr. W. J. Chartren Has His Arm Badly Lacerated at the C.G.E. Works.

Last night The Times ascertained that the condition of Mr. W. J. Chartren, who was injured accidentally at the Canadian General Electric Works, on Monday evening, is as favorable as could be expected.

About eight o'clock Monday evening Mr. Chartren was in the act of fixing the electric light on his machine when he slipped and fell back upon a pile of sheet metal. His left fore arm was cut clear to the bone by the metal, all the muscles and arteries being completely severed. The cut bled profusely, and the arm was bound up above the elbow. Mr. Chartren was taken to the Nicholls hospital, where Dr. Young and Dr. Amys rendered the necessary medical attention. Several stitches were placed in the forearm, and though weakened by the great loss of blood the sufferer passed a comparatively good night. Chartren is a married man and his many friends will sympathize with him in his affliction.

A Drainage Contract

Mr. M. A. McNamara Gets An Extensive Contract.

At Keene yesterday a regular meeting of the Township Council was held, and a contract agreed to with Mr. M. A. McNamara, Water street, Peterboro, for a somewhat important drainage work in Otonabee, near the southeast boundary of the city.

This work is a drain which will bring into cultivatable condition a large tract of land, now beaver meadow and practically useless, except some portions of it for pasture during a part of the season. The proposed drain will principally affect lots 28 and 29 in the 11th concession and lots 27 and 28 in the 12th concession. The drain will begin at the point where the Canadian Pacific Railway crosses the creek on lot 29, be carried easterly for 525 feet, and then follow the bed of the creek to the concession line at Downer's Corners. From there the outlet will run into the river. For the entire length, the drain will be fifteen feet wide at the top, six feet wide at the bottom, and of the necessary depth to insure drainage. The contract price for excavation is 20 cents per cubic yard, and as there are about 4,000 cubic yards to be removed, the cost will be about $1,200.

A Very Cool Spot.

A great game is promised for this afternoon on Riverside Park between the Oshawa Lacrosse team and the Peterboro. The visitors have strengthened up considerably, and are coming with victory in their hats. The local twelve are in grand shape to administer defeat and can be depended upon to give a good account of themselves. This is a splendid opportunity for the spectators to get their money's worth. A good game, with a delightful cool breeze from the Otonabee makes it admirable from a spectators point of view. The grand stand is covered and is situated right on the water's edge. Following will be the local's line up:—D. Boyle, goal; H. Morgan, point; F. Derochie, cover point; Maguire, 1st defence; Mein, 2nd defence; Crowley, 3rd defence; Ford, centre; Judd, 3rd home, Cavanagh, 2nd home; Glover, 1st home; McCabe, inside; Beal, outside.

"When I commenced taking your medicines, eighteen months ago, my health was completely broken down," writes Mrs. Cora L. Sunderland, of Chancyville, Calvert Co., Md. "At times I could not even walk across the room without pains in my chest. The doctor who attended me said I had lung trouble, and that I would never be well again. At last I concluded to try Dr. Pierce's medicines. I bought a bottle of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' took it, and soon commenced to feel a little better, then you directed me to take both the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and the 'Favorite Prescription,' which I did. Altogether I have taken eighteen bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' twelve of the 'Favorite Prescription,' and five vials of 'Pellets.' I am now almost entirely well, and do all my work without any pain whatever, and can run with more ease than I could formerly walk."

TEN YEARS

The Story of My Wonderful Success.

Reads Like a Fairy Tale-Yet Full of Convincing Truths

An Opportunity of a Lifetime for the Investor.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF IT.

I ask every reader of this paper to write me. I want to send you my free book entitled "Ten Years"—"The Story of My Wonderful Success." It tells about one of the greatest and most promising investment opportunities ever offered. It tells how my business grew from less than $25.00 capital to its present proportions.

I believe I have the best proposition from an investor's standpoint that could be placed before you. For ten years I have been teaching men and women to live according to the laws of Nature. My book is the history of my life. It shows what energy and ambition can accomplish in the world of affairs. It is intensely interesting to any man or woman who has a few dollars to invest in a legitimate enterprise.

I started business in the City of Brooklyn in 1896. My capital amounted to less than $25.00. My first year's business netted me over $1,000.00. Last year I paid dividends to my partners of 15 per cent. Five years ago my business had grown so large that I was compelled to remove to larger quarters. I am now at 63-65 Clark St., Brooklyn, N.Y.—in connection with Hotel St. George. Experts pronounce my institution to be the best appointed of its kind in the country. I estimate the equipment of the Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture to be worth at least $40,000.00.

I want to have a building of my own that will enable me to accommodate my increasing business. To erect this building I need capital, but more important than this to increase my business to the proportions which I desire, I need the co-operation of men and women throughout the country and the world.

Co-operation is the Secret of Success.

I recognize it. I believe that with thousands of co-operators throughout the country I can build my business to tremendous proportions to the benefit of the shareholders and myself.

The Mac Levy Company is incorporated under the laws of New York for $150,000.00. They are proprietors of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

The last named branch of the business of the Mac Levy Company is comparatively new. I have been at work for several years to establish such a department in connection with teaching Physical Culture. The most difficult part of forming the Equipment Company has been accomplished. The business is now in condition to be pushed on a large scale. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are spent yearly on new gymnasiums and their equipment. The profits are large. A company of this kind has an immense field in which to work. Competition is slight. It is evident that the Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company can build an enormous business.

The Mac Levy Company operates during the summer months at Steeplechase Park, Coney Island, and at Averne Hotel, Averne-by-the-Sea, L. I., as well as at our Brooklyn Institute. I also does an extensive mail business. I teach people how they should live and exercise. My students are scattered all over the United States, and in English speaking countries.

A PROBLEM

which arrises in the minds of every man and woman is how to secure a comfortable income in the earlier years of their life, that they may reap the full benefits which such an income affords.

I have long thought that there are hundreds of people in moderate circumstances who would like to invest a few dollars in an Institution of this kind. It is to such people that I intend this announcement shall appeal. I am offering a block of the Treasury Stock of this company to the public at its par value. My reasons for doing this are that I wish to erect a building and to extend the business of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

I WANT YOU AS MY PARTNER

I need your help and suggestion. I want you to work with me and help me to secure a tremendous amount of new business.

I believe that if you could talk with me personally and go over the records of the business which I have done, see in black and white the figures which show the steady growth my business has experienced during the past ten years, examine my plans for future extension, and then look over the magnificient equipment of my Institute, and would want no further evidence that money put into my business would bring you the greatest possible returns consistent with safety and good management.

I ask you to write for my free book. I believe it will interest you. You have a few dollars that you want to invest. Why let it stand idle earning only 3 or 4 per cent that Savings Bank pay their depositors? Put it to work. Join it with mine." This Company ought to pay at least.

Heat-Crazed Mother Kills Sleeping Child.

Plunged Carving Knife Into Her Sleeping 19-months-old Baby, Killing it Instantly, and Then Tried to Take Her Own Life.

New York, July 20.—No relief, but rather a promise of more intense heat and even greater suffering came to New York to-day. Even with every park in the city thrown wide open and with practically every restriction removed, hundreds of thousands have been unable to escape the severest suffering.

At 7 a.m. five fatalities had been reported. Two of the victims fell from windows where they were sleeping in legs ... getting a breath of air, and were dashed to death on the pavement. Two others died directly from heat exhaustion.

In Brooklyn a heat-crazed mother plunged a carving knife into her sleeping 19-months-old child, killing it instantly, and then made an unsuccessful attempt to take her own life. Her wounds were slight.

Official figures given out by the Government Weather Bureau to-day show that the lowest temperature registered during the last 24 hours was at 6 o'clock this morning. The Government thermometer stood at 76 at that hour, having fallen on an average of one degree an hour during the night. From that time on, however, it began to rise, reaching 80 at 8 o'clock and 84 at 9 o'clock.

MYSTERIOUS CASE OF PLAINS

Portage la Prairie, July 20.—The body of Andrew Henry, aged 75, an old resident of The Plains, was found in a condition which would indicate murder. Henry was in town on Saturday and bought a new buggy, and in the evening left town with a man named Taylor, formerly a policeman here, but dismissed on charges of a criminal nature. Nothing more definite is known. Yesterday morning Taylor called on G. Sinclair and stated that he had found the body of an old man in bad shape and had carried it to F. Gatt's shack. Sinclair investigated and found Henry's body horribly battered and the clothes torn. Sinclair then informed the authorities and detectives are now investigating.

WILL BE AUDITOR-GENERAL

Chief Clerk to Succeed the Former Head of the Department

Ottawa, July 20.—The report was in circulation last night that Mr. J. Fraser, Chief Clerk, in the Finance Department, is to be appointed Auditor-General in succession to Mr. J. L. McDougall. If the report proves to be true the Government will make an excellent choice, as Mr. Fraser is an excellent accountant, having thorough master of finance and is, beside, an official of long experience in the public service.

TAR AND FEATHERING CASE

Chief Murray Finds it was Work of Brockville's Respectable Citizens

Toronto, July 20.—"It was not the work of rapscallions, but of respectable law-abiding citizens who were tired of Raggozani's tricks." Such is the opinion of Chief Murray, of the Provincial Detective Bureau, who has returned from enquiring into the Brockville tarring and feathering case. The Chief failed been issued notifying everyone that to secure the names of the persons who tattered the Italian with feathers and tar, but did unearth several interesting letters which the Italian is said to have written since his release from prison to the little girl whom he had abducted. These letters may mean further trouble.

About 200 Men of the Local Regiment Draw Efficiency Pay.

The pay sheets of the 57th Regiment were presented and signed at the last officers' meeting on tuesday evening, Lt.-Col. Miller presided at the meeting. It speaks volumes for the standing of our local crack corps that nearly 200 men will draw efficiency pay. In the efficiency pay recruits receive $2.40 in addition to ordinary pay, second year men $4.80 and three year men or over $6. This will be given to those entitled to it as soon as the money is despatched from Ottawa.

In order to draw efficiency pay a soldier had to be present at three quarters of the drills and to be recommended by the captain of his company for good conduct and efficiency in drill.

Tax Bills.

Complaints Being Made as to Careless Way Tax Bills are Being Delivered.

Several citizens yesterday were heard complaining of the careless manner in which the boys delivering this year's tax accounts, leave them on door steps at the mercy of every passing breeze.

One citizen on his way home found his bill outside his fence on the sidewalk. As prompt payment of these bills means a considerable reduction in the net amount payable, the boys delivering the bills should try to have the parties interested, get them.

Tax Colector Green, explained to The Times yesterday that he instructed the delivery boys to ring the bell and, in case no one answered the call, to leave the red slip of paper in a place where it could not be blown away. Mr. Green said all the law requires is that the slip shall be left on the premises, and, if the ratepayer does not find the bill he should call at the collector's office at once and get one. Posters have been issued notifying everyone that the bills are being distributed. Mr. Green said he had received few, if any complaints so far, about people not getting their bills.

All statute labor and dog taxes are due on August 1st, 1905. One-half of all other taxes is due August 1st and the other half on November 15th, 1905. If the first half be not promptly paid when due the second half shall forthwith become due and payable.

Upon prompt payment of one or both of said instalments on any property by August 1st, 1905, a discount of two per cent. will be allowed on the amount so paid. Three per cent. will be added to the first instalment, and dog taxes and statute labor taxes, if not paid on August 1st, 1905. Five per cent., including per centage already added, if any, will be added to all taxes unpaid after November 15th, 1905.

ALMOST CHOSEN AS NORWAY'S KING

Prince Charles of Denmark is the Choice of All

SATISFACTORY TO BRITAIN

Is a Son in Law of King Edward and Well Disposed to the British

London, July 20.—It is stated that the palace arrangements have been perfected for seating Prince Charles of Denmark on the Norwegian throne.

It is explained that King Oscar has no intention of permitting a Swedish Prince to accept the position, but has signified his willingness that King Oscar and King Christian, inasmuch as they are agreed that otherwise Norway might either become a republic or choose a sovereign less likely to be devoted strictly to Scandinavian interests.

Prince Charles would be particularly welcomed among the crowned heads of the English courts since he is the husband of Princess Maud, the son-in-law of King Edward and Queen Alexandra.

With Princess Margaret of Connaught the wife of a future Swedish King, and Princess Maud the wife of the Norwegian King, the Scandinavian situation would adjust itself satisfactorily both to the dynasty and political interests of England.

A Painful Accident

About 10 o'clock yesterday morning, Maggie Coughlin, nine-year-old daughter of Mr. Joseph Coughlin, of the fifth ward, who is staying with her aunt, Miss Leahy, near Douro church, met with a very painful accident, which may yet result in the loss of her foot.

It appears that in some way she fell against a cradle scythe with the result that her foot was almost severed from her limb at the ankle. Dr. Gray was communicated with, and had the little one removed to St. Josephs hospital, where with the assistance of Dr. McGrath, every thing possible was done for the sufferer.

I. O. F. Organizer.

Mr. A. W. Brown a Leading Official of the I.O.F., in the City

Yesterday a leading official of the Independent Order of Foresters, whose title is "Organizer," was in the city and spoke with several leading citizens, including a Times representative, of the grand work being done by his society.

Mr. Brown, who put up at the National Hotel, is making a series of visits to the courts in this district, but stated yesterday that his present visit to Peterboro is more personal than official. In discussing the work at present being accomplished by the order, Mr. Brown was most enthusiastic regarding the present outlook. The new Orphan's Home at Deaconto, will be opened on August 6th. The membership is growing at an unprecedently rapid rate. The increase in membership during the last three months has been 5,238. And that in surplus $122,342.50 during the month of June alone, the total surplus now amounting to $8,971,894.90.

Three delegates from Peterboro will attend the High Court meeting, which will be held in Belleville on August 30-31. The meeting of the Supreme Court will be held at Atlantic City on July 31. Among the 10 representatives who will attend from Eastern Ontario is Mr. John Garrett, of Havelock.

Supreme Lodge Cannot Get License

Winnipeg, July 20.—The provincial government has decided not to issue a licence to the Supreme Lodge A. O. U. W., to do business in the province, and have officially notified the Grand and Supreme Lodges to that effect. The decision is based on the ground that to grant the license would be to allow the Supreme lodge unjustly to interfere with the rights of the Grand lodge of Manitoba and the North-West Territories, which already has a charter for the province. Grand Master Irvine says the Supreme lodge will continue doing business in spite of the Government's decision, as they in no way trasgress the provincial law.

Down Would Come The British Flag.

If French-Canadians were Pushed to the Wall in Religious Struggle Down will Come the British Flag, Says Senator Choquette.

Ottawa, July 20.—During the debate in the Senate yesterday on the Autonomy Bills, Senator Choquette, who had been absent at previous sittings, placed himself on record. Who could deny he said, that the Roman Catholics were asking for rights which were guaranteed to them at Confederation? All right thinking men had accepted Mr. Mackenzie's bill of 1875 as settling this matter forever. He thanked God that the French-Canadians were a race who must be considered. They could not afford to refuse to recognize that the Catholic vote would be a power in a religious struggle. They had always been peaceful, but if pushed to the wall would seek elsewhere for protection. If compelled to do this by the intolerance of some of their fellows in the Confederation, down would come the British flag and the whole Confederation would go to smash.

Reference had been made to the exodus of the English from Quebec as a result of this intolerance of the French. It was a fact that they were moving away, but it was for natural reasons. The French had families of ten or twelve, whilst among the old-settled English a birth was looked on almost with abhorrence. This produced a preponderance of French. The present bills were a compromise.

ENGLISH VISITORS NARROW ESCAPE

SAVED BY NARROW MARGIN

The Bell Rope Broke and the Cage Descended into Water at Bottom

Denver, Colo., July 20.—To face death by drowning in the icy water of a cavern 1,000 feet underground, to feel a narrow strip of ground affording temporary safety crumbling away inch by inch into the black waters lapping at their feet, to see their only hope of rescue just an inch above their outstretched hands, and finally, to be saved after hope was gone, was the experience of Mr. Howard Wyndham and his companion, Sir Hugh Berkeley, of London, in the Mohegan Mine in Victor last Friday.

The visitors went to Victor to inspect the Mohegan Mine and were being lowered when they saw water below them.

They jerked the bell rope to signal the engineer, and broke it. The cage continued downward, and when water was up to their chins they jumped for the ledge and reached it. The engineer, puzzled by the one bell he had heard before the rope broke, began hoisting slowly and the cage left them.

Then they discovered that the ebb ledge they were standing upon was breaking down.

Barely in time to save them, the cage was lowered again and stopped where they could reach it, and they were hoisted to safety.

The shaft had filled to a depth of thirty feet or more from seepage.

Police Court

OFFICIALS

Chief of Police, G.I. Read
Magistrate, D.W. Dumble

Joseph Keltor, aged 26, who claims Hungary as his country of his birth, was yesterday afternoon locked up by P.C. Wilson, sleeping off a jag in Jackson Park. Joseph had evidently used some discretion whilst unloading the schooners that induced the jaglet, as he had some 12 or 15 cigars in his pockets; however, the drinks had come too swiftly between smokes. He will be tried this morning.

At yesterday's police court, two George street merchants, charged with having the street at the rear of their shops, littered with paper and other debris, were discharged as they previous to the cases being finally tried, had the objectionable matter removed.

A young lady, Miss Caroline McCarty, paid the usual $2 penalty for having used the sidewalks for bicycling.

John Fallon was charged with not supporting his family in a way that is expected under 20th century customs. John promised to do better in the future, adding that he would at once go and sign the temperance pledge.

On this understanding his Worship allowed him to go with a caution.

—Messrs. Duncan & Doupe have again been awarded the painting contract for our public schools. In the inside work their contract was for $195 as against a higher tender of $325. On exterior of West Ward school Duncan & Doupe's tender was $85 as against a highest tender of $83

GENERAL SPORTING GOSSIP

THE TURF—BASEBALL—LACROSSE—FOOTBALL

The Peterborough Lacrosse Team Defeated Oshawa Yesterday Afternoon, in the Last of the Home Games for Championship of this District.

Peterboro turned the tide on Oshawa yesterday afternoon, and redeemed themselves of the defeat they suffered early in the season at the Lakeshore Town, when they were defeated by five goals to three. The locals just handed it out to the visitors on Riverside Park yesterday to the tune of 10 to 1, and had the Peterboro Bonse had their shooting eye uncovered, the score would have read 20 to 1, which would fairly rate the comparative strength of the teams, as scores of shots went wild passing over the nets or at the side. Not at any stage of the game were the visitors considered dangerous as from the commencement the locals' superiority was plainly visible.

The visitors were accompanied by a score of supporters, and when Oshawa scored their first and only goal, they made themselves heard. This, however, was the last they were heard of.

Considerable hard checking was indulged in by both teams, and Referee Burt of Port Hope, penalized a number of the players by sending them to the fence.

The Peterboro defence was like a veritable stonewall; Derochier, Morgan and Meagher breaking up everything that looked dangerous. Morgan played a brilliant and steady game, fairly stealing the rubber off the visitors' sticks, Main Crowley and Ford kept the home fed well, the latter is playing a splendid game this season. Dick Boyle had little to do in the nets, but did it well. He has an eye for the hot ones, but did not get much of a chance to show it. Judd at 3rd home played his usual good game and put some hot ones at the net. Cavanah was not up to his usual form in passing the ball. Jack McCabe, Glover, and Best were a splendid trio and made things unpleasant for the visitors' defence, especially Pennington in the nets.

For the visitors, Glover on the defence played a good game; Hall and Curtin were the most conspicuous on the home, Hall scoring the visitors' only goal.

In the first quarter the visitors were the first to score. From the face off the ball travelled to Oshawa territory and hovered around the nets and it looked like a goal for Peterboro but Laydon secured the rubber and passed it up the field to Hall who passed to Curtin, back to Hall, who got an opening and scored. This livened up the local defence with the result that forever after the visitors got it cold. Morgan broke up a piece of combine of Hall and Michiels, passed the ball to Judd, who passed to McCabe to Glover, who scored Peterboro's first, followed by another by Cavanah from a pass of Glovers in one minute. McCabe slammed one into Pennington who stopped it with his head, but before two minutes play, Judd made the lucky shot, making the score read 3 to 1, followed by another, for Peterboro, McCabe taking the ball down the field from center and scoring.

In this second quarter the locals scored two more, Glover scoring the first, and Best the second on a pretty piece of combine from Judd to McCabe to Best.

In the next last two quarters the locals scored four more, Best, Cavanah Glover and Judd piercing the net.

Mr. George Lynch rendered valuable service as field captain.

The following players were penalized:—Cavanah 2, Rowden, Main, Crowley 2, Staples, Derochier, Ford and Evans. The following was the line up of the teams.

GREAT STRAIN ON WAR OFFICE

During the Boer War Many of the Staff Collapsed

London, July 20.—The war stores commission, appointed to investigate abuses in connection with the sale of of surplus army stores in South Africa, after the Boer war, commenced its session yesterday. The first witness was W. St. John Brodrick, Secretary of State for India, formerly Secretary of State for War. He dealt chiefly with statistics. Incidentally he stated, with reference to the excessive strain upon the staff of the War Office, that in the years 1901 and 1902 two members of the staff died of overwork, two became insane and a large number were invalided home.

A Poor Cook makes Tasteless Postum

SEND IT BACK

DEMAND that it be boiled full 15 minutes AFTER ACTUAL BOILING BEGINS. (not only 15 minutes after the pot is put on the stove.) A curious chemical change takes place between 12 and 15 minutes after Postum begins to boil. This change releases the food elements and produces a crisp, snappy coffee taste so fetching that the makers have been many times accused of mixing coffee in. But that is false. The full analysis of Postum made by the best American authorities shows that it is made only of the selected parts of cereal grains treated by complex methods in the factory.

Postum is Absolutely Pure

Remember you get a charming coffee taste if you insist on having your Postum made right and that is easy. Full and simple directions on pkg.

Remember also that when you leave off coffee you stop the dragging of stomach and nerve centres and give Nature a chance to heal your ills. In this work Postum is a most powerful aid, for you not only have your hot morning beverage but take a liquid food containing the very elements Nature must have from which to rebuild the gray matter in nerve centres and brains that have been broken down by coffee.

Ten days trial works wonders.

Small matter what form of stomach, heart, kidney or nervous disease you may have, for the probabilities are that your troubles have originated from a nervous system thrown out of balance by coffee.

Prove your own case by leaving off coffee 10 days and using Postum

It may be worth more than a gold mine to you.

POSTUM

Pale and Anxious

Your Countenance Indicates the Body's Awful Struggle for Health.

Impossible to work or think clearly when there is no reserve of vigor, no nourishment in the blood, no supply of nerve energy.

The life of the half-sick man is pitiful. In fact, almost criminal, when bounding strength is so quickly derived from Ferrozone.

This nutritive tonic is guaranteed to strengthen all men, woman and children. Weak organs get new force, vital energy is generated. Muscle and fat are added, healthy color is restored and the blood fairly tingles with new energy.

Read the evidence of Jno. Carter, 61 4th king St. East, Toronto, who says: "After a severe attack of Grippe my health was almost shattered. I suffered constantly from nervousness and dyspepsia. At night I would waken with terrible palpitation and heart pains. Work became a great effort. At ten in the morning I was so tired and weak I could hardly work another minute.

"Then came a bad attack of rheumatism which laid me up in bed. I could scarcely lift the weight of a pound and to stoop or bend was impossible. My druggist recommended Ferrozone, and he knew what he was talking about, for it rebuilt my strength, gave me abundant appetite, better blood, and new active energy. The rheumatism has disappeared. I weigh more, feel refreshed and vigorous, and am able to work ten hours a day. Ferrozone did it all."

You will be steadied, toned and strengthened for all time to come with Ferrozone. Get the genuine in 50c boxes or six for $2.50, at all dealers, or N. C. Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U.S.A., or Kingston, Ont.

THE INDEMNITY INCREASE

Now that our members of Parliament have modestly appraised their own [illegible] and sensible services to the country as two and a half times as valuable as those of their predecessors of a few years ago—when such men as Macdonald and Blake, and Mackenzie and Tupper, and Thompson and Chapleau, and McCarthy and Mills, and the Geoffrions sat in the Commons—it would be a neat bit of reparation for the people to demand that they take some pains to live up to this high valuation. The Star thinks that there are men in both Houses whose time, even for a reasonable session, would be worth $2,500, no one will question; though we doubt whether that number has increased in the last ten or even twenty years. But it is equally true that there are many men in Parliament whose services to the Dominion would not be worth $750 if they kept Hansard busy reporting them from snow to snow.

The truth is that there are too many $750 men in Parliament. And they cost the country a lot more than their indemnity, too. They are the men who expand Hansard with empty gabble, and who compel the business of the nation to pause while they make sure that their names will appear in the next day's papers. The additional weeks which such mental Lilliputians keep Parliament in session, with all its costly machinery moving, would pay the additional indemnity many times over, while at the same time removing the excuse on which it is now demanded.

What our Parliament needs is weeding out. Or, perhaps, it is the pruning knife that is required; for it is the crab-apple crop which is too large. To be blunt about it, there are too many small men at Ottawa who neither do honor to the country nor perform good service for their constituencies. It is the thought that such as these are voting themselves $3,500 a session which sharpens the edge of the popular disapproval of the indemnity "grab."

Now the small man is the product of the small constituency. In the case of the constituency, we do not mean "small" in mind or spirit, but in extent. The small man gets to Parliament by industriously making the acquaintance of every voter on his list, and working at the servile business of extending the 'glad hand' as if it were a trade. It he could not thus come as a sort of peripatetic political beggar to every man's door, he would never accumulate enough votes to get to Parliament. To demand that he should impress himself in a public way on any constituency, would be to doom him to obscurity.

One cure for this expensive drag upon the machinery of the Government, is to extend the boundaries of the constituencies. If we had large constituencies which could never be covered by a "glad hand" artist, our public men would have to reach them in a legitimate public way; and only men of real stature could be elected. Thus if we were to divide Parliament by [illegible] and multiply tenure of the constituencies by the same number, we should save two-thirds of the present indemnity bill; and we should weed out the small fry, giving us a Parliament of creditable public men. Here then is a remedy which our politicians might apply if they find the old dodge is too small. They can get their additional solatium without putting an extra burden upon the people; and they can at the same time provide for a Parliament which would be worth the increased indemnity.

THE AMERICAN IN CANADA.

A Visitor From Manitoba Says They are the Salvation of the Country

"Never was a more promising outlook for crops than is the case this summer," said A. Lindbach, of Winnipeg, Manitoba, at the Snowden House last night to The Times. "Of course, our main standby in that country is wheat. The plant is now just heading out. It will be ready for harvest somewhere along near the latter part of August. The only thing that can prevent a good yield is a frost. Every year the Manitoba farmer is on his mettle somewhere near August 15, because that is the time that if there is going to be any frost it comes. It never comes more than two or three nights and then, strangely as it may seem, we probably will not have any more frost until in November. Another strange thing in that country is that at this season of the year we have long days, the sun shining from 3 in the morning until about 10 o'clock at night.

"The country is undergoing marvelous changes for the better. The coming of the American farmer, as there have been many of them from Iowa, Minnesota, Indiana, Illinois and other states, has meant the practical salvation of the country in an agricultural way. The Canadian farmers used to be careless and slipshod in their methods, but the Americans are not so. Therefore they have been a blessing to the country. Right now five great railroads are being constructed through the territory for 1,000 miles to the north-west of Winnipeg, and there are to be several great trans-continental lines opened within a short time. All the land in this great section is eminently adapted to agriculture and the future is decidedly bright."

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Our Advice Taken

The Property Committee will Provide Ice for the Two Public Drinking Fountains.

As advised in This Times some days ago, Ald Hatten, chairman of the Property Committee, yesterday took city on this thirsty thousands who have, so far this summer, often gone to the fountains, in front of the police station and in Central Park, and taken a drink of luke warm water, well calculated from its tepid temperature to act as an emetic, by ordering ice for those drinking places.

As explained in This Times, the tenders for this supply of ice, whilst, at first sight, might seem excessive, a pencil and paper taken in hand, and used to compute the amount of ice required, were easily figured at on, a fair basis of profit to the concern supplying the ice. Ald. Hatten will certainly be voted a halo by the thirsty souls enjoying a palatable drink at either of these fountains.

HEBREWS TAKE POSSESSION

Toronto, July 20.—The formal transfer of McCaul street Methodist church to the Hebrews has been accomplished. The Hebrew congregation of Chavra Tillom has paid down the first $5,000 instalment and taken possession. There is $25,000 still to be paid.

The congregation expect to be worshipping in their new synagogue in a few weeks. They will do some slight repairing and will repaint a portion of the interior of the building. The organ, which is not used in Jewish worship, will be sold.

The Methodists have scattered, and many of them went to Beverley street Baptist church near their old place of worship Sunday night. It is announced that if they wished to join that church they would have to do so individually. Immersion is one of the sacraments to which they must agree.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

[1] At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

[2] If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

[3] If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

[4] If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses [2] [3] or [4] must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 30 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 30 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homestead to entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd of June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Offices in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information, respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

UINTAH INDIAN RESERVATION

To be opened September 1, 1905, unbosoming the latch on the "door of opportunity." Full of the latch string and the door will open for you, no matter where you live or what your occupation. Colorado men—well known, reliable, experienced—have organized the Indiana Mining and Power Co. and promptly ten thousand dollars capital by the sale of preferred stock, par value one dollar per share. Undoubtedly a ground floor site is offered at all, is offered to get money with which to start, has no asset whatever behind it, and depends entirely on future development for its value. Our proposition is different. We have started. Our stock scrip has an asset of property adjoining the reservation, consisting of 320 acres rich agricultural land, 280 shares of water in the Utah water right on the Uintah River and two lots (corner) Main street in the new town of Medlar, Utah. A fair estimate of the value, $16,800.00, is sixteen dollars for every dollar thus far invested and not must fifty per cent greater than the entire issue to be sold at the price it is here offered; however, this is only the commencement of operations. With the additional capital to be procured by the sale of stock other valuable property will be added and the opening of the reservation will start the harvest, of which our six years' continuous scraping has laid the foundation. You never had such an opportunity as we now offer. We share with you the results of the expenditure of our own capital, our labor and the judgment that has been displayed in securing this extraordinary opportunity for a profitable investment. Every dollar subscribed will bring manifold returns.

A limited amount of the preferred stock is on sale at 5 cents per share, the ground floor price. An advance to 10 cents will soon be made. A square deal is guaranteed. Write for any further information or any reference desired. DO IT NOW

WANTS PEACE WITH HONOR

Norwegian Independence Must Not Hurt Their Neighbor

FEAR GERMAN FRIENDSHIP

The Swedes are United and Will Stand Together—The Peasants Want War

Stockholm, July 19.—One week's careful sounding of Swedish opinion justifies the statement that Sweden is prepared to employ force to support its demand that the dissolution of the union be effected on legal and honorable terms.

What first struck your correspondent as apathy has proved to be composure and quiet determination. When the country has fully made up its mind Norway will discover that Sweden's deliberation has been neither cowardice nor indecision.

All classes of the community, members of the Riksdag, editors, lawyers, bankers, merchants and professors ardently desire a pacific solution of the crisis, but they do not want a peace that will cause Sweden to hang its head for shame before the whole world. Such a peace the Swedes would consider worse than war.

These sentiments prevail universally in Stockholm except among the socialist workingmen, but they are even stronger in the provinces which are alive with warlike enthusiasm.

The peasant classes are especially eager for armed chastisement of the insult they feel Norway offered their adored King.

THEY DESIRE PEACE.

Although there is no mistaking Sweden's last extremity, it is equally Sweden's readiness to resort to force in case that the Swedes sincerely prefer a peaceful settlement. That would be the meaning of the postponement of the negotiations for six months which many still believe the Riksdag committee will recommend.

The delay, it is believed, will allow Norwegian passions to cool and at the same time crystallize public opinion in Sweden.

Postponement or no postponement, however, it seems improbable that Sweden's determination to secure a settlement which will satisfy her pride will undergo alteration.

The Swedes are confident that when their conditions are known the world will consider them moderate and legitimate and place all responsibility for bloodshed in Scandinavia on the Norwegians.

Should Sweden be compelled to vindicate its honor on the battlefield, exactly what conditions might be exacted cannot be stated.

The principal ones are said to be:

A guarantee of the open door to all Norwegian markets, ports and railways, and a guarantee that Norway will contract no foreign alliance inimical to Sweden.

There is growing uncertainty and unrest on account of German designs.

The country is at a loss to know whether the Kaiser's naval demonstration this week is an act of unselfish friendliness toward Sweden and an incidental warning to Norway or whether it is intended to bring pressure to bear on Sweden to prevent the dissolution of the union.

The Kaiser opposes dissolution because he fears an independent Norway would become the vassal of England and a new danger to Germany in the North Sea. Many believe that William may have gone so far at Odde as to inform King Oscar that Germany considers Scandinavian unity as vital to Germany's interests and that Germany could not be a passive observer of its destruction.

Count Gyldenstolpe authorizes your correspondent to deny the statement published in the United States yesterday to the effect that the Kaiser and King Oscar discussed the preliminaries of a Swedish-German alliance. He says the idea is a fantasy.

Inquiries among the leaders of public opinion here show that the Swedes shrink from such an alliance because they feel that it would cost them dearly some way or other.

THE OLDEST MAN

Said to be 141 Years of age and Healthy

San Francisco, July 18.—Enrico Hernandez, aged 141 years, is believed to be the oldest man in the world, and his neighbors in Rosario, in Lower California, a few miles back from the gulf and under the shadows of the great Volcano de las Virgenes, declare that he has prolonged his life by magic and by witchcraft.

Hernandez was born March 3, 1764, the figures being proved by the parish records at Nazas, in Mexico, where he was born. That the man should live two lifetimes is strange of itself, but that for over fifty years he has appeared to grow no older, and that he uses a strange and secret diet and lives in an extraordinary manner in a yet more extraordinary house make him even more the object of interest than he is. And his queer actions, his agility, his monthly climbs up the side of the volcano of the Virgin have added to his renown as a sorcerer, and the Spanish and Aztecs, and even more the Yaquis, fear and revere him, declaring he is deathless and in league with Tezcopoi—The god of the volcano.

Hernandez's grandfather followed the conqueror Cortes into Mexico, and he lived to a great age, according to the story of his grandson. He married an Aztec woman, and lived in the City of Mexico, being attached to the personal staff of one of the viceroys up to viceroys up to the time of his death. He left, according to Enrico, nine sons and five daughters, and one of these Ricardo, who claimed to be "gachupine" (Spanish by birth), although he was a half breed, married an Aztec woman, who, according to legend, he stole from one of the temples where she served the undying fires.

RUSSIA WILL AVOID LOANS

Will Offer to Assume Part of the Japanese Debt

St. Petersburg, July 20.—M. Witte's program is to secure a Japanese alliance and to support the Mikado with carte blanche in China and with fishery rights in Sakhalin, Kamtchatka and North Siberia.

Russia will offer to assume part of the Japanese debt and will avoid loans, cession of territory, or anything likely to hurt foreign support for this program, while the bureaucracy, which is strongly antagonistic to him looks on his departure from Russia as a good riddance of a formidable opponent.

It is stated that Prefect Lopukhin will be succeeded as Minister of the Interior will be the notorious General Ignatieff.

The bold attitude of the revolutionists is due to the strong repression of all disorders by the Government and by the vigorous measures taken to prevent renewal of the disturbance. Wealthy merchants and bankers subsidized the revolution, harbored rebels and stored bombs. Foreign Socialists assisted. The German frontier villages served as bases for the campaign.

Now all this has been stopped. The sources of the revolutionists have been cut off, sympathizers have been banished and the German Government is now watching the frontier. When calm has been restored the Czar will undertake reform.

Kaiser an Klug Christian

Berlin, July 20.—The Kaiser is about to visit King Christian of Denmark. He will remain in Danish waters from July 29th to July 24th and discuss the Scandinavian crisis.

A CHANCE FOR A FORTUNE AT NO RISK TO YOU will you speculate in mining stock where there is every chance to win and no chance to lose?

Here's your opportunity, and we court the fullest investigation.

Bullfrog is young, but it is a Nevada.

We have so much faith in this camp that we've deposited the money to the Bull-frog Syndicate Mines Company to begin development work.

We're offering this stock at 10 cents a share, which represents a reasonable profit to us.

We have the exclusive Sale of this Company's Treasury Stock.

We have protected investors against the slightest possibility of a loss by underwriting the stock with the Western Loan and Guaranty Co. of San Francisco.

This means: The Guaranty Company guarantees to buy back your stock at 10 cents a share any time between now and April 1st, 1906.

Did you ever hear of such a tempting inducement to get into the world's richest mining camp?

The property is in the heart of the Bullfrog District. It consists of four claims known as the Sponge group.

Several ledges crop upon the surface and assays have run as high as $150.00 in gold and silver.

Our contract with the Company compels the management to do active development work.

Development work has begun and as the stock is sold shafts will be sunk and machinery installed for grinding the minerals, the value of which has been shown to increase with depth.

We do not claim that the Bullfrog Syndicate Mines Co. owns a developed mine, but an excellent prospect.

We prophesy a golden future for this property.

Your chances for making a fortune are as good as were the chances of others who have made millions in these districts.

The real fortunes in mining are made by buying while stocks have still the low positive value.

Buy now while the stock is 10 cents a share and guaranteed.

Don't wait for a rise. Buy now.

You can send your subscription direct to the Western Loan & Guaranty Co., Miller Bldg., S. F., or order us to send the stock, draft attached.

Obituary.

Death of Mrs. D. Maloney, Wife of Mr. Dennis Maloney, County Councillor.

The sympathy of many friends is being extended to Mr. Dennis Maloney, the popular county councillor over the sad death, at Warsaw, on Tuesday, July 18th, of his wife Mrs. Sarah Maloney.

It seems that Mrs. Maloney's mind has been somewhat affected by the loss about six months ago, of her son, a young man about twenty-one years of age, who perished in a fire which destroyed their home.

As noted in The Times at the time of this terrible disaster, Mrs. Maloney made a heroic attempt to save her son, but was unsuccessful. Subsequently she had appeared greatly depressed.

On Tuesday morning shortly after breakfast, Mrs. Maloney was taken seriously ill, being troubled with vomitting. No suspicion as to the real cause appears however to have been aroused, however, until after dinner, around, however, until after dinner, when Mrs. Maloney stated that she had taken Paris green. Dr. Meadows, of Warsaw, was immediately sent for, and on his arrival did everything possible, and a consultant was summoned from Peterboro, but it was too late and death occurred about six o'clock. Mrs. Maloney, it is said, made no statement in explanation of her act, further than to let fall a remark as to its folly. Although she gave no hint of intention to end her life, precautions had been taken to conceal everything from her, as far as possible, that could be used with that object in view. She, however, discovered the Paris green, which is commonly used for spraying purposes, in farm work, and her statement during the afternoon was that she had taken about two teaspoonsful.

Mrs. Maloney's former name was Sarah Murphy, and she was a member of an old and highly respected family living near Norwood. She was 47 years old. Her death will be deeply deplored by all who knew her. The late Dr. Murphy, who had charge of Brockville asylum was a brother. Her husband alone survives, and the news of his bereavement will be received with feelings of regret and sympathy.

It is expected that the funeral will take place this morning to Douro cemetery.

Automobile Races

Proposed Auto Races as a Feature of the Peterboro Fall Fair

There is some talk about town as to the feasibility of having an automobile race or races, as an attraction during the coming Peterboro Fall Exhibition.

In other cities all over the world there have been auto races for longer or shorter distances, and such races have been invariably not only of great interest to all observers, but have been a good drawing card compelling large attendance.

If the directors of the local exhibition, would co-operate with the Peterboro Turf Club, arrangements could probably be made whereby a race or series of races could be arranged over the fine track which is now in good condition.

In such races, the increasing rivalry between the different makers of automobiles, has invariably resulted in the makers, not only entering thoroughly into promoting such events, but in their putting up a share of the prize money. In this city the number of local autos is altogether disproportionate to population, and as Peterboro has the reputation, all over Canada, of being a modern and progressive city, the automobile makers, if properly approached, would doubtless hail with eagerness an opportunity of displaying their wares, and beating the virtues of their several makes. If the Turf Club can be induced to take up the auto race question, there is no doubt but what good races and consequently increased patronage of the Exhibition would be the result.

A Douro Man Falls 11 Feet

On Tuesday as Mr. John M. Lumsden of this city, was working at a barn in course of creation in the township of Douro, he fell from an 18 foot high scaffold. The barn is being built on Mr. David Forsythe's farm.

Fortunately Mr. Lumsden alighted on his feet, or otherwise he would most certainly have been killed. He escaped with a badly sprained ankle, which will likely confine him for some days to his residence on London str et where he has since the accident come.

—A special meeting of the Board of Works will be held to-night.

CHANGED HUSBAND

Wife Made Wise Change in Food.

Change of diet is the only way to really cure stomach and bowel trouble.

A woman says:

"My husband had dyspepsia when we were married and had suffered from it for several years. It was almost impossible to find anything he could eat without bad results.

"I thought this was largely due to the use of coffee and persuaded him to discontinue it. He did so, and began to drink Postum Food Coffee. The change did him good from the beginning, his digestion improved; he suffered much less from his stomach trouble and when he added Grape-Nuts food to his diet he was soon entirely cured.

"My friend, Mrs.— ——, of Vicksburg, (my former home) had become a nervous wreck also from dyspepsia. Medicines had no effect, neither did travel help her. On my last visit home, some months ago, I persuaded her to use Grape-Nuts food. She was in despair, and consented. She stuck to it until it restored her health so completely that she is now the most enthusiastic friend of Grape-Nuts that I ever knew. She eats it with cream or dry, just as it comes from the package—keeps it in her room and eats it whenever she feels like it.

"I began eating Grape-Nuts food, myself, when my baby was two months old, and I don't know what I should have done without it. My appetite was gone, I was weak and nervous and afforded but very little nourishment for the child. The Grape-Nuts food, of which I soon grew very fond, speedily set all this right again, and the baby grew healthful, rosy and beautiful as a mother could wish. He is two years old now and eats Grape-Nuts food himself. I wish every tired young mother knew of the good that Grape-Nuts would do her.

$500 REWARD FOR WOMEN
WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

"There are thousands of sick women dragging out a weary, miserable existence, who would be well and happy did they but have my experience with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. Allnie Lenman, of 106 Jackson St., Atlanta, Ga. "Four years ago I was nearly dead with inflammation and ulceration. I endured daily untold agony, and life was a burden to me. I had used medicines internally and externally until I had made up my mind that there was no relief in sight for me. A friend of mine endorsed your 'Favorite Prescription,' and I determined then to give it a trial. It took patience and perseverance for I was in a bad condition, and had to use your medicine for nearly four months before I was cured, but what a change it brought; from despair to happiness, from misery to the delightful, exhilarating feeling that only health brings. I would not change back for a thousand dollars. Your 'Prescription' is a grand medicine. I wish every sick woman would only try it and be convinced."

Several hundred people attended Jackson Park last night, and were delighted with the excellent band concert. The street railway management certainly made a philanthropic move when they started the Jackson Park entertainments, which are greatly appreciated. The car service was well managed and many flattering remarks were heard as to the way the street car people looked after their patron's interests.

TEN YEARS

The Story of My Wonderful Success.

Reads Like a Fairy Tale-Yet Full of Convincing Truths

An Opportunity of a Lifetime for the Investor.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF IT.

I ask every reader of this paper to write me. I want to send you my free book entitled "Ten Years"—"The Story of My Wonderful Success." It tells about one of the greatest and most promising investment opportunities ever offered. It tells how my business grew from less than $25.00 capital to its present proportions.

I believe I have the best proposition from an investor's standpoint that could be placed before you. For ten years I have been teaching men and women to live according to the laws of Nature. My book is the history of my life. It shows what energy and ambition can accomplish in the world of affairs. It is intensely interesting to any man or woman who has a few dollars to invest in a legitimate enterprise.

I started business in the City of Brooklyn in 1896. My capital amounted to less than $25.00. My first year's business netted me over $1,000.00. Last year I paid dividends to my partners of 15 per cent. Five years ago my business had grown so large that I was compelled to remove to larger quarters. I am now at 63-65 Clark St., Brooklyn, N.Y.—in connection with Hotel St. George. Experts pronounce my institution to be the best appointed of its kind in the country. I estimate the equipment of the Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture to be worth at least $40,000.00.

I want to have a building of my own that will enable me to accommodate my increasing business. To erect this building I need capital, but more important than this to increase my business to the proportions which I desire, I need the co-operation of men and women throughout the country and the world.

Co-operation is the Secret of Success

I recognize it. I believe that with thousands of co operators throughout the country I can build my business to tremendous proportions to the benefit of the shareholders and myself.

The Mac Levy Company is incorporated under the laws of New York for $150,000.00. They are proprietors of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

The last named branch of the business of the Mac Levy Company is comparatively new. I have been at work for several years to establish such a department in connection with teaching Physical Culture. The most difficult part of forming the Equipment Company has been accomplished. The business is now in condition to be pushed on a large scale. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are spent yearly on new gymnasiums and their equipment. The profits are large. A company of this kind has an immense field in which to work. Competition is slight. It is evident that the Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company can build an enormous business.

The Mac Levy Company operates during the summer months at Steeplechase Park, Coney Island, and at Averne Hotel, Averne-by-the-Sea, L.I., as well as at our Brooklyn Institute. I also does an extensive mail business. I teach people how they should live and exercise. My students are scattered all over the United States, and in English speaking countries.

which arrises in the minds of every man and woman is how to secure a comfortable income in the earlier years of their life, that they may reap the full benefits which such an income affords.

I have long thought that there are hundreds of people in moderate circumstances who would like to invest a few dollars in an institution of this kind. It is to such people that I intend this announcement shall appeal. I am offering a block of the Treasury Stock of this company to the public at its par value. My reasons for doing this are that I wish to erect a building and to extend the business of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

I WANT YOU AS MY PARTNER

I need your help and suggestion. I want you to work with me and help me to secure a tremendous amount of new business.

I believe that if you could talk with me personally and go over the records of the business which I have done, see in black and white the figures which show the steady growth my business has experienced during the past ten years, examine my plans for future extension, and then look over the magnificent equipment of my Institute, and would want no further evidence than to lay out put into my business would bring you the greatest possible returns consistent with safety and good management.

I ask you to write for my free book. I believe it will interest you. You have a few dollars that you want to invest. Why let it stand idle earning only 3 or 4 per cent that Savings Bank pay their depositors? Put it to work. Join it with mine. This Company ought to pay at least.

Cholera Breaks Out in Russian Camp

General Nogi's headquarters, Manchuria, July 21.—Cholera has cleared out this village of Teikaton, which lies on the Liao River, north of Kuring.

The epidemic became so virulent that the Russian cavalry stationed there fled along with all the inhabitants.

The heavy rains still continue. There is little fighting.

Tokio, July 21.—The envelopment of Vladivostok is now an accomplished fact. A Japanese army has landed north of the city.

The Russians cannot arrest its advance.

THE RUSSIAN FLEET.

Tokio, July 21.—The sunken vessels are being raised one by one, and repaired and put in commission. It is stimated that fully one half the warships will thus be treated. Japan's navy will then be nearly as powerful as Germany's.

RECIPROCITY CONFERENCE

The United States Government Will Have Representatives Attend

Washington, July 21.—The Government is beginning to manifest interest in the national reciprocity conference to be held at Chicago on August 15 and 16.

This is especially true of the Department of Agriculture and Commerce and Labor.

Without committing themselves upon the merits of the contention involved in a reciprocity question, both Secretary Wilson and Secretary Metcalfe will have representatives at the conference in the persons of their principal experts on live stock, agriculture, tariff statistics, and foreign trade.

Secretary Metcalfe will probably deliver an address.

Pressing invitations will be extended to President Roosevelt in the name of the agricultural, live stock and meat producing interests of the country, to attend this conference, and it is hoped if he finds itimpossible to accept he will send a letter expressing his views on the subject in general.

SUBMARINES FOR SWEDEN

United States Captain Presents Government With His Invention

Stockholm, July 21.—Captain Lind, of the United States navy, arrived in Stockholm today to present King Oscar in behalf of the Swedish navy, with his newly invented submarine torpedo boat.

Lind sold the exclusive rights of his invention to the American Government on condition that he be permitted to make a present of it to his native land. The boat discharges six torpedoes simultaneously.

AWAKENING ALARMS LEOPOLD

He Fears for the Future of the White Race in China

New York, July 21.—The Herald's London cable says:

The object of King Leopold in steaming over the channel to Dover to see J. Pierpont Morgan was to dissuade the American financier from accepting money offered by the Chinese to the American China Development Company, to forfeit the concession which had been given for a railway between Hankow and Canton.

King Leopold drew his attention to the fact that such a railway running in connection with a line of steamships from the United States would be of incalculable value to American commerce, and that it was a fatal step both from a financial and patriotic point of view, to abandon a concession under a scare-bidden rumor of change.

His Majesty drew Morgan's attention to the fact that upon this particular point of annulment of the American Development Company's concession depends the future of the white race in China, and that its withdrawal was the first strong step towards the ousting of all white men's commercial undertakings of the Celestial Empire.

China, emboldened by the success of Japan and consequent augmented prestige of the yellow races, boldly says to the American China Development Company, which has a contract which is valuable, varied and correctly drawn up: "You shall take pay and get out. If you don't we'll force you out."

A Popular Park

Larger Crowds Than Ever Attended Jackson Park's Last Band Concert.

That Jackson Park evening Band concerts, not only fill a long felt want, but the attendance on Wednesday evening, the largest yet, demonstrates that the local street railway management have a keen eye on the pulse of popular amusement. Many hundreds of our boat owned citizens wandered about "fancy free" through the well lighted and breeze stirred paths among the beautiful trees and shrubbery. This spot in an ideal one for such purposes, being close enought to nature in her unfettered wildness of scene, and well enough illuminated to banish all fears of molestation or insult should undesirable persons happen to visit the park. The place is well policed, but there is still some complaint, as there used to be at Victoria Park on Band night, of the unruly conduct of boys whilst the band is playing. This is a matter that materially interferes with enjoyment of the best class of music by those appreciating it; this trouble will however be promptly suppressed by P.C. Wilson, should noisy boys fail to learn that there are others besides themselves present and anxious to hear the music.

CZAR BREATHES SIGH OF RELIEF

He Believes That Revolutionary Movement Has Collapsed

PLEASED AT SURRENDER

Thinks Failure of Potemkin's Crew Killed Movement—News Quickly Sent to Army

St. Petersburg, July 21. — The Czar and the bureaucracy are as astonished as they are pleased at the reports of the conciliatory spirit shown in heretofore troublesome cities and towns, as a result of the surrender of the Kniaz Potemkin to Roumanian authorities. The leaders of the revolutionary party, which has been so active in its endeavors to precipitate simultaneous outbreaks in towns like Moscow, Odessa and Libau, are now lying low, fearing arrest by the secret police, who are hounding them night and day.

That the revolutionary movement has temporarily collapsed is the opinion held by official St. Petersburg, but the Czar and the ducal cabal are by no means confident that some minor difficulty will not provoke a clash that will mean the customary street charges of the Cossacks, a report to St. Petersburg of the killed and wounded, and a subsequent declaration of martial law in the dissatisfied provinces.

The political and labor situations is as uncertain as the weather. True, members of the party which is always demanding political reforms, cannot be awed by a militant demonstration, but it gives the clique little concern so long as the masses are held in check. A very excellent idea indeed has been found to cause a feeling of satisfaction in the labor ranks by making promises of eventual political rights. Minor concessions are being considered at the present time and may be announced any day. Whatever demands are granted will probably make the masses content with their lot in the future, but little hope is held here that the Gorkyites will be pleased. "Absolute political freedom" is the slogan of the followers of the novelist, but in view of the abject failure of the Potemkin mutiny it is preposterous to expect a fulfillment of the requests of the higher educated classes.

The government lost no time in conveying to General Linevitch the news that the Potemkin had surrendered. Needless to say this information will be imparted to the troops with flowing [illegible] of the heroic exaggeration, [illegible] of the refusal of the Russian people to tolerate a mutiny on board a warship and the terrible punishment that is to be inflicted on the ringleaders of the revolt. It is noted that in the dispatches to Linevitch sent this week there is an absence of offers of rewards in the event of a sweeping victory of Russian arms. This is regarded with unusual significance, for it practically reveals Russia's policy for the immediate future. I am told by an officer of the chief staff that fighting on a large scale will be suspended, while representatives of Russia and Japan are discussing peace terms in Washington.

I asked the officer in question whether Russia had decided to agree to an armistice. He admitted that the question had been discussed informally, and he assured me that the Czar will agree to a total suspension of hostilities, if he perceives that the peace plenipotentiaries will have no difficulty in coming to terms.

While nothing official is obtainable regarding Russia's peace conditions, I am told by an unquestioned authority that Japan's territorial demands will probably be granted and that the only difficulty that is apt to be encountered will be when the indemnity question is considered. Baron Rosen and M. Witte, the Russian peace commissioners, have been instructed to insist on as low a money reimbursement as possible. If Japan presses her claim for an indemnity of $1,000,000,000 a prolongation of the war is probable, as Russia is not prepared nor has she any means, in view of the enormous debt, to meet such a sum as Japan is likely to ask her to pay.

The financial department of the government thinks that an indemnity of about $500,000,000 and the secession of Port Arthur, Vladivostok and Saghalian are sufficient to repay Japan for her losses incurred in the present conflict.

Ten More Lives Are Lost in the Water.

Deseronto, July 21.—A fatal [illegible] accident occurred in Digby Gut Tuesday afternoon. A stiff breeze was blowing at the time, and the boat was seen to suddenly capsize. Richard was drowned.

Ridgetown, July 21.—O. H. Kindler, a young man twenty-three years old, and manager of a Cleveland orchestra, who had been camping at Rondeau Provincial Park for the past two weeks, was drowned yesterday. He and another young fellow went out on the bay in a canoe and after they had gone about half a mile from the dock Kindler was in the act of putting up a small sail when the canoe capsized. The boy managed to hold on to the canoe until rescued, but Kindler went down and was drowned before assistance reached him.

Port Stanley, July 21. — Maurice Smith, the eight-year-old son of Chauncey Smith, fruit dealer, of London, was drowned in the harbor yesterday afternoon. The little fellow seems to have been walking backwards and watching the dredge working, and walked off the pier into the water.

Have no Confidence in His Peace Attitude--Russia is Insincere in Her Expressed Desire for the Conclusion of Peace.

Tokio, July 21.—It is believed that Emperor Nicholas recently sent an encouraging message to General Linevitch promising him men, provisions and other necessaries for attaining an ultimate victory. It was also reported that the Russian Emperor recently ordered the mobilization of four army corps. This fact, taken in connection with the reported limitation of M. Witte's power as chief peace plenipotentiary, is deemed to be a signal that Russia is insincere in her expressed desire for the conclusion of peace.

Heavy seas are still raging off the coast of the Island of Sakhalin, and further reports of the Japanese operations there are not expected in the near future.

NORWAY STILL ON THE ALERT

WILL ASK FOR RECOGNITION

The Moderate Party in Sweden is Gaining in Strength—Newspapers Suspend Discussion

Christiana, July 21.—Norway is not disposed to await the pleasure of the Swedish Government in the matter of adjusting the union crisis. Information from Stockholm arrives at this city today to the effect that the Riksdag Commission is likely to recommend that Swoden dissolve the union but declining to discuss details for six months, arouses Norwegian resentment, although such action has long ago been discounted.

Our correspondent is informed that if the Riksdag vote for postponement until next January, Norway will almost certainly ask the powers for immediate recognition of its independence, if not fully, at least partially, in order that Norway's imports and commercial interests abroad be not jeopardized.

The Norwegian Government will not ask recognition as a matter of pride, but as a practical necessity.

Unwonted reserve and much mystification on the subject of Norway is

Before leaving Stockholm your correspondent learned that the Swedish official news agency had orders to request the Swedish newspapers to suspend discussion of the crisis at present.

The defeat at the primaries in Stockholm, Monday, of Professor Warburg, who represented the element which wants to stand out "in defence of Swedish honor," is regarded here as a sign that moderate sentiment is increasing in Sweden.

Emigration to America from Norway is said to be normal and not to have been affected by the crisis.

Emigration to America is Said to be Greatly on the Increase

ESCAPE MILITARY SERVICE

Think That Disruption of the Union Lessens the Dignity of the Country

Stockholm, July 21.—There is every indication that the disruption of the union will greatly increase Scandinavian emigration to America. The departures from Swedish ports were 72 per cent. larger in June, 1905, than for the same period in 1904, and 95 per cent. larger during the same period in 1904. These figures, which were supplied to your correspondent by C. W. Halstrom, secretary of the North Atlantic Steamship conference for Sweden, do not include the heavy clandestine emigration of persons who lack courage to apply for steamship tickets through the regular channels in Sweden, while the danger of war hangs over the country.

Many of them are leaving ostensibly for Norway, England, Denmark and Germany, and embarking there.

This class, which consists of young men on the threshold of military service, is always large. It is especially so now. It is believed that the Government will prohibit emigration as soon as war is imminent. Information is available in Stockholm regarding Norwegian emigration, but is assumed that it is even heavier than Swedish emigration, because economic conditions in Norway are vastly worse.

Dr. Jonas Stadling, the sociologist, considered this increased emigration one of the most disastrous features of the union crisis. The peasant classes are inclined to leave for sentimental reasons. The union has been to them the symbol of Scandinavian greatness. They feel that its disruption has lowered their position as individual citizens of the world.

Still Missing

Little W. J. Murphy, the Coal Shed Victim, Still Missing.

All search for the missing boy William J. Murphy, of coal shed notoriety, is still unavailing. The boy, a smart little fellow, was last seen, or acknowledged to have been seen, by either his guardians of the Children's Aid Society or his father Jos. Murphy, on July 11th. It appears that on the evening of that day, he expressed a wish to Mr. Wm. Henry, officer in charge of the shelter, that he might be allowed to go to the G. T.R. station to say farewell to a cousin who was to depart upon the Lindsay train. "Willie" was allowed to go to the train. Mr. Henry following him. The boy, when he had reached the station, glanced around, and when he saw Mr. Henry, made a rapid flight through the crowd, disappearing from sight, and has not yet been heard from since.

Thinking it possible the lad had gone to either Lindsay or Omemee, enquiries have been instituted at both of these places, but without result.

It will be remembered that this boy was kept last winter in a coal shed near the Grand Trunk Railway, by his father, and that judicial steps were taken to remove him from his then state of misery and lack of care, and hand him over to the Children's Aid. It is also, perhaps, fresh in the minds of our readers, how the lad was afterwards placed with a respectable farmer near Millbrooke, and that his father went by night to try and get him away, but unsuccessfully. The boy's father claims to have no knowledge of his whereabouts.

A Hotel Purchase

Messrs. Lawless and Spellman Buy the Lakefield House From Jas. Allen.

An important business deal was consummated in Lakefield yesterday whereby Messrs. A. L. Lawless, proprietor of the National Hotel this city, and T. Spellman purchased the Lakefield House at Lakefield, conducted for some weeks past by Mr. Jas. Allen, formerly of the C.P.R Hotel. The Lakefield House is in an excellent position for summer tourist patronage and under the able management of the two Peterboro gentlemen who have had considerable experience, it will reach a high standard of popularity in the best class of patronage. It is understood that a number of important changes are to be made in the hotel.

Police Court

OFFICIALS

Chief of Police, C.S. Stewart
Magistrate, R.W. Dentin

Alex. Lockington, charged by Acting Chief Stewart with breach of the bylaw which gives use of the sidewalks to pedestrians in preference to their being made a speedway by wheelmen, was fined $2 and allowed 10 days in which to collect the coin.

Joseph Kotlor, an Hungarian, picked up in Jackson Park on Wednesday afternoon by P. C. Wilson, whilst sleeping off the effects of too much of the cup that inebriates, and who had his pockets filled with Flor de Cabbage cigars, was allowed to go with a warning.

• • • •

Constables Stewart and McGintz had a warm (?) scrimmage, yesterday afternoon. A [illegible] driver with a jag in proportion to his height, and it is somewhere in the neighborhood of six feet, [illegible] was picked up near the National Hotel. Their prisoner was so overcome the two husky guardians of the peace had to carry him to the station. Up to going to press this inebriated one was too drunk to give his name or say where he captured the jag.

• • • •

Yesterday evening Acting Chief of Police Stewart brought in a prisoner from the country, who had been suspected of stealing a considerable sum of money. It seems that two young Scotchmen, fellow passengers on a trans-Atlantic steamer from this old country, had become intimate during the voyage, and after landing roomed together at a Toronto boarding house. A few days ago one of them, on going to his trunk, found that his bank roll containing a large sum of money had been abstracted. In alarm, he called his fellow countryman, and told him of his loss; Scotchman No. two, thereupon searched his own trunk and found that he too had been robbed of a considerable sum. The first mentioned son of Scotland, recently came to this county and took a place with a farmer some distance out. No. two, having his suspicions aroused, came to the city yesterday and swore out a search warrant against his quondam, fellow traveller.

P.C. Stewart drove out to where the young man suspected was working and a search made, but without result.

Now the young man who suspected his friend, is very sorry for his act, and asserted last night at the station, where his friend was "in durance vile," that he was "very sorry he ever came to Peterboro," his suspicions being, he determined finally, without foundation. The case will be tried this morning.

A very pretty, though quietly celebrated ceremony was performed in St. Luke's church, Wednesday afternoon, when, with the Rector, Rev. E. A. Langfeldt officiating, Miss Emma Louisa Scott, daughter of Mr. John R. Scott, Maria street, 5th ward, became the wife of Mr. Leo Kraut of New York.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mabel Scott, as bridesmaid, while Mr. Fred Holland acted as best man. Only the immediate relatives were present at the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Kraut intend to live in New York.

The King's Cup.

Bisley, July 21.—Very few bulls eyes are being registered to-day on the hundred yards boards for the 600 yards range for the second stage of the King's Prize match. The best shots being recorded, with few exceptions, are inners, magpies and outers, while there are quite a number of misses. The conditions this afternoon are the same as this morning. The tricky wind is mostly blamed for the poor shooting. Sergt. Moore, of Peterboro, is one of the Canadians shooting in the second stage.

How Consumption Starts

Tired When You Awaken—Languid All Day—Nerves Worn Out—Sleep All Gone

Your limbs feel "draggy" and excessively weak. A night's sleep seldom brings "satisfying" rest. Continuous headaches, exhaustion and nervous sensations destroy your health. Soon every spark of vitality is used up. Then you catch tuberculosis.

Start to-day. Build up, get nerve force, and overcome this process of decay. Use Ferrozone, which physicians consider the most vitalizing, uplifting tonic ever made.

Ferrozone cures because it can furnish the body with sufficient nutriment and building materials to make rich, red blood. Then the appetite increases, delightful color in the cheeks proves that pure, rich blood is being circulated. Tired muscles are invigorated, flesh and weight are added. Nerve force develops, and rounding, joyous health is firmly established.

This is certain—Ferrozone restores failing strength from any cause. The experience of Mr. Thos. Dowd, of Strathroy, Ont., proves this.

"Household worries and cares had about exhausted my strength. I was weak and miserable. My cheeks lacked the color of health, and occasionally I had spells of rheumatism. Then my appetite fell off, and nothing could tempt me to eat. Wherever feelings, chills and despondency filled my very being. I became anaemic and dwindled down to a shadow. Consumption was very near. Ferrozone put strength in my body with a rush. It built me up, strong, virile and happy, and I have been well ever since."

Ferrozone cures sickness by curing the real cause—lack of blood and nerve tone. It keeps people at their best—fit, ready and anxious for work. In 50c. boxes only, six for $2.50, at all dealers, or N. C. Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U.S.A., and Kingston, Ont.

A PENSION AFTER FIVE YEARS

The greedy haste with which the indemnity "grab" has been rushed through has prevented anything like an adequate consideration of its more remarkable features, says the Montreal Star, who proposals with which it is associated may be familiar enough amongst the members at Ottawa, who may conceivably have spent considerable time discussing how far they dare go in bleeding the Treasury; but they are not familiar in the country, and it is the country which must pay.

For instance, the five year limit for Ministerial pensions is simply astounding. In what other capacity can a man earn a pension for life after a paltry five years' service? What business house would consider a proposition to pension its employees after they had worked for five short years? Five years is more like a term of apprenticeship than a period of wearing service which entitles a man fairly to a good pension.

The judges of the land—quite as capable and quite as hard-worked a set of men as the Ministers—get no pension after five years labor. Judges of the Superior Courts must serve fifteen years before they become eligible for a pension; and judges of the County Courts only arrive at this distinction after twenty-five years "hard labor." Now why should the Ministers be treated so immensely better than the judges?

A ten year term for the Ministers would not have seemed so outrageous, if the vicious pension principle was to be applied to them at all. A far better plan would have been to pay the Minister while at his post an adequate salary, and only pensioned those whose cases particularly appealed to Parliament as calling for special action. But to pension a Minister after a poor five years in office will always be looked upon by the country as a species of kid-gloved "graft."

CHINESE EXCLUSION

The boycotting of United States goods and United States citizens by the Chinese business men of the treaty ports, has awakened the executive at Washington to a conviction that something must be done quickly to conciliate the Orientals. At a cabinet meeting held last week President Roosevelt and his assistants devoted considerable attention to the question, and as a result the President sent a letter to the acting secretary of state, directing the immediate issuance of a circular to all United States diplomats and consular representatives in China, setting forth the policy of the administration in regard to the treatment of citizens of that country by the United States. In this letter Mr. Roosevelt points out that under the laws of the United States, and in accordance with the spirit of the treaties negotiated between the United States and China, all Chinese of the coolie or laboring class—that is, all Chinese laborers, skilled or unskilled—are absolutely prohibited from coming to the United States, but that the purpose of the government of the United States is to show the widest and most liberal courtesy toward all merchants, teachers, students and travelers who may come here, as well as toward all Chinese officials or representatives in any capacity of the Chinese government. All individuals of these classes are, the President says, allowed to come and go of their own free will and accord, and are to be given all the rights, privileges, immunities and exemptions of the most favored nation. It is furthermore announced that special instructions have been issued through the secretary of commerce and labor to the effect that, while laborers must be strictly excluded, the law must be enforced without harshness, and that all unnecessary inconvenience and annoyance toward those entitled to enter the United States must be scrupulously avoided. The officials of the immigration department in particular have been informed that no harshness in the administration of the law will for a moment be tolerated, and that any discourtesy shown to Chinese persons by any official of the government will be cause for immediate dismissal from the service.

TRY TO CAPTURE $14,000

Hold up Railway Superintendent and His Son, But Fail in Their Object

Montreal, July 20.—Mr. A. C. Lytle, superintendent of the Mount Orford Railway, and his sons were held up by two masked Italians between Kingsbury and Windsor Mills last evening while on their way to pay the employees of the railway. Mr. Lytle was driving along the main road with a satchel containing $14,000 under the seat, when the two Italians, armed with shotguns, jumped out of a bush and ordered Lytle to throw up his hands. One of the Italians immediately fired and killed the horse. Lytle grabbed the satchel, and, jumping from the carriage, ran in one direction, while his son jumped and ran in the opposite direction. The other Italian fired at Lytle, and a portion of the discharge struck the satchel. A little way up the road a man employed on this road came to Lytle's assistance. The highwaymen then made for the woods. One arrest has already been made. Lytle has a portion of the discharge in a leg and arm, but is not seriously injured.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

STRIKE PETERING OUT

Employers Say They Have all the Men They Want

Montreal, July 20.—There was a large meeting of the building contractors in the Mechanics' Institute, yesterday afternoon. The strike situation was discussed at length. It was unanimously decided to stand firm and to in no way recognize the union. It was stated that Messrs. Stairer, Brown and Wills had more carpenters and joiners than they really required. It was also claimed that Mr. Thomas Ford and other employers had all the men they required and that, as far as they were concerned, the strike was in no way interferring with their business.

Mr. J. H. Lauer, secretary of the Builders' Exchange, told The Times that the strike would simply peter out. There would be no settlement, he said, the employers were improving the position every day. Mr. Lauer denied the statement to the effect that twelve of the leading contractors had conceded the demands of the men. He said that only a few had signed and they were by no means considered among the most important builders.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to break 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 30 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

(4) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses (2), (3) or (4) must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 80 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 3rd of June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Office in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

The various organs become natural and manly. You feel yourself a man and know marriage cannot be a failure. We invite all the afflicted to consult us confidentially and free of charge. Don't let quacks and fakirs rob you of your hard-earned dollars. WE WILL CURE YOU OR NO PAY.

NO NAMES USED WITHOUT WRITTEN CONSENT.

THREATENED WITH PARALYSIS.

Peter B. Summers, of Kalamazoo, Mich., relates his experience:

"I was troubled with Nervous Debility for many years. I lay it to indigestion and excesses in early manhood. My symptoms kept changing and I didn't care whether I worked or not. I imagined everybody who looked at me, guessed my secret. Imaginative dreams at night weakened me—my back ached and pains in the head—my hands and feet were cold, tired in the morning, poor appetite, fingers were shaky, eyes blurred, hair loose, memory poor, etc. Numbness in the fingers set in and the doctor told me he feared paralysis. I took all kinds of medicines and tried many first-class physicians, wore an electric belt for three months, went to Mt. Clemens for baths, but received little benefit. While at Mt. Clemens I was induced to consult Drs. Kennedy & Kergan, though I had lost all faith in doctors. Like a drowning man I commenced the New Method Treatment and it saved my life. The improvement was like magic. I could feel the vigor going through my nerves. I was cured mentally, physically and sexually. I have sent them many patients and will continue to do so."

UINTAH INDIAN RESERVATION

To be opened September 1, 1905, embraces the batch of the "door of opportunity." Pull at the batch string and the door will open for you, no matter where you live or what your occupation. Colorado stock—well known, reliable, experienced—have organized the Indiana Mining and Power Co. and provide ten thousand dollars capital by the sale of preferred stock, par value one dollar per share.

Ordinarily a ground floor stock, if offered at all, is offered to get money with which to start, has an asset whatever behind it, and depends entirely on future development for its value. Our proposition is different. We have started. Our stock many has an asset of property adjoining the reservation, consisting of 320 acres rich agricultural land, 200 shares of water to the first mining right on the Uintah River and two lots (corner) Main street in the new town of Modlin, Utah. A fair estimate of the value, $16,800.00, is sixteen dollars for every dollar that has invested and an asset fifty per cent greater than the oblige issue to be sold at the price it is here offered; however, this is only the commencement of operations. With the additional capital to be secured by the sale of stock other valuable property will be added and the opening of the reservation will start the harvest, of which our six years continuous mining has laid the foundations. You never had such an opportunity as we now offer. We share with you the results of the expenditure of our own capital, our labor and the judgment that has been displayed in securing this extraordinary opportunity for a profitable investment. Every dollar subscribed will bring manifold returns.

A limited amount of the preferred stock is on sale at 5 cents per share, the ground floor price. An advance to 10 cents will soon be made. A report deal is guaranteed. Write for any further information or any reference desired. DO IT NOW.

ENGLISH VISITORS NARROW ESCAPE

SAVED BY NARROW MARGIN

Denver, Colo., July 20.—To face death by drowning in the icy water of a cavern 1,000 feet underground, to feel a narrow strip of ground affording temporary safety crumbling away inch by inch into the black waters lapping at their feet, to see their only hope of rescue just an inch above their outstretched hands, and, finally, to be saved after hope was gone, was the experience of Mr. Howard Wyndham and his companion, Sir Hugh Berkeley, of London, in the Mohegan Mines in Victor last Friday.

The visitors went to Victor to inspect the Mohegan Mine and were being lowered when they saw water below them.

They jerked the bell rope to signal the engineer, and broke it. The cage continued downward, and when water was up to their chins they jumped for the ledge and reached it. The engineer, puzzled by the one bell he had heard before the rope broke, began hoisting slowly and the cage left them.

Then they discovered that the clay ledge they were standing upon was breaking down.

Barely in time to save them, the cage was lowered again, and stopped where they could reach it, and they were hoisted to safety.

The shaft had filled to a depth of thirty feet or more from seepage.

MYSTERIOUS CASE OF PLAINS

Portage la Prairie, July 20.—The body of Andrew Henry, aged 75, an old resident of The Plains, was found in a condition which would indicate murder. Henry was in town on Saturday and bought a new buggy, and in the evening left town with a man named Taylor, formerly a policeman here, but dismissed on charges of a criminal nature. Nothing more definite is known. Yesterday morning Taylor called on G. Sinclair and stated that he had found the body of an old man in bad shape and had carried it to F. Gatt's shack. Sinclair investigated and found Henry's body horribly battered and the clothes torn. Sinclair then informed the authorities and detectives are now investigating.

TAR AND FEATHERING CASE

Chief Murray Finds it was Work of Brockville's Respectable Citizens

Toronto, July 20.—"It was not the work of rapscallions, but of respectable law-abiding citizens who were tired of Ruggosani's tricks." Such is the opinion of Chief Murray, of the Provincial Detective Bureau, who has returned from enquiring into the Brockville tarring and feathering case. The Chief failed to secure the names of the persons who lathered the Italian with feathers and tar, but he did unearth several interesting letters which the Italian is said to have written since his release from prison to the little girls whom he had abducted. These letters may mean further trouble.

Braithwaite, of Cavan; Mrs. John Bradburn, of Michigan; Mrs. Robert Hoglish, 251 George street, city; Mrs. George Beeson, of Cavan; Mrs. Thomas Sisson, of Otonabee and Mrs. William Johnston, of Manitoba. The New Bank

An Innovation in Canadian Bank Procedure Originates with the Monarch Bank

[illegible] Bank, who [illegible], Mr. J. Marshall Ostrom, is a well-known citizen of Peterboro, has not passed with Honors at Parliament. The Commons cut down the amount originally asked for as its capital, viz., $10,000,000 to $2,000,000.

[illegible] Commons to granting any more bank charters at present, as it was instructed by some that banks sometimes of late, amply asked for incorporation for purely speculative purposes. The Banking Committee of the House were amply convinced that such was not the case in the application of the Monarch Bank, and the Committee has since had proof that the terms were strictly complied with.

This bank is now negotiating for the purchase of valuable central business property in Toronto, on which to erect the head office of the company.

Mr. J. Marshall Ostrom, the [illegible] and provisional manager, states that the bank will be managed and conducted on most conservative principles.

A striking feature in the modus operandi of the Monarch Bank is that it will keep open day and night.

This is certainly an innovation in banking in Canada, where all business is done between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. Many to whom we have spoken concerning this proposed radical change, did not see any necessity for longer banking hours, but there were others who thought it would be a great convenience to the public, more especially to the travelling public, who often arrive in a city after banking hours, and who are forced to remain over until the next day.

Hotel people, we believe, are the greatest sufferers by the present short banking hours, as they are called upon day after day to cash checks for their patrons who may require money after banking hours.

Many of our citizens who remember Mr. Ostrom as a citizen and merchant here, will be pleased to hear that the Bank, with which his name is so prominently connected, has obtained its charter and about to begin business. Mr. Ostrom's name as founder and manager will doubtless create a feeling of confidence in the Monarch Bank, among our citizens who knew him well.

Church Choir Notes.

Mrs. Charles McClelland will preside at the organ in St. Paul's church during the coming two or three weeks as Mr. John Crane will be taking his usual midsummer holidays.

Mr. William McIlroy has been appointed baritone soloist in St. Andrew's church choir. The appointment is a good one, Mr. McIlroy being the possessor of a clear, well trained voice.

St. Luke's Church Gleanings

The current number of St. Luke's Parish Church Work contains the following items of interest:—

This Harvest Home Festival will be held on Thursday, Sept. 28th. Rev. Canon Welch, D.C.L., rector of St. James' Cathedral, Toronto, will be the special preacher.—The members of the W. A. and a few friends spent a delightful afternoon at Otonong Park, where they held their annual picnic. Mrs. T. H. G. Deane had very kindly placed her cottage at the disposal of the W. A. and with Mrs. Roland, did everything to make the outing very pleasant. Her kindness was very much appreciated.— —Mr. G. F. Wardle, the rector's warden, has gone on a trip to the North-west and will be away from town for six weeks..... Mr. Albert E. Taylor, Divinity student, has passed his examinations at Toronto University very creditably. He is spending his holidays with his parents, and has begun to assist in Church work. Mr. Taylor assists the rector on Sundays at St. Mark's, reading the services for him, and has also taken a Sunday School class at St. Luke's.

A Record Kawartha Sail

Messrs. Arthur Ebbles, Selwyn Sangster and Ward Allison, three Port Perry gentleman, left that town on Monday morning last in a small skiff, taking a tent with them, and, favored with a fair wind, sailed the long course, via Lake Scugog and Sturgeon Lake to Fenelon Falls, arriving in this city on Tuesday afternoon. This is a record trip over this stretch of waters. The three gentlemen continued their voyage from Peterboro yesterday in the skiff en route for Hastings. They spoke very favorably of the scenery through the Kawartha Lakes, and had good success with the trolling line as they voyaged along.

Early Fishing Operations Rewarded

Yesterday Messrs. W. Snowden and D. Hall, the Charlotte street lonsorial artist, returned from a fishing trip at Burleigh Falls. The latest agonal reports by Marconi wireless telegraphs from Burleigh say that these two fishermen sat up all Wednesday night watching the clock, fearing the alarm might not get in its work abruptly at 2.30 a.m., and they delay their fishing operations. Whether this report is well founded or not, the two fishermen certainly did bring home some splendid maskinonge, and yesterday, indignantly repudiated a hint that they had used a "Silver Bait" to capture their prey.

Narrow Chests.

The old theory that consumption was inherited is utterly discredited by modern medical science. The germs of consumption must be received from without. These germs are every where. They are constantly being received and cast out by the healthy system. It is the narrow chested whose inheritance is weakness who fall a prey to consumption because they are too weak of lung to resist and throw off disease.

Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes weak lungs strong. It cures obstinate deep-seated coughs, bleeding lungs, weakness, emaciation and other conditions which if neglected or unskilfully treated find a fatal termination in consumption.

$3,000 FORFEIT will be paid by the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Proprietors, Buffalo, N. Y., if they cannot show the original signature of the individual volunteering the testimonial below, and also of the writers of every testimonial among the thousands which they are constantly publishing, thus proving their genuineness.

"In the spring of 1900 I was taken with hemorrhage of the lungs, and became very weak and short of breath, lost flesh and had no appetite," writes Mr. E. L. Robinett, of Xerxes, Tenn. "I was persuaded to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The first few bottles seemed to do me but little good. Thought I would soon be a victim of that dreaded disease, consumption. Had almost given up in despair when my friends persuaded me to give your 'Golden Medical Discovery' a fair trial. I commenced its use. I weigh 160 pounds now, and when I commenced I only weighed 120 pounds. If any one doubts this statement I will be pleased to answer any inquiry."

TEN YEARS

The Story of My Wonderful Success.

Reads Like a Fairy Tale-Yet Full of Convincing Truths

An Opportunity of a Lifetime for the Investor.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF IT.

I ask every reader of this paper to write me. I want to send you my free book entitled "Ten Years"—"The Story of My Wonderful Success." It tells about one of the greatest and most promising investment opportunities ever offered. It tells how my business grew from less than $25.00 capital to its present proportions.

I believe I have the best proposition from an investor's standpoint that could be placed before you. For ten years I have been teaching men and women to live according to the laws of Nature. My book is the history of my life. It shows what energy and ambition can accomplish in the world of affairs. It is intensely interesting to any man or woman who has a few dollars to invest in a legitimate enterprise.

I started business in the City of Brooklyn in 1896. My capital amounted to less than $25.00. My first years business netted me over $1,000.00. Last year I paid dividends to my partners of 15 per cent. Five years ago my business had grown so large that I was compelled to remove to larger quarters. I am now at 63-65 Clark St., Brooklyn, N.Y.—in connection with Hotel St. George. Experts pronounce my institution to be the best appointed of its kind in the country. I estimate the equipment of the Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture to be worth at least $40,000.00.

I want to have a building of my own that will enable me to accommodate my increasing business. To erect this building I need capital, but more important than this to increase my business to the proportions which I desire, I need the co-operation of men and women throughout the country and the world.

Co-operation is the Secret of Success

I recognize it. I believe that with thousands of co operators throughout the country I can build my business to tremendous proportions to the benefit of the shareholders and myself.

The Mac Levy Company is incorporated under the laws of New York for $150,000.00. They are proprietors of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

The last named branch of the business of the Mac Levy Company is comparatively new. I have been at work for several years to establish such a department in connection with teaching Physical Culture. The most difficult part of forming the Equipment Company has been accomplished. The business is now in condition to be pushed on a large scale. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are spent yearly on new gymnasiums and their equipment. The profits are large. A company of this kind has an immense field in which to work. Competition is slight. It is evident that the Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company can build an enormous business.

The Mac Levy Company operates during the summer months at Steeplechase Park, Coney Island, and at Averne Hotel, Averne-by-the-Sea, L. I., as well as at our Brooklyn Institute. I also does an extensive mail business. I teach people how they should live and exercise. My students are scattered all over the United States, and in English speaking countries.

which arrises in the minds of every man and woman is how to secure a comfortable income in the earlier years of their life, that they may reap the full benefits which such an income affords.

I have long thought that there are hundreds of people in moderate circumstances who would like to invest a few dollars in an Institution of this kind. It is to such people that I intend this announcement shall appeal. I am offering a block of the Treasury Stock of this company to the public at its par value. My reasons for doing this are that I wish to erect a building and to extend the business of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

I WANT YOU AS MY PARTNER

I need your help and suggestion. I want you to work with me and help me to secure a tremendous amount of new business.

I believe that if you could talk with me personally and go over the records of the business which I have done, see in black and white the figures which show the steady growth my business has experienced during the past ten years, examine my plans for future extension, and then look over the magnificent equipment of my Institute, and would want no further evidence that money put into my business would bring you the greatest possible returns consistent with safety and good management.

I ask you to write for my free book. I believe it will interest you. You have a few dollars that you want to invest. Why let it stand idle earning only 3 or 4 per cent that Savings Bank pay their depositors? Put it to work. Join it with mine. This Company ought to pay at least.

Desperate Resistance, the Fight at Daline.

Sakhalin Soon to be the Japanese, It is Thought Russians Cannot Hold Out Long--Desperate Resistance Offered to Conquering Japanese--Took Two Days to Defeat 200 Russians.

Tokio, July 22.—It is officially announced that Russians who have thus far surrendered at various points of Sakahlin Island number 461, including one colonel and 14 other officers.

An Imperial edict was issued this morning authorizing the appointment of non-commissioned officers from the reserve conscripts, also converting those of sundry service rank into privates of fighting rank.

A HOT LITTLE FIGHT.

Tokio, July 22.—A special telegram from Otaru says that the Russians defeated at Daline were about 200, with six field and three machine guns, and taking the fullest advantage of the topographical character of the district, offered the most desperate resistance. The Russian positions were hidden among a thick forest, and it was impossible for the Japanese gunners to make a correct observation. The engagement, however, was opened by the Japanese at 6 o'clock in the morning of July 7 and was kept up until dusk, the Japanese infantry gradually gaining ground, closing in on the enemy's line of defence, awaiting an opportunity for an infantry charge.

It was nearly two hours past midnight when the enemy's first line of defence, strengthened by barricades and trenches, was taken. This success was vigorously followed up, but it was not until 9 o'clock on the morning of July 9 that the enemy was driven from the second line of his defence and a victory secured, with trophies of four field and one machine guns. The nature of the ground exposed the Japanese assailants to a great disadvantage and risk.

It was believed that, owing to the short supplies of ammunition and provisions, the Russians at Sakhalin could not hold out much longer.

GERMANS DEFRAUD CANADA'S CUSTOMS

In Collusion With Certain British Firms to "Work" Preference

BEEN LONG IN OPERATION

Commission Asked for to Examine and Punish the Offenders--Some of the Details

London, July 22.—Some Canadian manufacturers now returning have gathered startling information regarding the fraudulent use to which German manufacturers, acting in collusion with certain British merchants, have been putting the Canadian preference. Large quantities of German hosiery and other manufactures have been shipped to Canada and other Colonies through London under the preferences, although nothing like the required 25 per cent. of British labor has entered into their manufacture.

Often the only British labor involved in this has been the transhipment and repacking. Some even allege that the preference benefits are frequently 90 per cent. or even less to British. It is understood that the Canadian Government has possessed for some time past specific evidences of this fraud. Surprise is expressed that no action has been taken to prosecute. It is hoped the Canadian Tariff Commission will thoroughly investigate the matter, for which purpose a secret commission should be at once despatched to probe this frauds here with a view to penal action. It is also urged that the provision of the preference law, requiring only 25 per cent. of British labor should be amended if the preference is to realize the intentions of the Canadian Parliament. Mr. Chamberlain's attention has been called to the matter.

have been vexed when using cream of tartar and soda to find their work uneven. If sometimes good, at others the biscuit and cake will be heavy or sour or full of lumps of soda that set the teeth on edge. Flour, eggs and butter wasted. This is because the cream of tartar is adulterated or cannot be used in the proper proportions.

NORWAY NOW IS GROWING RESTIVE

Animosity Against Sweden Has Been Widely Sown Through Nation

BY CAMPAIGN OF DECEIT

While Sentiment Was at First Friendly Towards Sweden, it Has Completely Changed

Christiania, July 22. — Norwegian animosity against Sweden and the Swedish people which was conspicuously absent when the union was broken, is now deep seated and wide spread. Hatred has crept in where in the beginning was only kindliness and an earnest desire for a pacific settlement. Even those who most ardently wish for a peaceful outcome admit that the situation has been dangerously aggravated as the result of the "campaign of misrepresentation" it is alleged the Swedish have systematically carried on.

It is declared that the most respectable Swedish newspapers have not hesitated to indulge in "detestable lies" regarding Norwegian mobilization and Norwegian plans for attacking Sweden and have even gone so far as to fabricate Norwegian telegrams in their own offices day after day. The provisional government possesses infallible means of watching legitimate correspondence and says that these statements can be proved.

Even the Norwegian Conservative party, hitherto the most pro-Swedish and pro-union element in the nation, admits that "Sweden has at last come out in its true colors," and created an atmosphere of resentment that will not be disengaged for years. The immediate effect of all this will be that Sweden's conditions will not be received by the Storthing and the people in a conciliatory spirit as would otherwise have been the case, while Norway may set up conditions of its own.

Yet it is declared that Norway might forget the libels it has endured for the past seven weeks and set sincerely to work to create a bond of real sympathy in the peninsula if the Swedish Riksdag's dissolution terms should be inspired by moderation. Norway considers particularly humiliating, because it insults its reputation for hospitality to strangers, the assertion that the fifty thousand residents of the country have been regularly bullied since the collapse of the union. The Swedish editors has passed resolutions branding these assertions as wholly unfounded.

Police Court

OFFICIALS
Chief of Police, G. L. Reed
Magistrate, D. W. Dumble

The first case before yesterday's police court was that of a Dickson Cottage's river driver, charged with being d. and d. His Worship allowed the 6 ft. 3 in. of repentant humanity to go and sin no more.

The next case was a charge of stealing $65 laid by a Scotch immigrant against a brither Scottie, who had come out on the same ship, last March, to St. John's, N.B. The two, having struck up a friendship aboard ship, came on to Toronto together, boarding in the same room at 151 George street. The complaintant swore that on the 11th of May, $65 in bills were stolen from his trunk, but a $10 gold piece, lying beside his roll was left. His companion claimed that his trunk had also been rifled the same day, $105 in bills having been taken. He suggested his friend of stealing his money because he (the prisoner) did not seem to care much about the loss which had happened to both of them, and because the trunks were both opened by similar keys.

A search warrant was issued on Thursday at the farm where the prisoner was working at Lang. Found $77 in bank bills, in sums from a $20 to a $1 bill. Has no other evidence to offer. The only ground for suspicion being that the same key fitted both of their trunks.

P.C. Stewart in this box said he went to where prisoner was working and searched both his person and room on his person found $28 in bills and $4.35 in silver and $43 in the room, total $77.83.

The prisoner's employer said prisoner came to him on 12th May in answer to an advertisement. Prisoner is a blacksmith, and engaged with him at $11 a week, has paid him $64.68 altogether, and his board. Says prisoner is an industrious and sober man.

The Magistrate offered the prisoner the privilege of entering the witness box and telling him that it was not necessary as no case had been proven against him. He then honorably discharged the prisoner.

Pete Johnston, a well known local character, with "reams to jet," was charged with having created a disturbance in Jackson Park, his offence being that he danced and drew a crowd about him, to the hinderance of those enjoying the band music. Pete was allowed to go, his Worship strongly advising him to reserve his terpsichorean practice for a more appreciative audience.

STRIKE PRACTICALLY OVER

Teamsters Voting to go Back to Work--Lumber Drivers Almost Unanimous

Chicago, July 22.—The strike of lumber drivers in the city has been declared off. The 600 striking employes of the lumber dealers voted on the question of stopping the strike, and were almost unanimously in favor of returning to their places regardless of the action of fellow strikers.

Other local unions of teamsters involved in the long continued struggle against the Chicago Employers' Association, will take similiar action by referendum vote if the recommendations of the teamsters' joint council are carried out. The Department Store Drivers' Union began voting to-day on the question of calling the strike off. Railway express drivers and truck teamsters will vote on the question to-night. It was the action of the lumber drivers taken without the sanction of the strike leaders that influenced the teamsters' joint council to adopt a motion advising the strikers in other local unions that the time has come to vote the strike off.

A MURDER DONE WITH HAT PIN

Indian Squaw Suspected of Killing Her Negro Husband

Windsor, Ont., July 22. — Crown Attorney Rodd and Detective Mahoney are investigating the death of Fred Montgomery, a colored resident of Sandwich, who is thought to have been murdered by his wife, an Indian squaw. This couple had a row about two weeks ago, and it is alleged that Montgomery was stabbed with a hat pin. He was taken to St. Mary's Hospital, Detroit, where his death has just occurred. Little evidence of the fatality can be adduced, and the police authorities are only working on the anti-mortem statement of the wounded man. His wife received some money from a brother in Washington Territory, and is said to have fled to that district.

Free Once More.

Patrick McAuliffe, of Emily, the man who has for so many weary weeks lain in Castle Nesbitt, awaiting trial on a charge of murdering Fred Hudson, the Hunter street hotel man, on the evening of June 1st, is once more in enjoyment of his liberty. There has been considerable sympathy with McAuliff in his present position, many thinking that he did not strike to kill, even supposing he struck the fatal blow; his past record points entirely contrary to such a supposition, however this is a matter for judge and jury to finally decide at the assizes next October.

Yesterday Police Magistrate, Mr. D W Dumble, being authorized by the order of the Hon. Mr. Justice Magee, obtained on the consent of the Attorney-General, admitted him to bail. The bail was fixed at $7,000, the prisoner being bound in that amount. His sureties are his father, Patrick McAuliffe, his uncle, Leonard McAuliffe, Dennis Maloney of Ennismore, and Philip Creagh, of Smith, each in the sum of $1,750.

In making this very rare exception, that of admitting to bail, a man detained on a charge of murder, particularly after the coroner's jury unanimously agreed in implicating the prisoner, Mr. Justice Magee, relied on the facts that the blow which the deceased sustained was struck without premeditation and in a barroom row, that there was no previous quarrel between the two men, and that death did not supervene until ten days had expired, thus leaving it open to the prisoner to ameliorate in their treatment which the deceased received, and the fact that the autopsy showed that the deceased was suffering from fatty enlargement of the liver, from a fatty degeneration of the kidneys, from a valvular affection of the heart which might leave the case of death open to conjecture when the case came before a jury. There were also the facts that the defence could bring forward the theory of self-defence, provided the blow was struck by McAuliffe, and furthermore that the defence could be brought forward that the blow was not struck by McAuliffe at all, but possibly by some person outside the hotel who threw the missile through the open door.

In view of all these facts his Lordship decided that it was a proper case for bail, and a large number of Patrick McAuliffe's friends offered to give the required security. He will now return to the home of his parents in the township of Emily, to await the October assizes and if Grand Jury does not throw the case out, the petit jury will decide how far the responsibility of Fred. Hudson's death is attributable to McAuliffe or his alleged blow.

GUIDED BRITISH TROOPS TO PEKIN

Rev. Frederick Brown on His Way Home From China

CONDITIONS IN FAR CATHAY

Chinaman is Conservative and Will Take Lessons Only From Japan Whom He Understands

Montreal, July 22.—Rev. Frederick Brown, F. R. G. S., of the Methodist Mission of Tientsin, China, was at the Bath Hotel, yesterday, on his way home to England. Mr. Brown has had a very interesting career in China, having served there as a missionary for exactly 25 years.

During the Boxer rebellion, Mr. Brown served as a guide to the British forces marching against Pekin, it being through his services that the British forces were able to reach the legation of Peking some three hours ahead of the United States and some nine hours ahead of those of Russia and Japan. Mr. Brown was regularly appointed to the staff of General Gasalee, it being felt that the knowledge of the language and the country, which the missionary had at his fingers' ends, would be of the greatest aid to the advancing forces. It was through Mr. Brown that the English General took a course contrary to the one advised by headquarters and thus established the record of being the first.

"The sanitary conditions during the advance were the worst possible," said Mr. Brown, "the river being at times choked up with dead and mortifying bodies. This was the water we had to drink."

As a reward for his services, the missionary was given not only a medal and clasps, but also received a commission, which he now holds, as chaplain of the British forces in Northern China.

Mr. Brown was the first to discover the massacre of the missionaries of Pao Ting Fu, among whom was Horace Tracey Pitkin, a Yale graduate, well known to many for his work in connection with the Student Volunteer Movement.

CHINA OF TODAY.

In speaking about the present day conditions in China, Mr. Brown said that there was considerable feeling against the United States as a result of the exclusion of the Chinese from that country. The Chinese are so very conservative," said the missionary, "that even with this present war as an eye-opener they are likely to take a long time to wake up, and when they do strive after more modern things they will take the Japanese as their teachers because these two nations understand each other so well. It was 'Chinese' Gordon who said that the Chinese would some day be the best soldiers in the world. Mr. Brown said that this was so in the war to a very large extent, but only so when they had good leaders. When these were killed, however, and the old material had to be depended upon, the Chinese were no good.

When asked his opinion of Canada, he said that few things had impressed him so much as the vastness of the prairies. "I was," said Mr. Brown, "very much disappointed in the towns and cities of the West, but when I arrived in Montreal I felt that I had come to a city that was worthy of Canada, everything looked as if it had been made to last."

Mr. Brown leaves tomorrow on the Virginian, going to England for the purpose of taking Mrs. Brown home, she herself being an invalid. Mr. Brown returns in the fall to China, when he will again take up his missionary work.

The Engine Question

No Definite Action Towards Purchase of a Fire Engine Attained.

At last night's meeting of the Fire, Water and Light Committee, the purchase of a new fire engine was discussed. Mr. Gilbert Britchford, President of the Canadian Fire Engine Company, was heard as to the merits of the company's engines of different makes and volumes of water supplied. Mr. Britchford highly complimented the roads of the city, when speaking of the trouble experienced in moving engines of different weights. He recommended that the city should not buy an engine supplying more than 1,000 gallons per minute. He said that our present engine could be repaired, and with it, at the back of a new engine, the underwriters would give the town favorable consideration.

It was definitely determined that the city must buy an engine of some make.

Ald. Crowe wanted to know whether it was necessary to buy an engine at all, as he could not see what use an engine would be if the water works were put out of business by a dam giving way, a pipe bursting.

The committee, however, were unanimous in thinking for general fire protection an engine is absolutely necessary.

Three tenders have been received but the competition is necessarily between the Waterous Company and the Canadian Fire Engine Company.

It was resolved that a committee meet a local expert with a view to them getting the benefit of his practical experience and advise as to the best terms and conditions to buy an engine.

No Transit Sunday

No More Sunday Excursions Through the Lift Lock

After this date persons wanting to visit Kawartha Lakes will have to content themselves with excursions during week days as Mr. J. H. McClellan, Superintendent of the Canal, has sent out notices to all bridge swingers and lock masters on the system, instructing them to enforce rigorously the law in respect to the swinging of bridges and the operating of locks on Sundays, and in future no bridge swingers will swing or shall allow to be swung any bridge under his control, between the hours of 12 p.m. Saturday and 12 p.m. Sunday, and the same rule applies to locks on the system.

The object of this order is to prevent the Sunday excursions. It appears that hitherto, while it was known that the Government employees were not supposed to open the locks or bridges the persons operating the boats frequently did the work if necessary, to permit of the navigation of their craft.

In future this will not be allowed.

Port Hope Swindler.

Peterboro's By Station to Rochester Worked by Slick Cheque Worker

On Thursday afternoon a slick geon," man worked the good merchants of Port Hope by the most brazen bogus cheque business, but his operations were strictly limited owing to their local police force.

Messrs. Butler & Sons were first victims, when the stranger tendered a $12 check in payment for a vest, but the firm being suspicious, turned him down. He next called at the stationery store of John Steen, and, selecting an $8 camera, tendered the same $12 check and was given $4 in change. Becoming satisfied, Mr. Steen ascertained at the Traders' Bank that the check was a forgery, and immediately summoned Chief Constable Read, who shortly afterwards located the culprit and captured him after a hot chase across country. The prisoner, who gives his name as Edward Lang, of Spadina avenue, Toronto, is a clean shaven, medium built young man about 25 years of age and about five feet seven inches in height. He was identified by Mr. Steen and placed in custody.

Port Hope, July 22.—The trial of Edward Lang, who was arrested here yesterday morning for forging a check on Mr. John Steen, merchant, came up before Police Magistrate Holland this morning at ten o'clock, and he was sentenced to one year in the Central Prison, Toronto.

The New Battery.

Parties Ambitious of Joining the New Field Battery Should Send in Their Names

As noted in previous columns of This Times, there is about to be organized a new field battery, with title No. 24.

Major Dr. Young, the officer commanding this Twenty-Fourth Field Battery, which has its headquarters in this city, will commence organizing this new battery at once. Those desiring to join should send in their names to Major Young as soon as possible. The prospects for the Twenty-Fourth Field Battery are exceptionally bright.

Great Excitement in the British Commons

Every One is Wondering Whether Balfour Will Resign--Not Unlikely He will Hang on--Dissolution Would Mean Sweeping Victory for Liberals.

London, July 22.—The House of Commons sat barely half an hour today, and then adjourned until Monday to await the Government's decision regarding its future course of action, in view of the defeat of the Ministry last night on John Redmond's motion to reduce the vote of the Irish Land Commission.

The House was packed in every part, much excitement was visible on all sides, and there was a disposition to view the defeat of the Government as more serious than it was generally regarded in the early hours this morning. Immediately after the House had assembled, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the Liberal leader, moved its adjournment, declaring that it would be unseemly under the circumstances to proceed with business while the Government was considering its position.

CABINET MEETS TO-DAY.

Premier Balfour, however, declined to adjourn the House until the bill dealing with the differences of the Scottish United Free Church and the Free Church had been passed. This was quickly accomplished, and the House rose and the excited members swarmed into the lobbies, eagerly discussing the probable decision of the Cabinet, which has been summoned to meet this afternoon.

FORMAL TRIAL MONDAY.

The view that the Government will resign, however, is not held in circles generally well informed of the Government's intentions, and it is reiterated that the resignation of the Balfour Ministry is not likely in view of the almost practical certainty that the Government will be rehabilitated by its normal majority on the trial of strength, July 24, to which the Opposition formally challenged the Ministry.

CHAMBERLAIN AND MULOCK TO CONFER

Comment on Mr. Chamberlain's Withdrawal of Earlier Dissolution Demand

OPPOSITION NOW ANGRY

May Endeavor to Induce the Colonies Not to Attend the Conference

London, July 21.—Sir William Mulock confers with Mr. Joseph Chamberlain this week.

Chamberlain's withdrawal yesterday of his earlier dissolution demand is accepted as the clearest indication of the agreement of Chamberlain and Balfour on all material fiscal questions.

No general election may be expected now till the autumn of 1906. The Opposition's anger at the moment centers in the reflection that the automatic colonial conference of 1906 will be held under the auspices of a Unionist Government, who will refuse to hamper the Colonial Governments in any way in the discussion of fiscal or any other questions.

Campbell-Bannerman desires the conference and the whole fiscal question rigorously excluded, the conference being used to induce the colonies to contribute in cash towards the army and navy.

The Unionists contend that it is impossible and undesirable to attempt to limit colonial expressions.

No success has as yet attended the Radicals in their indirect approaches to induce Canadian and other colonial ministries to intimate that they could not attend the 1906 conference if summoned, but fresh efforts to this end are in contemplation.

A CANADIAN CHEF D'OEUVRE

Beautiful Facsimile of "Parfait Bonheur" a Canadian Masterpiece.

Mr. Arthur Rountree, the George street grocer, yesterday showed The Times a beautiful facsimile of a well known Canadian artist, entitled "Parfait Bonheur," (perfect bliss).

This lithograph is being presented by Messrs. Bowin Wilson & Co., wine merchants and importers, of Montreal, who are now distributing them to their customers.

The subject of the picture is an old fisherman, after having caught several bass and perch lighting his pipe before starting for home.

At the side of the fisherman we see a bottle of Canadian Red Cross Gin. A good fishing, a good smoke, and such a good drink. As they not enough to ensure perfect happiness and justify the name given to the picture?

ONE HUNDRED MILLION bottles of Painkiller used since Perry Davis made the first. BILIOUSNESS of stomach ailes and other aches cured; what a record in 60 years. Have a bottle always handy—you will not regret it.

Last Night's Runaway

Horse Frightened by Street Cars, Flinging Out His Driver, Runs Away.

Friday night, shortly after seven o'clock, a gentleman driving along Charlotte street was the victim of a street car frightened horse and sustained a severe fall, and consequent shaking up. His horse became terrified by a street car at the corner of George and Charlotte Sts. and in wheeling round suddenly, to escape the cause of its fright, threw its driver clear out over the wheels on to Charlotte street. The instant the controlling force was felt missing from its reins, the horse dashed down George to King street; on reaching the Peter Hamilton Manufacturing Company's plant, it turned east. At this point, a member of the company, standing by their office, made a plucky attempt to stop the horse. It passed, and failing to do this, with equally good nerve jumped into the buggy from the rear, as it passed. At first, only being able to reach one of the reins, he had some difficulty in arresting this wild course of the terrified and madly galloping animal; however he succeeded, as the horse approached the market square, in stopping it. The rig was somewhat the worse of wear, one wheel being completely twisted, its rim resembling the letter "S" when suffering from a compound fracture.

Wedding Bells

In this town of Benoit, Wisconsin, a double wedding took place. Miss Katherine Bradley was married to Mr. Perrigo, superintendent of the Windsor Department of Fairbanks, Morse & Co., and Miss Frances Bradley was married to Mr. William H Moore, electrical engineer of Red Deer, Alberta, formerly of the Canadian General Electric Co., Peterboro. Mr. Moore is the elder son of Mr. John T. Moore, of Toronto, and is an old Upper Canada College boy. He was educated for his profession at the Canadian General Electric Works at Peterboro, at McGill University and at the Lawrence Scientific School of Harvard University. There were some 400 guests at the wedding and a reception was subsequently held on the lawn. The Canadians present were the relatives of Mr. Moore, his father and mother, J. T. Moore, of the University of Chicago School of Law and Professor and Mrs. Dee H. Lock, of the School of Education University of Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Moore will spend a week in Toronto before leaving for their home in the west.

Obituary.

Death of Mr. E. McIlroy, Township of Smith.

A sad death occurred yesterday in the township of Smith, the direct result of a most lamentable accident.

Edward McIlroy, aged 36, unmarried, died yesterday morning as the result of injuries received by being run over by a binder on the farm of James Heard in Smith township. The deceased belonged to Port Hope and thither the remains were taken for burial during the afternoon.

According to reports received McIlroy was thrown from a binder by a sudden start of the horses. A doctor was called and found that McIlroy's back had been broken.

DUTY OF CATHOLICS

Archbishop Langevin Declares They Must Obey the Pope and Vote Properly.

Winnipeg, July 22.—In his sermon at the confirmation service at St. Laurent, Archbishop Langevin dealt with the political duties of Catholics in energetic terms. He also said that it was a grievous sin and crime for parents to neglect the education of their children.

He impressed upon his hearers their political obligations. "We need your votes. See in France where the Church is persecuted to the great scandal of the whole world. It is because Catholics did not know how to use their votes. It is not by fine speeches, not by prayers even, that justice may be made to reign. We must pray, but we must also know how to act.

"It is not the Protestants we have to fear. No, it is bad Catholics who allow themselves to be influenced by money, offices, or honors. It is those who are always afraid. We must make the use of our right. The Church has a right to speak on certain political questions, as well as on religious matters, on school legislation and other such matters.

"You must obey the Pope and not allow yourselves to be tempted by a sum of money, a little office, etc. I respect the freedom of the people. But I, too, must obey the Pope. It is the duty of every Christian. I exact of you no other duties than what is a duty for myself."

The Archbishop says he has not one word to take back of the sermon preached some time ago at the St. Jean Baptiste celebration.

The Scourge of Consumption

Thousands Are Dying—If Tired, Languid or Run Down Get Protection Before Too Late

No child, man or woman is safe from consumption unless the blood is pure, rich and nourishing.

Allow the blood to become thin, and immediately the whole system grows weak, the lungs are deprived of nourishing power and the everpresent tubercular bacilli develops.

The most positive protection against consumption is Ferrozone, which restores the blood to full strength. Weak organs are instantly strengthened. Worn out tissues are rebuilt. New life is given to the lungs and all danger of consumption is destroyed.

Mrs. E. J. Robinson, Montreal, Que., writes regarding the marvelous gain in health from Ferrozone: "For two years I was not well. I was thin and anaemic. Towards spring I fell into a condition of nervous exhaustion. A dead tiredness hung over me like a load of lead. Housework of any kind I simply couldn't do. A bad cough developed that worried me greatly for I thought it might be tubercular. When I first read of Ferrozone I was convinced it was good. I took it regularly for eight weeks and the change in my condition was wonderful. My cheeks filled out and became clear and rosy. I gained eight pounds and now am strong and vigorous as possible."

Ferrozone feeds, nourishes and tones up the body—it sends the thrill and vim of robust health from head to foot—makes you feel better at once. Won't you use Ferrozone? Price 50c. per box, or six boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or N. C. Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U.S.A., and Kingston, Ont.

PETERBORO JULY 22 1905.

WHY THEY COME

The Washington Post, in seeking a cause for the exodus from the United States to Canada, endeavors to comfort itself with the statement that it is the desire for change, which is inherent in the wandering Anglo-Saxon. In the Anglo-Saxon composition there is a desire for a change merely for the sake of changing, says The Post. It is the same spirit that induced the Danes and Saxons to settle in England; that caused their descendants to move to America, and the early Americans to leave the settlements and move across the Alleghenies. There was a movement from Ohio to the farther west, and within the memory of thousands are other migrations. Wisconsin and Iowa settled the Dakotas, and the East has always furnished adventurous spirits who have always wanted to be on the frontier.

Of course, there is nothing like a frontier or pioneering in Canada now, as has been the experience of the people who settled the country west of the Mississippi since the civil war. Railroads are the pioneers in the Canadian North-West. The immigrants do not go in prairie schooners now in tourist cars. The railroads are built ahead in advance of settlements, and are projected far beyond the settlements. But yet there is enough of the pioneer life, of the new and strange, to induce these Americans to seek new homes. There are thousands of men in this country who never have room enough. All over the broad land there are thousands of men who have always complained of being "crowded" as soon as other settlers begin to fill up the country. They object to having boundaries prescribed by human hands. They want to move. They are the sons of pioneers growing up in what are now old states. They have heard the stories of pioneer life, but they have never shared in the experience. They go out to seek homes, far away from all that seems like the pressure of civilization. Of course, they cannot go beyond civilized peoples and modern methods now, but they can get close to the "jumping-off" place in the Canadian North-West . . . This strange and immense northland has become a lodestone to those who are seeking the new and the unknown. All of these people believe they will better their condition. To many of them anything would be an improvement over the everlasting sameness which they have experienced for a generation. The little old farm and its unpainted buildings look dingy and squalid compared to the fine farms shown by the Canadian immigration which they have experienced for a song, raising immense crops, prove very attractive to the cramped farms of high price and comparative small crops. They want room and land, and the immigration agents show them where they can have all they want of both.

It may not be a satisfactory condition to this country to see so many people going to another country, but the instinct and breeding of centuries will have to be changed before it can be stopped. Deep in the hearts of all Americans is the feeling that they would not care if the Canadian North-West was a part of the United States.

UNCLE SAM'S NEW DUTY

While the Canadian Government was engaged in the pleasant occupation of boosting the salaries of themselves, and other members of Parliament, Uncle Sam was doing something [illegible] Warningly, unexpectedly, without special provocation, he slapped a duty of 20 per cent. on pulpwood imported from the Province of Quebec. When Uncle Sam wants to do something for his own good he does not consult the foreigner who may be affected by the transaction. He looks to his own interest only. The Canadian Government knew it would be a good thing for Canada to put export duties upon various articles produced here; but it is so mindful of the feelings of Uncle Sam that it sacrifices Canadian interests and permits this country to be a supply depot for raw material for American manufacturers. While the imposition of 20 per cent. duty is made in the interests of the United States, and was not at all intended to benefit this country, it will, we think, in itself and in its consequences, be of very great benefit to this country. If it gives excuse to the Canadian Government to do something for Canada it will be of great benefit to this country. But if it simply reduces the quantity of pulpwood exported by Canada, or makes other raw material more expensive to the American papermakers, it will benefit the Canadian papermaker, giving him an advantage in the markets of the world for his output.

And there are several other articles than pulpwood in the same category.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

The Lord's Day Alliance has taken commission of the cheese factories in Ontario. The secretary, Rev. Mr. Shearer, threatens to proceed against any who shall receive milk on Sunday. A better way would be to check the formation of the lacteal element at that time, solving the whole problem simply. If the cows are not milked they will spoil; if the milk is not used soon it will spoil in warm weather. The legal proceedings threatened seem to be an interference with nature's process, anyway.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. BOY ELOPES WITH WOMAN

A 13-year-old Boy Believed to Have Gone Away With Woman Having Three Children

Detroit, Mich., July 21.—Mrs. Tula Koblasch, 29 years of age, and Carl Pofer, 13 years, living near Ann Arbor, are believed to have eloped. An affection has existed between them for some time so marked that Mrs. Koblasch's husband had protested to both. The boy and the woman disappeared Tuesday night. Nothing has since been heard of them. The sheriff and his deputies are looking for them. Mrs. Koblasch abandoned three small children. This is a state offense. Pofer's father has made complaint against him as a truant.

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the North West Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of The Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act and the amendment thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

(4) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or corner township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses (2), (3) or (4) must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 30 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 30 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patents on or before the 2nd of June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Offices in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the North west Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the North-west Territories.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

N. B.—In addition to Free Grant Lands, to which the Regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from railroad and other corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

UINTAH INDIAN RESERVATION

To be opened September 1, 1905, unbuttons the latch on the "door of opportunity." Pull at the latch string and the door will open for you, no matter where you live or what your occupation. Colorado oil-well brokers, reliable, experienced—have organized the Indiana Mining and Power Co. and provide ten thousand dollars capital by the sale of preferred stock, par value one dollar per share. Ordinarily a preferred stock, if offered at all, is offered to get money with which to get more, has no asset whatever behind it, and depends entirely on future developments for its value. Our proposition is different. We have started. Our stock upon has an asset of property adjoining the reservation, consisting of 320 acres rich agricultural land, 300 shares of water in the first water right on the Uintah River and two lots (corner) Main street in the new town of Moffat, Utah. A fair estimate of the value, $16,800.00, is sixteen dollars for every dollar then for invested and an asset fifty per cent greater than the entire issue to be sold at the price it is here offered; however, this is only for commencement of operations. With the additional capital to be secured by the sale of stock other valuable property will be added and the opening of the reservation will start the harvest, of which our six years' experience nursing has laid the foundation. You never had such an opportunity as we now offer. We share with you the results of the expenditure of our own capital, our labor and the judgment that has been displayed in securing this extraordinary opportunity for a profitable investment. Every dollar subscribed will bring manifold returns.

A limited amount of the preferred stock is on sale at 5 cents per share, the ground floor price. An advance to 10 cents will soon be made. A square deal is guaranteed. Write for any further information or any reference desired. DO IT NOW

He Fears for the Future of the White Race in China

New York, July 21.—The Herald's London cable says:

The object of King Leopold in steaming over the channel to Dover to see J. Pierpont Morgan was to dissuade the American financier from accepting money offered by the Chinese to the American China Development Company, to forfeit the concession which had been given for a railway between Hankow and Canton.

King Leopold drew his attention to the fact that such a railway running in connection with a line of steamships from the United States would be of inestimable value to American commerce, and that it was a fatal step, both from a financial and patriotic point of view, to abandon a concession under a scare-hidden rumor of changes.

His Majesty drew Morgan's attention to the fact that upon this particular point of annulment of the American Development Company's concession depends the future of the white race in China, and that its withdrawal was the first strong step towards the ousting of all white men's commercial undertakings of the Celestial Empire.

China emboldened by the success of Japan and consequent augmented prospects of the yellow races, boldly says to the American China Development Company, which has a contract which is valuable, valid and correctly drawn up: "You shall take pay and get out. If you don't we'll force you out."

RECIPROCITY CONFERENCE

The United States Government Will Have Representatives Attend

Washington, July 21.—The Government is beginning to manifest interest in the national reciprocity conference to be held at Chicago on August 15 and 16.

This is especially true of the Department of Agriculture and Commerce and Labor.

Without committing themselves upon the merits of the contention involved in a reciprocity question, both Secretary Wilson and Secretary Metcalfe will have representatives at the conference in the persons of their principal experts on live stock, agriculture, tariff statistics, and foreign trade.

Secretary Metcalfe will probably deliver an address.

Pressing invitations will be extended to President Roosevelt in the name of the agricultural, live stock and meat producing interests of the country, to attend the conference, and it is hoped if he finds it impossible to accept he will send a letter expressing his views on the subject in general.

STRIKE PETERING OUT

Employers Say They Have all the Men They Want

Montreal, July 20.—There was a large meeting of the building contractors in the Mechanics' Institute, yesterday afternoon. The strike situation was discussed at length. It was unanimously decided to stand firm and to in no way recognize the union. It was stated that Messrs. Shearer, Brown and Wills had more carpenters and joiners than they really required. It was also claimed that Mr. Thomas Ford and other employers had all the men they required and that, as far as they were concerned, the strike was in no way interfering with their business.

Mr. J. H. Lauer, secretary of the Builders' Exchange, told The Times that the strike would simply peter out. There would be no settlement, he said, the employers were improving the position every day. Mr. Lauer denied the statement to the effect that twelve of the leading contractors had conceded the demands of the men. He said that only a few had signed and they were by no means considered among the most important builders.

Good Prospects Looming Up

The present generation will certainly see the completion of the proposed post office addition. After a few weeks' rest from his arduous labor of a week or two, the stone cutters yesterday brought back their kit of tools preparatory to beginning work again some time before Christmas. The addition will certainly be once more worked for a few days somewhere in the dim and distant future.

Extreme Politeness

Whilst chatting about queer street car experiences, a lady patron of this local street railway system told the following to a Times representative: "The car was entirely empty, with the exception of one man, and his condition was exactly the reverse. As I entered he arose, made me an unsteady but magnificent bow, and said: 'Madame, please be kind enough to sambept thissh plashe.' There was nothing else for me to do, so I thanked him and sat down. For several blocks the idiot hung from the strap, with not a soul in the car but ourselves. I have been taken for another woman, but I never before had anyone think I was a carful."

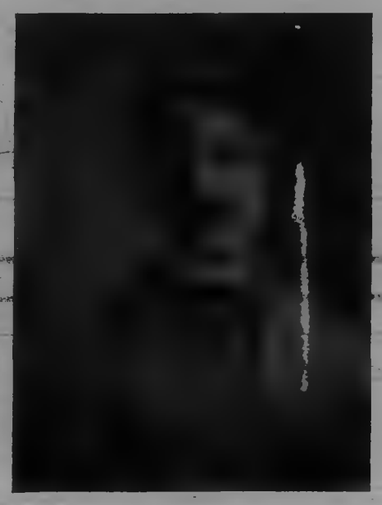
TEN YEARS



The Story of My Wonderful Success.

Reads Like a Fairy Tale-Yet Full of Convincing Truths

An Opportunity of a Lifetime for the Investor.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF IT.

I ask every reader of this paper to write me. I want to send you my free book entitled "Ten Years"—"The Story of My Wonderful Success." It tells about one of the greatest and most promising investment opportunities ever offered. It tells how my business grew from less than $25.00 capital to its present proportions.

I believe I have the best proposition from an investor's standpoint that could be placed before you. For ten years I have been teaching men and women to live according to the laws of Nature. My book is the history of my life. It shows what energy and ambition can accomplish in the world of affairs. It is intensely interesting to any man or woman who has a few dollars to invest in a legitimate enterprise.

I started business in the City of Brooklyn in 1896. My capital amounted to less than $25.00. My first year's business netted me over $1,000.00. Last year I paid dividends to my partners of 15 per cent. Five years ago my business had grown so large that I was compelled to remove to larger quarters. I am now at 63-65 Clark St., Brooklyn, N.Y.—in connection with Hotel St. George. Experts pronounce my institution to be the best appointed of its kind in the country. I estimate the equipment of the Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture to be worth at least $40,000.00.

I want to have a building of my own that will enable me to accommodate my increasing business. To erect this building I need capital, but more important than this to increase my business to the proportions which I desire, I need the co-operation of men and women throughout the country and the world.

Co-operation is the Secret of Success

I recognize it. I believe that with thousands of co operators throughout the country I can build my business to tremendous proportions to the benefit of the shareholders and myself.

The Mac Levy Company is incorporated under the laws of New York for $150,000.00. They are proprietors of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

The last named branch of the business of the Mac Levy Company is comparatively new. I have been at work for several years to establish such a department in connection with teaching Physical Culture. The most difficult part of forming the Equipment Company has been accomplished. The business is now in condition to be pushed on a large scale. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are spent yearly on new gymnasiums and their equipment. The profits are large. A company of this kind has an immense field in which to work. Competition is slight. It is evident that the Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company can build an enormous business.

The Mac Levy Company operates during the summer months at Steeplechase Park, Coney Island, and at Averne Hotel, Averne-by-the-Sea, L. I., as well as at our Brooklyn Institute. I also does an extensive mail business. I teach people how they should live and exercise. My students are scattered all over the United States, and in English speaking countries.

which arrises in the minds of every man and woman is how to secure a comfortable income in the earlier years of their life, that they may reap the full benefits which such an income affords.

I have long thought that there are hundreds of people in moderate circumstances who would like to invest a few dollars in an Institution of this kind. It is to such people that I intend this announcement shall appeal. I am offering a block of the Treasury Stock of this company to the public at its par value. My reasons for doing this are that I wish to erect a building and to extend the business of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

I WANT YOU AS MY PARTNER

I need your help and suggestion. I want you to work with me and help me to secure a tremendous amount of new business.

I believe that if you could talk with me personally and go over the records of the business which I have done, see in black and white the figures which show the steady growth my business has experienced during the past ten years, examine my plans for future extension, and then look over the magnificent equipment of my Institute, and would want no further evidence that money put into my business would bring you the greatest possible returns consistent with safety and good management.

I ask you to write for my free book. I believe it will interest you. You have a few dollars that you want to invest. Why let it stand idle earning only 3 or 4 per cent that Savings Bank pay their depositors? Put it to work. Join it with mine. This Company ought to pay at least

Strange Disappearance of John Houser

Is Cousin of President of Swiss Republic--Sum of 30,000 Francs Has Arrived for Him and Many Knew It was Coming--Love Affair in Gananoque.

Toronto, July 23.—Perhaps John P. Houser, cousin of President M. Ruchet of the Confederation of of Switzerland, was murdered when he came to Toronto from Hamilton on July 1. He came and nothing has since been heard of him. A day or two after he left Hamilton a draft for $6,500, representing a remittance of 30,000 francs from his Swiss relative, arrived for him at the home of his friends in Bartonville, five miles from Hamilton. The money is in the Bank of Montreal branch at Hamilton, and Houser's friends are overwhelmed with anxiety. He lived at Bartonville with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Pickering, well-to-do market gardeners, for the past two years. They knew he was expecting a large sum of money, and it was to visit relatives of Mrs. Pickering that Houser came to Toronto on the holiday.

Saturday afternoon Mrs. Pickering came to detective headquarters at the city hall, to ask about Houser. Her story of the disappearance was taken up by Inspector Chief Stark and Sergeant Reburn with Detective Duncan, and it is so full of interest that every effort will be made to clear up the mystery.

I KNEW MONEY WAS COMING.

Mrs. Pickering is a kind-faced lady, much worried over Houser's disappearance. She can't understand it because he knew that money was coming to him and if he was able he would have been in Hamilton to receive it when it came. Not that he needed money, for he had a little put away—quite enough for all his needs, but last October he went east to Gananoque, where he had a lady love, and his intention was to wed her. But something hampered his arrangements.

time taken like I did and I shall be very pleased to hear of Mr. Beachmont's success.

In conclusion I might add that I did not swim with a view to time altogether, although I practically swam overhand stroke without a break the entire distance, but the swim was undertaken more with a view to ascertain whether I could cover the distance. If Mr. Beachmont will first of all beat my record, the exact distance to an inch will be verified. I will swim him 3 1-2 miles, from Nassau to Peterboro, on the August. Yours truly,

H. F. STRICKLAND.

All Cannington Here.

Peterboro will again be the host of a large number of visiting excursionists, as on July 28th, the Young People's Society, of All Saints' church, Cannington, will hold their outing to this city. The excursion will run from Cannington, Beaverton, Manilla Junction and intermediate points, and promises to be a monster affair. An excursion over the lift lock is being arranged for and the posters advertising the affair, refer to the many advantages possessed by Peterborough as an ideal spot for excursionists.

FREE AND THOROUGH COMMERCIAL EDUCATION

EITHER IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS OR FIRST FORM OF COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE.

This is Now the Subject of Controversy Between Prominent Citizens --Trustee Wm. Pringle Replies to Mr. D. W. Dumble--Are the People Demanding a Fifth Form in Public Schools?

(To the Editor of The Times.)

Dear Sir.—In last Saturday's issue of The Examiner a letter appeared from Mr. D. W. Dumble, in which he makes statements which are very misleading. I refer especially to his suggestion that a Fifth class be added to the Public schools, whiere, as he says, a student may, without entering the Collegiate Institute, get a thorough Commercial education.

At the outset I wish to state that this is no new question, as the Supervision committee has had the matter under consideration for some time, and had reached the conclusion that the present is not opportune for the establishment of such a class, but instead have recommended to the Board that so soon as it can be found expedient to do so the First form of the Collegiate Institute be made free.

Mr. Dumble says in answer to "Trustee," who tells him that the First form in the Collegiate and the Fifth form in the Public school would overlap, "that, 1st, the Entrance examination keeps many out of the first form in the Collegiate; 2nd, that the Public school is free, whereas a fee of $10.00 is charged in the Collegiate; 3rd, that Commercial students in the Institute must take all the subjects of that form."

Taking these in their order:

1st. The regulations require pupils entering the Fifth class to have passed the Entrance examination, or to be specially recommended by the Principal and Inspector—practically the same as is required to enter the Collegiate. (see Reg. 17, sub. sec. 3).

2nd. The fee for the first year in the Collegiate is only $5.00, instead of $10.00, as stated by Mr. Dumble. The fee for the second year is $10.00.

3rd. Commercial students in the Collegiate Institute are only required to take those subjects which bear directly on their work. This Principal having authority to make such modifications of the course as may be deemed expedient. (see Reg. 39, sub. sec. 6).

If Mr. Dumble consults the regulations he will also find there are more obligatory subjects required in the Fifth form, and less latitude given the Principal than in the First form of the Collegiate Institute.

Mr. Dumble makes the statement that there is no law that makes Collegiate Institute education compulsory, but provision is made for a Fifth form in the Public schools; is it not equally true that there is no law that makes a Fifth form in our Public schools compulsory, but provision is made for Collegiate Institute education.

From Mr. Dumble's letter I understand that he is in favor of a Collegiate Institute, and if we are to retain this school it must make provision for Commercial work. (see Reg. 31, sub. sec. 1) which of necessity must overlap with any such course established in the Public schools, and the attendance at present would not justify the expense in connection with a second class.

In regard to Mr. Dumble's statement that the people are demanding a Fifth form, so far as I am aware no intimation of such demand has ever been received by the Board.

In submitting the above facts to the attention of the public, I do not wish to be understood as unduly advocating the claims of the Collegiate Institute over those of our Public Schools, but, on the contrary, I am, and always have been, of the opinion that sufficient attention is not given to our Public Schools, that these are of first importance, and that too much cannot be done to raise the standard of their efficiency. I believe it would be a decided advantage to these schools if the recent recommendations of the Supervision committee could be carried out, viz., to centralize the Fourth Book classes, and remove the fees from the First form of the Collegiate Institute. Not only would all pupils sufficiently advanced then have the opportunity to take up Commercial work without extra cost, but a much larger number would reach the standard of efficiency than under present arrangements.

I remain, yours truly,

WM. PRINGLE.

WAS WITTE INDISCREET?

Said to Blame Russian Jingoes for Beginning the War

Paris, July 24.—A sensation has been created in diplomatic circles by the discovery of the alleged fact that an anonymous article in La Revue de Paris, July 15, entitled "The Exact Origin of the Russo-Japanese War," was written by Witte. The article lays the entire responsibility for war upon Russian jingoes, holding the Japanese blameless for the beginning of hostilities, and asserting that Russian aggression in Manchuria and elsewhere compelled the Japanese to take up the sword. Diplomats assert that if the report be true that Witte is really the author of the article, the Czar would be justified in recalling him and appointing another plenipotentiary to his place.

TO TAX AMERICAN VESSELS

Held That They Should Not Use Welland Canal Free of Cost

St. Catharines, July 24.—The opinion is very strong in places along the Welland Canal that the Dominion Government should again resort to the old system of levying toll on vessels carrying freight through the canal.

A large percentage of the vessels are American. They load at American points and unload at American points. That they enjoy the great privileges of the Welland Canal free of cost is manifestly unjust, since the Canadian people paid the whole cost of building and are paying the whole cost of maintaining and operating this great inland waterway. There seems to be no very good reason why tolls should not again be imposed.

FOR SEVENTEEN DAYS

Lived on Grass and Wilds of British Columbia

Vancouver, B. C., July 24.—Archibald Gagnon, from Montreal, came the coast recently, and bought a claim in the Trail Creek region, on a stream near Castlegar. Ignorant of the dangers of the swiftly running Columbia river, he built a rude raft, loaded it with his outfit, and set out from Deer Park near Trail for his claim. The raft quickly went to pieces in the treacherous waters and Gagnon, after a frightful buffeting, managed to crawl ashore, almost dead. After 24 hours rest he started to walk to his claim, but soon lost his bearings, and for 17 days thereafter he wandered about on the verge of madness, satisfying his hunger by eating grass and flower tops. Finally he was discovered accidentally by the crew of a Canadian Pacific flo train, and was taken to the Trail Hospital, where he now lies.

Strickland's Challenge

The following letter, which sufficiently explains itself, appeared in the Toronto Mail and Empire, of Saturday;

Mail and Empire;—

Sir,—My attention has been drawn to a letter from one Tom Beachmont, challenging my swim of the 17th inst., when I successfully made the ten miles from Lakefield to Peterboro. Why did not friend Beachmont butt in with us at the time, as the event was well advertised in all the papers. There is nothing to challenge. My record was made under auspices of the leading papers in Peterboro and Lakefield, and we were accompanied by representatives from all three places, besides many other interested parties, and our time is indisputable. I should have been delighted to have had any one else swim with us, but am not particularly desirous of going through it again to please Mr. Beachmont or every one who has an idea they can do better. Let him, or any one else who is hankering for this job get out some day and do it under fair judgment, and have their

BLAME WITTE FOR CAUSING THE WAR

Russian Reformers Hold Him Responsible for Fatal Policy

MAY RETRIEVE HIMSELF

Czar's Hope is That, by Making Peace, He Can Win Back Plutocracy

St. Petersburg, July 24.—Prof. Klutsky, the celebrated reformer, send to your correspondent today:

"Witte's statement that he is only following the Czar's instructions and that Russia is prepared to fight indefinitely if the Japanese terms should prove excessive, is intended as an assurance against unpopularity as well as to bring about his own return to power. Witte is the real author of the Manchuria adventure. He created and protected the industries on which the starving peasant paid the tariff, though he could not purchase the manufactures.

"Witte sought for foreign markets, and turned the trans-Siberian railroad through Manchuria instead of directly to Vladivostok. Manchuria swallowed up millhards, and necessitated the military occupation which resulted in the present war. Witte's fall alienated the powerful plutocracy which joined the opposition and furnished the money for the campaign against the bureaucracy.

"Nicholas, realizing the impossibility of carrying on a foreign and a civil war at the same time, decided to conclude peace with Japan and to restore the old conditions at home in order to gain over the dissatisfied plutocracy. Witte is the man best fitted to do this. He can detach the plutocracy from the opposition and probably can conclude peace with Japan though he cannot guarantee peace at home."

All the newspapers have been forbidden to print the names of the arrested leaders of the reform movement in Moscow. They have also been forbidden to print news of the Niji Novgorod and Tomsk district riots, and of the Novotcherkask Cossack mutiny, and are only authorized to relate disorders within the Jewish pale, thus representing the Jews as the only disturbers of the peace.

A Tin Wedding.

Mr. H. A. Ward, of Port Hope, Celebrates His "Tin Wedding."

Considering a gentleman well known by many citizens, the Port Hope Times says:

On Monday evening, Gananaska, the handsome residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Ward, was thronged with visitors, it being the occasion of Mr. and Mrs. Ward's tin wedding celebration. Mr. and Mrs. Ward received their guests on the verandah, and were showered with the heartiest congratulations. A great number of presents were received by the host and hostess from their many friends as mementos of the happy occasion. Most of the presents were of tinware, though granite ware, enamelled articles and other specles of kitchen utensils were included. All of them were most useful and much ingenuity and originality had in many cases been exercised in the choice of the gifts.

Brakesman Injured

William Buchanan, Has Thumb and Fingered Amputated.

On Saturday morning, about 7.30, one of those unfortunate accidents that fate sometimes inflicts on employes of all the railway systems of this world, happened to William Buchanan, a brakesman on the C.P.R. The accident occurred in the local C.P.R. yards, and resulted in the unfortunate man having his right hand so badly mangled, that the medical men, at once summoned by the railway officials, found it necessary to amputate both thumb and his index finger.

Buchanan was coupling cars when the accident happened. He was removed in the Comstock ambulance to Nicholls hospital, where the operation was performed by Dr. Young and Drs. Gray, C.P.R. physicians. Buchanan's home is in Havelock.

No blame attaches to the railway, it being simply an accident more chargeable to Fate than to carelessness on the parts of either railroad or the injured man. Yesterday Mr. Buchanan was reported as doing well, but will be unable to work for some time yet.

Lost Brother Found.

Ald. Plouffe, Father of an Ex-Employee of the C.G.E. Works Finds His Brother After Forty Years.

Many of our readers know Mr. Eugene Plouffe, some weeks ago in employe of the C.G.E. Co., who got into some disagreeable police notoriety, of which he was entirely undeserving, through the deliberate falsehood of a fellow employe at the works.

The Ottawa Citizen in speaking of Ald Plouffe, refers to the father of our former esteemed citizen. It says;

"Ald. W. Plouffe, of 275 Rochester street, left this morning by the 10 train for Ashland, Wisconsin, where he will visit a brother, Mr. Jos. Plouffe.

Forty years or so ago, when only two or three years of age, his eldest brother, Joseph left his father's home to try to make his way through this wide world. Never after this was Joseph heard from and his father, mother, brothers and sisters thought he had passed away and that they would never hear from him again. But what a happy surprise for Ald. Plouffe when some three months ago, he heard that his eldest brother was living and doing well in Ashland, Wisconsin. A man named Lalonde came to Canada to visit some friends of the aldermen and when introduced to the latter naturally asked him if he was any relation to Joseph Plouffe, of Ashland, Wisconsin, whom Mr. Lalonde knew very well. Inquiries were made by Mr. Plouffe, who to his pleasure many, found out that the Joseph Plouffe, of Ashland, was the brother whom he had not seen for over 40 years.

"Mr. Plouffe will return about the 1st of August."

WILL LEAD A SIMPLE LIFE

RUSSIAN PRINCE DISGUSTED WITH CONDITIONS OF COUNTRY

And Sails for America to Begin Life Anew

New York, N.Y., July 24.—"Russia is no place for young men with ambition to live," is the maximum that Prince Potemkin, son of Admiral Prince Potemkin, for whom the Russian battleship seized by mutineers in the Black Sea was named, has followed. It is true in his own case, and he believes it to be generally true.

The Prince has been reading Tolstoi, and he intends to live as the great philosopher and teacher. He therefore sold his lands, and divided the proceeds with his tenants and servants of the family, and is now in New York on his way West to make a home and live according to the creed of Count Tolstoi, of whom he is a disciple.

The Prince began "New Life" by taking passage in the steerage, of the French liner La Bretagne. He lived like a steerage passenger on the way over, although he had $25,000 in cash. He says he is disgusted with the conditions in Russia.

"Marcelle" Criticised.

Prof. Clark Speaks Highly of Mr. J. H. Burnham's Latest Literary Production

In a well balanced criticism of "Marcelle," the recent product of Mr. J. H. Burnham's facile pen, Prof. Clark, a gentleman well known here in the Saturday's Mail and Empire says;

"We find some difficulty in giving due commendation to this excellent historical novel by Mr. Hampden Burnham. The writer does not now appear for the first time, although the present writer has not met with his previous writings. But in this case he gives us here an exceedingly interesting and well written story, belonging to a most important era in Canadian history, the period of the Government of the great Frontenac, who occupies a prominent place in the narrative. The heroine, who gave her name to the book, was the daughter of a coureur de bois (wood-ranger) and a Huron woman. She lived with her father, and was beloved by a Huron whom she also loved, almost without knowing it. Tempted away from her home by a French nobleman, attached to the vice regal court, who meant her no good, she came to Quebec, and threw herself upon the protection of the Superior of the convent of the Ursulines, and was soon afterwards adopted by Frontenac. Her great beauty rendered her attractive to many, and, partly for her protection, she became betrothed to the heir of the Count de Beaubarnais, and just as we are expecting a somewhat obvious ending to the story, the Huron appears on the scene again. We ought to have mentioned that the story is thoroughly interesting from beginning to end, as well as admirably written, but it reaches its highest point in the last struggle, which is depicted with great power, until we reach the conclusion which proves quite satisfactory. It is a long time since we read so good a story.

Sentence Revoked

The Two Boys Who Were Jailed for Stealing Strawberries Released.

A few weeks ago, our readers will remember, that what, at the time, was very generally considered an ultra severe sentence was pronounced on two lads, one a Collegiate Institute student, and the other an employe of the Cordage Co.

These two young men were caught by a farmer, in his strawberry field, in North Monaghan, and after a severe trouncing by him and his farm assistant, was charged with assault (?) and theft of his berries. For this the two lads, McGill and Foley, were sentenced to one month in jail at hard labor.

A petition was at once circulated on behalf of the youngsters, and signed by 165 names, was sent by Mr. D. O'Connell, to the Minister of Justice. The petition was in due course presented to the Governor-General, and Mr. O'Connell was informed that the discharge of the boys had been ordered. They have accordingly been released. It goes without saying that the parents will be glad to get their boys back again, and further that the boys henceforth will buy their berries.

Oddfellows' Excursion.

Pontypool Lodge, No. 296, I.O.O.F. Will Run an Excursion to Bobcaygeon via C.P.R.

A good opportunity is afforded for our citizens to run over and inspect the recently completed C.P.R. line, connecting the Toronto-Montreal route with Lindsay and other points, to Bobcaygeon on Thursday, July 27th. The Pontypool Oddfellows, of Pontypool Lodge No. 296, will, on that date, run a large excursion from their village and Peterboro, via C.P.R. to Bobcaygeon, that pretty rock bound hamlet, where the black bass most do congregate. For a new lodge this shows most commendable enterprise, and whilst the merits of Bobcaygeon are too well known to most of our Peterboro readers, we think that this is a favorable opportunity for persons wanting a day's outing at this pretty village, and one that will be seized by many hundreds of heat oppressed dwellers in the city. The Pontypool men have also, as a special attraction for the patrons of this excursion, made arrangements for a trip down the lake from Bobcaygeon, via the T.V.N. Co. steamers. It is expected that quite a number of our local brethren of the mystic triple links will save next Thursday for this trip, as a most amicable spirit binds the local with the Pontypool Oddfellows.

Gold Mine Shut Down.

Star of the East Gold Mine Has Closed Down Pro Tem.

A gold mine, in which several local citizens are financially interested, the Star of the East Gold Mine, Harris Township, Frontenac county, has temporarily suspended. This is a great and doubtless unpleasant surprise for the local stockholders, but there is reason for believing that the mine will before long resume operations, as the ore gives good promise.

Mr. John W. Green, who has been active in its promotion, yesterday stated that the mine had been closed pending the annual meeting of the stockholders in September next. From its statement it appears that operations have not met with as great success as was anticipated for a few weeks prior to closing down. Mr. Green states that there has been plenty of money subscribed on stock, but not as much as might be paid in. The operations of late have not been in connection with the main vein.

Assayist Thorpe gives the assurance that the richest deposits of the mine have not yet been reached, and the authorative opinion is that the mine is situated in the heart of a very rich mineral country. It is only for the purpose of consulting the stockholders that operations have been suspended.

PRISONER 23 YEARS.

Chicago, July 23.—A writ of habeas corpus on behalf of John Gates, a prisoner in the State Penitentiary at Joliet, is under consideration, and in passing on its merits the court will be compelled to decide as to whether the prisoner, is a legal sense, is dead or alive.

On November 28, 1881, Gates in a quarrel killed a neighbor, John W. Hessell. Gates was sentenced to hang on March 24, 1882. He was taken to the penitentiary on a death warrant, but when the day set for execution came around, everybody seemed to forget Gates and he was not executed. He has remained ever since in the penitentiary, and for 23 years has been a model prisoner. For all these years Gates has been afraid to say a word for fear the sheriff would remember him and carry the sentence into effect.

His sister, who lives in Chicago, has, however, started a movement in his behalf, which raised the application for habeas corpus. It is the opinion in the office of the State's Attorney that Gates will eventually be given his freedom for the reason that he should have been tanged in that term of court in which the sentence was imposed, and this not having been done, jurisdiction over him ceases.

BOBS MAY NOT COME.

Bisley Camp, July 23.—Lord Roberts, asked by the Canadian Press when he intended to go to Canada, replied that he was afraid he would be unable to go, but just at present he was not quite certain as to whether he would or not.

GENERAL SPORTING GOSSIP

THE TURF—BASEBALL—LACROSSE—FOOTBALL

Peterbobo Trims Bowmanville.

Bowmanville lost to Peterboro on Saturday afternoon making both teams a tie for first place. The Peterboro bunch won on their merits, they simply played the better ball, and every man was on his job. Their batting was good, and done at opportune times as the score indicates. Mull Douglass pitched a cool and steady game and had the visitors at his mercy. He allowed but one man to walk. Shea at short stop, and Chris Graham at first, played pretty ball, every man was out to win. The visitors were quite confident of victory, and dropped a little of the long green over the game.

Bowmanville started in with one run in the first, but the locals came up with two. Graham singled and got 1st, Sheridan flew to 3rd, Shea drove a two-bagger to center field, advancing Graham, Douglas drove to left field, bringing in Graham and Shea. Rattray's hit was short, and Stayne fanned, from this time on, Peterboro gradually crept up in their head, shutting the visitors out until the seventh, when Martyn's run brought in Strowger. Peterboro scored a run in each of the 3rd, 5th, 6th and 8th, making the score at the finish read 6—2.

Umpire Jack M. Rosvear, of Port Hope, gave good satisfaction. Following were the teams;—

Saturday's Games

King's Prize at Bisley, won by Armorer-Sergt. Cutler, East Surrey Regiment; score 315.

Seawanhaka Cup contest at Montreal, won by Alexandra (Canadian).

Lacrosse—St. Catharines 6, Tecumseh 8; Capitols 2, Montreal 7; Brantford 7, Toronto 6.

Baseball—Toronto 5, Baltimore 6. Peterboro 6, Bowmanville 2. Port Hope 4, Cobourg 3.

May Play in Oshawa

Bowmanville feels quite sore over Saturday's defeat at the hands of the Peterboro nine, and considerable "hot air" has been going. It is quite probable that a game will be pulled off at Oshawa, Wednesday or Thursday for a side bet of $100 put up by a local sport, and the manager of the Bowmanville team.

Purchased Jim X

Treacherous Seemore

A Tale of Coat Tails, Curtailed, which Told a Different Tale.

A leading barrister of our young city, when going a-picnicing, after this will wear a coat with tails or go provided with a fully stocked commariat. Last Friday this legal luminary was spending the day on Kawartha lakes with a large party including some lady friends. As the day wore on the judge, in company found the invigorating breezes of the lakes had awakened a vigorous thirst, so vigorous that plain water or tepid tea would not satisfy it. The question arising in his mind was "How to retain my reputation as a church pillar and at the same time procure an antidote to this brand of thirst?" Eureka! A long explanation to the ladies that when the boat made her next temporary stoppage, he had to run over to the hotel and get some legal documents signed by the proprietor; in corroboration of this intended business the gentleman displayed briefly some legal papers from his inside coat pocket.

As soon as this boat touched the wharf, our friend fled to the hotel and in a few minutes returned. As he stepped aboard the boat, the fussy legal gentleman encountered a bunch of his friends, among them the ladies. He made full explanations as to how he had been lucky enough to find his man and get the papers signed.

As he turned from the party to seek the seclusion that the captain's cabin grants, and incidentally a corkscrew, the purpose of his hurried trip was revealed. During his conversation on return his short coat tails had worked up and over the necks of two quart ale bottles resting in his hip pockets.

Next trip his will discard the "geemore" coat.

TELEPHONE TALKS.

TO TELEPHONE USERS AND THE GENERAL PUBLIC.—

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF CANADA solicits the favor of a series of five minutes Telephone Talks with its Patrons and the General Public. We shall make these brief, because we recognize that time is valuable, and that it would not be fair or reasonable to ask you to give up, even for the important matter we desire to present, more than five minutes from a busy day.

The subject we have to discuss is one of general interest to all classes; it is of great importance both to you and to us, and we believe that if you follow this series your time will be advantageously spent.

We take this means of discussing these matters, because of the confidence we have in the justice of our position and that it will surely command the approval of fair minded Patrons.

We believe it will be generally conceded that never before in the history of Canada, has the organization, management and transactions of any Company been subjected to such a searching investigation as has the Bell Telephone Company in the proceedings of the Select Committee on Telephone Systems. The Executive of this Company promptly and respectfully complied with the commands of this Committee in the fullest possible manner, withholding nothing, concealing nothing, evading nothing. The Company, in its ready acquiescence in all demands, has, in this respect, at least, gained the commendation of the Committee.

We believe that we are justified in claiming that the Company has come through the ordeal of this investigation creditably. Although the records of the Company have been searched from its organization twenty-four years ago, not a single fact has been adduced which reflects discreditably on the integrity or the justice of the management. On the contrary, many misstatements which have been persistently made by the Company's rivals and detractors have been refuted in the clearest possible manner under oath and should now be effectually set at rest. We propose in the course of this series to refer to some of the more important of these points, as we believe that our Patrons and the Public wish to know the facts as they have been brought out by this Committee.

We shall publish these "talks" regularly on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays in this space until the series is completed.

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF CANADA.

TIREDNESS MEANS DANGER

Indicates Faulty Blood and Worn Out Nerves — and Upon Total Collapse Will Surely Follow

When you're tired all day, bothered by trifles, exhausted with nervousness, 'tis sure there is something wrong.

You need bracing up, need more nourishment in the blood, need a powerful medicine to vitalize the nerves and distribute force and staying power to all over-worked organs.

The marvelous success is Ferrozone, a nourishing tonic so scientific as to be the admiration of every physician. Ferrozone performs wonders for people in poor health; acts directly on the blood, enriching it with strength and new life that is at once dispatched to all parts of the body. Ferrozone feeds the nerves, and with strength, courage, keen energy, determination and joyous, buoyant spirits.

A case where there was lassitude and lack of strength is told by Mr. David Brown, of post-office box No. 30, Ipeton, Ont.: "About 3 years ago my health commenced to fail. My hands and feet seemed always cold. I felt worn-out and exhausted, weak as a little child. My face twitched. My limbs and arms commenced to lose their sense of feeling and finally my left side was perfectly numb. All my color left. My appetite ran down. Ferrozone was the first to give me any help. I improved with it very quickly. It toned up the blood and started circulation, so that the numbness gradually disappeared. My condition was perfectly cured by Ferrozone, and I have been well ever since. (Signed) "David Brown."

SPECIAL NOTICE.—To get satisfactory results be sure you get Ferrozone only. Fifty cents per box, or six boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont., and Hartford, Conn., U.S.A.

UNION LABEL

PETERBORO JULY 7 1905

BRITAIN AND RUSSIA

There is a prospect that England instead of having to meet at her Indian gates the "bear that looks like a man," may ere long shake hands with the animal. Intelligent onlookers say that for the next generation at least Britain will have naught to rue in that quarter of her Empire, and there is no reason why Great Britain should wish Russia to become too weak to defend her own frontier against Germany. When Russia drops her far Eastern policy of aggression and expansion Great Britain has nothing against her. Both commercially and sentimentally she has in that case much more against Germany. There is in the facts as they stand the basis of a combination which shall include both of the present combatants, and both their allies.

A SILLY SPEECH

There is a feeling abroad in the land that Senator Choquette should be choked off. His late speech, in which he thanked the Lord that the French-Canadians were the real upholders of the British Dominion on this continent, and if they chose, the Confederation would go to smash, betrays a vast misconception of things. Quebec Province has a larger stake in British connection than it would have as a State of the Union. Under annexation all its peculiar treaty guarantees, immunities and privileges would go to smash. The worthy Senator forgets that annexation would destroy the special privileges which the Roman Catholic church enjoys in Canada.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Detroit papers are telling how to fight the caterpillar pest that has broken out in that city. They say the park authorities are powerless, but the owners of shade trees are requested to make a determined attack on the invaders. The only remedy, says Dr. J. E. Clark, apart from spraying with Paris green, nicotine or the use of the torch, is the removal of the cocoons. These small, grayish sacs can be seen on the trees, and they can be reached with a pole on the end of which has been driven a wire nail. With this as a scraper the cocoons can be detached and the caterpillar inside destroyed. This may prove a useful pointer to Peterboro citizens when the pest breaks out in this city.

The farmers of the Red River Valley have played a neat game on the wheat pit. The reports of rust in the new crops were but "gammon and spinach," to the bull market. The farmers got together and bought all the wheat they could find the cash to margin. A day or two later dire reports about the rust began to go out to the world from their valley. These were followed by the arrival at Minneapolis of a number of samples of rust-infected wheat. Prices jumped. The farmers hurried selling orders to their brokers. About the time the checks for their profits began to reach them they looked their wheat field over, and decided that crops were in pretty fair condition after all.

Two perspiring laborers were toiling at a corporation job under a broiling sun. As a comfortable looking ecclesiastical dignitary drove past in his carriage one said to the other, "Mike, av ye had yer choice av ways av makin' a livin' what would yez be?" "Well, now," said Pat, leaning on his pick, and wiping his brow with his sleeve, "well, sor, for a foine, clane, soft, aisy job, oi thinks oi'd be a bishop." But that was before the members of Parliament and the venerable gentlemen of the Senate got their "raise." He would likely choose another calling now.

Mayor Dunne, of Chicago, has repented the platform of municipal ownership on which he was elected. Probably the report of Mr. Dalrymple, the Glasgow street railway expert, has something to do with it. This report embodied certain remarks upon the character of the men who would have to deal with traction matters under Mayor Dunne's proposal, but these were suppressed as being too personal.

Liverpool meat dealers have introduced enclosed vans, built with insulating walls, that keep the meat chilled in transit until it reaches the retail shops. This feature of meat delivery is but one of numerous experiments being made in England in the improved conveyance of provisions which have attracted the attention of American consuls and been noticed in recent reports.

Kansas and Missouri pastors are contending for the palm of Churchtime liberality. A Kansas pastor gave out that none of the men of his flock need wear coats within the sacred edifice during worship. The Missouri minister has now passed an ordinance dispensing with the cravat. The ladies seem not to be considered. Their hats are still pinned on straight.

The United States duty on peeled pulp wood has been increased. They do not want Canadian pulp logs it seems. But that is all right so long as they will shortly have to take Canadian pulp. They cannot do without it for very long.

A SAD DEATH

Particulars of the Demise of a Former County Resident

"Mrs. Charles Fitzgerald died last Saturday evening at the St. Eugene hospital after an illness of only twenty-four hours. For some time the deceased has been troubled with persistent headaches, but did not seek medical aid as it was thought that there was nothing serious in the trouble experienced. The latter part of the week she sought medical advice, but the next day was feeling much better in every way. Saturday morning she was taken with a very bad turn and toward noon, as she failed to get better, she was hurried to the hospital and notwithstanding that everything possible was done, death came to her relief about 11 o'clock. It is supposed that the primary cause of her trouble and the immediate cause of death, was a growth like a tumor on the brain, that finally became inflamed and brought about sudden death.

"The circumstances of the death of the young wife are very sad indeed. Less than a year ago she was married to Mr. Fitzgerald at the home of her father, Mr. O'Leary, of Indian River, Peterborough county, Ont., and came west with her husband a happy bride. A comfortable home was provided for her, and her charming disposition and kind heart won for her a large circle of true friends within a very short time, and her last hours were made as pleasant as possible by the kindly administrations of those who sympathized with her in her trouble. Being a great lover of flowers in her life, her friends made the death chamber at the home a veritable bower of roses, and the beautiful casket was buried beneath wreaths of handsome design brought by many loving hands.

"The funeral services were held at St. Mary's church Monday morning, Father Cheinel being in charge. The remains were taken to the station and placed on the east bound train in the afternoon. The broken hearted husband, who had taken the young girl away from her home a bride, was in less than a year, taking her back a corpse. Many were tearful eyes and sad hearts when good-bye was said as the train left with its burden of death and sorrow."

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the North west Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on Application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority to some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

[1] At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

[2] If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

[3] If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

[4] If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses [2], [3] or [4] must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 80 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd of June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Office in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the North west Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the North west Territories.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

N. B.—In addition to Free Grant Lands, to which the Regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from railroad and other corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

UINTAH INDIAN RESERVATION

To be opened September 1, 1905, unbosoms the latch on the "door of opportunity." Pull at the latch string and the door will open for you, no matter where you live or what your occupation. Colorado men—well known, reliable, experienced—have organized the Indiana Mining and Power Co. and provide ten thousand dollars capital by the sale of preferred stock, par value one dollar per share.

Ordinarily a ground floor stock, if offered at all, is offered to get money with which to start, has no asset whatever behind it, and depends entirely on future development for its value. Our proposition is different. We have started. Our stock now has an asset of property adjoining the reservation, consisting of 320 acres rich agricultural land, 280 shares of water to the first water right on the Uintah River and two lots (corner) Main street in the new town of Moffat, Utah. A fair estimate of the value, $16,800.00, in amounts dollars for every dollar then for invested and an asset fifty per cent greater than the entire issue to be sold at the price it is here offered; however, this is only the commencement of operations. With the additional capital to be secured by the sale of stock other valuable property will be added and the opening of the reservation will start the harvest, of which our six years continuous sowing has laid the foundation. You never had such an opportunity as we now offer. We shower with you the results of the expenditure of our own capital, our labor and the judgment that has been displayed in selecting this extraordinary opportunity for a profitable investment. Every dollar subscribed will bring manifold returns.

A limited amount of the preferred stock is on sale at 5 cents per share, the ground floor price. An advance to 10 cents will soon be made. A square deal is guaranteed. Write for any further information or any reference desired. DO IT NOW

BLACK CAPS WHIP WIFE-BEATER

Kent County Men Adopt the Methods of the Western States

Chatham, Ont., July 22.—The home of Thomas Dulmage, near Wheatley, was suddenly attacked on Wednesday night by eleven masked men, who wore black slouch hats and black masks over their faces. They dragged Dulmage from his bed, pinioned him with ropes and despite his vigorous protests, dragged him to a nearby well. There a long stout rope was tied around him, and he was lowered and soaked for over half an hour. The man was sometimes submerged for half a minute at a time, then his head would be pressed on permit breathing, and then he was lowered again, despite his cries for mercy. During the whole time his body was in the water, and when he was finally raised he was almost numb and half drowned.

Not content with this the attackers then dragged him to a spot some fifty yards away, and thrashed him with a horse whip, which tore his shirt to shreds and cut deeply into the flesh. When he was finally released, the physician who examined him claimed he was half dead with pain and exposure.

The alleged reason of the attack is that Dulmage was in the habit of drinking heavily, and then striking and abusing his wife, and it is said the neighbors have repeatedly warned him concerning this conduct. The case has been reported to the Crown. Crown Attorney Smith states that the case is being thoroughly investigated, and that the guilt parties will be severely dealt with.

SMALL CITIES RUN BAKERIES

Bakers' Union Sends Appeal to Branches to Bring This About

New York, July 22.—The Journeymen Bakers' and Confectioners' International Union of America, is sending an appeal to all bakers' unions in America, calling upon them to assist in the establishment of municipal baker shops in all cities of the U.S., Canada and Mexico. "Along with public utilities," says the appeal, "the food product industry will be one that will become the object of municipal control for the benefit of the people.

"As it is now possible to put the control of railroads, street railways, the post office, telegraphs, the manufacture of tobacco, transportation, lighting plants, and even savings institutions in the hands of this state or municipality as is the case in many European countries and partially even in the United States why should it not also be possible to have the food product industry, as well as all other industries controlled in the self same manner?"

NATIONS AS BROTHERS

Friendship of Great Britain for France Growing

London, July 21.—As illustrating the excellent feeling now existing between the English and French, it is noted that great interest has been taken in the addresses of Dr. Jean Clarenot before the Royal Geographical Society upon the subject of Antarctic explorations.

The new coast in the vicinity of the Biscoe islands has been named after President Loubet, and the maps in this section of the world will be enriched by the addition of many new names.

The exterior contour of Biscoe islands has been fixed, and their length determined; the survey of the exterior coasts of the Palmer archipelago completes the geography of that region, and the bearings of Alexander I. land have been set aside by astronomical observation.

WANTS TO COME TO CANADA

Eleven-year-old Girl Sent to Reformatory for Trying to Run Away to Canada

London, July 22.—The desire to emigrate to Canada was responsible for Catherine Mitchell, an 11-years old girl, being sent to the reformatory till sixteen. She was arrested on the Liverpool landing stage, possessed of an outfit belonging to another little girl inmate at Blacklock Industrial School from where she ran away. She told the officer she was looking out for a ship to work her passage to Canada, which she had heard for years about. In court she worryingly told the clerk she would not be happy till she got to Canada.

BOYCOTT TAKES EFFECT

Shanghai, July 22.—The boycott of American goods is now working but it has been agreed that the completion of all running contracts for supplies will be allowed. Meanwhile all the Chinese shops refuse to sell American goods, including Standard oil. All schools and colleges in this section have decided to discard all American books.

Bag Works Burned

Winnipeg, July 22. — Early this morning the manufacturing half of the Winnipeg Bag Works was completely gutted by fire with damage to the extent of $2,000. It was fully insured. The origin is a mystery, but lightning is presumably the cause, as it occurred during a fierce electric storm. The works are the western branch of the John Dicks Company, Toronto. The president is W. G. McMahon. In the rear of the building was stored a large quantity of bagging material and felt paper damaged by water.

Got $4,000 for Fireworks

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., July 22.—Charles T. Harvey has secured an appropriation of $4,000 from the Canadian Government, to be used for fireworks on the Canadian side of the river during the canal celebration. The display will be the biggest ever seen in this part of the country as the Michigan Commission will also spend a large sum for a display on the Michigan side.

—It is rumored that contracts are to be let, by our city fathers, for carting away the crop of weeds now disgracing the streets of Peterboro, should some philanthropic millionaire take upon himself the duties our solons neglect, and have the weeds cut down before their seeds ripen.

Steamer Mona on Stony Lake

The steamer "Mona," purchased by Mr. Gouinlock, from the Crow Bay Fishing Club of Campbellford, has now been brought via Healey's Falls, Hastings, Rice lake, and the lift lock, to Stony lake, and will be added to the Stony lake fleet. The "Mona" is a staunch craft built for the Georgian Bay traffic, and when a few necessary improvements are made by her new skipper, she will doubtless prove a valuable addition to the craft plowing the waters of Kawartha lakes.

Money in Medicine and Talk

A good smooth medicine vendor raked in hatsful of $1 bills on the market square, Saturday morning. About three out of every ten farmers present, walked proudly away with a ponderous volume dealing with the healing art in all its branches, and a large bottle of "bitters," all for the trifling sum of $1. "Guaranteed to remove all pain, suffering or sorrow." They certainly did bite quickly and freely. The genial philanthropist who handed out the medical compendum wore enough diamonds to make Tiffany jealous.

MENTAL ACCURACY

Greatly Improved by Leaving off Coffee

The manager of an extensive creamery in Wis., states that while a regular coffee drinker, he found it injurious to his health and a hindrance to the performance of his business duties.

"I cannot say," he continues, "that I ever used coffee to excess, but I know that it did me harm, especially during the past two years.

"It impaired my digestion, gave me a distressing sense of fulness in the region of the stomach, causing a most painful and disquieting palpitation of the heart, and what is worse, it muddled my mental faculties so as to seriously injure my business efficiency.

"I concluded, about eight months ago, that something would have to be done. I quit the use of the old kind of coffee, shirt off, and began to drink Postum Food Coffee. The cook didn't make it right at first—she didn't boil it long enough, and I did not find it palatable and quit using it and went back to the old kind of coffee and to the stomach trouble again. Then my wife took the matter in hand, and by following the directions on the box faithfully she had me drinking Postum for several days before I knew it. When I happened to remark that I was feeling much better than I had for a long time she told me that I had been drinking Postum, and that accounted for it. Now we have no other kind of coffee on our table.

"My digestion has been perfectly restored, and with this improvement has come relief from the oppressive sense of fulness and palpitation of the heart that used to bother me so, and I note a big gain in mental strength and acuteness that I can attend to my office work with ease and pleasure and without making the mistakes that were so annoying to me while I was using the old kind of coffee.

"Postum Food Coffee is the greatest table drink of the times, in my humble estimation."

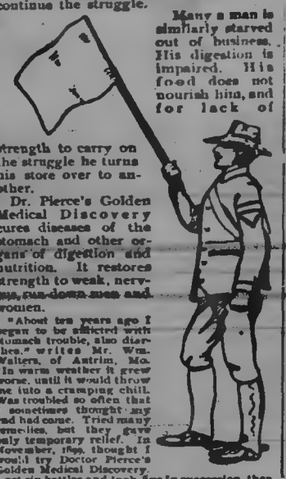
STARVED OUT.

Many a garrison has been forced to give up the fight and hang out the white flag of surrender, when lack of food has weakened the men past all power to continue the struggle.



Many a man is similarly starved out of business. His digestion is impaired. His food does not nourish him, and for lack of strength to carry on the struggle he turns his store over to another.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It restores strength to weak, nervous, run-down men and women.

"About ten years ago I began to be afflicted with stomach trouble, also diarrhea," writes Mr. Wm. Walters, of Antrim, Mo. "In warm weather it grew worse, until it would throw me into a cramping chill. Was troubled so often that I sometimes thought my end had come. Tried many remedies, but they gave only temporary relief. In November, 1899, thought I would try Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I got six bottles and took five in succession, then thought I would wait for a time and take the one left. Soon found I had symptoms of the trouble coming back, so took the sixth bottle and it cured me. I have enjoyed the best of health this summer, and the credit all belongs to your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I can't express my many thanks to Dr. Pierce for his remedy, for it did so much for me. Words cannot express how severely I suffered.

"If any doubt the above statement let them address me, and I will take great pleasure in answering."

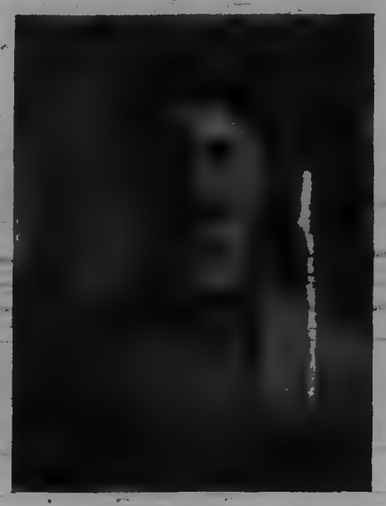
1000 Parent Bass Arrive by G. T. R.

A tank car containing 1,000 parent black bass, weighing from two to six pounds each, came into the city on the 11.45 G.T.R. train yesterday. These bass are caught by a seine net in lake Erie, and are to be used for propagation purposes. They were at once forwarded to Lakefield, whence they will be conveyed on a snow for distribution in Clear and Stony lakes. The fish arrived in good condition very little loss of life occurring en route, the constant jarring of the aerating the water in the tank. The greatest difficult in transporting these fish alive occurs when the tank is being carried on the snow; during this part of their trip the fish are only kept alive by artifical aerations of the water, which is done by constantly pouring and dipping it with pails. Mr. Geo. Cochrane looked after the consignment after its arrival here.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES.

TEN YEARS



The Story of My Wonderful Success.

Reads Like a Fairy Tale-Yet Full of Convincing Truths

An Opportunity of a Lifetime for the Investor.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF IT.

I ask every reader of this paper to write me. I want to send you my free book entitled "Ten Years"—"The Story of My Wonderful Success." It tells about one of the greatest and most promising investment opportunities ever offered. It tells how my business grew from less than $25.00 capital to its present proportions.

I believe I have the best proposition from an investor's standpoint that could be placed before you. For ten years I have been teaching men and women to live according to the laws of Nature. My book is the history of my life. It shows what energy and ambition can accomplish in the world of affairs. It is intensely interesting to any man or woman who has a few dollars to invest in a legitimate enterprise.

I started business in the City of Brooklyn in 1896. My capital amounted to less than $25.00. My first year's business netted me over $12,000.00. Last year I paid dividends to my partners of 15 per cent. Five years ago my business had grown so large that I was compelled to remove to larger quarters. I am now at 63-65 Clark St., Brooklyn, N.Y.—in connection with Hotel St. George. Experts pronounce my institution to be the best appointed of its kind in the country. I estimate the equipment of the Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture to be worth at least $40,000.00.

I want to have a building of my own that will enable me to accommodate my increasing business. To erect this building I need capital, but more important than this to increase my business to the proportions which I desire, I need the co-operation of men and women throughout the country and the world.

Co-operation is the Secret of Success

I recognize it. I believe that with thousands of co-operators throughout the country I can build my business to tremendous proportions to the benefit of the shareholders and myself.

The Mac Levy Company is incorporated under the laws of New York for $150,000.00. They are proprietors of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

The last named branch of the business of the Mac Levy Company is comparatively new. I have been at work for several years to establish such a department in connection with teaching Physical Culture. The most difficult part of forming the Equipment Company has been accomplished. The business is now in condition to be pushed on a large scale. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are spent yearly on new gymnasiums and their equipment. The profits are large. A company of this kind has an immense field in which to work. Competition is slight. It is evident that the Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company can build an enormous business.

The Mac Levy Company operates during the summer months at Steeplechase Park, Coney Island, and at Averne Hotel, Averne-by-the-Sea, L. I., as well as at our Brooklyn Institute. I also does an extensive mail business. I teach people how they should live and exercise. My students are scattered all over the United States, and in English speaking countries.

which arrises in the minds of every man and woman is how to secure a comfortable income in the earlier years of their life, that they may reap the full benefits which such an income affords.

I have long thought that there are hundreds of people in moderate circumstances who would like to invest a few dollars in an Institution of this kind. It is to such people that I intend this announcement shall appeal. I am offering a block of the Treasury Stock of this company to the public at its par value. My reasons for doing this are that I wish to erect a building and to extend the business of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

I WANT YOU AS MY PARTNER

I need your help and suggestion. I want you to work with me and help me to secure a tremendous amount of new business.

I believe that if you could talk with me personally and go over the records of the business which I have done, see in black and white the figures which show the steady growth my business has experienced during the past ten years, examine my plans for future extension, and then look over the magnificent equipment of my Institute, and would want no further evidence that money put into my business would bring you the greatest possible returns consistent with safety and good management.

I ask you to write for my free book. I believe it will interest you. You have a few dollars that you want to invest. Why let it stand idle earning only 3 or 4 per cent that Savings Bank pay their depositors? Put it to work. Join it with mine. This Company ought to pay at least

Reign of Terror in Nighji Novgorod.

Thirty Thousand Japanese Attacking the Russians Who are Still Stubbornly Holding Their Ground--The Tumen Pass Fight.

St. Petersburg, July 25.—Telegrams from Nighji Novgorod say that the town was for five hours yesterday in the hands of thousands of roughs who murderously attacked every respectable person they met in the streets. Numbers of persons were killed or injured, the rioters breaking into houses in pursuit of their victims.

THE TUMEN PASS FIGHT.

London, July 24.—A news agency despatch says that a desperate fight for the possession of Tumen Pass is progressing. Thirty thousand Japanese under General Hasegawa are impetuously attacking the Russians. Four bayonet charges have been already repulsed with terrible slaughter. The Russians are still stubbornly holding their ground. It is over the engagement became general the Japanese attacked a Russian position fifteen miles below Keikjoned at 9 o'clock last night. The Russians held them at bay until midnight, when they were forced to fall back on their main body. They retired in good order, saving all their guns, and losing, so far as is known, thirteen killed and 47 wounded.

Sign a Truce First Act

Japan and Russia Will Soon Declare a Temporary Armistice--Japanese Will Insist That This be for a Limited Period.

Portsmouth, N.H., July 25.—Preparations for the peace conference are progressing rapidly and satisfactorily, and by August 5, the day on which the plenipotentiaries are expected to reach Portsmouth from Oyster Bay, on board the Mayflower and Dolphin, all will be in readiness for their reception.

From an authoritative source it is learned that both missions expect that the question of an armistic will be the first subject broached after the conference is conveneyed. The Japanese will insist that this be for a limited period, and will, it is believed, suggest that one month, in their opinion, will furnish adequate time for the conference to complete its work. The signing of this truce will, it is expected, form the first chapter of the negotiations.

COMING OF THE DOUKHOBORS

Immigration Authorities at Ottawa are Aware of the Movement

Ottawa, July 25.—Mr. W. D. Scott, Commissioner of Immigration, when shown the St. Petersburg despatch stating that the Doukhobors are preparing another large emigration movement to Canada, said that the department was aware that a small community of Doukhobors in Eastern Siberia is preparing to emigrate to this country. This community, which numbers less than one hundred and fifty people, is not coming to Canada under the auspices of the immigration department, but are making the move to the Canadian North-West, of which country they have undoubtedly heard glowing accounts, entirely on their own responsibility. If they are free from disease on arrival and can show that they are not paupers, they will have to be admitted the same as immigrants of any other nationality. The Doukhobors, owing to their simple life in the open air, are a healthy people, and run an excellent chance of fulfilling all the requirements of the medical inspection. It is known that Peter Veerigan, the leader of the Doukhobor colony now in the West, borrowed ten thousand dollars from a Canadian bank to finance this movement, so that the members of the colony will possess sufficient means to guarantee their entry into Canada. In view of these facts the prospects are good that this colony of Doukhobors will join their brethren in Western Canada. Aylmer Maude, an Englishman who has for some time past taken an interest in the Doukhobors, is a leading spirit in this movement.

RUSSIA'S SUNKEN SHIPS

Czar Planning For Many New Fighting Vessels

London, July 25.—The Russian Government is making plans for a new navy. It has not much of the old one left, and it may not have any if the Japanese demand the surrender of all the Russian warships now at Vladivostok or interned in neutral ports. Before the war she ranked as the third naval power in the world, next to her ally, France, and ahead of her neighbor, Germany, and of the United States. Now, considering that most of her available ships are locked up in the Black Sea by this treaty that closes the Dardanelles to war vessels, she may be rated for international purposes about on this level of Spain and Austria. Russia has three cruisers of comparatively small offensive power interned at Manila and to be returned to her at the conclusion of the war. She has a battleship, a cruiser and a torpedo boat interned in Chinese ports and she has three armored cruisers of great power and speed anchored in the harbor of Vladivostok. In addition she has ten battleships, some very ancient, undergoing repairs in Baltic yards. To these may be added two armored cruisers, six protected cruisers, three torpedo gunboats and ten destroyers all based upon the Baltic coasts. With the exception of the battleships first mentioned none of these craft can be accounted as of much practical value in modern warfare. It will take several years for Russia to be a naval power again.

—Measurements were yesterday made for the pavements about to be laid at the court house hill, on Brunk and Murray streets.

NORWAY IS ALARMED

They are in Danger of Being Gobbled by Russia

Christiania, July 25.—Absurd as it may seem when the political upheaval in Russia is remembered; despite the feeling against Sweden which exists, the fides is everywhere being expressed that it would be far better for the people of Norway to again unite with Sweden than to fall into the arms of Russia. Hopes are entertained of good results from the effort to call to the throne a Prince of Danish or English blood. In the event of this coming to naught, and with a prospect of dissolute negotiation on the part of Russia being opened, it is believed that by far the great majority of the people of Norway would again hail a union with Sweden. One trouble is that grave fears are entertained as to Russia's ultimate action in the extension of her frontier, which is only a few miles from the head of the Lyngenfjord. In securing this, Fjord, a warm water port open all the year round, would be obtained, an action which it is feared would lead to annexation by Russia.

Police Court

OFFICIALS

Chief of Police, G. I. Read

Magistrate, D. W. Dumble

Nothing doing at yesterday morning's Police Court.

Murphy, of coal shed notoriety, is once more in trouble, this time as complainant. Yesterday morning he swore out a search warrant against an Italian boy, whom he charges with having stolen sundry articles, to wit, razors, books, pair of handcuffs, diamond glass cutter, tools, and sundry articles too numerous to mention. The search warrant was duly executed and in the boy's possession were found a cheap leather belt and a little pocket memo book, value perhaps 3 cents. These valuable articles Murphy claims as his property, the boy, however, declares Murphy had given them to him. Cheap notoriety seems to fill a long felt want with a certain, but limited, class in the community.

Local Confidence Game

Yesterday afternoon the local police station was invaded by a heterodoxical assemblage of our local clergy, who whilst not brothers of one faith were united temporarily by the bond of a common sympathy.

They, in the philanthropic nature of their calling, and sublime neglect of human and mundane desire of their erring brothers of the laity, to get ahead of others in matters of the almighty dollar, had all bitten at the fruit of the Tree of Knowledge.

The reverend gentlemen had taken to their kindly bosoms a philistine who ungratefully worked on them the old time, moss grown "con." game of the new arrival in town, of a man, who, for the want of a trunk containing his baggage, for which he held an express receipt, possibly forged, would be debarred from obtaining a situation promised in Peterboro, and incidentally, from being a hard working member of each and every denomination, including Episcopal, Baptist, Methodist, Presbyterian and as many others as the "con" man could find clergymen presiding over, who would advance the money to send for his badly needed raiment. The different clergymen on the strength of the confidence man's production of an express receipt showing he had a trunk or valise which by some overnight had gone astray, and required an advance of fifty dollars to have sent to this city, advanced the stranger sums ranging from $1.50 to $2.50 each.

The smooth stranger neglected no details tending towards making his appeals to each clergyman a success; he visited the different churches on Sunday and was able to give the interior of the several edifices a thorough inspection, presented to the clergy of several denominations that he had been a member of the choir in their particular branch churches elsewheres.

Several of the ministers called upon paid the man good hard cash, while another gave him a cheque. Suspicion however arose in the mind of a Baptist clergyman whom the con man told he had obtained a position with a certain well known local firm; the clergyman telephoned the firm and found they had employed no such man. His suspicion rapidly increased, when he telephoned to other firms and found no business house or factory had employed, or was yearning for the man with the express order. Suspicion was rapidly succeeded by action, and yesterday, some of the local clergymen, of different creeds gathered in their wrath and gave information to the police.

P. C. Adams, accompanied by P. C. McGinty, early yesterday afternoon went to the City Hotel, this being the spot which the con. man had mentioned as honored with his custom. Officer Adams found a man sitting in front of the hotel, who corresponded with descriptions given, and at once arrested him. As soon as the prisoner, who gives his name as Thomas Mitchell, from the county of Middlesex, 20 miles from London, Eng., was locked up, the defrauded clergymen began to arrive, and at once identified their undoer.

On examination the prisoner's pockets showed he had in cash, some $8 or $10, in bills and silver, or just about what he had swindled those present out of. His pockets also contained papers, and church pamphlets, one of which bore the well known features of, and had evidently been given him by, a local Baptist minister, not the one whose suspicions led to his arrest. Among the prisoner's possessions was a book with several local addresses, one or two of which he had not, prior to his arrest, called upon, showing that he entertained no spirit of bigotry or narrowmindness, but would call on all, and treat or be treated by all alike.

The buncoed clergymen called upon the prisoner in his cell and held a long conversation with him, where upon he tried hard to force some appropriate tears; a sympathetic bystander suggested that Mitchell be supplied with a raw onion as a provocative of tears, but the suggestion was not acted upon.

The different clergymen took their comparitively trifling losses good naturedly but said it was pretty hard to be fleeced like this as they have so many bona fide calls upon their money and good nature. The prisoner had no room at any hotel, nor baggage, so that further search for his ill-gotten gains could not be made. One hotel man on Hunter St., however was very indignant over a lying "hard-luck story" Mitchell told him yesterday when he got his dinner. The prisoner claims to have only been three years in Canada.

His Worship this morning, will probably think, until matters are explained, at the opening of his court that there is a revival meeting in progress.

SIXTY MILES AN HOUR AT SEA

The Kaiser Having a Remarkable Boat Built

Berlin, July 25. — According to a German sporting paper, the Kaiser is now having built in a ship-yard in America, a turbine motor yacht, which, if everything claimed for it be true, will revolutionize the building of such craft. The yacht is to be about 78 feet long, and her engines will be of 3,000 h.p., which will give the vessel a speed of nearly sixty miles an hour. Her turbine motors and gasolene apparatus are stated to be of an entirely new construction, invented by a German-American named Grabert-Sellin, who has also constructed turbines capable of making over 9,000 revolutions per minute. The boat will probably be used as a despatch boat on the Kaiser's cruise.

POPULATION OF CANADA

Statistical Year Book Gives it as 5,528,847

Ottawa, July 25. — The statistical year book for 1904 has just issued from the Department of Agriculture, this being the twentieth year of its publication. The book gives the population of Canada as 5,528,847, based on the assumption that the rate of increase in the inter-censal period has been maintained. The population of Canada in the 1901 census was 5,371,315. A table of the density of the population in the provinces shows Prince Edward Island with 516 persons to the square mile. British Columbia is the most thinly populated, with less than half a person. The Dominion, as a whole, has 1.7.

Turning Out Fifteen Cars a Day

Montreal, July 25.—The Canadian Pacific Railway are very busy at their Montreal Shops at the present time. In addition to the ordinary every-day work of repairing freight and passenger equipment, they are building new box cars at the rate of fifteen a day, nearly a thousand having been turned out during the last two months. These cars, and as many more as they can build between now and harvest time, will all be required for handling the wheat crop. They are also building new passenger cars and cabooses, 100 of the former and 30 of the latter having been put into service within the last month.

Are Talking of Bumper Crops

Prospects in Manitoba Were Never Brighter Than Now

Montreal, July 25.—A summary of the news received by a number of prominent men interested in crop conditions is that prospects for a bumper crop in Manitoba and the North-West Territories, taken as a whole, never were brighter at the present time. When, with the expansion of area noted, one considered the fact that the wheat acreage shows an increase of 10 per cent., some 372,000 acres, and other crops still greater increases in acreage, the reason for the confidence everywhere apparent in Western Canada is obvious. Seventy-five million to 80 million bushels is regarded as a conservative estimate.

The Yacht Pennant

Mr. Milne Hamilton Has First Lien on the Flag Presented by Mr. Dennistoun.

As noted before, in this journal, Mr. R. M. Dennistoun, recently presented a flag to be competed for by yachts on Chemong Lake. The first of the series, for which the flag is given, was raced on Saturday afternoon last, and was witnessed by a large audience.

Three boats were entered in the race, which was won by Mr. Milne, Hamilton. Mr. W. J. Hopwood finishing second and Mr. R. M. Dennistoun third. It took place over a triangular three mile course, this being rounded twice. The course was laid out with the start directly in front of Pope's boat house, the second buoy being stationed at the bridge and the third upon the Enniemore shore.

Mr. Hamilton and Miss Allison Hamilton occupied the winning boat, while in Mr. Hopwood's were Messrs. W. J. and Howard Hopwood. Mr. Dennistoun having on board Prof Bull, the designer of his boat.

The three boats got away in a good start at about 5.30 o'clock, Mr. Hopwood leading.

The race was closely contested until the last leg of the course when Mr. Hamilton forged ahead in a magnificent finish, coming about with a two-minute lead.

An Auto Party

Make Good Time from Toronto to Peterboro.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Reid, Toronto, Mr. Bullis, Rochester, N.Y., Mr. Perryman, Kenmin Road, Toronto, Mr. Reid, city, and Mr. J. M. Downey, of the Dowser Pattern Works, Toronto, arrived in this city at midnight on Saturday by automobile.

The machine they came in was a composite make, including mechanism and features of several makers, the motive machinery being made here.

Their run from Toronto was an exceedingly swift one, although they lay over three hours in Whitby and two in Port Hope. After making a quick and pleasant run from Toronto a slight accident occurred just on the outskirts of this city, as the chain slipped, and they were unable to find the bolt.

A Hay Field Accident

Jas. Bailey Gets a Rib Broken and Calls in the Christian Scientists.

The Times this summer has noted several accidents occurring in the hay fields of this county. The latest of these is that which befell Mr. James Bailey, a Smith township market gardner, two miles from this city on Friday last.

It seems that as Mr. Bailey was standing on top of a high load of hay, the horses attached to the wagon made an unexpected start forward, this sudden shock of which threw him from his lofty elevation, violently to the ground. Mr. Bailey fell partly on his back, and partly on his side, and was rendered unconscious.

Although Mr. Bailey remained unconscious for two hours, no medical advice was summoned as he and his family are Christian Scientists. It is learned that Mr. Bailey claims to have sustained a fracture of a rib, also severe wrenching to the chin and neck, and a stunning to the whole body. So far, no other internal trouble has developed. Yesterday Mr. Bailey was reported to be getting on well. The sense of pain and shock to the system were being destroyed, and he was able to sit up and enjoy his meals with his family.

Mr. Bailey has the sympathy of many friends who regret that such a misfortune should occur to him at the present time.

TEN THOUSAND VISIT THE OLD TOWN.

Belleville Packed with Old Boys and Girls on First Re-Union the City Has Ever Had--The Place was Never In Its History so Lavishly Decorated.

Belleville, July 25.—The first Old Boys' reunion this city has ever had is off to a grand start. The city was never in its history so lavishly decorated, and to-day there are at least 10,000 visitors in the city. The Toronto contingent of nearly 1,500 arrived safely Saturday noon and there are about 500 from Rochester. The old boys and girls are here from all over the continent. The Kilties' Band give two concerts a day, and there are in addition bands from Trenton, Madoc, Deseronto, and the Belleville Oddfellows' Band. The Queen's Own Rifles' Bugle Band are here and are greatly admired. They were given a sail on the Bay of Quinte, Sunday, the guests of the 15th Regiment.

GIFT OF A PARK.

This morning Mr. Harry Corby presented the city with a beautiful park and Mrs. Corby presented the city with a handsome fountain in the presence of a large crowd, including the mayor and aldermen.

At 1.30 this afternoon a monster parade took place, all city officials, Board of Trade, school trustees, and societies taking part. Many beautiful floats were in the procession.

Free excursions are run all day by boats and everything possible is being done for the entertainment of the city's guests.

HELD GIRL UNDER WATER

Young Bridgeport Man Arrested--Girl Drowned

Bridgeport, July 25.—Joseph Bassett, nineteen years old, of 794 State street, was arrested at Seaside park this afternoon as the result of a drowning at the park, and later was released to appear before Coroner Doten tomorrow morning. Bassett was one of the party of four young men and women who were bathing at Seaside park when suddenly there was great excitement in the water and after an apparent struggle it was found that Lillian Bradner, fourteen years old, had been drowned. Bassett reached shore out of breath, declaring that the Bradner girl was seized with cramps and that he tried to save her but couldn't. Those on shore demanded that Bassett be arrested, saying that while fooling in the water he held Miss Bradner down too long and that before he realized it she was drowned. The other two members of the party claim the girl got beyond her depth and that it was no fault of Bassett's. Deputy Sheriff Louis Richards was near when the accident happened and promptly arrested Bassett, who was being threatened by a big crowd.

Almost at the same time that Miss Bradner met her death Joseph Lotohasky, twenty-four years old, was drowned at the foot of Seaview avenue. He was in bathing when he was seized with cramps and sank before aid reached him. His body also was recovered.

TO SOLVE SERVANT PROBLEM

Mr. Perard Wants to Import a Thousand Scotch Girls

Ottawa, July 25.—Mr. A. D. Prorand, ex-M.P. for the Black Friars division of Glasgow, who is well-known in Canada in connection with the Chignecto ship railway, has submitted a proposal to the Government with a view to bringing out 1,000 Scotch girls as domestic servants. The Government looks favorable upon the proposal.

Revolt in Russian Prison

St. Petersburg, July 24. — A hundred prisoners in the gaol at Dunaburg revolted in an endeavor to assist the political prisoners to escape. Troops were called out, and shot and killed two prisoners and wounded sixteen.

Promising Signs.

Further Evidence of the Post Office Addition Being Proceeded with.

Further signs were in evidence yesterday that the post office additions will be advanced another stage this century. A cart, a driver and a goat live horse, were seen by reliable eye witnesses, who assert, despite sceptic remarks made by their audience, that two more boards were yesterday deposited in the yard to the rear of where this building operations was begun and seemingly abandoned some weeks ago. With these tangible proofs that the Government's intentions are to advance the work sometime, we must possess our souls in patience. Unless the Government changes its mind or the contractor dies of old age, the work will go on again.

Presented with Pipe

Mr. F. L. Bradburn Presented with Token of Esteem.

Mr. Frank L. Bradburn was on Saturday the recipient of a handsome meerschaum pipe, and an address, which was presented to him by his fellow-employees of the Canadian General Electric Works on the occasion of his leaving the employment of the company.

Mr. Bradburn has been employed for many years as draftsman for the Canadian General Electric Company of this place and in leaving him the company is losing an industrious and capable man, and much regret is expressed at his having severed his connection with the company.

All join heartily in wishing Mr. Bradburn success and prosperity in the future.

Worse Than Peterboro Thugs--Feet

The Cobourg Star says, We always understood that Port Hope whiskey was very bad but Bowmanville whiskey takes the cake for causific roman tic ideas. Last week an innocent man from Pontypool drove into that that town and after sampling the liquid fire, tried to drive his horse up the [illegible] tree. What was worse [illegible] had to pay $12.70 as fine and costs. We think it is strong enough to sell such liquid, but if it is the concentration of meanness to charge him such a fee for drinking it.

Kaiser Kept Busy as Adviser of All Europe

Emperor William of Germany Meets Emperor Nicholas of Russia--France Anxious About Outcome of Conference--Inducing Japan to be Reasonable.

The diplomats and Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany are being kept busy. The latter, in particular, as Advisor of All Europe, is finding plenty of scope for his surplus energies. A few weeks ago he took a steam yacht trip to Morrocco, and urged the Sultan to demand an international conference. The demand brought the powers dangerously near to war, but the Kaiser gained his point. Next, the ubiquitous Wilhelm hied him to Sweden in his royal yacht, and had a conference with King Oscar, the results of which may not be known until hostilities between Norway and Sweden have commenced. The royal diplomat and his yacht which promises to share with the Kaiser a place in history, have now met the Czar of Russia, and the world is trying to guess what it is all about. Berlin wishes the world to understand there is nothing doing, but the world is inclined to think that is not doing justice to the Kaiser's capacity for sensations. Beyond a doubt the meeting between Wilhelm and Nicholas is an historic event of great importance. Whether the Kaiser is explaining to his brother sovereign how to govern a nation, or how to extort easy peace terms from a victorious enemy or how Scandinavia can be most equitably divided, remains to be seen. It is not improbable that he is, for reasons not altogether unselfish, securing assurances from Russia that she will not take advantage of Sweden if the latter tries to forcibly restore the union with Norway. Berlin is explicit that Germany is not promoting another scheme to rob Japan of the fruits of victory.

Russia is doing her best to reduce Japan's irreducible minimum in this matter of peace terms. An interview has been granted the Associated Press by M. de Witte, declaring Russia will continue the war for years if she cannot arrange peace with honor, and other interviews have been accorded by General Linevitch and subordinate commanders asserting that the Russian army was never in such good condition for battle, all of which are made public in the hope of inducing Japan to be reasonable. Baron Hyashi was playing the same game when he said the Japanese were no angels, and would not exercise generosity, but would fight until they accomplished their full purpose.

To Our Subscribers

Our Readers Would Confer a Favor by Reporting Delay in Non-delivery of Papers

One of the greatest handicaps a morning paper, particularly in a small city, has to encounter is the difficulty of securing trustworthy boys to get their papers for delivery early enough, and equally difficult is it to always feel sure they conscientiously deliver them to every subscriber on their respective routes. The Times, whilst trying to secure the best class of boys, and paying them good wages for delivery, sometimes receives a complaint of the morning paper not being delivered as regularly as we are justified in considering they should be. When any such complaint reaches this office immediate investigation is instituted and the erring boy warned, or, if repeated, discharged. Our readers would confer a personal favor on The Times if they would at once report to this office any, and every instance of non-delivery; this is the only way in which we can keep in touch with our subscribers and rectify non-delivery of the morning paper.

A Big Time.

Old Boys Will Put a Carmine Tint on Peterborough Aug. 7th.

There will certainly be something doing in Peterboro on August 7th, when the "Old Boys" of Peterboro, now located in Toronto and other towns, visit this city.

The present prospects are that this day, which in Toronto's Civic Holiday, will be an interesting one, both to the visitors and those who live here. Messrs. E. A. Cardwell and Fred Roberts, the "advance agents," were in town yesterday making arrangements. The old boys will come down in full force on Monday, August 7th, and they will make the town lively while they will remain here.

A program of sports in the afternoon is being arranged, and at night, it is possible that a band concert will be given in the Royal Grand Rink.

More complete arrangements will be made later.

A Vivi Exponent With Tongue

The Hastings Star says; Mrs. Rose, representative of the Toronto Vivi Co., appeared before Magistrate Robertson at the town hall, Hastings, on Wednesday of last week on a charge of using grossly insulting and abusive language. It seems that Mrs. Rose entered a home in Hastings, and, addressing the lady of the house, who was confined to her bed through illness, administered a severe tongue-thrashing, among other things calling the lady a perjurer. Several witnesses were examined after which Mr. Robertson adjourned the case until July 20th.

False Report Denied.

Star of the East Gold Mining Company Shut Down Down Whilst Veins are Connected

For the past day or two misleading rumors have been current throughout the city as to reasons for a temporary cessation from work of the stamp mill on the Star of the East mining property. The rumors, whilst correct in saying that the stamp mill will be closed for a short time, is altogether wrong in reporting that all work has been stopped, and is unjust in that misleading and unfounded inferences might be drawn, by those not knowing the reasons for this temporary shut down. In conversation with The Times yesterday, Mr. Matthew Smith, President of the Star of the East Gold Mining and Milling Company, explained erroneous reports that have been circulated with regard to the company's operations in Barrie township, Frontenac county.

It seems that the stamp mill had been shut down, while a cross-cut was being made from number one to number two vein. The distance of the cut through solid rock is something like one hundred and fifty feet, and it is calculated that the work will require about thirty-five days. It was not considered advisable to keep the mill running while this was being done. There are evidences that vein number two is very rich, and once it is struck, it will be possible to keep any amount of stamps running.

In the meantime, however, the cross-cut is being made 80 feet below the surface between the two main veins, and there are indications of several heavily mineralized lodes in the intervening property. One of these is exceedingly promising. Mr. W. C. Pfile, of Pittsburg, a gentleman who has had a great deal of experience in mining, was delighted with what he saw, and there are many evidences that the greatest riches of the Star of the East Gold Mine have not yet been tapped.

Mr. Smith spoke most enthusiastically about the rich marble deposits on the company's property, which only requires a short railway line introduced in order to make the marble alone a paying proposition.

Mr. A. A. Smith Travels.

The Fort Frances Times, in referring to a gentleman well known in this city says; Mr. A. A. Smith, barrister of Millbrook, Ont., is in town on a visit to his brother, Mr. J. A. Smith, the manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce. Mr. Smith, who has been through Manitoba, is on his way home and says it is a relief to see such a pretty place as Fort Frances after having been in prairie towns.

SUN SPOTS CAUSE HOT SPELLS

Harvard Scientists Point to Big Batch of Spots now Visible

Boston, July 25.—Scientists who hold to the belief that heated spells are caused by spots on the sun say they find the proof of soundness of their belief in the great spots noted by Harvard observers upon the sun since the present heated period began. As compared at the Harvard Observatory, these spots cover about one-fifteenth of the face of the sun, or approximately 80,000 to 85,000 miles in diameter. These spots are now observable with the naked eye, especially as the sun is going down, on the left of the sphere. The spots on the sun at present are are among the largest which have appeared in recent years.

HEALTH FOR WOMEN

Mrs. Emma Daigle of Moncton N. B., Sends an Open Letter to All Sufferers.

Most women are tired when they wake up. Housework drags along with great difficulty. Nervousness is always present, headaches seldom depart, tears are ever ready to flow.

But there is a cure, a true specific for women's ills that restored a prominent lady in Moncton, Mrs. Daigle, who tells the following experience:

"About a year ago I had a serious sickness, sort of a general breakdown. My digestion failed entirely and I was able to eat but very little. I took violent stomach pains and suffered terribly from headaches. My doctor said it was nervous exhaustion and I might never be well. My troubles increased, I became a terrible sufferer, I became subject to neuralgia and rheumatism. Sleep finally forsook me and I almost lost heart. Different medicines didn't help. Doctors couldn't do me any good. I was desperate when I heard of Ferrozone. The first box convinced me it was just what I needed. It toned up my stomach, gave me a splendid appetite and then my recovery seemed certain. Ferrozone increased my weight several pounds, has restored my nerves, given me a good color and strength such as I never had before. For the weak and sickly I can truthfully recommend Ferrozone." (Signed) Emma Daigle.

REMEMBER: No mere stimulant or alcoholic concoction can take the place of the nerve and blood nourishment contained in Ferrozone. This true tonic always does what is claimed for it. Sold everywhere in 50c. boxes or six for $2.50. By mail from N. C. Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U. S. A., and Kingston, Ont.

SHEEP, WEEDS AND DOGS

The extension of the weed evil is said to be due in large measure to the absence of sheep. These animals would be an effective means of checking it. There is no reason why sheep are not raised in large numbers other than the dread of destruction by dogs. As the Weekly Sun remarks: With the present price of wool and mutton there is no class of live stock which brings so much profit to the farmer today as the wool and mutton producer. The prospects are, too, that present conditions in this respect will continue for some little time to come. Why then, is it that so few sheep are kept? The falling off in this class of live stock is due in part to the long period of low prices in wool and mutton; it is due in a greater measure to the horde of vagrant curs in the country. This nuisance could be largely abated by adopting the practice which is being followed in one section of Ontario. Farmers in the section referred to have agreed among themselves that no dogs are to be kept about their own farms. This of itself tends to prevent other dogs going into the neighborhood and when the latter do go they are treated to a dose of cold lead, without much regard as to whether the sun is up or down.

WINTER SESSIONS HEREAFTER

At the suggestion of Mr. R. L. Borden, Sir Wilfrid Laurier has agreed to change the end of the fiscal year from June 30 to March 31, and to call the session of Parliament for November instead of midwinter. The new arrangement cannot be effected this year, however, as the Tariff Commission will not have finished its inquiry by November. Sir Wilfrid promised that it would go into operation in the year 1906. The main object of the change is to abolish the summer session. Legislation is apt to drag wearily during the dog days after five months of close application. At such time members cannot be expected to give due attention to parliamentary duties while baying is going on in "catchy" weather, and thus deals of a shady character have more chance to slip through.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Peary hovering about the North Pole will resemble the Peri at the gates of Paradise, directing where to go, but dwelling in another place. The great trouble in finding the Pole, if he can ever get into the locality, is the fact that there are no instruments yet invented that can tell the exact spot where he may pluck it out of its dreary frozen secret and tote it off on his shoulder. And even if he got it, he couldn't sell it to anybody. He could only use it to kindle the fire of earthly scorn over something done.

When employes strike for the installation of electric fans, the employer who yields to the demand may not feel any elation over the fact or allegation rather, that cold and sore throat may follow. That is what they are saying in Philadelphia, anyway. The "electric fan cold" has become a proverbial ailment in the Quaker City, and the doctors say the sore throat is caused by the dust carried by the fan. To be free from dust, the air stirred should be from an open window; otherwise it is the same air stirred over and over again.

Russian nihilists are reported to be plotting to put the Czar's baby on the throne. Possibly they are going upon the theory that the child could at least be depended upon not to change his mind between meals.

There is a growing suspicion that the "modest little Japs" will be able to forget a good deal of their modesty when they are asked to name their peace terms.

Tuesday was so hot in Cleveland that the automatic fire signals broke loose, calling the brigade in all directions at once. That the firemen were greatly exercised over this record-breaking event, goes without saying.

The Lake Shore Railway is to be tested for an electric freight service. Mr. Vanderbilt has decided the plan as feasible, and will instal it at once between Detroit and Toledo. The greater economy of motor power is the reason assigned.

In Newark, N. J., caterpillars are bringing 10 cents a quart. Newark must be the headquarters of the axle grease industry.

A boat rocker was almost lynched by a crowd of women at a resort near New York a few days ago. It is to be hoped that the women succeeded in making their earnestness impressive enough to work a cure.

Peace Envoy Witte says Russia may fight for years. It is evident that she will have to if the Czar is determined not to give up until his army has gained a victory.

1000 Parent Bass Arrive by G. T. R.

A tank car containing 1,000 parent black bass, weighing from two to six pounds each, came into the city on the 11.45 G.T.R. train yesterday. These bass are caught by a vessel out in lake Erie, and are to be used for propagation purposes. They were at once forwarded to Lakefield, whence they will be conveyed on a snow for distribution in Clear and Stony lakes. The fish arrived in good condition very little loss of life occurring en route, the constant jarring of the tins aerating the water in this tank. The greatest difficult in transporting these fish alive occurs when the tank is being carried on the snow; during this part of their trip the fish are only kept alive by artifical aeration of the water, which is done by constantly pouring and dipping it with pails. Mr. Geo. Cochrane looked after the consignment after its arrival here.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendment thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

[1] At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

[2] If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

[3] If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

[4] If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses [2], [3] or [4] must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 80 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homestead so entitle them to patent on or before the 3rd of June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Office in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in locating land to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the North-west Territories.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

N. B.—In addition to Free Grant Lands, to which the Regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from railroad and other corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

To be opened September 1, 1905, unlocking the latch on the "door of opportunity." Pull at the latch string and the door will open for you, no matter where you live or what your occupation. Colorado men—well known, reliable, experienced—have organized the Indian Mining and Power Co. and provide ten thousand dollars capital by the sale of preferred stock, par value one dollar per share.

Ordinarily a ground floor stock, if offered at all, is offered to get money with which to start, has no asset whatever behind it, and depends entirely on future development for its value. Our proposition is different. We have started. Our stock now has an asset of property adjoining the reservation, consisting of 320 acres rich agricultural land, 300 shares of water in the first water right on the Uintah River and two lots (corner) Main street in the new town of Moffat, Utah. A fair estimate of the value, $16,800.00, is sixteen dollars for every dollar that has invested and an asset fifty per cent greater than the entire issue to be sold at the price it is here offered, however, this is only the commencement of operations. With the additional capital to be secured by the sale of stock other valuable property will be added and the opening of the reservation will start the harvest, of which our site years will be reaping. Now never has such a combination of conditions existed. Now never had such an opportunity as we now offer. We show you the results of the expenditure of our own capital, our labor and the judgment that has been displayed in securing this extraordinary opportunity for a profitable investment. Every dollar subscribed will bring assembled returns.

A limited amount of the preferred stock is on sale at 5 cents per share, the ground floor price. An advance to 10 cents will soon be made. A square deal is guaranteed. Write for any further information or any reference desired. DO IT NOW.

A Rice Lake Accident

Two Young Men Upset from a Canoe were in the Water Two Hours

What might easily have resulted in a drowning fatality, occurred last week near Hiawatha on Rice Lake. Two young men, who have for some time been camping near Hiawatha, on the north shore of Rice Lake, immediately across from Harwood, went out to enjoy the pleasures of a lateen-sail propelled canoe, last Wednesday afternoon. A sudden squall, one of those treacherous dangers to small sailing craft on the lake, came sweeping by the canoe, and before the sail could be adjusted, overturned the boat and its contents. The accident happily occurred in the early afternoon, at which time there were several persons about the shore preparing to go fishing, and so the upset was observed. A heavy sea preventing any one going to their assistance at once, gave the two campers a long struggle for life. In fact it was only after they women had clung to their capsized canoe for nearly two hours, that Mr. M. Howard, of the Indian Reservation at Hiawatha, succeeded in rescuing them. It was a plucky deed and appreciated to the full by the two young men, who had begun to despair of being saved. An old and experienced freshwater yachtsman, when commenting on the narrow escape of these two men yesterday, told The Times that Rice lake is the most dangerous piece of inland water he ever yachted on, the squalls coming quickly, and without premonition from every direction over the highlands bounding the lake.

MARRIAGE SENDS HIM AMUCK

Stratford Man Celebrates Approaching Nuptials by Firing Revolver

Hartford City, Ind., has discovered a unique solution of the Sunday baseball question. A ball game and a sermon are given for one admission. The club is supported by men who appreciate the benefit of the advertising that a successful ball teams brings to a town.

The officials of the Theological Seminary, however, protested against Sunday games. Thereupon the officers of the club invited one of the ministers of the Seminary to preach a sermon on the grounds before the game.

To a congregation of 1,000 respectful fans the minister preached, after which the game was played. There was no allusion to desecration of the Sabbath. Perhaps Hartford City has afforded a precedent for major league clubs forbidden by law from playing Sunday ball.

A LUSTY ROYAL FAMILY

No Trace of "Race Suicide" in the Reigning Line in the British Empire

That the British throne is not to become vacant through lack of an heir has been guaranteed by another birth. To the Prince and Princess of Wales has been born another son—their fifth, with only one daughter to speak the family's sex respectively.

It would be supererogatory to preach the evils of race suicide to the British royal family. George III., with his nine sons and his six daughters, set an example, and it can be said that if every household in Great Britain had increased as regularly since the right little island would have a good many more than forty millions. It is true that Edward the Duke of Kent had only one child—Victoria—but since then the multiplication has gone on apace. The late Queen was blessed with four sons and five daughters, all of whom were permitted to reach maturity and marry. Of the nine, eight have had children, and usually eight have had children, and usually not singly, but in battalions. King Edward is the parent of six, and his son, George, with the latest addition, is parent of the same number. The other stems have done as well—the Empress Frederick eight and her son, Emperor William, seven; Princess Alice six, and one of her daughters, the Empress of Russia, five; Prince Alfred and Princess Helena, five each; Princess Beatrice, four; Prince Arthur, three, and Prince Leopold, two. The Cumberland and Cambridge branches are equally prolific. There are living to-day approximately one hundred descendants of Queen Victoria, while the descendants of George III. would recruit a regiment.

ATHLETIC WORLD

BY OUR SPORTING EDITOR.

Stratford, July 23.—At the police court Saturday morning, James Dobson, recently brought from Toronto to work in the G.T.R. shops here, was fined $5 and $10 costs, for having a revolver in his possession.

Last night he got drunk and started to fire off his revolver on Downie street, inviting all and sundry to come around the corner and fight with him.

The police got him and this morning the only excuse he could give was the unique one that "It was an occasion; you know I am getting married."

The revolver was confiscated.

The Checkers of Beaverton defeated the Black Knights of Cunnington yesterday by five goals to two. The game was inclined to be rough. Referee Woody Tegart, of Toronto, was called on to penalize 20 men. Cunnington supplied 11 and Beaverton 9. In the last quarter two players mixed it up, and the crowd got in. A regular Donnybrook Fair was the result. Harry Cameron field captain for Beaverton, lost his shirt in it.

An Enjoyable Trip.

Speaking of the recent excursion from Cobourg to Stony Lake, the Sentinel-Star says:—"The excursion under the auspices of the Methodist Sunday school on Tuesday was a very pleasant and enjoyable one. The trip was successful all through more should have taken it in, as it is one of the most lovely outings one can take. The steamer was clean and the officers and men careful and most obliging and all were pleased with the sail through the lakes. Those who go through these beautiful waters are most enthusiastic in the advocacy of this route as one for pleasure and pastime."

—The Province Official Gazette of Saturday announced the appointment of Mr. James Lithgow, of Bobcaygeon, as License Inspector for East Victoria.

A Modern Local Miracle

A story was current in the city yesterday that a miraculous draught of fishes had been made recently in the Otonabee. The tale has it that on throwing out his hook and line captured a string of five bass that another fisherman had previously captured, strung on a line, but had allowed to escape. This ingenious narrative says that one of the string bass had bitten at his hook and thus enabled the hero of the tale to capture a quintette of fish. It only requires the addition of seven bottles of barley juice to cap the climax.

$500 REWARD! FOR WOMEN

WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus or Falling of Womb which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

The Vice-President Independent Order of Good Templars.

An experience which many women have now related by Miss Agnes Stebbins, of 231 East 94th Street, New York City, as follows: "I had very poor health for a year until life looked dark and dreary to me. Had headaches, backache, also pain, my sleep was broken and fitful. I longed for health. Tried several medicines but none were of any lasting benefit until I took Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I soon realized that I had found the right remedy. It helped nature to throw off the poisons that saturated the system, renewed all pains and strengthened the digestive organs, and brought the roses of health back to my cheeks. This medicine if taken occasionally keeps the system in perfect condition, helping it to throw off the disease and consequences of exposure to dampness. I am pleased to give it my endorsement."

DANGEROUS GERMS IN SUMMER

Strengthen the Stomach with Mi-o-na and Keep Well

A wealthy philanthropist in New York spends thousands of dollars every summer providing milk for the babies, with the result that the mortality is greatly decreased. He appreciates the fact that disease germs are common in the summer and that the stomach must be kept healthy to resist their attacks.

Older people do not live on a milk diet to insure health, but they can so strengthen the stomach and digestive organs by the use of Mi-o-na that they too, will be free from sickness in the summer season.

Take a Mi-o-na tablet before each meal, and it will soothe and heal any inflammation that may be present in the lining of the stomach, give tone and strength to the whole digestive system, and aid you in naturaly and easily digesting the food. It is the only remedy known that cures indigestion and stomach trouble by strengthening the digestive system. It is guaranteed to make a complete and permanent cure in all diseases of the stomach excepting cancer.

Mi-o-na restores complete health to the whole system and cures headaches, back-ache, sleeplessness, pains and distress after eating, vertigo, heart burn, and the general debility which result from a weak stomach and imperfect digestion.

A guarantee to refund the money if Mi-o-na does not show help, is given with every 50 cent box. Ask Wm. Madill to show you the guarantee.

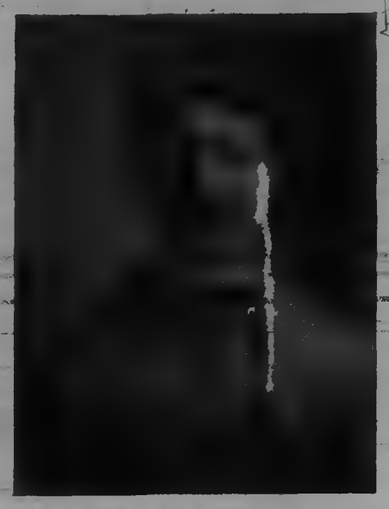
ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES.

TEN YEARS



The Story of My Wonderful Success.

Reads Like a Fairy Tale-Yet Full of Convincing Truths!

An Opportunity of a Lifetime for the Investor.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF IT.

I ask every reader of this paper to write me. I want to send you my free book entitled "Ten Years"—"The Story of My Wonderful Success." It tells about one of the greatest and most promising investment opportunities ever offered. It tells how my business grew from less than $25.00 capital to its present proportions.

I believe I have the best proposition from an investor's standpoint that could be placed before you. For ten years I have been teaching men and women to live according to the laws of Nature. My book is the history of my life. It shows what energy and ambition can accomplish in the world of affairs. It is intensely interesting to any man or woman who has a few dollars to invest in a legitimate enterprise.

I started business in the City of Brooklyn in 1896. My capital amounted to less than $25.00. My first years business netted me over $1,000.00. Last year I paid dividends to my partners of 15 per cent. Five years ago my business had grown so large that I was compelled to remove to larger quarters. I am now at 63-65 Clark St., Brooklyn, N.Y.—in connection with Hotel St. George. Experts pronounce my institution to be the best appointed of its kind in the country. I estimate the equipment of the Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture to be worth at least $40,000.00.

I want to have a building of my own that will enable me to accommodate my increasing business. To erect this building I need capital, but more important than this to increase my business to the proportions which I desire, I need the co-operation of men and women throughout the country and the world.

Co-operation is the Secret of Success

I recognize it. I believe that with thousands of co operators throughout the country I can build my business to tremendous proportions to the benefit of the shareholders and myself.

The Mac Levy Company is incorporated under the laws of New York for $150,000.00. They are proprietors of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

The last named branch of the business of the Mac Levy Company is comparatively new. I have been at work for several years to establish such a department in connection with teaching Physical Culture. The most difficult part of forming the Equipment Company has been accomplished. The business is now in condition to be pushed on a large scale. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are spent yearly on new gymnasiums and their equipment. The profits are large. A company of this kind has an immense field in which to work. Competition is slight. It is evident that the Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company can build an enormous business.

The Mac Levy Company operates during the summer months at Steeplechase Park, Coney Island, and at Averne Hotel, Averne-by-the-Sea, L.I., as well as at our Brooklyn Institute. I also do an extensive mail business. I teach people how they should live and exercise. My students are scattered all over the United States, and in English speaking countries.

which arrises in the minds of every man and woman is how to secure a comfortable income in the earlier years of their life, that they may reap the full benefits which such an income affords.

I have long thought that there are hundreds of people in moderate circumstances who would like to invest a few dollars in an Institution of this kind. It is to such people that I intend this announcement shall appeal. I am offering a block of the Treasury Stock of this company to the public at its par value. My reasons for doing this are that I wish to erect a building and to extend the business of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

I WANT YOU AS MY PARTNER

I need your help and suggestion. I want you to work with me and help me to secure a tremendous amount of new business.

I believe that if you could talk with me personally and go over the records of the business which I have done, see in black and white the figures which show the steady growth my business has experienced during the past ten years, examine my plans for future extension, and then look over the magnificent equipment of my institute, and would want no further evidence that money put into my business would bring you the greatest possible returns consistent with safety and good management.

I ask you to write for my free book. I believe it will interest you. You have a few dollars that you want to invest. Why let it stand idle earning only 3 or 4 per cent that Savings Bank pay their depositors? Put it to work. Join it with mine. This Company ought to pay at least.

A Critical Moment, Rests Now with Japs

Peace Assured, Says Count Casini, if Japan will Only be Reasonable--Russia Has Now Reached a Critical Moment in Her History.

New York, July 26.—Count Casini, formerly Russian Ambassador at Washington, expresses the opinion, according to the Herald's Paris correspondent, that all now depends on the Japanese, and that if their demands at the coming peace conference are reasonable peace is assured.

Speaking of the Russian representative, M. Witte, Count Casini said: "I think this infinitely important task could not have been intrusted to a better representative. He is a man of extraordinary capacity, and of the finest character. He knows the Far Eastern question as few men know it and is a patriot.

A CRITICAL MOMENT.

"Regarding internal difficulties, Russia has now reached a critical moment in her history, but America has had such a moment, so has France. Those difficulties will disappear, and Russia will be stronger than ever. They are merely passing difficulties, and it would be unwise to attach too much importance to them."

Referring to the Chinese, Count Casini said: "I like the Chinese. It takes years and years of worry and trouble to bring them around to your way of thinking, or to induce them to enter into any undertaking, but, once convinced, they are loyal. A Chinaman's word is as good as his oath."

ASSUME JAP LOANS.

Berlin, July 26.—The Lokal Anzeiger says: "Russia may propose to Japan to take over all her foreign war loans in lieu of indemnity. M. Witte's interviews in Paris are connected with such a plan, and the visit of Herr Ernst Von Mendelssohn, head of Russia's principal bankers in Berlin, to Chancellor Von Bulow is supposed to be on the same business.

WHY MUTINY LURKS IN BLACK SEA FLEET

From Outbreak of War It Had Been Dreaded by Admiralty

ALL CONDITIONS FAVORABLE

Inactivity and Poor Food Combined Made it Easy to Arouse the Sailors

Odessa, July 26.—The inquiry into the Black Sea mutiny and the condition of affairs leading up to the rebellion of the crews of the battleship Kniaz Potemkin and her companion battleship, the Georgi Pobiedonosetz, is beginning slowly. There appears to be some ground for the assumption that the mutiny was the outcome of a carefully devised and far-reaching plot. If this was the case, the organizers of the conspiracy must have been somewhat discouraged at the final results, though it appears to be one of the characteristics of your true Russian revolutionists that he never grows discouraged.

But at the outset it was feared that the whole Black Sea squadron might be infected with the germ of treason, that all the crews might take part in the insurrection, and that sympathetic uprisings at Baltic naval stations might give the revolutionists control of what is left of Russia's sea power. Considerable shrewdness was evidenced by the projectors of the movement, be the plan narrow or broad in scope, when they selected for the initial explosion the battleship Kniaz Potemkin, by far the most formidable vessel remaining under the Russian flag. The ignominious failure of Admiral Kruger to suppress the revolt, and the almost simultaneous decision of the crew of the Georgi Pobiedonosetz, the next most powerful battleship in the fleet, to join the mutineers, were auspicious events for the insurgents and the Government's prospect of reasserting its authority seemed hopeless when the remainder of the squadron was dismantled at Sevastopol.

CHUKNINE A GOOD ADMIRAL.

Admiral Chuknine, the real commander of the Black Sea fleet, has been something of a hero in Russia. He is an officer of whom great things have been hoped, but he has not had an opportunity of winning fame in the present war, though the wastage of admirals has been very heavy in the Far East. Since Admiral Skrydlo was withdrawn to go to Port Arthur Admiral Chuknine has been in command of this force, which has been of secondary importance since it is confined to the Black Sea by treaty obligations. It is in existence on the sufferance of Europe, and certainly the English, the French, the German and the other governments would not long remain silent provided it became the rule rather than the exception for pirates to capture Russian battleships and endanger the shipping belonging to merchants flying the flags of these different governments.

The Black Sea fleet came into being in 1871, when France and Germany were too busy to pay much attention to external affairs, and when England also had her hands full. Then it was that Russia revived her claim of the right to have armed ships in the Black Sea. This demand, as is well known, was subsequently acknowledged, provided they never passed through the Dardanelles. Consequently, this Black Sea fleet in the past two years while stirring events have been happening, has felt itself neglected and forgotten from the admiral in command to the youngest officer hoping to win promotion by actual service, and it may be that chagrin at their own misfortune has not made them particularly tactful in their treatment of the men. Besides the disposition has been to draw the better material for the other fleets, leaving the dregs both as to officers and men here in the Black Sea.

ACTED TOGETHER.

The later developments tend to show that the two mutinous battleships acted together instead of separately, one remaining idly at Odessa, the other going to the Roumanian port of Kustendje, they might by a threat of bombardment have forced the garrison of Odessa to surrender or raise the revolutionary flag; or the mutineers themselves having replenished their supplies, might have proceeded to Batum of Poti, where their presence would doubtless have acted like a torch on the accumulated material for conflagration in the Caucasus. That the mutiny in the Black Sea fleet did not have more serious results, must be attributed in a large measure to the fact that the officers still remain loyal to the existing government. The Russian peasant, on land or sea, does not make the highest type of a soldier. He is a fatalist and a good soldier, but he lacks the power to take the initiative, the power to plan and devise and execute. But for this the Government of Russia would have ended long ago so far as its existing autocratic form is concerned.

POSITION A DIFFERENT ONE.

Inquiries show that the position of both the officers and the men since the outbreak of the war with Japan has been one of great perplexity and difficulty. Life in the Black Sea is dull at best, and the cousequ is have no love for sea life such as can be provided by these enclosed waters. The more adventurous spirits among those of the quarter deck and the lower deck had been encouraged to hope that the restrictions confining the fleet to the Black Sea were about to be removed. Widespread were the reports to the effect that the Admiralty had decided that the mercenary squid break through the Dardanelles. The risk of the consequences, no matter what they might be. Unfamiliar with the first class warships possessed by the Powers in the Mediterranean, the crews of the various ships did not recognize the madness of this action, which they too readily ascribed the authorities of Russian ships (with two exceptions of the poorest fighting qualities) against the splendid men-of-war of the nations who were parties to the treaty of Paris. It was soon found that the Russian Admiralty naturally did not entertain this idea. Instead the more promising officers and crews were withdrawn and there succeeded a feeling of discontent with the life of inaction and uselessness, and this was accentuated when the raw conscripts were drafted aboard to replace those who had been withdrawn for war service. These men went afloat full of discontent, and they served merely to add fuel to the flames. In this manner discipline had been undermined, and when efforts have been made to support it brutality in some instances has no doubt been resorted to in the belief that incipient mutiny could only be checked by showing a determined front. Harsh acts of this kind were frequent on board the Kniaz Potemkin previous to the outbreak. All naval officers are well aware of the fact that when once the spirit of mutiny has gained possession of the crew of a ship it is difficult to suppress it. In similar cases affecting the military the regiments can be broken up and ordered to new scenes and the change, to new conditions almost invariably has the effect of making the men forget past misfortunes. But when men are disaffected with a ship it appears to be almost impossible to prevent it from running its course. Besides this the Revolutionists and Socialists had many sympathizers among the members of the crew, and the evidence collected since the outbreak shows that revolutionary literature had been secretly circulated until almost every man on board the ship appeared to be in favor of revolt against the Government of the Czar.

There was a minor mutiny last summer which, however, was quelled with great vigor, and in January of the present year the shipbuilding yard at Sebastopol was set on fire, seriously damaging two warships which were being built for the Russian navy. It is now believed that the same causes which brought about the latest mutiny of the Black Sea fleet were responsible for these earlier disaffections, almost forgotten during the march of events in the Orient.

CANADA TO ANNEX AMERICAN TOWNS?

Boundary Surveyors Said to Have Found a Strip of the United States Belongs to Canada.

New York, July 26.—The surveyors representing the United States and Canada have completed the inspection of the boundary line between the Dominion and the United States at Richford and North Troy, says a special despatch from Newport, Vt., to the Herald.

It is stated that they have made startling discoveries. These are that Richford, East Rickford, and Stevens Mills, which are a short distance within what has been considered the Vermont side of the border, rightfully belong to Canada, and steps will probably be taken to establish the boundaries so as to give Canada either a recompense or the territory stated.

The strip of land involved is several miles in length, and from one-half to a mile in width. It has a population of about 4,500.

MINE EXPLOSION KILLS SEVERAL NEAR BANFF

Dynamite Blows Three Men to Pieces and Many More May be Killed or Injured--Bank Head Mine the Scene.

Banff, July 26.—While miners were at work in the Bank Head mine yesterday afternoon, three miles east of here, a fearful explosion of dynamite occurred, which wrought awful havoc to the mine and resulted in the death of Thomas Smiley of Ireland, David Thomas of Wales, and John Williams of Wales, and injury to many others.

The three men killed were literally blown to pieces. The cause of the explosion is not yet known, and at this writing no particulars of the tragedy can be ascertained.

There is an uncertainty as to the number injured. It is feared that the list of injured will reach a considerable number, as it is known that quite a large force of men were at work in the mine.

One report says that all who were at work in this mine were killed, but this cannot be confirmed. Of those known to be dead, David Thomas was the only one married, and he leaves a wife and family of six children.

A Gun Accident

Mr. Thos. Waller Loses an the Wrong End of His Gun and Loses a Finger.

With the common use of firearms in this district, there are remarkably few accidents, but even here they will sometimes occur.

On Monday a young Englishman named Thomas Waller, employed by Mr. Hugh Fife, third line of Dummer, was out gunning for hedgehogs, and while sitting with his left hand on the muzzle of the gun, the piece exploded, and the charge shattered the middle finger to such an extent that Dr. Harrison, who was called, found it necessary to remove it at the metacarpal point.

Licenses Extended.

Lakefield House License Transferred to New Proprietors.

The West Peterboro License Commissioners met yesterday morning, Dr. Morrison being in the chair. Mr. Cochrane the inspector, reported with regard to holders of shop licenses, which had been extended for three months in order to give them an opportunity to comply with the law, that they had made the necessary changes in their shops, and that now they were entitled to licenses. The commissioners accordingly decided to extend for the remaining nine months of the year those licenses which had already been sanctioned for the quarter year.

The transfer of license of the Lakefield House from James Allen to Messrs. Lawless & Spellman was also considered, and arrangements made whereby the new proprietors took possession, yesterday. Another meeting of the commissioners will be held on August 8th.

Police Court

OFFICIALS

Chief of Police, G. I. Read
Magistrate, D. W. Dumble

The first case at yesterday's Court, which, by the way, did not open until an hour after the regular set time, was the settlement of a family dispute, and of no public interest.

A man living near John Redmond, the latter a local character, was charged with having used insulting language towards Redmond. In the witness box, Redmond told his tale of woe, describing in graphic and apparently well studied terms, how the prisoner had, after passing the time of day, etc., asked him why he did not remove a certain fence. Redmond told him to go about his business, which led to the defendant calling him names and shaking his fist in Redmond's face. The defendant, on the stand, did not remember using the language as charged, and denied shaking his fist in Redmond's face, but had told Redmond he was a crank. His Worship said he believed Redmond's story, and whilst the old man was not the most pleasantly disposed and agreeable natured man in Peterboro, he was harmless if left severely alone. $2 to be paid in 10 days.

The old man asked His Worship to bind the prisoner over to keep the peace, but Mr. Dumble would not grant his request.

Next came the Ministerial "Cause celebre," in which a young man named Thos. Mitchell was charged on the 24th inst., by falsely representing that he had obtained employment in the William Hamilton Manufacturing Company, illegally gotten $2 from the Rev. F. J. Scott. The prisoner pleaded guilty, which caused an audible sigh of relief to issue from several of the reverend gentlemen present. Mr. R. E. Wood, County Crown Attorney, said, before His Worship disposed of the case, he had received a letter from the Rev. W. J. Jolliffe, saying Mr. Mitchell had obtained $1.00 from him. In reply to a question by Mr. Wood, Rev. Mr. Brace said prisoner had not gotten any coals from him, but had made approaches evidently tending towards what, in the vernacular, is called a "Touch." Mr. Wood remarked that the clergy "had enough calls on their charity without an adventurer trying to impose on them." In reply to a question by His Worship the prisoner said he had been two years in the country, and came from Middlesex, England, and had been at Bat Portage and Buffalo.

Rev. Mr. Davidson, one of the victims, addressed the Magistrate, and said on behalf of the ministers present, they had no animosity against the prisoner. He did nothing further would be done than would tend to protect society. The ministers have a fund for the poor, which is given out without very much investigation. Mr. Davidson attempted to show that the prisoner was not a confirmed and hardened criminal, by the easy way he was captured, being told several of his victims the hotel he stopped at.

Mr. Dumble said, as far as the ministers are concerned, they must perhaps expect to be victimized. The prisoner did not act from a sudden impulse, but kept systematically to work in a regular course. With one minister he represented himself as a staunch supporter of the English church, with another he was a Methodist church, and still again, with others, he was a dyed-in-the-wool Presbyterian. His sentence was 3 months in the County Jail, with hard labor and meditation.

A DIVIDEND DECLARED.

Before taking the prisoner down stairs, the money recovered from his person was counted, amounting to $6.30. The clergymen honored by a call from Mitchell, with their respective contributions, were Rev. Messrs Brace, $0; Davidson, $2.25; Jolliffe, $1.00; Major, $1.10; Scott, $2.00; and Trotter, who gave an order on the express agent, but which the prisoner did not get, making a total of $6.65. A dividend of about 90 cents on the dollar was repaid those investing. A Philistine in the Court suggested that the $6.30 recovered be put into a jack-pot, and one hand settle the whole amount, but this was not adopted.

Mullhall in Trouble.

John Mullhall of Lakefield, was yesterday afternoon a guest at the Hotel des Ops, owing to an attempt at carrying a larger cargo of tangle-leg than his capacity is adapted to.

Yesterday he went to Messrs. McCollums' well-known Water street livery barn, and ordered a horse and buggy to be gotten ready for his use. When he came for the outfit those in charge, noting his condition, refused to give him the horse.

A dispute arose, and John showed that he is an exponent of the pugilistic art when "under the influence." The employes in the barn succeeded with some difficulty in throwing the obstreperous would-be customer out, but then Peter, an employe was pretty roughly handled by Mullhall, and shows signs of the conflict. John was gently but firmly deposited outside the livery barn, and his condition was so alarming that an ambulance was telephoned for to send him to the hospital; however before this arrived the police diagnosed John's condition as a plain, but pretty badly gone drunk, and drove him to the station.

The livery proprietors are deserving of great credit in not trusting a horse to the mercies (?) of a drunken man, to be whipped and driven at killing speed for miles.

The Municipal-Law Breakers.

Our City Fathers Do Not Practice What They Preach.

There have been many prosecutions of late for obstructing the side walks with boxes, cases and other merchandise, unloaded through the exigencies of business in front of various merchants' places of business. With such a show of virtuous enforcement of the city by-law, our civic authorities should be the last to break the local 11th commandment.

Yesterday afternoon and evening, many citizens passed remarks that must have made some of our official's ears burn, over a keg of nails that blocked the pavement in front of the one civic office, that these days, of all other portions of the year, is most largely patronized.

From early afternoon, until late yesterday evening, this keg stood, defying all law, order, and traffic on the pavement immediately in front of the entrance to the tax office. This breach of the by-law was flagrantly in evidence within perhaps eighty feet of the police station, and still the police either did not, or would not enforce the by-law. He who preaches and punishes non observance of his doctrines should certainly not choose a public place, during daylight hours, to defy the law he lays down to the public.

Kawartha Lakes Appreciated

Toronto Saturday Night: The Kawartha Lakes are attracting many Toronto citizens these July weeks, especially those who are Peterboro or Lindsay Old Boys and who would rather go fishing on the familiar waters of childhood than anywhere else in Ontario. Of all the fish stories told in Toronto, those related by the man who has "just come from Bobcaygeon," are the most fishy. The muskinonge he caught were something to startle the oldest inhabitant of Victoria County.

A Fresh Crisis Has Loomed Up in Sweden

Cabinet Resigned After Special Committee Reported in Favor of Dissolution if Certain Terms Insisted on and Secured--Want Fortifications Raised.

Stockholm, Sweden, July 25.—The Cabinet has resigned.

Stockholm, Sweden, July 25.—A special committee appointed by the Riksdag to deal with the crisis which created the revolution in Norway, today delivered its report.

The committee declares unanimously that the Government bill cannot be adopted in the form in which it is now presented to the Riksdag and proposes that the Riksdag shall signify its willness to negotiate with Norway for a dissolution of the union if this newly elected Storthing requests a repeal of the Act of Union and a dissolution of the union, or, if such request is received from Norway after the Norwegian people by a plebiscite have declared in favor of a dissolution of the union.

TERMS TO BE INSISTED ON.

The committee recommends that in the event of a dissolution of the union Sweden should insist on the following terms:

First—The establishment of a zone on each side of the frontier separating the kingdoms within which the existing fortifications shall be raised and on which new fortifications may not be erected.

Second—The right of pasturing reindeer belonging to Swedish Laplanders in North Norway.

Third—That the transit trade through both countries shall be secured against unjustifiable obstruction.

Fourth—That the status of Sweden in respect to foreign powers as established by the treaty shall be clearly defined so that Sweden shall be completely freed from responsibility for Norway to other States.

The committee also regards an arbitration treaty between Sweden and Norway as desirable, although it does not consider it an essential condition for the dissolution of the union.

WANT 25 MILLIONS FOR WHAT?

The committee further propose to authorize the Government to raise a loan of $25,000,000, which can, by a resolution of the Riksdag, be made available for such readjustments and arrangements as may be necessitated by the new conditions.

Regarding eventual negotiations with Norway the committee declares that:

"Whatever may be demanded for the welfare and dignity of Sweden as a condition of the repeal of the Act of the Union on the part of Sweden, and of the recognition of Norway must be claimed and adhered to with rigor and determination."

A peaceful acquiescence by Sweden in the dissolution of the union.

The King and the aristocracy are not prepared to ratify Norway's recent act, and the Swedish Cabinet resigned to-day, probably because the special committee recommended negotiations with Norway to arrange terms of dissolution, though it qualified its report with an insistence on certain conditions. These conditions do not seem very onerous, but they might easily be made a pretext for a quarrel. It is very doubtful, for instance, if Norway would consent to raze her frontier fortifications at the demand of her more powerful neighbor at the very time when feeling between the two was strained. Forts are mainly for defence, and Norway's should cause Sweden no uneasiness while they might well be a source of comfort to Norway. Insistence on this condition would seem to indicate a desire to pick a quarrel. It is also questionable whether Norway would consent to free trade relations with Sweden Taken with the request for twenty-five million dollars—a request that may be perfectly harmless—the situation is not without ground for misgivings. Perhaps the Kaiser will straighten out the tangle.

Unjust Accusation.

Unfounded Complaint About the Local City Clocks.

There was some talk yesterday on the streets, evidently traceable to a local merchant who had the misfortune to miss a train Monday night, and who laid the cause of his postponed trip to bad regulation of the local public clocks.

It seems that he charges that on Monday, there was a difference of three minutes between the times of the two clocks, and there was a further difference of two minutes between the time as indicated by the clocks of the town, and that of the G.T.R. He started last night to catch the 5.38 G.T.R. train for Lindsay, and, according to the city clocks, he had plenty of time to catch the train, but because the times did not agree he missed the train by one-half of a minute, and this blame, he says, lies with the city clocks.

Whilst it is annoying to miss a train, a man intending to travel, and particularly a business man, who cuts the time for his train so fine as to miss it by only one-half a minute, should not be much thinking.

As far as our city clocks are concerned, travellers have often been heard remark as to the exceptionally good time the public clocks of Peterboro keep. For months at a time our two large clocks will not vary two minutes, and Mr. McClelland deserves great credit for the almost invariably good time they keep.

TELEPHONE TALKS.

TO TELEPHONE USERS AND THE GENERAL PUBLIC,—

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF CANADA is a purely Canadian Company.

At the opening of the Parliamentary Committee statements were made by various witnesses, whose ignorance of the facts must be their only excuse, that a very considerable portion of the stock of the Company had been allotted to the American Bell Telephone Companies for patent rights which were now valueless and that the burden of paying dividends on such stock represented an annual tax of about $3.60 on every one of the Company's subscribers.

In the evidence before the Committee, both the testimony of the Officers and the complete records of the Company which were produced, proved the absolute falsity of such charges.

The facts are that with a total capital stock of $7,916,960.00 the Company's patent account stands at the inconsiderable sum of $70,000, every dollar of which represents not only full value in existing patents, but secures to the Company other important advantages to we shall refer later. For the present we merely emphasize that not one dollar of royalty or tribute is paid by the Company for patent or other rights.

With the exception of a trifling amount of stock issued to the American Company for the acquisition of valuable patent rights essential to the Company's existence at the date of organization, all of which has been written off as such patents expired, not one dollar of stock has been issued for patents.

The stock held by the American Telephone and Telegraph Company has been paid for in cash at or above par and the interest of that Company is purely that of a minority stockholder having no controlling voice in the management or policy of the Canadian Company.

Probably there is no large corporation doing business in Canada to-day of which the sentiment is so thoroughly Canadian as that of The Bell Telephone Company of Canada. It is entirely independent in its management and operations, as well as financially. The Company is officered almost exclusively by Canadians and those holding executive offices have, almost without exception, begun their business career in the service of the Company.

The list of shareholders shows that about eleven hundred persons hold stock in the Company, of whom over ninety per cent. are Canadians.

All Thin, Pale Women

Can Learn the Cause of Their Nervous, Run-up Condition

With women, ill-health is usually traceable to nerve exhaustion. Feeling run-down and tired most of the time is nature's warning that more nerve-force is required.

You must build up, nourish the body, vitalize the nerves, get more flesh and blood.

It's the abundant nutriment and building material in Ferrozone that enables it to cure so many sick women. It increases the appetite, adds weight and strength, restores lost color and develops a surplus of energy and nerve force that defies sickness of any kind. There is living proof in Mrs. Daniel Ferguson, Jr., of Prescott, Ont. Read her statement:

"A year ago my health failed. I grew thin and pale. At night it was difficult to obtain restful sleep. My appetite was variable and indigestion bothered me considerably. I became morose and suffered from heart palpitations. I could scarcely believe the benefit I derived in one week from Ferrozone. Color came back to my cheeks. My vitality and appetite increased, renewed nerve force and better spirits came also. Ferrozone did a world of good and made me well.

Remember this: No alcoholic stimulant can nourish and build up like Ferrozone. Fifty cents per box or six boxes for $2.50. At all dealers, or N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont., and Hartford, Conn., U.S.A.

SCHOOL REFORMS

One of the wise measures instituted in recent years by the school authorities of some of the large cities in the United States is the physical examination of all pupils by medical experts to determine what bodily malady, if any, the child has to overcome in getting an education. From these examinations the children are sent home with cards bearing a record of their bodily standing, and teachers and parents know what they have to fight. In New York these examinations have revealed the fact that one child in every three is defective in eyesight or hearing, many are nerve "subjects" and hundreds suffer more or less from curvature of the spine, so that the percentage of sound bodies is much smaller than the average person imagines. And what is true of New York we may reasonably assume to be true of most other cities. The medical fraternity has declared that the present schoolroom conditions are largely responsible for this state of things, and is looking about for a remedy. Inadequate or badly distributed light, long sitting in chairs that are the wrong height and constant work with the right arm elevated to the desk are some of the causes to which these physical defects are traced, and against these the attacks of the medicos are directed. Nor is this crusade confined to the United States. To overcome the tendency to spinal troubles, English doctors are demanding that children be required to assume position while studying. This is giving a ludicrous turn to the idea of reform. To study lying down may possibly be restful to the spine, but it is hard on the eyes, and it certainly inculcates habits of indolence and laziness that would speedily be a new "evil," for which a new remedy would have to be provided. It would be the old story of the doctor who could not cure his patient of chills, so threw him into fits because he "was death on fits." Then imagine the appearance of a modern school room if this prostration advice is followed; it will look more like a hospital ward than a sanctum of education, for presumably cots or lounges will supersede the desks in the study rooms. The average teacher will feel more like dealing out prescriptions than examples in arithmetic. To demand proper lighting and heating, and desks adjustable to the physical requirements of each individual pupil, is all right, but we think the English doctors have another "profound consideration" coming to them on this prone position proposition.

DR. BARNADO'S WORK

One of the greatest and most efficient philanthropists of the age, Dr. Barnado—the "father of nobody's children," as he has long been known in Great Britain—is sixty years old, and in failing health. For forty years, he, almost alone, has conducted a charity which has rescued thousands of waifs annually, with practically no assured income. The first home for destitute, orphaned, and abandoned children, which he organized in the earliest days of his young manhood, has grown into an institution, which has converted multitudes of derelict infants into useful men and women. At the present moment he has in his charge in his various homes nearly 9,000 children, whom he is feeding from day to day, although his vested income amounts to only $2,500 a year. For the rest he depends wholly—and hitherto never in vain—upon voluntary contributions. During the last few years he has sent nearly 17,000 children to various British colonies, and of the whole number only two per cent. have failed to do well. It is felt in England that such a life is worthy of something more substantial than public admiration, while anything in the nature of a testimonial reward to Dr. Barnardo is entirely out of the question. So many eminent men and women—statesmen, churchmen of various denominations, and philanthropists—have started a movement for the collection of a fund, whose income shall be sufficient to secure the permanency of Dr. Barnardo's beneficient organization, when the creator of it shall no longer be able to direct it.

FALSE EDUCATIONAL IDEALS

There are indications that an effort will be made to transform our public schools into nurseries for the spirit of militarism and that to the already overburdened curriculum will be added military drill and training in rifle shooting. There are those who are still living in the past and whose only ideas of national greatness are those which are connoted by an army and navy. Our teachers can be much better employed as apostles of peace than as inquirers of war. Our boys and girls should be taught to regard war, as a survival of barbarism and as out of harmony with twentieth century ideals. They should be taught that the strength of a nation does not lie in its armies, but in the physical, moral and intellectual qualities of its citizenship. They should be taught that the truest patriot is he who most faithfully and honestly discharges the duties of his station in life. Despite the silly outbreaks of some flag fanatics the relations between the United States and ourselves are increasing in friendliness, and to bury the old hatreds too deep for resurrection is a folly which none need be ashamed to avow. A war between ourselves and a nation sprung from the same stock, speaking the same language and holding a common faith should not be regarded as among the possibilities. To be a worthy citizen of a united nation that is cultivating peaceful relations with its neighbors is not an unworthy ideal to instil into the minds of our coming men and women.

New York, July 28.—A Vienna despatch to the World says that one of the most violent earthquakes ever known was indicated by the seismographs of the hydrographic instruments at Laibach and Pola yesterday. Between 3.58 and 4.17 a.m. the instruments showed extraordinary movements in waves signifying an earthquake catastrophe at a distance of 6,000 kilometres (about 3,700 miles). At 7 a.m. the instruments were still vibrating.

This distance indicated by the seismographs would locate the earthquake in Central Asia, the most probable point, or in mid-Atlantic, or in the Arctic regions, or in South Africa.

Toronto, July 28.—The director of the Toronto Observatory stated this morning that the earthquake was recorded here, and was the most severe one ever experienced from a European or Asiatic source. He said: "The disturbance began suddenly at 10.12 o'clock last night—3.12 Greenwich time. It lasted three hours and 18 minutes. Its action was the greatest between 10.25 and 11.15 p.m. The maximum movement was recorded at 10.45 p.m., when the swing of the boom reached 20 millimeters.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 10 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

(4) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses (2) (3) or (4) must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 40 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads or entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd of June, 1898.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Offices in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba; or any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the North-west Territories.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

N. B.—In addition to Free Grant Lands, to which the Regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from railroad and other corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

How to Visit Colorado

Go first to Denver. It is the State capital, as well as the largest, wealthiest and most metropolitan city between the Missouri River and the Pacific Coast. The city itself is very interesting, and from it start practically all the trains over the various roads into the mountains.

Many of the most enjoyable one-day trips in Colorado begin and end at Denver. The cost of these little journeys is not great.

After you have familiarized yourself with Denver and its surroundings will be soon enough to decide where to go for the rest of your visit. The question must be considered from several standpoints—altitude, hotel accommodations, accessibility, amusements, etc.

Our Colorado literature will help you in deciding where to go and what to do. Sent free for the asking.

STRICTURE AND KIDNEY DISEASE CURED.

C. E. Wright.

"I had stricture for eleven years. It finally brought on Bright's Disease of the Kidneys. I had an uncomfortable shooting pain in the groin and feeling as though something was in the urethra. My back was weak and I could scarcely stoop over. Urine was full of sediment. Had a desire to urinate frequently. Family doctors, so-called specialists, patent medicines, electric belts, all failed. I was discouraged. I had spent hundreds of dollars in vain. Finally I consulted Drs. Kennedy & Kergan as the last resort. I had heard a great deal about them and concluded from the fact that they had been established over 25 years than they understood their business. I am delighted with the results. In one week I felt better and in a few weeks was entirely cured. Have gained sixteen pounds in weight."

BRITISH M. P.'S. ON SALARY GRAB

Increase to Officials Generally Regarded as Wise Move

THE HIGH COMMISSIONER

Emoluments at Present are Far Too Small for Expenses of His Position

London, July 26.—So far there has been but little press comment, but among the members of the British Parliament the proposed salary to the leader of the Opposition in Canada excites much interest as a daring innovation. It is generally agreed that no such proposal is likely to be adopted here, inasmuch as any ex-Minister may secure $6,000 as an annuity or more on the declaration that he is unable otherwise to meet the expenses of public life.

Among those who know Mr. Borden, the high personal esteem in which he is held overrides any general objection. "But," said one M.P., "if the Opposition leader, why not the Opposition whips and other unpaid hard-worked officials?"

Another English comment is: "Our Premier might well be given more, seeing the exceptionally heavy burden of his position, and the far more direct responsibility over Government departments than our Premier. The salaries of your judges should have been increased twenty years ago. It is a wonder that no alteration was made in the High Commissioner's salary, which is quite inadequate to properly sustain Canada's dignity in such an expensive city as London, unless the Commissioner is a rich man like Lord Strathcona." "Others of your permanent officers," said another M.P., "are dangerously ufnpaid, and scarcely any receive what a mere chief clerk gets here, yet Canada is largely dependent on them for honest and efficient administration."

BALFOUR HANGS ON

British Premier Has no Intention of Resigning

London, July 26.—The Government has no intention of resigning in consequence of Thursday's adverse vote. This was the gist of Premier Balfour's anticipated statement in the House of Commons this afternoon. Although it had been generally recognized that such would be the decision of the Premier, there was feverish eagerness on all sides to hear the exact terms of his statement. The House was literally packed. Every gallery available to the peers and the public was crowded and there had not been such an attendance of members during the life of the present Parliament.

Mr. Balfour, who was heartily cheered by his supporters on rising, somewhat tried the patience of his hearers by a long disquisition on how former Administrations had ignored defeats similar to that of Thursday. He declared that such incidents had never been regarded as ground for resignation or dissolution, and announced that the Government did not propose either to resign or dissolve Parliament because of Thursday's occurrence.

The Premier considered that it would be a grave evil if the tenure of Ministers was made dependent on such votes as that of Thursday. He hoped that the practice would never prevail of allowing a Government united in itself and possessing the confidence of the majority of the House to abandon its post merely in consequence of such a vote.

OPPENTS ARE ANGRY.

Mr. Balfour sat down without referring to the remaining business of the session, and Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the Liberal leader, immediately asked for an opportunity to discuss the Premier's statements. The Opposition he said, did not propose to proceed with Sir Edward Grey's proposed vote of censure, which obviously was superseded by the occurrence of Thursday. They wanted to discuss the conduct of the Government regarding the events of last week.

Mr. John Redmond, the leader of the Irish Nationalists, took a similar line, and the heated tone of both leaders indicated that the Government will have to face the most determined opposition during the balance of the session.

A BIG DEBATE IN PROGRESS.

Ultimately, by arrangement with Mr. Balfour, the Chief Government Whip, Sir Alexander Acland-Hood, formally moved the adjournment, and Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman opened the debate with a stirring attack on the Government.

WHEAT TIDE TURNS BACKWARD

Manitoba Grain Shipped From Boston to Berlin and Hanover

Boston, July 26.—A shipment of Manitoba wheat, which has been stored in this House elevator in this city for some time awaiting shipment to Europe, has been purchased by Canadians, and will be sent by rail to Berlin and Hanover, Ont., where it will be used for milling purposes.

This shows the existing dullness in the grain export business. This wheat, which under ordinary circumstances would have been shipped out of the country weeks ago, has been lying in the elevator waiting for the conditions to change so that it could be exported at a profit. It was finally sold for shipment back to Canada at a rate much higher than the market is in England at the present time.

Port Colborne, July 26.—The steamer Westmount and consort of the Montreal Transportation Company's fleet passed up the canal, loaded with wheat, bound from Kingston to Port William. The steamer originally were shipped from Port William, and in returning there make a new record for the canal, being the first wheat ever to pass westward through the Welland Canal.

THE BAPTIST CONGRESS

An Alliance Formed With a Membership of 6,000,000

London, July 26.—The Baptist World Congress here has been a great success. The secretary says that the two outstanding features have been the request of Dr. McLaren, the beloved president of the Congress, for the recital of the Apostles Creed at the opening session, and the ready acquiescence that followed, and, secondly, the formation of an alliance itself Baptist, with a world-wide membership of 6,000,000, one result of which, it is hoped, will be the reuniting of the divided American Baptists for common purposes of action.

UINTAH INDIAN RESERVATION

To be opened September 1, 1905, unbeknown the latch on the door of opportunity. Pull at the latch string and the door will open for you, no matter where you live or what your occupation. Colorado men—well known, reliable, experienced—have organized the Indiana Mining and Power Co. and provide ten thousand dollars capital by the sale of preferred stock, par value one dollar per share.

Ordinarily a ground floor stock, if offered at all, is offered to get money with, which to start, has an asset whereon behind it, and depends entirely on future development for its value. Our proposition is different. We have started. Our stock now has an asset of property adjoining the reservation, consisting of 320 acres rich agricultural land, 280 shares of water in the first water right on the Uintah River and two lots (corner) Main street in the new town of Mellat, Utah. A late estimate of the value, $16,800.00; a thirteen dollars for every dollar thus far invested and an asset fifty per cent greater than the entire issue to be sold at the price it is here offered; however, this is only the commencement of operations. With the additional capital to be secured by the sale of stock other valuable property will be added and the opening of the reservation will start the harvest, of which our six years continuous scoring has laid the foundation. You never had such an opportunity as we now offer. We share with you the results of the expenditure of our own capital, our labor and the judgment that has been displayed in securing this extraordinary opportunity for a profitable investment. Every dollar subscribed will bring manifold returns.

A limited amount of the preferred stock is on sale at 5 cents per share, the ground floor price. An advance to 10 cents will soon be made. A square deal is guaranteed. Write for any further information or any reference desired. DO IT NOW.

CONSIDER FOR A MOMENT

What this company offers—It controls to-day an actual territory of nearly Three thousand acres of land known to be immensely rich in nickel and copper ores, all in a district known and proven to be sixth among the greatest copper districts in the world. This company will control at least a thousand acres more. In all nearly five thousand acres, which will not be mined out in two hundred years

A Cathedral Wedding

Miss Emma Brou and Mr. John P. O'Farrell Joined in Wedlock

A happy two years' visit to Peterboro to St. Anne's, Que., will be a thing of the past for a bright couple. They are Mr. and Mrs. John P. O'Farrell, who were married on Tuesday morning in St. Peter's Cathedral. The bride was Miss Emma Brou, daughter of Mr.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father McColl, in the presence of a number of relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

The bridesmaid was Miss Matilda Brou, sister of the bride, while the groom was assisted by his brother, Mr. Alphonse O'Farrell.

At the conclusion of the ceremony a dainty wedding breakfast was served at the residence of the bride's parents. A large number of beautiful gifts received testify to the esteem in which the contracting parties are held by a large circle of Peterboro's Deputation to St. Anne's is Unusually Large.

St. Anne de Beaupre's attractions always draw a good attendance from Peterboro, and this year is no exception. More than 100 people occupied the special C.P.R. train of 12 coaches, which left here at noon yesterday.

The excursion, which originated at Myrtle, was joined by large numbers at the various points along the line. The number of excursionists this year exceeds by far that of any previous year. It is conducted under the patronage of His Grace Archbishop Gauthier, of Kingston, and the direction of Rev. Father Twomey of Belleville.

The return trip will take place on Thursday, July 27th, by a special train from St. Anne's-to Montreal, and Tyeod, connecting with the regular trains. These arrangements will afford the pilgrims an opportunity to view the many beautiful and historic scenes in Lower Canada, between Quebec and Montreal.

A number also left by the regular Belleville G.T.R. train, which will connect at that place with the excursion on the main line.

Among the large number who left this morning were: Miss Doris, of Keene; Mrs. John Condon, J. Hanrahan, H. Clancy, Mr. and Mrs Calvin Ennismore; Miss Annie Condon, Miss Gibson, Miss McCarthy, Geo. Children

Have "eyes bigger than their stomachs," according to an old saying. They overeat themselves, and are tempted by all sorts of injurious and indigestible edibles? As a consequence the foundation of serious stomach trouble is often laid in childhood.

For children with "weak" digestion or whose stomachs are diseased, Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery may be confidently recommended. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, so that the nourishment contained in food is perfectly assimilated and the puny child is built up by food into a condition of robust health.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery contains neither alcohol nor narcotics.

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition.

Mrs. Ella Gardner, of Waterview, Middlesex Co., Va., writes: "My little daughter is enjoying splendid health. I am glad I found a doctor who could cure my child. Whenever she feels badly I give her Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and she is soon all right. She took twelve bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' eight bottles of 'Pellets,' and one bottle of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy and she is well. We thank God for your medicine."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of customs and mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

TEN YEARS

The Story of My Wonderful Success.—

Reads Like a Fairy Tale—Yet Full of Convincing Truths

An Opportunity of a Lifetime for the Investor.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF IT.

I ask every reader of this paper to write me. I want to send you my free book entitled "Ten Years"—"The Story of My Wonderful Success." It tells about one of the greatest and most promising investment opportunities ever offered. It tells how my business grew from less than $25.00 capital to its present proportions.

I believe I have the best proposition from an investor's standpoint that could be placed before you. For ten years I have been teaching men and women to live according to the laws of Nature. My book is the history of my life. It shows what energy and ambition can accomplish in the world of affairs. It is intensely interesting to any man or woman who has a few dollars to invest in a legitimate enterprise.

I started business in the City of Brooklyn in 1896. My capital amounted to less than $25.00. My first year's business netted me over $1,000.00. Last year I paid dividends to my partners of 15 per cent. Five years ago my business had grown so large that I was compelled to remove to larger quarters. I am now at 63-65 Clark St., Brooklyn, N.Y.—in connection with Hotel St. George. Experts pronounce my institution to be the best appointed of its kind in the country. I estimate the equipment of the Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture to be worth at least $40,000.00.

I want to have a building of my own that will enable me to accommodate my increasing business. To erect this building I need capital, but more important than this to increase my business to the proportions which I desire, I need the co-operation of men and women throughout the country and the world.

Co-operation is the Secret of Success

I recognize it. I believe that with thousands of co-operators throughout the country I can build my business to tremendous proportions to the benefit of the shareholders and myself.

The Mac Levy Company is incorporated under the laws of New York for $150,000.00. They are proprietors of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

The last named branch of the business of the Mac Levy Company is comparatively new. I have been at work for several years to establish such a department in connection with teaching Physical Culture. The most difficult part of forming the Equipment Company has been accomplished. The business is now in condition to be pushed on a large scale. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are spent yearly on new gymnasiums and their equipment. The profits are large. A company of this kind has an immense field in which to work. Competition is slight. It is evident that the Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company can build an enormous business.

The Mac Levy Company operates during the summer months at Steeplechase Park, Coney Island, and at Averne Hotel, Averne-by-the-Sea, L. I., as well as at our Brooklyn Institute. It also does an extensive mail business. I teach people how they should live and exercise. My students are scattered all over the United States, and in English speaking countries.

which arrises in the minds of every man and woman is how to secure a comfortable income in the earlier years of their life, that they may reap the full benefits which such an income affords.

I have long thought that there are hundreds of people in moderate circumstances who would like to invest a few dollars in an institution of this kind. It is to such people that I intend this announcement shall appeal. I am offering a block of the Treasury Stock of this company to the public at its par value. My reasons for doing this are that I wish to erect a building and to extend the business of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

I WANT YOU AS MY PARTNER

I need your help and suggestion. I want you to work with me and help me to secure a tremendous amount of new business.

I believe that if you could talk with me personally and go over the records of the business which I have done, see in black and white the figures which show the steady growth my business has experienced during the past ten years, examine my plans for future extension, and then look over the magnificient equipment of my Institute, and would want no further evidence that money put into my business would bring you the greatest possible returns consistent with safety and good management.

I ask you to write for my free book. I believe it will interest you. You have a few dollars that you want to invest. Why let it stand idle earning only 3 or 4 per cent that savings bank pay their depositors? Put it to work. Join it with mine. This Company ought to pay at least Whitney Government to Issue a General Commission, the First in Thirty Two Years--There Are About 6,000 Justices of the Peace in Ontario.

Toronto, July. 26.—The Whitney Government has decided to issue a new commission of the peace for every county in the Province. As the issuance of a new general commission means the cancellation of all previous commissions, this order means that every justice of the peace of the entire Province will have his official head cut off. The wholesale nature of the operation can be judged when it is stated that there are roughly speaking about 6,000 justices of the peace in this Province.

It is 32 years since a general commission of the peace has been issued that is, not since just after the advent to power of the late Liberal Administration. Since then, as vacancies occurred by death or resignation, or as new justices were required by the increase of population new appointments have been made by supplementary commissions. All of these will be cancelled by the new order.

MANY TO BE REAPPOINTED.

It is understood, however, that a great many of the present incumbents of this office will be reappointed. Indeed, it is this strong desire of the Government to retain the services of many of the former justices, many of whom are among the most respected men of their communities. There will be some changes though, and a lot of new names will no doubt appear in the new lists although it is expected that there will not be any material increase in the aggregate number for each county. The work of selecting the new names is now being gone on with as rapidly as possible. The first list to be ready is that for the district of Manitoulin, and this commission for this district will issue immediately. One commission is issued for each county. It, with the list of names of the new justices, is forwarded to the Clerk of the Peace, whose duty it is forthwith to notify the men to be appointed. They must then appear before him and take their oaths of office. The property qualifications is $1,200.

LISTS NOT MADE UP.

Hon. J. J. Foy, Attorney-General, stated to-day that only part of the lists had been received as yet. It will be some time before announcements will be made.

In Toronto there are about 40 J. P.'s though it is doubtful if the average citizen could name three of them. Their services are rarely required like they are in the country, although they sometimes come in handy in the swearing of affidavits and such. In the County of York there are about 100 justices.

NO PEACE BARRIER IN CHINA'S CLAIMS

Demands as to Manchuria Will Have Little Effect on the Negotiations of the Envoys

JAPAN BARS MAKESHIFTS

Island Empire Insists Terms Shall Have Permanent Results—Surprises Await the Plenipotentiaries

China's warning to the Powers:—

Having viewed with profound regret the unfortunate interruption of peaceful relations between Japan and Russia, the Imperial Government now learns with sincere gratification that negotiations are about to commence for the restoration of peace and amity. But in the present conflict Chinese territory has been made the theater of military operations. Therefore, it is hereby expressly declared that no provision affecting China, without the approval of China being previously obtained, which the treaty of peace may contain will be recognized as valid. The diplomatic representatives of China in Japan and Russia have been instructed by telegraph to communicate this declaration to the governments of Japan and Russia respectively.

Washington, D.C., July 26.—It is not generally believed here that China's formal demand for recognition, so far as Manchuria is concerned, will have any great effect either in delaying or forwarding peace negotiations.

Most of Manchuria was lost to China long ago, and this fact was clearly recognized by Secretary Hay himself. When, in his note to the powers, just as the war had broken out, this secretary of state used the famous expression, "Administrative entity," he did so for the express purpose of recognizing this fact that there were limits to Chinese sovereignty.

That term was coined to define the territory over which the Chinese government exercised actual governmental control. It constituted a pledge that neither the Russians nor the Japanese would go outside the natural theater of war in Manchuria and Corea, and would not make incursions upon undisputed Chinese territory. This pledge has been kept, because the fortunes of war were such that the campaign led away from actual Chinese territory and not toward it.

It is assumed, therefore, that when the Russian and Japanese get together in their peace conferences at Portsmouth they will discuss the situation as regards themselves, without much concern for the Chinese claims in Manchuria.

HOPEFUL AS TO ACTUAL PEACE.

For some reason, which has not been explained, there is a decidedly hopeful feeling about the state department regarding the prospects for actual peace as a result of the conference next month. Diplomats do not hesitate to discount the gloomy views expressed by Russians generally, and more recently by Minister Witte himself. These stories are supposed to be the usual bluff of a defeated nation, threatening to carry on a disastrous war if the victor is not generous.

Both military men and diplomats know Japan has everything to gain and nothing to lose from a continuance of the war. Vladivostok surely will fall into Japanese hands if there is much more fighting, and both Pacific termini of the Siberian railroad thus will be cut off from Russia forever. Every one of the Russian envoys knows this as well as the Japanese themselves, and for this reason it is believed, after the usual amount of bluff on the part of the Russians, they will be only too glad to make peace.

While it is true the Japanese have never yet defined the terms on which they will cease fighting permanently, they repeatedly have said here that there was but one thing paramount with them, which was that the truce should be permanent and not temporary. They will not agree to any condition which will enable Russia to stop fighting for a few years and then have another go at it.

JAPAN WANTS PERMANENT PEACE.

It probably will be found, when the peace negotiations are actually under way, that the Japanese demands will be concentrated almost entirely around such safeguards as are deemed indispensable to a permanent peace. There will be a demand for indemnity, as a matter of course, but it will not be so excessive as to lead to any reaction in behalf of Russia. In point of fact, Baron Rosen, the new Russian ambassador, already has made it evident that Russia expects to pay a large indemnity, and is ready with the funds whenever they are required.

What the Russians will not agree to will be the conditions which are distinctly humiliating in their character. They are quite reconciled to the loss of Port Arthur, because that is an accomplished fact. They have no navy worth speaking of now, and do not actually need any naval base on their Pacific coast. If they can retain Vladivostok, thus giving them an outlet for the Siberian railroad, it is likely the Russians will not disturb themselves much about the fate of Corea and the southern section of Manchuria.

As a matter of course, they will endeavor to have as much of Manchuria returned to China as possible, thus limiting the sphere of actual Japanese control to Corea and a small pathway through Manchuria, running north along the railroad spur from Port Arthur.

NAVAL LIMITATION HUMILIATING.

Furthermore, the Japanese may propose as an important article of the peace treaty, an agreement on the part of Russia not to rebuild its navy within a certain length of time or at least not to follow the rebuilding program beyond a certain point each year. Both of these demands would be distinctly humiliating to Russia, and they are conditions of a character which never have been imposed upon a defeated nation.

Germany took an enormous indemnity from France and converted Alsace and Lorraine into German provinces. There Bismarck stopped, however. The old chancellor made no attempt to dictate as to the domestic policy of France, fully realizing that it would take that unfortunate country a long time to recover from the effect of that war.

For this reason military map and diplomats say that restrictive conditions, the mere suggestion of which has aroused so much antagonism in Russia, if presented at all, will be made use of by the Japanese only in playing for position and will not be heard of when the treaty is actually under negotiation.

There is not much anxiety here owing to the failure of Mr. Witte and his colleagues on the peace commission to secure absolute powers from the Czar. They probably have as large powers as ever granted envoys under similar conditions.

ON A TOUR OF INSPECTION

Mr. D. McNicholl Covering Lines in the West

Winnipeg, July 27.—Mr. D. McNicholl, Vice-President and General Manager of the Canadian Pacific Railway, arrived in the city yesterday from the West. Mr. McNicholl covered the lines of the company in Western Canada very thoroughly, brief stops being made at all points of interest. While in this city the vice-president went carefully over the Nanaimo and Esquimault Railway recently acquired by the company, and also made personal enquiry regarding the possibility of the development of the business on Vancouver Island. It is stated that the line on the island will be extended in the near future, and extensive new interests will be developed.

A Good Attraction.

Great credit is due to the local management of the Peterboro Street Railway for the good service now given, and, in particular, the Jackson Park service.

As the public has so enthusiastically endorsed the efforts of the management to make this park a pleasure and easily accessible to all, by so liberally patronising the cars, this management has closed negotiations with a New York Company to put on moving pictures at Jackson Park every night except Sunday for two weeks, commencing on Monday night next.

The machine, which will throw the pictures on a large screen, is known as the Kinetoscope and views will be shown of many pageants, processions and life in various parts of this world. The pictures come highly recommended.

KAISER IS NOT HUNTING TROUBLE

A Foreign Office Official Discusses Present International Situation

THE MOROCCO ADVENTURE

Emperor William Declared to be Quite Aware of the Alarm it Caused

London, July 27.—"Absolutely not," said an official of the Foreign Office to your correspondent this morning in reply to the question, "Is the Kaiser hunting trouble?"

"The Kaiser might enjoy a slight jar among the others," the official continued, "but he desires nothing of this sort himself. He is aware that his Morocco adventure caused alarm, and wants to restore confidence. Possibly he would not grieve to see France and England estranged, and the dual alliance less efficient. But he had not the slightest idea of risking war.

"To talk of the Kaiser creating another coalition against Japan is not convincing. Such a coalition with Russia would be helpless. It would require Germany and France to carry out its purposes unaided. This task they probably would not covet, even if Japan were not backed by England.

"Equally improbable is the rumored triple alliance, including Russia, Germany and France.

"It would not enable the Czar to retrieve his position in the Far East, and would do him a dubious service in Europe. Germany probably does not wish to ally itself definitely with the disorganization and impotence for which Russia stands. France distrusts Germany and desires no alliance that would offend England. Therefore the general lines of the old alliance are likely to be maintained, with closer relations between England and France, and between both these countries and Russia. Triple Alliance will continue, but always with some suspicion of Germany in Austria-Hungary, and with some inclination on Italy's part to draw closer to the great free peoples of the west.

DEFENSIVE AND PACIFIC.

"Were there anything aggressive about the diplomatic tendencies of Europe at the present hour, the Kaiser might well be uneasy, but they are defensive and pacific. William may have expected to find something dangerous to Germany in the Anglo-Franco-Russian entente. If he did, he now knows that the alarm was not justified. He may have apprehended that the movement toward an Anglo-Franco-Russian understanding involved a menace to Germany either on the west or the east frontier. If so the Czar is competent to tell him, in the Björkö interview, that such a notion is wholly foreign to the conception to international relations that has long attracted the minds of King Edward, President Loubet and the cabinets of Paris and London.

—Major (Dr.) Young, the officer commanding the Twenty Fourth Field Battery is daily receiving applications from those wishing to join this new corps with its headquarters at Petersboro.

Prospects are Bright

Peterboro's Industrial Fair this Year Will Exceed All That Have Gone Before.

Present conditions seem to indicate that our local fall fair of this year will be the best that Peterboro has ever held. The directors are doing all in their power to make the fair a drawing card, and if they do not make the not uncommon mistake of trying to save a few dollars in advertising and getting local people interested, and thereby losing $10 for every one saved; they will not only have good gate receipts but will help advertise our city and county throughout the whole province.

The fair this season will be held on September 25, 26 and 27, and the biggest attractions ever seen at a local exhibition have been secured. A section of the Royal Canadian Dragoons will give their famous musical ride on September 26 and 27.

The arrangements for judging the live stock and exhibiting them will be carried out in such a manner as to be perfectly satisfactory to all concerned. President D. Hughes-Charles as good a man for the office as could be found has great confidence in ultimate success, and, if not hampered by petty and false economy on the part of his fellow directors will show the Dominion that Peterboro has a good exhibition and will help swell the bank accounts of our local boniemen and merchants, with the dollars of our visitors.

Dearer Funerals?

Rumor Current That Local Undertakers May Raise Their Rates

It has been rumored the past few days that the local undertakers, may advance rates for coffins and other incidental expenses connected with burials.

This possible ring has no connection with the action taken by our local medical fraternity, but simply owing to the greater expense incumbent upon them for supplies of late years.

When discussing the question yesterday morning, one of the gentlemen in the funeral business stated that at the time of the big fire in Toronto, there was considerable devastation among the casket factories, and immediately afterwards there was a raise of 20 per cent. in wholesalers' prices. Still, little, if any, has been added to the usual schedule of rates. What the undertaker wants is merely a reasonable profit.

It is interesting to note that some thirty years ago the top-notch for a funeral, was from $30 to $50. In those days, however, money was hardly so plentiful, and went farther than at present. There is hardly any limit to the expense that can be incurred in connection with a funeral in this twentieth century. There are caskets which run up into the thousands, and the most particular millionaire can be deposited in his six feet of earth in a casket as richly upholstered and as handsome inside and out as it can possibly be, and if the occupant does not sleep well he could not reasonably have any complaint to make with regard to the manner in which he had been laid away.

Street Car Line to Young's Point.

Mr. Heathcote and Party Have Surveyed as far as Carnegie's Flats.

It has long been expected that the Peterboro Radial Railway Co. would extend their lines and system to Lakefield and Young's Point. The first step preparatory to consummation of this scheme was taken yesterday morning, when Mr. W. C. Heathcote and a surveying party began to systematically spy out the line between this city and Young's Point. It will probably be two or three weeks before Mr. Heathcote can report on the best route and feasibility of this extension, as grades, levels, cuttings and other points essential to the paying qualities of the proposed road will have to be considered.

Both sides of the Otonabee river will possibly be surveyed to Lakefield—and also the shores of Lake Katchiswanooka.

The distance from Peterboro to Young's Point is about fourteen miles by either of the routes which the company has in view.

The charter of the Peterboro Railway Company confers on it full power to extend its line to the Point. The company will not use the highway but will lay out an independent route over private property, purchasing the right of way.

It is estimated that the run to the Point could be easily made in an hour and the road would bring Lakefield in close connection with Peterboro. During the months of July and August when the tourist season is at its height, an hourly service would likely be given. The Radial Railway Company has for several weeks had in serious contemplation the extension of the road to Young's Point and now that active steps have been taken in that direction, future developments will be awaited with interest.

Yesterday evening Mr. Heathcote, who is a young man well qualified for the work, returned to the city having concluded the survey as far as the flats near Mr. John Carnegie's residence. The road will in all probability run on the other side of the river from Lakefield to Young's Point, but this will be definitely decided upon completition of the survey, when Mr. Heathcote's report is handed in.

RUSSIA MEANS WAR TO THE END

Thousands of Troops Being Poured Into Manchuria by the Czar--Ominous Outlook for Peace.

Harbin, July 27.—Very quietly but very steadily Russia continues to pour reinforcements into Manchuria.

The dispatch of the troops has been much accelerated even during the supposed negotiations leading to a proposed peace, and despite the rainy season.

In a single week 42,000 men passed a certain spot, thus showing the rapidity with which troops have been hurried to the front.

As a general thing the soldiers travel in horse cars, thirty cars to a train and thirty-five men in each car.

In view of the above the outlook for peace is not of the rosiest hue. Russia is undoubtedly preparing to continue the war to the bitter end.

Belleville Races.

The Belleville races on Tuesday were well attended—but, as far as the races themselves were concerned, proved a comparative fizzle. Several of our local sporting men attended and they all report that, not only from what they saw, at Port Hope, Picton and Belleville but what people in these towns said in commenting on comparative results, both in attendance and excellence of the races, our local meet, was by far the most successful.

In the 2.40 class at Belleville, Frank C., won first money. In the 2.34 class Miss Paisley was an easy winner, this race being simply a procession, until at the 3-4 stretch, Minnie Bell and City Boy made a show of driving as though trying to win the race was simply a joy ride round, with the local horse easily winning in 30. Mr. Chas. Wilmott, of Port Hope, made a good starter, and was heard several times to say that the Peterboro meet was the most successful of the Eastern Ontario Club's circuit. The judges were Messrs. M. H. Shaw, Kingston, Dr. Dolan and J. E. Ketchenson, of Belleville; Timekeepers, W. Carnew, of Belleville, and C. Curry, of Madoc.

The races at Belleville were as follows:

2.40 class, purse $100—

Frank C., b.g., by Cheltenham, C. Caverly, Madoc	1	1	1
Dan Finister, b.h., J. Aldous, Foulon Falls	2	3	2
Acta, b.m., by Allie Wilkes, D. Lake, Napanee	3	2	3

Time—2.30 1-4, 2.30, 2.29 1-4.

2.25 class, purse $125—

Miss Paisley, b.m., by Montrose, Geo. Liggett, Peterboro	1	1	1
City Boy, b.h., by Elm City, J. Keenan, Colborne	2	3	2
Minnie Bell, ch.m., by Tourbon A., Geo. Powell, Peterboro	2	3	3

Time—2.31, 2.34, 2.32.

Half mile run, purse $100—

Lightstone, ch.g., Logan G.Reed, Flint, Mich	1	1
Marston Moor, ch.g., J. F.Smith, Montreal	2	2
Greenfield, blk.h., J. F. Smith, Montreal	3	4
Ben Bottle, c.g., F. Davies, Toronto	4	3
Sirsotee, b.h., J. J. Paterson, Montreal	5	5

Time—54, 52 1-2.

We regret to say that a final report of the Picton Turf Club, says that this pretty little town's club lost $200 on their races.

With these records our citizens may look forward to good races here in the winter, as the local Turf Club intend to make up purses that will attract the best horses. Leading horsemen at Belleville declared their intention of entering for the Peterboro winter meet.

As there has been some misunderstanding about this winter races here and reports have gone forth that the winter circuit will not include Peterboro, The Times yesterday interviewed most of the directors of the local Turf Club, who, of those seen, with only one exception, are enthusiastically in favor of the winter meet. It is therefore a foregone conclusion that the winter meet will not only be held, but will prove a great success.

The C.P.R's Atlantic Fleet Made $200,000 Last Year.

Handsome Profit Shown for Past Twelve Months--Sum of $200,000 Was Eaten Up in Rate War During the Year Previous.

Montreal, July 27.—It was officially announced to-day that the fourth annual report of the Canadian Pacific Railway will show that the Atlantic fleet made a net profit of slightly over $200,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30th. This is the second year the company has had the fleet, but in the first year it did not show any profits. During the first month of the year 1903-4 $200,000 was earned, but more than this amount was lost in the second half of the year, owing to the rate war on the Atlantic.

INCREASING BUSINESS.

A steamship official of the company stated to a press representatives that during the past year, the large amount of through business that was done, enabled fair rates being given by the Atlantic steamship department. There had also been quite a large increase in passenger business.

THINK THAT PEACE WILL BE THE RESULT

Japanese Delegates to Conference Expect Payment of an Indemnity--Reasonable Spirit will be Shown by Victors--57,000 Men Lost in the War.

New York, July 27.—That Japan will demand an indemnity from Russia in the negotiations for peace, and that the war will be declared at an end at the conclusion of the negotiations at Portsmouth, N.H., next month, is the belief of Baron Komura, head of the Japanese peace mission, as voiced by Almar Sato, official spokesman for the Baron. The party arrived here yesterday.

Mr. Sato in an interview last night said; "I am confident that peace will be successfully negotiated by the appointed delegations. The Japanese will be guided by moderation, and no excessive demands will be made, but the sentiment in Japan and Russia is for peace, and in the interests of humanity and propriety there must be peace.

"The cost to Japan, however, has been great. On both sides the loss has been 500,000 men, of which Russia lost 370,000. The war is costing Japan one million dollars a day, and there is a feeling that there ought to be an indemnity."

BUSINESS WOMAN

A Lunch Pit For a King.

An active and successful young lady tells her food experience:

"Some three years ago I suffered from nervous prostration, induced by continuous brain strain and improper food, added to a great grief.

"I was ordered to give up my work, as there was great danger of my mind failing me altogether. My stomach was in bad condition (nervous dyspepsia, I think now) and when Grape-Nuts food was recommended to me, I had no faith in it. However, I tried it, and soon found a marked improvement in my condition as the result. I had been troubled with deathly faint spells, and had been compelled to use a stimulant to revive me. I found, however, that by eating Grape-Nuts at such times I was relieved as satisfactorily as by the use of stimulants, and suffered no bad effects, which was a great gain. As to my other troubles—nervous prostration, dyspepsia, etc.—the Grape-Nuts diet soon cured them.

"I wish especially to call the attention of office girls to the great benefit I derived from the use of Grape-Nuts as a noon luncheon. I was thoroughly tired of cheap restaurants and ordinary lunches, and so made the experiment of taking a package of Grape-Nuts food with me, and then slipping out at noon and getting a nickel's worth of sweet cream to add to it. I found that this simple dish, finished off with an apple, peach, orange, or a bunch of grapes, made a lunch fit for a king, and one that agreed with me perfectly.

"I throve so on my Grape-Nuts diet that I did not have to give up my work at all, and in the few years have had only four lost days charged up against me.

"Let me add that your suggestions in the little book, 'Road to Wellville,' are, in my opinion, invaluable, especially to women." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

"The Road to Wellville," is each pkg.

Stony Lake Waters

Mr. Fuller of the Public Works Department Now Investigating the Water Levels of Stony Lake.

There is now in the city, a prominent engineer of the Public Works Department, Ottawa, Mr. W. J. Fuller, who was sent by his department to investigate certain complaints made as to the present high level of Stony Lake.

Mr. Fuller maintains that the complaint does not come from the Cottagers' Association, but from private sources.

The complaint specifies that the present high water in Stony Lake is injurious to the interests of his department, in that the wharves, which are under the control of that department, are possibly being damaged. Mr. Fuller was not at liberty to mention the name of the person who made the complaint, but stated that he believed the writer was one of those who owned a cottage at the lake.

His duties here are to investigate this matter fully, and to present a report to his chief. He explains that while the water, under ordinary circumstances is controlled by the Department of Railways and Canals, in the interest of navigation, in this case, since the wharves, which are constructed by the Department of Public Works, and maintained by that Department, it has an interest in it.

Before the water is ordered to be lowered, however, it will have to be established that these wharves are really being injured.

Mr. Fuller expects that he will be engaged in his investigations during the rest of the week, and, may perhaps have to spend part of next week in his work, as he is instructed to make a complete survey of the situation, and be prepared to report fully on the matter.

Bro. George Record Presented with Valuable Tokens of Regard by Court Stanley, A.O.F.

After termination of regular business of Court Stanley, A.O.F., on Tuesday evening, with Bro. W. J. Johnston, D.C.R., in the chair, the meeting was thrown open to the members of the Companion Circle, Court Queen Alexandra, a number of ladies being present who wished to present to their retiring Chief Companion, Bro. George Record, his also being Court Stanley's secretary for the past 11 years, a valuable smoking set and a purse of $25 in gold.

The chairman said it was his rightful duty to bid Bro. Geo. Record good-bye on behalf of the members of both courts, as he is leaving for the West in a few days. He said Bro. Record had been the mainstay of both lodges and he had great pleasure in presenting to him the presents, at the same time he desired to wish him God speed in his new home.

Bro. Record in brief, not feeling terms expressed his pleasure he felt at being thus honored, and duly thanked those present.

Several speeches were made by old members of Court Stanley eulogizing Bro. Record, and also several Companions made speeches and the evening ended by a musical selection by Sister Companion Miss Moss. The meeting closed with the usual Ode. There was a very large attendance of both courts.

Little things going wrong in the house bothered me. The doctor advised different treatments but they didn't help. He said my low condition was due to weakness that might never be cured. SCHOOL MEDICAL INSPECTION

The Right Hon. Sir John E. Gorst, M.P., a gentleman who has taken a great deal of interest in educational matters, writes a letter to the North American Review for July on "Physical Deterioration in Great Britain," which is well worthy of perusal. Some of the facts given are rather startling, and as the matter of medical inspection in schools has been agitated in Ontario, it will be timely to refer to them. Of course, the conditions upon which the article in question is based are widely different from those in this country. They are those of the large cities like London, Edinburgh and New York. Nevertheless they exist in a minor degree, and should demand consideration. It appears that ill-health exists in the public schools to a far greater extent than most people imagine. It is stated that in New York a special commission has discovered that half the children required some immediate medical attention, and disclosed a terrible amount of bad sight, bad nutrition and incipient disease. The results of the investigation in the schools of London are said to have been appalling. In the evidence presented to a special committee appointed to prepare the way for a Royal Commission on the subject, it was shown that in one school in London ninety per cent. of the scholars were incapable, chiefly from starvation, to attend to their school work. Throughout Great Britain and Ireland in the poorer districts a large proportion of the children "do grow up to be deteriorated by starvation and insufficient and improper food, that they can never become normal citizens, that they will be the seedbed of disease and crime, and that so long as they live they must remain a burden on society." This is a serious state of affairs. It is pointed out that generally speaking, throughout the colonies, as well as in Great Britain and Ireland, the birth rate is decreasing and the rate of infant mortality is increasing. The children in the colonies do not as a rule suffer from starvation, but they often suffer from neglect. Children are often fed on badly cooked and improper food. Their eyes are badly cared for, and short-sightedness is becoming very common. Pure air and fresh, wholesome water are often absent in school, and, of course, they are subject to those frequent epidemics of measles, whooping cough, scarlet fever, diphtheria, etc., to which weak and sickly children are peculiarly susceptible, and thus these diseases are conveyed to the more healthy children. Sir John Gorst points out that the period of from three to twelve is a critical one, and that practically the physique is determined according to the treatment the body receives during that time. Notwithstanding that the history of the "education" mania is to be that it is the business of the schools to attend to the minds rather than the bodies of the scholars, "and that the school authorities have little to reproach themselves with if the children die of hunger, provided they have been duly taught the multiplication table before they expire." Physical deterioration of the nation is bound to go on under such conditions as the writer describes, for which the school is largely responsible. He is strongly in favor of free medical inspection, free medical advice, and in many instances free medical supplies as a means of off-setting results arising from conditions complained of. As already intimated, very much that Sir John Gorst writes about will fortunately not apply to our schools, as [illegible] are much better off [illegible] than elsewhere.

THE ADVANCE IN PUBLIC EMOLUMENTS.

Never probably in the history of Parliaments wherever representative forms of government prevail, was there more unanimity than could be seen in our legislative halls at Ottawa on the 17th instant, when the Finance Minister placed before the House the cut-and-dried resolutions providing for a general advance in salaries and sessional allowances to Ministers, new and old, of whatever stripe, Senators, Members of Parliament, and the Judges of all grades throughout the country, not forgetting $7,000 for the Leader of the Opposition. Magnanimity could scarcely go further. There was to be sure a feeling prevalent throughout the land for years past, especially in our cities, that the judges were inadequately paid. The cost of living, to say nothing of social duties, has been far greater for some years past than what it was when the former emoluments were fixed, but the increase in the allowances to the rank and file of the House of Commons, was something for which the ordinary tax-payer or consumer of imported or other goods, was not quite prepared. The protracted length of the sessions of late years had doubtless much to do in bringing about the advance, many of the Members, especially those engaged in professional pursuits, being often obliged to neglect their clients, patients, or other customers, or take "French leave" oftener than their political friends were inclined to relish. It is an open secret, however, that the great majority of the M.P.'s and the members of their households do not exhaust all their sessional or mileage allowances in travelling to and from Ottawa during the session. The allowance of $7,000 a year to the Leader of the Opposition may be described as the very height of good treatment, but there will be very few in the Dominion who will grudge the cost. An active Opposition is one of the most useful parts of the machinery of government, and it is but fair to allow it a little share of the loaves and fishes. Hungry men do not, as a rule, act or listen or reason wisely, and reason must still be umpire.

ALBERTA HARVEST BEGINS

Millions of Bushels of Fall Wheat Ripe for the Sickle

Calgary, N.W.T., July 26.—Severe hailstorms throughout Central Alberta have done some damage to the growing crops in the past week, but even distribution of heat and moisture has left conditions excellent. The fall wheat harvest has commenced, and within the next week will be general. The Government crop estimates 10,000 acres of fall wheat in Alberta. In reality it will go into the hundred thousand acres. The yield south of Lethbridge is estimated by the general manager of the Lethbridge Railway and Irrigation Company at two million bushels alone.

STRIKE TIES UP MONTREAL

Thousands of Buildings are Deserted by Plasterers

Montreal, Que., July 27. — The strike declared by the plasterers yesterday afternoon has had the effect of immediately demoralizing building operations in this city. The thousands of handsome buildings in course of creation in all parts of the city are tied up, and the fight between the employers and the artisans promises to be the most bitter in the history of the labor movement.

Any even numbered section of Dominion land in Manitoba or the North west Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry must be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

[1] At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

[2] If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

[3] If a settler has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

[4] If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses [2], [3] or [4] must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 40 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd of June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Office in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.

Deputy Minister of the Interior

How to Visit Colorado

Go first to Denver. It is the State capital, as well as the largest, wealthiest and most metropolitan city between the Missouri River and the Pacific Coast. The city itself is very interesting, and from it start practically all the trains over the various roads into the mountains.

Many of the most enjoyable one-day trips in Colorado begin and end at Denver. The cost of these little journeys is not great.

After you have familiarized yourself with Denver and its surroundings will be soon enough to decide where to go for the rest of your visit. The question must be considered from several standpoints—altitude, hotel accommodations, accessibility, amusements, etc.

Our Colorado literature will help you in deciding where to go and what to do. Sent free for the asking.

BLOOD DISEASES CURED

Drs. K. & K. Established 25 Years.

NO NAMES USED WITHOUT WRITTEN CONSENT.

Before Treatment. After Treatment.

He was surprised at how the sores healed. I took your New Method Treatment for a serious blood disease with which I had been afflicted for twelve years. I had consulted a score of physicians, taken all kinds of blood medicines, visited Hot Springs and other mineral waters resorts but only got temporary relief. They would help me for a time, but after discontinuing the medicines the symptoms would break out again—running sores, blotches, pimples, boils, loosening of the hair, swellings of the glands, pains in the bones, sunken cheeks, skin disease, sore throat, ulcers in the mouth, stomach, etc. I had given up in despair when a friend advised me to consult you, as you had cured him of a similar disease 8 years ago. I had no hope, but took his advice. In three weeks' time the sores commenced to heal up and I became encouraged. I continued the New Method Treatment for four months and at the end of that time every symptom had disappeared. I was cured 7 years ago and no signs of any disease since. My boy, three years old, is sound and healthy. I certainly can recommend your treatment with all my heart. You can refer any person to me privately, but you can use this testimonial as you wish.

To be opened September 1, 1905, allowing the latch on the "door of opportunity." Pull at the latch string and the door will open for you, no matter where you live or what your occupation. Colorado men—well known, reliable, experienced—have organized the Indiuta Mining and Power Co. and provide ten thousand dollars capital by the sale of preferred stock, par value one dollar per share.

Ordinarily a ground floor stock, it could not at all, is allowed to get money with which to start, has no asset whatever behind it, and depends entirely on future development for its value. Our proposition is different. We have started. Our stock now has an asset of property adjoining the reservation, consisting of 320 acres rich agricultural land, 280 shares of water in the best water right on the Uintah River and two lots (survey). Main street in the new town of Medler, Utah. A fair estimate of the value, $16,800.00—a sixteen dollars for every dollar that has invested and an asset fifty per cent greater than the 40 acres to be sold at the price it is here offered; however, this is only the commencement of our plans. With the additional capital to be secured by the sale of stock other valuable property will be added and the opening of the reservation will start the harvest, of which our six years' connection as mining has laid the foundation. You never had such an opportunity as we now offer. We start with you the results of the expenditure of our own capital, our labor and the judgment that has been displayed in securing this extraordinary opportunity for a profitable investment. Every dollar subscribed will bring manifold returns.

A limited amount of the to be offered stock is on sale at 5 cents per share, the ground floor price. An advance to 10 cents will of is be made. A square deal is guaranteed. Write for any further information or any reference desired. DO IT NOW.

CZAR'S IMPOTENCE MAY MEAN MUCH

Chances of Remaining Head of State Under New Regime Lessening

SEVEN CONGRESSES SITTING

Constitutional Most Remarkable Political Display in the History of Russia

Moscow, July 26.—Every day the Czar waits to act with the people decreases his chance of remaining the head of the state under the new regime.

Measures designed by the Zemstvos for the education of the masses have long ago been anticipated by the revolutionaries and are now circulated in the literature which is in the hands of the people from one end of the Empire to the other.

The spectacle of the Czar's impotence is the most pathetic and deplorable figure of passing events. The revolutionaries are hurrying on the campaign in the country. This it is which really gives the men now assembled in Moscow their immunity from the old ruthless tactics of the Czardom.

Seven congresses are sitting in this city this week. They constitute the most remarkable political display in Russian history. They represent the culmination of almost half a century of systematic agitation. The Congress of Zemstvos and Dumas attracts the most attention, but it possesses no more intrinsic importance than the six other discontented assemblies.

The latter bodies are composed of representatives of the industry, commerce and finance leagues of the Liberal press and of the engineers, physicians and lawyer leagues.

These leagues, in which all the foregoing organizations are represented, deal with technical subjects. At any of these meetings, however, every delegate of whatever calling, can discuss reform as earnestly as the district and municipal councillors. Every one of these organizations has ramifications in the bureaucracy as well as among the revolutionists, workers and peasants. Herein is the explanation of the fact that threats of the police instigated by Trepoff and Bulygin infected nothing. The chief of police after resorting to the farce of taking the names of the delegates, confessed that the reform movement was out of his hands and reported to Trepoff that neither the police nor the Cossacks could control the situation. The Government is beginning to understand that back of the Zemstvos is a united nation staying its hand a little time only to allow the growth of sufficient political competence among the leaders to take over the affairs of the Empire without disaster. This competence is rapidly developing under the stress of circumstances and with the experience of unrestricted public debate.

A semi-final football game between the Euclids of Toronto, and the Locust Hill Clippers, played at Markham last night, resulted in rather an easy victory for the Clippers by a score of 2 to 0.

The finals in the intermediate games for the Ontario Association football championship have been thus arranged; Locust Hill at Dundas, July 28. H. W. Brown, of Berlin, referee; Dundas v. Locust Hill, at Markham, July 31.

Canadian Lacrosse Association clubs are reminded that players' certificates will not be issued after Aug. 1.

Bowling has become such a popular form of amusement during the past few years, and the number of tournaments have increased so greatly, that it is high time something was being done to simplify the mode of competition between different clubs and different districts.

Many towns in the Province now hold a tournament annually, and within the next few weeks half a dozen of these will be concluded. These, however, have been confined principally to the Western portion of Ontario. But owing to the multiplicity of tournaments there has been no satisfactory way of ascertaining which club or which rink possessed pre-eminence over all others.

In order to bring this about it has been suggested that the Province should be divided into groups as under the operations of the Ontario Curling Association. In this way, as at present ample opportunity would be afforded the clubs in any given district to try conclusions with their neighbors; and they schedule, with this object in view, might be made as elastic as the most ardent bowler could desire.

Montreal, July 28.—The American challenger Manchester of the Manchester, Mass., Yacht Club, yesterday defeated the Canadian defender Alexandra in the third and final race for the Seawanhaka Cup, and thus captured the trophy for the United States by three straight wins. Yesterday's race was a beat to windward and return, five miles, sailed three times over a total distance of twelve miles.

• • • •

Montreal, July 27.—It has been practically decided that the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club will not challenge for the Seawanhaka Cup for next summer, but will go in quest of the cup in two years, if it has not been previously brought back to Canada. Commodore Finley of the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club stated to-day that the officials of the club felt that, seeing the Royal St. Lawrence had held the cup for nine years, much more interest would be aroused in the contests for the cup, if some other Canadian club made an endeavor to lift it.

DIED FOR HIS MOTHER

New York, July 27.—Nathan Newman, 20 years old, lost his life to-day in a heroic effort to save his mother and sister, who were in great peril from fire in a Brooklyn tenement house. Half a dozen families, all Hebrews, were sleeping in the double-deck three-story building when the fire started. When the alarm was given the fire had reached practically every floor, and the occupants were forced to flee for their lives. Many were too late to get down the stairways before their escape was cut off by flames. These sought escape by the narrow ladder which leads to the roof.

Newman got through in safety, but was unable to find his mother and sister. He went back into the burning building, found the women, and assisted them through the opening. When he tried to follow them, however, the ladder was surrounded by flames. He made a rush through the fire, but was overcome just as he reached the top and fell back into the flames to his death. All the other occupants of the house escaped. The loss on the building was $10,000.

CUT OFF THROUGH ONTARIO

Total Under Whitney Government Will be About One Hundred

Toronto, July 27.—Hotel and tavern licenses cancelled in Ontario since the incoming of the Whitney Government will number approximately one hundred out of a total of 3,000. This exact number will be known soon after July 31, when the last of the licenses for the year expire. The greatest number of licenses cancelled in any one county has been in Peel county, being 18 out of a total of 36, or 50 per cent. The License Department at the Parliament Buildings has been exceedingly busy during the last few months, owing to the appointment of new License Commissioners and license inspectors throughout the Province, all of whom have to be fully instructed in the duties of their office. Out of 102 license inspectors, all but a dozen are new men.

McLean, M.P. for Antigonish, has been mentioned as the representative of the Maritime Provinces on the commission.

Welcome Steel Trust

Ottawa, July 27.—A report comes from New York to the effect that the United States Steel Corporation has decided not to erect a steel plant in Canada, fearing that the Dominion Government would withhold the bounty. It is stated officially that the Government never contemplated such action. The steel bounty authorized by Parliament will be paid to all manufacturers who own plants in Canada, irrespective of the source of the capital.

Ingersoll, July 27.—Mrs. Robert Kyle, the woman who shot and killed Dave McGee on the morning of the 18th, had her preliminary hearing before Police Magistrate Morrison here yesterday afternoon, when the magistrate committed her for trial at the fall assizes. The evidence showed that McGee took advantage of his former friendship to introduce Miss Whitman to the Kyle household, and abused their hospitality. He threatened to kill Kyle as well as the two women and thereupon Mrs. Kyle was furnished with the revolver with which she shot and killed him. Her plea was self-defence.

Dr. Hamilton Cures Rheumatism

You Use His Mandrake and Butternut Pills—He Guarantees a Lasting Cure.

Rheumatism is caused by uric acid in the blood. While at one time or other free from pain, but if the kidneys get healthy, they will filter out the waste and poisons.

In case of rheumatism, the kidneys are not doing their work. As a result poisons crystalize around the joints and cause pain almost akin to torture.

There can be no cure, no permanent relief until the kidneys are strengthened first, so they can do their work. For this purpose Dr. Hamilton's Pills excel all other remedies. They deal out strength to the kidneys, as no other poisons depart from the blood and all medicine can do. Once the kidneys are renewed by Dr. Hamilton's Pills the trace of rheumatism disappears.

No Case is Too Chronic to Yield to the Marvellous Influence of Dr. Hamilton's Pills.

"I spent nearly three years experimenting with rheumatism remedies, without success, of Perth, Ont. "I had almost given up hope when I tried Dr. Hamilton's Pills, the only thing that cured me. No remedy could be better."

Y.M.C.A. Boys' Camp is Broken Up for This Year.

Yesterday morning at 7.30 the Y.M.C.A. boys, who have had such a successful and thoroughly enjoyed camp at Sandy Point, struck their tents, and, unlike the Arabs, when they stole away, did not use camels, but the steamship Stony Lake.

The steamer lay at the pier and equipment to Lakefield and thence by train to Peterboro, arriving about 10.30 in the morning. Three of the boys, Ed. Ward, Harold and Hugh Wallace, will remain at Sandy Point for a few days longer, and Mr. G. H. Williamson will also do some camping. He was joined yesterday morning by Mrs. Williamson. The boys are most appreciative of the efforts put forth for their enjoyment by the leaders, Mr. Williamson, Mr. Holmes, Mr. Percy Might, Cecil Arnot and Arthur Emmerson, each of whom had charge of a section. They speak in terms of highest praise of Mr. Percy Might, who contributed no little share to the pleasure of the camp.

An Oshawa Invasion

Over Five Hundred Visitors from Oshawa Pass Through the City.

Yesterday evening George street and the various parks of the city were visited by hundreds of visitors from the little Lakeside town of Oshawa.

More than 500 excursionists arrived yesterday morning in the city on a G.T.R. special train for Lakefield, where the steamers Stony Lake and Empress were in waiting to convey them upon a trip over the Kawartha Lakes. The junior lacrosse team of Oshawa accompanied the excursionists and arrangements had been made for a game here but the Oshawa bunch went on to Lakefield and the game had to be cancelled. Although the visitors were met at the station here they appeared to have made up their mind not to play. Those who had bought tickets for the game may obtain their money by applying to Mr. D. J. Devine at the G.T.R. ticket office.

The visitors were most in evidence after their return from Lakefield and the shops selling souvenirs of Peterboro, and the Lift Lock, did a flourishing business. The crowds in The Times Bookstore during the early evening were almost too great to be fully waited on, however all left satisfied and laden with all kinds of goods on which were depicted local scenes and buildings.

Love is sometimes a hard taskmaster. He drives women to tasks beyond their strength and lays heavy burdens on their shoulders. Love of husband, love of family, forces many a woman day by day to labor for the home when aching back and throbbing head make her utterly unfit for household duties.

Weak, nervous women who suffer from headache, backache, bearing-down pains and other consequences of womanly disease, can be completely cured by the use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"About two years ago I was taken sick and it seemed as if I had no nerves at all," writes Mrs. F. Woodbeck, of Delray, Mich. "Could not work an hour in the day without being tired out. I doctored first with one physician, then with another, but did not receive any benefit. One would say one thing and the next something else. I had almost given up when I thought your medicine might help me, so I wrote to you asking what to do. You advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I did so and could see a difference right away. I only took four bottles in all and felt better than I had in a long time. Can work all day now and not feel tired as I would in an hour before taking your treatment. I think it is the only medicine."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure dizziness and sick headache.

GERM DISEASES OF SUMMER.

No One Need Fear Sickness if Mi-o-na is Used

It is the person with a weak stomach who first falls victim to the germ diseases of summer.

People with strong stomachs and natural digestion are ordinarily not subject to bowel troubles, diarrhoea, and other germ diseases that are so common and dangerous in the summer months.

A Mi-o-na tablet taken before each meal will give such health and strength to the weakest stomach that the whole system will become strong and well, and so clean and sweet that there will be no chance for disease germs to become active. Mi-o-na acts directly upon the whole digestive system, soothing and healing the inflamed stomach lining, strengthening the nerves of the solar-plexus, and building up good flesh, firm muscle, and perfect health.

A great many people imagine that their headaches, dizziness, heartburn, or general despondency and weakness is a sign of fatal illness, when the whole trouble is the direct result of a weak stomach and imperfect digestion. A 50 cent box of Mi-o-na tablets will show by the great gain in health that the stomach is the cause of the poor health, and that Mi-o-na is the only remedy that will drive out all weakness, debility and disease.

Mi-o-na is so nearly infallible in curing the diseases resulting from a weakened stomach, excepting cancer of the stomach, that Wm. Madill guarantees to refund the money should the remedy not give perfect satisfaction.

TEN YEARS

The Story of My Wonderful Success.

Reads Like a Fairy Tale—Yet Full of Convincing Truths

An Opportunity of a Lifetime for the Investor.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF IT.

I ask every reader of this paper to write me. I want to send you my free book entitled "Ten Years"—"The Story of My Wonderful Success." It tells about one of the greatest and most promising investment opportunities ever offered. It tells how my business grew from less than $25.00 capital to its present proportions.

I believe I have the best proposition from an investor's standpoint that could be placed before you. For ten years I have been teaching men and women to live according to the laws of Nature. My book is the history of my life. It shows what energy and ambition can accomplish in the world of affairs. It is intensely interesting to any man or woman who has a few dollars to invest in a legitimate enterprise.

I started business in the City of Brooklyn in 1896. My capital amounted to less than $25.00. My first year's business netted me over $1,000.00. Last year I paid dividends to my partners of 15 per cent. Five years ago my business had grown so large that I was compelled to remove to larger quarters. I am now at 63-65 Clark St., Brooklyn, N.Y.—in connection with Hotel St. George. Experts pronounce my institution to be the best appointed of its kind in the country. I estimate the equipment of the Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture to be worth at least $40,000.00.

I want to have a building of my own that will enable me to accommodate my increasing business. To erect this building I need capital, but more important than this to increase my business to the proportions which I desire, I need the co-operation of men and women throughout the country and the world.

Co-operation is the Secret of Success

I recognize it. I believe that with thousands of co-operators throughout the country I can build my business to tremendous proportions to the benefit of the shareholders and myself.

The Mac Levy Company is incorporated under the laws of New York for $150,000.00. They are proprietors of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

The last named branch of the business of the Mac Levy Company is comparatively new. I have been at work for several years to establish such a department in connection with teaching Physical Culture. The most difficult part of forming the Equipment Company has been accomplished. The business is now in condition to be pushed on a large scale. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are spent yearly on new gymnasiums and their equipment. The profits are large. A company of this kind has an immense field in which to work. Competition is slight. It is evident that the Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company can build an enormous business.

The Mac Levy Company operates during the summer months at Steeplechase Park, Coney Island, and at Averne Hotel, Averne-by-the-Sea, L. I., as well as at our Brooklyn Institute. I also do an extensive mail business. I teach people how they should live and exercise. My students are scattered all over the United States, and in English speaking countries.

which arrises in the minds of every man and woman is how to secure a comfortable income in the earlier years of their life, that they may reap the full benefits which such an income affords.

I have long thought that there are hundreds of people in moderate circumstances who would like to invest a few dollars in an Institution of this kind. It is to such people that I intend this announcement shall appeal. I am offering a block of the Treasury Stock of this company to the public at its par value. My reasons for doing this are that I wish to erect a building and to extend the business of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

I WANT YOU AS MY PARTNER

I need your help and suggestion. I want you to work with me and help me to secure a tremendous amount of new business.

I believe that if you could talk with me personally and go over the records of the business which I have done, see in black and white the figures which show the steady growth my business has experienced during the past ten years, examine my plans for future extension, and then look over the magnificent equipment of my Institute, and would want no further evidence that money put into my business would bring you the greatest possible returns coasistent with safety and good management.

I ask you to write for my free book. I believe it will interest you. You have a few dollars that you want to invest. Why let it stand idle earning only 3 or 4 per cent that Savings Bank pay their depositors? Put it to work. Join it with mine. This Company ought to pay at least.

THE NORWAY AND SWEDEN TROUBLE.

Swedish Parliament Approve of Special Committees Report Regarding Dissolution, but Norway Will Not Accept Some of the Terms

Stockholm, Sweden, July 28.—Both Houses of the Swedish Parliament this morning approved the report of the special committee appointed by Parliament to deal with the crisis between Norway and Sweden. In the first chamber, the report was adopted without debate.

The special committee, while it advocated a peaceful settlement of the dissolution problem, insisted on certain conditions being agreed to by Norway, which the latter country may not accept. It also was opposed to this Swedish Cabinet, which favored a moderate course, being allowed to negotiate terms of dissolution.

London, July 28.—The correspondent of the Daily Mail at Stockholm says:

"The object of Emperor William's interview with Emperor Nicholas was to obtain the consent of the latter for a prince of the House of Hohenzollern to ascend the throne of Norway. It is possible that the Russian Emperor will consent, provided Russia be permitted to slightly rectify her frontier on the Atlantic."

The Daily Mail suggests that the "rectified frontier" means that Russia wants to acquire the strip of Norwegian territory which parts Finland from the Arctic Ocean, thus gaining a seaport.

British Fleet Goes to the Baltic Sea.

It is Thought the Cruise is Designed to Counteract German Influence in the Scandinavian Peninsula, Though This is Officially Denied.

London, July 28.—The British Channel fleet sails for the Baltic Sea Aug. 20, and will remain there through September. As it has been years since a British fleet appeared in that sea the announcement is connected in the public mind with Emperor William's recent tour and the visit of a German squadron to Scandinavian waters. The cruise of the British fleet is regarded as designed to counteract the preponderance of German influence in Scandinavian politics. The Admiralty, however, discourages the idea of politics having any bearing on the cruise, and says that the Baltic is an open sea, and that the fleet is simply going there to executive manoeuvres, ceremonious visits not being contemplated.

Berlin, July 28.—The German Foreign Office denies utterly the report published by the correspondent of a London paper at Stockholm to the effect that Emperor William, in his recent interview with the Russian Emperor, sought to obtain the consent of the latter for a prince of the house of Hohenzollern to ascend the throne of Norway.

NO YELLOW PERIL, INSISTS KOMURA

Japanese Plenipotentiary Who Was in Chicago Yesterday Says European Cry is Nonsensical

WAR TO BENEFIT WORLD

Envoy Sees Great Commercial and National Future for His Country —Russians Admire Japs

Chicago, July 28. — The so-called "Yellow Peril" is wholly a creation on the part of some interested people in Europe. Not only Japan and China, but the entire civilized world, will gain by our conflict with Russia.

So declared Baron Komura, Japan's Minister of Foreign Affairs and the Mikado's plenipotentiary to discuss terms of peace at Portsmouth, N. H., with M. de Witte, the envoy of the Czar.

Baron Komura arrived at Chicago yesterday morning, and remained but a few hours, proceeding on the Pennsylvania's eighteen hour train directly to New York, thence going to Oyster Bay, where he will call on the President.

DISCUSSES JAPAN'S RELATIVE STATUS.

The Baron, who, next to Marquis Ito, is regarded by diplomats as Japan's leading statesman, discussed broadly, without trenching upon the war itself, the relations of Japan with Russia and the other powers of the world.

His informal discussions of Oriental politics and world affairs, of Japan's status among nations, of her history and her aspirations, gathered together in the form of a connected statement, reads as follows:

"I must decline, of course, to discuss in the slightest degree the forthcoming conferences between myself and the envoys of the Czar. Such a proceeding would be manifestly improper on my part.

LOOKS TO FUTURE WITH HOPE.

"But of the present conditions and future of Japan, I am free to say that we are looking forward with a feeling of unalloyed optomism and hopefulness. Not only our financial but our industrial conditions are bound to reveal vast improvement from this time on, no matter how the approaching conference with the Russian commissioners may result.

"The so-called yellow peril is wholly a creation of the imagination on the part of some of the interested people of Europe. Not only Japan and China, but the entire civilized world will gain immeasurably by our conflict with Russia.

"The Japanese feel most gratified because in the pending war they have not only obtained the permanent safety and lasting security of their country, as it seems now, but have for at least a century, and perhaps for all time, arrested the 'glacial advance' of the bear to the south-east.

"The Mikado's people never could have won the victory they have were it not due, in the first place, that they were thrice armed by having their quarrel just; second, that their entire public service is absolutely free of corrupt practices, and, lastly, that their mode of life ever has been one of such extreme simplicity that their soldiers thus gained an equipment for the stress of war that they never could have gained had they, like too many other nations, abandoned themselves to lives of luxury and sloth and been unwilling, if not unable, to put their hands to strenuous tasks.

RUSSIANS ADMIRE JAPANESE.

"A good illustration of the friendly feeling the Muscovites have for the Japanese was furnished by two Russian officers who were fellow passengers with us on the steamship Minnesota. They declared they had nothing whatever to say to the detriment of the Japanese. At dinner shortly before the steamer reached Seattle these Russian friends of mine drank toasts to my health and gave the most hearty expressions to the kindest sentiment they entertained for my countrymen and myself.

"It is a pleasure rather than a task to travel as we are doing on this trip. We shall make the distance from Japan to New York in seventeen days—something which a few years ago would not have been thought possible.

"It is difficult for me to say how thoroughly my people appreciate the friendly feeling which so universally has been extended to us from the beginning of this lamentable war. We shall try so to regulate our course in the future that you Americans will never have occasion to regret having bestowed your sympathy, both before and during the struggle.

"I was impressed profoundly with the reception all along the route from Seattle to St. Paul. Even the Japanese railroad section men met us in bands, with flags and bands of music, and wished us God speed on our mission.

HAILED WITH PATRIOTIC FERVOR.

"One of the little parties of toiling welcomers carried a banner inscribed 'Right is might. Our compliments to the bravest of the brave!'

"They cheered us lustily and quite elaborate fireworks were among the attractions of these extemporaneous little festivities. Never before did I witnessed such hearty, spontaneous demonstrations of patriotism and good will.

"Whatever be done and whatever befalls him, the Japanese remains a Japanese at heart. Patriotic, indeed, must be the people of his, many thousands of miles from their native land, retain all their old enthusiasm for Dai Nippon, her freedom, prosperity and welfare.

"You have a great country and it would be vain to attempt to prophecy marvelous things of the future apparently in store for you. To the United States more than to any other outside power does my country owe most in the forward strides in progress and national greatness she has taken during the last thirty years. We shall never forget that we are under obligation to your people for their friendliness manifested in many directions."

WITHDRAW ARMY FROM POLAND

Immediate Result of Meeting of the Kaiser and Czar

St. Petersburg, July 28.—As an immediate result of the meeting of the Kaiser and the Czar, two army corps will be withdrawn from Poland. Their arrival at the front in September will give General Linevitch a superiority over the Japanese of 150,000 men; his numerical superiority today is estimated at 70,000.

This news makes the war party exultant. The Novoe Vreyema says: "Not a kopeck must be given to Japan, not an inch of territory, not a mile of railroad. There must be no Japanese protectorate over Corea."

This general staff is sure Linevitch will begin an attack shortly. He has 600,000 men and 2,000 guns. The bureaucracy has changed its tone, repression is announced and there is little prospect of reform.

RUSSIAN WOMEN MAKE APPEAL

Declare Their Lives are a Continuous Agony of Fear for Themselves and Children

Moscow, July 28.—The following resolution, passed by the Women's Union of All Russia, gives a terrible picture of the real state of things in the provinces, where the Cossacks on the one hand and the police with their hired bands of cut-throats on the other are making life intolerable to all those classes of the people which are worth attacking. It runs as follows:

"We women have been stirred to the depths of our souls with horror at the events that happened at Ivanovo-Voznesensk on the 16th June. When shall we see the end of these brutalities? When will the blood of the Russian people cease to flow here at home and in the far east? We are in despair, having no faith that our bureaucracy will ever put an end to this bloodshed, inasmuch as the bureaucracy itself gives fuel to the fire of the movement."

THINKS KAISER IS AT THE BOTTOM

Visitors From Morocco Talk of Troublous Times at Home

BECAUSE OF NEW ALLIANCE

Friendship of Great Britain and France Not Pleasant to Germany

Montreal, July 28.—Jules de Bourgignac, a young French artist of the type that Du Maurier loved to depict, arrived in Montreal yesterday. He is making a tour of the world, though not in eighty days, for he is taking his leisure. He expects to spend several months in Canada.

Mr. Bourgignac grew enthusiastic about the Canadian climate and Canadian skies. He is quite accustomed to high colors and the play of light and shadow, as he has spent the past five years in Morocco, in Tangiers, Fez, and the neighboring city of Algiers.

"Ah, Morocco," he remarked, in his very good English, "it is a fine country, fine. It is the climate for the artist! It palls on one after a time, however, one wants to get away, to move, to see colors when they are not as riotous as they are there."

Mr. de Bourgignac has followed the general situation in the country where he has been living quite intimately, and he possesses strong convictions about it and the late crisis, which he does not fear in the least to express.

He believes that the root of all the present trouble is the Kaiser.

"So long as the country was dominated by a power which the Kaiser believed to be hostile to Great Britain, so long the Kaiser was willing to acquiesce in that domination, but when he saw the cordial entente which has sprung up between France and Great Britain, he grew uneasy. When he saw that this might grow into an offensive and defensive alliance, he became alarmed. Then he thought it time to act.

"William has always feared England's strength in the Mediterranean. Her naval bases there—Gibraltar, Malta, etc., are very strong, but it was thought that Morocco, dominated by France, was an offset to both of these.

"With the two keys, Tangiers and Gibraltar held by allies (Ceuta does not count), German commerce with the Mediterranean would be at their mercy in the event of war. The Kaiser, therefore, who is shrewd and far-seeing, saw the necessity for Germany's heartiring herself. Hence his recent action."

In Mr. de Bourgignac's opinion, the Sultan is merely a tool. While he possesses the genius of the Oriental for intrigue, he thinks that under German domination he would be just as uneasy and as hard to trust. He personally is likely to gain little by the approaching conference.

M. de Bourgignac will leave this evening for Toronto and Niagara Falls, whence he will proceed west.

IF SWEDEN WANTS WAR KING OSCAR WILL SANCTION IT

Says, However, it Would Be Crowning Sorrow of His Last Days

RECENT ACTION OF NORWAY

Thinks Norwegians Are Brave People, But Not Prepared for Struggle

Stockholm, July 28.—King Oscar received a press correspondent in special private audience in the Royal Palace, Stockholm, at noon yesterday. His Majesty spoke freely about the union crisis, but was overcome with emotion at several points in the conversation, especially when he emphasized the insult he feels he has suffered at the hands of the Norwegian people. He prefaced his remarks with the statement that he believed justice-loving America would sympathise with him, and with Sweden, when the facts should be presented to the United States in an unbiased form.

His Majesty said: "I was unable to adopt any different attitude toward Norway than I did, because my oath as King of both countries absolutely debarred me from doing anything for the one that infringed the interests of the other. Norway says that I left her. Say to your people, in the most positive form, that I never left Norway. She left me. I will never allow a Bernadotte Prince to occupy the throne of Norway, unless Sweden ask it. I hope and believe she will not ask it. That would be an awful sacrifice for me and my family. My family is united with me. On this point we are a happy family. I have good sons and good grandsons. They do not desire to allow personal ambitions, which they might gratify by the acceptance of Norway's invitation, to lead them to think of acting contrary to my desires in this matter.

"Norway says it esteems and loves me. How deep must it love be when it did not hesitate to betray me. Norway wants a Bernadotte King, in order to show to the world that Sweden condones its act of treachery and restitution.

MADE KNOWN THE TERMS.

"This afternoon Sweden's Parliament made known to the world the terms on which we were willing to recognize the dissolution of the union, which I am grieved to feel is lost for ever. Large sections of my loyal Swedish subjects feel these demands represent the minimum Sweden can accept, in satisfaction of this blow Norway has dealt our national honor. If Norway rejects these proposals, and my people feel that Sweden can be avenged only by war, I shall have no other alternative but reluctantly to sanction their sovereign will. Need I assure the Americans that that would be the crowning sorrow of my declining days. The Norwegians are a brave people. I know their army well, but I think they are not so ready for a life and death struggle as they think. My fervent prayer at any rate is that complications may not arise, for that would be a blow more crushing, if possible, than that I have already suffered."

Death Came Suddenly

Rev. T. J. Edmison Drops Dead in a Brighton, Ont., Hay Loft.

The whole community, and in particular those who attend the Methodist Church, heard yesterday with feelings of amazement and distress that the Rev. T. J. Edmison, B.A., formerly President of the Bay of Quinte Methodist Conference, had suddenly, and unexpectedly been called to the Maker he had served so well. The first intimation obtained here was a telegram received by Mr. Robt. Edmison, of Smith, a brother of the deceased, who yesterday left immediately for Brighton to arrange for the funeral, which will be held to-day at two o'clock in Brighton. It is learned that the cause of his death was heart failure. The late Mr. Edmison was a native of this county, where he was raised, and lived until he left to take up his life-work, that of preaching the Gospel, in which calling he has been very successful. He was a cousin of Mr. Geo Edmison, K.C., County Police Magistrate, and had frequently visited in Peterboro where he was well known, and where the sad intelligence of his sudden calling off will be received with the deepest regret.

Born about 60 years ago, Mr. Edmison lived during the early years of his life on his father's farm, but later attended Victoria University, from which institution he graduated in arts and theology and he entered the ministry in the Methodist church in 1868, and his since that time filled many important offices in the gift of his church.

In 1901 he was elected president of the Bay of Quinte conference, and for years was secretary of the Board of Examiners. He was one of the most highly respected of all the ministers in the conference and always took a deep interest in the work of the ministry and in the preparation of young men for that work. Some years ago he was stationed in Lambton, coming from there to Newcastle. At the time of his death he was stationed at Brighton.

Up to the time of his death he was in good health, and had always been a strong, hearty man. He has always been prominent in the educational work of the Church.

He leaves, besides his bereaved wife, a family of six children, three boys and three girls. The eldest boy, Brockerton, is a doctor, practising at Castleton, and the second son, Alexander, a young man of 20, has followed his father, and is entering the ministry. He is at present a probationer, stationed on the Tyrone circuit, where he is highly respected for his many qualities. A third son lives at home as do the three daughters, Miss Marion being the eldest, with two younger sisters.

Juniper Island Musicale

A Splendid Program Enjoyed by the Stony Lake Cottagers.

That civilization, and its concurrent amusements, is not confined to towns or cities, was evidenced Wednesday evening at Juniper Island, this queen of the thousand islands that grace our fair Kawartha Lakes.

The hundreds of cottagers and summer visitors to our northern summer resort, seem to imbue vim with the ozone of the lakes, and when they arrange a celebration, it invariably turns out successful. The most recent social and musical event of Stony Lake was a "musicale" held at the Juniper Island pavilion the night before last, when with Hon. Lawrence Graham, of New York, to whose efforts the success of the event is largely due, acting as chairman a most entertaining and well received program was rendered.

Miss Forbes, of Toronto, a guest at the Victoria House, kindly played the piano accompaniments, and assisted greatly towards the splendid outcome of the concert.

Mr. Graham announced the various numbers upon the program in his usual happy manner.

A Police Contest.

Rumors That the Local Force Will Hold a Revolver Shooting Match.

It is understood that the local police force will devote their summer vacation to revolver practice. Whilst not definitely settled, rumor says that the course of practice will be divided into three sections, 1st, practice with a 45 calibre gun, at a 40-foot barn, distance 10 feets a goat being allowed; 2nd, the same target at 15 feet distance, rests barred, and as a special test of marksmanship, the 3rd trial will be with any mixed calibre gun at 17 feet, six inches at a cow. Several farmers have already applied, it is reported, for the loan of any cow of their flock, at a daily rental of 30 cents per diem, provided, and on condition, that said cow's milk during the practice shall belong to the owner of the cow, and further stipulated that the cow be tethered in one spot during the time all shots are fired. The last item of the agreement is perhaps harsh, but farmers cannot, in reason, allow a valuable animal to stray whilst being shot at, the danger of its being hit, in such case, being disproportionate to the amount charged for loan of the target.

No prizes will be offered for the barn practice at 10 feet, but a purse with 10 per cent. entry fee charged, will be hung up for the 15 feet trial, and a leather medal, suitably stamped with the words "let dogs beware of this man who wears this," to any member of the force hitting the cow, provided the animal remains on the spot during this firing. The farmer renting the cow should take every precaution to see that the tethering clause be complied with or his lovline will certainly run a chance of being hit.

—It is probable that St. John's church will appoint a curate at an early date to succeed Rev. W. R. Tandy, of Kingston, who resigned several weeks ago owing to ill-health.

Vladivostock to be on a Japanese Sea.

Army of 40,000 Men Advancing Towards Vladivostok Through Korea--Significance of Capture of Sakhalin Explained in Jap Review--Two Towns Taken.

Tokio, July 28.—It is announced at army headquarters that the Japanese army on Sakhalin Island on the morning of July 25, without meeting heavy resistance from the Russians, commenced landing in the neighborhood of Alkova, eight miles north of Alexandrovsk, and that Alexandrovsk was seized Tuesday.

An illustrated monthly review of the war published in Japan forecasted the occupation of Sakhalin and explained its significance as regarding Alexandrovsk, and Vladivostock, it says:

"Let us imagine for an instant that what we expect has already come to pass and that Japan has already been say ten years, in possession of Sakhalin. What shall we see?

"We shall see the railway running from Tokio to Aomori, from Hakodate to the extreme north of Hokkaido, from the extreme south of Karafuto, as it will be called, to the extreme north. A naval station will guard the Tsugaru Straits, another at Korsakov will watch over the Straits of La Perouse, whilst the Gulf of Tartary and the mouth of the Amur will be watched over by military and naval stations at Alexandrovsk, and at the extreme north of the island. Every approach to the maritime provinces of Siberia will be in Japanese hands, and Vladivostock itself, supposing it is to remain still in Russian hands, will only connect with an inland lake that will be wholly under Japanese control. Similarly the Okhotsk Sea will become practically a Japanese lake, and the commerce of Kamchatka, such as it is, will pass into the hands of Japan."

TWO TOWNS BURNING.

Tokio, July 28.—Vice-Admiral Kataoka, in reporting the successful landing of the Japanese forces in the vicinity of Alexandrovsk, on Sakhalin Island, says that the piers at Alexandrovsk, Nyomi, and Mukaka were found intact, but the enemy had set fire to Mhanika, and Alkova was still burning. The town of Alexandrovsk was not burned.

The admiral's report, which was received at 7.30 p.m. on July 24, says that the Japanese flag was hoisted over the Government buildings at Alexandrovsk without any loss on the part of the Japanese force.

ADVANCE IN KOREA.

Kuanchangtau, Manchuria, July 28, —According to reports from Korea, the Japanese continue advancing along a forty-mile front, their vanguard is now about eighty miles from the mouth of the Tumen River. The Koreans estimate the strength of the Japanese at about 40,00 men. Their main force is concentrated at Kenchen.

Pontypool Excursion

Oddfellows of Pontyfool Lodge Yesterday Visit Bobcaygeon

The Oddfellows of Pontypool are an enterprising lot of men, who, although Oddfellowship has only recently taken a footing in that village, show that they intend to do things. Yesterday they held an excursion from Pontypool, Norwood, Peterboro and intervening stations to the rock-bound fishing resort Bobcaygeon.

The special train started from Norwood, picking up a few at this city, and was fairly well filled at Pontypool. This train passed through Peterboro at 7 o'clock yesterday morning and brought the local contingent back early last night.

Most of the excursionists enjoyed a pleasant sail on a specially chartered T.V.C. Navigation Company steamer through Kawartha Lakes from Bobcaygeon.

Obituary.

Death of Dr. W. W. Meacham, Warsaw.

The many friends in this city of Dr. Walter William Meacham, will regret to hear that he died at his residence, in Warsaw, late Wednesday night at the age of 64. Dr. Meacham's death came almost without premonition and was directly attributed to appendicitis.

The deceased removed to Warsaw about four years ago, from Nanaimo, where he represented for twelve years the constituency of Lennox in the Legislature. He was prominent in the councels of the Conservative party before his retirement from the political arena. He won for himself by his genial kindly disposition a host of friends on both sides of the House.

Since removing to Warsaw, the late Dr. Meacham has occupied the position of Medical Health Officer, for the township of Dummer. He was a prominent member of the Methodist church.

Surviving members of the family are, besides his wife, one daughter and two sons; Mrs. Denyes of Whitby; Warren and Roy of Warsaw. Three sisters also survive him; Mrs. Stinson, of Sarnia; Mrs. Tully, of Winnipeg; and Mrs. Hullmate, of Baldur, Man.

The funeral will take place on Saturday at 11 o'clock a.m., from the family residence, to St. Mark's cemetery, Warsaw.

TELEPHONE TALKS.

TO TELEPHONE USERS AND THE GENERAL PUBLIC,—

The impression has gone abroad that THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF CANADA is required to purchase its equipment from American manufacturers at high prices, and that subscribers are paying for this in their rates. There is absolutely no foundation for this.

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF CANADA, is one of the large manufacturing concerns of the country and is also one of the largest employers of Canadian labor. Practically everything that goes into the construction of a modern telephone system is produced in the factories owned and controlled by the Company. The prices charged the Company are fixed by competition with the largest electrical concerns on the Continent. That the prices are reasonable and the articles of the highest merit is demonstrated by the fact that nearly fifty per cent. of the output of these factories is sold to other Canadian consumers in competition with producers in the United States and Europe. At the present time the Company's factories are being doubled in size and capacity to keep pace with the demand.

The Bell Telephone Company employs in its various interests about 5,000 people and pays out in salaries alone $1,782,142.00 per annum.

These are facts of which the public is perhaps not aware, but which will, no doubt, interest all Canadians,

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF CANADA.

WHY SO WEARY ?

Always Restless and Weak Is Not Natural—But Is Dangerous

You have to work hard. This uses up lots of nerve force and tears down the body faster than it can build up.

The result is a half-dead feeling you can't shake off. Somehow you must get more vitality. The water in your blood must be turned into nutriment and building material.

This is just what happens in using Ferrozone, which renews the blood and nerves, and makes each organ do the work that nature expects of it.

Ferrozone quickly increases your weight, brings appetite and healthy color, instills a reserve of vigor into the system that defies weariness, exhaustion, debility, or sickness of any kind.

The enormous strengthening power of Ferrozone is proved in the case of Mrs. Edward Hill, of Ox Lake, Ont., who says:

"Two years ago I had a nervous breakdown. At night I tossed restlessly in bed, unable to get any rest from sleep. In the morning I suffered from over-powering weakness. My appetite was poor. I grew pale, thin and despondent. A slight hacking cough also added to my burden.

"My doctor said to try Ferrozone, and it did me good in a few days. I increased in strength, the nervous sensations disappeared, and with my appetite came back my color and good spirits. I have gained over ten pounds in weight, and as my age is 56, I consider Ferrozone is a marvel." (Signed) Mrs. Edward Hill.

REMEMBER THIS: Ferrozone is a true tonic—not an alcoholic stimulant. Fifty chocolate-coated tablets in a box for fifty cents, or six boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or N. C. Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U. S. A., and Kingston, Ont.

C. P. R. IMPROVEMENT

"It is satisfactory to learn that besides building an immense number of additional box cars at the rate of fifteen a day, the Canadian Pacific Company has decided to lay a second track from Winnipeg to Lake Superior. The contract for this work has been let, and it is to be completed within three years. Long before that interval has elapsed, however, freight traffic will be greatly facilitated by the new line. By the fall of 1906 a great many miles of the new track should be laid in the middle of the section, so that trains may be able to pass each other without sidetracking for that purpose."—Toronto Globe

This step of the C.P.R. is certainly of the greatest importance, and must be noted with great public satisfaction. The estimate of railway men is that one double-track railway has a transportation capacity of from four to six times the capacity of a single-track road. This is due chiefly to the fact that there are no delays caused by trains bound in opposite directions having to lay by on switches or in yards to allow passage the other way. The traffic either way, on a double-track road, is unimpeded and continuous.

The double-tracking of the C.P.R. between Winnipeg and Lake Superior means that there will be a double-track from the heart of the North-West to the Atlantic Ocean—in other words, that the spout for the North-West grain will, as regards the C.P.R., be soon four to six times as large as now.

THE CITY BEAUTIFUL

Denver is a beautiful city; but the mayor of it is not quite satisfied with its appearance, and he has published some practical hints which will undoubtedly have a good effect upon the people. He says:

If your store front, residence or fence is dull or dingy, order it painted.

If your awning is old, torn or faded, get a new one.

If your sidewalk, fence or gate needs repairing, fix it.

Destroy the young weeds that are starting on your property, and on your neighbor's property.

If your advertising sign is old or faded, take it down and paint it.

Resolve never to throw paper in the streets.

Take all dandelions out of your lawn; they spoil its beauty.

Burn all the rubbish possible; allow no one to throw it on the streets, alleys or vacant lots.

Promise not to spit on the sidewalks.

Organize a block improvement society, and allow no weeds to grow on sidewalk area or vacant property in your block.

Ask your milkman, greengrocer, and expressmen to have their wagons painted.

Irrespective of the state of your house, make your lawn the finest.

Illuminate the front of your store in the business section.

Every effort put forth or dollar spent to improve our city's appearance will be returned twofold.

It is claimed that these suggestions have been cordially carried out by the people, and that they are perfectly delighted with the result.

Keene.

The Sons of Temperance last Saturday night got their park, and a succession of those weeks, feeling more refreshed after so much refreshment. At precisely seven o'clock Mooney Watts the president, took the chair and called the meeting to order. Fighting Archy moved that the brethren wear a pale green flower to show that they were not ashamed of their colors. Howden Doris rose to his feet and charged Fighting Archy with cutting the seats with a jack knife. Fighting Archy became very wrathful, and informed Howden that he would do just as he pleased with his own knife. Howden told him that he was laboring under a wrong impression and by god he would show him that he couldn't destroy the seats. He then ordered the president to impose a fine on Archy. The president fined him fifty dollars and costs, to be paid in two hours, or sixty days in jail. Fatty Drummond lodged a complaint against Farmer Skinner. He said Skinner ducked him several times while they were swimming. Skinner was fined two hundred dollars, and one day in jail. Banker Secombe rose and asked the brethren to allow ladies at their meetings. No, no, was the cry from all the brethren. Mufraw Elmhirst said that women were all right for housework, but were too loose tongued to keep secrets, so he objected to letting them attend the meetings. Secombe sucked his finger and certainly looked disappointed. Wolf Howson intimated to the members that a lawn mower was required to keep the lawn in order. Fighting Archy said he perfectly agreed with Wolf's suggestion, and asked that Howden Doris, Homer Risch and Tom Deackey be appointed to go to Montreal to purchase a first class machine. Merchant Campbell said it afforded him great pleasure to second Fighting Archy's motion. The motion was unanimously carried and the above brethren will leave for Montreal next week. Positive Leeget rose to his feet and asked the president how much money was in the treasury. The president informed Positive that there was one thousand eight hundred dollars and sixteen cents in the hands of the treasurer at present, and after all fines were paid it would reach up to about two thousand dollars and seven cents. Positive smiled sweetly and took his seat. Fatty Drummond said he was getting sleepy, and asked that the meeting be closed. The president asked Squire Scriver and Waxy McFarlane to sing the closing ode. They sang it with a reverence and the meeting was closed until next Saturday night at the usual hour.

God save the King.

$100 REWARD, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the North west Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendment thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

[1] At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

[2] If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

[3] If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

[4] If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or corresponding township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clause [2], [3] or [4] must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 30 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 80 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads or entitle them to patent on or before the 3rd of June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Offices in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba; or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

N. B.—In addition to Free Grant Lands, to which the Regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from railroad and other corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

How to Visit Colorado

Go first to Denver. It is the State capital, as well as the largest, wealthiest and most metropolitan city between the Missouri River and the Pacific Coast. The city itself is very interesting, and from it start practically all the trains over the various roads into the mountains.

Many of the most enjoyable one-day trips in Colorado begin and end at Denver. The cost of these little journeys is not great.

After you have familiarized yourself with Denver and its surroundings will be soon enough to decide where to go for the rest of your visit. The question must be considered from several standpoints—altitude, hotel accommodations, accessibility, amusements, etc.

Our Colorado literature will help you in deciding where to go and what to do. Sent free for the asking.

BLOOD DISEASES

If you inherited or contracted any Blood Disease you are never safe unless the virus or poison has been eradicated from the system. At times you see alarming symptoms, but live in hopes no serious results will follow. Have you any of the following symptoms? Sore throat, ulcers on the tongue or in the mouth, hair falling out, aching pains, itchiness of the skin, sores or blotches on the body, eyes red and smart, dyspeptic stomach, sexual weakness—enlarged glands. Don't trust to luck. Don't ruin your system with the old fogy treatment—mercury, potash and patent medicines, which suppress the symptoms for a time only to break out again when happy in domestic life. Don't let quacks experiment on you. Our NEW METHOD TREATMENT is guaranteed to cure you. OUR GUARANTEES ARE BACKED BY BANK BONDS that the blood or skin disease will never return. Thousands of patients have been already cured by our NEW METHOD TREATMENT for over 20 years, and no return of the disease. No experiment, no risk—not a "patch up," but a positive cure. The worst cases solicited.

HAD BLOOD POISON 12 YEARS

Before Treatment — After Treatment

Wm. H. Patterson, of Detroit, was another victim of the mercury and potash superstition, but like hundreds of others, he refused to be buncoed any longer, and especially of this kind, but I feel I owe this much to Drs. K. & K. for the great good they have done me. I had a serious blood disease when 24 years of age. The skin and blood symptoms gradually developed. Pimples and ulcers formed, sweeping sores broke out, hair became loose, pains in the bones and joints, dyspeptic stomach, foul breath, itchy skin, etc. It is needless for me to say I tried doctors. I grew to hate the looks of one. I visited Hot Springs twice for four months each time. It helped me temporarily, but in six months after returning home I was as bad as ever. Finally a doctor friend of mine advised me to see Drs. Kennedy & Kergan. He said he had known of them for over 20 years, and as they made a specialty of these diseases and treated the worst cases by the hundred they ought to be expert in curing them. I was afraid of advertising doctors, but I took his advice. They agreed to treat me under a guarantee . . . no pay. I investigated their financial standing and found they were perfectly responsible, so I commenced the new method Treatment. The eruptions disappeared in . . . weeks, the bone pains in four weeks and in four months I was entirely cured. Yes, sir, I can recommend the New Method Treatment for Blood and Skin Diseases."

To be opened September 1, 1905, unbeknown the latch on the "door of opportunity." Pull at the latch string and the door will open for you, no matter where you live or what your occupation. Colorado men—well known, reliable, experienced—have organized the Indiana Mining and Power Co. and provide ten thousand dollars capital by the sale of preferred stock, par value one dollar per share. Ordinarily a ground floor stock, if offered at all, is offered to get money with which to start, has no asset whatever behind it, and depends entirely on future developments for its value. Our proposition is different. We have started. Our stock owns an asset of property adjoining the reservation, consisting of 320 acres rich agricultural land, 280 shares of water in the first water right on the Uintah River and two lots (corner) blocks in the new town of Moffat, Utah. A late estimate of the value, $16,800.00, is sixteen dollars for every dollar that has invested and an asset fifty per cent greater than the entire issue to be sold at the price it is here offered; however, this is only the commencement of operations. With the additional capital to be secured by the sale of stock other valuable property will be added and the opening of the reservation will start a diversion, of which our six years continuous mining has laid the foundation. You never have such an opportunity as we now offer. We share with you the results of the expenditure of our own capital, our labor and the judgment that has been displayed in securing this extraordinary opportunity for a profitable investment. Every dollar subscribed will bring manifold returns.

A limited amount of the preferred stock is on sale at 5 cents per share, the ground floor price. An advance to 10 cents will soon be made. A square deal is guaranteed. Write for any further information or any reference desired. DO IT NOW

FRANCE TO BE GERMAN VASSAL

This is What the Kaiser is Striving For

AN OMINOUS FORECAST

Moroccan Tactics Will Be Repeatedly Attempted, Says Cheradame

Paris, July 28.—L'Energie Francaise, the new French weekly, published an article by M. Cheradame, the well known writer, giving his views upon the Moroccan situation. M. Cheradame in this article observes that what the Emperor William wants is the abandonment by France of a whole political system which embarrasses Pan-Germanic expansion. It has been plainly intimated to France that in Berlin the right for it to remain neutral is no longer recognized.

What is being attempted is to compel France, in the midst of peace, by constant pressure and threat of war which Germany does not in reality desire, henceforth to play the part of vassal towards the German empire. That, says M. Cheradame, is the naked truth.

The Moroccan affair may be settled for the present, but the development of the tactics revealed by William II. will certainly be repeatedly attempted, and the result will be a period of painful tension which will last for months and maybe for years. But M. Cheradame sees another danger. He declares that William II. may offer France a free hand in Morocco in exchange for money to construct the Bagdad railway, and that that is a possibility which requires vigilance. He recalls the fact that the railway from Constantinople to the Persian gulf, desired by William II., has not yet been built owing towant of funds. Fifteen months ago everything had been settled apparently for a considerable loan in France, but the project, for reasons now well known, fell through, and the Kaiser was intensely mortified in consequence.

WILL CHOLERA INVADE EUROPE?

Well Known French Doctor Says Epidemic is Sure

Paris, July 28.—Is Europe to have the horrors of a cholera invasion this year?

This question, which will cause a shudder of horror in any old people who remember the terrible visitation of 1848, is answered in the affirmative by Prof. Chantmesse, the eminent French doctor, who is director of the Paris hygienic bureau.

He points out that during the last four years cholera has been gradually advancing westward, and will probably invade Europe by four different routes; Firstly, through Moscow, St. Peterburg and the Baltic ports; secondly, through the Black sea, Odessa and Central Europe; thirdly through the Danube and the Balkan principalities, and lastly, through Constantinople and Italy. England is not included in the learned doctor's dismal prophecy, but he says that the British Isles are by no means immune from cholera.

So long ago as 1831 the whole country was scourged by it, and on its every was scourged by it and on its second visit in 1848-49 it carried off no fewer than 53,200 persons, 14,000 of whom were Londoners, a majority of whom were Londoners, a mortality in London of over 60 per 1,000 inhabitants.

Five years later it again spread desolation, London this time providing no fewer than half of the 20,000 victims.

In 1866 there was another big outbreak, and as lately as 1892 the disease again visited this country.

WEDNESDAY'S POLICE COURT

The aftermath of the trouble caused by John Mulhall, of Lakefield, at Messrs. McCollums livery barns, on Tuesday, was a fine of $5 and costs, or $9.00 altogether, at yesterday morning's police court. Mulhall, who was once a promising ball tosser of this city, was charged with being drunk and disorderly.

Bob LeBar, an employe of the barn, on the witness stand said that Mulhall came in to get a horse and rig, but being drunk, objection was made by LeBar, to entrusting a horse to a man in his condition. Mulhall caught hold of William Moffatt, who was in the barn, and began to pull him round. This precipitated a fight between the witness and the prisoner.

LeBar came out of the combat with a broken rib, while Mulhall's face was cut and his eye blackened. LeBar stated he had done his best to avert the trouble.

In imposing the penalty, his Worship told Mulhall he was letting him down light.

Yesterday afternoon about four o'clock a man by name Veloia, wound up a glorious jag in a particulary inglorious manner. Veloia had visited many of our local dispensaries of the glass that necessitate use of a shiny-horn the following morning when those who have emptied too many of them try to don their hats. Veloia chose a bad locality for a man in his state of hilarity, viz., the city buildings, whilst trying to hold up the city clerk's office wall, either he or the wall gave way, and he collapsed within 20 feet of the police station.

It was not many minutes before the inevitable crowd gathering, attracted attention from the guardians of the peace, and in very few more minutes, Veloia and his jag were prisoners. His language in the cell was not strictly parliamentary, nor his remarks concerning the local force exactly complimentary.

This morning he will explain matters to his Worship, i.e., if he (Veloia) has sufficiently recovered.

—William Campbell, a member of the Masonic Order of Port Hope, Ont., who was visiting at Canandaigua, N.Y., fell off a railway train on Tuesday night. He sustained internal injuries, and was removed to the Memorial Hospital, Canandaigua.

RATE TO BE DOUBLED

Steamship Companies Come to a Satisfactory Agreement

New York, July 28.—New York agents and many leading officials of steamship companies in the New York-Mediterranean service spent Saturday afternoon in conference on steerage rates, and at the close announced they had agreed upon all essentials of a rate schedule. As a result, steerage rates between all eastern ports of Europe and New York and Boston will be practically doubled as compared with the scale which has prevailed ever since the Cunard line included the territory of continental lines with its Hungarian service, although, in fact, action taken will be simply the restoration of rates to what they were before the war began.

IS JAPAN BEHIND BOYCOTT?

American Warehousemen Think That It Is Probable

Shanghai, July 28.—Now that the boycott on American goods has been begun in earnest, the Chinese guilds have taken a step that will practically close up the American Trading Company.

The agents of the large American firms have been ordered to leave their employees. To-day there was no kerosene on the market. At the same time the stevedore guild is threatening to discharge American kerosene ships.

There is a steadily growing opinion among the leading American warehouses that Japanese influence is secretly behind this movement.

An Accident at Lindsay

The Lindsay Post says: Last evening, while McConnell's steam yacht was nearing the mouth of the cut at this first lighthouse on the return trip from this Island, those on board espied a couple of young men named Scully and T. Flynn clinging to an upturned canoe. They picked the pair up and put them shipshape. Scully reported that the waves from Sadler & Carroll's yacht, which passed up a short time previously, caused the upset. They received a bad scare and a good wetting.

Child is Douro Kicked by a Colt

A correspondent writes from Douro that the little daughter of Dennis McCarthy met with a rather serious accident yesterday afternoon. She is only about seven years of age, and it appears that while on her way to a neighbor's, she was climbing through a fence, when a colt kicked her in the forehead, inflicting a nasty wound, which required several stitches. A doctor was summoned from Lakefield.

T. V. C. Buoys to be Renewed

Lindsay Post says: Under instructions issued by Mr. J. H. McClelland, superintendent of the Trent canal, the Government steamer King Edward has been renewing all damaged buoys and planting new ones between Sturgeon Point, Coboconk and Laidlaw's, at the Balsam Lake end of the canal. Steamboat men and launch owners will be grateful.

THE JAPANESE AND UNCLE SAM

Startling Statement Made by a San Francisco Man

MUST EXCLUDE THE JAP

A Trouble Will Thus Begin Between United States and Japan

Washington, July 28.—Russia has found it impossible to handle the Japanese question, but we in this country may have better luck if we begin in time. A prominent business man of San Francisco says: The Japanese are landing on our shores at the rate of from 1,000 to 2,000 every week, and with their coming our people do not rejoice so freely over Japanese victories as those who do not realize the new problems with which we have to deal. We do not like the Japanese. We are frank about it. We do not like them because we have found them not to be relied upon and because they take the bread out of the mouths of our own people. So great has become the storm against the Japanese that two big mass meetings have been held to protest against their coming and to indorse a law similar to that which excluded the Chinese. Of the tion plain, but as it is almost wholly the lower classes that come, we think we have a good grievance.

The Japanese question here will be complicated. Recently the Bureau of Statistics of the Treasury Department reported a statement showing that the trade of the United States with Japan had assumed considerable proportions and gives promise of steadily increasing. That is a fact which must be considered when steps are taken by Congress to restrict Japanese immigration to this country. Another fact of equal significance is the eagerness displayed by American capitalists and investors to buy Japanese bonds on the two occasions on which these securities have been offered for sale in this market. Last week the bonds offered in this country were oversubscribed many times, Americans having apparently as great faith in the stability of Japanese finances as Englishmen and Germans.

Mice Solve Mystery..

A Mouse's Nest in the Old Burnham Homestead, Contains Money, Supposedly Stolen

Mr. and Mrs. Fee who recently occupied that house, so many years the residence of the late Mr. Elias Ingelsam, on the corner of Park and Charlotte streets, some weeks ago [illegible] their loss to theft.

For some time past Mr. John Williams and his assistants have been preparing to have the mansion moved to another foundation some distance further west. With this object in view it was necessary to take out the old brick and stone chimneys, which ran from the cellar clear to the roof.

The other day, while Mr. Williams was excavating on the chimney at the north end of the house, he came upon the abode of a numbty of mice. The nest was composed principally of paper, which had been torn into small particles. It was well that the clump of rubbish attracted a second glance, for Mr. Williams extracted from the mass a five dollar bill, then another, and finally half of a third—two dollars and a half. Just how long it took the mice to save up this amount, it was impossible to explore. The bills were dated 1897, so it was evident that the recent occupants of the house, Mr. and Mrs. Fee, were undoubtedly the owners.

The remaining half of the $1 bill was subsequently recovered in another mouse's nest in the kitchen chimney.

The money has been returned to Mr. Fee, who remembers having hid the money under a carpet for safety. All this goes to prove that "The best of plans with mice and men go, etc."

Mr. Williams will veneer the old house with brick and separate the building into two houses.

Work Resumed.

Positive Evidence That the Post Office Addition will be Advanced Another Stage.

After weary months of talk, and weaeier weeks of deferred hopes, work has at last begun again on the cupboard to the north of our Government building, corner of Hunter and Water streets.

It is an old saw that "Government wheels grind slow," but yesterday many of our citizens saw, with amazement, that work, real actual work, was in progress on the Post Office addition. One gentleman, who the preceding evening had "been out with the boys" happened, when passing the yard to notice that scaffolding had been erected and a man at work on the top of it, believing this to be but "a false creation of the brain oppressed brain," or the nemesis of last night's hilarity mocking him, the convivial one entered the yard and felt one of the scaffold poles to see if it be real or a fantasy. He, at once, went to a nearby caravansery and took a "bracer" to steady his nerves and clear the cobwebs from his brains. On returning to the Post Office yard, he once more felt the scaffolding and cried "Thanks be to the Powers at Ottawa, they have taken another crack at that building before the contractor and this present generation died of senility!" Let us hope that the good work will go forward for at least a week before another rest of months be taken. It is unjust to the party in power to insinuate that this job will be dilly-dallied with for four more years; there is not enough in this extension of 27 1-4 inches to purchase votes.

Bowmanville Takes the Purse of $200

A good bunch of supporters journeyed to Oshawa yesterday by special train to witness the ball game between Bowmanville and the local nine for a purse of $200. But the crowd had their enthusiasm dampened early in the game, when the Bowmanville stickers began to pound Douglas all over the lot, and he had to be replaced by Quinlan who pitched winning ball but the game was lost before he went into the box. Shayne, at third base, also had to be taken out of the game and T. Pilling went on. The score at the finish read Peterboro 2, Bowmanville 10.

This special arrived home about 9.20.

Mr. Peter Duignan, St. Louis, Mo., Returns to the City of His Boyhood Days.

Mr. Peter Duignan, who in 1874 entered the dry goods store then operated by Mr. Jas. Dolan, and was afterwards with Messrs. Rush and Elliott, but now of St. Louis, Mo., is in the city renewing acquaintance with old friends of his earlier days.

Mr. Duignan, who has not been in Peterboro for over 30 years, remarked that Peterboro is a very different looking place to what it was in his time when the merchants used every night to put up heavy wooden shutters in front of their store windows. He will remain in the city for three weeks.

A Quiet Wedding.

On Wednesday afternoon a quiet wedding was performed by Rev. J. G. Lewis, B.A., pastor of Mark street Methodist Church, at the residence of Mr. Harry Castle, Mark street, when Mr. James Newall, of Peterboro, was married to Miss Eunice Middleton, of Warsaw. Mr. and Mrs. Newall will reside in Peterboro.

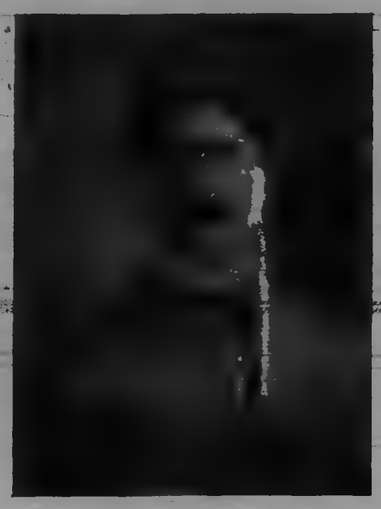
ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES.

TEN YEARS



The Story of My Wonderful Success.

Reads Like a Fairy Tale—Yet Full of Convincing Truths

An Opportunity of a Lifetime for the Investor.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF IT.

I ask every reader of this paper to write me. I want to send you my free book entitled "Ten Years"—"The Story of My Wonderful Success." It tells about one of the greatest and most promising investment opportunities ever offered. It tells how my business grew from less than $25.00 capital to its present proportions.

I believe I have the best proposition from an investor's standpoint that could be placed before you. For ten years I have been teaching men and women to live according to the laws of Nature. My book is the history of my life. It shows what energy and ambition can accomplish in the world of affairs. It is intensely interesting to any man or woman who has a few dollars to invest in a legitimate enterprise.

I started business in the City of Brooklyn in 1896. My capital amounted to less than $25.00. My first years business netted me over $1,000.00. Last year I paid dividends to my partners of 15 per cent. Five years ago my business had grown so large that I was compelled to remove to larger quarters. I am now at 63-65 Clark St., Brooklyn, N.Y.—in connection with Hotel St. George. Experts pronounce my institution to be the best appointed of its kind in the country. I estimate the equipment of the Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture to be worth at least $40,000.00.

I want to have a building of my own that will enable me to accommodate my increasing business. To erect this building I need capital, but more important than this to increase my business to the proportions which I desire, I need the co-operation of men and women throughout the country and the world.

Co-operation is the Secret of Success

I recognize it. I believe that with thousands of co-operators throughout the country I can build my business to tremendous proportions to the benefit of the shareholders and myself.

The Mac Levy Company is incorporated under the laws of New York for $150,000.00. They are proprietors of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

The last named branch of the business of the Mac Levy Company is comparatively new. I have been at work for several years to establish such a department in connection with teaching Physical Culture. The most difficult part of forming the Equipment Company has been accomplished. The business is now in condition to be pushed on a large scale. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are spent yearly on new gymnasiums and their equipment. The profits are large. A company of this kind has an immense field in which to work. Competition is slight. It is evident that the Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company can build an enormous business.

The Mac Levy Company operates during the summer months at Steeplechase Park, Coney Island, and at Averne Hotel, Averne-by-the-Sea, L. I., as well as at our Brooklyn Institute. I also does an extensive mail business. I teach people how they should live and exercise. My students are scattered all over the United States, and in English speaking countries.

A PROBLEM

which arrises in the minds of every man and woman is how to secure a comfortable income in the earlier years of their life, that they may reap the full benefits which such an income affords.

I have long thought that there are hundreds of people in moderate circumstances who would like to invest a few dollars in an Institution of this kind. It is to such people that I intend this announcement shall appeal. I am offering a block of the Treasury Stock of this company to the public at its par value. My reasons for doing this are that I wish to erect a building and to extend the business of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

I WANT YOU AS MY PARTNER

I need your help and suggestion. I want you to work with me and help me to secure a tremendous amount of new business.

I believe that if you could talk with me personally and go over the records of the business which I have done, see in black and white the figures which show the steady growth my business has experienced during the past ten years, examine my plans for future extension, and then look over the magnificent equipment of my Institute, and would want no further evidence that money put into my business would bring you the greatest possible returns consistent with safety and good management.

I ask you to write for my free book. I believe it will interest you. You have a few dollars that you want to invest. Why let it stand idle earning only 3 or 4 per cent that Savings Bank pay their depositors? Put it to work. Join it with mine. This Company ought to pay at least.

Kaiser Saw Czar to Prevent Understanding Between the Lion and the Bear--Closeness of the Ties Uniting Germany and Russia

London, July 29.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times telegraphed last night;

"I am assured on the best authority that one of the objects of the Kaiser's visit to the Czar was to discourage him from entering upon an understanding with England. Indeed my informant, who is in an excellent position to know, declares that Emperor William, so theatrically arranged this meeting with the Czar at this particular juncture, chiefly to show the world the closeness of the ties uniting Germany and Russia, and the consequent difficulty of including Germany's rival within the scope of a dual alliance. The Imperial meeting at Bjorkoe thus becomes the logical sequence of the visit to Tangier.

"The latter was directed towards bringing about an entente cordiale between France and England, the former to prevent the development of the recent good feeling between England and Russia. It must be confessed that this view is consistent with the events of the present day, notably the departure of M. Witte as peace negotiator, which would not have escaped the Kaiser's vigilant eye.

"Peace, and a possible understanding with Japan, which would be advocated by Mr. Witte, would infallibly bring Japan and her ally into closer relations with Russia, therefore it became necessary to prevent the dreaded Anglo-Russia entente in Asia, all the more so in view of the failure to underfine the Anglo-French understanding. Such broadly speaking, were the Kaiser's motives in going to Bjorkoe, as set forth by a high official of the Foreign Office.

Other Clergy Bit.

Mitchell, in Jail Here for Playing a Confidence Game on Local Clergy, Operated in Montreal.

Some amusement, but more frequently, disgust was excited in the minds of our citizens over the manner in which Thomas Mitchell, a smooth young Englishman, worked a "con game" on several of our local clergy of various denominations.

Mitchell who is now serving three months in the county jail, protested vehemently that he had never worked the same game elsewhere, but a letter received yesterday by Rev. J. G. Potter, shows to the contrary. The letter reads:

45 Elm avenue,
Westmount, Que., July 26, 1905.

Rev. Mr. Potter,—

Dear Sir,— Regarding a "Thomas Mitchell," who has been in Peterboro, permit me to state that he called for me, and said that he was from Ayr, in Scotland, the son of an officer in the Scotch Fusiliers; that he had been in the choir of Dr. McTavish's church, Toronto, in Lorneville, in Kingston hospital; and that Dr. McT. had promised to send letters of communication to the Rev. Mr. Oxley here; that he had called for Mr. O. but found him away from town, and that Mr. Carter had sent him to me; that he had secured board at Hillside avenue, but owing to expense in this hospital, he had not enough to lift his trunk from the express; that next day he was to begin work at the G.T. or C.P. offices, at $38 per month, and if I would lend him $1.10 he would pay it back on Saturday. I did so. He did not call according to promise, and having seen his name, and a raid on you and others in Peterboro, I concluded that he is the Thos. Mitchell who was here. His visit here was on the 18th. He said when he applied for the situation Dr. McTavish's letter had not reached him, but the party to whom he applied sent a telegram to Dr. McTavish and found all satisfactory. He also showed me the express shipping bill for his trunk. He was young and well dressed. His story was plausible, and though I was somewhat doubtful I thought his need so small that I could not go far astray in helping him. It is my first fall into the dodger's net. His youth, dress and the use of Dr. McTavish's name removed any suspicion from my mind. I asked Mr. Bowyer to call on Mr. Carter and arrange to be in the choir on Sabbath. Mr. Carter is an elder in Mr. Oxley's church, and I am supplying for a few Sabbaths. I feel very sorry to think that one so young should try in a land where plenty of work is to be had, to live by such means. He did not call on Mr. Carter, and I do not expect my $1.10.

Yours truly,
Wm. Patrick Walker.

Japan's Peace Terms, Strong Demands.

She Will Not Fortify Port Arthur if Vladivostok is Made a Neutral Port--Japan will Offer Few Sacrifices.

Washington, July 29.—As a clearer idea is gained of Japan's peace terms, the skepticism with which Washington received the European reports that Japan would demand the neutralization of Vladivostok, is lessened. In fact, it is learned that not only is this likely to constitute one of Japan's demands, but it will be accompanied by a startling counter proposal. In effect, according to a seemingly well informed source, Japan will propose in return for the neutralization of this last Russian port on the Pacific not to fortify Port Arthur.

Should this information prove correct it will entirely change the view which has prevailed in official circles that the question of Vladivostok's neutralization could not be reasonably made a part of Japan's peace price. It is pointed out that while the war has demonstrated that Port Arthur was a military blunder, nevertheless this great fortification constitutes a tremendous political influence in the Far Eastern question, and its abandonment as a strong hold is a concession of such magnitude that it is not felt Russia can refuse to meet it.

On the other hand, Japan's sacrifice would not be as great as seems at first glance, because her fortification of the Straits of Korea would offset the loss of Porth Arthur as a strategic point. It is believed here that the question of Vladivostok will prove to be one of the most difficult which the conference will face, as Russia has not concealed her disclination to permit it to enter into the negotiations. In this connection an interesting story is current in diplomatic circles regarding the selection of Baron Komura as Japan's chief plenipotentiary. According to this story Japan had badly less trouble than did Russia in finding an official willing to undertake this delicate mission.

Fear of Germany Grows in Europe

Feeling That Germany Expand, by First Annexing Holland and Then Austria or Hungary--A Terrible War Would be Outcome.

Berlin, July 29.—The isolation of Germany in the foreign affairs of the world is just beginning to be understood here. As a German Socialist, whose name is a household word, has phrased it: "Our position is one of gloomy grandeur."

The defeat of the Russians by the Japanese has practically destroyed the usefulness to the French of their alliance with Russia, and has untied Germany's hands by taking away the possibility of an invasion of her eastern frontiers should she at any time embark upon another war with France.

Not unreasonably the Berlin Government has reckoned without King Edward. The "entente cordiale," to some extent rubbed the Kaiser of the advantage that the weakening of France gave him, but the events that have happened have shown that the statesmanship at Berlin in some ways has been sufficient to take advantage of the undoubted mistakes of M. Delcasse, and to get over this apparent set-back.

There is no doubt but that M. Delcasse made a great tactical mistake in not advising the German Government of the Anglo-French arrangement as far as it concerned Morocco, and in obtaining, as he certainly would have done, German acquiescence in its clauses.

It is now quite generally believed that all that Germany ever intended to do was to bring about the strengthening of German prestige in Morocco and a consequent weakening of the prestige of both France and England. It has at the same time had the further effect of carrying forward one of the Kaiser's pet schemes by increasing his influence among the Mahometan Powers.

The fear of Germany, which is always present in France, which is common in nearly all of the countries on the continent of Europe, which is daily stronger in England and which exists even in the United States, is undoubtedly based on the fact that at the present time Germany is the only power which desires and which, indeed, may fairly be said to need territorial expansion. Whether one likes him or not, the modern German is a virile person with a capacity and an ambition, and at the same time possessing a sovereign who in himself may be said to accurately epitomise the national spirit.

Germany today is much as England was when she overflowed her borders and sent her sons east and west to create an Empire on which the sun never sets. The German ambition is first of all to dominate in the councils of Europe, and that domination is in a measure now being achieved.

GERMAN EXPANSION.

Territorially her ambitions are to absorb Holland so that she may attain a seaboard on the North Sea, and she has always anticipated that the death of Emperor Francis Joseph will result in the break-up of the Austrian Empire and in the absorption of Austria into the German Empire, and the beginning of Germany as a Mediterranean power.

When Germany reaches the Mediterranean she will come more closely into touch with Turkey, where the Sultan is already disposed to regard his brother at Berlin as his best friend. The present situation at Budapest, and the evident ambition of the Hungarians to follow the example of the Norwegians and break away entirely from the Dual Monarchy tends to make this last extension of German territory nearer a possibility. For nearly forty years the Emperor Francis Joseph has kept the peace between the two chief countries—widely divergent in national characteristics, in language and point of view of the Austro-Hungary Monarchy.

If the Hungarians should cut loose if the Austrians should demonstrate what the world suspects—that they are not of the same equable temperament as the Swedes, it is almost certain that the revolution must end in war. However this war may result, both of the contending parties must certainly be weakened, and as Russia is not able to take advantage in her usual way, of the misfortunes of her neighbors, a civil war in Austria must be to the advantage of Germany, and must hasten the day when at least the German speaking part of the country is incorporated in the German Empire.

What will become of Hungary is a difficult problem to forecast. Two things are certain—one that Hungary will contend eagerly to retain its freedom, and the other that the powers at Berlin will seek to swallow it, as they swallowed Schleswig-Holstein, and as they hope one day to swallow Holland.

At the same time it would be a mistake to imagine that the Turk likes the German any more than the Russian likes him or the Dane likes him. The Sublime Porte entertains a far higher opinion of England and France and even now it would be a matter of no great difficulty for these powers to checkmate the Kaiser at Constantinople, though recent events in Morocco are evidence of the agility of his diplomacy. But it looks as though Germany was really the only practical enemy of European peace. No one else can want war, no one else can possibly profit by it. Her fleet is upon Japan to cancel all future menace to Great Britain, her army is a menace to France. Perhaps the only combination the Kaiser really fears and that would prevent the fruition of his schemes would be an alliance between England, France and a resuscitated Russia backed by the good will of the trade for fighting strength near smaller Powers. This was the goal at which M. Delcasse always aimed, and it would appear as though it might not be an impossibility, especially if the war with Japan should bring Russia a constitution and bring her Government more in accord with the governments of other Powers.

THE official tests by the Inland Revenue Department of the Canadian Government show the Royal to be a pure baking powder, superior to all others in leavening strength.

It therefore makes purer, more wholesome and economical food than any other baking powder or leavening agent.

Royal Baking Powder is more convenient for use than cream of tartar and soda and makes finer-flavored food.

DANGERS EXPOSED BY KAISER'S MOVE

Far Reaching Effects Follow Germany's Recent Diplomatic Attacks on France

SECRET FORCES AT WORK

"Incoming Regime in Russia" May Indicate Exit of Romanoffs and Entrance of People

London, June 29.—It is now possible to outline some of the far reaching effects of Germany's sensational diplomatic attacks upon France, and the Kaiser's other attempts to take davantage of Russia's impotence in Europe. It already has been indicated that the check put upon German aggression was due chiefly to British initiative. The prompt and substantial success which already has attended English efforts in this direction, constitutes one of the most remarkable accomplishments of modern diplomacy.

The German-French crisis is by no means settled, but the German attitude already has changed from provocative aggression to moderate conciliation. Fresh retaliation may yet come from Berlin, but it is the present view in diplomatic circles, outside of Germany, that the Kaiser over-reached himself, alarmed the nations, and aroused the greater part of the world against him to little purpose. Never was the machinery of European diplomacy so active as now, and the sole object of international endeavor seems to be to devise some effective plan to restrain the vaulting ambition of the German Emperor.

SIGNIFICANT ANTI-KAISER MOVES.

Certain important developments may be specified. First, the terms of the extended Anglo-Japanese treaty have been definitely agreed upon. The announcement of their nature may be expected shortly. Second—Because of this and because she can want war, no one else can cause she is confident she may rely possibly on it. Her fleet is upon Japan to cancel all future ambitions in the far east. Great Britain feels less unwilling to allow Russia to seek certain expansion in the near east with the object of holding back the Kaiser.

Third—Great Britain is taking most active measures to concentrate her fighting strength near home.

Fourth—The incoming regime of Russia is full of fear of the Kaiser, since he recently has shown his hand, and is anxious to unite with France and England to check German aggression.

Fifth—The plans to do this, without creating a false impression in Germany that an aggressive anti-German coalition is coming into being, are occupying the attention of diplomats of western Europe and other countries.

The foregoing outline of history in the making is almost the exact words of a diplomat who has full knowledge of the inner facts of the great crisis through which the world is passing. It requires some reading between the lines in order to appreciate its stupendous significance.

LESSONS BETWEEN THE LINES.

What, for instance, is the meaning of the phrase, "the incoming regime of Russia," and when may its advent be expected? If the amazing drama at Odessa and the signs of military disaffection elsewhere mean anything, they signify that Russia's critical hour is about at hand. Will the Roumanoff dynasty survive it or, is the present order of things to be swept away?

These answers to these fateful questions cannot be suggested. All is not chaos in the plans for saving this stricken nation. Important factors are at work, no hint of whose existence has reached the outside world. The peace with Japan, when it comes, will not be signed by the present Russian government, or rather it will be ratified by the direct representatives of the Russian people.

PERILOUS DAYS AHEAD FOR EUROPE.

It would be unwise to discuss the details of any plans under consideration for safeguarding the peace of Europe during the perilous days which will witness the regeneration of Russia in the settlement of the far eastern problem. Emperor William less done the world a service in demonstrating how imminent and how great some of the dangers are. He made one serious mistake from his own point of view in assuming that England's hatred of war at the present moment would make Great Britain pusillanimous, if he attacked her indirectly through France.

It is scarcely a paradox to say that England's love of peace today is so strong that she is willing to make war against war, and she completely abandoned her traditional policy of isolation, as she believes the United States should do also, solely in the interests of peace. She frankly communicated these views to President Roosevelt.

EPIDEMIC OF CEREBRO SPINAL MENINGITIS.

In the Ottawa Valley--The Chief Provincial Health Declares It Contagious and Takes Steps to Combat It.

Toronto, July 29.—An outbreak of cerebro spinal meningtis is rampant in the vicinity of the village of Carp, in Carleton County, and Dr. C. A. Hodgetts, secretary of the Provincial Board of Health, spent yesterday in the locality. One doctor is attending 11 cases, and four deaths have already occurred. Dr. Hodgetts has decided that the disease must be regarded as contagious, and has taken advantage of a general clause in the Act that gives him power to have such cases placed under quarantine, the same as smallpox, scarlet fever, or the other well-known contagious diseases.

"It is certainly communicable under certain conditions," he said today.

He has information which leads him to believe that the disease has a considerable distribution over the Ottawa valley on both sides of the river. He met one doctor who has had six deaths in one family.

A Narrow Escape

Mr. Thos. Stenson Narrowly Escapes Being Wound Up in a C.G.E. Company Shafting.

On Thursday, a young man, by name Thomas Stinson, who is employed as an oiler at the Canadian General Electric Company's Works, had a narrow escape, from what looked, for the moment, as certain death or at least mutilation. Mr. Stinson who has only been a short time in the city was oiling the machinery, when his sleeve caught in a belt and almost before he knew what had happened, the sleeve was torn to the shoulder, and was being wound around the shaft.

Fortunately the other men in the shop saw the danger in which he was in, and shut off the power immediately and the young man was cut down. It is stated had the shafting not been stopped just at the time that it was, Mr. Stinson would have been seriously, if not fatally, injured, as he would have been wound around the revolving shaft.

As it was his was not injured beyond a few bruises, but the shock was such that as soon as he was released from the shafting he fell to the floor unconscious.

He was better yesterday, however, and is working as usual.

Sale of Illicit Furs

Mr. Fitzgerald, Game Warden for Eastern Ontario, Gets $600 for Beaver Skins

As noted in these columns some months ago, Mr. G. W. Fitzgerald, the new game warden for Eastern Ontario, seized about one hundred and thirty beaver skins in a shed in the city.

Mr. Fitzgerald has disposed of the skins, and yesterday they were sent to Toronto where they had been sold for $600. Mr. Fitzgerald had been offered a good sum for the skins by a local firm but the department in Toronto had been offered 10 per cent. better than that which he secured here, and consequently their offer was accepted.

Mr. Fitzgerald has already made enough for the department to pay his whole year's salary, so that he is apparently proving a valuable man in the position.

But because he had done so well up to now, there is no reason to believe that his efforts will be relaxed in the future.

Runaway Accident

Mr. Blodgett Throws from Watering Cart Yesterday

Yesterday afternoon, as Mr. Blodgett, who drives the sprinkling cart which gives the housewives on Water street, a partial rest from the ubiquitous dust, met with an accident that might easily have proven fatal. As the cart neared the corner of Antrim and Water streets, a bolt holding the whiffle-trees to the main body of the sprinkler, either jumped from its place or was broken, and the resultant jar, as the body of the outfit suddenly stopped, threw Mr. Blodgett from his lofty perch, where he both drives his team and operates the flow of water. As he passed, Mr. Blodgett fell the some six or seven feet, alight ing partly on his head; the shock rendered him partly unconscious for some minutes. When the bolt gave way, the whiffletrees, coming unexpectedly against the team's hind legs, caused them to run away, and they continued their wild career for some blocks before being stopped.

FIERCE RUSH FOR TEN CENT SHIRTS

Pittsburg Store Wrecked by Three Thousand Women Bargain Hunters

MANY OF THEM INJURED

Ambulances Were Called Out, and Police had a Merry Time—Riot Call Turned in

Pittsburg, July 29. — Trampling each other and ripping skirts and waists to shreds, about 3,000 women fought like demons in a big fifth avenue store here to get ten-cent shirts for their husbands, brothers and best fellows. Eight of the women are hurt seriously and hundreds, after they had emerged from the crush, looked as if they had passed through a threshing machine. Hair down, hats awry, clothes in rags, many of them presented pictures that are classified under the denomination "Unfit for publication." Never was the extravagance of economy better illustrated.

The shrieks of the injured, the screams of the successful in their struggle to regain the prizes they had captured, together with the awful sights that met their gaze when they rushed to the scene, so terrified the policemen on the beat that they sent in a riot call and sounded an alarm that brought out all the ambulances in the city.

In the fierce battle the ten-cent shirt counter was overturned and its contents disappeared as if by magic.

The cause of all the trouble was an advertisement in some of the local papers announcing that the store in question would have extraordinary bargains. "Shirts 10c., overalls 10c.," proved literally to be "pieces de resistance." Such an opportunity apparently never before had been afforded the thrifty housewives of this smoky city, where the wear and tear on linen is so severe. As if with one accord they flew to the scene bright and early, and immediately the battle was on.

Japan's Peace Terms, Strong Demands.

She Will Not Fortify Port Arthur if Vladivostok is Made a Neutral Port--Japan will Offer Few Sacrifices.

The managers of the store had expected a rush as the result of their catch-penny device, but in their wildest moments they never dreamed of anything like that which ensued. A wrecked shop has made them wiser and sadder men.

In the casualty list, among those injured more severely, are Mrs. Mary Hoover, of Pride street, weight 300 pounds, and famous among her friends as a champion bargain hunter. She fell early in the fray. That speaks volumes among those who know the fierceness of the engagement. Her nodding plume, like that of Henry of Navarre, had been seen in the forefront from the beginning. When it disappeared as she dropped fainting, the surging crowd behind became panic-stricken. Their leader down, the 3,000 made a rush to get out, as if they had learned suddenly that the place was plague infested. In two minutes the interior of the store was a wreck. Hundreds of the weaker women were knocked down and trampled, the overalls and shirts, together with many other articles of value, were scattered, and the stronger armed reaped the harvest.

Police Lieutenant Grimes with the reserve squad reached the store quickly and tried to check the frenzied women, who were still struggling frantically inside. Grimes threw himself into the mass, and although he is six feet three and weighs 300 pounds, he sent up the distress signal inside of two seconds and was pulled out by his men minus a portion of his uniform. His cap has not been found yet.

With herd work the police squad managed to clear the store after about twenty minutes' struggle, but it was an hour before several of the women who had been trampled were able to go to their homes.

OFFICIALS
Chief of Police, G.L. Reed
Magistrate, D.W. Dentiste

The first case placed on the scales of Justice yesterday was that of a boy charged with having obtained something for nothing, and which exchange is generally given a more harsh appelation. The case was enlarged.

James English, not the popular excivic official, was charged with dosivic official, was charged with disThere had been a scrap near the Lock Works, Simcoe street, the preceding day, and James was supposed to have had a hand in the trouble, as he showed every symptom of running away when an officer showed up on the scene. The evidence however was not conclusive, so English was discharged.

About ten o'clock yesterday morning a young English man, named Wilson T. Crowthers, who had been hod-carrying for a local bricklayer, got into a dispute with an old man, named Roddy, and promptly proceeded to clinch the argument by knocking the old man down. The blow was a hard one, and when placed on the countenance of a man who claims 1829 as his natal year, had the effect of rendering him almost unconscious. The two men were promptly arrested and placed in an improvised patrol wagon, McCollum Brother's Chemong omnibus, and taken to the cells.

The old man Roddy claims Cavan as his residence.

A special session of the court was held this afternoon at 3.30 to try the Crowthers-Roddy case, when Crowthers pleaded guilty to committing an assault on Roddy. Roddy when brought into court had not yet shaken off the effects of his morning jag and was in a semi-stupid condition.

The Magistrate said evidence would have to be taken, and a leading mining agent was called. He said he saw Roddy sitting on a doorway near office on Water street. He testified that the prisoner had tied up a bag of clothing the old man had been scattered broadcast, and had tried to get Roddy to go home lest the police should arrest him. He saw Roddy make for the prisoner with knife in his hand. Did not hear the dispute, but saw prisoner strike the old man and then saw him fall to the pavement.

Another witness saw Roddy struck and then he, Roddy, fell backwards on the pavement.

An employe of a local hotel had seen Roddy intoxicated the preceding evening, and had to turn him out of the hotel three times.

The Chief swore that Mr. Dennistoun had telephoned him about 11 o'clock yesterday noon, that there was trouble on Water street near the Big Dipper Mining Company's office, and at once whistled for P.C. Adams. Saw the old man backing away from the prisoner and then saw prisoner strike him, knocking him down.

The prisoner next went into the witness box, and said he had picked up Roddy's clothing for him, and advised him to go home. Roddy called him a Papist ——————, and struck him. In reply to a question by his Worship, the prisoner said he was a Methodist. His Worship then wanted to know where the insult came in.

In summing up the case, his Worship, acknowledged that the prisoner had tried to help Roddy, but blamed him for striking a drunken old man, unable to defend himself and imposed a fine of $2.

After the case against the prisoner was settled, some arrangement had to be made as to disposing of Roddy, who was still too drunk to look after himself. On ascertaining that Roddy had no money with him, the Magistrate sent him up on the hill for a few days to get him sobered up.

Larger Attendance Than Ever Listen to the Band in Victoria Park

Yesterday evening, the comparatively cool weather, following on the tropical heat of the day, brought out what was perhaps the largest crowd Victoria Park has been patronized by this season. The well lighted paths were used as promenades by hundreds of people, who under the old conditions, of darkness and danger, would have either stayed away or huddled close to the band stand. A particularly good program was given, as follows:

March—American Republic.
Overture—Martha.
Intermezzo.
Medley—Minstrel Songs.
March—Vanguard.
Selection—Holty Tolty.
Waltz—Under the Rose.
Medley—Explorer.

At night I would waken with terrible palpitation and heart pains. Work became a great effort. At ten in the morning I was so tired and weak I could hardly work another minute.

"Then came a bad attack of rheumatism which laid me up in bed. I could scarcely lift the weight of a pound and to stoop or bend was impossible. My druggist recommended Ferrozone, and he knew what he was talking about, for it rebuilt my strength, gave me abundant appetite, better blood, and new nerve energy. The rheumatism has disappeared. THE PARLIAMENTARY GRAB

Newspaper criticism of the Parliamentary salary grab includes considerable special objection to the Senate's share in the spoils. Of course, the Senate had nothing to do with the initiation of the proposal to increase the Parliamentary indemnity to $2,500, as the Senate has no power to propose money bills. The Ottawa Journal thinks that the criticism is that whatever may be the excuse the Commoners had in the way of work for making the grab, the Senate has no just claim to increased pay, because its work or at least its talking is much lighter. The Senate did not, during the past session, sit one-third of the time the Commons did.

Probably enough the Commoners did not think the Senators entitled to an increase; but the Commoners would not dare to say so, because although the Senate cannot initiate money bills, it can reject them; and if the House of Commons had not included the upper chamber in the proceeds of this indemnity grab, the Senate would undoubtedly have thrown out the salary bill — and thereby earned the thanks of a grateful country.

But the Senate, as it is constitutionally placed at present, is a useless body which is not only not worth $2,500 salary per head and found, but is worth nothing at all! It is a mere partisan registering machine. Surely if the country is come to pay so much for it, there should be some value — surely the leaders of the two political parties should make some honest and resolute effort to co-operate either to abolish the at present useless and not very dignified body, or to recast it so that it will become worth while.

CAN RUSSIA PAY?

What is the security back of these thousands of millions which the Czar of Russia and the Grand Ducal ring are borrowing to carry on their war with Japan? For it is their war and in no sense the war of the Russian people, since the densely ignorant Russians are, as usual, lethargic and the intelligent Russians are against the war.

Russia has a vast superficial area, but all but a small part of its best land is owned by the Romanoffs. Its taxpaying people could not contribute enough for the Government's expenditures before the war began —it was each year an annual deficit of many millions. Many hundreds of thousands of the best of these tax-payers have been killed or incapacitated by the war. Finally, whether or no there is a political revolution in Russia, there must be a fiscal revolution. Before the war began Russia's debt was almost four billions of dollars —a staggering load for even a rich people to carry, an impossible burden for Russia's impoverished and ignorant millions, unskilled and therefore only feebly productive.

The ring of powerful bankers that is holding up the price of Russian securities," and working them off on the small investors of the world, is engaged in a gambling game that looks very like—"bunko."

Craig House at Lakefield Brings This Tidy Sum.

As noted in a former issue of The Times, the Craig House, of Lakefield, an hotel known well and favorably throughout the province, was recently sold by Mr. Jas. Allen, late of the C.P.R. Hotel, city, to Messrs Lawless and Spellman. Mr. Allen arrived in the city yesterday, and informed a Times' representative that the new proprietors had on Wednesday taken possession, and that they started under most auspicious circumstances, the house being crowded and every department paying, as between 80 and 100 guests resumed in the hotel over night.

A large number of Americans and Canadians from distant parts were passing through the village en route to Stony Lake, many of whom became guests at the hotel. They spoke in complimentary terms of the satisfactory service and cuisine.

It is understood that the price paid Mr. Allan was $14,000, exclusive of the stock on hand and improvements which he had made while in possession. The whole house was overhauled and redecorated. These improvements have done much to impress transient visitors and boarders with the up-to-date comforts and convenience of the house.

Mr. Allan has not yet decided what he will next engage in, but it is not likely that he will remain long out of harness.

Messrs. Lawless & Spellman are well spoken of as practical young hotel men, and their chances are said to be good for making a first-class reputation for this fine house by the large tourist and other travel which it can command.

A Suspicious Case

Mr. McGregor, Said to Belong Here, Found Unconscious and Bleeding

A report was received here yesterday afternoon from Madoc, concerning a commercial man, who it is alleged once lived here, but who is now travelling for the Dominion Paper Co., of Montreal.

It appears that Mr. McGregor was found on Tuesday night about 10.30 on the road between Ivanhoe and Madoc, in an insensible condition, with blood oozing from his mouth and nose. A horse and buggy were standing on the road near by, and at first glance it was thought that Mr. McGregor had met with foul play and that he was dead.

Cold water applied to his face, however, revived him, but to all inquiries as to how he came to be in that condition he refused to answer, stating simply that he had had a slight hemorrhage, and that he was feeling all right, except that he was weak, from the loss of blood. While he was in a very weak condition, Mr. McGregor insisted on continuing on his journey, and displayed great powers of endurance.

Mr. McGregor is a native of Montreal, but for some time it is stated, had lived in Peterboro.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even-numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section or 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg or the local agents for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendment thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

[1] At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefer he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

[2] If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

[3] If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

[4] If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses [2], [3] or [4] must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 30 head of cattle, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 80 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd of June, 1892.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Offices in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories; information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

N. B.—In addition to Free Grant Lands, to which the Regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from railroad and other corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

How to Visit Colorado

Go first to Denver. It is the State capital, as well as the largest, wealthiest and most metropolitan city between the Missouri River and the Pacific Coast. The city itself is very interesting, and from it start practically all the trains over the various roads into the mountains.

Many of the most enjoyable one-day trips in Colorado begin and end at Denver. The cost of these little journeys is not great.

After you have familiarized yourself with Denver and its surroundings will be soon enough to decide where to go for the rest of your visit. The question must be considered from several standpoints—altitude, hotel accommodations, accessibility, amusements, etc.

Our Colorado literature will help you in deciding where to go and what to do. Sent free for the asking.

UINTAH INDIAN RESERVATION

To be opened September 1, 1905, embracing the lands on the "shoe of opportunity." Pull at the lands giving and the door will open for you, no matter where you live or what your occupation. Colorado men—well known, reliable, experienced—have organized the Indiana Mining and Power Co. and provided ten thousand dollars capital by the sale of preferred stock, par value one dollar per share.

Ordinarily a ground floor stock, if offered at all, is offered to get money with which to start, has no asset whatever behind it, and depends entirely on future development for its value. Our proposition is different. We have started. Our stock now has an asset of property adjoining the reservation, consisting of 320 acres rich agricultural land, 280 shares of water in the first water right on the Uintah River and two lots (corner) Main street in the new town of Moffat, Utah. A fair estimate of the value, $16,000.00, is sixteen dollars for every dollar that for preferred and an asset fifty per cent greater than the entire issue to be sold at the price it is here offered, however, this is only the commencement of operations. With the additional capital to be secured by the sale of stock other valuable property will be added and the opening of the reservation will start the harvest, of which our six years continuous growing has laid the foundations. You never had such an opportunity as we now offer. We share with you the results of the expenditure of our own capital, our labor and the judgment that has been displayed in securing this extraordinary opportunity for a profitable investment. Every dollar subscribed will bring manifold returns.

A limited amount of the preferred stock is on sale at 5 cents per share, the ground floor price. An advance to 10 cents will soon be made. A square deal is guaranteed. Write for any further information or any reference desired. DO IT NOW.

WHEAT CUTTING HAS NOW BEGUN

Organization Formed to Advance Its Culture

EVERYTHING VERY BRIGHT

From West and from Up North at Edmonton Come Reports of Unprecedented Yield

Winnipeg, July 28.—Visitors to the Fair from all sections of the west have the same story of excellent crops and ideal weather conditions. Crops in the far west are probably further advanced than usual, particularly around Saskatoon and Battleford, also in the Swan River Valley. Everyone seems confident of an unprecedented yield.

FALL WHEAT HARVEST NOW ON

Winnipeg, July 28.—The latest estimate of the fall wheat yield in Alberta is placed at 8,000,000 bushels.

So overwhelming has become the interest of fall wheat culture, that an organization is now forming in Alberta, similar to the Western Immigration Association to place in the United States an office to secure publicity for Canadian fall wheat lands.

Within the past two days general rains have fallen all over Alberta. The fall wheat harvest has commenced. The yield is running thirty-two bushels to the acre.

IN THE EDMONTON DISTRICT.

So far, this has been a very favorable season for grain growth. Spring opened early and warm weather was almost continuous since seeding. The result has been that grain in all the districts surrounding the city is in excellent condition and considerably in advance of last year's growth at this time.

Wheat is heading out, and other grains are coming on rapidly. In the Saskatchewan River valley, there have been showers and thunderstorms intermitting for several weeks past, but farther east and west there has been only sufficient rain. Here crops are also well advanced, and there is promise of a great barley and oat crop. Hailstorms have been confined to small local areas, and little damage is reported.

YIELD WILL BE 30 BUSHELS.

Hay is an abundant crop in all sections of the north. Fall wheat is being grown successfully in this district, and there is every promise that this is the coming wheat district of Central and Northern Alberta. The yield is estimated at 30 bushels to the acre.

This areas of other grains have been greatly extended this year, especially along the line of the C.N.R. from Lloydminster.

Great preparations are being made for the inaugral celebration on Sept. 1st, towards which the city will vote $8,000.

Latest Patents

Peterboro Should Appear More Frequent Lists of Patents Issued

Is it lack of enterprise or shortage of funds that prevents the names of Peterboro men from appearing more frequently on the list of patentees? With a city like this, whose very backbone is mainly strengthened by the factories within our borders, and with an intelligent, educated class of men employed in the many industries operated here, we should see our city more often figuring in these lists.

Below will be found a list of Canadian patents recently secured through the agency of Messrs. Marion & Marion, Patent Attorneys, Montreal, Canada, and Washington, D.C.

Information relating to any of these will be mailed free of charge by appling to the above-named firm.

De Witte Annoyed at Delay by Fog

Cherbourg, July 28.—Although it was announced that the North German Lloyd steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse left the Needles at 5.30 this morning, the vessel is still here, as this despatch is filed, and it is not expected that she will be able to leave Cherbourg for New York before this afternoon, owing to the denseness of the fog. M. Witte, the Russian peace plenipotentiary, who boarded the steamer here after spending the night ashore at a hotel, whence he berg, appears to be somewhat annoyed at the long despatch to St. Petersburg at this delay, the Russian peace party being already late when compared with the Japanese.

Interior Improvements

Post Office Interior Soon Present a Fine Appearance

Mr. D. Bellegham, who has the contract for improving the interior of our local post office says that when finished it will be so changed that old friends will not know it. The woodwork will be mostly of quartered oak and there will be two public wickets as well as a parcel wicket. A brass railing will be in front of the wickets and this will prevent crowding. The postage stamp stand will be moved to the south side of the building, and all the boxes, drawers, etc., will be entirely new. The postmaster's office will be moved on the north side and the brick work on this extension will be commenced at once. Pressed brick will be used, the laying of which will be attended to by Mr. J. J. Hartley. The bricks are now being delivered. There will be two main entrances to the offices—one on Water street and the other at the corner of Hunter and Water streets.

GETTING READY TO PAY

German Bankers Making Arrangement to Float on Russian Loan

Berlin, July 29.—In view of the probability of an early peace between Russia and Japan, the terms of which will involve the payment of a very heavy indemnity by Russia, the financiers of Europe have been holding conferences to the end that the peace indemnity may be paid without seriously disturbing the finances of the world.

The Mendelssohns, the Berlin bankers, who have been for many years the representatives on the continent of the Russian Government, and who have negotiated many of the Russian loans, have formed an alliance with the Rothschilds in respect of the matter, and have held communications with all the leading financial institutions, both on the continent and in England. They are about to send their representatives to New York with a view to enlisting the cooperation of the larger financiers of the United States. It is likely that a Russian loan for the purpose of paying the indemnity will be scattered.

SALMON RUN A RECORD ONE

Canneries in British Columbia Have A Worthy Example

Vancouver, July 28.—The run of salmon of Rivers Inlet and at Bella Coola beats out all records. The canneries are out of cans and the supply of fish for the first time has run ahead of the capacity to handle them. Cans are being rushed north. At Alert Bay the same conditions prevail, and cans are being rushed there. On the Skeena, a fair pack has been put up. Salmon are running heavy in the Fraser and the pack will be a big one.

Police Court

OFFICIALS

Chief of Police, G.T. Reed
Magistrate, D.W. Dumble

Only one case was tried at the police court yesterday morning, that of Geo. Velois, charged with being drunk and using bad language when placed in the cells, who pleaded guilty, but said he had been drugged $2 and costs, making a total of $6.60. Expensive work this jag business! To procure a good gilt-edged, carmine tinted jag, such as Velois had squandered his wealth on must cost at least $1.35, and when to this is added $6.60, the total of $7.95, brings this bijarity higher than the fun procured would authorise. Still they will do it.

Teach the Young to Swim

St. Catharines, July 28.—At a meeting of the Water Commission, Commissioner Woodruff moved a resolution, seconded by Commissioner Allan, that the commission take steps to teach the children to swim and that in case of necessity they can help themselves." The resolution met with approval, but the other members of the commission voted it down. The commission has no power to build baths, such matters being in the hands of the City Council.

The Tariff Commission

Ottawa, July 28.—The Tariff Commission will consist of Messrs. Fielding, Patterson and Hrodeur, the three ministers who have charge of the revenue collecting departments. They will take eight or ten weeks investigating the present condition of Canadian industries and hope to be back in Ottawa about the middle of November to commence the actual work of tariff revision.

Search for Bodies Given Up

Sherbrooke, July 28.—It was decided today to discontinue the dragging of Lake Aylmer for the victims of last week's drowning. Four days of systematic search has been without success. A patrol of the Lake Shore has been established, and it is expected that the waters of the lake in their own time will cast up their dead.

YOU ARE AILING

Find the Cause for the Weakness and Nervous Dread That Overshadows Your Life.

You can't keep up forever.

Sooner or later Nature will rebel against the strain that is imposed on your overworked system. So far, will power and nerve may have tided you over, but the end is probably near at hand.

To-day the common complaint with weak men and women is lack of kidney vitality. Here you have the cause of your ill-health.

Wouldn't it be wise to use a time-tested remedy like Dr. Hamilton's Pills—they cure that "ailing" feeling in one night. Next morning you feel like new—bright, fresh and happy. Appetite improves, sallow color grows ruddy and clear, proving that great good is being done by this scientific medicine.

"This is to certify that I was troubled for many years with kidney complaint. Mrs. D. F. Fowler, from Yarmouth: I used to feel drowsy and heavy, my color was sallow, and there was many a bad taste in my mouth. I had severe pains all through my limbs, and was a victim to headaches as well. After one dose of Dr. Hamilton's Pills I knew a sudden change. I felt better, my appetite improved, and by the continued use of the medicine I felt like a new woman. My complexion grew clear, my step became lighter, and my life seemed brighter and happier. I feel sure Dr. Hamilton's Pills, and can strongly recommend such a good medicine."

Mrs. Fowler's letter is a message to you and all others in poor health. You can't do better than follow her advice. Dr. Hamilton's Pills you certainly need; then why not get them now and enjoy the abundant good health they are sure to bring you? Price 25c. per box, or five boxes for $1.00. Mr. Richard Mowry Dead in Toronto.

Word was received in town on Saturday of the death in Toronto this morning of the wife of Mr. Richard Mowry, who was a former resident of Peterboro. Mrs. John Weir, a sister of Mr. Mowry, went to Toronto a few days ago to nurse Mrs. Mowry, who had been seriously ill, but she gradually became worse, and passed away to-day. It is not known yet when the funeral will be.

Another Revolver Accident.

Mr. William Davidson, who lives east of Hastings in Hamilton township, was working at a revolver, with a hammer and screw driver to force the cylinder to revolve, his wife did not hesitate to stand directly in front of the barrel. The result was the revolver went off, and now Mrs. Davidson has a No. 22 bullet in her leg about five inches above the knee, which up to the present time has not been extracted.

He intends building another during the coming winter months.

Peterboro Gas Much Improved

Many favorable comments, of late, have been heard as to the improvement in evidence of our local gas supply. Since Mr. W. Hogan, the Toronto Gas expert, has taken hold of the local works, our gas has improved from an indefinite candle power to an average of 21 candle power, or better by far, than is supplied in Toronto of most towns in Canada. Yesterday the local gas was above the 22 candle power, which is very exceptional anywhere.

A Puzzle For Arithmeticians

An old puzzle that has come down from time of the Pharoah's of Egypt was yesterday given The Times for solution. The answer is comparatively simple; who can solve it?

A man dying left, over the rest of his estate, 100 bushels of wheat to be divided equally among 100 men, women and children, on the basis of three bushels to each man, two to each woman, and 1 1-2 bushel to children, how was the division made? In solving this question give the rule.

Pe-ru-na, the Remedy That Cured.

Miss Ella Off, 127 Linden St., Indianapolis, Ind., writes:

"I suffered with a run down constitution for several months, and feared that I would have to give up my work. "On seeking the advice of a physician, he prescribed a tonic. I found, however, that it did me no good. On seeking the advice of our druggist, he asked me to try Peruna. In a few weeks I began to feel and act like a different person. My appetite increased, I did not have that worn-out feeling, and I could sleep splendidly. In a couple of months I was entirely recovered. I thank you for what your medicine has done for me."—Ella Off.

—Port Hope Times says; A story comes from Pleasant Point that some parties camping in that vicinity do most of their fishing with dynamite cartridges. A number of dead bass and muskinon have been seen floating and there is a feeling that the inspector should investigate. Horse and Rig Stolen

Horse Taken from Lipsett's Hotel Thursday Night and Still Missing

On Thursday evening a young man engaged a horse and buggy from Greenley's livery in Lakefield, to drive to this city.

On arrival, he went to the Maple Leaf Hotel, operated by Mr. Geo. Lipsett, 5th Ward, and left the horse and rig standing in front of the hotel. After being in the hotel for about 10 minutes on business, he went out to get his horse and found the whole outfit had disappeared.

No trace has since been found of the missing horse and vehicle, and there is a strong suspicion that it is a case of theft. Any information regarding it may be forwarded to the Chief of Police.

LOVE

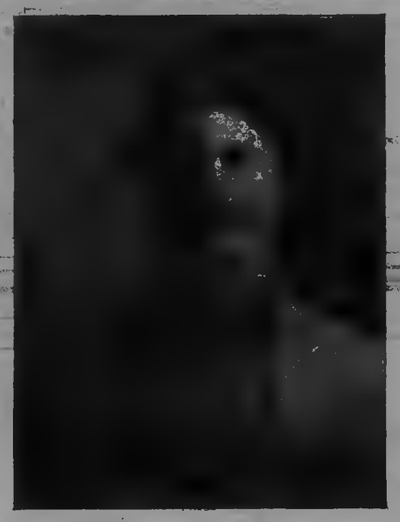
TEN YEARS



The Story of My Wonderful Success.

Reads Like a Fairy Tale-Yet Full of Convincing Truths

An Opportunity of a Lifetime for the Investor.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF IT.

I ask every reader of this paper to write me. I want to send you my free book entitled "Ten Years"—"The Story of My Wonderful Success." It tells about one of the great and most promising investment opportunities ever offered. It tells how my business grew from less than $25 00 capital to its present proportions.

I believe I have the best proposition from an investor's standpoint that could be placed before you. For ten years I have been teaching men and women to live according to the laws of Nature My book is the history of my life. It shows what energy and ambition can accomplish in the world of affairs. It is intensely interesting to any man or woman who has a few dollars to invest in a legitimate enterprise.

I started business in the City of Brooklyn in 1896. My capital amounted to less than $25 00. My first years business netted me over $1,000 00. Last year I paid dividends to my partners of 15 per cent. Five years ago my business had grown so large that I was compelled to remove to larger quarters. I am now at 63-65 Clark St., Brooklyn, N.Y.—in connection with Hotel St. George. Experts pronounce my institution to be the best appointed of its kind in the country. I estimate the equipment of the Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture to be worth at least $40 000 00.

I want to have a building of my own that will enable me to accommodate my increasing business. To erect this building I need capital, but more important than this to increase my business to the proportions which I desire, I need the co-operation of men and women throughout the country and the world.

Co-operation is the Secret of Success

I recognize it. I believe that with thousands of co operaters throughout the country I can build my business to tremendous proportions to the benefit of the shareholders and myself.

The Mac Levy Company is incorporated under the laws of New York for $150,000.00. They are proprietors of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

The last named branch of the business of the Mac Levy Company is comparatively new. I have been at work for several years to establish such a department in connection with teaching Physical Culture The most difficult part of forming the Equipment Company has been accomplished The business is now in condition to be pushed on a large scale. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are spent yearly on new gymnasiums and their equipment. The profits are large. A company of this kind has an immense field in which to work. Competition is slight. It is evident that the Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company can build an enormous business.

The Mac Levy Company operates during the summer months at Steeplechase Park, Coney Island, and at Averne Hotel, Averne-by-the-Sea, L. I., as well as at our Brooklyn Institute. I also does an extensive mail business, I teach people how they should live and exercise My students are scattered all over the United States, and in English speaking countries.

A PROBLEM

which arrises in the minds of every man and woman is how to secure a comfortable income in the earlier years of their life, that they may reap the full benefits which such an income affords.

I have long thought that there are hundreds of people in moderate circumstances who would like to invest a few dollars in an Institution of this kind. It is to such people that I intend this announcement shall appeal. I am offering a block of the Treasury Stock of this company to the public at its par value. My reasons for doing this are that I wish to erect a building and to extend the business of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

I WANT YOU AS MY PARTNER

I need your help and suggestion. I want you to work with me and help me to secure a tremendous amount of new business.

I believe that if you could talk with me personally and go over the records of the business which I have done, see in black and white the figures which show the steady growth my business has experienced during the past ten years, examine my plans for future extension, and then look over the magnificent equipment of my Institute, and would want no further evidence that money put into my business would bring you the greatest possible returns consistent with safety and good management.

I ask you to write for my free book. I believe it will interest you. You have a few dollars that you want to invest. Why let it stand idle earning only 3 or 4 per cent that Savings Bank pay their depositors? Put it to work. Join it with mine. This Company ought to pay at least.

Norway's Reasons For Breaking Bonds

Johannes Lovland, Norwegian Minister of Foreign Affairs, Makes First Explanation of Real Cause of His Country's Action.

Christiania, July 31.—"Norway will listen to no terms, conditions or proposals from Sweden which, from the beginning, do not regard this country a sovereign state," said Johannes Lovland, the Norwegian minister of foreign affairs, to your correspondent this morning.

"Sweden," he continued, "must rid itself of the notion that Norway can be dealt with as if it were a conquered country or had been guilty of treason. We are ready to negotiate regarding realities affecting the interests of both countries, but we will not entertain proposals which, pretending to safeguard Swedish honor, would violate our own.

"I can only account for Sweden's claim that Norway's declaration of independence has morally outraged Swedish honor upon the theory that Sweden has never regarded Norway as an independent allied state, but as a Swedish province. It was this construction of the union, deep seated among Sweden's ruling classes, that forced us to assert our constitutional rights.

"We intended nothing offensive, aggressive or insulting toward Sweden or King Oscar. Norway's constitution provides that the King of Norway shall have his own diplomats and consuls. When the consuls of the department of our affairs became the monopoly of Sweden, the King violated Norway's constitution. Our disruption of the union, therefore, was not revolution. It was simply a return to the constitution.

DEMANDS ARE LAUGHABLE.

"There is talk to the effect that Sweden's conditions include Norway's apologizing for the act of June 7, and the destruction of the fortresses on the Swedish frontier. Such demands are laughable. This would not be considered a moment. They offend our sovereign dignity.

"If Sweden sets up the right to ask the demolition of Norwegian fortresses, Russia has the right to demand the destruction of Sweden's military works at Boden which are an immeasurably greater menace than our insignificant fortifications.

NORWAY'S APPROVAL.

"Sweden says that the Storthing's action was the manoeuvre of a band of revolutionaries, and not the expression of the great national will. That is ridiculous. If a referendum were held today, 99 12 per cent. of the Norwegian people would approve our step. The Storthing has received voluntary messages of congratulations and pledges of support from every county council and municipality, and from every profession, trade, religious, educational and philanthropic organization in this country.

WISHES NO BLOODSHED.

"I can assure the civilized world that Norway's temper is one of composure. We do not intend a demonstration against Sweden. We trust and believe that our re-incarnation as a sovereign power will not be accompanied by bloodshed. That would be a calamity that would blight all our hopes for Scandinavia's future happiness and prosperity.

Quite a sensation has been caused the Norwegian Provisional Government from the Berlin foreign office that the Kaiser's visit to King Oscar and that the German naval demonstration in Swedish waters are in no way directed against Norway. The government at Christiania has been given to understand that whatever the Norwegian people conceive in their own interest will meet with no opposition from the Kaiser or the German government."

Quite a sensation has been caused both here and in Stockholm by the statement published in the United States and sent here by cable to the effect that Norway has incognito agents in the United States to sound American opinion, with a view to an early recognition of its independence. The Norwegian foreign office authorizes your correspondent to say that Christian Hague, former secretary of the Swedish-Norwegian legation at Washington, and J. Irens, former consul-general at Antwerp, are residing in America as private persons, and have no official mandate of any kind from the Norwegian government.

A Record Investment

A Golden Opportunity For Investment in Mining Property in the Richest Section on Earth

In modern times there is a, perhaps too prevalent, desire among all classes to enter into a "Get rich quick" scheme, but by the exercise of judgment and discernment many a man, whether investing large or small sums, has of late made a competency for life. All mining propositions glitter but all do not contain, or return an investor, gold; still there are some that bear the marks of, not only probable, but almost certain success and ultimate riches for those getting in on "the ground floor."

Among the many mining stock prospectuses that are now attracting attention from this financial world, and which seem to us to offer a gilt-edged and conservative chance for investment are three mining stocks, backed by Mr. Richard T. Yardley, of Baltimore, Md., one of the largest and most favorably known agents and promoters of mining stocks. Mr. Yardley is too well known in the world of finance to require any comment by us as to his standing and reliability; suffice to say that a stock offered by Mr. Yardley is above suspicion and to be eagerly sought after.

Mr. Yardley has appointed our well known fellow citizens, Messrs. Thos. Patterson & Co., his local representatives, for handling, for a limited time at the prices quoted below, three mining stocks, of companies owning claims in the richest gold bearing section of the most freely gold producing part of this continent.

The claims Messrs. Patterson & Co. now offer to investors are the Goldfield Diamond, owning claims at Diamondfield, Nev., United Bullfrog Mines Co., and the Nevada Prospecting and Mining Co., who own two claims at Goldfield, two at Bullfrog, and several more at Gold Mountain.

In taking a chance on stocks in any mine that is located from other gold or silver producing mining territory, there is, of course, a chance that the mine may pay and consequently the stock advance in value and continue to pay dividends; this, however, is only a chance, and a very, to use an apt sporting expression, "long shot," but the mines promoted by Mr. Yardley are in the heart of a district that everywhere produces gold in enormous quantities. On the properties he recommends, and of which a limited amount of stock is now placed with Messrs. Patterson & Co. for local investors, prospectors and well known qualified mining engineers, have found rich veins of ore. For a limited time, these stocks will be offered at prices that must appeal to all, and which will very shortly be considerably advanced; the Goldfield Diamond at 14 cents per share, the United Bullfrog Mines Co. at 15 cents, and the Nevada Prospecting & Mining Co. at 10 cents.

We might say, from a careful perusal of various financial journals, that these three mines are invariably spoken of as the best propositions offered the investing public of late. For full particulars see adv. in another column or consult Messrs. Thos. Patterson & Co., City.

5th Ward Hoodlums.

The Old Time Feud Between the Youth of the 5th Ward and City Still Rampant.

In the memory of our oldest citizens exists a recollection of the never dying feud existing between the youth of the 5th ward, and the balance of our city.

Now that the wards are comprised in one municipality, it is time this feud, and nonsensical jealousy between the young men and boys on different sides of the Otonabee, be dropped and buried in the tomb of forgotten and forgiven senseless animosities.

A few days ago a young man who lives on this side of the river, called at the police station and told a tale of woe. It appears that he and his lady love, deciding to leave the hurley burley central portion of the city, and discuss the sweet nothings that all youths and maidens find to interest one another, wandered to the shady quieter streets of our new ward. When they turned off the main street in the 5th ward, just about the railway tracks, they encountered a number of young men and boys, who immediately began to pass audible and embarrassing remarks. No attention was paid to these ill-bred intrusions into the fleeting joys of love's young dream, and the pair tried to leave their tormentors, and continue their pleasant doubtings and disputes as to which loved the other one the better.

Alas and alack for Don Cupid! the unruly rooters forcibly laid hands on the young man, telling him he must play in his own back yard, or possibly, do his love making west of the Otonabee boundary line. The young man was quite roughly handled and had some difficulty in extricating himself and the lady fair from the roughs. It might be noted in all seriousness, that both the young man and his lady companion are entirely in favor of the annexation of these roughs being simply another link in the long chain of the latter's malicious displays of insult and violence to the unlucky wight caught outside of his own bailiewick.

It is time now that this sentiment should be dropped, as though with a dull thud, and that a young man can take his lady love anywhere within our borders without insult or violence.

City Fathers will Meet To-night.

Special Meeting to be Called To-night to Consider Half Holiday Next Monday.

Mayor Best on Saturday notified a Times representative that, on Monday evening, a special session of the Council will be held. The principal business that will likely be discussed at this meeting is the proposed half holiday asked for a week from today, in honor of the Old Boys who will in their hundreds, visit the city. The Monday following the Old Boys' visit will be our local Civic holiday, so the Mayor and Council are anxious to get all pressing business finished up, this fact also accounts for tonight's session.

It is not expected that our City Fathers will favorably consider the proposed half holiday, as the following Monday will be a whole holiday, and our local industries are now rushed with orders that must receive prompt attention.

COREA APPEALS FOR INTEGRITY

Hermit Kingdom Sounds United States on Question of Inviolability of National Domain

EMISSARY IS ON WAY

Powers Disposed to Allow Japan Paramount Rights in Peninsula in View of Crowning Victories in War

Washington, D. C., July 31.—Corea has followed the example of China in seeking to preserve the integrity of her territory. Through Mr. Toh Moo Sin, charge d'affaires in Washington, the Seoul government has notified the United States that it will not recognize as valid any agreement that may be reached by Russia and Japan regarding matters in which it is interested, unless first consulted.

With Japan in occupation of the country and practically dictating the governmental administration, the Corean authorities have done a plucky thing. They have been repeatedly assured by Japan she proposes to respect their independence and the integrity of their territory. Special arrangements have been signed by the two governments wherein these assurances appear.

The foreign adviser of the Emperor of Corea is Mr. Durham White Stevens, an American, and an honorable and accomplished diplomat. It is doubtful, however, if Mr. Stevens was consulted when the Emperor considered the advisability of filing a notification with foreign governments that any decision of the belligerents with regard to his country would not be accepted by him as binding.

TREATY PROVISIONS EMBARRASSING.

In the past this has proved an embarrassing treaty stipulation. Prior to the war between China and Japan, Corea appealed to the United States against Japan, and successfully claimed that the American minister at Tokio which, though invoked, were decidedly displeasing to the Japanese authorities. There is no intention at this time of offending Japan because of any policy she may pursue in Corea.

It was pointed out at the State department today that, by the terms of the article quoted the United States, before taking any step, must determine if Corea has been dealt with unjustly or oppressively. It is recognized that Japan possesses, as a result of the victories of her troops and fleet, certain well defined rights in the Hermit kingdom. So far as President Roosevelt is concerned, he is disposed to permit the exercise by Japan of a protectorate over the peninsula. In view of this disposition the Rev. Mr. Yoon likely will get cold comfort when he talks with Roosevelt at Oyster Bay.

COLD COMFORT FOR COREA.

Deserted by the United States, Corea will only have the broken staff of Russian friendship on which to lean. Great Britain has had valuable commercial interests in the kingdom, but these have suffered as a result of Japanese competition. By the treaty of alliance between Great Britain and Japan the two countries mutually recognize the independence and integrity of China and Corea. The British foreign office regards Corea as practically Japanese, just as does President Roosevelt. Neither Germany nor France has large enough interests in Corea to interfere in behalf of the integrity of that nation.

Japan has a free hand, therefore, and undoubtedly will take advantage of this satisfactory state of affairs. She will require Russia to surrender all pretensions to influence the kingdom and demand the cancellation of treaties, agreements and private concessions existing between the two nations. There is no doubt Russia will agree to this in the end, but it will be her effort to obtain from Japan a declaration of an unselfish purpose in regard to Corean territory.

ACTIVITY AT VLADIVOSTOK EXPLAINED.

Activity of the Japanese in prosecuting the military operations toward Vladivostok is due, the authorities here believe, to the desire of their government to deprive the Russian plenipotentiaries of the right to speak of Corea because of the presence of Russian soldiers within the territory of that country. In occupying Sakhalin Island it is desired to prevent Russia from offering it in lieu of an indemnity or other demands which Baron Komura and Minister Takahira will make.

By the occupation of Russian territory south of Vladivostok and on this mainland opposite the island of Sakhalin, Japan takes from Russia the argument that there is no precedent in history for the payment of an indemnity by a nation whose soil is not occupied by conquerors. The vigor with which the Japanese have carried out their military operations shows a determination not to lose any point in this political game, and officials here give them full credit for their foresight.

THE CZAR SOUGHT EMPEROR'S COUNSEL.

Emperor William Did Not Encourage Emperor Nicholas to Continue the War.

Peace on Terms Named Means Armistice Only but They May be Bluff St. Petersburg Press Assumes a Warlike Tone--Peace on the Japanese Terms Outlined.

Berlin, July 31.—The Foreign Office, taking cognizance of statements from St. Petersburg, particularly those published in French and English journals, authorizes the Associated Press to say that Emperor William in the interviews off the island of Bjoerkoe not only did not encourage Emperor Nicholas to continue the war, but gave his influence directly in favor of President Roosevelt's peace policy.

This Foreign Office again with the utmost positiveness says that the meeting took place at the wish of Emperor Nicholas.

St. Petersburg, July 31.—The tone of the Russian press grows more warlike as the peace conference draws nigh and the government on all sides is urged to resist humiliating demands, even at the cost of continuing the war.

"Peace on the Japanese terms outlined by Mr. Sato," says the Russ, which is the first paper to comment seriously upon the Sato interview, "can only be an armistice."

The Russ, which has now the largest Liberal following, find the Japanese demands far from moderate and sees little chance of the conference ending successfully, if Mr. Sato has correctly stated the Japanese position, but it appears to believe that Baron Komura's spokesman is acting "on his own responsibility," or wants a possible bluff to pave the way for the acceptance of actual and more moderate terms by Japan.

The Svet continues its fault-finding with the "gaetlemanly" of the visit of Secretary of War Taft and Miss Alice Roosevelt to Japan while the United States is the host of the peace plenipotentiaries.

The foreign office was to-day shown Mr. Sato's reference to the delay in the Chinese-Japanese negotiations because of faulty credentials and reiterated that there can be absolutely no doubt of the completeness and adequacy of the credentials of the Russian plenipotentiaries. One official said:

"Mr. Sato seems to forget that Russia is a civilized nation, that she has made treaties before and that she does not omit seals."

Laid at Rest.

Funeral of the Late Mrs. John Bolin was Held Yesterday Afternoon.

Yesterday afternoon a long and mournful cortege followed the remains of the late Mrs. Bolin, widow of the late Mr. John Bolin, from the family residence, Charlotte street, to the Roman Catholic cemetery.

Mrs. Bolin passed away on Friday afternoon at this age of 70. She had been ill for about six months, and senility was the direct cause of death.

The deceased was born in Mayo County, Ireland, removing thence to Canada in the year 1835, at which time she took up residence at Keene. She was married later to Mr. John Bolin, who predeceased her by about 17 years. She removed to Peterboro about 14 years ago, where she has since resided.

Carrier Pigeons.

A Large Flock of These Swiftest of Messengers Kept in This City

Mr. Wm. Snowden, Mine Host of the hotel of that ilk, is now getting his large flock of carrier pigeons into training and condition for the fall hunting. Mr. Snowden, asked yesterday by a Times representative, how many pigeons he owned, frankly confessed ignorance. However, he could pick out certain members of his flock, that, to the casual observer resembles a collection of birds as so many peas in one pod, and dilated on the merits of various individual birds, as to speed, reliability and past records with messages from various places. Two in particular he takes great pride in; this pair has been thoroughly educated in the carrying of messages, being first taken to, and released at, Lakefield, Young's Point, Burleigh and then at the far distant deer hunting grounds. Every year he takes a number of trained birds when he goes deer hunting, and is thus enabled to keep in touch with his place of business, and can thereby order provisions or send the sad intelligence that the jug of bait is running low, and have this essential commodity hastened to the seat of war before all hands perish. It is an interesting form of amusement and is mighty handy at certain times, as we used, and otherwise. When Mr. Snowden takes the can of corn out to feed his flock, he gives a peculiar whistle, and like magic, scores of birds seem to come from everywhere that a moment before were invisible, and after circling about a few moments, gather in a bunch to feed.

Peterboro's Pavements

Twenty-Five Miles will be Amount of Pavements in This City by Fall.

Work on the city pavements is being rapidly pushed ahead by Mr. Harry Evans, the energetic street commissioner. This summer alone about 3 1-2 miles of granolithic pavements have been laid, and it is expected, before the snow falls, that there will be 25 miles in use in the city. The newly admitted citizens, until lately called the township of North, their streets, have had a considerable stretch of pavements laid for their convenience, and are now asking for other modern conveniences, such as electric light, water service, etc.

The old-fashioned board walks are fast passing into what ex-president Cleveland terms "Innocuous desuetude," and being replaced by the more up-to-date pavements.

A long piece of walk has been laid on Reid street from McDonnell street to St. Peter's cathedral. Another piece has been laid outside the trees on Brock street in front of the old Flyott property, and it is the intention to build two sections on Bethune street, one on Stewart street, and one on the north side of London street from Aylmer to Reid street, and another on Aylmer street north of McDonnell. After that the intention is to pay some attention to Murray street, east of Water, past St. Paul's church to the top of the hill, and on Brock street, from Water street to the registry office. These localities have long been in need of improved walks. The work is going forward at a good rate, by day labor.

All sympathy is due owners of "bikes" who look with longing eyes on these fine stretches of scorching ground, but are debarred, by that universal penalty for riding on the pavements, $2 per ride.

Thos. Mitchell, Now in the County Gaol, Has Worked Elsewhere

No wonder that our local clergy bit at the cunningly devised bait offered by the young Englishman, Mitchell, who is now working up an appetite by toying with a corporation hunk saw in Cathy Nesbitt, and where he will for nearly three months more have time to reflect and decide that even the business end of a shovel in his hand is preferable to a petty graft or "con." game. In addition to other places than Peterboro where Mitchell worked his game, and noted in Saturday's issue, he found customers in Trenton, Ont. The Courier of that town says,

"A young man visited our town on Thursday of last week representing himself to be a stenographer and said he was in the employ of the Rathbun Co., of Deseronto, and told that the Rathbun Co., were about to locate in Trenton. He visited several of the ministers of the town and got money from them saying he would pay it back when he got work, but when the truth became known it was clearly seen that the Rathbun Co., had no intention of locating here, and that the statements were incorrect, but then it was too late as the bird had flown only to be arrested in Peterboro."

Rev. F. J. Scott on Saturday, received a letter from Rev. A. W. Williamson, pastor of the Methodist church of Lachine, Que., stating that Mitchell had been victimizing the ministers of that place. He obtained $2 from Mr. Williamson, who wrote Mr. Scott to be on the lookout for this scamp should he appear in Peterboro, but Mitchell arrived here before the warning went from Lachine.

New York Fears the Yellow Fever Scourge

Health Officials Wake Up to a Possibility of Dreaded Scourge Forcing Its Way North--Scores of Suspects in the City.

New York, July 31.—Possibility of the yellow fever scourge spreading to cities of the north was firmly forced upon the health officials at this port to-day, when nearly a score of suspects were removed from two steamers from southern ports.

Two of these, critically ill, have been isolated in the pest house on Swinburne Island, which had been especially prepared for possible yellow fever cases. That the malady from which they are suffering is yellow fever, however, has not been determined, and at least 24 hours must elapse before the real nature of the disease will be positively known.

The other suspects, all of whom are at the detention hospital at Hoffman's Island, are held merely that their condition may be closely observed by the physicians attached to the health department. None of them are seriously ill, but each of them have symptoms of fever in some form when examined on the steamers.

CAME FROM COLON.

It was the steamer Seguranca, from Colon, which brought the biggest freight of suspects, seventeen of the nineteen received to-day having come from among her passengers and crew. The two other suspects were taken from the steamer Eldorado from New Orleans. Neither of them was seriously ill.

Elaborate preparations to detect and foil yellow fever cases coming on steamers from southern ports have been made by the health officers here and they express confidence that no yellow fever cases will break through the net.

NEW ORLEANS TRADE HIT.

New Orleans, July 31.—The most disquieting news in the yellow fever situation to-day is the evidence that panic is increasing in the smaller towns of Louisiana and Mississippi and that a disposition is growing to revive the disastrous commercial quarantines of 1897, when some of the country towns even refused to receive ice or hardware from New Orleans.

Columbia, La., bars all kinds of merchandise except hardware. Utica, Miss., will not receive freight of any kind; Osyka, Miss., will take no fruit or vegetables; Jackson, La., wants no household articles from New Orleans. Several towns in Tennessee and others along the Mississippi Valley road in Mississippi refuse to allow express matter of any kind to be put off; Port Gibson will not take bread or anything wrapped in burlap that may be shipped from this city. Some of the Texas towns are asking that the mails be fumigated.

If the movement to quarantine freight spreads, New Orleans will suffer much more seriously than from the fever itself.

Assistant Secretary of State Peirce left Washington this afternoon for Portsmouth, where he will act as the representative of the President during the peace negotiations. Mr. Peirce will not take any part in the negotiations, but will represent the President personally in the social festivities.

August Canadian Magazine.

The colored illustration in the August Canadian Magazine are fully equal to anything which this enterprising publication has previously produced. The colored reproduction of Mr. Brigden's drawing is equally good, and it is pleasant to know that both the drawing and the plates were "Made in Canada." The reproductions of Turner's pictures are also pleasing. The illustrated article on Malta will find admirers as we seldom hear from this fortified British outpost. The fiction in this number is exceptionally good, and every story is by a native writer. In fact, the whole number is packed full of interesting and delightful features such as the readers can secure in no other of the periodicals which are found on the newsdealers' counters in this country.

TELEPHONE TALKS.

TO TELEPHONE USERS AND THE GENERAL PUBLIC,—

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF CANADA has been operating for twenty-four years. Its operations were at first confined to the Provinces of Quebec and Ontario, but later it also undertook business in the Northwest.

The amount expended by the Company during this time in building up its system is $10,558,686.79, over $3.00 per head of the population of the country served.

Considering that large sections of these Provinces are sparsely settled, that there are large areas where the Bell Company does not operate, but which are served by other Companies, the amount invested will compare favorably with any other country.

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF CANADA has secured from investors this large sum of money upon the record of its management. While scores of other telephone organizations both in this country and the United States have either failed to pay dividends or gone to the wall, involving the loss of millions of capital, the stock of this Company has always been sold at par or upwards. The Company has survived the keenest competition in important centres,—all of which is a practical endorsement of the Company's management.

Is it not an advantage to telephone users and to the commercial interests of Canada, particularly during this period of national development, that so important a factor as the local and long distance telephone service should be in the hands of a strong company which commands the confidence of capitalists? Confidence and cash go hand in hand in the up-building of a telephone system, and both are an absolute necessity to continuous development. It is certain that the development of the next ten years will exceed that of the past twenty years. It is essential that the confidence of capitalists shall be maintained if the requirements of this growing country are to be met. This cannot be unless returns upon the investment are assured by reasonable rates, careful administration and an energetic and continuous policy.

How Consumption Starts

Tired When You Wake—Languid All Day—Nerves Worn Out —Snap All Gone

Your limbs feel "draggy" and excessively weak. A night's sleep seldom brings satisfying rest. Continuous headaches, exhaustion and nervous sensations destroy your health. Soon every spark of vitality is fused up. Then you catch tuberculosis.

Start to-day. Build up, get new nerve force, and overcome this process of decay. Use Ferrozone, which physicians consider the most vitalizing, uplifting tonic ever made.

Ferrozone cures because it can furnish the body with sufficient nutriment and nerving material.

Think of the instant effect—at once the appetite increases, delightful color in the cheeks shows that rich, red blood is being circulated. Tired muscles are invigorated, flesh and weight are added. Nerve force develops, and bounding, joyous health is firmly established.

This is certain—Ferrozone restores failing strength from any cause. The experience of Mr. Thos. Duval, of Schreiber, Ont., proves this;

"Household worries and cares had about exhausted my strength. I was weak and miserable. My cheeks lacked the color of health, and occasionally I had spells of rheumatism. Then my appetite fell off, and, nothing could tempt me to eat. Worn-out feelings, chills and despondency filled my very being. I became anaemic and dwindled down to a shadow. Consumption was very near. Ferrozone put strength in my body with a rush. It built me up, strong, virile and happy, and I have been well ever since."

Ferrozone cures sickness by curing the real cause—lack of blood and nerve tone. It keeps people at their best—fit ready and anxious for work. In 50c. boxes only, or for $2.50, at all dealers, or N. C. Poison & Co., Hartford, Conn., U.S.A., and Kingston, Ont.

"REFRESHMENTS" ON SUNDAY

Several years ago a judge of York County decided that bona fide restaurant-keepers who furnished meals could legally sell ice cream and similar refreshments on the Lord's Day, says the organ of the Alliance. At first it was thought that this decision placed all confectioners and ice cream vendors beyond the reach of the law, and many of them began to do business on Sunday as on other days. The attention of the authorities was called by the Lord's Day Alliance to the fact that only those who are doing a regular eating house business are allowed to furnish ice cream, and similar refreshments to their guests, while all others (even those who hold an eating-house license, but are not doing a bona fide business) are committing an unlawful act when they do a regular business on the Lord's Day.

That the Alliance was correct in this interpretation was established by Judge Winchester in an interesting Toronto case. Frank Sabine, a vendor of ice cream, candy, etc., was doing business on the Lord's Day. He held a license to serve meals, but did not serve them, and Police Magistrate Kingsford convicted him under the Lord's Day Act. An appeal was carried to the General Sessions of York County, Judge Winchester, presiding, and he delivering a lengthy judgment, dismissing the appeal. Space will not allow us to print the whole judgment but the following quotation will show how the law is to be applied in the matter of sales of ice cream and similar refreshments:

"The defendant was not strictly and exclusively carrying on the business of a victualler, but on the other hand was carrying on the business of a candy and ice cream store, and that he obtained a victualling house license in order to enable him to sell ice cream and ice cream soda on Sunday during the summer months. The language of Judge Words in Mueller v. State, 76 Ind. 310, with reference to the sale of cigars on Sundays might properly be applied to the sale of ice cream soda by the defendant. At page 315 he says 'it is hardly probable that the law makers contemplated that the cravings of a morbid and unnatural appetite should be deemed to create such an imperious necessity for appeasement as that the general requirement for Sunday observance should yield to it, while the supplying of the ordinary necessities of life, like food and clothing, by purchase and sale out of the stores should be forbidden.'

"Holding as I do that the defendant does not strictly and exclusively carry on the business of a victualler, but that he obtained the license in order to give him a color of right to sell ice cream soda, etc., on Sunday, I am of the opinion that the conviction herein was properly made. I therefore dismiss the appeal with costs."

Under these circumstances every friend of the Lord's Day, and of law and order in Canada will be surprised to know what recently occurred in Ottawa. According to the press despatches, on Sunday, 28th May, George Adamus, a Greek, opened his store, known as the Olympia confectionery, and sold ice cream, ice cream soda, candy and fruit to all comers. He holds a restaurant license, which costs $1.00, but does not serve any meals. On Friday, 2nd June, Adamus was before Magistrate O'Keefe, of Ottawa, charged with violation of the Lord's Day Act. He pleaded not guilty, and the witness testified as to the actual sales on the previous Sunday. Then Mr. Mahon, the lawyer for Adamus, made the surprising declaration: "I contend that the law under which the charge has been laid is obsolete. It was passed before Confederation, and has not been repealed to date. Adamus holds a proper license, and is at liberty to sell on Sunday so long as he pays for his license, and keeps a restaurant as provided in the Statutes." And the County Crown Attorney, Ritchie, who appeared for the prosecution, and whose duty it is to enforce the law, followed with the still more surprising statement, "Under these circumstances I do not feel justified in asking for a conviction. Evidently we have not made out a case." And the Magistrate dismissed the case.

We would remind all our readers that the sale of ice cream and similar refreshments on the Lord's Day by any persons not doing a regular eating house business is a violation of the Upper Canada Lord's Day Act, which is neither obsolete nor invalid, but is in full force in every part of the Province. And every such sale ought to be stopped at once.

Paris is Confident of Result of Coming Negotiations

FRENCH MONEY FOR RUSSIA

Distinct Understanding That in Case of No Settlement No Financial Backing

Paris, July 29.—M. Witte stated last night before going on board the Kaiser Wilhelm to Mr. Raffalovitch, commercial agent of the Russian Embassy here, that the correspondence just received from St. Petersburg did not modify in any degree the instructions already received from the Czar.

The semi-official Frankfurter Zeitung declares that there is no doubt whatever that the Kaiser, during his interview with the Czar, manifested the conviction that it would be necessary for Russia to go as far as possible to secure peace in the coming negotiations. All this seems to convince the French official world that the late interview between the Emperors, was not so unimportant as they thought at first. In other words, they believe that the Czar, even before the interview, instructed M. Witte to go further in the effort to make peace than was suspected even in the best informed quarters. Full confidence reigns here that, when M. Witte returns, he will bring peace with him.

It was pointed out to M. Witte that Russia's duty to France would not allow the question of a certain amount of indemnity to rupture the negotiations. Though M. Witte refused to mix up financial discussion with the possible peace terms, he left Paris with the clear understanding that Russia would get French money on the conclusion of peace, but that if there should be no peace, no money would be forthcoming. This information emanates from a financial magnate, directly concerned in the matter.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide town lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act and the amendment thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

[1] At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

[2] If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

[4] If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses [3] [3] or [4] must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 80 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads or entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd of June, 1908.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Office in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

N. B.—In addition to Free Grant Lands, to which the Regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from railroad and other corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

How to Visit Colorado

Go first to Denver. It is the State capital, as well as the largest, wealthiest and most metropolitan city between the Missouri River and the Pacific Coast. The city itself is very interesting, and from it start practically all the trains over the various roads into the mountains.

Many of the most enjoyable one-day trips in Colorado begin and end at Denver. The cost of these little journeys is not great.

After you have familiarized yourself with Denver and its surroundings will be soon enough to decide where to go for the rest of your visit. The question must be considered from several standpoints—altitude, hotel accommodations, accessibility, amusements, etc.

Our Colorado literature will help you in deciding where to go and what to do. Sent free for the asking.

NERVOUS DEBILITY

OUR NEW METHOD TREATMENT will cure you, and make a man of you. Under its influence the brain becomes active, the blood purified so that all pimples, blotches and ulcers heal up, the nerves become strong as steel, so that nervousness, bashfulness and despondency disappear; the eyes become bright, the face full and clear, energy returns to the body, and the moral, physical and sexual systems are invigorated; all drains cease—no more vital waste from the system. The various organs become natural and manly. You feel yourself a man and know marriage cannot be a failure. We invite all the afflicted to consult us confidentially and free of charge. Don't let quacks and fakirs rob you of your hard-earned dollars. WE WILL CURE YOU OR NO PAY.

☑ NO NAMES USED WITHOUT WRITTEN CONSENT.

THREATENED WITH PARALYSIS.

Peter B. Summers, of Kalamazoo, Mich., relates his experience: "For years I suffered with Nervous Debility for many years. I lay it to indiscretion and excesses in early youth. I became very despondent and didn't care whether I worked or not. I imagined everybody who looked at me, guessed my secret. Imaginative dreams at night weakened me—my back ached, had pains in the back of my head, hands and feet were cold, tired in the morning, poor appetite, fingers were shaky, eyes blurred, hair loose, memory poor, etc. Numbness in the fingers set in and the doctor told me he feared paralysis. I took all kinds of medicines and tried many first-class physicians, wore an electric belt for three months, went to Mt. Clemens for baths, but received little benefit. While at Mt. Clemens I was induced to consult Drs. Kennedy & Kergan, though I had lost all faith in doctors. Like a drowning man I commenced the New Method Treatment and it saved my life. The improvement was like magic. I could feel the vigor going through my nerves. I was cured mentally, physically and sexually. I have sent them many patients and will continue to do so."

UINTAH INDIAN RESERVATION

To be opened September 1, 1906, unlocks the latch on the "door of opportunity." Pull at the latch string and the door will open for you, no matter where you live or what your occupation. Colorado men—well known, reliable, experienced—have organized the Indiuta Mining and Power Co. and provide ten thousand dollars capital by the sale of preferred stock, par value one dollar per share.

Ordinarily a ground floor stock, if offered at all, is offered to get money with which to start, has no asset whatever behind it, and depends entirely on future development for its value. Our proposition is different. It's here started. Our stock now has an asset of property adjoining the reservation, consisting of 320 acres rich agricultural land, 320 shares of water in the first water right on the Uintah River and two lots (corner) Main street in the new town of Moffat, Utah. A fair estimate of the value, $16,800.00, is sixteen dollars for every dollar that has invested and an asset fifty per cent greater than the entire issue to be sold at the price it is here offered; however, this is only the commencement of operations. With the additional capital to be secured by the sale of stock other valuable property will be added and the opening of the reservation will start the harvest, of which our six years connection among has laid the foundation. You never had such an opportunity as we now offer. We share with you the results of the expenditure of our own capital, our labor and the judgment that has been displayed in securing this extraordinary opportunity for a profitable investment. Every dollar subscribed will bring manifold returns.

A limited amount of the preferred stock is on sale at 5 cents per share, the ground floor price. An advance to 10 cents will soon be made. A square deal is guaranteed. Write for any further information or any reference desired. DO IT NOW.

FIERCE RUSH FOR TEN CENT SHIRTS

Pittsburg Store Wrecked by Three Thousand Women Bargain Hunters

MANY OF THEM INJURED

Ambulances Were Called Out, and Police Had a Merry Time—Riot Call Turned in

Pittsburg, July 29. — Trampling each other and ripping skirts and waists to shreds, about 3,000 women fought like demons in a big Fifth avenue store here to get ten-cent shirts for their husbands, brothers and best fellows. Eight of the women are hurt seriously and hundreds, after they had emerged from the crush, looked as if they had passed through a threshing machine. Hair down, hats awry, clothes in rags, many of them presented pictures that are classified under the denomination "Unfit for publication." Never was the extravagance of economy better illustrated.

The shrieks of the injured, the screams of the successful in their struggle to regain the prizes they had captured, together with the awful sights that met their gaze when they rushed to the scene, so terrified the policemen on the beat that they sent in a riot call and sounded an alarm that brought out all the ambulances in the city.

In the fierce battle the ten-cent shirt counter was overturned and its contents disappeared as if by magic.

The managers of the store had expected a rush as the result of their "catch-penny" device, but in their wildest moments they never dreamed of anything like that which ensued. A wrecked shop has made them wiser and sadder men.

In the casualty list, among those injured more severely, are Mrs. Mary Hoover, of Pride street, weight 300 pounds, and famous among her friends as a champion bargain hunter. She fell early in the fray. That speaks volumes among those who know the fierceness of the engagement. Her nodding plume, like that of Henry of Navarre, had been seen in the forefront from the beginning. When it disappeared as she dropped twisting, the surging crowd behind became panic-stricken. Their leader down, the 3,000 made a rush to get out, as if they had learned suddenly that the place was plague infested. In two minutes the interior of the store was a wreck. Hundreds of the weaker women were knocked down and trampled, the overalls and shirts, together with many other articles of value, were scattered, and the stronger armed reaped the harvest.

Police Lieutenant Grimes with the reserve squad reached the store quickly and tried to check the frenzied women, who were still struggling frantically inside. Grimes threw himself into the mass, and although he is six feet three and weighs 300 pounds, he sent up the distress signal inside of two seconds and was pulled out by his men minus a portion of his uniform. His cap has not been found yet.

With hard work the police squad managed to clear the store after about twenty minutes' struggle, but it was an hour before several of the women who had been trampled were able to go to their homes.

CASE OVER SUNDAY PAPER SALE

American Papers Said to Have Joined a Toronto Journal to Decide Law

Hamilton, July 29.—Louis Birk, a newsy convicted two weeks ago of selling papers on the streets on Sunday, faced a similar charge at court to-day, but Henry Carscallen, M.P.P. who defended him found a clerical error in the information, and the case was dropped; another charge will be laid. Several American Sunday papers and a Toronto paper are said to be making a test case of this. Mr. Carscallen announced that it would be fought to a final.

Both Mr. Carscallen and Magistrate Jelfs expressed an opinion that Canada would eventually follow England's custom and allow papers to be sold on Sunday.

Hotelman Touched.

Marmora Boniface Hoodoed Out of $76 and Don't Howl.

A Marmora hotel proprietor is anxious to meet the man, who, on the 24th of July, deprived him of the sum of $76. Just how he came to part company with his wad, the hotel man is not in a position to state, but from information given to the authorities it appears that while in Havelock, he and one or two others partook too freely of something which made him, at least, oblivious to everything and it was while in that condition his money disappeared. Every barns, on Tuesday, was a fine March.—Selected.

The Cold Bath

"Why," a reader has asked me, "does a man or woman feel a glow after a cold bath?" Simply because the sudden forcing of the blood from the surface back to the interior of the body is followed, like a swing of the pendulum, by a return tide of blood to the surface. The practice of the cold bath, however, imposes a strain upon the nervous vitality which is usually the occasion of more harm than good.

To-day is the last day for paying taxes and getting the two per cent. discount. For all who pay half their taxes before 1st August a discount of two per cent., is allowed, but if it is neglected the whole amount will be exacted. In view of these facts it is to the interest of all who are in debt to the city to climb, what may litterally be termed, "The Golden Stairs," before collector Greene shuts up shop for the night.

Off for England

Mr. P. K. Holmes, until his resignation a short time ago, physical director of the Y.M.C.A., will leave to-morrow evening for Montreal and Boston. In the latter city he will meet Mr. Horace Ayers, formerly of Peterboro, and they will embark on a trip to England. Mr. Holmes will be away about six weeks and on his return will spend a few days in Nova Scotia, previous to leaving for Springfield, Mass., where he will take the degree work which has been added to the curriculum there this year.

Rev. J. A. Wilson Preached Yesterday

A gentleman well known here, Rev. J. A. Wilson, formerly assistant pastor of St. Paul's church, but now of St. Andrews, Hamilton, yesterday preached two eloquent sermons in this city. In the morning, the rev. gentleman occupied the pulpit of St. Paul's church, and in Knox church at the evening service. Mr. Wilson is now making great headway in his new parish, his congregation being a large and constantly increasing one. He is greatly interested in a new church being erected in his present parish.

Destroy Your Weeds

The Chief will soon be round with blood in his eye and vengeance in his heart after people who are so regardless of their neighbor's vineyards as to let all kinds of weeds flourish like a green bay tree and scatter seeds, not of kidness, broadcast.

There is a stringent by-law forbidding this propagation of noxious weeds, such as mullins, burdocks, thistles and others. Get out your sickle, roll up your sleeves and get to work on that lot of yours that bears a miniature forrest of weeds!

Excursion to Thousand Islands

On Saturday morning a special G.T.R. train passed through Peterboro at 7.30, bearing an excursion party from Lindsay, Maripost and other points, for Belleville en route to the Thousand Islands. Some fifty local citizens joined the party which comprised about 100. They reached Belleville shortly after noon, where they embarked on a steamer for their destination. This is a beautiful trip, but, whilst proprietors may not find honor in their own country, our Kawartha Lakes seem to have a stronger hold on Peterboro's citizens this distant pleasure grounds.

$250 Well Spent.

The Council did a wise act when they appropriated $250 for the trimming of shade trees throughout the city. This is being done, and well done, by Mr. J. W. Whitney and his corps of assistants.

The city will look better and more in keeping with the dignity of its new appelation. The beautiful shade trees, that so gracefully ornament our streets will thrive better and eventually throw forth a greater vigor of growth from this timely attention, and hundreds of thousands of moth and caterpillar larvae will be put to a better end, as far as humanity and the trees are concerned, than being left to grow to maturity and spread their progeny.

Our Wheat Puzzle.

The Times has had several solutions sent of the wheat distribution puzzle we inserted last week. None of the replies so far received are correct, the nearest being that sent by a correspondent who signs himself "Reader." This latter correspondent gives an ingenious solution by algebra, which whilst making an equitable distribution of the 100 bushels, does not fill requirements of the question. He divides the 100 bushels among two men, 30 women, and 34 children, or 66 beneficiaries altogether. "Arithmetica" answer is altogether wrong as is that of "Easy." By special request, we once more insert the problem and will publish the correct answer on Thursday. A man dies leaving outside other bequests, 100 bushels of wheat to be divided among 100 people, men to get three bushels each, women two bushels each and children 1 1-2 bushels each, how was the wheat divided? And name the rule by which solution is attained.

Obituary.

Death of Mrs. Alfred Garlick on Sunday.

There passed away on Sunday, a well known and highly respected lady, in the person of Mrs. Garlick, wife of Mr. Alfred Garlick, on Water street.

The deceased was 49 years of age, and had been ill for over four years, being a sufferer of rheumatism.

She leaves besides her husband, four sisters and two brothers. Her sisters are: Mrs. J. Nelson, Washington; Mrs. J. McGee, Parry Sound; Miss R. McLaughlin, Rochester; Miss W. McLaughlin, Peterboro. Her brothers are: Messrs. Peter McLaughlin, of Wisconsin; and Edward, of Sturgeon Bay.

The funeral will take place on Tuesday morning at nine o'clock to St. Peter's Cathedral and thence to the Roman Catholic cemetery for interment.

The Rector's Vacation.

Rev. J. C. Davidson will be Absent During Month of August.

Rev. J. C. Davidson, Rector of St. John's church, announced to the congregation, yesterday morning, that he would be absent during the month of August. He further notified his flock that he had completed arrangements with the Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, Rector of St. Luke's church, whereby the latter had kindly consented to celebrate Holy Communion on the 1st and 3rd Sundays of August during his absence.

On Friday, the rector received a telegram from a friend of his, in the ministry, who had promised to relieve him during his vacation, but at the last minute, Mr. Davidson's friend was unavoidably debarred from coming.

As the rector's health is quite seriously run down from overwork in the parish, it is absolutely essential that he take a well earned rest. During the rector's absence some members of the congregation have kindly volunteered to read the lessons and otherwise assist. It is very generally hoped the month's absence will materially recruit the rector's health and prepare him for a renewal of his strenuous labors in the cause of his church.

Local Tax Collector and His Staff Kept Busy During the Past Few Weeks.

Were a turnstile that was self-registering placed at the stairway leading to our local tax office on Simcoe street, it would have registered a good many callers during the past week. Mr. W. J. Green, the collector and his staff have been kept pretty busy during the past week or two.

The collector states that up to Saturday night he has taken in between forty and fifty thousand dollars. People are betraying an anxiety to have their bills paid by August 1st, after which date the two per cent. discount is not allowed. Doubtless, Monday, this last day of the month, will be the busiest of the season. It will be well for citizens to remember the following official information;—

All statute labor and dog taxes are due on August 1st, 1905. One-half of all other taxes due August 1st, and the other half on Nov. 15th, 1905 If the first half be not promptly paid when due the second half shall forthwith become due and payable. Upon prompt payment of one or both instalments on any property by August 1st, 1905, a discount of two per cent. will be allowed on the amount so paid. Three per cent. will be added to the first instalment, and dog taxes and statute labor taxes, if not paid on August 1st, 1905. Five per cent., including per centage already added, if any, will be added to all taxes unpaid after November 15th, 1905.

"Go West, Ranch it and rough it and you'll soon get rid of that weak chest and that hacking cough." That is what the doctor said to a young married man with a wife and child to care for and a modest salary to support them on. He couldn't go West. Love and duty tied him to his desk in the city.

People don't have to travel to cure coughs or strengthen weak lungs. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures obstinate, deep-seated coughs, bronchitis, bleeding of the lungs, weakness, emaciation and other forms of disease which if neglected or unskillfully treated terminate fatally in consumption.

"I will write you what Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has done for me," says George H. Belcher, Esq., of Dorton, Pike County, Ky; "Thirteen years ago I was wounded by a ball passing through my lung. I have had a bad cough almost ever since, with shortness of breath, and it was very easy to take cold; the slightest change of weather would cause the cough to be so bad I would have to sit up in bed all night. Could not eat or sleep at times; was all run down; could not work at all. A few months ago I began using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Have not used more than two bottles, and now can eat, sleep, and work, and I feel like a new man. I cannot find words to sufficiently recommend Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, or tell the good it has done me."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser in paper covers is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. The book has 1008 pages and over 700 illustrations. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES.

"Go West, TEN YEARS

The Story of My Wonderful Success.

Reads Like a Fairy Tale-Yet Full of Convincing Truths

An Opportunity of a Lifetime for the Investor.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF IT.

I ask every reader of this paper to write me. I want to send you my free book entitled "Ten Years"—"The Story of My Wonderful Success." It tells about one of the greatest and most promising investment opportunities ever offered. It tells how my business grew from less than $25.00 capital to its present proportions.

I believe I have the best proposition from an investor's standpoint that could be placed before you. For ten years I have been teaching men and women to live according to the laws of Nature. My book is the history of my life. It shows what energy and ambition can accomplish in the world of affairs. It is intensely interesting to any man or woman who has a few dollars to invest in a legitimate enterprise.

I started business in the City of Brooklyn in 1896. My capital amounted to less than $25.00. My first year's business netted me over $1,000.00. Last year I paid dividends to my partners of 15 per cent. Five years ago my business had grown so large that I was compelled to remove to larger quarters. I am now at 63-65 Clark St., Brooklyn, N.Y.—in connection with Hotel St. George. Experts pronounce my institution to be the best appointed of its kind in the country. I estimate the equipment of the Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture to be worth at least $40,000.00.

I want to have a building of my own that will enable me to accommodate my increasing business. To erect this building I need capital, but more important than this to increase my business to the proportions which I desire, I need the co-operation of men and women throughout the country and the world.

Co-operation is the Secret of Success

I recognize it. I believe that with thousands of co-operaters throughout the country I can build my business to tremendous proportions to the benefit of the shareholders and myself.

The Mac Levy Company is incorporated under the laws of New York for $150,000.00. They are proprietors of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

The last named branch of the business of the Mac Levy Company is comparatively new. I have been at work for several years to establish such a department in connection with teaching Physical Culture. The most difficult part of forming the Equipment Company has been accomplished. The business is now in condition to be pushed on a large scale. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are spent yearly on new gymnasiums and their equipment. The profits are large. A company of this kind has an immense field in which to work. Competition is slight. It is evident that the Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company can build an enormous business.

The Mac Levy Company operates during the summer months at Steeplechase Park, Coney Island, and at Averne Hotel, Averne-by-the-Sea, L. I., as well as at our Brooklyn Institute. I also do an extensive mail business. I teach people how they should live and exercise. My students are scattered all over the United States, and in English speaking countries.

A PROBLEM

which arrises in the minds of every man and woman is how to secure a comfortable income in the earlier years of their life, that they may reap the full benefits which such an income affords.

I have long thought that there are hundreds of people in moderate circumstances who would like to invest a few dollars in an Institution of this kind. It is to such people that I intend this announcement shall appeal. I am offering a block of the Treasury Stock of this company to the public at its par value. My reasons for doing this are that I wish to erect a building and to extend the business of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

I WANT YOU AS MY PARTNER

I need your help and suggestion. I want you to work with me and help me to secure a tremendous amount of new business.

I believe that if you could talk with me personally and go over the records of the business which I have done, see in black and white the figures which show the steady growth my business has experienced during the last ten years, examine my plans for future extension, and then look over the magnificient equipment of my Institute, and would want no further evidence that money put into my business would bring you the greatest possible returns consistent with safety and good management.

I ask you to write for my free book. I believe it will interest you. You have a few dollars that you want to invest. Why let it stand idle earning only 3 or 4 per cent that Savings Bank pay their depositors? Put it to work. Join it with mine. This Company ought to pay at least

Five Army Corps Killed in Battle

Frightful Losses by Russia Since Beginning of the War With Japan--The Japanese Have Succeeded in Keeping the World in Ignorance of Their Losses.

London, Aug. 1.—The losses in the great battles of this present war in the East convey but a vague idea of the actual casualties. The Japanese have succeeded in keeping the world in ignorance of the lives sacrificed on their side in the great struggle, but now comes a Russian military expert who frankly acknowledges that his country has lost in killed, disabled and missing the appalling number of three hundred thousand men! In an article which appears in the current number of the "Journal of the United Service Institute," this Russian officer furnishes these startling figures, and as the article is written in reply to criticisms of the Ministry of War they may be accepted as official. The total strength of the army, including the troops in Manchuria at the breaking out of hostilities and sent there from that time till the beginning of May last, was eight hundred thousand men Of that number, two hundred thousand are set down as non-combatants—commissariat, army artificers, hospital attendants, etc. General Linevitch has now an army of three hundred thousand men, in round numbers, in the fighting line. The difference represents the fearful loss above noted.

Five whole army corps, numerically speaking, have thus been wiped out and with them have gone their proportion of horses, guns, arms, supplies and equipment. Altogether, this represents a loss that is impossible to state in money values. The Russian writer maintains that a military army which was able to place an army of eight hundred thousand men in the field more than six thousand miles distant, by overland transport, with all necessary supplies and equipment, cannot be blamed for this disasters and failure of the campaign. For these and the stupendous losses enumerated, he blames General Kuropatkin, whom he rates as an officer capable, perhaps, to command a division, but wholly incompetent for the position of supreme command. This attempt to make a scapegoat of a general who failed under conditions where it is more than likely success was impossible, will not be endorsed by foreign military critics. It is now quite evident that the immense army sent to Manchuria was defective in several essential qualities. Sullen dislike for the war in the ranks, incompetence of the officers, disobedience of orders by subordinate generals, and fraudulent supplies were among the causes of Kuropatkin's failure, let the Ministry of War say what it will.

ANGLO-JAP TREATY IS MUCH STRONGER.

Details of New Entente are Nearly Completed--England Expects to be Consulted About Peace Terms by Japan.

London, Aug. 1.—Considerable progress is being made with the new Anglo-Japanese treaty of alliance, which the Foreign Office hopes will be concluded at an early date. Some of the details have not yet been fully settled, but it can be definitely stated that the terms will be decidedly more comprehensive than those governing the present alliance. The treaty will be promulgated as soon as completed, things being no doubt on the part of the British Government to make its publication dependent on the conclusion of peace.

EXPECTS JAPAN TO ASK.

As to the suggestions that Great Britain should advise Japan to be lenient, the Associated Press learns that the British Government's presumption is that its advice will be asked by Japan in the course of the peace negotiations, and that it will then gladly offer what counsel may seem to it best calculated to secure a permanent peace.

RUSSIA TO INCREASE TAXES

Scheme for Raising Additional $50,000,000 Yearly

St. Petersburg, August 1. — The Ministry of Finance is elaborating a scheme for the imposition of additional taxes to the amount of $50,000,000 annually; this will constitute a new departure in Russian taxation, the new taxes being imposed principally on the well-to-do classes. The principle of a tax on incomes and also on inheritances will be introduced. One part of the statement is the imposition of a tax on lodgings reaching for over $150 per annum.

M. Kathe, assistant minister of finance, who is elaborating the project, says it will be ready to be placed in force in September.

The proceeds of this taxation would be more than sufficient to meet the interest on any indemnity Russia might agree to pay Japan.

HOT COFFEE IN NEGRO'S FACE

St. Louis Waitress Receives Hundreds of Letters from Southern Men for Her Spirit

St. Louis, Mo., August 1. — Miss Mattie O'Brien, the waitress at the Union Station, who, a few weeks ago, threw a cup of hot coffee with the cup and saucer in the face of an impudent negro, who demanded to be served before white people, is receiving hundreds of congratulatory letters from all over the country. The majority of the letters are from the south and many of them contain money. Yesterday she received a letter from a number of Arkansas travelling men inclosing $25. Duff Green, a well known Arkansas salesman, acting as spokesman for the donors, wrote:

"A few of us fellows made up a collection among ourselves to send you. We glory in your spunk and commend you for what you did."

A Confederate veteran sent Miss O'Brien $1, saying he did not have much longer to live, "but God bless you, girl, and I am your friend as long as my old carcass lasts."

PRIEST QUITS CHURCH OF ROME

Father Hennis of Fond du Lac Becomes Episcopal Clergyman

Fond Du Lac, Wis., August 1. — Father Hennis, formerly a Roman Catholic priest, has become a communicant of the Episcopal church, and will soon be a licensed clergyman in the Fond Du Lac diocese. Father Hennis is a graduate of a Roman Catholic seminary in Texas, and was located at Boise, Idaho, before coming to Fond Du Lac. He is a comparatively young man, of extensive learning, and says he became an Episcopalian on purely conscientious grounds.

Bank President Fishes

Yesterday a party of prominent Americans were guests at the Snowden House, en route home. They comprised Messrs. W. H. Braby, president of the 1st National Bank of Wangum, Pa., and Mrs. Braby, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McKinney and Mr. Robt. McKenney, and Mr. John Kock, of Pittsburg, Pa.

Mr. Koch is general freight agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad, between Pittsburg and Crystal. The party have been spending some weeks at Viamede and points on Stony Lake, Lovesick Lake and Deer Bay, and report great success with the fishing. Mr. Braby has been a regular visitor to Stony Lake for the past fifteen years and is infatuated with the locality. He told a Times' representative yesterday that the waters in the vicinity of Pittsburg do not approach the Kawartha Lakes in either scenery or fishing, their fish having been killed out by the local authorities allowing acids, coloms and other deleterious and poisonous matters from the factories to enter their streams and lakes.

Mr. Braby has a unique mode of carrying his money. Being president of a bank, all bills of his bank necessarily require his signature before becoming valid and legal tender. He simply brings with him so many sheets of bills of large denomination already signed by the bank's cashier, and, as he requires funds, signs his name as president, to as many $10 or $20 bills as the exigencies of the occasion demand. Yesterday he showed a Times representative a sheet containing three $10 and one $20 bills, which were legal tender all but his signature, and as soon as he signs one of these bills, he simply detaches and hands it over as money.

Should any of the United States banks require a man to give their paper currency publication and general distribution, they need only send a few sheets to the papers of this city accompanied by a power of attorney, and their bills would be amply distributed broadcast.

The party left last night for Pittsburg.

Mr. F. G. Smith, Editor of Buffalo Horse World Says Kind Things About Peterboro

In the "At Home and Abroad" column of the well known sporting paper, The Buffalo Horse World, of which Mr. Smith, who so ably filled the difficult position of starter at our recent races, is editor, appears a notice of our city. Mr. Smith says:

"Peterboro, a crack city of eastern Ontario, must now be recognized as one of the best racing points in that section of Canada. The meeting there in this past week was up the blue, reflecting praise upon President R. J. Munro, and hustling secretary, Mr. A. Rountree, and every member of the Turf Club."

"Mr. J. Neville, a clever Canadian knight of the sulky, is located at Peterboro at present with several fast nags. His last and handsome mare, Lottie Strathmore, 2.20 1-4, is owned by Mr. Chevrier, a princely gentleman of Ottawa, is showing up well, and will win plenty of winter oats. The pacing mare, Lady Gothard, trail 2.14 1-4, driven by William H. McDonald, at Cleveland two years ago, has a great burst of speed, while the black rascal, Blucher, is always dangerous in his class. Times two are owned by Mr. Martin Connors, the Mark Twain of Canada, and one of the most popular gentlemen down the racing pike. Mr. Connors says that he has his compass pointed towards Memphis next October, and when he arrives Murray Howe will order out two brass bands."

"Visiting horsemen to the Peterboro, Ontario, races the past week were highly entertained during hours of leisure by Mr. George N. Graham and son. A visit to the celebrated lift lock in the suburbs of the city, is alone worth a trip to the progressive Canadian city. The great lock, costing over a million and a half dollars, is the work of modern engineering skill. The great machinery works as perfectly as a modern elevator in a metropolitan sky scraper.

"Mr. Graham deals in high-stepping horses almost exclusively, yet he was never known to miss a good race meeting, and is a hale gentleman, well met.

Pictures Appreciated.

Larger Crowds Than Ever Attend Band Concert at Jackson Park and Admire Kinetoscope Views.

Last night, notwithstanding the threatening appearance of the sky and the evident danger of rain, larger crowds than ever took the street cars for Jackson Park. The 57th Regiment Band, seated in an open car, played both up and down George street, which, in addition to the intelligent advertising given the kinetograph pictures for some days previous by the Street Car Co., management, induced many hundreds to visit this well lighted and orderly place of amusement.

Mr. George Mabi, of the New York Kinetograph Co., who was specially brought to Peterboro to give a series of time light moving pictures, by the street car management, made a great success in his display, and the pictures, some of the finest ever seen in Canada, were pronounced by all present, to be well worth a visit. Mr. Mabi has already ordered another large series of views from New York, for use in Jackson Park, and these will soon be here.

The Street Car Company are hustlers for business and keep confidence with their patrons.

JAPAN TO ASK FOR INDEMNITY

A Japanese Officer Here on a Pleasure Trip Talks of the War Situation

Montreal, August 1.—Captain Miyagawa, a Japanese officer from Tokio arrived on the Allan Liner Victorian. The captain denied the rumor that he had been sent to this country by the Japanese government upon a secret mission connected with the commissariat of the army in Manchuria. He stated that his visit was entirely one of pleasure, and that he would visit New York and some other American cities. He stated that in view of the fact that Japan had sacrificed so many lives and so much treasure in defeating Russia's designs in the East, they would certainly exact an indemnity. In his mind there could be but one possible outcome to the war should it continue, that meant complete victory for Japan.

45 BATTLESHIPS IN BRITISH WATERS

Scheme of Naval Redistribution Has Now Been Completed

READY AT MOMENT'S NOTICE

Channel Fleet Alone Will Number Fifteen First-class Battleships

London, August 1.—The Admiralty have arranged to make a large and immediate increase in the naval forces available in the North Seas, thus completing the scheme of redistribution. The Channel fleet, which six months ago comprised only eight battleships, will be raised to a strength of fifteen battleships, while two additional battleships will be allotted to the Atlantic and Mediterranean fleets, bringing these two commands up to nine battleships each, and the strength of the Reserve division at the home naval ports will also receive another armored unit, raising the total number of battleships to twelve, after deducting the Renown, which is being fitted up for the Royal tour to India.

As a result of this decision the country will have available in commission and ready for war at an instant's notice the lower than forty-five first-class battleships, all constructed since the passing of the Naval Defence Act, and fifteen armored cruisers, belonging to the First, Second and Third Cruiser squadrons, besides twenty-seven other cruisers "in commission in reserve," with nucleus crews and numerous torpedo craft. Every ship is prepared for any eventuality. All these vessels are concentrated in the Near Seas.

This gratifying accession of strength is due to the redistribution and reorganization of the fleets outlined in Lord Selborne's famous memorandum of Christmas last. The nucleus crew system for ships in reserve, which has been demonstrated to be such a conspicuous success by the manoeuvres in the English Channel, gave the country an entirely new fleet, prepared for immediate use, but the complete scheme of naval redistribution could not be carried out while naval operations were in progress in the Far East. When the battle of the Sea of Japan was fought there were five British battleships attached to the China squadron, under the command of Sir Gerard Noel, and two others were on their way out from England as reliefs. Directly news of Admiral Togo's annihilating victory was received, orders were cabled recalling these seven ships, thus leaving the British force in China waters at a greater strength than ten years ago, prior to the upbuilding of the Russian Pacific squadron. In future the British force in China seas will include:

Eight cruisers, two of them armored.

Four sloops and special service vessels.

Fourteen torpedo-boat destroyers.

Admiral Sir Gerard Noel, who was appointed to the command of the station in January, 1904, will continue to act as Commander-in-Chief until the expiration of his term, and the protected cruiser Diadem will fly his flag. In future there will be no second in command, as the reduced squadron does not call for another flag-officer. Rear-Admiral the Hon. Assheton G. Curzon Howe, who has been in the Far East for nearly two years, has, consequently been recalled, and will haul down his flag on reaching England.

As a result of the sudden termination of naval hostilities, owing to the dramatic destruction of the Russian fleet, the naval authorities have found themselves in a position to complete the scheme of redistribution, the essential feature of which is concentration in the "Near Seas," whence the forces can be distributed on war becoming imminent, as circumstances may dictate. The whole of the battle squadron, under the most trustworthy admirals, will be within touch of the nerve centre of the Empire at the Admiralty, while the Eastern fleet will consist of three groups of cruisers, acting during war under the orders of Sir Gerard Noel and in peace time based on Hong Kong (China squadron) Aden (East Indies squadron), and Sydney (Australian squadron). The group of cruisers at the Cape of Good Hope will be the connecting link between the Western and Eastern fleets, with Simonstown as its base. This autumn the whole Eastern fleet will be concentrated for joint manoeuvres.

When Lord Selborne issued his memorandum the Board of Admiralty could not have foreseen that events would develop so quickly and enable them to bring to completion so early their plans for the concentration of the Empire's battle squadrons in the English Channel, the North Sea, and the Mediterranean within six months of the redistribution scheme being announced.

The seven battleships recalled from the Far East have been disposed as follows:

Name of Ship.	Attached to.
Albion.....	Channel Fleet
Glory.....	Channel Fleet
Ocean.....	Channel Fleet
Vengeance.....	Channel Fleet
(Sister ships of 12,950 tons, Built in 1898-9.)
Goliath.....	Mediterranean Fleet
Canopus.....	Atlantic Fleet
(12,950 tons; built in 1898.)
Centurion.....	Reserve in Commission
(10,500 tons; built in 1892.)

The result of this change, as already stated, will be to raise the Channel fleet, of which Admiral Sir Arthur Wilson is the Commander-in-Chief, to a strength of fifteen battleships. This is the largest naval force of modern ships ever placed under the orders of a flag officer, and it has the advantage of being homogeneous. It comprises:

The Exmouth, Russell, Duncan, Montagu, Cornwallis, and Albemarle, sister ships of 14,000 tons and 19 knots speed.

The Caesar and Hannibal, sister ships of 14,950 tons and 17 knots speed, and the Revenge of 14,150 tons, which will shortly be relieved by the Prince George, sister ship to the Queen and Hannibal.

The Albion, Glory, Ocean and Vengeance, sister ships, of 12,950 tons, and 18 1-4 knots speed.

The Triumph and Swiftsure, of 11,950 tons, and 19 1-2 knots speed.

Taxes Payable To-day.

To Save the Discount and Avoid the Penalty for Non-Payment, Pay Your Taxes To-day.

As an indication of the power and influence of newspapers these modern times, a clerical error in yesterday's issue of The Times, caused a rush on the local Tax Collector's office. By an error The Times of yesterday noted that Monday was the last day in which the discount on taxes could be saved; the notice should have read "Up to and including Tuesday, August 1st," instead of Monday, July 31st.

As a consequence of this error, Mr. Green, the collector, yesterday evening told a Times representative that he and his staff were hard rushed all day, taking in the municipal "sinews of war," for the current year. Up to six p.m. the tax office had taken in, during yesterday over $7,000 in actual cash, and a much larger sum in certified cheques. All taxes paid in to-day, during office hours, are subject to the discount of two per cent., and all taxes on which no payments are made, will have the punitive addition for nonpayment added.

A Fine Yacht.

Mr. Darnley, of Pittsburg, Pa., Takes His Fine Yacht, "Strathmore" to Stony Lake.

Yesterday quite a number of citizens admired the fine yacht Strathmore, as it was taken over the lift lock, en route to Kawartha Lakes. This splendidly equipped and speedy yacht, which was on Saturday, unloaded from a C.P.R. car by Messrs. J. J. Turner & Sons, was yesterday equipped and its commissariat furnished by local dealers preparatory to its journey from Peterboro. Mr. A. Rountree, the George street grocer, sending a large cart load of both wet and dry provisions aboard.

Mr. Donnelly, the multimillionaire, of Pittsburg, and who is now erecting a $50,000 residence at Oobourg, its owner, supervised its transport and equipment.

Steamboat News.

Doings of the Calcutt Line Steamers, City of Peterboro and Water Lily.

To-day a large excursion under the auspices of the Salvation Army Sunday school, accompanied by the Army's fine band, leave for Jubilee Point, per steamer City of Peterboro.

On Thursday, August 3rd, the Riverdale Sunday school will run an excursion to Burleigh Falls, via the lift lock, per steamer Water Lily.

On Saturday, August 5th, the Mark Street Ladies' Aid have an excursion to Jubilee Point per steamer City of Peterboro. The Calcut Line steamers will not have to go into dry dock this season to have the barnacles scraped off, judging by their almost daily schedule of excursions.

City Pays $2,840.

Commissioners Have Settled Amount Due County for Administration of Justice.

One of the aftermaths of Peterboro becoming a city, is a small addition to our share in the county's estimates for this administration of justice.

As a town Peterboro paid annually the sum of $2,225, but Messrs. W. H. Casement, Lakefield, and John Carnegie, city, who have been considering the matter here, now signed the award fixing the amount to be paid yearly by the city to the county in lieu of administration of justice at $2,840.

Mr. G. L. Porter Writes the Times

The Times was yesterday in receipt of a friendly communication from Mr. Geo. L. Porter, of Union City, a leading American promoter and agent of the higher class of mining investment. Mr. Porter spent some weeks in this city last spring, and signifies his intention of paying Peterborough another visit about the middle of this month.

Mr. Porter is very sanguine about prospects of the Big Casino mine in California, and in his letter stated that his get mining property, The Big Casino, which now has a large stamp mill in operation, 10 hours every day, is turning out richer than its owners anticipated, the ore now showing over $10 a ton. Mr. Porter will call on some of our leading capitalists when he comes and offer a fair proposition, viz., to take any one offering to subscribe for a large block of stock to the mine, and pay all expenses should this mine not show as good as represented. For further particulars, those interested in a sound investment might watch these columns, for notice of Mr. Porter's arrival and offers of stock.

Will Inspect Brantford and London Engines

Mr. Eugene Gibbs Authorized by the Council to Make a Trip for This Purpose--No Half Holiday When the Old Boys Visit Here Next Monday.

The City Fathers met in Committee of the Whole last night, when there were present; Mayor Henry (first presiding, and Aldermen Johnston, Beglev, Hicks, Leary, Batten, Tovey, Crowe, Adams, Mason, Scott and McIntyre.

The question of purchasing a new steam fire engine took up considerable of the committee's time, and Mr. Eugene Gibbs of the Wm. Hamilton Mfg. Co., was present to offer expert opinion as to the merits of the two engines under consideration—The Waterous machine of Brantford, Ont., and that manufactured by the Canadian Fire Engine Co., of London, Ont. Mr. Gibbs pointed out that as both specifications were only of a general nature, not going into specific details, it would be very hard to make any selection between the two. Then the specifications both call for a modern engine, and follow each other very closely; whatever difference there is between these engines would exist in particular parts.

On motion of Ald. Tovey, seconded by Ald. Hicks, Mr. Gibbs will visit the London and Brantford firms, at the city's expense, inspect the respective machines, and report to the Council at an early date.

It was here questioned by Ald. Mason if a steam fire engine was absolutely necessary.

Chief Rutherford also asked where the city would put the new fire engine should one be purchased. The Council have under consideration a 1,000 gallon engine weighing four and a half tons, and he was quite positive such a machine could not be accommodated in the present fire hall; Then, again, a thousand feet of 3-ply hose would be needed, as the city's present hose would not stand a 1,000 gallons' pressure 15 minutes. What we need more than an engine, he urged, is a new fire hall and to replace our present alarm system, which is not fit for any village, with a modern one.

Ald. Hicks—"Let us get the engine, and we'll find some place to put it. As to the alarm system, the city has to-day 200 more phones than 12 months ago; in another year these will have increased by another 300, and each telephone is an alarm." Ald. Hicks opined that although, as offered by Ald. Mason, the engine might not be called into requisition in years, it was necessary for protection in cases of unforseen contingencies arising. Then the underwriters would inflict a fine were an engine not available.

At this juncture it looked as though the Council were about to "change their minds," and drop the new engine phase of the situation, and go into a committee of ways and means for getting a new fire hall and alarm system first. On reflection, however, the shade of the defunct fire hall by law, which the people voted down, opportunely put in its appearance, and the worthy aldermen decided to leave the much talked of new fire hall severely alone. They accordingly acquiesced in Ald. Johnston's timely suggestion that it will do no harm for Mr. Gibbs to go and inspect the Brantford and London engines as previously decided on, as his report will be available at any time.

THE OLD BOYS.

The committee decided to appropriate $50 with which to entertain the Peterboro Old Boys from Toronto next Monday. A band will be engaged, and some slight decorations indulged in. The Reception Committee, and a portion of the 57th Regiment Band will meet the excursionists at the G.T.R. station. The Reception Committee are His Worship, Aldermen Hall, Mason, Scott, Leary, Adams and Begley. In the absence of Ald. Hall, Ald. Leary will officiate as chairman.

Ald. Leary promises to lay out the appropriation to the best possible advantage, and it was generally understood that the Council will not kick should his expenses slightly exceed $50. It was the Council's unanimous opinion that the merchants should decorate their premises for this occasion. No half-holiday will be proclaimed, as the merchants and manufacturers are opposed to such action.

HOUSE MOVING BY-LAW.

Ald. Crowe's by-law to regulate the moving of buildings along the streets was gone into. Amongst other things it provides that permission shall be obtained from the corporation for such removals, a time limit and a fixed hour for obstructing the streets, and the corporation to be indemnified for any damages that might result from such operations. One clause also prohibited the placing of any building so removed on any lot without first obtaining the permission of adjoining property owners.

This, however, was thought to be too arbitrary, and met with disfavor. The whole matter will be again taken up at next meeting, and the objectable features—and there are many—appended to the building by-law.

Ald. Johnston was instructed to make the best possible arrangements for removing the refuse from the town stables.

Ald. Leary submitted that Jackson Park should be regularly cleared of paper and other refuse resulting from the place being so largely resorted. He was advised that the city had no control of this beauty spot, which is under the management of the park trustees.

Ald. Leary advised that cement crossings be constructed when sidewalks are being built. Most of our crossings, he said, are a disgrace to the city. Even Omemee has decent crossings.

Ald. Leary is quite correct, and there is one particular crossing at George and Edinburgh streets which is worse than a whole colonony of ordinary bad crossings combined. "Knowing pedestrians" carefully avoid it by walking in the road. Perhaps thats why the old irregular corn punishing cedar blocks have lasted so long. We have had that crossing in mind for years now, and would rather have it in our mind than beneath our feet. It would be a good idea for the city to at this point either put up a sign, "Beware of the crossing," or else follow Ald. Leary's suggestion and build a new one of some kind—Perhaps cement would be cheapest in the long run. And there are many other crossings nearly if not equally as bad as the one here specified.

Handsome pictures of last year's and this year's Councils were distributed amongst the aldermen—one of 1904 and one of 1905 for each alderman in his second term, and one of 1905 only for each in his first year.

The photographs are the work of Mr. R. M. Boy, are admirably executed, and will undoubtedly be appreciated by their recipients as artistic creations of considerable merit.

The Council then adjourned.

Millionaire Fisherman.

Mr. Jack Diamond Captures 50 Pounds a Day of Fish in Kawartha Lakes.

Mr. Jack Diamond and wife, Savannah Georgia, were at the Snowden House yesterday. Mr. Diamond, a son of the largest distiller in the United States has been spending some weeks at Buckhorn, and has had good luck in his piscatorial efforts, capturing over fifty pounds of bass and muskinonge a day in the Kawartha Lakes, mainly in Deer Bay and Lovesick Lakes. He leaves this morning for the north west where he will enjoy some weeks moose hunting, and exterminating grizzlies. Mr. Diamond speaks very highly of both the scenery and fishing in our upper lakes.

Two Very Old People.

Centenarians of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island.

Moncton, N.B., Aug. 1.—The town of Bartouche, Kent County, N.B., boasts of a centenarian in the person of Wm. McKelvie, who was born at Donyle Moore, Donegal, Ireland, in 1805, and came out to this province when a young man, landing at St. John. Mr. McKelvie's century of years rests lightly upon him. He reads without the aid of glasses, still has a good head of hair, and is smarter than some men twenty years his junior. Deafness is his principal weakness, but he is still able to carry on a conversation and delights to talk of the old times.

Mrs. Mary McDonald, of Summerside, Prince Edward Island, is perhaps the oldest living person in that province. She is now in her 103rd year, having been born at Seven Mile Bay, P.E.I., in 1802. She is now quite blind, and is confined to her bed.

A Big Fish.

Orillia News-Letter: Charlie Waterhouse, while fishing with rod and line in Rebecca Lake, hooked a salmon which took him an hour and ten minutes to land. It weighed 18 pounds, and the Huntsville Forester says: "It is undoubtedly the biggest fish ever taken from Muskoka waters with rod and line." The Forrester is wrong. About twenty years ago Mr. John F. Hunter, of Orillia, while fishing from a canoe in Sparrow Lake, had the time of his life for nearly an hour in landing a lunge with an eight ounce rod. The fish weighed eighteen pounds, one ounce, and Mr. Hunter's hands looked as though they had been stabbed with a knife before he got the lunge in the canoe.

May Train Here.

The race horse, Joe Allen, owned by Mr. Sam Hallett, of Sunderland, and which won the 2.40 class race here on the 14th July, arrived in the city yesterday, en route for home. Owing to the excellent local track the horse may be kept here to train for the Toronto Exhibition races. Mr. Martin Connor's fast horse Blucher, which raced at Montreal, and stopped over in Perth to pick up some of the Perthonians' long green is also in the city again. Blucher is bound to make a good record, as is proved by his experience in Montreal, where he ran for money nine times, and only failed to connect once. He will meet Lady Gothard, the mare so favorably thought of at the local meet, during the races at Montreal beginning, Aug. 22d., Blucher's driver is on to his job and knows how to get the speed out of any horse pulling the sulky he sits on.

A Great Harvest.

Toronto, Aug. 1.—Hon. Nelson Monteith, the Provincial Minister of Agriculture, expects the Ontario wheat crop this season to equal the big harvests of 1900 and 1902, when the returns were 23,400,000 and 20,200,000 bushels respectively, also that the oat crop will equal the yield of 1903, when the crop was 149,000,000 bushels.

The Scourge of Consumption

Thousands are Dying—If Tired Languid or Run Down Get Protection Before Too Late

No child, man or woman is safe from consumption unless their blood is pure, rich and nourishing.

Allow the blood to become thin, and immediately the whole system grows weak. The lungs are deprived of resisting power and the ever-present tubercular bacilli develops.

The most positive protection against consumption is Ferrozone, which restores the blood to full strength. Weak organs are instantly strengthened. Worn-out tissues are rebuilt. New life is given to the lungs and all danger of consumption is destroyed.

Mrs. E. J. Richardson, Manotick, Ont., writes as follows:—"For some time past I was not well. I was thin and anaemic. Towards spring I fell into a condition of nervous exhaustion. A dead tired-ness hung over me like a load of lead. Housework of any kind I simply couldn't do. A bad cough developed that worried me greatly for I thought it might be tubercular. When I first read of Ferrozone I was convinced it was good. I took it regularly for eight weeks and the change in my condition was wonderful. My cheeks filled out and became clear and rosy. I gained eight pounds and now am strong and vigorous as possible."

Ferrozone feeds, nourishes and tones up the body—it sends the thrill and vim of robust health from head to foot—makes you feel better at once. Won't you use Ferrozone? Price 50c. per box, or six boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or N. C. Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U.S.A., and Kingston, Ont.

PETERBORO AUGUST 1 1905

THE END NOT YET

Prof. Goldwin Smith, in the Weekly Sun, says: "A French Catholic Premier, resting largely on Roman Catholic support, in correspondence with a Papal emissary, and in concert with a Roman Catholic Minister of Justice, frames, in apparent contravention of the plain letter of the Canadian constitution, as well as in defiance of Liberal principle, a measure binding two new Provinces in perpetuity to propagate Roman Catholicism through their public schools. A Parliament styling itself Liberal passes the bill, and at once receives, practically from the Prime Minister's hands, a large augmentation of the salaries of its members. The bill conferring the augmentation is shot through Parliament at the very end of the session, no notice or time being given for the manifestation of public opinion on the subject. In defence of the Government it is said that though no notice was given, the intention was whispered at Ottawa at a much earlier period in the session. It is doubtful whether this improved the case. Parliament has assuredly lowered itself in the respect of the people.

"No fanaticism, bigotry, or unworthy prejudice against the religion of our Catholic fellow-citizens, viewed apart from the notorious intrigues of the Jesuits, is implied in saying that such events call for the serious attention of patriotic citizens, especially of those who profess Liberal principles and are careful of the honor and integrity of their creed. The end probably is not yet. If this Autonomy Act contravenes the British North America Act, it will always be open to dispute, while all power of further interference on the part of the Dominion Parliament is at an end.

"To be distinctly advised as to the constitutional legality of the Bill before accepting it would seem to have been a duty of the Senate, as manifest as it was unhappily certain not to be performed.

"A more eccentric measure surely was never proposed than the assignment of an official salary to a number of Parliament for breaking a systematic opposition to the policy of the Government. The grant is especially comical where there is no opposition.

"This clause increasing the salary of the judges, apart from its sinister companions, will probably be received with general approbation. Public money cannot be more usefully spent than in drawing the best men from the bar to the bench and keeping them there. That a judge should have full control of his court is necessary to the expedition as well as to the certainty of justice. Let us have non-partisan appointments."

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES.

A LUCKY SMITH

Shortly after assuming office the Whitney Government appointed Mr. Cecil B. Smith, M.E., a member of the Temiskaming Railway Commission, at a salary of $3,000 per year. Three years ago it decided to add to Mr. Smith's emoluments by making him Chief Engineer of the Power Commission, to which position a salary of $3,000 is attached. The lucky gentleman is, therefore, in receipt of $6,000 in salaries from the Province. But this is not all. This week the Winnipeg City Council engaged him to report on a water power scheme for the municipality. Brandon has also made overtures to Mr. Smith to help it solve the water and power problem, and if he accepts that city's offer, he will spend weeks in the North-West. Meanwhile he is to the fore of this Province and the people generally supposed that he would at the handsome salary he is receiving remain on duty here. It is a scandalous proceeding, and remembering how Mr. Whitney was wont to roundly condemn Mr. Ross for permitting the perpetration of acts of a very much less heinous character, we can well imagine what the leader of the Government would say were he in Opposition today; and a Liberal employee engaged in grabbing everything in sight.

MANY MURDERS

The United States is supposed to be a civilized country—one of the most civilized on the face of the globe. It has laws against murder, murder is not thought well of by the people, and occasionally somebody is punished for murder. And yet during the twenty-year period of 1885-1904 the total number of murders in that country was 131,951. This is a startling record. During the twenty years ten times as many people have been murdered in the United States as there are in Peterborough. Of course the murdered ones may not have been as good and valuable as the people of Peterborough, but many of them thought well of themselves, and some of them wanted to be murdered.

It is decidedly interesting to notice that though during the twenty years 131,951 people were murdered in the country, there were only 2,280 executions, one for every fifty-seven murders. Perhaps this indicates that Uncle Sam's civilization is really more complete and kind-hearted than the murders indicate. Anyhow, it indicates something.

A Popular Magazine

The Engineering Magazine for August might be called a Special Shop-Management number, it is so rich in articles dealing with the newest methods for enlisting the interest and increasing the efficiency of the workman. Mr. H. F. J. Porter opens the number with the account of a system of sympathetic or "Ethical" management, introduced with high success into a large manufacturing concern of world-wide reputation. Mr. Hugo Diemer describes the plans followed in a strongly unionized engine-building and boiler-making concern, with marked effect on the betterment of the output. Mr. A. W. Buel discusses the introduction of cost-keeping methods and cost analysis into large contruction and contract work. Mr. C. R. King tells of the methods of a locomotive shop on the Continent. There is also a very interesting review of export trade, by Mr. W. Pollard Digby, and a study of valves for air compressors, by Mr. Leicester Allen. Announcement is made of a very important article on the Panama Canal, by Mr. John F. Wallace, to appear in the September issue of The Engineering Magazine. The number carries the complete Review and Index of the Engineering Press.

$250 Well Spent.

The Council did a wise act when they appropriated $250 for the trimming of shade trees throughout the city. This is being done, and well done, by Mr. J. W. Whitney and his corps of assistants.

The city will look better and more in keeping with the dignity of its new population. The beautiful shade trees, that so gracefully ornament our streets will thrive better and eventually throw forth a greater vigor of growth from this timely attention, and hundreds of thousands of moth and caterpillar larvae will be put to a better end, as far as humanity and the trees are concerned, than being left to grow to maturity and spread their progeny.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion land in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

[1] At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

[2] If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

[3] If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

[4] If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses [2], [3] or [4] must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 40 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd of June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Offices in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

N. B.—In addition to Free Grant Lands, to which the Regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from railroad and other corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

How to Visit Colorado

Go first to Denver. It is the State capital, as well as the largest, wealthiest and most metropolitan city between the Missouri River and the Pacific Coast. The city itself is very interesting, and from it start practically all the trains over the various roads into the mountains.

Many of the most enjoyable one-day trips in Colorado begin and end at Denver. The cost of these little journeys is not great.

After you have familiarized yourself with Denver and its surroundings will be soon enough to decide where to go for the rest of your visit. The question must be considered from several standpoints—altitude, hotel accommodations, accessibility, amusements, etc.

Our Colorado literature will help you in deciding where to go and what to do. Sent free for the asking.

VARICOCELE & STRICTURE

No other disease is so prevalent among men as Varicocele. As it interferes with the nutrition of the sexual organs it produces weakness, loss of semen through the urine, decay of the organs, pains in the loins, aching in the back, nervousness, despondency, bashfulness, palpitation of the heart, constipation, and a combination of these results in complete LOSS OF MANHOOD. Thousands of young and middle-aged men are troubled with STRICTURE. If you have reason to believe you are afflicted with it, don't neglect it. It will ruin you. Don't let doctors experiment on you by cutting, stretching or tearing it. Our NEW METHOD TREATMENT dissolves the stricture tissue, hence it disappears and can never return. The Assessment Law

A Test Case Made by Lindsay L. & P. Co. Against Fenelon Falls Establishes Validity of the Law

A case that may have bearing on the powers and duties of our local assessors is given in the Lindsay Post, which says:

Last year the municipality of Fenelon Falls assessed the power house, plants, etc., of the Lindsay Light, Heat & Power Co., located in that village at $50.00, and this year, under the provisions of the new Act, the amount was raised to something over $61,000, including a business tax of $9,500. The company disputed the justice of this action on the part of the municipality, and by mutual consent the matter was left to arbitration.

The case was heard Friday and Saturday at Fenelon Falls, the arbitrators being Judge Weller, Peterboro; Judge Benson, Cobourg; and Judge Harding, Lindsay. Messrs. R. J. McLaughlin, K.C., town, and F. A. McDiarmid, Fenelon Falls, appeared for the village, and Mr. Hugh O'Leary, K.C., and Mr. L. V. O'Connor, of Stewart & O'Connor, appeared for the company.

Decision was then reserved, but judgment was given to-day against the L.H. & P. Co., with costs. There is some talk of an appeal to a higher court, but the villagers say they have no fear that the verdict will be overturned.

"A Big Wild Animal."

Two New York Gentlemen Gather Reinforcements and Arms to Dispatch a "Bear."

To New York gentlemen temporarily residing at Stony Lake, a few days ago encountered a veritable wild animal in his native domains.

The two gentlemen, whose names are charitably, and by request omitted, were taking a stroll through the husky dells not a thousand miles from Burleigh Falls Hotel. As they quietly wandered between the trees, and compared favorably their present sylvan surroundings with the accustomed roar and strenuous life of their great metropolis, a rustling was heard amidst the nearby bushes. Visions of every species of wild fauna from a porcupine to a polar bear flashed through their minds. To run or not to run? that was the question. Creeping and peeping through the tangled undergrowth they advanced upon the animal in his own domestic lair; a brown animal, rendered huge to their unaccustomed eyes, approached them. With a wild shout for succor they fled to the hotel, and told their direful tale. Accompanied by a hotel man armed with a Winchester, and by two hounds, the gentlemen quickly led their armed escort to where, the "bear" had last been seen.

Strickland Challenged

Tom Beachmont Issues a Challenge to Swim the Local Record Breaker

In Saturday's Mail & Empire appears a letter, which is practically a challenge to Mr. Strickland to repeat his long distance swim from Lakefield or Nassau to the lift lock for money.

It will be remembered that Mr. Thomas Beachmont challenged Mr. Strickland's right to claim the Canadian long distance swimming record, and proposed that they both swim over a ten-mile course to decide who should claim the honor. Mr. Strickland replied to the challenge and offered to swim with Mr. Beachmont in a speed contest in the Trent between Nassau and the lift lock.

Mr. Beachmont's letter is as follows;

Sporting Editor Mail and Empire.

Sir,—I see by the Mail and Empire Mr. Strickland has replied to my challenge of the 18th inst. Mr. Strickland's letter reads as if I were disputing his performance and the time he made. In this he is mistaken. His time was good—very good—and I have no reason to believe it was not correct. I want to give him credit and honor for his fine showing. I am merely disputing his claim to the Canadian championship, as all the leading papers have styled him. Mr. Strickland asked why I did not butt in at the time he made the record. Never heard of the event coming off until it was over, or I would have been pleased to accompany him. He invites me to go to Peterboro and try the same distance, under the same conditions, and if I can beat his time he will give me a race from Nassau to Peterboro. Now, if Mr. Strickland, or anyone else, will show me where I would benefit by going to the time and expense of making that swim, I will gladly make the attempt to beat his time, but I am not seeking notriety—there is nothing in that. Let them make it an object for me and I will endeavor to do the rest; or I will swim Mr. Strickland a series of races of three, five and ten miles, the three races to come off this same week. I would be pleased to get Mr. Strickland's address. Yours, etc.,

TOM BEACHMONT.

Horse and Rig Stolen

Horse Taken from Lipsett's Hotel Thursday Night and Still Missing

On Thursday evening a young man engaged a horse and buggy from Greenley's livery in Lakefield, to drive to this city.

On arrival, he went to the Maple Leaf Hotel, operated by Mr. Geo. Lipsett, 8th Ward, and left the horse and rig standing in front of the hotel. After being in the hotel for about 10 minutes on business, he went out to get his horse and found the whole outfit had disappeared.

No trace has since been found of the missing horse and vehicle, and there is a strong suspicion that it is a case of theft. Any information regarding it may be forwarded to the Chief of Police.

It appears that painter and the bartender had a mix-up, during which the dispenser of gin slings and silver-fizzes fondled the painter with an empty beer bottle, putting the dedoras was pleased to grant the request, upon the painter paying the costs, $2.85. This ceremony having been completed, the painter and the manipulator of tangleleg decoctions departed arm in arm as two long lost twin brothers, who had each remarked to one another, as did the Governor of South Carolina, "It's a long time between drinks!" GUARD AGAINST GERMS

In time of war the most responsible rests upon the guard. If he is lacking in vigilance, disaster can easily overtake the army.

With the individual life, the stomach may well represent the "guard" against sickness. If it is strong and vigilant, any disease germs that may be swallowed will be neutralized by the digestive juices, or else driven from the system.

Everyone with weak digestion should use Mi-o-na at this season and so strengthen the stomach that disease germs can have no effect whatever. This remarkable remedy cures the whole digestive system in so healthy, clean and sweet a state that fermentation of the food cannot exist, that any disease germs which may enter the stomach will be destroyed, and food will be so readily assimilated that a rapid and healthy increase in flesh will result.

Nervousness and sleeplessness come more often from a weak stomach than from any other cause; head-ache, back-ache, and rheumatic pains are directly caused by an acid condition of the stomach. Mi-o-na corrects all this, prevents the formation of acids, and nervousness, kidney trouble, or rheumatism, is quickly cured.

Ask Wm. Medill to show you the guarantee under which he sells Mi-o-na. Price 50 cents. It costs nothing unless it cures.

TEN YEARS

The Story of My Wonderful Success.

Reads Like a Fairy Tale—Yet Full of Convincing Truths

An Opportunity of a Lifetime for the Investor.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF IT.

I ask every reader of this paper to write me. I want to send you my free book entitled "Ten Years"—"The Story of My Wonderful Success." It tells about one of the greatest and most promising investment opportunities ever offered. It tells how my business grew from less than $25.00 capital to its present proportions.

I believe I have the best proposition from an investor's standpoint that could be placed before you. For ten years I have been teaching men and women to live according to the laws of Nature My book is the history of my life. It shows what energy and ambition can accomplish in the world of affairs. It is intensely interesting to any man or woman who has a few dollars to invest in a legitimate enterprise.

I started business in the City of Brooklyn in 1896. My capital amounted to less than $25.00. My first years business netted me over $1,000.00. Last year I paid dividends to my partners of 15 per cent. Five years ago my business had grown so large that I was compelled to remove to larger quarters. I am now at 63-65 Clark St., Brooklyn, N.Y.—in connection with Hotel St. George. Experts pronounce my institution to be the best appointed of its kind in the country. I estimate the equipment of the Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture to be worth at least $40,000.00

I want to have a building of my own that will enable me to accommodate my increasing business. To erect this building I need capital, but more important than this to increase my business to the proportions which I desire, I need the co-operation of men and women throughout the country and the world.

Co-operation is the Secret of Success

I recognize it. I believe that with thousands of co-operators throughout the country I can build my business to tremendous proportions to the benefit of the shareholders and myself.

The Mac Levy Company is incorporated under the laws of New York for $150,000.00. They are proprietors of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

The last named branch of the business of the Mac Levy Company is comparatively new. I have been at work for several years to establish such a department in connection with teaching Physical Culture The most difficult part of forming the Equipment Company has been accomplished The business is now in condition to be pushed on a large scale. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are spent yearly on new gymnasiums and their equipment. The profits are large. A company of this kind has an immense field in which to work. Competition is slight. It is evident that the Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company can build an enormous business.

The Mac Levy Company operates during the summer months at Steeplechase Park, Coney Island, and at Averne Hotel, Averne-by-the-Sea, L. I., as well as at our Brooklyn Institute. I also does an extensive mail business, I teach people how they should live and exercise My students are scattered all over the United States, and in English speaking countries.

A PROBLEM

which arrises in the minds of every man and woman is how to secure a comfortable income in the earlier years of their life, that they may reap the full benefits which such an income affords.

I have long thought that there are hundreds of people in moderate circumstances who would like to invest a few dollars in an Institution of this kind. It is to such people that I intend this announcement shall appeal I am offering a block of the Treasury Stock of this company to the public at its par value. My reasons for doing this are that I wish to erect a building and to extend the business of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

I WANT YOU AS MY PARTNER

I need your help and suggestion. I want you to work with me and help me to secure a tremendous amount of new business.

I believe that if you could talk with me personally and go over the records of the business which I have done, see in black and white the figures which show the steady growth my business has experienced during the last ten years, examine my plans for future extension, and then look over the magnificent equipment of my Institute, and would want no further evidence that money put into my business would bring you the greatest possible returns consistent with safety and good management.

I ask you to write for my free book. I believe it will interest you You have a few dollars that you want to invest. Why let it stand idle earning only 3 or 4 per cent that Savings Bank pay their depositors? Put it to work. Join it with mine. This Company ought to pay at least.

Japan to Strike a Decisive Blow at General Linevitch

Baron Komura Exacted Such a Promise From Tokio Government Before He Consented to Head Mikado's Peace Mission--Neutrallzation of Vladivostok to be one of the Terms to be Insisted Upon.

Washington, August 2.—In reference to Japan's intentions in the peace conference there is a story current here that Baron Komura exacted from the Imperial Government a pledge for a certain course of action before he would accept the mission. He is said to have stipulated:

"The flotation of a new loan, which would fortify Japan should the peace effort fail; that the Island of Sakhalin should be occupied; that an advance movement should be made on Vladivostok and that Marshal Oyama should strike a decisive blow at Linevitch."

Rear Admiral Sigsbee, who commands the cruiser squadron, consisting of the Brooklyn, Galveston, Tacoma, and Chattanooga, was in Washington today, conferring with Rear Admiral Converse, Chief of the Bureau of Navigation, in regard to the plans for taking the Russian and Japanese peace envoys to Oyster Bay on August 5 to meet the President.

At the pier of the New York Yacht Club, at the foot of Twenty-third street, New York City, the Chattanooga will take aboard at 9 o'clock in the morning the Russian peace party. One hour later the Japanese envoys will embark at the same place upon the Tacoma.

They will arrive at Oyster Bay half an hour apart, will be received by President Roosevelt aboard the Mayflower, introduced to each other by the President and then entertained at luncheon on the Mayflower.

According to the present program they will not visit the President's house at Sagamore Hill. Assistant Secretary Pierce will be present, as as in all probability will Secretary Root.

After the ceremonies which have been planned, which include ambassadorial salutes for members of both parties, the Japanese will leave the Mayflower for the Dolphin. The Russians will remain on the Mayflower. These two ships will then start for Portsmouth, N. H., escorted by the Galveston.

A slow run will be made so that Portsmouth will be reached on the morning of the 7th, where they will be received by the Admiral commaning the Portsmouth Navy Yard, within which the negotiations for peace are to be conducte'.

PLANNING FOR RUSSIAN LOAN.

Berlin, August 2.—In view of the probability of early peace between Russia and Japan, the terms of which will involve the payment of a very heavy indemnity by Russia, the financiers of Europe have been holding conferences to the end that the peace indemnity may be paid without seriously disturbing the finances of the world.

The Mendelssohns, the Berlin bankers, who have been for many years the representatives on the Continent of the Russian Government, and who have negotiated many of the Russian loans, have formed an alliance with the Rothschilds in respect of the matter and have held communications with all the leading financial institutions both on the Continent and in England.

They are about to send their representatives to New York with a view of enlisting the co-operation of the larger financiers of the United States.

It is likely that a Russian loan for the purpose of paying the indemnity will be scattered and that a considerable portion of it will be taken in the United States. J. Pierpont Morgan, after having conferred with a number of financiers of England, is sailing today for New York.

MAIN OBJECT OF KAISER'S TRIPS

Russian Official States That the Baltic is to be Blocked up

THE CZAR'S NIGHTMARE

Thinks Togo Will Swoop Down and Use Islands as Blockade Bases

St. Petersburg, August 2.—A Russian official, who assisted at the Bjoerkoe meeting, between the Czar and the Kaiser, said today:

"The main object of Emperor Williams trip to England and to Copenhagen, is to make the Sound and the Belt Straits a Northern Dardanelles and to block up the Baltic Sea as the Black Sea is now blocked up, and do to England what the treaty of Paris did to Russia. Thus Germany would find it unnecessary to keep fleets for the defence of Kiel, Stettin, Danzig, and Koenigsberg, and the Czar's nightmare of Togo's appearance in the Baltic and making a landing on the Oesel and Dago Islands, as bases for the blockade of St. Petersburg and Libau, would be removed.

"The Bjoerkoe interview only confirmed the agreement which was made during Grand Duke Michael's visit to Berlin, at the time of the Crown Prince's wedding, hence the presence of Michael at the conference on the Kaiser's yacht, and also in the presence of Admiral Birileff, the Russian Minister of Marine, and other naval officers.

The question under discussion was essentially a naval question. Today's meeting with King Christian is expected to consummate the deal. The Czar gladly acquiesced in the Kaiser's scheme to block up the Baltic because the catastrophe in the Tsusyima Strait left the Baltic coasts of Russia at the mercy of the Japanese. Now the Sound and the Kaiser, thanks to the latter's the Belt Straits, are to be locked outsiders, while the agreement, with against the Czar's enemies, and other influence with Austria and Turkey, insures our western and southern frontiers.

Therefore, if the Japanese terms of peace prove excessive, we can easily continue until the enemy is exhausted. Family ties and identical political and material interests guarantees the Kaiser's sincerity. Germany is becoming our banker, and this makes the understanding mutually profitable.

Memories Revived.

Captain F. G. Stewart in the City a Guest of His Sister Mrs. Dunlop, of Water Street.

We have in our midst a gentleman who remembers Peterboro in its swaddling clothes, Capt. F. T. Stewart, Superintendent of the National Military Home, Ohio, who is in the city visiting his sister, Mrs. A. C. Dunlop, Water street.

Capt. Stewart is a son of the late Hon. Thomas Alexander Stewart, one of the first residents of Peterboro, the year 1825 being the date of his settlement here.

Capt. Stewart states that he remembers when this now thriving city did not amount to much more than one or two log cabins. It was his mother, in fact, who suggested that the name of the settlement be Peterboro in honor of the Hon. Peter Robinson. The suggestion was made at a banquet arranged for the entertainment of Governor Sir Peregrine Maitland, who visited Peterboro in 1826. Mrs. Stewart was one of the few ladies present on that occasion. Capt. Stewart states at that time here were only three or four ladies in the whole settlement. The banquet was held in a log house that had been erected by the Government for some purpose.

Since his boyhood the Captain's ambitions were of a martial turn, and although only a boy at the time, bitterly regretted that his then immature age, 10 years, debarred him from carrying arms in 1837.

In 1857 he went to the United States, just as the dark clouds foreshadowing the great and bloody struggle between the North and South, were occupying general attention.

In 1861, his sympathies being against the slave holders, he joined the 29th Ohio Regiment, and fought in many fiercely contested engagements.

At the time of the battle of Gettysburg, Capt. Stewart was just recovering from a wound received previously. At this present time he is Superintendent of the National Military Home in Ohio, where over 200 old veterans have their residence.

Captain Stewart expects to return this week. He has enjoyed his visit greatly, and notes the many changes time and energy has made in the Peterboro of his early recollection.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

M'GR. M'EWEN ANSWERED.

(To the Editor of The Times.)

Dear Sir,—It was with astonishment and regret, that all local patrons of baseball, read the very lame attempt made by Manager McEwen, to whitewash Pitcher Douglas, and inferentially his own management, in his letter to the Review of Monday evening. Does Mr. McEwen think the public are all as big suckers as these citizens, who, relying on the honesty of our local team, and giving its manager credit for being straight, put their good money on the Peterboro team only to see it beaten. Mr. McEwen tries to make a scapegoat of the third base man; why sir, the game was seemingly worked so that Peterboro lost before the Bowmanville men even saw 1st. "Hard Luck," our honest manager names as the cause of our defeat. Hard luck is here a wrong expression.

Is it not more appropriate to say that a modern miracle was manifested? To think that nine runs were made off our professional pitcher in two innings, and particularly the way the runs were made, as plainly seen by both audience and players, and then to consider that Quinlan, an inexperienced boy of 16, pitches the remainder of the game and only has one run made off his pitching, shows almost a miracle; and miracles these days are generally intimately associated with a judicious handling of the long green. Had Bowmanville such a run of "hard luck" and also, that, although making nine runs off Douglas in two innings, they could only make one off a mere boy's pitching in seven innings. The thing is not within reason to suppose! As far as "regaining support goes," Mr. McEwen will first have to explain his reason for stopping over in Oshawa that night instead of returning with the boys. It would have looked more like a straight defeat owing to "Hard Luck," if all the club had returned that night.

If Quinlan can pitch seven innings for only one run, and Douglas has to sacrifice nine in two innings, he has lost his usefulness, and the local boy, Quinlan, had better take his place, and the club may, with a change of management, regain a place in Peterboro's confidence, and count on gate receipts; without these two elements, baseball in Peterboro as far as patronage goes, is dead.

"ONE WHO SAW THE GAME."

Local Officers' Fees

News Gleaned From the Ontario Legislature's Report of Legal Offices

The Ontario Government has just issued a Report of the Inspectors of Legal Offices of Ontario for 1904. From this document, we take the fees and emoluments of local judicial officers.

Under this heading there is evidence that our local officers are fairly well taken care of financially. Mr. J. A. Hall, Sheriff, net income $1052.78; Surrogate Registrar, Judge Weller, net income $201.50; Local Master, Judge Weller, amount earned $256.00; Crown Attorney, R. E. Wood, net income $1506.59; Clerk of the Peace, R. E. Wood, amount earned $915.00; Local Registrar, John Mononey, total received for present year's services $911.60, total received for services for previous years $437.61, County Court Clerk, John Moloney, net income $1557.28; Surrogate Registrar, John Moloney, total for present year's services $702.54.

Peterboro Must Have It

Strenuous Efforts will be Made to Have Next Grand Lodge I.O.O.F. Held in This City.

As noted in former issues of The Times, the I.O.O.F., Grand Lodge will meet for the current year at Brockville next week. It is the duty of every citizen to not only impress their duties on our local delegates to the Grand Lodge, but to leave no stone unturned, in a strenuous endeavor to have the next meeting of the Oddfellows' Grand Lodge held in this city.

Many of our readers well remember the last time the Oddfellow's Grand Lodge met here, and how there was not only a "Hot time in the old town," but that thousands of dollars found their way into the coffers of our merchants, hotels, liveries and every channel of industry.

The delegates from Otonabee Lodge No. 13 are Col. J. W. Miller, P.D.D. G.M., Frank Wise, P.G., and W. R. G. Higgins, P.G. From Peterboro Lodge No. III, the representatives will be W. G. Freeborn,—P.G., L. Wallis, P.G. William Hill, P.G., and A. A. Fowler, P.G.

The local brethern of the mystic three links have very wisely, and with great forethought had a descriptive and suitably illustrated pamphlet printed, entitled "Where for 1906? Peterboro, sure! for general distribution among the Grand Lodge delegates who will meet in Brockville, Wednesday and Thursday of next week. Each book contains views of the city parks, institutions, manufactories, lift lock and other objects of interest, and with a few words by The Grand Lodge members, to be gotten up in convenient pocket form and will be an interesting memento of Peterboro to every one of the 400 delegates. A concise description is given of the city, its numerous attractions, assets and various other facilities, as well as a short resume of Oddfellowship and a history of the local lodges. If this thriving center is successful in capturing the Grand Lodge assembly for 1906—and no doubt it will be—the sessions will be held in the court house and the visitors have been promised an elaborate and varied program of entertainment.

Let every Peterboro delegate, in his patriotic ardor impress upon his brethren from a distance, that Peterboro is the only place for the Grand Lodge's next meet.

Those of the delegates, who were at this Grand Lodge meeting held here 18 years ago, will, we feel convinced, enthusiastically endorse this city as having the best attractions, the heartiest welcome, and the best crowd for giving "the time of their lives" to Peterboro's visitors.

Even our Council may be convinced that to bring several hundred visitors of the status of delegates to a Grand Lodge I.O.O.F. meeting, is deserving of financial encouragement.

The booklet, among other things, says, "Grand Lodge has been held many times, indeed, at either Toronto or at Hamilton. These worthy cities have had their sharre. They see enough conventions and gatherings to be able to spare one occasionally, and in 1906 is the time to do the sparing. Why not?"

C.P.R.'S GREAT WORK.

Montreal, Aug. 2.—"The Canadian Pacific Railway is doing more than it has ever done before to assure the company being able to handle the year's crops successfully," stated General Manager McNicoll to a newspaper correspondent to-day; "An idea of what we are doing may be gained from the fact that at our Angers shops we are turning out a box car complete every 25 minutes, and will continue to do so every day until the harvest begins to move. We are also turning out a locomotive every seven days."

BLOWN UP BY MINE

Stockholm, Sweden, Aug. 2.—Seven sailors were killed and eight severely injured to-day by the explosion of a submarine mine during mining practice in the Sandhan Roads near Stockholm. A boat containing the victims struck the mine, and was blown into the air.

The placing of submarine mines is another indication that Sweden's intentions towards Norway may not be quite peaceable.

Custom House Receipts

Collections for Port of Peterboro Show an Increase of $5,132.34 for July of 1905.

One of the best financial indices of trade and commerce of any town or city, is the volume of business passing through the Custom House. By courtesy of our local Custom House staff, we are enabled to give readers a comparitive statement of collections made at this city during the past month as compared with the amount collected during July 1904.

The total receipts for the month just closed were $22,532.78, while the amount for July, 1904, was $17,400.44. Therefore the receipts for July, 1905, are greater than those for July 1904, by $5,132.34, a remarkable increase, which shows the progress this new city is making.

Artistic Hairdressing

A Toronto Specialist in the Art of Hairdressing and Supplies to Visit the City

Those of our readers whose thought domes are becoming conspicuous by absence of its natural thatching, will read with interest this advertisement, in this issue, of Mr. W. T. Pember, a Toronto specialist in toupees, wigs, bangs and other artificial beautifiers known to the cunning of a tonsorial artist. On Tuesday, August 8th, Mr. Wynn Tregwin, a representative of Mr. Pember's hair emporium, will be at the Snowden House, and will wait on gentlemen or ladies requiring his services.

Services Appreciated.

Mr. P. K. Holmes, Late Physical Director of the Y.M.C.A. Presented with a Valuable Locket.

As a slight token of appreciation of the wireless energy, and intelligent efforts on their behalf, the Y.M.C.A. boys, who have recently returned from this year's camp at Sandy Point, on Monday night presented Mr. Holmes, their friend and guide, at the camp, with a valuable gold locket and an appropriate address.

Mr. Holmes left the city yesterday morning, with Mr. H. E. Ayres for the seaboard, whence the two will take an extended tour to England.

Some 25 of the boys who so thoroughly enjoyed this year's outing at this Point gathered at the Y.M.C.A. Mr. A. Emmerson read the following address, while Edgar Eyres made the presentation.

Peterboro, July 31.

With many regrets we observe your departure from among us and as a slight token of our appreciation of you as a leader and gentleman, we humbly beg of you to accept this gold locket.

Signed on behalf of the camp boys.

A. Emmerson.
E. Eyres.
P. Wallace.

Mr. Holmes, who was much taken by surprise, thanked the camp members for their gift and expressed his regret at leaving.

The locket was of gold and engraved with the Y.M.C.A. emblem on one side and "Y.M.C.A. Camp 1905" on the other.

Slavery Within the Domain of the U.S.

Orphan Children Held in Bondage in Alaska by White Men Who Have Native Wives--How It Was Found Out.

St. Louis, Aug. 2.—Slavery within the domains of the United States, white persons sold and held under bondage in spite of all the laws of civilization—this is the charge of Professor W. A. Davis, superintendent of the Public Schools at Unalaska.

In a letter the Professor tells how he has been at work since 1893, when he went to Alaska, to eradicate the evil, but he has been unable to get the United States authorities interested. He says he has personally freed two little girls from slavery and sent them to their homes, while he has worked without avail to procure the release of six other white girls in Unalaska. He says the same conditions exist in other towns. In part the Professor writes;

HOW IT WAS FOUND OUT.

"At the begging of the school year in September, 1903, I canvassed the village of Unalaska for scholars, and to my horror and disgust I found eight little girls, ranging in age from six to twelve years, in slavery.

"When I asked their masters if they intended to send them to school they seemed much surprised, and grew quite indignant, and in substance said, 'Send them to school? We did not get them to send them to school; we got them to wait on us.'

"Immediately upon making the discovery, I called the attention of the proper authorities to the facts, and was assured that immediate measures would be taken to remedy the evil. That was a year and a half ago, and yet up to the present time nothing has been done officially, though by individual efforts I have obtained the release of two pitiful little creatures, who were returned to the island whence they came, and in all probability were sent away again at the first opportunity in some other direction.

"At the present time, however, in the village of Unalaska, with a population of not more than two hundred there are no fewer than six girls in bondage as servile as that of the blacks before their emancipation, and it is safe to assume that the same conditions prevail all over Alaska.

"These children are usually orphans and are given away by those with whom they have been left by their dead parents as freely and with as little compunction as one in the interior breed of dogs.

"They are brought by trading schooners from various parts of the Territory, and as a rule are owned by white men who have native wives.

Business Change

Mr. Vincent Eastwood Obtains Control of the Peterboro Hardware Company.

One of the most important business transactions that Peterboro has witnessed of late, is that by which Mr. Vincent Eastwood assumes control of the Peterboro Hardware Company, having purchased from the executors of the late R. S. Davidson estate, their interest in the business.

This purchase by Mr. Eastwood will make him the largest shareholder in the company and give him a controlling interest.

The consideration given for this important block of stock is not made public, but it is understood to be a large one.

From this date the control of the business will be in the hands of Mr. Eastwood, though the interests held by the estate of the late R. B. McKee are still retained.

A Successful Outing.

Mr. R. C. Braund Makes a Grand Success in His Management of the S. A. Excursion.

All arrangements were largely in charge of the Sunday School Superintendent, Mr. R. C. Braund, who is to be congratulated on the enjoyment given to a host of little ones and their attendants.

The sail both down and back was enjoyed to the full, as was the outing at the Point. A good schedule of sports, specially adapted to the juveniles was well carried out; the list of prize winners, being as follows;

A Narrow Escape.

Motorman on Charlotte Street Car, By Good Judgement, Saves a Drunken Man's Life.

As the west bound Charlotte street car was passing Cubbitt's sporting goods store, about five o'clock yesterday evening, a man who had dallied too long, and too frequently with the cup that inebriates, not noticing its approach staggered to the center of the tracks. With great presence of mind, and by a great exercise of effort, the motorman managed to stop the car, which at the time contained Mr. Learmouth, Manager of the Street Railway Company, within a few inches of the half conscious man. With a drunken leer at the car and the man to whose quickness he owed his life, the man staggered over to a friendly telephone pole, and grasped it for support. The motorman deserves great credit for his prompt action.

Japanese Newspapers Rejoice

Kobe, August 2.—Japanese newspapers rejoice because of the operations of the Mikado's forces on the Siberian mainland. The Ashi says that Japan will not return the captured territory for love, and that all land seized from Russia must be paid for by an increased indemnity.

TELEPHONE TALKS.

TO TELEPHONE USERS AND THE GENERAL PUBLIC,—

In considering telephone problems it is universally conceded that "service" is the matter of first importance. Every other consideration, even rates, is subordinate to this feature—"good service". The telephone is no longer a luxury but a necessity in every industry of the country. An inefficient telephone service would practically paralyze at least every commercial community.

No branch of public service on this Continent has shown steadier or more rapid progress in the direction of efficiency than has the telephone, and, in this progressive movement, Canada has kept well in the vanguard.

Barring one or two isolated cases, based on very indefinite information, the most searching inquiry by the Parliamentary Committee has failed to bring forth any substantial complaint against the Bell Telephone Company's service, local or long distance. We are therefore justified in assuming that the Company has in this respect fully discharged its obligations towards the public. The Company has, in what is conceded to be the most important feature of its obligations, justified its continued existence and its claim to public support.

We may be pardoned for digressing so far as to say, that service superior to all competitors has been the foundation of success to this Company.

A case where there was lassitude and lack of strength is told by Mr. David Brown, of post-office box No. 30, Beeton, Ont.: "About a year ago my health commenced to fail. My hands and feet seemed always cold. I felt worn-out and exhausted, weak as a little child. My face twitched. My limbs and arms commenced to lose their sense of feeling and finally my left side was perfectly numb. All my color left. My appetite ran down. Ferrozone was the first to give me any help. I improved with it very quickly. It toned up the blood and started circulation, so that the numbness gradually disappeared. HEAVY DIPLOMATIC DIGNITY

When a nation starts out to entertain a peace commission it is undertaking an enterprise of considerable magnitude. Already the passage of Baron Komura across the American continent and his reception in New York and presentation to President Roosevelt has set the necks in the diplomatic bleachers to craning. Although he has given out no interview conveying the terms upon which Japan would end the war in the Orient, Mr. Sato, spokesman for the party, has given hints that were highly interesting.

It has been said that Baron Komura has thirty trunks full of documents pertaining to the conference. To the simple minded plain citizen unfamiliar with the ways of diplomacy, it is a matter of interesting speculation as to what sort of documents these are that there should be so many of them. If M. Witte, the chief Russian envoy, has as many trunks as that, and it is reasonably certain that Russia will not be outdone in the number of trunks full of trouble that she will bring to Uncle Sam's shores, it would look as though it would take all winter for the commission to get through with a perusal of the documents in the case.

It appears somewhat strange in a democratic country like the United States that so much red tape must be observed in the matter of entertaining these touchy commissioners. While equal courtesy must be shown each, they must not be allowed to meet until they reach Portsmouth, N. H. Each commissioner and his suite in all the affulgence of gold lace and dignity will have a fleet of warships at his command and it looks as though in order to do the thing up right the United States will be obliged to mobilize all the vessels of the navy in New York harbor in order to lend weight to the occasion and carry the baggage of the envoys to Portsmouth.

There will a long and dreary pause after the commissioners get to Portsmouth before they actually get down to business. Heavy questions of diplomatic etiquette must be settled and a set of ceremonial rules adopted. It is almost as important to determine whether M. Witte shall bow first or wait until Komura nods as that Korea shall remain under Japanese influence. Having decided which side of the table each party shall occupy the next step no doubt will be the determination of the language to be employed. If Komura holds out for English and Witte insists upon French there may be a week taken up in linguistic wrangling.

It is believed by sanguine ones that the commissioners can get through with their work in four months. Were these strictly business men instead of diplomats, there is little doubt that the issues would be decided in as many days. The regrettable part of the conference is the fact that no armistice may be decided upon, in which event the soldiers in Manchuria will keep right along killing each other, those lives being sacrificed to the needless formalities of diplomatic dignity.

NO CHANGE OF FOREIGN POLICY

There will be no change of government in Great Britain for a few months at least. The defeat of the Government a few days ago was manifestly a snap verdict. Premier Balfour can yet command a large majority in the House on any open vote of want of confidence. However, it appears pretty plain that unless the appeal to the country proves these should be a surprising turn of the tide, he will have to make way for another leader. It is pointed out that one of the strong reasons for the Premier's determination not to resign at present is his wish to keep Lord Lansdowne in his post as Foreign Secretary until the alliance with Japan is finally settled, and the good understanding with France is more firmly cemented. The foreign policy of the Government, at all events, seems to meet with the approval of the people, whatever their opinion of its home policy. Lord Lansdowne has been a very successful Foreign Minister, and it is certain enough that neither party in Britain wishes to alienate either Japan or France. Both are now Britain's good friends, and if Mr. Balfour and his party should be defeated any succeeding government will be expected to maintain these alliances.

Two Very Old People.

Moncton, N.B., Aug. 1.—The town of Buctouche, Kent County, N.B., boasts of a centenarian in the person of Wm. McKelvie, who was born at Donyle Moore, Donegal, Ireland, in 1805, and came out to this province when a young man, landing at St. John. Mr. McKelvie's century of years rests lightly upon him. He reads without the aid of glasses, still has a good head of hair, and is smart for (him some men twenty years his junior. Deafness is his principal weakness, but he is still able to carry on a conversation and delights to talk of the olden times.

Mrs. Mary McDonald, of Summerside, Prince Edward Island, is perhaps the oldest living person in that province. She is now in her 103rd year, having been born at Seven Mile Bay, P.E.I., in 1803. She is now quite blind, and is confined to her bed.

RUSSIA TO INCREASE TAXES

Scheme for Raising Additional $50,000,000 Yearly

St. Petersburg, August 1. — The Ministry of Finance is elaborating a scheme for the imposition of additional taxes to the amount of $50,000,000 annually; this will constitute a new departure in Russian taxation, the new taxes being imposed principally on the well-to-do classes. The principle of a tax on incomes and also on inheritances will be introduced. One part of the statement is the imposition of a tax on lodgings renting for over $150 per annum.

M. Kutler, assistant minister of finance, who is elaborating the project, says it will be ready to be placed in force in September.

The proceeds of this taxation would be more than sufficient to meet the interest on any indemnity Russia might agree to pay Japan.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendment thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

(4) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses (2), (3) or (4) must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 80 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd of June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Offices in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the North-west Territories.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

How to Visit Colorado

Go first to Denver. It is the State capital, as well as the largest, wealthiest and most metropolitan city between the Missouri River and the Pacific Coast. The city itself is very interesting, and from it start practically all the trains over the various roads into the mountains.

Many of the most enjoyable one-day trips in Colorado begin and end at Denver. The cost of these little journeys is not great.

After you have familiarized yourself with Denver and its surroundings will be soon enough to decide where to go for the rest of your visit. The question must be considered from several standpoints—altitude, hotel accommodations, accessibility, amusements, etc.

Our Colorado literature will help you in deciding where to go and what to do. Sent free for the asking.

UINTAH INDIAN RESERVATION

To be opened September 1, 1905, welcomes the latch on the "door of opportunity." Pull at the latch string and the door will open for you, no matter where you live or what your occupation. Colorado men—well known, reliable, experienced—have organized the Indian Mining and Power Co. and provide ten thousand dollars capital by the sale of preferred stock, par value one dollar per share.

Ordinarily a ground floor stock, 6 offered at 5, is offered to get money with which to start, has no asset whatever behind it, and depends entirely on future development for its value. Our proposition is different. We have started. Our stock now has an asset of property adjoining the reservation, consisting of 320 acres rich agricultural land; 280 shares of water for that water right on the Uintah River and nine lots (corner) Main street in the new town of Moffat, Utah. A fair estimate of the value, $16,800.00, is sixteen dollars for every dollar then for invested and an asset fifty per cent greater than the entire issue to be sold at the price it is here offered; however, this is only the commencement of operations. With the additional capital to be secured by the sale of stock other valuable property will be added and the opening of the reservation will start the harvest, of which our six years continuous mowing has laid the foundation. You never had such an opportunity as we now offer. We share with you the results of the expenditure of our own capital, our labor and the judgment that has been displayed in securing this extraordinary opportunity for a profitable investment. Every dollar subscribed will bring manifold returns.

A limited amount of the preferred stock is on sale at 5 cents per share, the ground floor price. An advance to 10 cents will soon be made. A square deal is guaranteed. Write for any further information or any reference desired. DO IT NOW.

PEACE IS NOT ASSURED

JAPAN WILLING TO FIGHT FOR PERMANENT PEACE

After the War Japan Will Remake China in a Commercial Way, and Have Her Trade

Rev. E. Kenny, a missionary who, is just returning from seven years' work in Japan and China, was in town yesterday on his way east, and gave The Times a call. He came across the Pacific on across the Pacific with the Japanese peace envoys, and is well acquainted with several of the party. He states that the envoys are far from certain that they will be able to make peace, and that the people of Japan, with whom he came in contact are perfectly willing that the war shall continue until Russia is willing to admit that she is thoroughly defeated; the Japanese are anxious for peace, but it is permanent peace that they want, and they propose to fight until terms are obtained that will make it permanent.

"And after the war is over," said Mr. Kenney to The Times, "just wait developments. Japan is going to forge to the front, and is going to remake China. The Japanese are going to be able to capture practically the entire trade of the Chinese empire; they are at China's very door; they are a patient, hard working people; they can manufacture goods as well as any people on earth, and labor in Japan is cheap. All that is lacking is the necessary capital to establish the factories, and they are confident that they will be able to secure that. The English, German, French and American trader is going to be superceded by the Japanese. Prejudice counts for a great deal, and the Chinese are not prejudiced against the Japanese; they are prejudiced against the Europeans, and they have reason to be. When the Russian, German, French or English capitalists want commerce in China, their governments force the Chinese to give it to them. And the Chinese know it. Do not imagine for a minute that the Chinaman is a fool or that he does not know anything about what is going on. He does. Bulldozing tactics may work for awhile, but they are not going to work forever.

"The great trouble with China today is graft. There is more or less graft here, I understand, but in China, it has crystallized, and infests the whole body of public officialdom. The petty officer exacts what he can, and the higher officer exacts still more on every possible occasion. A man must buy justice if he is going to secure it in the courts, and the man who has the most money or the most power in the man who wins his case. The corruption is gross and notorious. In Japan, on the other hand, the courts are generally free from anything savoring of corruption, and I believe Japan has the best police system in the world.

"There is also a great contrast in the physical conditions of the two peoples. The Japanese are absolutely clean, their houses are clean and their streets are clean, while in China houses, streets and people are alike filthy. I think you have too high an idea of the morals of the Japanese, however. While graft is not common among their public officials, their standards of morality in general are no higher than those of the Chinese; in fact, I sometimes doubt if they are quite as high.

SUNDAY TRAGEDY BY SEASHORE

Lightning Kills Six and Shocks Many Near New York

New York, Aug. 1.—During a thunderstorm of terrific intensity, which passed over New York on Sunday afternoon, five persons were struck by lightning and instantly killed, and nine were seriously injured at the Parkway baths at Coney Island. At the same time one man was killed and three were prostrated at Gravesend Beach.

Those killed are; George Denvitta, Brooklyn; Jacob Frankel, Manhattan; Robert F. Wasch, Bronxborough; O. Bennerle, Brooklyn; Frank Bennerle, Brooklyn; Henry Hansweiler, Brooklyn.

When the storm blew up from the westward, the Parkway Beach was thronged with bathers and spectators. As the rain descended in torrents hundreds of men, women and children sought shelter under the big bath house, which is elevated above the sand on piles. A few minutes before five o'clock a bolt struck the flag staff and grounded in the thickest of the crowd. Nearly fifty persons were prostrated and the rest, screaming with terror, rushed out into the storm. The nine injured were removed to the hospital, where it was said that some probably would die. Many persons less seriously hurt were taken home by friends.

A Fenelon Falls Elopement.

The Lindsay Post says: The citizens of Fenelon Falls are still in a flutter over an elopement which occurred some days ago. The girl was young—only 14, 'tis said—and the man twice her years. The Lindsay Post says: Word comes from Belleville that the family of Byron Lott, of East Hastings bogus ballot box fame, are in regular communication with him, and that he longs to return. Miles on Miles

Are walked by the billiard player, as he moves around the table. That is the only exercise many a city man gets. It is this lack of exercise in the shut-in-life of the city, combined with irregular eating and indigestible dishes which tend to make the city man the victim of "stomach trouble."

When there is undue fullness after eating, with belching, sour risings and other distressing symptoms, a prompt use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will effect a speedy cure. In the most extreme cases of disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, the persistent use of the "Discovery" will result in a complete cure in ninety-eight cases out of every hundred.

"The praise I would like to give your 'Golden Medical Discovery' I cannot utter in words or describe with pen," writes James B. Ambrose, Esq., of 1305½ Mifflin Street, Huntingdon, Pa. "I was taken down with what our physicians said was indigestion. I doctored with the best around here and found no relief. I wrote to you and you sent me a question blank to fill out and I did so and you then advised me to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took three bottles and I felt so good that I stopped—being, as I think, cured. I have no symptoms of gastric trouble or indigestion now."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for paper covered book, or 50 stamps for cloth-bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Police Court

OFFICIALS
Chief of Police, G. L. Reed
Magistrate, D. W. Dumble

No Police Court yesterday morning. This morning an important case will be tried, that of a charge laid by Chief Reed against a local hotelkeeper for selling during prohibited hours on Saturday night last. This case is said as a first offence under the section of the act, under which the complainant's case is laid, although the defendant has had several charges unsuccessfully laid against him. Today will show whether the Chief or Inspector Cochrane, who had the previous unsubstantiated complaints, handles such cases most successfully. Should no case be proven this morning the hotelman will certainly feel he has been pestered by mere suspicions.

* * * *

Another case to be tried this morning is that of a "mix-up" between a local hotelman and a relative.

* * * *

Yesterday evening a gentleman who had tarried too long with the seductive schooners and pewles found the good broad George street pavement too narrow. He tacked up the east side of George street, stopping every few score of feet to take his bearings and establish his reckoning, but in vain. This tangle-leg had won out in the first round, and he collapsed near Dr. Edmison's drug store, falling into the street. Several philanthropic citizens tried to get him on his feet, but with fruitless efforts. Police Stewart was worried, and threatening to the seat of war, picked up this overcome man, and escorted him to the Hotel des Cops. As we went to press early this morning the jagged (and "jugged" one) was flat on his back in a cell, his snores putting to shame the most loud voiced steam foghorn in use. His name was impossible as yet to be learned, but will be divulged at this morning's court.

TEN YEARS

The Story of My Wonderful Success.

Reads Like a Fairy Tale—Yet Full of Convincing Truths

An Opportunity of a Lifetime for the Investor.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF IT.

I ask every reader of this paper to write me. I want to send you my free book entitled "Ten Years"—"The Story of My Wonderful Success." It tells about one of the greatest and most promising investment opportunities ever offered. It tells how my business grew from less than $25.00 capital to its present proportions.

I believe I have the best proposition from an investor's standpoint that could be placed before you. For ten years I have been teaching men and women to live according to the laws of Nature. My book is the history of my life. It shows what energy and ambition can accomplish in the world of affairs. It is intensely interesting to any man or woman who has a few dollars to invest in a legitimate enterprise.

I started business in the City of Brooklyn in 1896. My capital amounted to less than $25.00. My first year's business netted me over $1,000.00. Last year I paid dividends to my partners of 15 per cent. Five years ago my business had grown so large that I was compelled to remove to larger quarters. I am now at 63-65 Clark St., Brooklyn, N.Y.—in connection with Hotel St. George. Experts pronounce my institution to be the best appointed of its kind in the country. I estimate the equipment of the Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture to be worth at least $40,000.00.

I want to have a building of my own that will enable me to accommodate my increasing business. To erect this building I need capital, but more important than this to increase my business to the proportions which I desire, I need the co-operation of men and women throughout the country and the world.

Co-operation is the Secret of Success

I recognize it. I believe that with thousands of co operators throughout the country I can build my business to tremendous proportions to the benefit of the shareholders and myself.

The Mac Levy Company is incorporated under the laws of New York for $150,000.00. They are proprietors of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

The last named branch of the business of the Mac Levy Company is comparatively new. I have been at work for several years to establish such a department in connection with teaching Physical Culture. The most difficult part of forming the Equipment Company has been accomplished. The business is now in condition to be pushed on a large scale. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are spent yearly on new gymnasiums and their equipment. The profits are large. A company of this kind has an immense field in which to work. Competition is slight. It is evident that the Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company can build an enormous business.

The Mac Levy Company operates during the summer months at Steeplechase Park, Coney Island, and at Averne Hotel, Averne-by-the-Sea, L. I., as well as at our Brooklyn Institute. I also does an extensive mail business. I teach people how they should live and exercise. My students are scattered all over the United States, and in English speaking countries.

A PROBLEM

which arrises in the minds of every man and woman is how to secure a comfortable income in the earlier years of their life, that they may reap the full benefits which such an income affords.

I have long thought that there are hundreds of people in moderate circumstances who would like to invest a few dollars in an institution of this kind. It is to such people that I intend this announcement shall appeal. I am offering a block of the Treasury Stock of this company to the public at its par value. My reasons for doing this are that I wish to erect a building and to extend the business of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

I WANT YOU AS MY PARTNER

I need your help and suggestion. I want you to work with me and help me to secure a tremendous amount of new business.

I believe that if you could talk with me personally and go over the records of the business which I have done, see in black and white the figures which show the steady growth my business has experienced during the last ten years, examine my plans for future extension, and then look over the magnificent equipment of my Institute, and would want no further evidence that money put into my business would bring you the greatest possible returns consistent with safety and good management.

I ask you to write for my free book. I believe it will interest you. You have a few dollars that you want to invest. Why let it stand idle earning only 3 or 4 per cent that Savings Bank pay their depositors? Put it to work. Join it with mine. This Company ought to pay at least

JAPAN TO MAKE SURE OF PLAN.

Japan proposes to prevent for time the realization of this dream. It is not considered sufficient that Russia should be expelled from Port Arthur and Dalny, and that her troops should be required to withdraw from all of Manchuria. The Japanese fear if Russia retains possession of the line crossing Manchuria, which connects Russian Transbaikalia with Vladivostok, the movement of the Slav toward Corea and Port Arthur will be repeated. By taking control of the Transmanchurian line, as well as the Port Arthur-Harbin branch, Japan will cut off Russia from the military fortress at Vladivostok, unless she should choose to build a branch around Manchuria.

This plan would have been followed in 1896 had China not granted to Russia the right to build roads in Manchuria. Water communication will remain at the disposal of the Russians until they could build a new line.

Further information which is circulated in diplomatic circles here indicates that Japan does not intend to give Russia any excuse for building another line around Manchuria. It has been known for some time that the Tokio Government has seriously considered the advisability of demanding the razing of the fortifications at Vladivostok. In addition it is understood to be the purpose to insist upon the limitation both of the naval force in the Pacific and the military force in Siberia.

OPEN DOOR IN SIBERIA?

To cap the project of depriving Russia of the means of making war in the future in the Far East, it is proposed to demand that the open door shall be declared in Siberia as well as Manchuria.

[illegible] conditions exist a degree of hostility which [illegible] Washington may think the government never will accept. The Japanese have reconciled themselves to the loss of the Port Arthur-Dalny branch, though it was proposed to offset the demand for an indemnity by surrendering it to the Japanese. But the Transmanchurian line is even longer than the branch leading to Port Arthur, and, besides being more costly, enabled the Russian Government to have a direct outlet to the Pacific and to assert its rights as a Pacific power.

If all supplies had to pass through Japanese hands, which would be the result of the transfer of the Transmanchurian portion of the railroad, Russia would undergo the same embarrassment the United States, for example, would if its access to the Panama Canal were limited to the land and a strong power like Great Britain had control of all the transportation facilities between the Mexican border and the frontier of the Republic of Panama.

ROADS COST $200,000,000.

The Transmanchurian line and the Port Arthur-Harbin branch represent a tremendous expenditure. The system of graft and corruption under which they were built greatly increased their cost, and estimates have been made that the government disbursed at least $200,000,000 in getting the right of way, building the lines, and equipping them. Ostensibly, Russia did not construct the road. Under the agreement, which was signed in Peking nine years ago, the Chinese Eastern Railway was granted a concession to build a road. As a matter of fact, Russia was the company, and the Imperial treasury at St. Petersburg paid the bills. The concession provided that at the end of thirty-six years the Chinese Government might purchase the lines, and at the end of eighty years the lines and all the equipment should pass unconditionally into its hands.

The authorities in Peking have been considering a proposal to buy the roads from Japan. Examination of the finances of the Empire, however, showed this was inadvisable. Moreover, Japan would not consent to relinquish possession, because she does not consider China strong enough to protect Manchuria from another invasion by the Russians.

FURTHER JAPANESE LOANS INEVITABLE

Even if Peace is Made and Russia Pays Indemnity, Large Sums Will be Required

TAKAHASHI GIVES VIEWS

Funds Needed for Development of Korea, Formosa and Hokkaido and for Protectorate Over Manchuria

London, August 3.—The Statist publishes an interview with Korekiyo Takahashi, the special finance commissioner of Japan, who expresses himself as hopeful that peace will result from the coming negotiations. He bases this hope in his personal conviction that Japan's demands will be reasonable and that the true interests of Russia require that she make peace. The appointment of M. Witte, he adds, strengthens this hope.

"Should hostilities continue," M. Takahashi says, "Japan is in a position to prosecute them successfully, as she has on hand as a result of the two recent loans the means to carry on the conflict for a considerable time, and, if the war should continue, there is no question that she will be able to borrow further.

SPECIAL SECURITY.

"When it was first concluded to borrow, Japan decided that it would be best for her own interests and fairest to those making the loans to give special security," said M. Takahashi, "and she can continue to do that, pledging railways and public works. Japan's profits from railways are more than 6 million sterling annually; her profits from the tobacco monopoly are more than three millions; from the camphor monopoly more than 100,000 sterling, making in all security to a very large sum. Besides the land income-taxes allow of a large increase."

Asked whether Japan would have to borrow should peace be declared, M. Takahashi answered in the affirmative, pointing out that large sums would be necessary for the development of Formosa, Korea and Hokkaido. Should Japan be entrusted with protection over Manchuria until China was in a position to give effectual protection, he continued, that it would be necessary to put a considerable sum there also.

Besides, he said, it would be of the utmost importance that Japan pay the loans raised at home, as the return of this money would result in trade and the development of the country.

Should indemnity be paid by Russia, M. Takahashi concluded, it could be used to pay off the internal loans and provide for the winding up of this war, but there would still be a large sum required for the development of Japan and her dependencies.

THE $50 GRANT

How the Fifty Dollars, Voted by Our Aldermen will be Distributed Over Reception of Our "Old Boys."

last night, that a section of the committee, to whom was entrusted the expenditure of that fifty ($50.00) dollars so generously appropriated by this city's aldermen for giving a right royal welcome to her Old Boys, and incidentally to advertise to the world that Peterboro is noted for her wealth and maternal love for her sons, was held Tuesday night.

As the placing of so large a sum involved considerable forethought, and, naturally, created a desire to have the eyes of the Province and Dominion opened by the patriotic grandeur of the aldermen's gift, the committee took many hours deciding how and through what channels the money should be spent.

We understand that a unanimous decision was arrived at, after some criticism of this extravagant estimate made for certain expenditures on the visitors, towards 4 a.m. yesterday morning. Whilst we cannot guarantee the exact correctness of the figures, we understand the money will be spent as follows:

Band	$20.00
Badges for aldermen	4.00
Cabs for aldermen	5.00
Boquets for aldermen	2.00
Cabs for leading Old Boys	3.00
Flags and decorations	1.00
Lunch for aldermen	3.00
Lunch for leading visitors	2.00
Cigars for aldermen	2.00
Refreshments for aldermen	1.00
10 bunches fire crackers	50
6 gin wheels	25
6 Catherine wheels	25
12 Rockets	50
Roman candles	25
Nigger chasers	15
Red fire	15
Sundry fireworks	20
Refreshments for aldermen	1.00
Advertising the city	10
Popcorn for visitors	25
Aldermen, not yet accounted for	1.75
Loan of powerful telescopes	1.75

The item of "Loan for telescopes" was considered advisable in case the visitors might desire to find the aldermen.

One thing is absolutely assured, viz., that the returning "Old Boys" will carry away in their memories a permanent estimate of the intelligence and magnanimity of our present city Council, after seeing a full-fledged city exhibit such a careless regard for expense to welcome their visitors, old comrades, and sons.

Such a grant, whilst appearing to some as extravagant, will surely be noted by the Press of Canada, and cannot but impress upon possible location seeking industries, the welcome and terms likely to be accorded them. Intelligent and judicious advertising of the city is now assured by our present Council. Another item of interest to the Old Boys is that the committee have unanimously decided, after a protracted debate, to make no charge to visitors for use of ice water from the public fountains, provided such water be used at said fountains, and not carried away in flasks or other receptacles.

EVERYONE SHOULD DIE OF OLD AGE

London Medical Authority Declares That Profession Should Eventually Prevent Disease

GREAT FUTURE FOR SCIENCE

Elimination of Constitutional Tendencies is Possible, He Holds, Through Proper Marriage Unions

London, August 3.—The future work of medicine, said Doctor Henry Maudsley at the British Medical Association's Congress, which is being held at Leeds this year, will be mainly to prevent and stop the beginnings of disease, so that in fact everybody should die at least of old age, as every doctor himself ought theoretically to do.

Might not some good come, he asked, from systematic inquiries into the production and elimination of constitutional diseases, tendencies and diseases, immunities by marriage unions of different tendencies and immunities. When a person had a disease like that which either parent had, he might own it to the same variations occurring in mental insanity just as they do physiologically.

What was a constitutional disposition, if there were any, was most likely to cause a tendency to cancer. Having regard to the local invasion and distribution of cancer, its provocation by local irritation, its more than accidental heredity, and its quiet settlement in the system, it seemed probable that the truly proliferation of cells, however provoked, betrayed an awakening to activity of silent memories of ancestral germinal growth.

Another point worthy of investigation was how best to treat a person having a tendency to insanity, so as to cancel it in his progeny, or, better still, convert it into a good evolution. Variation for that was what sometimes happened, one child of a neuropathic family dying in a lunatic asylum, while another rose to eminence as a poet, painter or orator.

Why and under what conditions was epilepsy of one generation transferred into insanity of the next generation? How was it that diabetes and insanity go together in some families or alternate in them through generations? When medical science could answer these and like questions it might then dictate some wise rules.

In concluding his address, which was closely followed by a large and distinguished audience, Doctor Maudsley said it was certain that there were no laws of mental breeding yet to be discovered, and it was no more unlawful to inquire scientifically into the nature of vice and sin than into the nature and actions of poisons.

Hatred was as natural as hunger, and stood in no less need of scientific explanation. The moral qualities are not dependent upon a physical constitution, and have no physical connection whatever, was an opinion which, although fostered in the supposed interests of morality, was really a hindrance to the growth of practical morality.

Wedding Bells.

Miss Vida Somerville Becomes the Happy Bride of Mr. Jas. Mackness

A wedding that although quietly celebrated in St. Luke's church, yesterday afternoon, was pretty from the happy faces and bridal costumes of the ladies present. Miss Vida, daughter of Mr. William John Somerville of Haliburton county, was joined, by the Rector, Rev. F. A. Langfeldt, in the bonds of wedlock to Mr. James Mackness, a prosperous farmer, of Essonville, Haliburton county.

The bride was becomingly attired and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. After spending a few days in the city Mr. and Mrs. Mackness will take up their residence in Essonville.

A C.P.R. Promotion.

Mr. E. C. Rice, Operator of the C.P.R Uptown Ticket Office, Goes to Brantford.

Mr. E. C. Rice, who for some years has filled most efficiently the position of operator at the city telegraph office of the C.P.R., received word from headquarters of his promotion to the Brantford city office of the same company.

As a tribute to his popularity among them, as among the patrons of the office, he was yesterday, presented by the office boys under his charge, with a handsome pipe, silver mounted, and a leather pipe case, in recognition of his consideration for them in their work.

It is stated that Mr. Rice's successor will be Mr. D. Osborne, who for some time has filled a similar position with the G. N. W. Telegraph Company in this city.

Mr. Rice will leave on Saturday morning, spending that day and Sunday in Toronto, and he will go to the Telephone City to commence his duties on Monday morning.

The Puzzle Solved

The Times Has Had 31 Answers, but None Quite Correct.

Some days ago we published a simple puzzle for our juvenile readers. Up to last night we have had thirty-one solutions (!) of the puzzle, none of which however answered correctly. Various means of attaining solutions were sent in, some by algebra, and some by arithmetic. The question was somewhat as follows: A man dies leaving 100 bushels of wheat to be divided among 100 people, in the ratio of three bushels to each man, two to each woman, and one-half bushel to each child. How was the wheat divided?

11x3	33
15x2	30
74x1-2	37
100	100

This is of course a catch question but gives an amusing apparently correct solution.

A Business Change

Mr. Forman Sells His Grocery Business to Mr. John Hill, of Moonstone, Ontario.

The many customers and friends of Mr. W. C. Forman, the enterprising grocer, 315 George street, will regret to hear that he has at last disposed of this well stocked and admirably managed business. The purchaser, Mr. John Hill of Moonstone, Ont., has already arrived in the city and taken possession of his new venture. Moonstone is a village near Orillia and Mr. Hill is spoken of, by the villagers as a progressive and well posted grocery and general store man.

He will remove his family here, and doubtless the same generous patronage that has been given to Mr. Forman will be extended to his successor. Mr. Forman will leave in a few days for Ingersoll and will in future devote all his time to his store in that town.

Committee Pleased

Great Success of Bethany Tabernacle's Outing.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the annual excursion of Bethany Tabernacle Sunday school, have good reason to be congratulated on the success which crowned their efforts yesterday.

About 200 people patronized the excursion, which left by the regular G.T.R. train for Lakefield, where they boarded one of the Stony Lake steamers and took the sail around the lakes.

On their return last night, all those who had taken in the trip were loud in their praises of how the time they had enjoyed and the complete manner in which every detail had been arranged for their pleasure.

KLONDYKE IS GAMBLING MAD

A Miner, With a Fortune of Forty Thousand Dollars' Worth of Gold, Loses All and Starts Back to the Fields to Make Another Fortune. Hotels and Gambling Resorts are Thriving.

Essex, Ont., Aug. 3.—Arthur Milne, who has been in the Klondike for the past eight years, says the best kind of "pay dirt" in the Klondike is in a hotel or gambling resort, both of which are thriving. The people have gone mad over gambling, the miners taking chances on anything. Just before he left a miner came in with forty thousand dollars' worth of gold. Within a week he had lost it all at the gambling tables and had started back to the fields to make another fortune.

CZAR PUGNACIOUS.

London, Aug. 3.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times telegraphed last night:

"Another Imperial telegram, even more warlike than that which was sent the Orenburg clergy, appears in to-day's Official Messenger. The Czar, replying to addresses from Khabarovka, expresses hearty approval of the recommendation to continue the war until the enemy has been crushed, and, above all, not to think of the cession of territory or the payment of an indemnity.

"The personal character of the monarch precludes the faintest suspicion of bluff, and these repeated asservations of the Czar's warlike mood directly after the interview at Bjorke compel attention."

"I shall also be glad to have personal intercourse with President Roosevelt, who has reached such a prominent position as a statesman and to present to him the greetings of Emperor Nicholas."

POLICE COURT HAPPENINGS

BY OUR COURT REPORTER.

A D. and D. Pays a Good Price for His Bitters . . . A Local Hotelman Fined for Selling After Hours.

Tom Kelly, a lumberman, charged with having been D & D in a public place, pleaded guilty to the soft impeachment. $2 fine. When asked if he had the necessary collateral, he requested the Chief to telephone the bartender of a certain hotel, but the hotelman himself happened to be among the audience and put up the coin.

A local hotelman, charged with having sold liquor during prohibited hours on Saturday night last, pleaded guilty, explaining that he had sold a few glasses, but had kept strictly closed up on Sunday. Although the defendant admitted the charge against him to be correct, the Chief, who was the informant, asked his Worship to hear one witness at least.

Clara Forsyth, 17 years of age, said he was in the hotel Saturday night. Went in with a chum after 7 o'clock and got lager in a room. There were a few people standing there, but did not see them drink. The lager was taken out of a keg in the room.

The Chief had subpoenas issued for 22 witnesses. Explained that he had advised the hotelman that he could plead guilty and save expenses.

His Worship said he would put on the heaviest fine the law allows. He remarked that the Ontario Legislature, now in power, were making every effort to have the law enforces and he would back up their efforts by imposing the heaviest fines the law allows. $20 with $13.40 costs.

A young man, well known in the city, was charged with having been drunk in a public place, and pleaded not guilty.

A relative of his, who is in the hotel business, in evidence, said the young man came into the hotel and claimed money due for working on the witness' farm. Defendant had an clinch with the bartender.

The defendant, in the witness box, said, he went into the hotel on Saturday. Struck hands with the bartender. A dispute arose about money matters. Went to the office and asked his relative for money, but his relative said he did not calculate on paying it to him. Had a couple of glasses of beer. Said he thought the case had been settled yesterday by a lawyer. His Worship said, "You have been here so often I shall impose a fine, $2 with $2.60 costs to be paid in ten days.

* * * *

In reference to the above mentioned hotel case, where the proprietor pleaded guilty before any evidence was heard, there is a very suggestive distinction between the manner in which liquor cases terminate when managed by Chief Rogers, and when the complaintant is the regular inspector, who draws a good salary for laying liquor informations, and managing such cases. The hotelman in question has been charged several times with similar offences by the inspector, but by a strange fatality never was the hotelman convicted under any of his charges. The first time the local police lay a charge the defendant pleads guilty. Whilst unfair inferences would perhaps not be justifiable, the case is, to say the least, peculiar. When the local police lay a charge it is pretty sure to have a foundation and neither laid at random or where they have good reason to believe a case cannot be proven, and thereby gain the credit for vast integrity, put a lot of witnesses to the trouble and expense of half a day's work lost, and still let the hotelman go scot free.

* * * *

As the inspector has clearly demonstrated his inability or lack of intention to prosecute in this hotelmans case, the Chief of Police has not only shown that a conviction is possible, but has already issued summonses against the same hotelman; one for selling to a minor, as is already proven by the boy's evidence yesterday, and another for selling liquor on the Sunday before last. Should the Chief prove these cases it would perhaps be inadvisable to go further on back number offences, even if provable, lest he be charged with persecution.

He has clearly proven his ability to convict when he takes a case in hand, and this demonstration of his power and ability to handle such cases successfully, coupled with a certainty that the present bunch of charges will suffice to show the hotelmen in general, who break the law, that the liquor act is to be obeyed and not trifled with, would perhaps effect more good than by digging convictions out of the forgotten past.

5,000 See the Pictures

A conservative estimate of last night's crowd at Jackson Park places the number at 5,000, of whom fully 3,500 patronized the street cars both ways. The whole level spot fronting the screen on which the views were thrown, was a solid, closely packed mass of humanity; for yards back, on the elevated ground, scores of hundreds more viewed the excellent pictures. The street car management had announced a change of views for last night; however, by some mishap, the views expected to arrive from New York, were partly delayed, one large package going astray in transit. To keep faith with the public, Mr. Learmouth asked Mr. R. M. Roy to lend him some of his excellent views; so it was, in part, by Mr. Roy's courtesy that the excellent show was given last night.

The balance of the New York views are expected to arrive to-day, and will, if they come, be shown to-night. The car service was admirably managed, the large crowd being handled without a hitch.

Refer to Mr. Curtis

Warminster and Westbury Journal an English Publication, Speaks of Mr. Mark Curtis.

The Warminster and Westbury Journal a well-known English county paper, devotes some space to the recent golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Curtis (a Peterboro city). It says in part:

"Mr. and Mrs. Mark Curtis, both of whom have relations of this parish, which Mr. Curtis left in 1854, emigrating to Canada to his uncle who was farming there. In a sketch of Mr. Curtis career, which is given, it is stated that the journey occupied seventy days, the sea voyage being done in a sailing vessel, in which provisions ran short through the length of time taken on the voyage. Later Mr. Curtis' parents came out, and with them Mrs. Curtis, who was then Miss Dunning, and fifty years ago the young Wiltshire couple in Canada were married. The elder Curtis started a brickyard, which on his death passed to his son, whose family now carry it on, as well as run a farm. Mr. and Mrs. Curtis have a family of five sons and one daughter, and a brother of Mr. Curtis (David) is also in the country. Excellent portraits of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis accompany the article, while note is made that on this Sunday the Rector of the church Mr. Curtis attends made reference to the interesting event. No doubt there are readers of the Journal who will remember the couple, though we are afraid the Deverills have changed much since 1854.

HEALTH FOR WOMEN

Mrs. Emma Daigle of Moncton N. B., Sends an Open Letter to All Sufferers.

Most women are tired when they wake up. Housework drags along with great difficulty. Nervousness is always present, headaches seldom depart, tears are ever ready to flow.

But there is a cure, a true specific for women's ills that restored a prominent lady in Moncton, Mrs. Daigle, who tells the following experience:

"About a year ago I had a serious sickness, sort of a general breakdown. My digestion failed entirely and I was able to eat but very little. I took violent stomach pains and suffered terribly from headaches. My doctor said it was "nerve exhaustion" and I might never be well. My troubles increased, for as I grew weaker I became subject to neuralgia and rheumatism, sleepless nights forsook me and I almost lost heart. Different medicines didn't help. Doctors couldn't do me any good. I was desperate when I heard of Ferrozone. The first box convinced me it was just what I needed. It toned up my stomach, gave me a splendid appetite and then my recovery seemed easier. Ferrozone increased my weight several pounds, has restored my nerves, given me a good color and strength such as I never had before. For the weak and sickly I can truthfully recommend Ferrozone." (Signed) Emma Daigle.

REMEMBER: No mere stimulant or alcoholic concoction can take the place of the nerve and blood nourishment contained in Ferrozone. This true tonic always does what is claimed for it. Sold everywhere in 50c. boxes or six for $2.50. By mail from N. C. Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U. S. A., and Kingston, Ont.

THE ARMIES IN THE ORIENT

The Japanese report that they have possession of the southern half of the island of Sakhalin. They will be masters of the whole of it soon, for there cannot be a large Russian force on the island. Therefore one of the Japanese conditions of peace will be that Russia shall relinquish all claim to Sakhalin. Probably the Russian plenipotentiaries will not spend much time over the proposition. The island has little value for Russia apart from its proximity to the Siberian coast. It has been used only for the confinement of the most dangerous criminals. Another convict settlement will have to be established. The island was once held by Japan, but Russia laid successful claim to it in the days when she did much as she pleased in North-Eastern Asia.

If peace is not concluded speedily the Japanese may lay claim by right of succession to Russian territory on the main land. It is reported that the Russian forces in northern Corea have been driven steadily backward during the last month, and hold only two positions south of the Tumen River, which forms the boundary between Corea and Siberia. It cannot require much of an effort on the part of the Japanese to drive the Russians across the river as far back as Vladivostok.

The state of affairs in Manchuria is such as to create the impression that Linevitch and Oyama have an understanding that there is to be no serious fighting while the peace negotiations are on. Reports come occasionally from St. Petersburg of the growing strength of the Russian army and its desire to take the offensive, but it makes no forward move. Gen. Oyama sends in no reports of progress, and presumably he is simply marking time and refraining from sacrificing the lives of any of his men. It may be that without any formal agreement there is a practical armistice so far as the Manchurian armies are concerned. It would not be surprising, however, to hear at any moment of the Japanese activity in the neighborhood of Vladivostok.

DEATH AND WOUNDS

There is no war in the United States, but the railroads continue to kill and maim their employes, and the death list continues to be appalling, although there is a slight decrease noticeable in the last bulletin issued by the interstate commerce commission. In the first three months of this year 28 passengers and 294 employes were killed, and 1,651 passengers and 2,462 employes were injured in railroad accidents. This terrible loss of life has been the subject of much agitation, and at least two Presidents have recommended legislation by Congress to compel the railroads to equip freight and passenger [illegible] able with the most approved couplings, and to place about this dangerous calling more safeguards than now attend it.

Human life seems to be about the cheapest thing there is.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Notwithstanding the fact that the famous coin known as the widow's mite, and also the coin said to be one of those Judas received as the price of his betrayal of his Master, are said to be in New York, another so-called widow's mite has been discovered, this time in Wisconsin. The coin, discovered near Berlin, Wisconsin, on the Allard farm, was found in a metal box in the center of a cement-like substance. The care with which it was preserved and its evident antiquity have led to the conjecture that Marquette, or some of his missionaries, who used to go up and down the Fox River, either lost the coin or gave it to the Indians. It was found in a ploughed field.

Buffalo, N.Y., Aug. 2. — Richard Johnson, 62 years old, was blown to pieces by dynamite while rowing across Niagara River at Tonawanda today. One side of the boat was shattered, but Sturges managed to keep it afloat until the party were rescued.

Johnson, it is said, was about to explode a stick of dynamite to kill fish. The dynamite fell out of his hands and, striking the side of the boat, exploded. Johnson's head and arms were blown off. Duffy will recover.

GENERAL BOOTH IS HOME AGAIN

Veteran Leader of Salvation Army Full of Colonization Plans

London, Aug. 1—Interviewed on his return from Australia, General Booth of the Salvation Army, said he quite agreed with Mr. Rider Haggard's proposals, which coincided with his own ideas. He thought the Government might provide troopships for emigration purposes. The Salvation Army intended to assist in its effort to induce emigration to the colonies on the largest and most systematic scale in the history of the world.

General Booth was enthusiastic over the success of his five months tour in the antipodes. He expressed himself as profoundly impressed with the possibilities of Australia's future. Australia's vital need, he said, was more population, and he was prepared to promote his schemes of emigration on a greater scale than ever before. Twenty thousand acres of land in western Australia had been given to him to do as he pleased.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

[1] At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

[2] If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

[3] If a settler is entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

[4] If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses [2] [3] or [4] must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 80 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 3d of June, 1890.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Offices in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba; or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

N. B.—In addition to Free Grant Lands, to which the Regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from railroad and other corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

How to Visit Colorado

Go first to Denver. It is the State capital, as well as the largest, wealthiest and most metropolitan city between the Missouri River and the Pacific Coast. The city itself is very interesting, and from it start practically all the trains over the various roads into the mountains.

Many of the most enjoyable one-day trips in Colorado begin and end at Denver. The cost of these little journeys is not great.

After you have familiarized yourself with Denver and its surroundings will be soon enough to decide where to go for the rest of your visit. The question must be considered from several standpoints—altitude, hotel accommodations, accessibility, amusements, etc.

Our Colorado literature will help you in deciding where to go and what to do. Sent free for the asking.

UINTAH INDIAN RESERVATION

To be opened September 1, 1905, customers the knob on the "door of opportunity." Pull at the latch string and the door will open for you, no matter where you live or what your occupation. Colorado men—well known, reliable, experienced—have organized the Indiana Mining and Power Co. and provide ten thousand dollars capital by the sale of preferred stock, par value one dollar per share.

Ordinarily a ground floor stock is, if offered at all, is offered to get money with which to start, has no asset, whatever behind it, and depends entirely on future development for its value. Our proposition is different. We have started. Our stock now has an asset of property adjoining the reservation, consisting of 320 acres rich agricultural land, 280 shares of water in the first water right on the Uintah River and two lots (corner) Main street in the new town of Moffat, Utah. A fair estimate of the value, $16,800.00, is sixteen dollars for every dollar thus far invested and an asset fifty per cent greater than the entire issue to be sold at the price it is here offered; however, this is only the commencement of operations. With the additional capital to be secured by the sale of stock other valuable property will be added and the opening of the reservation will start the harvest, of which our six years continuous sowing has laid the foundations. You never had such an opportunity as we now offer. We share with you the results of the expenditures of our own capital, our labor and the judgment that has been displayed in securing this extraordinary opportunity for a profitable investment. Every dollar subscribed will bring manifold returns.

A limited amount of the preferred stock is on sale at 5 cents per share, the ground floor price. An advance to 10 cents will soon be made. A square deal is guaranteed. Write for any further information or any reference desired. DO IT NOW.

Homeopathic Treatment

Local Sportsman Saves the Life of a Bass by Judicious Administration of Tanglefoot

The Times, in conversation with several local devotees of the piscatorial art, was let into a secret of the healing art, not generally known.

A party of Peterboro fishermen, who had encountered unusually good luck, in their trolling and reel exercises, brought to camp, one day last week, about 30 good bass. The dinner horn sounded (and was swallowed) just as they landed their finny captives on the dock. In their haste to assuage a "Stony Lake" appetite, the party left their fish on the dock and proceeded to satisfy the inner man. After a hearty dinner, the gentlemen came to the wharf, to gloat over their spoils captured. One large black bass, of the thirty odd showed still a sign of life, as he feebly waggled his tail. One of the party remarking on the tremendous vitality of the fish, which had been out of water nearly an hour, said "That fish deserves to live. Let us give him a dose of the snake bite antidote and try its effect." Accordingly a jug, kept for purely medicinal purposes was produced, and a quantity of spiriti fermenti poured into the bass' mouth.

In about three minutes the fish began to shiver, then to wriggle, and suddenly, with a mighty leverage of his tail, the five pounds of bass his tail, the five pounds of black bass, took a leap into its native element and was lost to sight. This story is declared to be true by no less an authority and exponent of fish story veracity than Mine Host of the Snowden House who caught the fish.

Mr. Geo. Perry Returns

After an Absence of 29 Years an "Old Boy" of Peterboro Pays a Visit to the Scene of His Youth

Mr. George A. Perry, son of the late Mr. Charles Perry, for years collector of customs of this city, but now matrimonial specialist of the New York World, is visiting Peterboro, after an absence of 29 years.

Mr. Perry has had a very wide experience in newspaperdom in the United States, having worked in this profession in many of the largest cities of that country.

He married in Rochester, and went to Texas, where he lived a few years, and moved to Colorado, where he started a newspaper. This enterprise promised well and he started another. Then the panic of 1893 came and this whole thing was upset and Mr. Perry came East again and worked in New York, where he has lived ever since, and has no particular desire to move. He has a position of responsibility on the World, and like hundreds of other Canadians, is meeting with success.

Mr. Perry states that he has heard many Americans speak very highly of Peterboro, which is becoming quite well known in New York, principally because of the fact that a great many New Yorkers are going to the lakes stop off here, and by this means have seen considerable of the city.

Mr. Perry will remain here for a couple of weeks and will visit his brother, who lives north of Marmora.

INDEPENDENT OIL COMPANIES COMBINE AGAINST STANDARD

Pittsburg Financiers Plan Big Concern to Control Southwestern Output to Rockefeller Interests

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 2.—Negotiations practically have been completed by which the Mellons, the Pittsburg bankers, will combine all of the important oil interests of Kansas and the Indian territory. Then the Mellons will control the most powerful company independent of Standard Oil in the southwest.

The capital of the new company will be $25,000,000, of which $7,500 000 will be 6 per cent. bonds, which the Mellons are arranging to have financed by the Union Trust company at par.

The Mellons have agreed on behalf of their Gulf Refining Company at Port Arthur to refine the product sent through their pipe lines at a sum not to exceed 42 cents per barrel, and 10 per cent. of the net revenue from the crude oil shall be funded for the redemption of bonds. They also agree to take care of the product of this field in their new line.

Beware of Mosquitoes

New York, Aug. 2.—Thousands of circulars are to be sent through by the business men of New Orleans, containing an emphatic declaration by Dr. J. H. White, of the United States Marine Hospital service, that freight cannot carry yellow fever infection. Dr. White has written the letter to President Kohnke, of the Board of Trade. Dr. White says: "There is no possible way in which yellow fever may be transmitted other than by the mosquito, and freight cannot, under any circumstances, be infected in this way, but only in so far as it might become the residence of an infected mosquito. It is not likely to become the residence of any kind of mosquito, much less the infected mosquito, whose presence in business and manufacturing establishments would, in the nature of things, be a very remote contingency."

New York, Aug. 2.—Practically all suspicion that yellow fever exists among persons under detention who have been taken off steamers from Southern ports in the past few days was removed to-day when Health Officer Doty announced that all but two of his suspects would be released. Barring possible new cases found on incoming steamers, the situation is better to-day than at any other time since last Thursday.

A stoker and a waiter on the Saxonia are still sick, but are reported as improving.

Mr. D. Harvie, of the Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Company, and assistants have repaired the big rotary of the Lakefield Portland Cement Company, which was derailed at Sixth street a short time ago. One end of the rotary was badly damaged, but these have all been removed. The work of laying bricks in the dryer will be proceeded with this week.

A Hunter Street Store Improvement.

Mr. Jas. Murty, the Hunter street hardware and stove vendor is going to make extensive improvements to his shop premises. Two large plate glass show windows, the dimensions each being eleven by eight feet, are to be put in, and the entire building is to be improved. Mr. Murty's store is probably one of the most substantial structures of its kind in Peterboro, and at one time it was considered as the best. It was erected in 1800, the year in which the Prince of Wales, now King Edward VII., visited Peterboro. Mr. Murty has occupied the building for many years.

Boy Drowned at Hastings

As Oscar O'Neil, the six-year-old son of Mr. T. H. O'Neil, of Hastings, was giving his dog a swim in the Trent River on Tuesday afternoon, the little fellow most unfortunately, losing his balance, fell from the pier on which he stood. He was in the water fifteen minutes before being found. Two doctors were called and worked with the body fully ninety minutes in an endeavor to resuscitate this boy, but their efforts were of no avail. The sad catastrophe has cast a gloom over the whole village, the little boy being a favorite with all who knew him.

Quick Work at Pipe Laying.

The Peterboro Light and Power Co. had two gangs of men at work from six o'clock yesterday evening until midnight under charge of Mr. Al. Jones, laying pipes along Park street to the Canadian General Electric Co. These are six inch pipes, and are replacing the four inch ones that could not supply sufficient pressure of gas to meet the present greatly increased demand, gas being used in brazing and other work in immense quantities. The men succeeded in making 24 joints and getting the six inch pipe connected in six hours, which is a record for Peterboro in pipe laying.

A Local Product in Demand

Mr. W. H. Moldrum reports a tremendous demand for binder twine this summer. A Times representative yesterday remarked to him that he must, judging by his conversation, have handled tons of this necessary farming commodity: "Yes," said Mr. Moldrum, "we have sold tons of it, but our sales would be better described by car loads." He handles the product of our local Cordage Factory, and says it supersedes all other makes both in quality and demand by consumers. This twine is a particularly strong and well made article, being composed of fibre imported from the Philippine Islands and New Zealand.

Germany's Action Driving Britain and Colonies Together

Is Seeking to Oust Australia From Marshall Island Trade--Quick Retaliation Follows Attempt--Preference to Mother Country is Bound to Come Shortly.

London, August 4.—Germany has unwittingly become the most potent factor in driving Britain and her colonies together, politically and commercially.

Having failed to coerce Canada into abandoning the British preference, Germany is now seeking to oust Australia from the Marshall Islands trade by anti-dumping regulations.

The Australian states are individually retaliating by refusing to give any Government orders for German made goods, cancelling existing orders where possible.

United action among all the States is under consideration. From this, to British preference, and anti-German surtax, is a small step, if Germany remains obdurate.

CANADIAN WHEAT FOR U.S.

May Go There in Future Instead of to Great Britain

London, August 4.—The British Government today gave welcome evidence of its interest in Canada as a supplier of British food needs, by the publication in bluebook form of an exhaustive report of Professor Mavor, of Toronto University, in the North-West, with especial reference to wheat production.

Professor Mavor predicts that Japan and the United States will enter largely into competition with Britain as purchasers of Canadian wheat. Moreover, if the United States admits wheat free for milling, Canadian wheat will go there, rather than to Britain, though much progress is necessary in the North-West before it becomes a great exporter.

JAPAN'S BEWILDERMENT

She Does not Understand Russian Levity re Negotiations

Tokio, August 4. — Heavy rains have caused serious inundations throughout North-Eastern Korea, and three have destroyed all the Russian pontoon bridges, by the use of which troops have moved freely about the country. Japanese public men and newspapers express bewilderment as to the real nature of Witte's mission to Portsmouth, since the interviews which are said to express his opinions do not seem to harmonize with the idea that he is to negotiate for peace. It is pointed out that if Russia still treats the peace conference with levity, that action is an insult not only to Japan, but to the United States.

Police Court

OFFICIALS

Chief of Police, G.I. Read

Magistrate, D.W. Dumble

This first case tried yesterday morning was a charge against a boy named Taylor of stealing a sum of money from Mr. Geo. Lang, a local grocer.

George Lang was the first witness. He is a grocer corner Murray and Aylmer streets. Knows Taylor, this boy accused, who used to live next door to him. He misses some money on Monday, 10th April, taken from his house on Sunday. Does not know the exact sum as he wife handled it. When his son Stuart got up in the morning, Monday, he missed his watch. Mrs. Lang missed the money from the bureau drawer. Was in the house all Sunday until 3.20 p.m., which he went out. Left this key on a ledge at the rear of his house. Does not know anything about the prisoner. Did not notice anything wrong until Monday morning. Has not seen the boy since that Sunday night.

Mrs. Lang, the next witness, said: Missed money from her house on the morning of April 10th. There was between $15 and $18, which she put in a top bureau drawer, upstairs. Did not suspect anyone in particular. The purse was left in a drawer. Saw the prisoner about a block from the house Sunday afternoon. Never saw the boy from April 9th until this week.

Crown examined by Mr. O'Connell, said the purse containing the money was shoved down below some clothing in the drawer.

A boy named E. Sullivan, in answer to first questions put by County Crown Attorney Wood, said, "Don't know nothing at all about the money." Did not hear Taylor speak about this money.

No case said Mr. Wood. Boy discharged with some good advice by his Worship.

A local hotelman who on Wednesday was fined $20 with $13.40 costs for selling liquor on Saturday night last, during prohibited hours, and who pleaded guilty, was charged with selling liquor to a minor, one Chas. Forsyth, a boy 17 years of age. It will be remembered that although the hotelkeeper pleaded guilty, the Chief of Police, who laid the information, asked that a witness be heard. The witness, Charles Forsyth, was heard and testified to obtaining liquor, and said he was 17 years of age.

Mr. G. W. Hatton, who appeared for the hotelman, reminded his Worship that the hotelman had paid his fine. That the boy who, it is claimed, had the liquor sold to him was one of the witnesses in the case his client had paid the fine for. Mr. Hatton contended that it is a case of prosecution against his client, who had been up four times previously, with dozens of witnesses heard, and no conviction made. Mr. Hatton claimed that by Section 101 of the Act, as his client had already paid a fine, he could not be fined twice on the same conviction, for an offence committed the same day.

His Worship thought it would not hold to fine the defendant twice on the same offence, and took the matter under judgment until next Monday.

In reply to a question by his Worship, County Crown Attorney Wood said he fully agreed with the Magistrate.

Another charge was laid against the hotelman, that of trying to intimidate a witness, to wit, the boy Forsyth. This case will be tried this morning. Still another charge was laid against the same hotelman, that of selling liquor on 23rd ultimo, i.e., on Sunday. This case was enlarged until Monday morning next at 10 o'clock.

RECIPROCITY WITH WESTINDIES

Conference Might be Arranged in the Future

Kingston, Jamaica, August 3.—The question of some reciprocity arrangement with Canada has more than once been raised, but it is clear that this cannot be dealt with except in conjunction with the West Indian colonies as a whole. It may be that if a conference could be arranged, composed of representative Canadians and West Indians, some common scheme might be devised which would tend to the advantage of both parties, but it is difficult to see what concession could be granted by this island in the way of reduction of taxation on any Canadian imports, in return for the admission of sugar at rates which would remove the advantage at present held by the United States market.

A PROSPEROUS SEASON

A Record Season for the Canadian Producer

This dairy season of 1905 so far has been one of the most prosperous on record for the Canadian producer. The export demand has been unusually active, and shipments from Montreal since the opening of navigation total 875,836 boxes, or 131,294 boxes more than a year ago, a record only once before exceeded. This was in this banner year 1903, when over one million boxes were exported up to August 1. Prices are from 2c to 3c higher than a year ago, and the aggregate volume of the exports for the year should nearly total that of 1903, while the exports for this season represented a return to the Canadian dairymen of $21,563,388. Last year prices were as low as 6 1-2c. on the county boards, but the bottom figures this year has been 8 13-16, a higher figure than was realized during the entire season of 1904.

Light stocks in England and an improved demand from there has been largely responsible for this big rise in values, and the same applies to butter. Canadian creamery has year than ever before, exports reflecting a substantial increase over any preceding year, while the value of the product is about 3 to 4 cents above the level of a year ago, and about the same difference exists between the prices of 1903 and those now prevailing.

It is this tremendous growth in the exports to England and this increasing favor of the Canadian product there that is responsible for the high prices which the Ontario housewife is compelled to pay for her cheese and butter supplies this year. The shipping demand has created a scarcity of home supplies, and no relief is looked for during the remainder of this year.

POPE LONGS FOR VENICE

His Holiness May Visit His Old Home Shortly

Rome, August 4.—In Vatican circles it is asserted that the Pope is homesick. Members of his household say he is showing signs of fretfulness, and even greater disturbance of his usual demeanor, owing to his longing for Venice, which overmasters him. It is believed he will leave the Vatican shortly, and perhaps pay a visit to Venice, accompanied by his favorite niece, Gilda Parolin, who is betrothed to a Venetian nobleman. This news comes from an authoritative source, but it is certain that a majority of the cardinals will not allow the Pontiff to leave the Vatican.

INSECTS CAUSE WRECK

Curious Theory Regarding Recent Derailment of Car

Cleveland, August 4.—A species of insects known as the "Canada soldiers" are supposed to have caused the Lake Shore Electric Express car wreck, near Clifton Boulevard, on Sunday, in which George Searle, motorman, was killed. The car jumped the track at a curve. A swarm of the insect pests had settled down on the track, and the crushed insects are thought to have made the rails so slippery that the car could not keep the track.

A Quick Horse Trade

Shortly after yesterday morning's Police Court adjourned, several gentlemen standing in front of the City Clerk's office, saw a farmer in difficulty with a reaper he was trying to get out to his farm. The reaper was stranded at the corner of Simcoe and Queen streets, as one of the team attached to the machine persistently balked and refused to move, the horse being frightened at the noise made by the reaper.

The driver tried persuasion, whip and finally, in desperation, profanity, but still the horse would not budge. The stranded outfit caused some excitement among the onlookers, including two active members of the Turf Club and a Times representative, who walked over to the scene to offer various sorts of inefficient advice. Finally Mr. Arthur Rountree, the George street grocer, offered to trade a horse he had down at the Driving Park for the one that balked. The farmer at once took his offer and departed south to get his new horse. Time will tell which of the gentlemen got the worst of it, but those who know Mr. Rountree's knowledge of horseflesh, offered opinions that he would not be a bad loser on this deal.

Mr. Rountree will put the latest arrival in his stables to other uses than dragging a groaning, Russo-Japanese battle sounding agricultural implement.

Push It Along!

"When You See a Good Thing Push It Along," Tonopah Home Consolidated Co. Shipping Ore

There are varied styles of mining stock now offered to the investing public, those which represented mines not yet developed, those that are in process of development and those which have been developed and are actually shipping ore. The last style is however very rarely to be had at any price, and then, only when the ore being shipped is so rich this company owning such mine, desire to enlarge their plant at once, and establish their works on a larger paying basis.

The Tonopah Home Consolidated Mines and Exploration Co. was organized to take over and develope properties in Tonopah adjoining already developed and paying mines.

During the past four years, $150,000,000 has been developed and now being extracted in the Tonopah District. This company will also take over some of the most valuable properties in the Bullfrog, Goldfield and other rich districts. They have already shipped 150 sacks of ore from their Alta group of claims, that will show as high as $1,000 per ton.

Mr. W. K. Hall, the local fiscal agent has been appointed agent for this large corporation, and empowered to dispose of a limited number of shares in the Tonopah Home Consolidated Mining Co., at a very low price. Any seeking a lucrative channel for investment, would do well to consult Mr. Hall at once.

CRUISE OF BRITISH FLEET IN BALTIC MAY PROVOKE WAR

German Press Issues Warning Regarding Avoidance of Pitfalls

VISIT NOW IS UNFORTUNATE

Danger May Await the Channel Squadron in its Manœuvres

Berlin, Aug. 3. — The German press warns the British fleet, which is coming to manoeuvre in the Baltic, during the third week of August, to beware of pitfalls which might easily provoke an Anglo-German war.

The visit is now described as highly unfortunate, in view of the strained relations existing between the German and British people. Englishmen are warned that the Baltic is practically unknown to British seamen, who must be prepared for all consequences attendant upon manoeuvres in strange waters filled with foreign ships of commerce, and defensive naval mechanisms, such as mines.

Their attention is called to unknown dangers, which resulted in the explosion of the Maine in the harbor of Havana, and also to the Dogger Bank incident last October, which brought England and Russia to the verge of war.

It is plainly intimated also that if British sailors mingle with German townspeople of the Baltic shores, angry encounters are altogether likely. However, it is asserted that German naval and police authorities will take the utmost precautions to avert unpleasant incidents. The inference is undisguised that danger lurks for the British armada during its unwelcome visit in German waters. In some quarters these warnings are interpreted as sarcasm, but many persons regard them as a threat intended to induce the British Admiralty to cancel the Channel squadron's cruise in the Baltic.

Wedding Bells.

SCOTT-LEMON.
CLARKE-REID.

Clarke-Reid.

The many friends in this city of Dr. Samuel Clarke and Miss Henrietta Reid of Millbrook, will tender this popular couple their heartiest congratulations on their marriage, at Millbrook on Wednesday.

Quite a number of our citizens went down to witness the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Dr. Chown, of Toronto, at 2.30 at the home of the bride.

The interior of the house was beautifully decorated with flowers, which were used with excellent advantage. The bride was daintily attired in a gown of white Brussels net over white tafetta silk and she wore a veil and orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of white roses. The bridesmaids, her sister, Miss Bertha Reid, and two cousins, Miss Farrar and Miss Reid, were pretty gowns of pale blue silk and carried red roses. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Charles Reid. Miss Clarry played the wedding march, and at the appropriate moment, Miss Richardson sang very sweetly "O Promise Me." After the wedding the good things of a sumptuous breakfast table were partaken of by the party. Mr. Harry Lemon, of this city entered.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarke, left upon the afternoon train for Toronto and cities in the West. Upon returning from their honeymoon they will reside in Millbrook.

• • • •

Scott-Lemon.

The many friends and parishioners of the Rev. F. J. Scott, pastor of Murray street Baptist church, will congratulate this popular young divine on his recent marriage.

On Tuesday, August 1st, at the residence of the bride's mother, Lemonville, York county, he was married by Rev. Geo. Williams, of that place to Miss Della May Lemon, daughter of Mrs. Jas. Lemon. A large number of friends of both the high contract-ing parties witnessed the pretty and interesting ceremony.

The honeymoon will be spent in Toronto, Muskoka and Sparta, the latter place being Rev. Mr. Scott's home.

They will remain away a month at the end of which time they will come to Peterboro to reside.

While a few of the most intimate friends of the energetic pastor of the Murray street church were aware that the interesting event chronicled above was to take place in the not distant future, to the majority of the people in the city the fact that he has joined the benedicts will be learned with surprise.

Historic House Gone.

A House Mentioned in "Roughing It in the Bush" Destroyed Yesterday by Fire.

Thousands of people who have read Mrs. Moody's homely but well described story of early life in Canada, entitled "Roughing it in the Bush," will be sadly interested to learn that one of the identical houses mentioned in this juvenile classic, was yesterday afternoon totally destroyed by fire. The house is one of the oldest, if not the oldest house in the township of Dummer, situated near a fine new brick house recently erected and occupied by Mr. Frank Harding, three miles from the village of Keene.

The fire originated, its cause being unknown, in Mr. Harding's brick house, and burned fiercely when it once started, and though every possible effort was made to save the property, this was impossible. A large portion of the furniture was destroyed before it could be taken from the burning building. The flames soon spread to the old historic house mentioned by Mrs. Moody.

Mr. Harding's house was insured in the London Mutal for $700, and the contents for $150 in the same company. This insurance will not nearly cover the loss.

A Narrow Escape

A Young Woman Falling from a G.T.R. Car, Narrowly Escapes Being Run Over.

Yesterday morning some confusion was caused in the minds of people at the G.T.R. station, as to which were their respective trains; at one time there were in the yards, owing to different excursions, trains for Port Hope, Belleville, Lindsay and Lakefield almost simultaneously. The G.T.R. officials would wisely avert or lessen such confusion by having legible signs attached to the various trains, as is done in all larger cities.

A young lady who was on the lowest step of a car on the Lindsay train, conveying All Saints' choir excursion, just as the train pulled out, was apparently shoved off her perch by a brakeman who hurriedly climbed aboard. The lady came within a very short distance of falling under the moving wheels of the train. Had she fallen a few inches further towards the track there would most certainly have been a horrible Tatality.

Ladies should never stand on the steps of a moving train; better to wait another occasion or come early and avoid the rush.

To be Buried To-day.

Little M. Wescott, Who Died From Drinking Scalding Hot Tea to be Interred To-day.

This afternoon at two o'clock little Rosalie Lecea Margerite Wescott, daughter of Mr. Eldridge W. Wescott, of North Monaghan, will be buried in the Little Lake cemetery.

The death of this bright little girl was caused by an unique as deplorable an accident. On Sunday last the child, who was only one year and seven months old, was taking a cup of tea, and, those with her did not notice until the child cried with pain, that the tea was scalding hot. She scalded her mouth and throat severely, and the usual remedies, in similar cases having been applied, nothing more was considered to have taken place of a nature to prove serious, for some hours. However, septicaemia, or blood poisoning, soon set in, and despite all efforts, the little sufferer gradually grew worse until the end came yesterday morning. The sympathy of the community will go out to the grief-stricken relatives.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at two o'clock from the family residence, North Monaghan.

Is It Safe?

A Practical Builder Says the Post Office North Wall Is Unsafe.

Some doubt was expressed yesterday by a leading local builder and contractor as to the safety of the post office building owing to the portion taken out of the north wall, to allow for the little addition now in progress. The contractors said, that, as a stone keyed arch had been taken away from above where the former rear entrance door stood, and was replaced by three iron girders, he considered that the great weight of the central portion of this wall would be too heavy for the substituted girders to bear. However, the Government architect must have looked into this matter pretty thoroughly before removing the supporting arch.

Rattlesnake Bites Small Boy

Sandwich, Ont., Aug. 4.—Arzan, the 14-year-old son of Napoleon Gignac, three miles from here, is suffering seriously from the bites of a rattlesnake received while berry-picking. The boy ran home, where simple remedies were applied. No doctor was called, but, following the superstition of old French people, a man who is supposed to posses magic power, was called in to charm away the effects of the bite.

This boy's legs and body are badly swollen.

RUSSIA RELIES ON THE BRITISH NAVY

Presence of Our Fleet Best Guarantee of Safety of the Baltic Sea--Presence of a British Squadron Affords a Welcome Guarantee of the Danish and Scandinavian Independence.

London, Aug. 4.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times telegraphs:

The Russ in a strong article discusses on the German proposal to close the Baltic. "Whom" asks the Russ, "is being profited by it? Germany, not Russia, is the answer. Russia is in no immediate danger of a naval attack unless Germany succeeds in embroiling her in a fatal quarrel in the west as she did in the east.

"The proposal makes for Germany predominance in the Baltic. Peter the Great's window into Europe would be boarded up by the Germans, who would seize and control the belt, and thus prevent the French fleet from helping Russia. In short, the Baltic would become a German lake."

The Russ concludes by saying of Prince Charles of Denmark for that the presence of a strong British squadron affords a welcome guarantee of the Danish and Scandinavian independence upon which German designs.

London, Aug. 4.—The forthcoming visit of a British fleet in the Baltic to Marienbad.

Set appears more than likely to mark the beginning of more cordial relations between Germany and Great Britain, instead of, as has been suggested in some quarters, adding to the friction now existing. The proposed visit was known to the German Foreign Office months ago, and suggestions that objections to it were raised by Germany are unfounded.

Ernest George Pretyman, Secretary to the Admiralty, to-day, in reply to questions, stated definitely that no protests regarding the visit of the fleet had been received. Friendly comment on the pending cruise from German Baltic ports creates the belief that it will help along King Edward's desire for cordial relations between Germany and Great Britain, and the announcement of Emperor William's support of this candidacy for the Norwegian throne is accepted as an indication that the German ruler proposes to work in the same direction.

It is revived that Emperor William will meet King Edward during the latter's forthcoming trip

Fish Flies Poisoned Horses.

Amherstburg, Ont., Aug. 4.—Dr. Perdue, Dominion Veterinary Inspector, is making an investigation of a serious outbreak of horse cholera in this district. Not less than 25 horses have died in Malden town ship within the past ten days. A similar condition is reported from Colchester South, and Gosfield South townships. The animals are first attacked with costiveness, which develops into acute dysentery, the animal dying in five to eight days. This cause is believed to be fish flies dying in the bay and eaten by the horses. These attacks have been intermittent for a few years, but this is far the most serious yet.

TELEPHONE TALKS.

TO TELEPHONE USERS AND THE GENERAL PUBLIC,—

At the opening of the enquiry by the Parliamentary Special Committee on Telephone Systems it was charged that the existing Telephone Companies in Canada had absolutely neglected and discouraged the extension of the Telephone to rural communities. The person who made this charge was either ignorant of the facts, or he made a sweeping misstatement wilfully.

The sworn testimony of the officials of THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF CANADA shows that this Company has been giving constant attention to this branch of Telephone development since 1887—that we have been fifteen years in advance of the times in exploiting rural service. The Company has spent thousands of dollars in promoting and constructing rural Telephone Lines, many of which had afterwards to be abandoned for lack of support, and others have been maintained for years at a loss as an educative example. This has been supplemented by frequent and expensive personal canvasses over many districts to induce development of this class of service. Where rural communities have preferred to supply their own Telephone service on the co-operative plan, the Bell Telephone Company has aided and encouraged them by loaning experienced men to supervise their line construction and installation of instruments, and afterwards by making further expert inspection and repairs. This Company has then given connection to such lines with its Local and Long Distance Systems where the equipment of the local concern was in condition to give satisfactory service, and where they were not in direct competition with this Company's own business The Bell Telephone Company has in addition to its own extensive and rapidly extending rural line system, working arrangements and an exchange of service with about forty such local systems.

It is only within the past three years that farmers have come generally to realize the practical advantage to them of Telephone service. Previous to that, farmers regarded the Telephone as a luxury which a few were prepared to pay for for a time, but in most cases soon to be abandoned. Even yet a great many farmers see an advantage only in being connected with their neighbours. But they are commencing to realise the necessity to them as well as to those in towns and cities of being connected with one general system, constructed in such a thorough manner as will insure permanency and a constant and efficient service.

The Bell Telephone Company of Canada has been doing pioneer work in this as in other branches of Telephone development for twenty years, and is to-day in advance of the movement. We have now over two thousand rural Telephone subscribers and nearly eight hundred Toll Offices supplying service to rural communities. As we have pointed out, development of this class of service has only fairly begun. The season of 1905 will add more farmers' Telephones to the Company's system than all the years before, and already hundreds of extensions for 1906 have been approved or are now being exploited.

The policy of the Bell Telephone Company of Canada, declared before the Special Committee, has been, and will continue to be, to develop Telephone service for every interest and every section of Canada in which it operates, and in this respect to keep pace with the public requirements. We may add that we deserve the continued support and confidence of the people by giving an efficient service at reasonable rates.

All Thin, Pale Women

Can Learn the Cause of Their Nervous, Used-up Condition

With women, ill-health is usually traceable to nerve exhaustion. Feeling run-down and tired most of the time is nature's warning that more nerve-force is required.

You must build up, nourish the body, vitalize the nerves, get more flesh and blood.

It's the abundant nutriment and building material in Ferrozone that enables it to cure so many sick women. It increases the appetite, adds weight and strength, restores lost color and develops a surplus of energy and nerve force that defies sickness of any kind. There is living proof in Mrs. Daniel Ferguson, Jr., of Prescott, Ont. Read her statement:

"A year ago my health failed. I grew thin and exceedingly pale. At night it was difficult to obtain rest for sleep. My appetite was variable and indigestion troubled me considerably. I became morose and suffered from heart palpitation. You could scarcely believe the benefit I derived in one week from Ferrozone. Color came back to my cheeks. My vitality and appetite increased, renewed nerve force and better spirits came also. Ferrozone did a world of good and made me well.

Remember this: No alcoholic stimulant can nourish and build up like Ferrozone. Fifty cents per box or six boxes for $2.50. At all dealers, or N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont., and Hartford, Conn., U.S.A.

A MISSION FROM CHINA

The Chinese Government has taken a step which may turn out to be of great consequence to the world. It has directed the dispatch of four missions, headed by very prominent men, to study the political methods of foreign countries of the East and West. One of these missions, and presumably in a sense the chief of them, will be headed by Prince Tsai-tsieh, adopted son of the present emperor's paternal uncle, and of the highest imperial rank next to the emperor himself. The heads of the other three missions are Tai Hung-Chie, second minister of finance; Yuan Shi Kai, the famous viceroy of Chih-li, and Tuan Fang, governor of Ho-nan.

This action closely suggests the proceeding of Japan in sending Count Iwakura, with four others of the most eminent statesmen of the country, and a staff of forty-four able assistants, to Europe and America in 1871. Upon that mission, which kept these observant Japanese for over a year in close touch with the social and political institutions of the Occident, was founded the regeneration of Japan. Prince Tsai-tsieh's mission may be a long step directly out of Japan's book.

China has never done just this thing before. Many of its students and diplomats, indeed, have visited and resided in the West. Li Hung Chang's tour was a visit of importance, and had marked consequences. It may be said to have opened the door for the work of this present embassy. But it was not undertaken for systematic and perhaps catechetic study.

Yet we should by no means assume that, as a result of the Tsai-tsieh expedition, China is likely to do the same thing that Japan did. It is incapable of taking so radical a step. If it could take it, it would occupy a hundred years or more in doing what Japan did in ten. What ever changes may be founded on the mission will be made slowly. But the fact that China has found its Iwakura at last is a witness of the imperial house may be hailed as a very promising indication. The This Celestial kingdom may begin to move by-and-by.

WERE CANADIAN-BORN

We are told that Thomas W. Lawson, of frenzied finance fame, is an exiled Nova Scotian—a Bluenose. That accounts for the vigor of his campaign against Standard Oil and its methods, and incidentally his own success in life. Canadians generally manage to achieve something when they start out to do it, and it must be confessed Mr. Lawson has achieved something—both fame and money, and he says he isn't through yet. Mr. Rockefeller might as well give up—and a little faster, too.

Canada, it appears, can also claim another celebrity hitherto thought native to the United States, "Buckskin" Jerry Simpson, now so seriously ill at his home in New Mexico. He was born in the Province of New Brunswick in 1842, but went to New York State when six years old. He has had a varied career; was through the Civil war, engaged in stockraising in Kansas, and finally settled in New Mexico. It is whispered that when Jerry was canvassing the rough farmers of his State in his run for Congress he disgusted with the hosiery usually worn, in an effort to win the good will of the voters, who also regularly neglected to wear socks. It may safely be said that he would not have had to do that had he grown up in his native Province. But they don't have New Mexican or Kansan summers in New Brunswick. However, he won a respected name for himself in Congress and in the country at large.

JAPAN'S WAR LOANS

In addition to the $410,000,000 borrowed in foreign markets, Japan has raised by exchequer bonds at home since the beginning of the war $190,000,000, the last instalment of which was over-subscribed by the Mikado's patriotic subjects to the extent of nearly 500 per cent. These loans account for $600,000,000 of the nation's war budget, but to make up the aggregate required for the prosecution of the war Japan has raised by increased taxation $106,300,000; by economies in administration, $48,200,000; by transfers from special accounts, $31,500,000, and from miscellaneous sources, $14,000,000.

VICTIM OF LINCOLN PLOT

William Withers, Stabbed by Booth, Dies at Ripe Old Age

New York, August 2.—William S. Withers, of Wakefield, who led the orchestra in Ford's theater, Washington, on the night of April 14, 1865, when President Lincoln was shot, is dead at the age of 70 years. John Wilkes Booth stabbed Withers after leaping from the president's box to the stage, and detectives arrested Withers. In the confusion many believed that Withers had fired the shot that killed the president, and an attempt was made to mob him. Withers was dragged out of the angry mob to the stage just in time to save him from being badly hurt.

For Stealing a Wheel

Because he needed the money, Norman Robinson, formerly of Peterboro, stole a bicycle from an Aurora dealer, and then sold it for $2.50. This morning, in the County Court, Judge Morson sentenced him to sixty days in jail. A second charge, also of bicycle theft, was pending, but, as he had returned the wheel, this was withdrawn.

"Give me a chance," he pleaded. "I'll pay rent for the Aurora bicycle from the date I took it," but the Court was obdurate.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the North-west Territories (excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendment thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If a settler has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

(4) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses (2) (3) or (4) must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 30 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 20 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd of June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Offices in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba, or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

N. B.—In addition to Free Grant Lands, to which the Regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from railroad and other corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

How to Visit Colorado

Go first to Denver. It is the State capital, as well as the largest, wealthiest and most metropolitan city between the Missouri River and the Pacific Coast. The city itself is very interesting, and from it start practically all the trains over the various roads into the mountains.

Many of the most enjoyable one-day trips in Colorado begin and end at Denver. The cost of these little journeys is not great.

After you have familiarized yourself with Denver and its surroundings will be soon enough to decide where to go for the rest of your visit. The question must be considered from several standpoints—altitude, hotel accommodations, accessibility, amusements, etc.

Our Colorado literature will help you in deciding where to go and what to do. Sent free for the asking.

STRICTURE AND KIDNEY DISEASE CURED.

"I had stricture for eleven years. It finally brought on Bright's Disease of the Kidneys. I had an uncomfortable shooting pain in the groin and feeling as though something was in the urethra. My back was weak and I could scarcely stoop over. Urine was full of sediment. Had a desire to urinate frequently. Family doctors, so-called specialists, patent medicines, electric belts, all failed. I was discouraged. I had spent hundreds of dollars in vain. Finally I consulted Drs. Kennedy & Kergan as the last resort. I had heard a great deal about them and concluded from the fact that they had been established over 25 years that they understood their business. I am delighted with the results. In one week I felt better and in a few weeks was entirely cured. Have gained sixteen pounds in weight."

UINTAH INDIAN RESERVATION

To be opened September 1, 1905; indications the bright on the "door of opportunity." Pull at the latch string and the door will open for you, no matter where you live or what your occupation. Colorado men—well known, reliable, experienced—have organized the Indiuta Mining and Power Co. and provide ten thousand dollars capital by the sale of preferred stock, par value one dollar per share.

Ordinarily a ground floor stock, if offered at all, is offered to get money with which to start, has no asset whatever behind it, and depends entirely on future development for its value. Our proposition is different. We have started. Our stock now has an asset of property adjoining the reservation consisting of 320 acres rich agricultural land, 320 shares of water in the best water right on the Uintah River and two lots (corner) Main street in the new town of Mabt, Utah. A fair estimate of the value, $16,800.00, is sixteen dollars for every dollar there for invested and an asset fifty per cent greater than the entire issue to be sold at the price it is here offered; however, this is only the commencement of operations. With the additional capital to be secured by the sale of stock other valuable property will be added and the opening of the reservation will start the harvest, of which our six years continuous mining has laid the foundation. You never had such an opportunity as we now offer. We share with you the results of the expenditure of our own capital, our labor and the judgment that has been displayed in securing this extraordinary opportunity for a profitable investment. Every dollar subscribed will bring manifold returns.

A limited amount of the preferred stock is on sale at 5 cents per share, the ground floor price. An advance to 10 cents will soon be made. A square deal is guaranteed. Write for any further information or any reference desired. DO IT NOW

Local Cheese Board

Eastern Dairyman's Ass'n may meet here next. Strong pressure should be exercised.

Yesterday's meeting of the Cheese Board was of unusual interest. Mr. W. G. Rook, advertising agent of the Canadian Dairyman, was present, and influenced both sellers and buyers to have a portrait group photographed in front of their place of meeting, the Ontario Bank building.

The buyers present were Messrs. Craighead, Kerr, Fitzgerald, Cook, Whitton, Gilbert, Rollins, Wrightson and Morton. There were 5,119 cheese boarded and the highest price offered was 10 7-8, at which only a few boxes were sold. Mr. Whitton was the largest purchaser, buying something like 3,300 boxes at 10 13-16.

Mr. Riddell, secretary of the board, spoke at some length on the present unsatisfactory system of payments for cheese, saying that under present conditions, shipping through the banks, was not always as pleasant as it might be.

He also spoke depreciatingly of the poor prices Peterboro cheese got as compared with other places, in view of this excellent cheese sold.

Mr. Riddell spoke enthusiastically about the prospects of having the Eastern Dairymens' Association meet here next session, saying no stone should be left unturned to accomplish so desireable a result.

This city had been practically promised it some time ago, and he read a letter pointing out that if this Board sent a strong delegation to the meeting of the Board of Directors, which would be held in the Rossin House, Toronto, on the 5th of September, the matter might be arranged. A great deal of benefit, by way of information and instruction attended the meetings, and as Peterboro was undoubtedly the largest and most businesslike board in the Dominion, the time had come when the Association should favor this place. Mr. Ridd ll moved that the Peterboro Cheese Board request the City and County Councils to unite with them in their efforts to have the next annual meeting of the Eastern Dairymen's Association held here.

As Mr. Whitton was from Belleville he was asked what he thought of the proposal, but he replied that he had nothing to say, other than that Belleville put up $1,000 to have the meeting there.

Mr. Honey said Peterboro would have to work hard to get the Association from choosing on Belleville, it would take considerable money for expenses.

Mr. Kerr spoke also along the same lines.

Mr. Young, chairman at the Cheese Board meetings, noted that Belleville cheese had greatly improved. He held Peterboro should have the next meeting.

PRICES.

Mr. Whitton's price being the highest at 10 13-16, he bought Ormonde, Shamrock, Dartford, Brickley, Norwood, Fleetwood, Warminster, Warsaw, Lang, Fraserville, Indian River, Maple Leaf, Benefort, Villiers, Shearer, North Smith, Lakefield, Pine Grove, East Emily, Oakdale, Treewern.

Mr. Fitzgerald at 10 7-8 bought Buckhorn, Myrtle, and Westwood. Mr. Fitzgerald called 10 3-4 for further, but Mr. Kerr offered 10 7-8, bought Keene, Central Smith, Missing Link. He called 10 13-16 for further and was assisted by Cedardale, Mount Pleasant, Peterboro, Ballyduff, Daisy D, Young's Point, North Dummer, Otonabee Union and South Burleigh (Montreal inspection.)

Crown, at 10 13-16, factory inspection. Stony Lake remained unsold.

The Board adjourned for three weeks.

Col. Deacon Honored

Retiring Police Magistrate of Victoria County Presented with a Unique Address

As noted in a former issue of The Times, Col. Deacon, for years the County Police Magistrate of Victoria County, decided to retire from his honorable position.

The Lindsay Post referring to his retirement, says in part;

On Saturday afternoon a most pleasing function was performed in the county council chamber, at the court house, Lindsay, when the fare well address of the county council was presented to Lieut.-Col. Deacon on his retirement from the police magistracy of the county. The address was got up in the most artistic form and beautifully illumined in several sections, recalling in succession the Colonel's duty to his Queen and country as a military man, the part he took in municipal matters in town and county councils, the number of years he served on the school board, and lastly his labors as county police magistrate.

A. P. Stabback, Esq., warden of the county occupied the chair and called upon Mr. James Graham to present the address, which he did in excellent form. The warden then called on the following gentlemen to take part in the proceedings; County Police Magistrate McEwen, Mr. A. P. Devlin, County Attorney, Mr. J. R. McNeillie, County Treasurer, Mayor D. Ray, and Messrs. F. D. Moore, William Steers, Johnston Ellis, John Short and Mr. Lethangue, each of whom approved of the sentiments contained in the address and expressed their hope that the aged Colonel would be still spared for many years to enjoy the respect of his fellow citizens.

The Colonel rose to thank the warden and committee of the county council for such a beautiful address and also the gentlemen present for their kind endorsation of what was set out therein. He very modestly responded to all that was said about his services in those different capacities by saying that it always afforded him pleasure to be useful to his fellow citizens and with the ardor of an old soldier he said, "I am only a boy yet, and I hope to be with you for a long time to come."

After examining and admiring the workmanship of the bound volume in which the address is got up, the assemblage withdrew, feeling that it was a privilege to be present at one of the best deserved compliments that could be bestowed upon a worthy citizen.

Foolish Vandalism

Contracting Plumber of New Separate School Building Put to Needless Expense

Yesterday evening as a Times reporter was in the police station seeking news for our readers, the contractor who is putting in the plumbing for the new Separate school building, came in to complain that some parties have plugged up a large pipe he had placed in position in the building. This is a piece of senseless vandalism that will cost the contracting plumber more than $20 to repair, as the pipe will have to come out again. As Mr. Duraneau has the names of two parties seen committing this act of malicious injury, and has reported them to a police officer, it is likely that some one will regret the deed very shortly.

Police Activity

Might it not Take a Wider Field?

(To the Editor of The Times.)

Dear Sir,--As you observe in your issue of today, the police deserve credit for endeavoring to enforce this license law, but do they deserve equal credit for confining their attention to one house while taking no notice of others, notably of one which has sold for years at all hours and every day with an impunity which seems still to continue. The unfairness of the administration of the law has been notorious, but it can hardly be considered an improvement if it is to be used for the assistance of a business rival who finds himself unable to contend by fair means against an energetic and up to date competitor.

Yours truly.

Cheaper Light.

Fire, Water and Light Committee Decide to Take Lighting Power from Otonabee Powef Co.

The Fire, Water and Light Committee have decided to accept a very desireable offer made by the Otonabee Power Company for light at a greatly reduced rate from what the city has previously paid for such power.

The Otonabee Company offered to supply power for 32-incandescent lights to the city for $10 each per year.

The committee will recommend that an agreement be entered into for such lights as the city may use, at the price named, the company to furnish lamps, material and all work, and to keep the lamps lighted all night and every night. The company will not be compelled to put lights at a greater distance than 500 feet from existing lights, and the city is to retain the right to go into lighting of its own without prejudice to this company concerned.

Peterboro Journalist to Leave

It will be with mingled feelings of regret over the personal loss sustained, and of congratulations on his elevation to a position on one of the strongest papers in New York State, our readers will learn that Mr. S. S. Moore, is about to leave Peterboro in order to take a place on the editorial staff of the Buffalo Courier. Mr. Moore has for five years most efficiently filled the arduous position of city editor of our esteemed contemporary, the Evening Review, and in the course of his work has made a host of warm friends. He will leave next week for his new home, and The Times extends its best wishes for success.

EVER TREAT YOU SO?

Coffee Acts the Jonah and will Come Up.

A clergyman who pursues his noble calling in a country parish in Iowa, tells of his coffee experience:

"My wife and I used coffee regularly for breakfast, frequently for dinner and occasionally for supper--always the very best quality--package coffee never could find a place on our table.

"In the spring of 1896 my wife was taken with violent vomiting which we had great difficulty in stopping.

"It seemed to come from coffee drinking but we could not decide.

"In the following July, however, she was attacked a second time by this vomiting. I was away from home filling an appointment, at the time, and on my return found her very low; she had literally vomited herself almost to death, and it took some days to quiet the trouble and restore her stomach.

"I had also experienced the same trouble, but not so violently, and had relieved it, each time, by a resort to medicine.

"But my wife's second attack satisfied me that the use of coffee was at the bottom of our troubles, so we stopped it forthwith and took on Postum Food Coffee. The old symptoms disappeared and during the 9 years that we have been using Postum instead of coffee we have never had a recurrence of the vomiting. We never weary of Postum, to which we know we owe our good health. This is a simple statement of facts." Name given by Postum Company, Battle Creek, Mich.

"When I commenced taking your medicines, eighteen months ago, my health was completely broken down," writes Mrs. Cora L. Sunderland, of Chaneyville, Calvert Co., Md. "At times I could not even walk across the room without pains in my chest. The doctor who attended me said I had lung trouble, and that I would never be well again. At last I concluded to try Dr. Pierce's medicines. I bought a bottle of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' took it, and soon commenced to feel a little better, then you directed me to take both the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and the 'Favorite Prescription,' which I did. Altogether I have taken eighteen bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' twelve of the 'Favorite Prescription,' and five vials of 'Pellets.' I am now almost entirely well, and do all my work without any pain whatever, and can run with more ease than I could formerly walk."

Threshing Begun in Monaghan

Mr. Harry Clarke, who lives near Springville is probably the record breaker in early threshing for this year. He has already threshed peas in the field, as has Mr. John Clarke also of North Monaghan. In a few days no doubt there will be a good deal of threshing of peas and wheat to make room in the barns for later crops, such as oats, but not to the extent of last year. Though the crops are first-class, there is not so large a bulk of straw.

Off for the Shanties.

Last night a large party of men left in charge of Mr. George Chalmers to work for the Turner Lumber Company at South River, which is near North Bay. Mr. Chalmers yesterday told The Times that there is work for hundreds of able-bodied men in his district, but that there is such activity in industrial circles, good men are hard to get. The wages paid this men monthly range from $26 to $30, board included.

New C.P.R. Car Tested

Mr. William Bunton, the genial uptown G.T.R. ticket agent, left yesterday morning for Toronto on the private car Columbia. This car, a product of the American Palace Car Company, and for use on the C.P.R., is a compliment structure containing sleeping, parlor and dining facilities, and is now being tested. Mr. Bunton was asked to accompany the commission making the test, and latest reports say the car arrived in Toronto in safety, and was highly spoken of by all permitted to see it.

New Deputy Minister of Railways.

Mr. W. H. Butler, the new deputy minister of railways and canals yesterday took formal charge of his office at Ottawa. He has been discharging some departmental duties for nearly a month but from this date will exercise full functions of deputy minister. To-day Mr. Butler goes to Moncton to meet Hon. Mr. Emmerson and they will go over the Intercolonial on an inspection tour. Mr. Collingwood Schreiber has removed to a new office in the west block not far from his old one. He has begun his duties of consulting engineer of the Government.

TEN YEARS

The Story of My Wonderful Success.

Reads Like a Fairy Tale-Yet Full of Convincing Truths

An Opportunity of a Lifetime for the Investor.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF IT.

I ask every reader of this paper to write me. I want to send you my free book entitled "Ten Years"—"The Story of My Wonderful Success." It tells about one of the great and most promising investment opportunities ever offered. It tells how my business grew from less than $2500 capital to its present proportions.

I believe I have the best proposition from an investor's standpoint that could be placed before you. For ten years I have been teaching men and women to live according to the laws of Nature. My book is the history of my life. It shows what energy and ambition can accomplish in the world of affairs. It is intensely interesting to any man or woman who has a few dollars to invest in a legitimate enterprise.

I started business in the City of Brooklyn in 1896. My capital amounted to less than $2500. My first years business netted me over $1,000.00. Last year I paid dividends to my partners of 15 per cent. Five years ago my business had grown so large that I was compelled to remove to larger quarters. I am now at 63 65 Clark St., Brooklyn, N.Y.—in connection with Hotel St. George. Experts pronounce my institution to be the best appointed of its kind in the country. I estimate the equipment of the Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture to be worth at least $40,000.00.

I want to have a building of my own that will enable me to accommodate my increasing business. To erect this building I need capital, but more important than this to increase my business to the proportions which I desire, I need the co-operation of men and women throughout the country and the world.

Co-operation is the Secret of Success

I recognize it. I believe that with thousands of co operators throughout the country I can build my business to tremendous proportions to the benefit of the shareholders and myself.

The Mac Levy Company is incorporated under the laws of New York for $150,000.00. They are proprietors of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

The last named branch of the business of the Mac Levy Company is comparatively new. I have been at work for several years to establish such a department in connection with teaching Physical Culture. The most difficult part of forming the Equipment Company has been accomplished. The business is now in condition to be pushed on a large scale. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are spent yearly on new gymnasiums and their equipment. The profits are large. A company of this kind has an immense field in which to work. Competition is slight. It is evident that the Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company can build an enormous business.

The Mac Levy Company operates during the summer months at Steeplechase Park, Coney Island, and at Averne Hotel, Averne-by-the-Sea, L. I., as well as at our Brooklyn Institute. I also does an extensive mail business. I teach people how they should live and exercise. My students are scattered all over the United States, and in English speaking countries.

A PROBLEM

which arrises in the minds of every man and woman is how to secure a comfortable income in the earlier years of their life, that they may reap the full benefits which such an income affords.

I have long thought that there are hundreds of people in moderate circumstances who would like to invest a few dollars in an Institution of this kind. It is to such people that I intend this announcement shall appeal. I am offering a block of the Treasury Stock of this company to the public at its par value. My reasons for doing this are that I wish to erect a building and to extend the business of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

I WANT YOU AS MY PARTNER

I need your help and suggestion. I want you to work with me and help me to secure a tremendous amount of new business.

I believe that if you could talk with me personally and go over the records of the business which I have done, see in black and white the figures which show he steady growth my business has experienced during the past ten years, examine my plans for future extension, and then look over the magnificent equipment of my Institute, and would want no further evidence that money put into my business would bring you the greatest possible returns consistent with safety and good management.

I ask you to write for my free book. I believe it will interest you. You have a few dollars that you want to invest. Why let it stand idle earning only 3 or 4 per cent that Savings Bank pay their depositors? Put it to work. Join it with mine. This Company ought to pay at least Russians are Preparing to Face Oyama.

Russians Now in Manchuria Consist of Twenty Army Corps with 800 Field Guns--Reinforcements are Arriving Daily

Tokio, Aug. 5.—It is reported that the advance guards of the hostile forces south of the Tumen River are within rifle range. An early conflict is regarded as inevitable.

An army of 30,000 Russians is said to be south of the Tumen River, which has flooded its banks, cutting off their retreat. The Japanese are evidently to make an attempt to bag the whole force.

London, Aug. 5.—The correspondent of the Telegraph at Moji, Japan, quotes an officer from the front as saying that the Russians now in Manchuria consisted of twenty army corps, with 800 field guns. Reinforcements are arriving daily. Many of them are reaching the neighborhood of Fokumen, where there are 340,000 troops.

The German correspondent of The Telegraph says the number of Russians in Northern Korea is steadily increasing. It is stated that there are 30,000 in the neighborhood of Hoiryong and 30,000 at Lwanchum. They are building defences to check the Japanese advance, and are using Hoiryong as a base.

CONGRESS A BIG FAILURE

Zionists Admits That Movement Was Discredited by Riotous Scenes Enacted

New York, Aug. 4. — Interviews with leaders in the Zionist movement, gathered by special correspondents attending the Zionist Congress, which closed yesterday at Basle, Switzerland, are published today by the Jewish Morning Journal.

Attorney Jas. Sinowsky, leader of the seceding Zionists of Warsaw, declares that the majority of the original Congress did not represent the interests of the Jewish nation, and adds:

—A great mistake was made in refusing the land offered by the English Government as a site for a colony. It would have been the beginning of a movement that would have had world-wide significance, and would have made a haven where persecuted Jews could have taken refuge."

Israel Zangwill, the author, said; "The rejecting of the English offer, if it had been agreed to by the majority of our people, would have been the death-blow to practical Zionism, and would have reduced the movement to a chimn of phantoms. Zionism will be rescued by the territorialists, who have abandoned the original movement and have organized a new movement that is bound to be crowned with success."

Rabbier Wolfsohn, of London, declared that the congress has been absolutely without fruit, and that its session will greatly retard the growth of the movement.

"The riotious scenes," he said, "discredited Zionists in the eyes of the world, and it will be a long uphill task to recover the long lost ground.

Police Court

OFFICIALS

Chief of Police—G. L. Reed

Magistrate, D. W. Dumble

"Coal Shed Murphy," is once more in trouble. By this title is designated not one of the coal barons, but the man Murphy who kept his little son in a coal shed near the G.T.R. tracks last winter until the Children's Aid Society stepped in and took the boy away.

This time it is not his own child that gets him into his familiar locality, the police court, but other children.

Mrs. Maitland, who lives on George street, near the corner of Charlotte swore out an information yesterday against Murphy, alleging that he had slapped two of her little children. Mr. Murphy was in due course arrested and locked up. When in the Hotel des Gops, Murphy says the complainant struck him; this will all be settled at this morning's court.

William Marks, employed as foreman in a leading manufacturing industry of the city was arrested yesterday on a charge of non-support of his wife.

A representative of Mr. O'Connol was at the station during the afternoon with a view to obtaining bail for Marks. Some difficulty arose however owing to the absence of the Magistrate. His case will be tried this morning.

The local hotelman whose scalp seems to have been sought after recently by the police, and who was arrested $33;40, on Wednesday morning for selling liquor during prohibited hours last Saturday night, and who faced his Worship on Thursday, on a charge of selling liquor to Charles Forsyth, a minor, on which judgment was reserved until Monday, was again before the court yesterday morning on a charge of selling liquor contrary to law on the Sunday before last. As the offence charged yesterday had been committed previous to the date for which he had paid his $33.40, a second offence charge could not be laid. The hotelman pleaded "not guilty," at yesterday's court, so witnesses were called, by Chief Rousel, who prosecuted the case.

Milton Herbert, the first witness seemed to be somewhat afflicted with shortsightedness in his memorizing machinery, so the prosecution could not make anything of him. The next witness, Albert Welch, of Lindsay, had happened to be a guest of the hotel in trouble on the particular Sunday in question. He and a companion had had a cunningly concocted drank, to wit a "John Collins" served in his room and he had paid for it. Welch at the request of the court, revealed the mysteries of this world-widely used "Pick-me-up," and evidently knew his John Collins. For the benefit of the uninitiated and curious, as far as memory serves, Welch said, one should take a generous glass of Old Tom gin and mix it up with lemon and sugar, with the final addition of plain soda.

The sale of the John Collins decoction, his Worship thought settled the matter and imposed a fine of $20 with $4.80 costs.

Mr. G. W. Hatton, counsel for defendant made a hard fight for his client, but the Magistrate considered the evidence, sworn to, to be conclusive. Mr. E. H. D. Hall appeared for the prosecution.

The same hotelman will appear on Monday again to answer to a charge of trying to intimidate a witness.

The charges against this particular man will no doubt result in his keeping the law strictly after this, even if he did not always comply with it in the past, and it would not be the part of discretion for the police to hunt up any further charges from the past. By the time prosecution has sufficiently punished a man for his offences, and attained the object of rendering future observance of the law certainly, it would soon degenerate to persecution to keep after a man further, and then the man takes the sympathy, not the law.

The Monarch Life.

Possibly the Strongest Insurance Company, Now Incorporated Under Canadian Law, is Founded and Managed by an Old Peterboro Man, Mr. T. Marshall Ostrom.

To this city belongs the honor of having had, as a citizen for many years, Mr. T. Marshall Ostrom, one of the present leading financiers and prototers of vast monetary institutions that the present generation of Canadians have seen. All of our readers, who remember Mr. Ostrom as a fellow citizen, will recall his tireless energy in business and sterling uprightness in every financial transaction. Mr. Ostrom's admirable business methods, hustling propensities and the knowledge of his personal character, will no doubt, not only attract the attention of our local citizens to two immense monetary institutions he has both fathered and directs, but will cause many of them, knowing Mr. Ostrom's character for pushing things to a successful conclusion to invest in the stock of those two incorporated propositions.

As is well known to our readers, Mr. Ostrom is the leading promoter of the Monarch Bank, now incorporated, and also of the Monarch Life Assurance Co., with head quarters in Toronto. The Monarch Life Co., was incorporated by special act of Parliament of the Dominion of Canada, and the Act became law on the 19th day of July, 1904.

The Monarch Life is under the personal supervision and management of Mr. Ostrom, who was unanimously elected to his elevated and responsible position by the provisional directors, when the company obtained their act of incorporation.

Under the act of incorporation, the company was compelled to have $250,000 of the capital stock subscribed for, with at least 10 per cent of the amount paid up. This was speedily done, so the provisional directors on December 7th, 1904, called a meeting of the shareholders, when the regular Board of Directors was nominated. The act of Incorporation specially stipulates that the Monarch Life Company, must sell 6,000 shares of the stock before it can begin to write up business. As other companies incorporated previous to the inception of the Monarch Company are only required to have $250,000 worth of their capital stock subscribed, it is patent to every thinking man, that in the Monarch Company, policy holders are protected better than in the older companies.

Already 3,500 shares have been subscribed for and the usual amount paid in. The company, now being in a strong position are offering for sale 6,500 shares of stock at a premium of $25 for share, the necessary payments therefor being $15 on application, $15 two months later, and $5 after 12 months. We might venture an opinion that with Mr. Marshall Ostrom being in control of this company, that Peterboro capitalists as well as smaller investors, will demonstrate to the financial world, by their subscriptions for stock, the weight that Mr. Ostrom's name carries in this district.

Our readers would do well to carefully peruse the Ad. of the Monarch Life Assurance Company, in another column of this issue.

The Rice Lake Trip

An Unprejudiced Visitor to the City Compares the Stony Lake with the Rice Lake Trip.

To take a trip to Rice Lake or Jubilee Point on the fine steamers City of Peterboro or Water Lily is to wonder why the beauties of this same trip, through ever-varying scenes of pastoral and forest life, is not better known among the hundreds of thousands of summer trippers throughout this broad Dominion and our Yankee cousins to the south of us.

As is well known hundreds of Americans, in addition to large numbers of Canadians have for years been taking in the trip to the Kawartha Lakes, but it is a matter of surprise that the Rice lake trip has not yet been more widely advertised and consequently patronized.

The northern trip, whilst certainly passing through beautiful and varied scenery, is a compromise between the freedom of a trip to the forest primeval and visiting a well advertised summer resort where the exegencies of custom demand good clothes and the thousand tireing amenities of modern and populous civilization.

The northern trip in to many cases necessitates the patronage from Lakefield of steamers that are not only uncomfortably but dangerously crowded, when as nothing further than the immediate grab for dollars involves in many cases, scant courtesy towards passengers.

The Rice lake trip is taken on commodious steamers, on which each and every official from captain to deck hand vie with one another in trying to make things pleasant for all on board; seldom too is the City of Peterboro uncomfortably crowded the Calcutt Line considering safety and the law regulating their passengers, as of more importance than grasping after a dollar or two extra.

The winding, tree bordered river is refreshing to the brick and pavement tired eyes of those travelling to Rice Lake. When one gets well down toward the lake the beautiful grape entangled thickets on each side of the river, shut out all memory and thought of the strenuous city life. On this trip one can put on oneablue flannel shirt, if a man or ones easiest old waist if a woman, without fear of feeling dowdy by comparison with the spruecly dressed people who have made Stony Lake "fashionable." If the beauties of the Rice lake trip could only be made known more widely, and a first trip taken to observe the courtesy shown and the safety assured by the Calcutt Line boats, thousands of visitors would annually visit Peterboro. A Times representative had the pleasure a few days ago of spending a delightful day on the Rice lake, trip, and, although he has travelled on a great many steamers ever some of the best known tourist routes, never had seen more charming scenery, en route. The City of Peterboro was chosen for his trip, and from leaving the Peterboro dock in the morning untilthe boat tied there in the evening after her trip to Rice lake, the courtesy of Captain Breen who knows every eddy of the river, as well as he understands the management of his ship, was observable at all times, and frequently commented on by the large number of passengers aboard. Mr. Fred Holland, the genial purser of the "City" also did all in his power, and success fully, to make things pleasant for his passengers.

No details of the explosion have been received, and the number of men said to have been killed has not been confirmed.

The explosion occurred at the dynamite factory of the Nitro Powder Company at Mingo Hollow, in Esopus Township, shortly after two o'clock this afternoon. A report received at police headquarters is that sixteen were killed by the explosion and a number injured.

WHAT RUSSIA IS WILLING TO GIVE IN RETURN FOR PEACE

Indemnity of $500,000,000 and a Half of Island of Sakhalin

GREATER CONCESSIONS MAY BE ADVANCED

Felt That Resistance to Japan's Eastern Policy is Utterly Futile

New York, August 5.—On the eve of the arrival of M. de Witte, Russia's senior peace plenipotentiary, the most pronounced pessimism prevails at the New York headquarters of the Russian and Japanese missions. Agents of Russia believe Japan will propose such unreasonable and humiliating terms that under no circumstances can they be accepted.

Representatives of Japan are oppressed with the fear that the Czar has entered into negotiations merely for the purpose of ascertaining Japan's terms and developing world sentiment hostile to the cause of the Mikado. There thus exists a woeful lack of confidence on both sides, which will seriously hamper the negotiations when they begin next Monday.

So suspicious is the Japanese Government of the good faith of the Russians that it may decline to grant an armistice unless first assured that M. de Witte and Baron Rosen actually intend "to negotiate, conclude and sign" a treaty. So far as credentials are concerned, there is no doubt that the official papers which M. De Witte and Rosen will display will be ample. But the credentials being acceptable, how far will they be able to act independently of their government?

DELAY WILL SETTLE JAPAN.

It was said today on good Russian authority that the proposals of Japan will not be considered alone by the Emperor and his counsellors in St. Petersburg. They will be telegraphed to Linevitch, and will be subject to recommendations by him and his officers. This means delay of the same character as that displayed by the Russians in the negotiations which led up to the war. The Japanese do not propose to put up with anything of the kind. The Russians must act promptly. The more they procrastinate the greater becomes the chance of Germany and France applying pressure at Tokio.

This is one reason why Japan does not want a long armistice. In fact, she sees no necessity of a cessation of hostilities before conditions on both sides have been exchanged. If the Russian proposals come approximately within the minimum limit fixed by Japan then military operations may be suspended for a few days. If the Russians wish to communicate the Japanese terms to St. Petersburg before making a response the telegraphic facilities will be such that an answer can be received at Portsmouth within forty-eight hours at the latest. In such case an armistice, it is thought, will be unnecessary and will be considered only when the character of the answer is known.

MAY DIVIDE ON ARMISTICE.

This represents the Japanese point of view as far as it has been disclosed by cautious diplomats from Tokio. The Russian view is that an armistice should be the first business of the conference; that it is anomalous to talk peace while men are being killed and wounded and guns are barking and shells exploding; they would like an armistice which should require cessation of fighting—not of military operations entirely.

For instance, an armistice need not necessarily contain a provision forbidding the dispatch of reinforcements to the opposing armies. Russian troops are continuously on the way to Manchuria, and trains cannot be stopped between stations; men packed in cars would suffer serious discomfort, and horses for artillery and cavalry might die.

It is asserted that any advantage that might accrue to the Russians by limitation of the armistice would be enjoyed by the Japanese, who would continue also to send reinforcements to the front.

Baron Rosen is without precise instructions in regard to the armistice and the general attitude of his country. So far as can be learned M. de Witte is bringing them. The maximum proposals he is authorized to make, so far as shown by advices received from St. Petersburg, are ridiculously inadequate in the view of the Japanese. He is willing to sign a treaty providing for the transfer of Port Arthur and Dalny, but will endeavor to limit Japan's occupation so that it will have a commercial character only. He will recognize Japan's preponderance in Corea, but will seek to prevent her strengthening of the Manchurian frontier. He will agree to Russian withdrawal from Manchuria, and will endeavor to save Russia's interests as far as possible in the Harbin-Dalny branch of the Transmanchurian Railroad, using it as an offset to indemnity.

PASSENGER TRAIN WRECKED

Dashed Into the River--Seventeen Were Injured

Johnstown, Pa., Aug. 4.—The morning Baltimore and Ohio passenger train, bound for Johnstown from Rockwood, was wrecked about 8.30 o'clock at the Paint Creek bridge, in Somerset County. A rail broke on the bridge and the train plunged down. At first it was believed that nearly every person on board was either killed or injured, but as the spot is isolated, no dofinte details were obtainable. A special train bearing doctors, nurses, and newspaper men has gone from here to the scene.

Later reports showed that Louis Don, the baggagemaster, was killed, and 17 others were injured. The smoker and baggage car went into the river.

The train left Somerset at 7.17 o'clock for Johnstown, and consisted of the engine, baggage car, and two passenger coaches. Just where the railroad crosses the creek the rails spread, and the baggage car and the coach next it went over a 20-foot embankment into the creek, a shallow stream. The engine and last coach were not dragged down.

Don, the only man killed, was known as the hero of the frightful Duquesne Limited wreck on the Baltimore and Ohio, near Connellsville, two years ago. On that occasion although his eye was knocked out, and was hanging on his cheek, he pluckily went back to flag the next train.

Japanese Capture Over 3,000 Men.

Governor of Sakhalin, Seventy Officers, and Most of Russian Army Surrender--Japs Angry Over Russia's Boastfulness.

Tokio, Aug. 5.—A report giving details of the final pursuit and surrender of the majority of the Russian garrison on Sakhalin Island, has been received, as follows:

"An independent cavalry column on the afternoon of July 28 attacked the enemy south of Pakeo, and routed him, driving him southward, capturing two field guns, besides a number of rifles and a quantity of ammunition.

"On July 29, the cavalry, being reinforced, vigorously pursued the enemy south of Taylan, which lies 24 miles south of Rykoff. The enemy halted at Onel, 25 miles south of Taylan, and at five o'clock on the morning of July 30, sent a letter under a flag of truce to the Japanese commanding officer from Gen. Liapnoff, the Russian Governor, saying that the lack of bandage material and medicines, and the consequent inability to succor the wounded, compelled him from a sense of humanity to terminate hostilities.

"The commander of the Japanese forces replied, demanding the delivery of all war supplies and property of the Russian Government, the uninjured, and the delivery of all maps records, and papers relating to the Russian civil and military administration, and requiring their delivery in reply at 10 o'clock on the morning of July 31, otherwise an attack, ing movement would immediately be started.

"Colonel Tolivitch, on behalf of Governor Liapnoff, met Colonel Kosumi, Japanese chief of staff, on the morning of July 31, and accepted the proposed terms.

"Governor Liapnoff, seventy officers, and 3,200 men of the Russian garrison then surrendered.

"The spoils, consisting of clothing, papers, and military supplies, are now under investigation."

A Dummer Wedding.

Miss Annie M. Brown, South Dummer, Becomes the Bride of Mr. Adam Gardner, Asphodel.

A pretty ceremony was celebrated, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. David Brown, South Dummer, on Aug. 1st, when their youngest daughter Annie M., was united, by the Rev. D. E. Johnston, in wedlock to Mr. Adam Gardner of Asphodel.

The bride who was given away by her father, wore a handsome suit of grey panama cloth, with white silk blouse and carried a bouquet of pretty flowers. She was attended by Miss Edith Buck, of Hastings, while Mr. Walter Patterson acted as best man.

At the conclusion of the ceremony an elegant dejeuner was served in the dining room to which guests to the number of fifty did ample justice.

Circus Coming

Norris and Rowe's Big Shows Will Exhibit in Peterboro Aug. 26.

Now is the time for the little ones to shake their banks and see if the accumulated pennies will admit them to the august presence of the elephant. The advance agent of Norris and Rowe's big shows is in the city and assures The Times that his circus will give two exhibitons here on August 26th, in the Exhibition grounds. This circus will give performances at Toronto, Hamilton and Ottawa before coming here. They carry 365 people.

HEADS IN JEOPARDY.

"Uneasy Lies the Man Who Signs J. P. After His Signature."--Peterboro Justices Marked for Decapitation.

As noted in a former issue of The Times, the Ontario Government has decided to infuse some new and active blood into the police justices of the Province, and, at the same time, do away with thousands of political appointees, many of them simply "heelers" who have been rewarded for their support by the cheap title of J.P., and the majority of whom are as useful as a blown egg. There will be some 6,000 of these empty-titled gentlemen stripped of this last ray of their political regalia, and, where appointments are in the public interest, replaced by, in many cases, more active men. It is anticipated that some of those given their congé will be reappointed, as, of necessity, there are some good men included in the list; the majority however will be retired.

To show that this county is noted for the manner in which the gifts of the government have been drawn broadcast to reward the faithful, it might be noted that the City of Toronto, with a population of some 200,000 has only 40 J.P's, whilst this sparsely settled county rejoices in the possession of 43 Justices of the Peace. A list of the justices in this city with the years of their respective appointments is appended, viz.:

Will Support Japan

Great Britain Ready to Back Up Any Peace Terms She May Propose.

Washington, Aug. 5.—It has been made plain to diplomats here that no matters how severe may be the peace terms offered by Japan they will be approved and supported by Great Britain.

Several suggestions from Washington to London that the cause of peace would be served by an explanation to Japan from her ally favoring moderation in her demands upon Russia have not availed to change the British government in its apparently unalterable determination to stand by Japan, however severe she makes her conditions of peace.

Nor has the British government seen its way clear to render assistance to Washington in the efforts which this government is making to obtain an armistice.

Advices reaching here show that London is opposed to an armistice until Japan has been satisfied that Russia's plenipotentiaries are prepared to do more than discuss means of ending the war; if Russia is ready to conclude peace and has so empowered her plenipotentiaries, Great Britain, it is believed, may favor an armistice, but even in such an event it is said she would not be willing to offer Japan advice on the subject.

PETERBORO AUGUST 5 1905

PROMISED FOR OCTOBER

Thomas A. Edison says that he has solved the problem of providing cheap and serviceable electric power for vehicles. He is sure that he has devised a light storage battery which, when substituted for horses, will cut down the cost of operation 58 per cent. The wondrous battery is to be put on the market by October.

This news would be more thrilling if this were the first time that Mr. Edison had announced that he had solved or was just on the eve of solving this problem of the economic and always trustworthy storage battery for horseless vehicles. It is some years since he first told the public that in a few months the automobile business was to be revolutionized. The great things which Mr. Edison promises do not always come about on schedule time. If October shall pass by and this marvelous storage battery be not on the market nobody will be greatly surprised.

This batteries now in use cannot always be depended on and are expensive. The public would prefer to have electrical power used in running autos. It would be glad to get rid of gasoline with its smells. It prefers noiseless machines, which are less alarming for animals. When electricity can be used cheaply it will be generally given the preference.

It is to be hoped that Mr. Edison is not talking idly on this occasion and that October will bring with it the pearl of batteries—cheap and trustworthy. Then the puffing, panting, and snorting auto may be replaced by one as noiseless as the toothbills of an accomplished burglar.

IS NOT HOPEFUL OF PEACE

Pessimistic Note Observed in Reports Coming From Oyster Bay

New York, August 4.—On the eve of the arrival of M. Witte, a rather pessimistic note was detected in reports from Oyster Bay, which reached foreign diplomats now in this city.

While the President is still hopeful that lasting peace will follow the meeting, which he is bringing about, new difficulties are presenting themselves, and it is reported that even Mr. Roosevelt is in considerable doubt as to the outcome.

The President is in possession of the basis on which Japan is willing to negotiate. He knows approximately the amount of indemnity Japan will insist on in order to prevent another struggle for control of the Asiatic seaboard.

The President also feels that the Japanese proposals are not likely to be satisfactory to Russian, especially in view of the spirited interview with M. Witte, printed on Monday. He feels that his tongue is absolutely tied in the case of moral suasion, as either Japan, for modification of terms, or on Russia, for acceptance of the same, if they cannot be modified.

Recently there has been apparently a stiffening on the part of the Japanese, probably due to the attention they have received from Americans. In addition, the question of what is going to happen to Manchuria is becoming each day the topic of greater concern to the United States and all Europe.

That is the main problem for the commercial world, and China is still appealing to be considered in any bargain which is to be made.

This hope, more than anything else, embarrassed the President. China has appealed to him in vain. He can do nothing, in view of the note of June 7, but accept the Japanese assurances that Manchuria shall be restored to China. Japanese say this will be done when order has been restored, and China can administer it.

M. Sato, the spokesman of the Japanese envoys, said, yesterday, "When Russia evacuates Manchuria it will go back to China." Then he added, "the Japanese would colonize Manchuria as they had colonized Formosa."

JAPAN'S BEWILDERMENT

She Does not Understand Russian Levity re Negotiations

Tokio, August 4.—Heavy rains have caused serious inundations throughout North-Eastern Korea, and these have destroyed all the Russian pontoon bridges, by the use of which troops have moved freely about this country. Japanese public men and newspapers express bewilderment as to the real nature of Witte's mission to Portsmouth, since the interviews which are said to express his opinions do not seem to harmonize with the idea that he is to negotiate for peace. It is pointed out that if Russia still treats the peace conference with levity, that action is an insult not only to Japan, but to the United States.

POPE LONGS FOR VENICE

His Holiness May Visit His Old Home Shortly

Rome, August 4.—In Vatican circles it is asserted that the Pope is homesick. Members of his household say he is showing signs of fretfulness, and even greater disturbance of his usual demeanor, owing to his longing for Venice, which overmasters him. It is believed he will leave the Vatican shortly, and perhaps pay a visit to Venice, accompanied by his favorite niece, Gilda Parolin, who is betrothed to a Venetian nobleman. This news comes from an authoritative source, but it is certain that a majority of the cardinals will not allow the Pontiff to leave the Vatican.

CANADIAN WHEAT FOR U.S.

May Go There in Future Instead of to Great Britain

London, August 4.—The British Government today gave welcome evidence of its interest in Canada as a supplier of British food needs, by the publication in bluebook form of an exhaustive report of Professor Mavor, of Toronto University, in the North-West, with especial reference to wheat production.

Professor Mavor predicts that Japan and the United States will enter largely into competition with Britain as purchasers of Canadian wheat. Moreover, if the United States admits wheat free for milling, Canadian wheat will go there, rather than to Britain, though much progress is necessary in the North-West before it becomes a great exporter.

THE MANAGEMENT

THE MONARCH LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY made its debut under the immediate supervision and personal management of T. MARSHALL OSTROM, who may be termed the founder of the enterprise and the originator of the copyrighted policies now owned by the Company. Mr. Ostrom was unanimously chosen by the directors to fill the important position as Managing Director of the Company. It is he who has been indefatigable in his endeavors, and has put forth such splendid efforts in bringing the Company to its present prosperous condition. Mr. Ostrom, although the youngest Insurance Managing Director, has a thorough acquaintance with the intricacies of the management of life insurance business, which eminently fits him for his present position. He has no superior as a personal producer, and few equals in the organization and handling of the agents. He combines in a remarkable degree the faculty of taking hold of inexperienced agents and educating them to the art of the profession. His practical knowledge of all the details of life insurance business in every way fits him for the task of the building up into a successful life a new corporation.

In accepting the office Mr. Ostrom has undertaken a proposition of which he is most familiar, and the directors in appointing him concluded that "new times demand new methods and new men." Under this management, assisted by the capable Board of Directors, composed entirely of practical business men who have risen to their present positions solely by their own integrity, and a safe and progressive policy on conservative basis with all modern safeguards will be exercised to the interests of all concerned, and the ultimate placing of the Monarch Life Assurance Company with its especially attractive copyrighted policies as first in the list of Dominion's financial institutions.

INCORPORATION

THE MONARCH LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY was incorporated by Special Act of Parliament of the Dominion of Canada. This Act became law on the 19th day of July, 1904. The Company is incorporated with a capital stock of $2,000,000, divided into 20,000,000 shares of 1000 each.

ORGANIZATION

Under the Act of incorporation the Company was permitted to organize as soon as $250,000 of the capital stock was subscribed for and $25,000 paid in thereon. This having been accomplished the Provisional Directors accordingly on December 7th, 1904, called a general meeting of shareholders, at which they elected a Board of Directors for the Company. It is stipulated in the Act that the Company must sell six thousand shares of the capital stock before it can commence to write insurance. Other companies under their Acts only had to have $25,000 subscribed

THE COMPANY'S HEAD OFFICE

The Directors have secured for the Company a most convenient Head Office, situated on the ground floor in the Queen City Chambers, 32 Church Street, and are most advantageously fitted for the special needs and requirements of the Company.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The success of a Life Insurance Company depends upon the management. It not only requires experience but men especially adapted for the business.

The Directors of the Monarch Life Assurance Company are gentlemen who are known for their integrity and sterling business ability, and for their high standing in the financial, commercial, professional, and political life of this country. The Directors are men who by their own energy and industry in life have been successful, and their names are convincing of the Company's success. They are in close touch with the management and administration of the Company's affairs, as they, each and every one, have bought and paid for a large portion of the capital stock and consequently have a deep interest and are most anxious to build up a strong institution, such as the word "Monarch" implies—supremacy and great strength.

SUBSCRIPTION FOR CAPITAL STOCK

The authorized Capital Stock of the Monarch Life Assurance Company is $2,000,000 divided into 20,000 shares of $100 each.
The capital stock already subscribed for and that at a premium is 8,500 shares amounting to $300,000 par value.

The Company now being in a strong position the Directors have decided to offer to the public for subscription another block of 6,500 of the capital stock at a premium of $25 per share. Every share subscribed for by the general public and the management has been taken at a premium and the fund created by the premium on the stock is for the sole purpose of strengthening the financial standing of the Company. The Monarch Life Assurance Company therefore by these commendable means will commence business with its subscribed capital intact, and a substantial surplus on hand for the foundation of a strong and prosperous Company.

THE COST OF CAPITAL STOCK

The following table shows the amount payable to the Company upon their first call at a premium of $25 per share.
The first call of $35 per share.

In recent years life insurance companies commencing business have sold their stock at a premium of 25 per cent. to prevent impairment of the capital at the outset, making each share $125.00 or to sell at a premium of 25 per cent.; the directors of this Company have adopted the same wise course. The Monarch Life Assurance Company makes a call of $35.00 per share on the amount subscribed, $15.00 ($5.00 on account of stock and $10.00 on account of premium) being payable with application and $15.00 ($5.00 on account of stock and $10 of premium) payable in two months thereafter; and $5.00 on account of premium payable twelve months from date of application.

CONDITIONS OF INVESTMENT

Investors are reminded that the capital stock of established Canadian, English, or American Life insurance companies can be obtained only by paying large premiums for the same, and that the most favorable time therefore to invest in life insurance stock is when it reaches the advanced state of that enjoyed by The Monarch Life Assurance Company. No better or safer investment has ever been offered to the Canadian capitalists. Under our sound Canadian insurance law failure is impossible with a life company, not one single failure of a regular life company established on the lines of the Monarch Life Assurance Company has ever occurred in Canada.

The Directors reserve the right to allot subscriptions for such amount as they may approve, and in such localities as they may select, and to close the subscription books at any time without notice. Advanced payments upon stock refused or over subscribed will be immediately refunded by the Company.

COPYRIGHTED PLANS

The advantages of the Monarch Life Assurance Company over all other life companies will be superior in every way.
The Monarch Life Assurance Company own the copyrighted policies, viz.:

1—T. Marshall Ostrom's Life Option and Endowment policy, comprising five plans; you pay a life rate and the policy matures as an endowment.

IDENTIFY WITNESSES OF CEREMONIES

The Government Will Require Clergymen to Report Information of Trouble in Future

Toronto, Aug. 4.—The directions printed on the new marriage license for the instruction of officiating ministers, and upon the forms of affidavits for the guidance of issuers of marriage licenses, are perfectly explicit. The marriage license has formerly been printed in the form of a four-page document. One of these pages has been blank, and this space is now filled with directions this spaces is now filled with directions and questions. The directions are in the following form;

"REMEMBER.

"That the particulars required below must forthwith, after the solemnization of the marriage, be filled up, and that this license must be forwarded at once to the Registrar-General, Toronto.

This following are the questions to be answered by the officiating minister;

Date of ceremony, place, name of witness, residence, description, name of the minister, place of residence and examination.

KEEP TRACK OF WITNESSES.

This item "description," after the two spaces for witnesses, is puzzling, and has led to a number of enquiries from clergymen to the department. Mr. Wheeler, the chief clerk of the department explains that ministers should fill this space with any facts such as would enable them to recall the personality of the witnesses when they are called upon to do so in a court of law. Physical peculiarities of the witness, occupation, points in his history, or his relationship with other known parties, are all in order.

Though the name of the bride is written "after the solemnization of the marriage," it is the maiden name that is required.

The directions to the issuers of marriage licenses require even less explanation. A new column has been added to the affidavit form, in which is printed;

"REMEMBER,

"That this affidavit, with the particulars required below, or such of them as the issuer is able to give properly filled up, must on issue of a marriage license be immediately forwarded to the Registrar-General Toronto."

INFORMATION WANTED.

The following are the questions;

"County of, municipality of, name of groom, name of bride, age of groom, age of bride, present residence of groom, present residence of bride, religious denomination of groom, religious denomination of bride, intended place of marriage, give name of city, town, township, or incorporated village only, county of, by whom to be married, give his post office address, date of service, name of issuer, post office address of issuer."

Many Inquiries About Canada

Ottawa, August 4.—The Immigration Department reports that there is a great demand for literature appertaining to Canada, and its resources at all immigration headquarters in Great Britain. This is taken as an indication that the movement in the direction of Canada next season will be more than ordinarily heavy. The department intends to give particular attention to the encouragement of a good class of settlers from the British Isles and the hope is expressed that the proportion of this class of emigrants will be largely increased.

THE HOTELS CLOSED

Galt Deprived of Accomodation Because Two Licenses Were Cut-off

Galt, Ont., Aug. 4.—Recommendation of the committee of the Council regarding a by-law reducing the issue of licenses from nine to seven has been shown when the three months' grace allowed the Galt House and Central Hotel, the two houses cut off, having expired, both houses closed bars, sheds and stables, and declared they would go out of business entirely so far as accommodating the farming and traveling public is concerned. The action of these men will reduce local accommodation for horses by over 100, and thus pretty severely hit the mercantile trade of Galt. There is no substitute stabling, although it was only on condition that this be provided that certain aldermen voted for the reduction of licenses.

Brantford, Aug. 4.—The Brantford License Commissioners have decided to transfer the license from the Stinson House to the Imperial Hotel. Three other hotels, the American, Park and Woodbine, which had been given three months' permits were all given a year's license. There are now sixteen licensed hotels in Brantford.

A Narrow Escape

A Young Woman Falling from a G.T.R. Car, Narrowly Escapes Being Run Over.

Thursday morning some confusion was caused in the minds of people at the G.T.R. station, as to which were their respective trains; at one time there were in the yards, owing to different excursions, trains for Port Hope, Belleville, Lindsay and Lakefield almost simultaneously. The G.T.R. officials would wisely avert or lessen such confusion by having legible signs attached to the various trains, as is done in all larger cities.

A young lady who was on the lowest step of a car on the Lindsay train, conveying All Saints' choir excursion, just as the train pulled out, was apparently shoved off her perilous standing ground by a brakeman who hurriedly climbed aboard. This lady came within a very short distance of falling under the moving wheels of the train. Had she fallen a few inches further towards the track there would most certainly have been a horrible fatality.

Ladies should never stand on the steps of a moving train; better to wait another occasion of some early "and avoid the rush."

Is It Safe?

A Practical Builder Says the Post Office North Wall is Unsafe.

Some doubt was expressed Thursday by a leading local builder and contractor as to the safety of the post office building owing to the portion taken out of the north wall, to allow for the little addition now in progress. The contractors said, that, as a stone keyed arch had been taken away from above where the former rear entrance door stood, and was replaced by three iron girders, he considered that the great weight of the central portion of this wall would be too heavy for the substituted girders to bear. However, the Government architect must have looked into this matter pretty thoroughly before removing the supporting arch.

A Quick Horse Trade

Shortly after Thursday morning's Police Court adjourned, several gentlemen standing in front of the City Clerk's office, saw a farmer in difficulty with a reaper he was trying to get out to his farm. The reaper was stranded at the corner of Simcoe and Queen streets, as one of the team attached to the machine persistently balked and refused to move, the horse being frightened at the noise made by the reaper.

The driver tried persuasion, whip and finally, in desperation, profanity, but still the horse would not budge. The stranded outfit caused some excitement among the onlookers, including two active members of the Turf Club and a Times representative, who walked over to the scene to offer various sorts of inefficient advice. Finally Mr. Arthur Rountree, the George street grocer, offered to trade a horse he had down at the Driving Park for the one that balked. The farmer at once took his offer and departed south to get his new horse. Time will tell which of the gentlemen got the worst of it, but those who know Mr. Rountree's knowledge of horseflesh, offered opinions that he would not be a bad loser on this deal.

Mr. Rountree will put the latest arrival in his stables to other uses than dragging a groaning, Russo-Japanese battle sounding agricultural implement.

Another Revolver Accident.

As William Davidson, who lives east of Hastings in Hamilton township, was working at a revolver with a hammer and screw driver to force the cylinder to revolve, his wife did not hesitate to stand directly in front of the barrel. The result was the revolver went off, and now Mrs. Davidson has a No. 22 bullet in her leg about five inches above her knee, which, up to the present time, has not been extracted.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation

2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

(4) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses (2), (3) or (4) must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 20 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd of June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Offices in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

Japan to Demand Czar's Railways

Transfer of Port Arthur-Harbin and Manchuria-Vladivostok Lines Requisite to Peace- Russia's Dreams of Greater Dominion and Power in Far East Will be Made Impossible for Years to Come.

Washington, D. C. August 3.—...an is preparing to make a de... at the impending peace con...nce which she is confident will ...ize her ambition to assure the ...e of the Far East.

China and other na... feared that it would result, as ...subsequently did, in Russian oc...ation of Manchuria and the ex... ...n of the road to Peking and ...the ultimate absorption of all of Northern China by the Slav Empire.

JAPAN TO MAKE SURE OF PLAN.

Japan proposes to prevent for all time the realization of this dream. It is not considered sufficient that Russia should be expelled from Port Arthur and Dalny, and that her troops should be required to withdraw from all of Manchuria. The Japanese fear if Russia retains possession of the line crossing Manchuria, which connects Russian Transbaikalia with Vladivostok, the movement of the Slav toward Corea and Port Arthur will be repeated. By taking control of the Transmanchurian line, as well as the Port Arthur-Harbin branch, Japan will cut off Russia from the military fortress at Vladivostok, unless she should choose to build a branch around Manchuria.

This plan would have been followed in 1896 had China not granted to Russia the right to build roads in Manchuria. Water communication will remain at the disposal of the Russians until they could build a new line.

Further information which is circulated in diplomatic circles here indicates that Japan does not intend to give Russia any excuse for building another line around Manchuria. It has been known for some time that the Tokio Government has seri...

Russia would undergo the same embarrassment the United States, for example, would if its access to the Panama Canal were limited to the land and a strong power like Great Britain had control of all the transportation facilities between the Mexican border and the frontier of the Republic of Panama.

ROADS COST $200,000,000.

The Transmanchurian line and the Port Arthur-Harbin branch represent a tremendous expenditure. The system of graft and corruption under which they were built greatly increased their cost, and estimates have been made that the government disbursed at least $200,000,000 in getting the right of way, building the lines, and equipping them.

Ostensibly, Russia did not construct the road. Under the agreement, which was signed in Peking nine years ago, the Chinese Eastern Railway was granted a concession to build a road. As a matter of fact, Russia was the company, and the Imperial treasury at St. Petersburg paid the bills. The concession provided that at the end of thirty-six years the Chinese Government might purchase the lines, and at the end of eighty years the lines and all the equipment should pass unconditionally into its hands.

The authorities in Peking have been considering a proposal to buy the roads from Japan. Examination of the finances of the Empire, however, showed this was inadvisable. Moreover, Japan would not consent to relinquish possession, because she does not consider China strong enough to protect Manchuria from another invasion by the Russians.

EVERYONE SHOULD DIE OF OLD AGE

London Medical Authority Declares That Profession Should Eventually Prevent Disease

GREAT FUTURE FOR SCIENCE

Elimination of Constitutional Tendencies is Possible, He Holds, Through Proper Marriage Unions

London, August 3. — The future work of medicine, said Doctor Henry Maudsley at the British Medical Association's Congress, which is being held at Leeds this year, will be mainly to prevent and stop the beginnings of disease, so that in fact everybody should die at 100 of old age, as every doctor himself ought theoretically to do.

Might not some good some, he asked, from systematic inquiries into the production and elimination of constitutional disease tendencies and disease immunities by marriage unions of different tendencies and immunities. When a person had a disease like that which either parent had, he might owe it to these variations occurring in morbid heredity just as they do physiologically.

What was a constitutional disposition, if there were any, was most likely to cause a tendency to cancer. Having regard to the local invasion and distribution of cancer, its provocation by local irritation, its more than accidental heredity, and its quiet settlement in the system, it seemed probable that its unruly prolification of cells, however provoked, betrayed an awakening to activity of silent memories of ancestral germinal growth.

Another point worthy of investigation was how best to treat a person having a tendency to insanity, so as to cancel it in his progeny, or, better still, convert it into a good evolution. Variation for that was what sometimes happened, one child of a neuropathic family dying in a lunatic asylum, while another rose to eminence as a poet, painter or orator.

Why and under what conditions was epilepsy of one generation transferred into insanity of the next generation? How was it that diabetes and insanity go together in some families or alternate in them through generations? When medical science could answer these and like questions it might then dictate some wise rules.

In concluding his address, which was closely followed by a large and distinguished audience, Doctor Maudsley said it was certain that there were no laws of mental breeding yet to be discovered, and it was no more unlawful to inquire scientifically into the nature of vice and sin than into the nature and actions of poisons.

Hatred was as natural as hunger, and stood in no less need of scientific explanation. The moral qualities are not dependent upon a physical constitution, and have no physical connection whatever, was an opinion which, although fostered in the supposed interests of morality, was really a hindrance to the growth of practical morality.

A Business Change

Mr. Forman Sells His Grocery Business to Mr. John Hill, of Moonstone, Ontario.

The many customers and friends of Mr. W. C. Forman, the enterprising grocer, 315 George street, will regret to hear that he has at last disposed of this well stocked and admirably managed business. The purchaser, Mr. John Hill of Moonstone, Ont., has already arrived in the city and taken possession of his new venture. Moonstone is a village near Orillia and Mr. Hill is spoken of, by the villagers as a progressive and well posted grocery and general store man.

He will remove his family here, and doubtless the same generous patronage that has been given to Mr. Forman will be extended to his successor. Mr. Forman will leave in a few days for Ingersoll and will in future devote all his time to his store in that town.

Committee Pleased

Great Success of Bethany Tabernacle's Outing.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the annual excursion of Bethany Tabernacle Sunday school, have good reason to be congratulated on the success which crowned their efforts yesterday.

About 200 people patronized the excursion, which left by the regular G.T.R. train for Lakefield, where they boarded one of the Stony Lake steamers and took the sail around the lakes.

On their return last night, all those who had taken in the trip were loud in their praises of both the time they had enjoyed and the complete manner in which every detail had been arranged for their pleasure.

Boy Drowned at Hastings

As Oscar O'Neil, the six-year-old son of Mr. T. H. O'Neil, of Hastings, was giving his dog a swim in the Trent River on Tuesday afternoon, the little fellow most unfortunately, losing his balance, fell from the pier on which he stood. He was in the water fifteen minutes before being found. Two doctors were called and worked with the body fully ninety minutes in an endeavor to resuscitate the boy, but their efforts were of no avail. The sad catastrophy has cast a gloom over the whole village, the little boy being a favorite with all who knew him.

WHEN KAISER MET KING OSCAR

No Proposal That Would Menace Peace of Northern Europe

Stockholm, August 2.—King Oscar has caused the information to be circulated in Stockholm, Christiania, and Copenhagen, the capitals of three Scandinavian countries, that Emperor William made no proposals to him at the Gefle meeting of the two monarchs, which involved the least menace to the tranquility of Northern Europe.

This general statement is understood to mean that Germany is not trying to draw the Scandinavian countries into any plan for closing the Baltic to the warships of the world, or any arrangements which would wear the appearance of an entangling alliance from a Scandinavian point of view.

Should the Kaiser throw out another suggestion of this character, it is believed that the Swedes would speedily indicate their preference for an entirely isolated position, so far as the powers are concerned. The only possible alliances dreamed of in the Swedish capital are alliances which would align the Scandinavian countries solidly against outside schemers of every nationality. It is believed in the highest quarters in Sweden, that the Kaiser's proceedings in the Baltic are designed to convince his neighbors in those waters that the German policy will undeviatingly follow peaceful lines.

The Puzzle Solved

The Times Has Had 31 Answers, but None Quite Correct.

Some days ago we published a simple puzzle for our juvenile readers. Up to last night, we have had thirty-one solutions (?) of the puzzle, some of which however answered correctly. Various means of attaining solutions were sent in, some by algebra, and some by arithmetic.

The question was somewhat as follows; A man dies leaving 100 bushels of wheat to be divided among 100 people, in the ratio of three bushels to each man, two to each woman, and one-half bushel to each child. How was the wheat divided?

11x3	33
15x2	30
74x1-2	37
100	100

This is of course a catch question but gives an amusing apparently correct solution.

A Local Product in Demand

Mr. W. H. Meldrum reports a tremendous demand for binder twine this summer. A Times representative yesterday remarked to him that he must, judging by his conversation, have handled tons of this necessary farming commodity: "Yes," said Mr. Meldrum, "we have sold tons of it, but our sales would be better described by car loads." He handles the product of our local Cordage Factory, and says it supersedes all other makes both in quality and demand by consumers. The twine is a particularly strong and well made article, being composed of fibre imported from the Philippine Islands and New Zealand.

Sale of Illicit Furs

Mr. Fitzgerald, Game Warden for Eastern Ontario, Gets $600 for Beaver Skins

As noted in these columns some months ago Mr. G. W. Fitzgerald, the new game warden for Eastern Ontario, seized about one hundred and thirty beaver skins in a shed in the city.

Mr. Fitzgerald has disposed of the skins, and yesterday they were sent to Toronto where they had been sold for $600. Mr. Fitzgerald had been offered a good sum for the skins by a local firm but the department in Toronto had been offered 10 per cent. better than that which has secured here, and consequently their offer was accepted.

Mr. Fitzgerald has already made enough for the department to pay his whole year's salary, so that he is apparently proving a valuable man in this position.

But because he had done so well up to now, there is no reason to believe that his efforts will be relaxed in the future.

A C.P.R. Promotion.

Mr. E. C. Rice, Operator of the C.P.R Uptown Ticket Office, Goes to Brantford.

Yesterday Mr. E. C. Rice, who for some years has filled most efficiently the position of operator at the city telegraph office of the C.P.R., here, received word from headquarters of his promotion to the Brantford city office of the same company.

As a tribute to his popularity among them, as among the patrons of the office, he was yesterday, presented by the office boys under his charge, with a handsome pipe, silver mounted, and a leather pipe case, in recognition of his consideration for them in their work.

It is stated that Mr. Rice's successor will be Mr. D. Osborne, who for some time has filled a similar position with the G. N. W. Telegraph Company in this city.

Mr. Rice will leave on Saturday morning, spending that day and Sunday in Toronto, and he will go to the Telephone City to commence his duties on Monday morning.

Before Treatment. After Treatment.

He was surprised at how the sores healed. I took your New Method Treatment for a serious blood disease with which I had been afflicted for twelve years. I had consulted a score of physicians, taken all kinds of blood medicine, visited Hot Springs and other mineral water resorts, but only got temporary relief. They would help me for a time, but after discontinuing the medicines the symptoms would break out again—running sores, blotches, rheumatic pains, loseners of the hair, swellings of the glands, palms of the hands scaling, itchiness of the skin, dyspepsia, stomach, etc. I had given up in despair when a friend advised me to consult you, as you had cured him of a similar disease 3 years ago. I had no hope, but took MY LAST. In three weeks' time the sores commenced to heal up and I became encouraged. I continued the New Method Treatment for four months and at the end of that time every symptom had disappeared. I was cured 7 years ago and no signs of any disease since. My boy, three years old, is sound and healthy. I certainly can recommend you treatment with all my heart. You can refer any person to me privately, but you can use this testimonial as you wish." W. Cor. Michigan Ave. and Shelby St., Detroit, Mich.

To be opened September 1, 1905, at noon on the 17th on the "door of opportunity." Pull at the latch string and the door will open for you, no matter where you live or what your occupation. Colorado men—well known, reliable, experienced—have organized the Indiana Mining and Power Co. and provide ten thousand dollars capital by the sale of preferred stock, par value one dollar per share.

Ordinarily a ground floor stock, if offered at all, is offered to get money with which to start, has no asset whatever behind it, and depends entirely on future development for its value. Our proposition is different. We have started. Our stock now has an asset of property adjoining the reservation, consisting of 320 acres rich agricultural land, 280 shares of water in the first water right on the Uintah River and two lots (corner) Main street in the new town of Moffat, Utah. A fair estimate of the value, $16,800.00, in sixteen dollars for every dollar that has invested and an asset fifty per cent greater than the entire issue to be sold at the price it is here offered; however, this is only the commencement of operations. With the additional capital to be secured by the sale of stock other valuable property will be added and the opening of the reservation will start the harvest, of which our six years continuous mining has laid the foundation. You never had such an opportunity as we now offer. We share with you the results of the expenditure of our own capital, our labor and the judgment that has been displayed in securing this extraordinary opportunity for a profitable investment—fifty-dollar subscribed well-being assembled returns.

A limited amount of the preferred stock is on sale at 5 cents per share, the ground floor price. An advance to 10 cents will soon be made. A square deal is guaranteed. Write for any further information or any reference desired. DO IT NOW.

ALARM FELT IN GERMANY

Visit of Channel Squadron to Baltic Has Aroused the Nation

Berlin, August 4.—The Berlin Foreign Office today made the following statement in regard to the proposed maneuvres of the British warships in the Baltic:

"While the manoeuvres may not be directed against Germany, this Government is thoroughly alive to the fact that British policy is opposed to German policy, wherever that is possible. The establishment of a British naval base at Rosyth and the concentration of British battleship squadrons in European waters prove that Great Britain is gradually abandoning its non-European stations, especially those in the West Indies, where it is slowly retiring before the preponderance of America.

"We are conscious that all these things are intended to fortify and emphasize England's position in Europe. The Baltic is an open sea, and England has unlimited rights there, except in territorial waters of the entrance, of which it has already asked and received the requisite ordinary permission."

Popular alarm and resentment in connection with the coming British demonstration in the Baltic, are still widespread. It now develops that the manoeuvres will directly clash with the German manoeuvres in the same waters. Naval experts insist that, unless the English or Germans change their plans, unpleasant complications and conflicts will be inevitable.

Push It Along!

"When You See a Good Thing Push It Along," Tonapah Home Consolidated Co. Shipping Ore

There are varied styles of mining stock now offered to the investing public, those which represented mines not yet developed, those that are in process of development and those which have been developed and are actually shipping ore. The last style is however very rarely to be had at any price, and then, only when the ore being shipped is so rich the company owning such mine, dares to enlarge their plant at once, and establish their works on a larger paying basis.

The Tonopah Home Consolidated Mines and Exploration Co., was organized to take over and develope properties in Tonopah adjoining already developed and paying mines.

During the past four years, $150,000,000 has been developed and now being extracted in the Tonopah District. The company will also take over some of the most valuable properties in the Bullfrog, Goldfield and other rich districts. They have already shipped 150 sacks of ore from their Alta group of claims, that will show as high as $1,000 per ton.

Mr. W. K. Hall, the local fiscal agent has been appointed agent for this large corporation, and empowered to dispose of a limited number of shares in the Tonopah Home Consolidated Mining Co., at a very low price. Any seeking a lucrative channel for investment, would do well to consult Mr. Hall at once.

A PROSPEROUS SEASON

A Record Season for the Canadian Producer

The dairy season of 1906 so far has been one of the most prosperous on record for the Canadian producer. The export demand has been unusually active, and shipments from Montreal since the opening of navigation total 875,836 boxes, or 131,294 boxes more than a year ago, a record only once before exceeded. This was in the banner year 1903, when over one million boxes were exported up to August 1. Prices are now 2c to 3c higher than a year ago, and the aggregate volume of the exports for this year should nearly total that of 1903, when the exports for this season represented a return to the Canadian farmers of $21,665,388. Last year prices were as low as 6 1-2c. on the county boards, but the bottom figures this year has been 8 13-16, a higher figure than was reached during the entire season of 1904.

Light stocks in England and an improved demand from there has been largely responsible for this big rise in values, and the same applies to butter. Canadian creamery has year than ever before, exports reflecting a substantial increase over any preceding year, while the value of the product is about 3 to 4 cents above the level of a year ago, and about the same difference exists between the prices of 1903 and those now prevailing.

It is this tremendous growth in the exports to England and the increasing favor of the Canadian product there that is responsible for the high prices which the Ontario housewife is compelled to pay for her cheese and butter supplies this year. The shipping demand has created a scarcity of home supplies, and no relief is looked for during the remainder of the year.

HISTORIC HOUSE GONE.

A House Mentioned in "Roughing It in the Bush" Destroyed Yesterday by Fire.

Thousands of people who have read Mrs. Moody's homely but well described story of early life in Canada, entitled "Roughing it in the Bush," will be sadly interested to learn that one of the identical houses mentioned in this juvenile classic, was yesterday afternoon totally destroyed by fire. The house is one of the oldest, if not the oldest house in the township of Dummer, situated near a fine new brick house recently erected and occupied by Mr. Frank Harding, three miles from the village of Keene.

The fire originated; its cause being unknown, in Mr. Harding's brick house, and burned fiercely when it once started, and though every possible effort was made to save the property, this was impossible. A large portion of the furniture was destroyed before it could be taken from the burning building. The flames soon spread to the old historic house mentioned by Mrs. Moody.

Mr. Harding's house was insured in the London Mutal for $700, and the contents for $150 in the same company. This insurance will not nearly cover the loss.

RECIPROCITY WITH WEST INDIES

Conference Might be Arranged in the Future

Kingston, Jamaica, August 3.—The question of some reciprocity arrangement with Canada has more than once been raised, but it is clear that this cannot be dealt with except in conjunction with the West Indian colonies as a whole. It may be that if a conference could be arranged, composed of representative Canadians and West Indians, some common scheme might be devised which would tend to the advantage of both parties, but it is difficult to see what concession could be granted by this island in the way of reduction of taxation on any Canadian imports in return for the admission of sugar at rates which would remove the advantage at present held by the United States market.

The burnished plumage of the peacock owes its brilliancy and splendor to a healthful condition. Let the bird be sickly, and the plumage droops and grows dull. There is no exception in nature to the rule that beauty depends on health.

Women who see their beauty waning rarely associate the external change with failure of the womanly health. They do not understand the close relation of the general physical health to the health of the delicate womanly organism, until after being cured of womanly diseases by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription they find the color returning to the cheek and the flesh to the body.

"Favorite Prescription" establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weaknesses.

"Several years ago I was very poorly," writes Mrs. May Erlley, of Sylvia, Kans., "so weak I could hardly walk across the floor, and at times suffered severely. I took two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and got well and hardy—gained twelve pounds in two months and was the picture of health. Your medicines have cured me. Almost everybody I meet says, 'You look so much better than you have for several years; you look well now.'"

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are a lady's laxative. Nothing equals them for gentleness and thoroughness.

THE RICH AND THE POOR NEED PE-RU-NA.

Mr. Geo. A. Hughes.

Many Suffer With Catarrh and Don't Know It.

The Phase of Catarrh Most Prevalent in Summer Is a Run Down, Worn Out Condition Known as Systemic Catarrh.

"Pe-ru-na Is the Medicine for the Poor Man."—Geo. A. Hughes.

CATARRH assumes different phases in different season of the year. In the early summer systemic catarrh is most prevalent.

That tired, worn-out feeling in nine cases out of ten is due to a catarrhal condition of the mucous membranes.

Mr. Geo. A. Hughes, 808 Mass. Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., writes;

"Peruna has done me more good than anything I have ever taken. I am forty-five years old now, and feel as good as I did at twenty. I was very thin and run down, but Peruna acted just right in my case. I am a carpenter and sometimes need a tonic. Peruna is the medicine for a poor man."—Geo. A. Hughes.

A Congressman Uses Pe-ru-na in His Family.

Hon. Thos. J. Henderson, Member of Congress from Illinois, and Lieutenant in the Union Army for eight years, writes from the Lemon building, Washington, D. C., as follows:

"Peruna has been used in my family with the very best results and I take pleasure in recommending your valuable remedy to my friends as a tonic and an effective cure for catarrh."—Thos. J. Henderson.

Peruna cleanses the mucous membranes and cures the catarrh wherever located.

There are no remedies for catarrh just as good as Peruna. Accept no substitutes.

TEN YEARS

The Story of My Wonderful Success.

Reads Like a Fairy Tale-Yet Full of Convincing Truths

An Opportunity of a Lifetime for the Investor.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF IT.

I ask every reader of this paper to write me. I want to send you my free book entitled "Ten Years"—"The Story of My Wonderful Success." It tells about one of the greatest and most promising investment opportunities ever offered. It tells how my business grew from less than $25.00 capital to its present proportions.

I believe I have the best proposition from an investor's standpoint that could be placed before you. For ten years I have been teaching men and women to live according to the laws of Nature. My book is the history of my life. It shows what energy and ambition can accomplish in the world of affairs. It is intensely interesting to any man or woman who has a few dollars to invest in a legitimate enterprise.

I started business in the City of Brooklyn in 1896. My capital amounted to less than $25.00. My first year's business netted me over $1,000.00. Last year I paid dividends to my partners of 15 per cent. Five years ago my business had grown so large that I was compelled to remove to larger quarters. I am now at 63-65 Clark St., Brooklyn, N.Y.—in connection with Hotel St. George. Experts pronounce my institution to be the best appointed of its kind in the country. I estimate the equipment of the Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture to be worth at least $40,000.00.

I want to have a building of my own that will enable me to accommodate my increasing business. To erect this building I need capital, but more important than this to increase my business to the proportions which I desire, I need the co-operation of men and women throughout the country and the world.

Co-operation is the Secret of Success

I recognize it. I believe that with thousands of co-operators throughout the country I can build my business to tremendous proportions to the benefit of the shareholders and myself.

The Mac Levy Company is incorporated under the laws of New York for $150,000.00. They are proprietors of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

The last named branch of the business of the Mac Levy Company is comparatively new. I have been at work for several years to establish such a department in connection with teaching Physical Culture. The most difficult part of forming the Equipment Company has been accomplished. The business is now in condition to be pushed on a large scale. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are spent yearly on new gymnasiums and their equipment. The profits are large. A company of this kind has an immense field in which to work. Competition is slight. It is evident that the Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company can build an enormous business.

The Mac Levy Company operates during the summer months at Steeplechase Park, Coney Island, and at Averne Hotel, Averne-by-the-Sea, L. I., as well as at our Brooklyn Institute. I also does an extensive mail business. I teach people how they should live and exercise. My students are scattered all over the United States, and in English speaking countries.

A PROBLEM

which arrises in the minds of every man and woman is how to secure a comfortable income in the earlier years of their life, that they may reap the full benefits which such an income affords.

I have long thought that there are hundreds of people in moderate circumstances who would like to invest a few dollars in an Institution of this kind. It is to such people that I intend this announcement shall appeal. I am offering a block of the Treasury Stock of this company to the public at its par value. My reasons for doing this are that I wish to erect a building and to extend the business of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

I WANT YOU AS MY PARTNER

I need your help and suggestion. I want you to work with me and help me to secure a tremendous amount of new business.

I believe that if you could talk with me personally and go over the records of the business which I have done, see in black and white the figures which show the steady growth my business has experienced during the past ten years, examine my plans for future extension, and then look over the magnificent equipment of my Institute, and would want no further evidence that money put into my business would bring you the greatest possible returns consistent with safety and good management.

I ask you to write for my free book. I believe it will interest you. You have a few dollars that you want to invest. Why let it stand idle earning only 3 or 4 per cent that Savings Bank pay their depositors? Put it to work. Join it with mine. This Company ought to pay at least within one year.

Peace Makers at Last Meet at Oyster Bay

Hundreds of Pleasure Craft Surround the "Mayflower" on which Historic Introductions are Made.

Oyster Bay, Aug. 6.—Representatives of Japan and Russia who have come to this county to enter into conference looking to the negotiation of a treaty of peace were formally introduced to each other today by President Roosevelt on board the Mayflower. When both peace commissioners had been received and formally presented to each other they were entertained at luncheon on the Mayflow

At luncheon the President proposed the following toast;

THE PRESIDENT'S TOAST.

"Gentlemen; I propose a toast to which there will be no answer, and to which I ask you to drink in silence standing.

"I drink to the welfare And prosperity of the sovereigns and peoples of the two great nations whose representatives have met one another on this ship.

"It is my most earnest hope and prayer, in the interest of not only these two great powers but of all mankind, that a just and lasting peace may speedily be concluded between them."

ZONE OF WAR FARE INSURED TO CHINA

Japan Will Insist on Evacuation of Manchuria by Russia as Requisite to Peace

OWN RIGHTS IN ABEYANCE

European Powers May Give up Concessions in Celestial Empire—Boycott Exercises Americans

Washington, D.C., Aug. 7. —Japan has given formal assurances to the Chinese Government thati in the impending peace conference with Russia her plenipotentiaries will demand the evacuation of Manchuria by Russian troops. Negotiations then will be instituted directly with China for the restoration of the province to its rightful sovereign. As a result of these assurances China will not seek to impose the obligations to permit her participation in the peace negotiations.

This information is important from various points of view—first, Japan is determined loyally to keep the promises made before the war to evacuate Manchuria as soon as Russia is expelled therefrom; and second, the cardinal point of her international policy will be the cultivation of the Celestial government.

The declaration of China that she would not recognize any agreement respecting Manchuria unless consulted beforehand was communicated to the Japanese minister at Peking before it was transmitted to the other powers, and it is presumed, therefore, that it was fully approved by the Japanese government.

With the demand of Japan that Russia withdraw from Manchurian soil, China will be in full sympathy but there remains the question of the length of time Japan shall remain in Chinese territory. Having abundantly allayed Chinese suspicion throughout the war, it is not expected the Tokio Government will take any step calculated to revive it, and it is believed the Japanese forces will be withdrawn as soon as all danger of another Russian invasion is past.

According to advices which have reached Washington, Prince Ching, head of the Wai-wu-pu or Chinese foreign office, has not forgotten the difficulties which developed with Great Britain and Germany during the boxer revolt, in connection with the withdrawal of the troops of those nations from Shanghai. Great Britain claimed the Yangtse Kiang valley, of which Shanghai is the entrepot, as her special sphere of influence, and thought German troops should leave first. Germany which does not recognize the possession by Great Britain of special interests in the Yangtse region refused tacitly to do so by withdrawing before British forces.

Russia took the place because she needed a harbor as an outlet upon warm water and ostensibly to offset Germany's acquisition of Kiaochow and Great Britain in order to keep watch on both her European neighbors, especially Russia, seized Weihaiwei, which is just across the Peshili straits from Port Arthur.

Great Britain never has sought to make much of the naval station at Weihaiwei because of its natural and strategic disadvantages, and endeavored to get rid of it first to the United States and then to Japan.

The moment Japan's occupation of Port Arthur is determined formally, it is believed Great Britain will surrender Weihaiwei. There remains Germany in Kiaochou, and few diplomats here believe she will remain there for any length of time in view of the attitude of both Japan and China with respect to her presence in the far east. If Japan were to raze Port Arthur she would play a card which would appeal to the Chinese nation in a way that would arouse the sincerest gratitude, and this fact is appreciated in Tokio. It would also have an important effect in the United States.

RETICENCE OF THE JAPANESE

Eminent Authority Says it has Served Country Well

New York, August 7.—Sir Donald MacKenzie Wallace, an eminent English authority on Russia, was among the arrivals on the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse. Sir Donald talked interestingly of the coming peace conference and of the internal state of Russia.

"One can predict nothing until the Japanese have stated their terms," he said. "Reticence has been the Japanese system from the start; and it certainly has been of enormous service to them. Until they break silence, it is idle to speculate."

Sir Donald said, however, that he feared Russia would not go far toward meeting the probable demands of Japan. Though he saw much of M. Witte on the voyage, he avoided questioning him on these matters.

EDISON'S STORAGE BATTERY

The Wizard Announces that it is now Perfected

New York, August 7. — Satisfied that he has perfected his new storage battery, Thomas A. Edison announced to-day that in a few weeks he will start work on a new factory for the manufacture of coils on a large scale for trade. The storage battery, while not the greatest of the Wizard's many inventions, is the accomplishment of what electricians have been striving for for many years. The cell as now perfected will drive a two-ton truck at the rate of thirty-three miles an hour, with half the weight of old method. The ordinary automobile will run one hundred miles, under ordinary conditions, without recharging. Under the most favorable conditions one hundred and fifty miles can be covered at a speed of twenty miles an hour.

Police Court

OFFICIALS

Chief of Police, G. L. Reed
Magistrate, D. W. Dunlop

The first case that occupied his Worship's attention yesterday morning was a charge laid by Mrs. Maitland, of 235 George street, against that unfortunate man named Murphy, of unsalubrious notriety, who is considered generally, as not quite "All there."

Mrs. Maitland, who was evidently much excited over the case, as her appearance and pallor indicated a very close approach to fainting, was the first witness.

In giving her evidence she said that on Friday morning she was in the kitchen of her residence, 235 George street, and saw Murphy take her little boy, eight years old, out of the shed and slap his face, fully six times. The little girl five years old was crying, and said he had slapped her. She went out and told Murphy she would have him arrested. Murphy said nothing but walked away towards Charlotte street.

The little girl has a blue mark yet.

Murphy with folded arms and austere mien, asked the witness several questions. The little girl in the box, said Murphy had slapped her also did not know what for.

Murphy made his usual request for "an enlargement," but the Magistrate said he had had plenty of time to get his witnesses.

The Chief remarked to his Worship "I don't think Murphy is right in his mind."

Murphy said he was going down George street and some boys called him "Dirty Murphy that lives in the coal shed." Murphy rambled into a long disjointed piece of his ancient family history, having no connection with the case. Said that slapping these children was the only way he could get the law working. Mrs. Maitland came out and struck him, "and a good cuff, too."

His Worship said that Murphy certainly deserved punishment, but would not fine him as he is a poor man.

"Murphy, I think I will let you go this time, but if you are up before me again on such a charge I will commit you as a lunatic," were the Magistrate's final words."

The next case was the outbome of those too frequent family disputes, wherein man and wife do not seem to get along together. The foreman of a leading branch of one of our local manufacturing industries, was charged by his wife with assault, the wife also asked that he be bound over to keep the peace.

Mr. O'Connell appeared for the prisoner, and made an explanation to his Worship that in this unfortunate case both parties were somewhat to blame, and suggested that a compromise be effected whereby the two would forget and forgive, and "Live happily ever after." The wife, however, went on the witness stand, and said things had come to such a pass she insisted on having her husband bound over for her own protection. She intimated that she was not particularly anxious to have her husband live with her, but wanted him to support his four children. She said that, except when drunk, until a month ago, he had behaved well towards her, but lately his behavior was more than she could or ould more than she could or would stand.

The Magistrate reminded the prisoner that only recently he had been in court over former trouble with his wife, when he had, as the result of a drunk, accused her of stealing his money; that he had, when sobered up acknowledged his mistake.

His Worship said the prisoner would have to pay a fine of $5 with $2.60 costs for giving his wife a black eye.

"I cannot understand how a man could be mean enough to strike the mother of his children," said Mr. Dumble. The Magistrate also said that the prisoner should be bound over for one year to keep the peace, in bonds of $400, $200 or his own bail and one security of $200. The prisoner paid his fine and then telephoned his employer, who at once came to the station and went on his bail-bond.

At this morning's court the pipe plugging case, as noted in Saturday's Times, will be tried, as Mr. Duncan swore out a warrant at Saturday's court.

RUSSIA BELIEVES PEACE IN SIGHT

Declarations of M. Witte Since Arrival in America Strengthen Hope

CLEVERNESS RELIED ON

Business is at a Standstill and the Treasury is Almost Dilipted

St. Petersburg, Aug. 7.—M. Witte's declarations since his arrival in the United States have only deepened the belief in this city that the Czar and the counsil at Peterhof Palace expect the first meeting at Portsmouth to result in an agreement as to peace principles before the Czarewitz's birthday on August 19.

The remainings sittings presumably will be devoted to details, such as those relating to the indemnity.

Prince Troubetzkoi said to-day to your correspondent; "In spite of the affected optimism of the Government, everybody knows the hopelessness of the situation. The Japanese are now entrenched in the Amur districts, and General Linevitch was forced to inactivity. Oyama is waiting for Hasegawa's army to begin the offensive, in the interior. The lull, therefore, is only temporary. Even though Russian cities such as Moscow, Nijni-Novgorod and Saratoff are occupied by Cossacks, is at a standstill. The treasury is almost depleted, and famine is approaching, hence everybody is longing for peace.

"But the Czar wishes to retain his prestige, the bureaucracy its emoluments, and Linevitch his job. In this emergency M. Witte's cleverness is relied upon. He has received full powers, and undoubtedly will succeed in making his concessions unrecognizable. He will also endeavor to obtain American political and financial aid by offering Russian interior markets, and by urging an alliance of Russia, Japan and America in the Far East."

A prominent diplomat said to-day; "Great Britain suspected before the Bjoerkoe meeting, between the Czar and the Kaiser, and before M. Witte's trip to America, that it was Kaiser William's intention to lock the Baltic to outside fleets. It was, therefore, decided at once to send a fleet into the Baltic. The supposition that this naval demonstration is for the purpose of bringing pressure upon Russia is unfounded. Great Britain almost more than anybody else wants peace. It will not interfere with the negotiations, which apparently will be successful."

PEACE TERMS OF JAPANESE

Envoy Declares that M. Witte is Completely in Dark

New York, Aug. 7.—That not even President Roosevelt is aware of the terms which the Japanese peace envoys have been authorized to demand was emphatically asserted by Mr. A. Sato, of the peace commission. The assertion was made in reply to a question, as to what he thought of the reported interview with Mr. Witte. "To tell the truth," Mr. Sato said, "I must doubt that Witte made any remark of that kind. It would imply that he had known of what our terms were going to be, and where and how could he have got such knowledge? The only persons in this world who know what our side will demand and how far we will go in concessions are His Imperial Majesty the Mikado and the two peace envoys selected by him. Only they know. Not even the President of the United States has been informed what our terms are going to be."

CRISIS BETWEEN NOW PASSED

Newly Elected Cabinet Meets With Approval in Both Countries

THE COMING REFERENDUM

Trying to Secure a Representative Poll on Separation Question

Christiana, Aug. 7.— The general approval with which Norwegian sentiment greets the new Swedish Cabinet, indicates that good will, and determination on both sides, are now in a fair way to settle the crisis, peacefully, yet decisively.

Especial satisfaction is felt here over the choice of two members of the Cabinet, Herren Staaf and Bissect. Minister Staaf is well acquainted with Norway, having lived here and studied the Norwegian judicial system. Herr Bissert, the Minister of Finances, has important Norwegian business connections, and lives near the frontier. These facts in the opinion of leading persons of this city are certain to influence the situation favrably. Extensive arrangements are being made for the forthcoming referendum, with a view to securing the greatest number of votes possible on the question of separation. All political parties are acting in full accord in this matter. Secret agents of Sweden, are telling the people, that a vote in favor of separation will be equivalent to a vote in favor of war. But the people are not at all effected. Norwegian leaders say, by such stories as these and by other stories to the effect that the German Kaiser is intriguing with Sweden and contemplating Russian occupation of Norwegian territory. All such tales are regarded as chimerical.

KING OSCAR VISITS SQUADRON.

Stockholm, Aug. 7.—King Oscar, who was recently created a German Admiral by Emperor William, today visited the German squadron, which arrived here last night. His Majesty will give a fete to-night in honor of the squadron.

Stockholm, August 7.—With the appointment of a new Government, under the Premiership of Herr Lundeberg, and the adjournment of the special session of the Riksdag, the Swedish Norwegian question enters upon what probably will prove to be its last phase. Everything indicates that Norway is disposed to be conciliatory. The Lundeberg Cabinet will insist only on conditions upon which the Norwegians already have signified their willingness to treat in a spirit of friendly discussion. The idea is becoming fixed in the minds of those who lead public opinion that formal dissolution of the union is now merely a matter of time, and that the two nations during the close association of their respective representatives will find a basis for joint action in defence of the peninsula against the uncertainties of Russo-German policy. This feeling is having an excellent influence, leading to relegate the bitterness which has long threatened to drive Swedes and Norwegians wholly apart.

The Swedish people are aware of the possibility of the Czar and the Kaiser requesting the Scandinavian nations to join in some compact that would get the latter into a quarrel with powers which want to be friendly. They are also aware that if they refused such a request, the Czar and the Kaiser might agree to subject them to punitive embarrassments. Hence the feeling is deepening that Sweden, Denmark and Norwy must at the earliest possible moment concentrate measures for the defence of their political and territorial integrity, and make themselves too strong to invite affronts of any kind.

War Effects Japan's Trade

Ottawa, August 7.—Mr. Alexander Maclean, Canadian trade agent in Japan, writes to the Government that there will probably be a falling off of imports from Japan during the second half of the year. The foreign trade returns for the first half year show that the exports amounted to $71,369,989 and the imports were just twice as much. Such an enormous excess of imports over exports during a half-year is unprecedented. The purchase of war supplies is largely responsible for this condition of affairs.

Beer Team Bolts.

Calcutt B. & M. Company's Team Run Away and Smash the Waggon.

On Saturday afternoon a team belonging to the Calcutt Brewery and Malting Company, took fright at something on McDonnell street and ran away. They were soon beyond control of the driver, Mr. Fred Leach, and dashed furiously down Sheridan to Hunter street; here their great momentum from galloping wildly down the incline, impelled them against the fence fronting on the Allan property with terrible force and completely shattered it, loosening the posts as if they had been heaved by a lever. This brought their runaway proclivities to an abrupt termination, and in the collision with the fence they sustained injuries, which are fortunately not of a very serious nature.

The driver sustained several minor injuries and the wagon was considerably damaged by coming in contact with the pavement on Hunter street.

To Honor a Marksman

Some Talk Prevalent of Giving a Reception to Sergt. Moore.

During the past few days there has been some talk, particularly among those directly interested in the local regiment, of giving Col.-Sergt. Moore a fitting reception on his return from Bisley. Sergt. Moore it is claimed, and justly, has reflected honor both on the local regiment and on his native city, by his excellent record at Bisley. It is claimed that Sergt. Moore's record, which has had its share in the reports freely circulated through the press of several countries has been a great advertisement for Peterboro. Whether the pride that animates every citizen who has followed Mr. Moore's excellent Bisley records, tends towards such an expression of regard or not, there is no doubt that the marksman should receive some token of his city's respect on his return. Peterboro must not be judged by the grant of $50 recently given to receive her Old Boys.

It must never be said of this city when one of her sons distinguishes himself before the eyes of the world, that we forget it.

To-day's Reception.

Band will Meet the Old Boys at 11 a.m. and Head the Procession to Central Park.

It is anticipated that a much larger crowd will, this morning, come to the city than when the Peterbroo "Old Boys" last visited their old home.

In answer to a question put by The Times on Saturday evening, Ald. Leary, chairman of the Reception Committee, stated that the program for the reception of the Old Boys to-day had been arranged. It is expected that the special G.T.R. train from Toronto will arrive at the station about 11 o'clock. The visitors will be met by the Reception Committee and the 57th Band and a procession will then be formed. The route will be along Charlotte street to George street and then north to Central Park. There the Mayor will deliver an appropriate address and present the visitors with the freedom of the city. This will conclude the reception on the part of the Council representing the city.

A program of sports has been arranged by the Old Boys for the afternoon. An interesting feature will be the ball game in Riverside Park at 3 p.m. between the Royal Canadians of Toronto, and the local Midland League nine.

Touched for $550

Millbrook Lady Leaves Her Purse with a Note for $500 and $10 in Bills in a Mack and Finds it Gone.

That Peterboro, with all its well known credit for a paucity of thieves and criminals, is not absolutely without a few light-fingered gentry within her borders is proved by the fact that on Friday two ladies, the Misses Farrar and Reid, of Millbrook were robbed of a promissory note for $500 and $10 in bank bills. The two ladies, who were visiting with friends in the city, hired a hack for the purpose of visiting the lift lock. On the way over Miss Reid placed her purse on the seat beside her, as the color from it was soiling her gloves.

At the lift lock the ladies left the hack in order to more satisfactorily view the sights. Some few minutes afterwards Miss Reid remembered that she had left her purse in the hack, and, on hastening back, found that it was gone. The young man in charge of the vehicle said he had not seen it. As the contents of the purse were of considerable value, the ladies became somewhat anxious as to its whereabouts. Their subsequent search and inquiries were without success. The purse contained a note for $500, two five-dollar bills, and two tickets for Millbrook. The gentleman in charge of the livery stable did what he could to assist the ladies in looking for the lost purse, and as they had not found it by train time, he made no charge for the hack, purchased new tickets, presented them with $5 and saw them off at the train, assuring them that he would do what he could to recover the missing articles. The purse is a red one, and the contents, with the exception of the bank bills, are of little value to anyone besides the rightful owners.

Japs Send Proclamations Into Russ Lines

Urging Against Loss of Life With Peace Near at Hand--Report Comes from Manchuria Talk of an Alliance with Japan.

Sitalize, Manchuria, Aug. 7 — The Japanese are throwing proclamations into the Russian lines, urging the Russians on account of impending peace, not to undertake reconnaissances, the result of which would be useless loss of life.

PEACE THROUGH ALLIANCE.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 7.—The tone of the press to-day is more hopeful of peace than it was yesterday. M. Witte's welcome, coupled with other reports from the United States, tending to partially remove some of the Russian ill-feeling arising from the belief prevailing here that American sympathies are with Japan.

There is noticeable more or less talk of a possible Russo-Japanese alliance as the outcome of the peace negotiations.

The questions of an indemnity and of the control of the island of Sakhalin are still considered to be troubling blocks in the way of an understanding, though the argument is hopefully reiterated in certain peace quarters that President Roosevelt would not have risked his prestige by a second tender of good offices without having learned the minimum Japanese demands and the maximum Russian concessions and without pretty clearly seeing his way, by his personal influence, to the putting aside of whatever differences may bar the way to the bringing about of peace.

The Slovo says that Russia needs a lasting peace and that such a peace can only come through an alliance with Japan. It hopes that the special powers with which M. Witte is invested will permit him to deal with the question of a possible alliance, but deprecates the possibility masked by an indemnity in connection with such an alliance.

Lost His Load.

Mr. Rolland Denne's Driver Uses a Bicycle Instead of His Wagon with Injury to Himself

Saturday at noon Mr. Roland Denne had an order for Indian meal to deliver to a customer on the west side. The driver, Mr. Harry Cross was handed a large sack of the corn meal with instructions to deliver it to the address given.

As Mr. Cross had put his horse away he undertook to deliver the meal on his bicycle.

Shortly after turning from George street on Hunter, as he rode with one hand guiding the bike and the other holding the bag, he had an unavoidable collision and mix-up with a team of horses attached to a cab driven by Mr. Ernie Lawrence.

The road was blocked to such an extent that little room was left for Mr. Cross to pass. Turning to the right he was struck by the team and knocked under their feet. The horses were stopped before the wheels of the heavy vehicle could strike Mr. Cross, and he crawledto safety. His injuries, beyond a severe nervous shock and some slight bruises were not serious, but the bicycle was badly damaged. It was a narrow escape, but with wonderful pluck Mr. Cross pulled himself together and was working ten minutes afterwards, as were scores of the ubiquitous sparrows on the corn meal scattered over the road.

Caught by the Rain

A Tale of Disappointment Capped by a Ducking.

A party consisting of several ladies, more small children and one lonely benedict who had been roped in to accompany the party, on Saturday afternoon rode south on the George street cars. As the car wended its way towards the turn near Crescent street, the animation of the ladies and excitement of the children attracted some attention.

Their destination was clearly to be gathered from their conversation. They were going to show the children the beauties of the Little Lake. Many remarks were heard about "the lovely rippling waves," and "probable white caps" owing to the high wind.

Oh! what a change came over the spirit of their dream when the lake was reached and found to be a solid floating mass of ugly logs.

Nothing daunted they were heard to say, "Well if the ugly old logs do spoil the lake we will visit the cemetery." The climax and raison d'etre of this sad tale is their return which was witnessed by a gentleman who saw them set out.

They had evidently been caught by the downpour of rain between the cemetery and the cars. Their raiment, and hats looked as though a wet cyclone had been busy; a clucking hen after immersion in a pail of water looks spruce and dressy compared with those unfortunate seekers after the beauties of our now log destroyed aquatic playground.

A Mysterious Fire

Mrs. A. Barrie, 623 George St., Calls Out the Brigade to Extinguish a Small Blaze.

On Saturday morning the brigade were given a run to find on arrival that Mrs. A. Barrie, of 623 George street, had a mattress in an upstairs bedroom on fire. The neighbors had formed a very efficient brigade, extending nearly a block in length, had just about extinguished all trace of fire previous to their arrival. This Babcock portable soon finished up the work and the fire ladders returned, somewhat disgusted at being called out on what might almost be called a "Fools' Errand." The family at the time the mattress caught fire, were all down stairs, their first intimation of danger, being given by Mr. A. Brown, who, when driving past the house, noticed smoke coming through an open window, and at once came in to tell the family of their impending trouble.

It has not yet been ascertained how the mattress caught fire, the only supposition being that a mouse might have nibbled a match end.

The damage done was not heavy, being confined almost entirely to the bed and mattress, which were destroyed. The wall paper and window were damaged and some little havoc was caused by water.

The total damage will not exceed $50, which is covered by insurance in the Economic Fire Insurance Company.

Marooned Fishermen

Some Local Gentlemen Came Near Being Swept Over a Dam.

On Saturday afternoon some local typos, desiring to give a good time to Mr. Bert Caniff, a graduate printer of The Times office, now visiting the city, took him fishing.

The party took the street cars to near the water works dam, and on arrival proceeded to attend to their rods and bait, particularly the bait. Efforts were made, some few yards above the dam to fish from a stranded boom stick. This however, not allowing them close enough approach to the deep water where the big bass are supposed to be, the enthusiastic disciples of Isaac Walton built them a raft and boldly shoved from shore.

Between excitement over the anticipated catch of bass, and attention to the bait, the fishermen did not notice that the wind had been wafting their frail conveyance far from shore, whilst the current was bearing it towards the brink of the dam. Suddenly they perceived their danger and a sudden grab was made for the long pole which had been used to propel their raft from shore. Unfortunately the water was too deep to use the pole to any advantage. Nearer and nearer to the dame the raft was drifting, when with one accord, and as though a telepathic message, the four fishermen jumped, clothes and all, into the water, and with hands placed on the raft, and legs vigorously kicking in the wet river, they swam the raft ashore, arriving within ten feet above the dam's brink. They then went home.

NEGOTIATIONS UNSUCCESSFUL

This Will be Result Unless One Country Backs Down

Birmingham, England, August 7.—The Post states today that Sir Mortimer Durand has cabled to Lord Lansdowne the principal features of the Russian and Japanese peace terms. The stipulations made by the opposing nations are of such nature, The Post declares, that they have caused the conviction that negotiations to bring the war to an end will be unsuccessful, unless one of the countries backs down.

The Post adds that pressure is being brought to bear upon Japan to indice her to moderate her demands.

BUILDING NEW BATTLESHIPS

Japanese Commander Leaves for Scotland to Superintend Work

New York, August 7. — O. Kamimura, the Japanese commander, who in the battle with Admiral Rojestvensky's squadron sailed the armored cruiser Takiwara, left New York today on the steamship Celtic, to take charge of the new Japanese battleship Katori, now building in Scotland. Lieut.-Commander K. Kato and other officers accompanied Commander Kamimura. The Katori, now at Glasgow, will not be ready to put to sea for nearly a year, even should the Russo-Japanese war end immediately. The Japanese officers are sent to inspect the battleship's completion.

WHY SO WEARY?

Always Restless and Weak and Not Natural—But Its Dangerous

You have to work hard. You use up lots of nerve force and tear down the body faster than it can build up.

The result is a half-dead feeling you can't shake off. Somehow you must get more vitality. The water in your blood must be turned into nutriment and building material.

This is just what happens in using Ferrozone, which renews the blood and nerves, and makes each organ do the work that nature expects of it.

Ferrozone quickly increases your weight, brings appetite and healthy color, instills a reserve of vigor into the system that defies weakness, exhaustion, debility, or sickness of any kind.

Ferrozone quickly increases your weight, brings appetite and healthy color, instills a reserve of vigor into the system that defies weakness, exhaustion, debility, or sickness of any kind.

The enormous strengthening power of Ferrozone is proved in the case of Mrs. Edward Hill, of Orr Lake, Ont., who says:

"Two years ago I had a nervous breakdown. At night I tossed restlessly in bed, unable to get any rest from 4 p. In the morning I suffered from over-powering weakness. My appetite was poor. I grew pale, thin and despondent. A slight hacking cough also added to my burdens.

"My doctor said to try Ferrozone, and it did me good in a few days. I increased in strength, the nervous sensations disappeared, and with my appetite came back my color and good spirits. I have gained seven pounds in weight, and as my age is 56, I consider Ferrozone is a marvel." (Signed) Mrs. Edward Hill.

REMEMBER THIS: Ferrozone is a true tonic—not an alcoholic stimulant. Fifty chocolate-coated tablets in a box for fifty cents, or six boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or N. C. Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U. S. A., and Kingston, Ont.

CHANGES IN LIBERAL CABINET

There is every prospect of an extensive rearrangement in the Laurier Cabinet just as soon as the Prime Minister can get around to it. It is well known that Hon. Charles Fitzpatrick will retire shortly, such being his expressed desire. He will probably accept a chief justiceship, which it is said rests with his own wishes in the matter. The venerable Richards, Hon. Richard Scott and Sir Richard Cartwright, one in his 81st and the other in his 71st year, are infirm, and it is understood, and, in fact, it is definitely stated in Liberal circles, that they will both retire shortly, gracefully and with honors. The present Solicitor-General is likely to be promoted to full cabinet rank in the stead of Hon. Richard Scott Lord Strathcona, the Canadian High Commissioner, being a very old man, though still remarkably active and clear-minded for his years, it is thought will not remain much longer in his present position. Rumor has for a long time suggested the name of Sir William Mulock as his successor. Sir William being a gentleman of great wealth, is perhaps the only one of the present Canadian politicians qualified for the position, who could afford to accept it. It is true that he has ambitions for the premiership, but when Sir Wilfrid Laurier steps down and out, and the Liberals are still in power, there is no doubt that Hon. Mr. Fielding will be the choice of the party to take over the leadership. There will must be four vacant portfolios to fill between now and the next session of parliament. Hon. A. B. Aylesworth is mentioned for the portfolio of Justice. Mr. Arch. Campbell, West York, is mentioned as successor to Sir Richard Cartwright. Mr. Lemieux is slated to take the place of Hon. Richard Scott We have seen no one spoken of as a possible postmaster-general in place of Sir William Mulock. Messrs. Hugh Guthrie and Leighton McCarthy are spoken of as successors to Mr. Lemieux as solicitor-general.

Since provision has been made for the pensioning of ministers who have served five years; retiring is rather pleasant work, especially in the case of those who are lucky enough to be in the Senate. When Sir Wilfrid gets tired of any particular colleague, or for any reason wishes to replace him, it is the easiest thing in the world to appoint him to a seat in the Senate, after the allotted term of office, with $4,000 a year. Thus retired, he can engage in any other occupation, however lucrative. The present minister of justice, if his services as solicitor-general count in the five years' time limit (a point on which we are not informed), will go to a chief justiceship with an addition of $4,000 to his salary, also increased. These are among the many possibilities involved in the recent increase of emoluments provided for. Without any doubt the changes in the ministry that she imminent were among the well-considered reasons for creating a pension list.

THE WIRELESS WONDER

The English woman who bought an ear-trumpet and the very next day heard from her son at Botany Bay was duly surprised, but if she had lived a little longer she might have heard without. The ear-trumpet. Lieutenant Kaiser's report of the distance at which wireless messages from the shore may be heard at sea was not needed to show that a ship equipped with the required apparatus can remain in constant communication with the land during a voyage across the Atlantic. The Campania has already accomplished that feat. His statement however, of the results of his experiments on board the cruiser Brooklyn during the recent trip of Admiral Sigsbee's squadron to France and return is interesting, because it confirms the results recorded on the Campania. Lieutenant Kaiser reports, in substance, that wireless messages from Cape Shore were read on board the Brooklyn at a distance of eleven hundred miles, and that a wireless signal was heard at a distance of seventeen hundred and eighty miles. The significance of these latter figures is plain, for they represent more than half the distance across the Atlantic.

"The age of miracles is forever here," said a wise man.

ATTACK JAP SHIP

Small Merchant Steamer Fired Upon and Captain Killed

Bulletin, Tokio, Aug. 4.—It is officially reported that two Russian torpedo boat destroyers appeared off Chung Ching, on the northern coast of Korea, at four o'clock this morning, and attacked the Keisho, a small merchant steamer. The destroyers fired sixty shots, seven of which hit the port side of the engine room and bridge, killing the captain and one boy, and wounding two of the crew. The destroyers then ceased to fire and steamed toward Vladivostock at five o'clock. The Keisho was able to continue her voyage, and escaped.

FRANK SMITH DEAD

Brockville Young Man Dies as a Result of Injuries Sustained in a Runaway Accident

Brockville, Aug. 5—Frank Smith, a young man 21 years of age, died last evening about 8 o'clock as the result of injuries sustained in a runaway accident Tuesday evening. Young Smith, in company with a Miss Sheldon, was driving along King street east, when the animal bolted and ran away. Both occupants of the rig were thrown against a boule yard. Miss Sheldon escaped with a few bruises, but Smith suffered concussion of the brain, and passed away less than 24 hours later. He was a harness-maker by trade, and a son of William Smith, a G.T.R. employe.

T. V. C. Survey.

An Orillia despatch says,—Surveyors are now at work on the Georgian Bay end of the Trent Valley Canal. They are at present operating at Rugged Rapids on the River Severn, at which point the James Bay Railway will cross the canal. From Washington on Lake Couchiching to the Georgian Bay, the route is over rough, rocky country, which will prove the most difficult and most expensive portions of the waterway. The route from Lake Couchiching to the Georgian Bay will be a succession of locks, there being a difference in altitude between the two waters of 139.48 feet. Very little dredging would make the Severn River navigable for light draught vessels its entire length of about twenty-eight miles. There are eight falls and rapids on the river, besides a number of "swifts."

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion land in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or at the Dominion Lands office, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

(4) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clause (2) (3) or (4) must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 80 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 3rd of June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Offices in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the North-west Territories.

W. W. CORY,

How to Visit Colorado

Go first to Denver. It is the State capital, as well as the largest, wealthiest and most metropolitan city between the Missouri River and the Pacific Coast. The city itself is very interesting, and from it start practically all the trains over the various roads into the mountains.

Many of the most enjoyable one-day trips in Colorado begin and end at Denver. The cost of these little journeys is not great.

After you have familiarized yourself with Denver and its surroundings will be soon enough to decide where to go for the rest of your visit. The question must be considered from several standpoints—altitude, hotel accommodations, accessibility, amusements, etc.

Our Colorado literature will help you in deciding where to go and what to do. Sent free for the asking.

BLOOD DISEASES

If you inherited or contracted any Blood Disease you are never safe unless the virus or poison has been eradicated from the system. At times you see alarming symptoms, but live in hopes no serious results will follow. Have you any of the following symptoms? Sore throat, ulcers on the tongue or in the mouth, hair falling out, aching joints, dullness of the skin, sores or blotches on the body, sore red and smart, dyspeptic stomach, sexual weakness, enlarged glands. If so, you have to look. Don't ruin your system with the old fogy treatment—mercury, potash and patent medicines, which suppress the symptoms for a time only to break out worse than when happy in domestic life. Don't let quacks experiment on you. Our NEW METHOD TREATMENT is guaranteed to cure you. OUR GUARANTEES ARE BACKED BY BANK BONDS that the blood or skin disease will never return. Thousands of patients have been already cured by our NEW METHOD TREATMENT for over 20 years, and no return of the disease. No experiment, no risk—not a "patch up," but a positive cure. The worst cases solicited.

Before Treatment

HAD BLOOD POISON 12 YEARS

The New Method Treatment Cured Him after Drugs, Mercury, Hot Springs, &c., all failed.

After Treatment

Wm. H. Patterson, of Barrie, Mich., relates his experience: "I do not like notoriety and especially of this kind, but I feel I owe this much to Drs. K. & K. for the great good they have done me. I had a serious blood disease when 21 years of age. The skin and blood symptoms gradually developed. Pimples and ulcers formed, running sores broke out, hair became loose, pains in the bones and joints, dyspeptic stomach, foul breath, itchy skin, etc. It is needless for me to say I tried doctors. I grew to hate the looks of one. I visited Hot Springs twice for four months each time. It helped me temporarily, but in six months after returning home I was as bad as ever. Finally a Doctor friend of mine advised me to see Drs. Kennedy & Kergan. He said he had known of them for over ... years, and as they made a specialty of these diseases and treated the worst cases ... hundred they ought to be expert in curing them. I was afraid of advertising doctors, but I took his advice. They agreed to treat me under a guarantee or so I ... investigated their financial standing and found they were perfectly responsible, so I commenced the new method Treatment. The eruptions disappeared in two weeks, the bone pains in four weeks and in four months I was entirely cured. Yes, sir, I can recommend the New Method Treatment for Blood and Skin Diseases."

GREATER CONCESSIONS MAY BE ADVANCED

Felt That Resistance to Japan's Eastern Policy is Utterly Futile

Moscow, Aug. 6.—According to statements made by a responsible member of M. Witte's suite, Russia's chief plenipotentiary left St. Petersburg authorized to pay Japan an indemnity of $500,000,000, and to cede to it half of Sakhalin Island. M. Witte is said to have considered the concessions sufficient to insure the success of the negotiations at Portsmouth, and to have predicted that the conference would be brief. It is still the belief of those connected to judge, that the concessions mentioned, or even greater ones, will be made by Russia, in order to secure peace. This is true, notwithstanding the fact that at their Bjoerkoe interview, Emperor William assured the Czar that Germany would be completely quiescent if the St. Petersburg Government decided to continue the war.

Responsible men in St. Petersburg, as well as in Moscow, realize that resistance to Japan's general policy in the far east, is out of the question, since Japan has the support of Great Britain.

Further sacrifices in the far east for the purpose of balking Japan would only reduce the power of the autocracy to deal with the situation at home, thus hastening the overthrow of the existing system. The Pan-Russian Peasant League, which is extending its branches throughout the country, now constitutes the most formidable organization in the movement for reform.

London, Aug. 6.—A Tokio despatch states that the Russians in Sakhalin must continue fleeing southwards or surrender. They are making towards Patience Bay.

Dairymen Ask Aid.

Council will Consider Securing Next Annual Meeting of Association.

As noted in yesterday's issue, the local cheese makers and buyers, as well as those interested in all forms of dairy operations, are anxious to secure the Eastern Ontario Dairymen's Association meeting for Peterboro.

At the next meeting of the City Council, on Monday night, the question of what action the Council should take in reference to securing the meeting, will probably come up for discussion.

It will be remembered that at the Cheese Board meeting on Wednesday, a committee was appointed to confer with the City and County Councils in reference to this important matter.

On Thursday Mayor Post received a letter from Mr. G. A. Gillespie, in which he asked for an appointment with the Council to bring the matter before them.

The Peterboro district is a most important one from a dairy standpoint, the number of cheese sold here being the third largest of any board in the Dominion, and it is felt that it is but a just recognition of the importance of this district.

A FOOL SWIMMER

Glover Receives a Challenge for Another Race Through the Niagara Rapids

Buffalo, Aug. 4.—John W. Glenister of Norfolk, has issued a challenge through his backer, John C. Buchman, of Buffalo, to William C. Glover, jr., to swim the Whirlpool Rapids of Niagara for $1,000 a side. Mr. Buchman is now in Norfolk and has stated that he will back Glenister for any amount, and he believes that the Norfolk man will be an easy winner over the Baltimore swimmer. The course to be gone over will be the same as that of the recent contest between Glover and Graham, the veteran Niagara swimmer, in which Glover was an easy victor. They would enter the rapids at Flat Rock and would finish four miles farther down at Lewiston dock. The distance is four miles. Glenister swam the upper rapids, a far more difficult course, in August, 1903, and is the only man who has ever done so. The lamented Captain Webb of the British navy attempted the feat, but lost his life, and when Glenister made the attempt many thought that he would meet a like fate, but he came through all right and was not much the worse of his performance.

DISPLAY THE FLAG

School Trustee Urges That Canadians Hoist the National Ensign More Frequently

St Catharines, Aug. 6.—At the meeting of the Collegiate Institute Board last night, Trustee C. B. Hare, asked the question if the St. Catharines Collegiate owned a Canadian flag. He was informed that it did.

"Well," said he, "I think it should be displayed more upon appropriate occasions. Across the border we find the whole country studded with flags and flag poles and the flags are flying upon the slightest occasion. I think we Canadians do not show our loyalty sufficiently. Every school in the country should have a flag and it should be raised frequntlye."

MR. MENGER APPOINTED

New Night Operator at G. T. R. Station as Result of His Recent Examination

Mr. John Buchanan, night-operator at the G.T.R. station, expects to leave in a few days to take a position in Winnipeg. He left for Lefroy, his home last night, and his place here as night operator will be taken by Mr. Oscar Menger, of Beeton. It will be remembered that recently Mr. Menger held the position of baggageman at the station here. He, however, was successful in his examination for telegraph operator, and was transferred to Beeton. He now returns to Peterboro to take a much more responsible position and friends will congratulate him upon his promotion.

Miss Lucia Tate formerly of Peterboro, but now residing in Toronto, is renewing acquaintance with old friends in the city. Miss Tate has not been in Peterboro for over 19 years and naturally sees many changes. Many of our citizens will remember, as old friends Miss Tate's brothers.

Alfred, who left Peterboro many years ago to take the position of private secretary to the "Wizard of the Wire," T. A. Edison. Fred the well known expert railway engineer, "Tote" in the same profession and Bert who now holds a responsible position in Buffalo. Miss Tate has resided for many years in Buffalo but has now settled in Toronto. She is stopping at the Y.W.C.A., and will return to Toronto on Tuesday.

Humane Society Medal.

Mr. Madden Howard of Hiawatha, will Probably Receive the Royal Humane Society's Medal

It will be remembered by our readers that Mr. Madden Howard recently saved two Port Perry men, at great risk of his life from drowning.

The men were in a dangerous position on an upturned boat, when Howard paddled out and brought them safely to land. A letter has been received from an official of the Royal Humane Society asking for particulars and intimating that steps are to be taken to reward the rescuer by presenting to him a medal or parchment according as the circumstances determine.

The villagers of Hiawatha have a record for themselves by exhibitions of bravery this summer. On July 31st Archie Lang and Fred Howson, of town, were rescued from a perilous situation by Daniel Cow.

Mr. Donnelly the multi-millionaire from Pittsburg passed through the city on Saturday last from Stony Lake, en route to Cobourg. As noted in these columns a week ago, Mr. Donnelly is erecting an $80,000 mansion, for summering purposes at Cobourg.

In conversation with a Times representative, on Saturday, Mr. Donnelly expressed himself charmed with the Kawartha Lakes, and with our city. He brought his family with him and also his beautiful oak, plate glass and brass yacht from the upper lakes. Mr. Donnelly who purchased his supplies, whilst on his way north, from Mr. A. Rountree, the local grocer, said that Peterboro makes the best butter he has eaten in all his travels. He left a heavy standing order for the butter of a local creamery, to be sent to his Cobourg and Pittsburg addresses. This speaks well for a local product.

An Indian Celebration.

It is expected that quite a number of local canoe-men and ladies will visit Hiawatha on August 11th. This lakeside village will hold an illuminated canoe parade, which several appropriately decorated canoes will participate. Hon. J. R. Stratton will give a special prize for the prettiest girl, for which competition all are eligible, and a committee will protect the donor and judges from the unnecessary competitors.

There will be a parade of the canoes, and gentlemen wishing to take part in the float, will kindly secure canoes before their arrival. The ladies will furnish the refreshments. The picnic will be held in the evening, and all the canoes will be brilliantly lighted. The committee in charge of the water picnic are Chief Johnston Paudash, Henry Cowie, Peter Thompson and Herbert Kiley.

Mr. R. R. Hall, M.P., has given a special prize for the best decorated float in the water carnival.

Farmers' Excursion a Success

The Norwood Register says: Mr. C. O'Reilly last week received a cheque for $48.50, being the East Peterboro Institute's share of the net receipts of the recent Farmers' Institute excursion to Guelph. The total receipts paid over by the railway company amounted to $200.05, which after deducting expenses for advertising, bill posting and other expenses amounting to $64.55 left a balance to be divided between the three Institutes of $145.50.

Another Mixer for Lakefield.

By this heading it is not to be presumed that the Lakefield hotels contemplate adding another wine clerk to their establishments, but a machine, occupying two G. T. R. flat cars, was yesterday forwarded to that village for use in the Lakefield Cement Company's Works. This huge mixer is similar to the one which was upset off the G.T.R. Lakefield train recently at that curve in the north end of the city. When yesterday's train, with this immense pipe, weighing upwards of one hundred tons, reached the spot where its kindred mixer was upset, the trainmen were particularly careful, and the mixer did not leave the cars this time. These immense machines are to be added to the equipment of the Lakefield Portland Cement Company, and when installed will double the capacity of those works.

In the six day bicycle races the pace tells terribly at the end. Man after man falls out exhausted. The victor wabbles wearily over the line. In the business race it's the same. Man after man drops out exhausted. The successful man is often a dyspeptic, unable to enjoy success. When the stomach is diseased there is not enough nutrition assimilated to sustain the body and repair the daily waste of tissues. The result is weakness, tending to collapse.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enables the perfect assimilation of food by which the body is built up with sound, healthy flesh.

"I have taken one bottle of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for indigestion and liver complaint," writes Mr. C. M. Wilson, of Yadkin College, Davidson Co., N. C. "Have had no bad spells since I commenced taking your medicine—in fact, have not felt like the same man. Before I took the 'Golden Medical Discovery' I could not eat anything without awful distress, but now I can eat anything I wish without having unpleasant feelings. Last summer our baby was teething and was so poor he was almost a skeleton. We gave him your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and now he is as healthy and well as any child. I will speak a good word for your medicine whenever I have an opportunity."

Police Called In.

Last evening the police were called, by near by neighbors, of two well-known characters, Mrs. Shannon and Mrs. Nichols, who reside on Bethune street, and who it is alleged have been ill-treating their children and have had men frequenting their house, to investigate and see if more wholesome surroundings could not be obtained for the children. The above named persons are familiar in police court happenings, and the chief is of the opinion that the children, and there are seven or eight, should be placed in the shelter away from contamination.

Zone of War Fare Insured to China

Another point which is interesting China at this moment is the intention of the Japanese with respect to Port Arthur. That Japan intends to acquire the lease of this fortress and the commercial port of Dalny there is no question. But whether she intends to maintain Port Arthur as a fortress has not been revealed up to this time. The United States would like to see the fortifications razed. It is not believed the Japanese would consent to evacuate it—they have spent too much blood and money in its conquest. But its utility as a naval base is doubtful, because of better strategic points in Japanese waters and in the harbors of Korea.

China was in danger of falling between the two stools, but the matter, after interminable negotiation, was settled finally to the satisfaction of the three powers. It is intended to avoid similar complications in connection with Manchuria, and this is the reason why China is anxious to learn the intentions of the belligerents with regard to the evacuation of her territory.

RUSSIA'S PLAN WILL FAIL.

With China and Japan enjoying a thorough understanding of each other's policy, any attempt on the part of Russia to bring about the participation of the Oriental government in the peace negotiations will fail. The efforts of the Czar to impress the Chinese with the unselfishness of his government, which were successful in 1895 after the Chino-Japanese war, are, it is believed, foredoomed to failure.

If Nicholas proposed to the Kaiser at their historic conference yesterday that Germany urge China's participation in the negotiations, the knowledge of the close relations of the Peking and Tokio governments will deter the Berlin authorities from taking action. The State department was informed late last night that a conference had occurred, but no intimation was given as to the subjects discussed or the result. There is only a certainty that the Kaiser declined to intervene in the peace negotiations, and pointed out that the considerations which would warrant the Czar in meeting Japan's terms as far as possible.

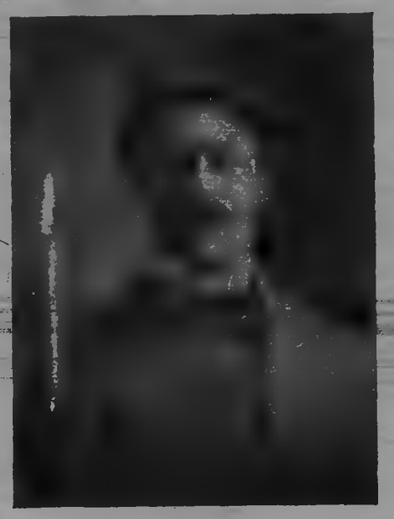
TEN YEARS



The Story of My Wonderful Success.

Reads Like a Fairy Tale-Yet Full of Convincing Truths

An Opportunity of a Lifetime for the Investor.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF IT.

I ask every reader of this paper to write me. I want to send you my free book entitled "Ten Years"—"The Story of My Wonderful Success." It tells about one of the greatest and most promising investment opportunities ever offered. It tells how my business grew from less than $25.00 capital to its present proportions.

I believe I have the best proposition from an investor's standpoint that could be placed before you. For ten years I have been teaching men and women to live according to the laws of Nature. My book is the history of my life. It shows what energy and ambition can accomplish in the world of affairs. It is intensely interesting to any man or woman who has a few dollars to invest in a legitimate enterprise.

I started business in the City of Brooklyn in 1896. My capital amounted to less than $25.00. My first year's business netted me over $1,000.00. Last year I paid dividends to my partners of 15 per cent. Five years ago my business had grown so large that I was compelled to remove to larger quarters. I am now at 63-65 Clark St., Brooklyn, N.Y.—in connection with Hotel St. George. Experts pronounce my institution to be the best appointed of its kind in the country. I estimate the equipment of the Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture to be worth at least $40,000.00.

I want to have a building of my own that will enable me to accommodate my increasing business. To erect this building I need capital, but more important than this to increase my business to the proportions which I desire, I need the co-operation of men and women throughout the country and the world.

Co-operation is the Secret of Success

I recognize it. I believe that with thousands of co-operators throughout the country I can build my business to tremendous proportions to the benefit of the shareholders and myself.

The Mac Levy Company is incorporated under the laws of New York for $150,000.00. They are proprietors of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

The last named branch of the business of the Mac Levy Company is comparatively new. I have been at work for several years to establish such a department in connection with teaching Physical Culture. The most difficult part of forming the Equipment Company has been accomplished. The business is now in condition to be pushed on a large scale. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are spent yearly on new gymnasiums and their equipment. The profits are large. A company of this kind has an immense field in which to work. Competition is slight. It is evident that the Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company can build an enormous business.

The Mac Levy Company operates during the summer months at Steeplechase Park, Coney Island, and at Averne Hotel, Averne-by-the-Sea, L. I., as well as at our Brooklyn Institute. I also does an extensive mail business. I teach people how they should live and exercise. My students are scattered all over the United States, and in English speaking countries.

A PROBLEM

which arrises in the minds of every man and woman is how to secure a comfortable income in the earlier years of their life, that they may reap the full benefits which such an income affords.

I have long thought that there are hundreds of people in moderate circumstances who would like to invest a few dollars in an Institution of this kind. It is to such people that I intend this announcement shall appeal. I am offering a block of the Treasury Stock of this company to the public at its par value. My reasons for doing this are that I wish to erect a building and to extend the business of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

I WANT YOU AS MY PARTNER

I need your help and suggestion. I want you to work with me and help me to secure a tremendous amount of new business.

I believe that if you could talk with me personally and go over the records of the business which I have done, see in black and white the figures which show the steady growth my business has experienced during the past ten years, examine my plans for future extension, and then look over the magnificent equipment of my Institute, and would want no further evidence that money put into my business would bring you the greatest possible returns consistent with safety and good management.

I ask you to write for my free book. I believe it will interest you. You have a few dollars tha you want to invest. Why let it stand idle earning only 3 or 4 per cent that Savings Bank pay their depositors? Put it to work. Join it with mine. This Company ought to pay at least.

VOL. XXXIII. NO 185. PETERBORO ONTARIO, TUESDAY AUGUST 8 1905 PRICE TWO CENTS

HUNDREDS OF OLD BOYS VISIT THE CITY

Peterboro Welcomed Her Sons of the Past, Who All Enjoyed the Day--Two Special Trains Arrived in The Morning with the Visitors on Board.

Yesterday the city was in the hands of, and owned by, Peterboro Old Boys, who one and all enjoyed their visit. It was remarked yesterday morning that a majority of the old boys were young boys; still many familiar and welcome faces were seen among the hundreds who had been arriving since Saturday evening, when many of them took advantage of the Oddfellows' excursion from Toronto to visit the city. A train of fourteen coaches left Toronto at two o'clock, and reached here shortly after six o'clock.

Those spent the Sunday visiting their friends here, and yesterday morning were up bright and early to welcome the Old Boys who arrived during the morning.

About 500 of the former residents of Peterboro from Toronto came to the city yesterday morning. They came in on a "double header" special and on the regular train at 11.40. By a misunderstanding the special train which was due to leave the Union Station at 8 o'clock pulled out at 7.15, and the result was that a great many who had intended to come to spend the day here were unable to do so from this reason.

Two specials ran to Lindsay with the Victoria Old Boys, and a number of those who missed the first train came to Lindsay on one of their specials and from there they came in on the regular.

The visitors were all highly pleased with the enthusiastic and representative crowds that gathered at every arriving train yesterday. The city was decorated to some extent, as well as could be expected perhaps, without the authorities opening the public purse. What the decorations lacked in variety and splendor was perhaps in part, atoned for by the simple yet touching character of the mottoes displayed across the principal streets. Among those mottoes were noticed:

Welcome!
Home, Sweet Home.
We don't forget you when you are away.
Shake, we are glad to see you.
Come back and stay with us.
The day we celebrate.
Come back again.

And others, some of which were not displayed as the tie strings ran out, such as "The Council bids you welcome but don't spend;" "Economy ahead of progress," and others of a similar nature.

Mayor Best and the Reception Committee of the City Council were at the station yesterday morning on the arrival of the trains and were active in shaking hands with the Old Boys and their friends. As the trains pulled in and the people stepped out upon the platform, the 57th Band, in full uniform, in honor of the occasion, played appropriate airs including "The Boys of the Old Brigade." Many of those who came in on Saturday, caught the train for Lakefield and enjoyed an outing with their friends at the lakes. The rapidity with which the visitors distributed themselves was remarkable, and shows that many a local hearthside keeps a place ready and waiting for the absentees.

As the body of the bulk of visitors was divided into two train loads, the intended procession was abandoned, as was the formal reception that was to have been held in Central Park.

Those who welcomed the Old Boys on behalf of the city were; His Worship, Mayor Best, Ald. Leary, chairman of the Reception Committee; Alderman Adams, Hicks, Mason and Henley. The Mayor gave the following address of welcome to the Old Boys at the station:

Ladies and Gentlemen—

It is with especial pleasure that I welcome you to Peterboro on behalf of the Council, and on behalf of the citizens of Peterboro. We are always pleased to receive visitors, but when these visitors as is the case to-day, are our own boys and girls, former citizens and neighbors, who have come back to see the old town, our pleasure is greatly increased. Some of you have been away for a longer, and some of you for a shorter time, but whether long or short you will see changes. Time passes rapidly and always brings changes, and we are glad to be able to say that the alterations in your old home have been those of advancement. Peterboro has grown. Her borders have been extended, her population increased, and new factories, new homes, and new business houses have been erected. We know you feel an interest still in Peterboro, your presence here proves that if any proof were needed; and you can look with satisfaction upon the signs of advancement that you will see throughout the city. In the deliberations of the Council and public bodies, if you listened to them, you would hear familiar subjects discussed. We are still trying to get the Trent Valley Canal completed, and we still talk of erecting a new Collegiate Institute building. These things will come, and with the completion of the historic waterway, we will look for further advantages. In the meantime we will not be on our oars, and with the same enterprise and energy that our citizens have shown in the past, Peterboro will continue on the road of growth and progress.

Let me repeat that we give you a hearty welcome. We hope that your visit will be most pleasant and that you will again before long give us the pleasure of welcoming you to your old home in which all feel such a deep interest.

REPLY TO WELCOME.

To the address of welcome delivered by Mayor Best, the following reply has been made by Mr. Clarence Bell, president of the Peterboro County Old Boys' Association of Toronto, made the following reply;—

Mr. Mayor, Aldermen of the City of Peterboro, Ladies and Gentlemen.

On behalf of the Peterboro County Old Boys' Association, no words that I can offer can in the least suggest to you our appreciation of the hearty welcome and the kind words contained in your address. While it is pleasant at all times to revisit the scenes of one's childhood and meet again old friends it is doubly so when greeted with flying banners and a band.

It was most unfortunate that the railway company found it necessary to divide our party into two sections, otherwise we would have been able to show you our numbers in a large procession. Nevertheless we have brought with us 600 persons to enjoy your hospitality, including in the county.

We note with great satisfaction the evidences on every side of the prosperity of which you speak; and it was with no little pride that we learned of the old town's elevation to the status of a city.

We congratulate you, Mr. Mayor and aldermen, on being the first executive of the new city.

The mention of the Trent Valley Canal and the old Collegiate Institute, recall old memories to even the most ancient of us, and we trust with you that some day in the near future you will inform us upon our return that both have been completed.

We will go back to-night with pleasant memories of our visit, made doubly so by your reception, with an increased loyalty to the county of our birth, and with the hope that the progress of your pace, great as it has been, will be far outstripped by the growth and prosperity of the future.

The greater number of our visitors returned last night by the special trains, but quite a number remained over until this morning.

The ball match at Riverside Park furnished amusement for quite a number of our guests, and although Peterboro was defeated 5—6, by a Toronto team, the general sympathy, even of our Toronto visitors, was with the Peterboro team.

Warlike Measures Being Carried Out.

Powerful New Guns are Being Mounted at Metz--Special Night Trains Conveying Projectiles for New Artillery.

London, Aug. 8.—The Paris correspondent of the Times says;—French correspondents at Metz call attention to the fact that important work is being rapidly pushed forward, and will probably be completed before the end of September on the Metz forts. Marine guns of much longer range than the present artillery are being placed in position. They command the French railway routes from Lagny to Nancy, Conflans, Longuyon, and Verdun, and with these guns communications between Nancy and Verdun could be rendered impracticable. It is said that special trains are arriving nightly with projectiles for the new artillery.

FRENCH AND ENGLISH MONEY

It is Helping China in Railway Development

Washington, Aug. 8.—Despite the disposition of China to build her railways without foreign aid, the State Department is calling attention to the foreign commercial venture recently launched under British auspices. Last September, the American minister at Pekin, in reference to the Canton-Hankow Railway, communicated to the State Department the information that the Chinese government had promised that British and American capitalists should have preference, if foreign capital were found necessary in extending the railway to Chung King. The department states it is now in receipt of advice that English and French capitalists have come to an agreement with a view to joining in the construction line to Szechuan.

Preparing for the Wheat Crop

Toronto, Aug. 8.—Mr. Stanley G. Mills, of this city, engaged as civil engineer on the double track operations of the Canadian Pacific Railway between Port William and Winnipeg, writing home, says that the railway company appear to be sending all available cars and engines out to handle the wheat crop. Sveral extras go through daily, some having as many as seventy cars, almost all empty. Every freight train, Mr. Mills says, has at least two threshing machines on flat cars, and as many threshing engines.

WHERE MONEY WENT TO

Equitable Loan Mastery is Partially Solved

New York, Aug. 8.—The mystery attached to the use made of $685,000 Equitable loan, in the Mercantile Trust Company, was partly solved yesterday, when three payments were disclosed by persons having knowledge of the matter. A large part of the fund was paid out for the following purposes;—

The purchase of eighty-nine shares of the Equitable Life Assurance Society stock, to prevent it falling into undesirable hands. Settlement of embarrassing suits, brought by policyholders to determine their share of surplus, and other suits termed blackmailing actions, and contributions to both Republican and Democratic parties.

Five incandescent lights have been placed on Rogers street, fifth ward, south of Hunter street, and this hitherto darkened thoroughfare can be travelled with ease and comfort at night.

Police Court

OFFICIALS
Chief of Police, G. L. Reed
Magistrate, D. W. Dunlop

The first case at yesterday's police court was the fourth case laid within two weeks against a local hotelman.

It will be remembered that a boy, 17 years old, by name Chas. Forsythe, gave evidence last week that he had obtained liquor from the hotelkeeper in question during illegal hours. The chief laid a complaint against the hotelman of having attempted to intimidate the witness Forsyth.

Chas. Forsyth, the first witness, was in town between the time he was subpoenaed and the hotelman's trial. Came in with Harold Coon. Henry Govell, who also were subpoenaed as witnesses. Went to the hotel. Saw the proprietor in the alleyway, when he was with Coons. Hotelman asked him did he say anything to P. C. Stewart about his house. Hotelman said the first man who said he got a glass of liquor in his house, he would "put him down for it." Thought if he came here and swore a lie "youse would put me down."

The next witness was Harold Coon, of Bridgenorth, who was subpoenaed as a witness in a liquor case against the hotelman who was fined twice last week. He swore that on Tuesday afternoon he was at the hotel in question. The hotelman asked him if he though Forsyth was going to swear against the house. Told him he did not know. Told him to bring Forsyth down to see him. Brought him down that night. Proprietor called the two of them apart and said if any one man swore against the hotel. "he and the rest of the bunch would send him down." Witness told him he did not know which way he would swear. Does not know his age.

P. C Stewart in the box said; Served Coon and Forsyth with the subpoenas. The chief prosecuted the case, with Mr. G. W Hatton for the defence.

Mr. Hatton submitted that the alleged conversation between the hotelman and the witness had no bearing on the case. That nothing can be taken for granted under the act, as there was no particular act or date mentioned as being referred to. Submitted a case of the Regina vs. Lawrence, in which this section of the act was decided to be ultra vires. His Worship thinks the evidence was too vague to justify a conviction. The charge is a serious one and requires very straight evidence. The expression "putting him down" is too vague. Could not make a conviction on the evidence. Case dismissed.

The next case was that of two very small boys named respectively Gordon Bennett and Robt. McKnight, charged with doing malicious damage to a pipe belonging to Chas. Duranceau. The two juveniles pleaded not guilty. Mr. La Plante, representing the boys, examined Mr. Duranceau. Had a sole pipe in the new Separate School building; he having the plumbing contract. On Saturday night found the pipe plugged up with sand, mortar and wood. Could not remove the obstructions. Had to take the flume away and remove some brick work down to get at the pipe. Had to take three lengths apart. Cost him at least $7. Mr. Carveth was next witness. Was at the new Separate School building last Saturday evening. Saw the two boys charged that evening near the pipe Suspected the boys were up to some mischief and asked their names. Did not see the boys thieving anything or stuffing the pipes. His Worship gave the boys a lecture and let them go.

* * * *

Yesterday a local marble cutter called at the police station and pleaded guilty to a charge of having through too copious libations, a few evenings ago, passed the line between controlled hilarity and noisy drunkenness. This will save costs and some witnesses the time and trouble of attending court this morning.

Of Local Interest.

A Lindsay Man, Mr. Alex. Horn, Thinks That Gull River Will be Connected with T.V.C.

The Minden Echo, in referring to a possible feeder to one of our greatest local works, says;

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Horn, of Lindsay passed through Minden a few days ago on their way up the Gull river waters on a canoeing trip. Mr. Horn is the president of the Horn Bros. Woollen Co., Limited, and a member of the Council of the Lindsay Board of Trade, and he is a strong advocate for the proposed improvements to make these waters navigable, thus extending navigation over sixty miles towards the head waters of the Trent, which would naturally bring a large amount of business to the Trent Valley Canal System. He is combining his holiday trip through the scenic grandeur of this section of the country and utilizing his observation powers to secure all the information possible regarding the obstructions which would have to be removed, and in the personal interview with him we ascertained that he looks upon the obstructions as trifling compared with the tremendous results to be achieved by their removal. Mr. Horn feels confident that the Government will accede to the request of the many petitions for a proper survey of the whole route and after securing such information he is no less confident that the facts will warrant the outlay which will bring such benefits not only to the present, but also to the future generations.

WHY TOGO WON BIG SEA FIGHT

Wonderful Accuracy of Japanese Gun Fire

STRAIGHT SHOOTING TOLD

While Speed was in Togo's Favor During Manouveres

London, Aug. 8.—George Keenan was able to get from the Japanese government permission to see the Russian naval officers who were captured in the battle of the straights. He had a long talk—the substance of which is printed in the last Outlook—with the officers of the Orel, which fell into the hands of the Japanese and is now at the naval station of Maizuru. He asked them to give the reasons for Rojestvensky's crushing defeat, and they did it with frankness.

One of the reasons assigned was the surprising and extraordinary accuracy of the Japanese gunfire at long range. This the officers took on as the decisive factor in the contest. The fire of the Japanese was a little wild at first but in a few minutes, though four miles off, they got the range with great accuracy and struck the leading battleships of the two Russian squadrons with almost every shot, in marksmanship the Russians were hopelessly outclassed.

Mr. Kennan went over the Orel and saw for himself the deadly precision of the Japanese fire and the destructiveness of the shells loaded with Shimose powder. To the peculiarities of these projectiles the Russian officers largely attribute the disabling of their ships. The shells burst into hundreds of small pieces—some of them so small that they enter the tiniest cracks and cut to pieces not only iron partition walls and decks but speaking tubes, electric wires and every other medium of transmitting power or sending orders that has not a heavy covering of steel.

Another cause of the defeat was the superior speed of the Japanese vessels which enabled them to fight at ranges of their own choosing. The officers of the Orel tried to crowd Togo's ships up toward the land so as to get near them, but "they were too fast for us. They circled around ahead of us and knocked us to pieces at such long ranges that we were barely able to see them through the mist."

The officers agree that their ships were overwhelmed and defeated by gunfire long before a torpedo boat was brought into action. It was only after night came and the Russian formation had been broken, that the torpedo boats did good service. But it is admitted that Rojestvensky would have been defeated even if Togo had had no torpedo boats. The Japanese torpedo practice, as a rule, was not good, hits being made only when the Japanese close up to disabled ships.

The conclusion to be drawn from the story of the Russian officers is that the battleship is still the king of the fleet. The torpedo boat, instead of supplanting it, retains the subordinate place which the best naval experts have persistently assigned it. Where there are on both sides battleships armed with equally powerful guns vicinity will, presumably, fall to the combatant whose marksmanship is the best. The man behind the gun will be responsible for success or failure. The Japanese take more kindly to the water than the Russians, but their gunners had also had the benefit of continuous practice.

If the battleship with the best gunners have also superior speed, its opponent will be unable to close with it. It will have to submit to being hammered at long range until disabled. The fastest vessel, if inferior in other respects, may at least be able to get away.

The United States needs, and must have, an adequate number of battleships. They must be as swift as, if not swifter than, those of any other nation. They must be armed with guns as good as, or better than, those on any foreign ships. They must be provided with explosives as effective as the Shimose shells. The gun crews must have practice enough to make them expert gunners no matter what the cost of the ammunition used may be. When these conditions are complied with this country will have a navy, indeed, and need fear no foe. Admiral Evans says it has now only "the nucleus of a navy."

Loss by Fire

Ex-Superintendent Ford of Little Lake Cemetery Has His House and Contents Burned.

Many of our readers will remember that Mr. Ford was once superintendent of the Little Lake Cemetery in this city, but now of Mount Pleasant. A Toronto despatch referring to this gentleman says.

"The substantial two-storey and attic brick dwelling of Superintendent Ford of Mount Pleasant Cemetery was almost completely destroyed by fire Friday night. There was no one in the house at the time the fire began, and the origin is not known.

"Two boys passing about 10 o'clock observed smoke issuing from the basement and promptly gave the alarm, the North Toronto brigade arriving with their hose wagon in a few minutes. Fearing that the frame residence adjoining, would become ignited, and that the blaze might gain dangerous spread a telephone call was sent into Yonge street station, the chemical engine responding and doing good work.

Only the walls of the caretaker's house were left standing, and the loss including contents is estimated at about $4,500.

FRANCE CONFIDENT PEACE IS NEAR

Pins Its Faith to President Roosevelt to End the War

MUCH FINANCIAL ACTIVITY

Preparing to Place Russian Loans to Meet the Indemnity

Paris, Aug. 8.—In spite of pessimistic reports from St. Peterburg and Oyster Bay, the French official world continues to believe that peace will result from M. Witte's visit to the United States. It is thought there that Russian expressions of doubt are merely meant to influence the Japanese and soften the conditions on which peace will be granted.

"Much depends upon President Roosevelt," said M. Paul Deschanel, who has just been made chairman of the foreign committee chamber of deputies, to your correspondent this morning.

"I venture to say that it would be a great disappointment to the Mikado and the Czar, if, when their representatives meet, they are unable to agree, and President Roosevelt allows them to depart and the war to continue. We have grown accustomed to consider Roosevelt too great a man for this to be the outcome of the conference. It is not too much to say that Europe expects peace from Roosevelt more than from the conference. He is the one man in the world who is able successfully to end the conflict. It is, from this point of view that the French gain their unshaken faith that peace is impending. However, they also attach weight to the statements of best informed writers that Japan is at its last gasp, financially and economically and knows itself to be in no condition to demand too much of Russia.

"That peace is thought certain is shown by the activity of bankers with whom M. Witte consulted when he was in Paris. While he has been invisible that he ever saw them, they are busily surveying the financial ground with a view to placing the probable Russian loans made necessary by an indemnity."

—The "Incubator," a Charlitte street rookery, between George St. and Aylmer street, on the south side of the street is at last tenantless. This old plaster building is at least old enough to vote, and has always been tenanted but now is empty—of human beings.

The City Fathers in Regular Session.

Complaints Lodged That Street Watering is Not Being Properly Executed--Routine Business.

The City Fathers met in regular session last night, when there were present:—Mayor Henry Best, and Aldermen Johnston, Begley, Hicks, Mason, Crowe, Leary, Hall, Tovey McIntyre, Scott and Adams.

COMPLAINTS OF STREET WATERING.

A north end citizen wrote, complaining that Water street north is not properly watered. This work is under contract to T. Blodgett, and citizens in this locality assert that he positively refuses to water but one side of the street north of the railway track.

Ald. Adams pointed out that there being no standpipe beyond the track, it would be a hardship to expect Mr. Blodgett to thoroughly water the section of the town in question.

Ald. Hicks replied that Blodgett does not even properly water his section where standpipes are convenient. He thought the plumbing inspector might find time, according to his agreement to see that the watering contracts are properly executed.

His Worship thought this the City Engineer's duty, and if he can afford time to make up the petty pay sheets of the street commissioner, surely he might be expected to see that the streets are thoroughly watered. The contracts are let subject to his supervision.

Ald. Mason said that at the corner of Argyle street, in the neighborhood of which citizens live, who are lodging this particular complaint, there is a standpipe.

Several of the aldermen here pointed out that none of the street watering contracts are being properly executed, and the matter was referred to the Board of Works.

SECOND STREET LIGHTING CONTRACT.

Dennistoun, Peck, Kerr & Stevenson wrote that a report of the Fire, Water and Light Committee, recommending a contract with the Otonabee Power Co., for street lighting, if accepted, will interfere with the rights of the Peterboro Light and Power Co., who have the exclusive contract for street lighting. The latter company under agreement are entitled to any extension of territory to be covered by street lamps, the rates already agreed upon.

This refers to the incandescent lights recently erected here and there, and the Town Solicitor had offered his opinion that as the Peterboro Light and Power Co's contract only specified are lights, the city were perfectly safe in entering into an agreement with any other company for incandescent lamps.

This matter was referred to the Fire, Water and Light Committee.

COMMUNICATIONS.

A petition from the second-hand dealers to have their license fee abolished, was not acted on.

The Peterboro Cereal Company asked the privelege of putting in a light verandah along the north end of their mills as a protection to grain, flour and cereals from unfavorable weather. This was granted subject to the removal of the structure on a given notice from the City.

From the Board of Education asking that Chief Rosel be reappointed truant officer at a salary of $50. This was referred to the Finance Committee for enquiry as to the law in this respect.

A number of petitions for granolithic sidewalks were referred to the Board of Works.

The Otonabee Power Co's request for permission to erect 60 new poles was referred to the Committee of the Whole Council with power to act.

From Dumble & Johnston stating that the mother of the late Margaret A. Lacey had instructed them to seek compensation from the City, because of the drowning of the girl on June 8th last by falling through a hole in the old London street bridge, which was then under the supervision of the City.—Legal Committee.

From A. P. Peausette stating that his client, Thomas W. Hubel of Smith, claimed damages from the City for injury to his horse which broke through Brock street bridge on July 5th last—Legal Committee.

TO AMEND BUILDING BY-LAW.

Ald. Johnston submitted the following report;

To the Council of the City of Peterboro—

Gentlemen,—Your Fire, Water and Light Committee beg leave to report as follows;—

1. We recommend that Ald. Adams act on this committee during the absence of Ald. Hall.

2.—Your committee received tenders for a new steam fire engine and left that matter in abeyance until further enquiries had been made.

3. We instructed the City Solicitor to prepare a by-law to amend the Building by-law so as to permit of the erecting of sheds of one storey in height in the fire limits of 9-inch brick walls.

4. We received a verbal request from Mr. R. H Bradburn in regard to a modification of the Building By-law with respect to the construction of a wall in the new opera house building, but requested Mr. Bradburn to be governed by the provisions of the by-law.

5. We considered an offer from the Otonabee Power Co. to furnish incandescent lights for $10 a year each and recommend that an agreement be entered into with the Otonabee Power Company for such incandescent lights for street lighting as the Council may desire to order from the company at the rate of $10 a year for lamps of 32-candle power, the company to furnish the lamps and all material required and do all the work and keep the lights lighted all night and every night in the years the company not to be compelled to put in lights at a greater distance than 500 feet from an existing incandescent line of the company, and the agreement to contain a provision that the rights of the City to do its own lighting at any time will not be prejudiced by allowing the company to do street lighting.

The report was adopted, except clause 5, which was referred back to the committee.

WHOLE COUNCIL REPORT.

Ald. Johnston submitted the following report;—

To the Council of the City of Peterboro;

Gentlemen,—Your committee of the Whole Council beg leave to report as follows;—

1. We recommend that the question of purchasing a stone crusher be referred to the Board of Works to enquire into.

2. Your committee referred the question of purchasing a new fire engine to the Fire, Water and Light Committee with power to send a deputation to inspect an engine or engines. Later your committee arranged with Mr. E. Gibbs to visit Brantford and London and inspect fire engines made at those cities and report to this committee and recommend that the expenses be paid on the certificate of the Mayor or the Chairman of the Fire, Water and Light Committee.

3. We authorized the Reception Committee to expend $50 in the reception of the Old Boys' excursionists on August 7th.

4. We authorized the chairman of the Fire, Water and Light Committee to arrange for the removal of the refuse from the fire hall stable.

5. We recommend that Ald. Leary act as chairman of the Supervision Committee, and that Ald. Adams act on that committee during the absence of Ald. Hall.

The report was adopted excepting clause two, which was referred back to the committee. The Council on further consideration have decided that it would be expedient for either the Chief of the Fire Brigade or some member or members of the Council to accompany Mr. Gibbs to London and Brantford to inspect the fire engines made in those cities.

Ald. Hicks moved, seconded by Ald. Mason,—that Ald. Hall, Johnston and the Mayor be a deputation to inspect the London and Brantford engines, with power to secure expert advice. Ald. Hick's name was added to this motion, which then carried.

OUTFALL SEWER.

On motion of Ald. Adams, seconded by Ald. Scott, the Board of Works were authorized to purchase a strip of land 12 feet wide on James street from Mrs. C. I. Davidson, for the sum of $75, as a means of protection to a section of the outfall sewers.

His Worship raised the point that if many more unlooked for expenditures connected with this sewer crop up the $10,000 general tax provided for for this work will be considerably exceeded.

BLANKETS FOR AMBULANCE.

Ald. Batten, Chairman of Property Committee, reported that white blankets are needed to replace the grey ones now used with the Dan Spence ambulance, and moved in that direction.—Carried.

CHANGE OF LOTS.

Ald. McIntyre moved, seconded by Ald. Batten, that a committee be appointed to confer with the Board of Education with a view to inducing the Government to exchange the southern lot of the old Separate school grounds, recently acquired for an armories for the northern half, acquired by the School Board for Institute purposes. This exchange of lots is desired so that the old Separate

Bitter, Black, Bile and how Right Food Corrects It

Biliousness, from incorrect food opens the way for an outfit of derangements of not only the body but the mind as well.

The world is a dark or gloomy place to the victim, wether millionaire or mendicant.

The wife of the head of a great insurance office in an Eastern city, was cured, completely, of this wretched affliction by the use of Grape-Nuts. She says;

"For years I was a constant sufferer from billousness and extreme constipation and I suffered from the most dreadful headaches once a week, which sometimes lasted 3 or 4 days at a time. Grape-Nuts food came to my notice about 5 years ago. I liked it from the first and began to use it because I liked it, without any thought that it might help my health. To my surprise I noted that after a short time all my ailments began to decrease, and they gradually but surely disappeared. I am now, and have been for years, completely free from them and enjoy perfect health.

"Everyone in my house now eats Grape-Nuts regularly, even my little two-year-old girl likes it with her Postum Coffee (another thing we are never without) and prefers it to any other cereal. It pulled her through a difficult period of teething during the hot weather — she never refused Grape-Nuts when other food could not tempt her to eat. It is the first food I intend to give to my baby boy when I wean him.

"My husband eats more Grape-Nuts food at every meal than of any other one dish. He says it never palls on him, and he finds that it regulates his bowels perfectly." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Read the evidence of Jno. Carter, 64 King St. East, Toronto, who says:

"After a severe attack of grippe my health was almost shattered. I suffered constantly from nervousness and dyspepsia. At night I would waken with terrible palpitation and heart pains. Work became a great effort. At ten in the morning I was so tired and weak I could hardly work another minute.

"Then came a bad attack of rheumatism which laid me up in bed. I could scarcely lift the weight of a pound and to stoop or bend was impossible. My druggist recommended Ferrozone, and he knew what he was talking about, for it rebuilt my strength, gave me abundant appetite, better blood, and new nerve energy. The rheumatism has disappeared. I weigh more, feel refreshed and vigorous, and am able to work ten hours a day. Ferrozone did it all."

AFFAIRS IN SOUTH AFRICA

Some forty Canadian ladies went to South Africa in 1902 as teachers. One of these, Miss Dutcher, of St. John, N. B., has returned, and her report of conditions in that land is not very encouraging. The condition of the Orange River Colony at the present time, says Miss Dutcher, may be briefly expressed, quiet but not content, work but not prosperity. It will be many years before the country recovers from the disastrous effects of the war and becomes its former self. The people are not talking war, rumors to the contrary notwithstanding, but they are by no means satisfied with certain British methods of administration. Three years ago at any sort of public gathering, if the national anthem were to be sung, all the Boers left the hall. At the present time they have been so far pacified that numbers remain during the singing of the anthem, but she has never seen any of the Boers take part in it. The natural feeling of the vanquished against the victors has disappeared in so far as talk of further rebellion is concerned, but has grown into a sullen and almost general discontent.

To any one in Canada contemplating a change to South Africa, Miss Dutcher's advice is to stay where they are. Owing to the general depression many people are out of work. Chinese labor is yet in the experimental stage. Already these Orientals, working at lower wages than Kaffirs, have thrown the latter out of employment by hundreds. As these go back to their homes their condition becomes an element of discontent.

In school matters, a satisfactory system has been developed, all the schools being at last brought under [illegible]. In every district the school is directly controlled by a committee of residents, half of whom are appointed by the people and half by the department. When a teacher is required, a list of those available is secured by the department to the district and from this list a choice is made, which choice must be approved by the director. Formerly the government paid all the salaries, but under new regulations which came in force on the first of the present month, each district is called upon to pay a portion of the salary. As the wealth of the district increases the people will be expected to pay a larger share of the school expenses. Dual language has been allowed in the school work, English and Dutch being given equal attention, which English is the medium of instruction.

Miss Dutcher testifies that in all its dealings with the people of South Africa, the British Government has acted generously, and has done far more than it promised in the terms of peace. Whatever hardships the people now suffer, of whatever longer they have sustained, are much less hard and less serious than might have been the case had any country other than Britain been the conqueror.

JAPAN'S GENEROSITY

The distinguished Japanese diplomats talk pleasantly about the terms of peace. Japanese have the habit of talking pleasantly about everything. Japan will be very moderate in its demands, they say. So moderate, in fact, that no one can doubt Russia's acceptance.

Of course it must be a peace satisfactory to the Japanese people, who are steadfast believers in the righteousness of the war and are willing and able to continue it. Perhaps they would just a little rather continue it, we deduce from the interviews of the diplomats.

Naturally, having captured Saghalien Island, they will insist on keeping that; and Port Arthur and Dalny. And Russia will have to acknowledge Japan's "undisputed" suzerainty of Korea. And, of course, Russia will have to pay an indemnity of, say, three-quarters of a billion, to cover Japan's expenses. Japan just takes these propositions for granted, and assumes that all the world must.

When it comes to disputed questions Japan doesn't know just what to say. It wants to be fair above all things. Its plans for Manchuria and Vladivostok, disposition of the interned ships, rights to the Russian railways in Southern Manchuria and the Province of Manchuria itself are not wholly formulated, but the envoys and diplomats suggest that it would be fair for the victorious nation to keep all the spoils. With this generous suggestion comes the assurance to all the Powers that the policy in Manchuria will be for the open door.

Considering Japan's unqualified liberality, poor Russia will be in universal bad odor if it doesn't promptly agree to whatever Japan proposes. Russia ought to consider itself lucky to retain St. Petersburg and Moscow, we infer. Magnanimous Nippon! Foxy Nippon!

THE OLD SUNDAY LAW

It seems that, notwithstanding the recent inaction of the privy council on the Sunday law question, we still have a Sunday law. The Toronto News says: "John A. Paterson, K.C., writes to the press contradicting an assertion that there is now no Sunday law in the province, and quoting a judgment of Chief Justice Armour to the effect that the profanation of the Lord's day is an offence against religion, that this is a 'crime' and therefore properly belongs to the parliament of Canada. The Ontario act is therefore ultra vires, and the law of old Canada is still in force, never having been repealed by competent authority. Under this law there was a pretty strict observance of the Lord's day, and yet it must have been a law that commended itself to Lower Canada as well as Upper Canada, at a time when the two were equally represented in the legislature. Under these circumstances, the making of a new federal law may not be as difficult as was supposed.

MAGISTRATE DALY RETIRES

He Won Fame in the Hot Scotch Incident

Kingston, Aug. 7.—The police magistrate of Napanee, James Daly, has resigned, after eighteen years' service and will live a retired life. He goes to British Columbia next week on a visit. Mr. Daly was the magistrate who last December insisted upon the evidence being taken in the case of the Napanee hotelman who pleaded guilty to selling liquor after hours, and in which case it was shown that Premier Whitney had enjoyed a hot Scotch in his room after the town clock had tolled the eleventh hour at night.

Express Robbery at Sudbury, Ont.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Aug. 7.—The Western Express Company was robbed of $800 at Sudbury. The money was addressed to the Traders' Bank of Canada. Officers tracked the money to both Spots, where it had been spent. It is supposed to have been taken while the man in charge was investigating the fatal accident to a man on the railroad.

The Intend Visit of the British Fleet

Berlin, Aug. 7.—With reference to the intended visit of the British fleet to the Baltic, the Deutsche Tageszeitung publishes a violent anti-English article. It declares Germany poses the key to the Baltic and ought to give proof of its possession. The paper suggests that while the channel fleet is absent, the Kaiser should send his cruisers to the Irish channel.

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the North-west Territories, excepting 8 and 26, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one quarter section of 160 acres more or less.

ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

[1] At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

[2] If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

[3] If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

[4] If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of clauses [2], [3] or [4] must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 40 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd of June, 1889.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled and the land may again be thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at the Immigration Office in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

N. B.—In addition to Free Grant Lands, to which the Regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from railroad and other corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

How to Visit Colorado

Go first to Denver. It is the State capital, as well as the largest, wealthiest and most metropolitan city between the Missouri River and the Pacific Coast. The city itself is very interesting, and from it start practically all the trains over the various roads into the mountains.

Many of the most enjoyable one-day trips in Colorado begin and end at Denver. The cost of these little journeys is not great.

After you have familiarized yourself with Denver and its surroundings will be soon enough to decide where to go for the rest of your visit. The question must be considered from several standpoints—altitude, hotel accommodations, accessibility, amusements, etc.

Our Colorado literature will help you in deciding where to go and what to do. Sent free for the asking.

VARICOCELE CURED

NO NAMES USED WITHOUT WRITTEN CONSENT.

Confined to His Home for Weeks.

"Heavy work, severe straining and exposure in youth brought on a double varicocele. I could not stand the aching would become severe and I was often laid up for a week at a time. My family physician told me an operation was the only hope but I dreaded it. I tried several specialists, but soon found out all they wanted was my money. I commenced to look upon doctors as little better than fakers. One day my boss asked me why I was off work so much, and I told him my condition. He advised me to consult Drs. Kennedy and Kergan, as he had taken treatment from them himself and knew them to be honest and skilful. He sent them and got the New Method Treatment for me. My progress was somewhat slow and during the first month's treatment I was somewhat discouraged. However, I continued treatment for two months and was rewarded with a complete cure. I could only earn $18 a week as a machinist when I was ill, but now I can earning $21 and never lose a day. I wish all suffered here of your wonderful treatment."

Doctors Disagree

Rumors That Recent Decision of Local Medical Men is not as the Laws of the Medes and Persians

As noted in the columns of this journal recently, the medical men of Peterboro, a few weeks ago, in solemn conclave assembled, decided to quit all practice for, or connection with, the benevolent and fraternal societies and bodies who engage the services of a doctor. It is now rumored that there are traitors in the camp, and that some of those medical men adverse to this healing on the general average plan are looking through the spectacles of suspicion at one another, fearing that there may be backsliders to the agreement attained.

Referring to the matter a physician of many years experience and practice in Peterboro, is reported to have said:

"No, I am afraid the arrangement not to do lodge or factory work will fail to go through. Certain doctors who could easily live without any contract work appear to be getting what is known as cold feet. They are afraid outside physicians will be brought in or that all their brother practioners will not live up to both the letter and spirit of the new regulation. One or two are now arguing that it would not do to make an exception of railway work and they appear to be looking for other loop holes. If that is the spirit which is being manifested we might as well go on as we are and continue to do doctoring for fraternal and other societies. Unless the thing is going to be unanimous and unless each physician is willing to bind himself solemnly to observe the agreement in all its provisions, there is no use of a few of us trying to carry the arrangement out. I have talked with many members of secret and beneficiary societies and they would like to see the position of lodge physician abolished altogether, leaving the members free to go where they please for their medical attendance. Many fraternalists favor paying in lieu of free doctoring, an extra allowance of $1 per week to those who are ill."

In conversation with another leading physician yesterday, The Times was assured, contrary to general opinion that is not the younger medical men who hanker after lodge employment. The physician solemnly assured our representative that the younger men of the local medical fraternity are, to a unit, against employment by lodges and fraternities. The chief reason for this is that, with the feeling now dominating the leading physicians of the city, to take a "job" from a society will, after this not only mean a loss of prestige and standing, but will debar a doctor taking such contract work, from consultation and assistance with the more dignified medical men, to a great extent.

This would be of great disadvantage to the less experienced doctors beginning their professions.

SWEDISH PRINCE AS KING

King Oscar to Place a Swedish Prince on the Throne

Berlin, August 7.—An intimation has been conveyed to certain high officials of the German Government and to important members of the diplomatic corps in Berlin, that King Oscar is now secretly anxious to place a Swedish Prince on the throne of Norway.

The Kaiser's recommendation of the wisdom of such a step is said to have done much to weaken King Oscar's earlier prejudice against accepting Norway's invitation. Although the King, as recently as last week, passionately declared himself unwilling to supply the Norwegian "revolutionaries" with a Bernadotte King, unless Sweden should ask it, he is now said to cherish the earnest wish that the Swedish people would suppress their resentment and expressing themselves to a man, would permit him to send one of his sons to Christiania.

It is especially due to the Kaiser that King Oscar has been brought to understand that, were there Bernadotte Kings ruling at Stockholm and Christiania, there would be a unity of feeling throughout the Scandinavian Peninsula, far stronger than the late political union with all its controversies. Foreign Minister Lovland, of Norway has instructed the following personal message be sent to King Oscar:

"Tell his Majesty that the Norwegians wish, from the bottom of their hearts, for a Bernadotte King."

Young Man Who Had Eloped and Left his Spouse Wanted to go to Boston

St. John, N. B., Aug. 7.—Douglas Harkins, who eloped with Pearl Jackson from Tidnish Bridge and left here here to go to Boston, was turned back at Vanceboro, Me., not having sufficient money to enter the United States. Harkins reached St. John this morning and is still here. He has not yet made up his mind whether he will make another attempt to reach Boston or go back to Tidnish. He says the father of Pearl Jackson ordered her from the house several times. The last time he did so was on Monday. Harkins also says he will marry Pearl if he has to wait ten years for her. Pearl went back to Tidnish to-day.

In Stony Lake Against Their Will

On Saturday night four young ladies registered at Gilenwood who call Toronto "home," had a close call whilst bathing near Breese's. The bathing ground is surrounded by floating booms for security of those not adepts in the natatorical art, and whilst bathing the ladies did not observe that an off shore breeze had drifted the boom, beyond its usual place until their feet left the ground. Some young men noticing their plight saved them, but not without some difficulty. Mr. Arthur Wood had two spills from his sailing canoe on Saturday near McCracken's. The last time he had quite a swim before reaching shore.

"303" Wins Again.

Mr. Milne Hamilton Wins Second Series in the Dennistoun Flag Contest.

As will be remembered by our readers, Mr. Milne Hamilton, in the Chemong Park yacht race for the pennant presented by Mr. Dennistoun, won the first of the series the previous week. On Saturday the second race of the series was sailed under favorable auspices, both as regards wind and interest exhibited by spectators.

Mr. Milne Hamilton, was again successful with his speedy craft "303" but Mr. Hogwood made it close with the "Arrow," only one minute and a half separating the two. Mr. R. M. Dennistoun's boat was third.

The course was six miles in length and triangular in shape, the first buoy being off the Government wharf the second near the floating bridge, and the third near the Kuniomore shore. There was a splendid breeze blowing from the northwest and the race was a most exciting one.

Return That Cat.

Mrs. Bradburn, 658 Bethune Street Is Anxious to Get Back Her Kitten Stolen Recently.

Mrs. Cora Bradburn, who resides at 658 Bethune street, writes The Times to say that Saturday or Sunday evening, a little girl, accompanied by two ladies, carried away a Kitten belonging to one of her little girls. Mrs. Bradburn says her little girl is in such distress over the loss of her cat, she would consider it a personal favor if the parties taking the kitten away would return it.

It may seem a small matter to give publicity in the public press, but parents of small children are well aware that the loss of a favorite pet is often the cause of more grief to little ones than a large sum of money would be to their elders. If the party who took this cat away still has it, she should return it to the address without delay. The little owner of the kitten has already called at many houses in her neighborhood seeking her pet.

Wednesday's Game

The first home championship semi-final game will be played to-morrow afternoon between the Midland team and the locals. Little is known of the visitors, other than that they have won their district, and have not met defeat this season. They are picked as likely looking champions by the Midland people and others in that district, the locals however are determined to administer to them their first defeat and a hard contest is looked for. The return game will be played in Midland on Civic Holiday.

Weather Notes.

Baby Costs Too Much

When the price paid is the mother's health and happiness. The father doesn't realize as he romps with the child what years of wifely suffering must be set against the baby's laughter.

Chronic invalidism is a high price to pay for the painful joy of maternity, yet it is at such a cost that many a woman becomes a mother. Such a price is too much because it is more than nature asks.

By the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription maternity is made practically painless, and a quick convalescence is assured in almost every case.

$500 Reward for Women Who Cannot be Cured.

The proprietors and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

"There are thousands of sick women dragging out a weary, miserable existence, who would be well and happy did they but know my experience with Dr Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. Annie Lessman, Lady Commander Star of Bethlehem, Lodge No. 27, of 306 Jackson Street, Atlanta, Ga. "Four years ago I was nearly dead with inflammation and ulceration. I endured daily untold agony, and life was a burden to me. I had used medicines internally and externally until I had made up my mind that there was no relief in sight for me. A friend of mine endorsed your Favorite Prescription, and I determined then to give it a trial. It took patience and perseverance for I was in a bad condition, and had to use your medicine for nearly four months before I was cured, but what a change it brought; from despair to happiness, from misery to the delightful, exhilarating feeling that only health brings. I would not change back for a thousand dollars. Your 'Prescription' is a grand medicine. I wish every sick woman would only try it and be convinced."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription contains no alcohol and is entirely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics.

The dealer who offers a substitute for "Favorite Prescription" does so to gain the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines. His profit is your loss; therefore, accept no substitute. Dr. Pierce's Pellets regulate the bowels.

Old "Eye-Sore" Gone.

Fire Destroys Old Log Shack at Corner of Aylmer and Sherbrooke Streets.

Last night about 10.15 the fire brigade was called out to extinguish a fire at the corner of Sherbrooke and Aylmer streets. When the brigade reached the scene of action, they found an old log building, one of Peterboro's land marks, built before the invention of saw mills, erected entirely of hickory and iron-wood poles, enveloped in flames. It was remarked by an eye-witness, a resident of Sherbrooke street, that it would have taken all the waters of the Otonabee to extinguish the fire.

The firemen, seeing the futility of playing water on the old shack turned their attentions to saving the nearby buildings of Mr. Hamilton, and worked like trojans in their successful efforts. The origion of the fire is supposed to be from lighting or spontaneous combustion.

Was Arrest Legal?

Little Ten-Year-Old Boy Arrested During Progress of Ball Game

During the progress of yesterday's ball game a number of small boys between the ages of ten and twelve years, were endeavoring, as all boys do, to witness the game from a bridge outside the grounds, the property of Mr. Calcutts, used as a driveway to the brewery.

The constable on duty in the grounds, it is alleged, took upon himself to chase the boys from their lofty perch, the little chaps fled and the one singled out by the constable to catch, ran up onto a heap of coal near the brewery, when threats of the constable brought him to a halt. He was immediately arrested and locked up by his captor. The parents of the boy are naturally very indignant over this petty piece of authority shown by the constable towards children of such an age, and demand that the charge be pressed against the boy, if any, if not proceedings will be taken against the constable.

school can be used for Public school purposes.—Carried.

Ald. Hicks moved that this committee be composed of Messrs. Adams, Scott, Leary, Tovey, McIntyre and Hatten. Ald. Leary to be chairman.—Carried.

A by-law to authorize the execution of an agreement with John Gibson for stone crushing, passed its several readings.

Ald. Crowe's by-law to regulate the moving of buildings on the streets passed its several readings. For this kind of work the engineer's permission must be secured and a tax of a dollar a day will be charged. The City will also be indemnified against any damages which may accrue from such removals.

Ald. Johnston's by-law to amend the building by-law by permitting the erection of 9-inch fire walls instead of 12-inch walls within the fire limits for sheds of brick, stone or concrete not exceeding one story high, and not less than 25 feet high from the street line.

Ald. Adams moved, seconded by Ald. Batten, that the engineer be authorized to put in a culvert on the boundary between Otonabee and the city, east of Downer's Corners.—Carried.

EAST PETERBORO.

Ald. Batten suggested the propriety of calling Ashburnham East Peterboro instead of No. Five Ward. Would be more intelligible to all, particularly to strangers. No action was taken.

Ald. Johnston asked that the street commissioner be authorized to put in a crossing north of London street on Downie street. This was left in the hands of the Board of Works.

The Council then adjourned.

TEN YEARS

The Story of My Wonderful Success.

Reads Like a Fairy Tale-Yet Full of Convincing Truths

An Opportunity of a Lifetime for the Investor.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF IT.

I ask every reader of this paper to write me. I want to send you my free book entitled "Ten Years"—"The Story of My Wonderful Success." It tells about one of the greatest and most promising investment opportunities ever offered. It tells how my business grew from less than $25.00 capital to its present proportions.

I believe I have the best proposition from an investor's standpoint that could be placed before you. For ten years I have been teaching men and women to live according to the laws of Nature. My book is the history of my life. It shows what energy and ambition can accomplish in the world of affairs. It is intensely interesting to any man or woman who has a few dollars to invest in a legitimate enterprise.

I started business in the City of Brooklyn in 1896. My capital amounted to less than $25.00. My first year's business netted me over $1,000.00. Last year I paid dividends to my partners of 15 per cent. Five years ago my business had grown so large that I was compelled to remove to larger quarters. I am now at 63-65 Clark St., Brooklyn, N.Y.—in connection with Hotel St. George. Experts pronounce my institution to be the best appointed of its kind in the country. I estimate the equipment of the Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture to be worth at least $40,000.00.

I want to have a building of my own that will enable me to accommodate my increasing business. To erect this building I need capital, but more important than this to increase my business to the proportions which I desire, I need the co-operation of men and women throughout the country and the world.

Co-operation is the Secret of Success

I recognize it. I believe that with thousands of co-operators throughout the country I can build my business to tremendous proportions to the benefit of the shareholders and myself.

The Mac Levy Company is incorporated under the laws of New York for $150,000.00. They are proprietors of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

The last named branch of the business of the Mac Levy Company is comparatively new. I have been at work for several years to establish such a department in connection with teaching Physical Culture. The most difficult part of forming the Equipment Company has been accomplished. The business is now in condition to be pushed on a large scale. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are spent yearly on new gymnasiums and their equipment. The profits are large. A company of this kind has an immense field in which to work. Competition is slight. It is evident that the Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company can build an enormous business.

The Mac Levy Company operates during the summer months at Steeplechase Park, Coney Island, and at Averne Hotel, Averne-by-the-Sea, L. I., as well as at our Brooklyn Institute. It also does an extensive mail business. I teach people how they should live and exercise. My students are scattered all over the United States, and in English speaking countries.

A PROBLEM

which arrises in the minds of every man and woman is how to secure a comfortable income in the earlier years of their life, that they may reap the full benefits which such an income affords.

I have long thought that there are hundreds of people in moderate circumstances who would like to invest a few dollars in an Institution of this kind. It is to such people that I intend this announcement shall appeal. I am offering a block of the Treasury Stock of this company to the public at its par value. My reasons for doing this are that I wish to erect a building and to extend the business of The Mac Levy Institute of Physical Culture and The Mac Levy Gymnasium Equipment Company.

I WANT YOU AS MY PARTNER

I need your help and suggestion. I want you to work with me and help me to secure a tremendous amount of new business.

I believe that if you could talk with me personally and go over the records of the business which I have done, see in black and white the figures which show the steady growth my business has experienced during the past ten years, examine my plans for future extension, and then look over the magnificient equipment of my Institute, and would want no further evidence that money put into my business would bring you the greatest possible returns consistent with safety and good management.

I ask you to write for my free book. I believe it will interest you. You have a few dollars that you want to invest. Why let it stand idle earning only 3 or 4 per cent that Savings Bank pay their depositors? Put it to work. Join it with mine. This Company ought to pay at least

GERM DISEASES OF SUMMER.

No One Need Fear Sickness if Mi-o-na is Used

It is the person with a weak stomach who first falls victim to the germ diseases of summer.

People with strong stomachs and natural digestion are ordinarily not subject to bowel troubles, diarrhoea, and other germ diseases that are so common and dangerous in the summer months.

A Mi-o-na tablet taken before each meal will give such health and strength to the weakest stomach that the whole system will become strong and well, and so clean and sweet that there will be no chance for disease germs to become active. Mi-o-na acts directly upon the whole digestive system, soothing and healing the inflamed stomach lining, strengthening the nerves of the solar plexus, and building up good flesh, firm muscle, and perfect health.

A great many people imagine that their headaches, dizziness, heartburn, or general despondency and weakness is a sign of fatal illness, when the whole trouble is the direct result of a weak stomach and imperfect digestion. A 50 cent box of Mi-o-na tablets will show by the great gain in health that the stomach is the cause of the poor health, and that Mi-o-na is the only remedy that will drive out all weakness, debility and disease.

Mi-o-na is so nearly infallible in curing the diseases resulting from a weakened stomach, excepting cancer of the stomach, that Wm. Madill guarantees to refund the money should the remedy not give perfect satisfaction.

Jap Empire on the Mainland of Asia.

Peace Terms will Lay Its Foundations or Japs Will Fight on to Establish It--Sea of Japan to be the Heart of the New Empire.

Chicago, Aug. 9.—The Record-Herald publishes the following from its special correspondent at Portsmouth, N.H., Mr. Walter Wellman:

There is to be a Japanese Empire on the mainland of Asia. It is to embrace Korea and Manchuria, and probably a part of Siberia. The Japan of the present is a mere island kingdom. The Japan of the future is to rule the littoral of the North Asiatic continent, reaching far into the interior comprising vast, fertile, and populous provinces. The new Japan is to be thrice as great in area and twice as great in population as the Japan of the present.

The Sea of Japan is to be the center the heart, of this new empire. That sea is to become a Japanese lake. Japan is to dominate it, and all the lands lying about it.

This dominance of the Japanese Sea and its coast country on all sides the Japanese hold is absolutely essential to their national safety.

BASIS OF PEACE TERMS.

These are the aspirations of the Japanese people at this moment. This empire-building ambition of theirs forms the basis of the peace terms which they will endeavor to impose upon Russia in the international conference whose first sessions are to be held here next week—a conference toward which the eyes of the whole civilized world are now directed.

ENGLAND AND THE U. S. AGREE, JAPAN HAS RUSSIA TO DEAL WITH

Highly important and well authenticated, is the statement which I am here able to make that both the United States and Great Britain are well aware of the intention of the Japanese to spread their empire to the Asiatic mainland, and neither Great Britain nor the United States has any objections thereto. If the need should arise under attempts to exert international pressure favorable to Russia, Great Britain would be a positive force in support of the contentions of Japan, while the attitude of the United States would be negatively friendly to the Japanese in that our Government would decline to take any action whatsoever.

With the United States and England thus aligned, an international combination strong enough to affect the peace conference is an impossibility.

Japan has Russia to deal with, and Russia alone.

Where the danger, so far as the peace conference is concerned, is likely to arise is in the disposition of Vladivostock and all that part of Siberia which is washed by the waters of the Sea of Japan. The Japanese insist that Russia must surrender once for all her aspiration to reach the Pacific through that sea as a gateway.

WILL CZAR AND HIS MINISTERS SWALLOW THIS BITTER DOSE?

And this bitter, bitter dose the Czar and his Ministers may be unable to swallow. If the Russians in their pride cannot bring themselves to acceptance of the inevitable by the stroke of a pen, the Japanese will go on pushing them back at the point of the sword.

JAPAN ACTS THE PART OF CONQUEROR, ALMOST AN ULTIMATUM

New York, Aug. 9.—According to a special correspondent of the Tribune at Portsmouth, who claims trustworthy information, Japan will present two sets of terms for the consideration of the Russian envoys, Baron Komura will submit to M. Witte and Baron Rosen a proposition which, in the estimation of Japan is extremely moderate. In substance it will involve an indemnity of approximately $750,000,000, the cession of Sakhalin, the relinquishment by Russia of all control of Manchuria and Manchurian affairs, and the recognition of Japan's protectorate over Korea.

These terms will, however, be made conditional on their immediate acceptance by Russia. Accompanying this proposition will be an outline of the extremely drastic terms which Japan will feel called on to demand in the event that Russia rejects the primary proposition, and compels Japan to continue fighting. What the latter are cannot be definitely ascertained but it is learned that they include the cessation to Japan of Vladivostock and a considerable portion of Russia's possessions in Asia.

Machine Telephone Co.

Growing Feeling That the Public are Entitled to Explanations Regarding Delay—Is The New Machine a Failure?

Mr. Homer Heard, formerly with the Canadian Machine Telephone Company, here, has taken a position with the Bell Telephone Company. This departure of their employees naturally prompts the question, "Where is this Machine Telephone Co?" Have they, after having our streets torn up for so many weeks, thereby making things unpleasant for the citizens, and after such loudly proclaimed promises of what they were going to do for the public, gone into "Innocuous Desuetude?" Are their forests of poles disfiguring our streets to be a permanent and useless fixture?

Are their employees, like the proverbial rats, leaving the sinking ship? If their contract with the city is to hold good, and our streets to be filled with their poles, why don't they do something more than promise. Many of their original subscribers will not commit suicide to learn that their contracts with this company of promises, with seemingly no performance, are now invalid. The dual system of telephones in this city has been tried and found wanting in merit, economy and in fact everything but additional expense and trouble. Let the Machine Company show they mean business or get their poles off the streets. Should this company try to explain their seemingly moribund condition by saying their switch-board is not working properly, let them explain why they inveigled citizens into signing contracts with them before they knew whether they could keep their promises. Many citizens, whilst these contracts, then in force, frightened them from taking a too often wished for working Bell Co. instrument, went without a telephone for fear their contracts would bind them to take two instruments. Let this Machine Co. get busy or get out.

The Delineator For September

The earliest creations of Autumn are attractively set forth in the September Delineator, along with the fashion comment and prophesies of Helen Berkeley-Lapp, Edward de Pomiane and other authorities in the world of styles, and there is much in the number of interest from other than the standpoint of tributes an article on the poor food question. It is the first of a series and opens the discussion by outlining the part of the consumer, the housewife, in procuring safe foods. N. Hudson Moore writes interestingly on English pottery and porcelain in "The Collector's Manual," and Dr. Grace P. Murray has a paper on the child in the nursery which will be read profitably by mothers. The hymn "Nearer My God, to Thee" is the subject of a paper by Allan Sutherland. Weymer Jay Mills concludes his "Romances of Summer Resorts," and there is an enjoyable travel sketch, describing and picturing the beautiful Lake District in England. In the way of fiction, the number contains the continuation of Albert Bigelow Paine's serial "The Lucky Piece," and of Helen M. Winslow's New England story, "At Minister Perm," and two short stories by Cornelia Atwood Pratt, and Elizabeth McCracken. There are also entertaining pastimes for children, including an animal fairy tale by L. Frank Baum. As usual many pages are devoted to domestic interests and the particular needs of woman within and without the home.

Box Car Turned Out Every 25 Minutes

C. P. R. Able to Handle Big Wheat Crop--Rolling Stock Rapidly Built

Montreal, Aug. 9.—The Canadian Pacific Railway is already preparing to handle the immense crop of wheat which all authorities concur in saying will be harvested in the Northwest this year. The company is fully alive to the situation that a tremendous number of cars will be required as soon as the movement of the grain begins, and that a severe strain will be put on rolling stock in order to supply all the demands that will be made upon it. Building this the Canadian Pacific Railway is turning out cars and locomotives at the Angus shops in this city at a rapid rate.

"We feel quite confident that the Canadian Pacific Railway will be able to handle whatever is consigned to its care of the immense wheat crop," said Mr. Nicholl, second vice-president of the company, "and I do not apprehend any shortage of cars. It is a good sign, though, when a cry is raised for more cars, and, on the contrary, when ever there is not a fear of a car shortage, it is generally because of a poor crop. But, notwithstanding the fact that there will surely be between 80,000,000 and 100,000,000 bushels of grain to be moved out this year, I think that when the harvest time comes the C. P. R. will be fully prepared.

"Perhaps you are not aware of the number of cars and locomotives we are turning out at the Angus shops?" continued Mr. McNicholl. "I may tell you that there is a fully equipped box car turned out every twenty-five minutes, and that every seven days sees a new locomotive sent out on the company's system and in a short time we expect to be able to produce a new locomotive every five days. And this is not all, for we have more locomotives out of order with other concerns which we will put in commission as soon as they are built. All this will give you an idea that we are not letting the grass grow under our feet, and it is on these facts that I base my contention that the C.P.R. will be splendidly equipped to handle the record crop which is promised."
